Mrs. Mary Blake, Nicholas Blake's mother, came to Guatemala on April 25 accompanied by her son Randy Blake, family friend Lucien Yokana, and Attorney Edward Goff. Mrs. Blake's party met with Ambassador Piedra and received a thorough briefing on the investigation to that point.

Embassy officers accompanied the party to Military Zone 20 headquarters in Santa Cruz del Quiche on April 27 where the zone commander briefed them on the actions he had taken to locate Nicholas Blake and Griffith Davis. The family hired a private investigator in Guatemala at about this time.

Attorney Edward Goff, representing the Blake family, came to Guatemala again on May 23 after spending several weeks in Chiapas, Mexico near the border with Guatemala. He was accompanied by the private investigator. Both were briefed on the status of the investigation.

Sam and Randy Blake, accompanied by friends, visited Guatemala during the first week of November and again one month later. On both occasions they met with Ambassador Piedra, the Deputy Chief of Mission, and other Embassy officers. During the November visit, Sam and Randy Blake divulged two potential leads in the case. 1) The Blake brothers had heard that two persons fitting the description of their brother and Griffith Davis had landed in a helicopter in Nebaj at the end of the first week of April. According to this story, the passengers were forcibly removed from the helicopter by Guatemalan army troops and taken to the garrison headquarters. 2) a second line of inquiry was opened by their description of contacts between a Guatemalan army procurement officer and a close business contact of the Blake family. Embassy officers immediately began to check both stories.

The helicopter story was made very difficult to check since source was unknown to the officers who worked on it. The brothers could not divulge any information that could lead back to the date or time of the event or the name of anyone who may have witnessed it. The Guatemalan military officer responsible showed the U.S. Defense Attache his log indicating there were no helicopter flights in the area described during the time frame mentioned. We have not been able to establish any information to contradict this log.

According to Sam and Randy Blake, Mrs. Remidios Diaz, a family friend and business associate living in Miami, had been approached by a Guatemalan army officer who worked in the army's procurement section. This officer, according to the story, told Ms. Diaz that his brother, a Guatemalan intelligence officer, had personal knowledge that Blake and Davis were being held by guerrillas. For a sum, it was said, an army expedition could be organized to rescue them. On hearing the story, the Ambassador asked Sam and Randy Blake to have Ms. Diaz call or write the Embassy. Embassy officers later tried to identify a procurement officer and an intelligence officer who are brothers in the Guatemalan army. No such persons could be identified. During a visit to Guatemala December 13th and 14th, a meeting took place between key officers of the Embassy, Mr. Richard Blake, Nicholas Blake's father, Mr. George Strawmueller, the missing man's uncle, and the family attorney, Mr. Edward Goff. At that time the Ambassador raised the question of the Diaz contact. Mr. Strawmueller said that he was the only member of the family who had spoken with Mrs. Diaz. He said she had been contacted by someone who offered to use his influence and knowledge to have a search made for the missing men. Based on the information he received from Ms. Diaz, Mr. Strawmueller did not pursue the offer. Mr. Strawmueller indicated that the story of a Guatemalan procurement officer and his intelligence officer brother was invented by Sam and Randy Blake to fill in details regarding the contact, details that Mr. Strawmueller and Ms. Diaz were unwilling to share. At the request of Sam and Randy Blake, Ambassador Piedra attempted to verify this with Ms. Diaz during his December consultations in the United States but was unable to reach her because she was abroad. In January she told the Department that she had asked all her Guatemalan contacts to assist the family but had no leads. There are notes in the Department of calls she made here with offers of assistance and support for the case, also. She denied any direct contacts with Guatemalan military.

On December 17, Embassy officers flew to Nebaj where they interviewed six former members of the EGP (Guerrilla Army of the Poor), a Marxist guerrilla organization operating in northern Huehuetenango and Quiche. All six had been operating in the general area of Sumal until they returned to government control in 1985.

Sumal itself is a small cluster of buildings at the end of a high mountain ridge surrounded on three sides by sheer walls of bare stone. It is not a population center of any importance, but rather is the geographical center of a zone of conflict.

None of the six ex-guerrillas had knowledge of any strangers recently observed in the area. One mentioned Cuban advisors seen in the area in 1981 as the last strangers of whom he had heard. Two other former combatants said that two "Negroes" of unknown nationality were rumored to be traveling with an EGP unit. Each of the six said that is was impossible to believe that individual EGP members happening upon the two Americans would have harmed them. All insisted that any strangers encountered would be taken to the central committee or a guerrilla officer. After these interviews, Embassy officers went to Las Violetas, a refugee camp on the outskirts of Nebaj, to interview civilians who had fled the Sumal area in recent weeks. The refugees indicated that they knew nothing of the Americans.

Regarding theories that the Guatemalans may have been alerted by Salvadoran government officials to Nick Blake's presence in the area, American officers in Washington and Guatemala consider it very likely that Guatemalan and Salvadoran intelligence services sometimes share information of mutual interest. There is no reason to believe, however, that authorities of either government have any particular interest in Nick Blake who is neither a well-known nor controversial journalist. In a country where high-visibility journalists continue to travel freely after writing articles critical of the Guatemalan government, it is not credible that intelligence services would monitor the activities of a freelance writer who was evidently unpublished on Guatemalan affairs. Had the Government of Guatemala determined that Nick Blake was a security risk, his entry into the country could easily have been blocked. Further, it is unlikely that the army would have given him a travel permit for the conflict zone in Huehuetenango, as they did in late 1984, if he was considered a threat. Griffith Davis appears to have shown no particular interest in Guatemalan politics. His status as a casual resident would have provided Guatemalan authorities with ample opportunity to expel him from the country had they wished to do so. It would have been very difficult for the activities of the two Americans to have been closely monitored while in the highlands. Many of the civil defense groups in the small villages north of Nebaj have no radio or telephone service, and depend on hand carried messages for communication with the outside. The frequency of armed encounters between army troops and insurgents in this area would argue against any plan to send a patrol or individual agent in pursuit of the two Americans. Based on the above, and all possible inquiries along this line, the Embassy concludes that is is unlikely that either of the two Americans was of special interest to Guatemalan intelligence authorities.

Concerning the supposition that an abduction took place, it should be understood that Military Zone 20, the location of the alleged sighting, is frequently visited by Embassy officers. Our contacts there are excellent. In the considered judgement of American military and civilian officers familiar with the zone and the key personalities who operate there, an abduction of American citizens is extremely unlikely. Guatemalan Lt. Col. Marin, Commander of the Nebaj garrison at the time in question, has since been moved to a sensitive position in the new civilian government of Christian Democrat Vinicio Cerezo. Embassy officers consider him one of Guatemala's best soldiers. Deputy Zone Commander Solis is a sophisticated officer who understands the political significance such an abduction would have. The zone commander, Col. Byron Lima, is considered to be an honest, straightforward soldier. This assessment is not meant to be seen as a defense of the Guatemalan military. However, the Guatemalan army has traditionally sent its best officers to the "conflictive zones" of the highlands, and the Embassy pays close attention to this critical area and the people who are assigned there.

This overview is by no means a complete summary of all actions taken by Embassy Guatemala in the search for Nicholas Blake and Griffith Davis. The Ambassador and other Embassy officers have made an ongoing series of requests for assistance and information from Guatemalan authorities at all levels, including the Chief of State. The Embassy and the Department have, as well, looked into a number of rumors which have proved to be totally groundless.

The case will remain open and active until we have solid evidence of the welfare and whereabouts of Mr. Blake and Mr. Davis. Embassy officers regularly travel to the highlands, including areas on the northern face of the Cuchumatanes Mountain chain and along the Mexican border, and always make inquiries regarding Blake, Davis and any "strangers" who might be rumored to be, or have been in the area. In the Department, all country desk officers are aware of the case should any information about the men come from another country in the Caribbean or Central American region. All U.S. Embassies in Central America have been provided details about the missing men.

As you can well understand, the disappearance of Nicholas Blake and Griffith Davis engenders frustration and concern both for the families of the missing men and for the Americans and Guatemalans charged with finding them. A solution to this case remains a very high priority in the Department of State.

Ms. Renny Smith in the Citizens Emergency Center is following the case closely, and is in frequent contact with the family and government officials on behalf of the missing men. Please encourage anyone who may be interested in this case to call her at (202) 647-5225. If your office would like to be kept informed of developments, please call and she will contact you whenever there is significant activity on the case.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

1. THE FOLLOWING IS EMBASSY TRANSLATION OF THE ENTIRE TEXT OF TWO ARTICLES ON U.S. POLICY IN NICARAGUA PUBLISHED FEBRUARY 15 AND 17 IN THE SWEDISH-LANGUAGE DAILY "HUFVUDSTADSBLADET" BY KAJ BAERLUND, A SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT AND PROMINENT FINLAND-SWEDISH TRADE UNIONIST, WHO VISITED NICARAGUA MOST RECENTLY JANUARY 23-27 WITH SEVERAL COLLEAGUES. HE PREVIOUSLY VISITED THE COUNTRY IN NOVEMBER 1982 AND WROTE HIS IMPRESSIONS AT THAT TIME IN THE SAME NEWSPAPER.

"NICARAGUA'S WAY TO DEMOCRACY" (FEBRUARY 15, 1986)

-- IN 1982, THE DEBATE ON NICARAGUA'S FUTURE POLITICAL SYSTEM WAS LIVELY WITHIN THE COUNTRY, BUT PERHAPS ESPECIALLY OUTSIDE IT. THE REAGAN REGIME IN THE U.S. MOTIVATED ITS INCREASINGLY AGGRESSIVE ATTITUDE TO THE SANDINISTAS IN NICARAGUA WITH THEIR ALLEGED TOTALITARIAN TENDENCIES. FOR THEIR PART, THE SANDINISTAS PROMISED TO ARRANGE PUBLIC AND GENERAL ELECTIONS AT THE LATEST BY 1985.

-- THE U.S. POSITION ON THE SANDINISTAS SHARPENED ALL THE MORE DURING THE REAGAN ADMINISTRATION. THE SANDINISTAS WERE BRANDED AS A PART OF THE SOVIET UNION'S, AS IT WAS CALLED EXPANSIONIST AMBITIONS IN THE REGION. AGAINST SUCH A MADE-UP BACKGROUND, THE USG, WITH THE HELP OF THE CIA, INCREASED ITS SUPPORT TO THE COUNTER-REVOLUTIONARIES, THE SO-CALLED CONTRAS. THE CONTRA TROOPS OPERATED WITH THE BORDERLANDS HONDURAS AND COSTA RICA AS BASES.

-- IN A SITUATION OF ESCALATING WAR, GENERAL ELECTIONS WERE CARRIED OUT IN NICARAGUA IN NOVEMBER 1984. JUST BEFORE THE ELECTIONS, THE EXTREME RIGHT-WING PARTIES

WITHDREW FROM THE ELECTIONS WITH THE ACCUSATION THAT THE ELECTIONS WOULD NOT BE HONEST. SEVERAL OPPOSITION PARTIES BOTH TO THE RIGHT AND LEFT OF THE SANDINISTAS DID HOWEVER TAKE PART.

-- THE ELECTION WAS MONITORED BY AN ABUNDANCE OF INTERNATIONAL OBSERVERS, AMONG OTHERS A WHOLE NUMBER OF FINNS. PRACTICALLY ALL CONSIDERED THE ELECTION AS EXCEPTIONALLY WELL-ARRANGED AND HONEST, ESPECIALLY AGAINST THE BACKGROUND OF EXPERIENCE IN THE REGION. THE SANDINISTAS RECEIVED SLIGHTLY OVER TWO-THIRDS OF THE VOTES BOTH IN THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS AND THE ELECTIONS FOR THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, THE PARLIAMENT.

-- DURING OUR VISIT NOW IN JANUARY, WE HAD THE POSSIBILITY TO ENGAGE IN RATHER DETAILED CONVERSATIONS WITH LEADERS FOR THE PARTIES IN PARLIAMENT. CHARACTERISTIC WAS THE FACT THAT THE CONSERVATIVES, THE CHRISTIAN SOCIALISTS, AND THE SANDINISTAS WERE IN AGREEMENT ON MANY BASIC QUESTIONS. THE UNCLASSIFIED

REPRESENTATIVE FOR THE CONSERVATIVES ACTUALLY ASSERTED IN HIS OUTLINE OF THE DISCUSSION THAT THE GREATEST PROBLEM WAS THAT "THE SANDINISTAS HAD THE MAJORITY."

-- THE SOCIAL INSTITUTIONS STILL HAVE TODAY A POST-REVOLUTIONARY STAMP. THERE ARE COURTS MEANT FOR TRIALS OF THE SOMOZA REGIME'S SYMPATHIZERS. THE GOVERNMENT HAS A DOMINANT POSITION VIS-A-VIS THE PARLIAMENT. THE COUNTERREVOLUTION, FINANCED BY THE U.S., HAS LED TO A STATE OF EMERGENCY AND PRESS CENSORSHIP. IN VIEW OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES, THESE CONDITIONS ARE HARDLY SURPRISING OR UNIQUE.

-- THE FACT IS THAT IN ANY CASE THE PROCESS OF DEMOCRATIZATION IS CONTINUING, DESPITE THE WAR. SINCE THE ELECTION FOR A LITTLE OVER A YEAR AGO, REPRESENTATIVES FOR PARLIAMENT HAVE VISITED A NUMBER OF COUNTRIES IN LATIN AMERICA AND WEST EUROPE TO STUDY MODELS FOR A NEW DEMOCRATIC CONSITUTION. IT IS A COMPLETELY NEW TASK IN A LAND WHICH HAS BEEN GOVERNED BY DICTATORS OR DIRECT BY THE MILITARY FROM THE U.S. UNDER THIS WHOLE CENTURY.

-- THE TIMETABLE JUST NOW IS THAT THEY ARE TRYING TO GET THE NEW CONSTITUTION ADOPTED WITHIN ABOUT ONE YEAR. THERE ARE OBVIOUSLY SMALLER DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE PARLIAMENTARY PARTIES ABOUT THE PROCEDURE FOR PREPARING THE CONSTITUTION, BUT THEY DO NOT APPEAR IRRECONCILABLE. THE MOST THAT APPEARS TO BE UNDER DISCUSSION IS WHETHER ONE NEEDS A FORMAL PLEBISCITE TO PLACE THE DOT OVER THE I OR NOT. ALL ARE IN AGREEMENT THAT THE PARLIAMENT

SHALL APPROVE THE TEXT IN THE CONSITUTION.

-- PRACTICALLY ALL THE PARTIES APPEAR TO SUPPORT A CONSTI-TUTIONAL MODEL WHICH RECALLS MUCH FROM THE U.S.
THE CONSTITUTION WOULD THUS BE QUITE PRESIDENT-CENTERED.
THE PARLIAMENT WOULD, ANYHOW, RECEIVE A STRONGER POSITION THAN NOW. AMONG OTHER THINGS, IT WOULD RECEIVE THE RIGHT TO DECIDE ABOUT THE STATE BUDGET, WHICH LIKE SOME OTHER MATTERS, IS NOW RESERVED TO THE GOVERNMENT BECAUSE OF THE WAR SITUATION. DISCUSSIONS ARE CONTINUING ABOUT THE EXTENT TO WHICH THE SUPREME COURT WOULD RECEIVE A CONSTITUTIONAL COURT STATUS WHICH THE CORRESPONDING BODY HAS IN THE U.S.
-- IT WAS ESPECIALLY THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE CON-SERVATIVES WHO UNDERSCORED THE IMPORTANCE OF APPROVING THE NEW CONSTITUTION AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. HE EVEN MEANT THAT THE WAR COULD END QUITE QUICKLY AFTER THE NEW CONSTITUTION HAS BEEN ACCEPTED. HE INFORMED THAT HE ALSO REGARDS HIMSELF AS REPRESENTING THOSE RIGHT-WING GROUPS WHICH PLACED THEMSELVES OUTSIDE OF

THE ELECTORAL PROCESS RECENTLY -- AND WHICH THEREFORE STAND NEAR THE "CONTRAS." THIS INDICATES A KIND OF SPLIT INSIDE THE PARLIAMENTARY RIGHTIST OPPOSITION, BECAUSE THE SAME RIGHTIST REPRESENTATIVE STRONGLY CONDEMNED THE EXTREME RIGHTIST PARTIES' DECISION TO REFUSE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ELECTION.

-- IT CAME OUT IN OUR DISCUSSIONS WITH PARTY REPRESENTATIVES THAT DIFFERENCES OF OPINION AMONG THE PARTIES MOST OF ALL CONCERN INTERNAL POLITICAL DISPUTES. PEOPLE DISCUSS THE ECONOMY, POLITICAL RIGHTS, AND THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTION. PEOPLE ARE QUITE UNITED IN THE BASIC INTERNATIONAL QUESTION. THE RIGHTIST REPRESENTATIVE HIMSELF CONDEMNED THE U.S. INTERVENTION IN THE WAR AND UNDERSCORED THE IMPORTANCE OF NEGOTIATIONS.

-- IN PARLIAMENTARY WORK, THE SANDINISTAS HAVE SUPPORTED A NUMBER OF PROPOSALS FROM BOTH THE RIGHT AND LEFT OPPOSITION. AND THE PARLIAMENTARY SITUATION APPEARS SURPRISINGLY NORMAL FOR A DEVELOPING COUNTRY WHICH IS CARRYING ON A WAR AND WHICH HAS A COMPLETE LACK OF DEMOCRATIC TRADITIONS. WHAT SEEMS TO MOST IRRITATE THE SANDINISTAS' OPPOSITION IS THE GOVERNMENT'S SOMEWHAT "LEFTIST" INTERNATIONAL ORIENTATION. THE SANDINISTAS ARE OBSERVERS IN THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC INTERNATIONAL. NOWADAYS THERE ARE RELATIONS TO THE SOVIET UNION WHICH EARLIER WAS AN UNKNOWN QUANTITY IN THE REGION.

-- IN THE MASS MEDIA AREA IT IS CLEAR THAT NO GREAT ADJUSTMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE. IT IS CLEAR THAT THE WAR SITUATION HAS LED TO A CERTAIN SENSITIVITY VIS-A-VIS THE OPPOSITION PRESS, ESPECIALLY REGARDING INFORMATION
UNCLASSIFIED

WHICH IS CONSIDERED TO BE SENSITIVE FROM THE VIEWPOINT OF SECURITY POLICY. BUT THEN ONE MUST ALSO CONTINUALLY KEEP IN MIND THE FACT THAT THE COUNTRY IS REALLY AT WAR. LAST YEAR, THE COUNTRY LOST 2000 MEN AND ANOTHER 5000 WERE WOUNDED, MANY MORE THAN THE U.S. LOST DURING THE ENTIRE VIETNAM WAR, IN PROPORTION TO POPULATION.

-- THE CHURCH IN NICARAGUA IS A SPECIAL INTERNAL POLITICAL CONFLICT FACTOR. THE ARCHBISHOP IN MANAGUA, NOW CARDINAL IN THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH, HAS BEEN A CONSISTENT CRITIC OF THE REVOLUTION SINCE 1979. THE NEW POPE IN ROME HAS STRONGLY SUPPORTED THE CARDINAL, WHO MOST RECENTLY HAS COME CLOSER TO THE U.S. AND THE CONTRAS. THE SANDINISTAS FEEL OPEN BITTERNESS TOWARD THE HIGH PRELATE, WHO HAS OBVIOUSLY DECIDED TO SUPPORT VERY CONSERVATIVE SOCIAL SOLUTIONS.

-- THE POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT WE COULD OBSERVE GAVE NO PROOF FOR THE AMERICAN PROPAGANDA ASSERTION THAT NICARAGUA WOULD BE ON THE WAY TO A TOTALITARIAN POLITICAL SYSTEM. IN VIEW OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES, IT APPEARS, QUITE THE CONTRARY, THAT STRIVINGS TOWARD A DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM ARE SURPRISINGLY PERSISTENT. THE CONTINUAL ATTACKS FROM THE U.S.-FINANCED MERCENARIES, THE U.S. ECONOMIC BLOCKADE, AND THE COUNTRY'S POVERTY TOGETHER WITH A COMPLETE LACK OF DEMOCRATIC TRADITIONS COULD EASILY HAVE GIVEN REASON FOR ANOTHER DEVELOPMENT. THE SANDINISTAS HAVE AT LEAST UP TO NOW DISAPPOINTED REAGAN IN THE QUESTION OF EXCUSES FOR THE MILITARY AGGRESSION HE IS FINANCING TODAY.

"NICARAGUA'S GREATEST PROBLEM IS THE ECONOMY"
(FEBRUARY 17, 1986)

-- NICARAGUA'S ECONOMIC POSITION HAS CLEARLY WORSENED DURING THE PAST THREE YEARS. THE COUNTRY BELONGS TO

THE POOREST, AND HAS ONLY THREE MILLION INHABITANTS, OF WHICH HALF ARE UNDER 15 YEARS OLD. PUBLIC AND PRIVATE U.S. GRANTS FINANCE A MERCENARY ARMY OF OVER 10,000 MEN WITH THE MAIN GOAL OF TRYING TO RUIN NICARAGUA'S ECONOMY AND POLITICAL STRUCTURE. THE SANDINISTAS HAVE BEFORE THEM A FORMIDABLE MILITARY AND POLITICAL, BUT PERHAPS MOSTLY ECONOMIC TASK.

-- IT IS DIFFICULT TO MAKE OUT THE REAGAN REGIME'S REAL AIMS WITH THE WAR AGAINST NICARAGUA. AT ANY RATE, IT IS OBVIOUS THAT THEY ARE TRYING TO WEAKEN THE SANDINISTAS' POLITICAL BASE BY HARMING THE ECONOMY OF THE COUNTRY. WITH THAT, THE U.S. HAS DECLARED LAST YEAR AGAINST NICARAGUA AND THE WAR WHICH THE U.S. IS CARRYING OUT IN A DECISIVE WAY HAVE MEANT DIFFICULT ECONOMIC, AND THROUGH THEM, SOCIAL PROBLEMS FOR

NICARAGUA'S GOVERNMENT.
-- THE SOMOZA REGIME LEFT BEHIND A FOREIGN DEBT OF ABOUT 1.6 BILLION DOLLARS. THIS CORRESPONDS TO ABOUT FIVE YEARS EXPORT INCOME. AND THEN ONE SHOULD REALIZE THAT THE DEBTS CAME MOSTLY FROM LOANS FROM PRIVATE AMERICAN BANKS, WHICH ARE IN NO WAY INTERESTED IN THE BORROWER'S SOCIAL INTERESTS. WHAT IS MORE, REAGAN ALREADY IN 1982 STOPPED ALL AMERICAN AID TO NICARAGUA AND HAS SINCE THAT TIME, WITH THE HELP OF ITS DOMINANT ECONOMIC ROLE, SEEN TO IT THAT THE WORLD BANK AND IMF STOPPED THEIR HELP TO NICARAGUA.

-- SINCE 1982, NICARAGUA HAS BEEN ALL THE MORE DEPENDENT OF BILATERAL DEVELOPMENT AID. ALSO HERE THERE HAVE BEEN DIFFICULTIES AS A RESULT OF PROBLEMS WITH FINANCING THEIR OWN SHARES WHICH MANY PROJECTS REQUIRE. IN THIS CONNECTION, CONTRIBUTIONS FROM COUNTRIES WITH INTERESTS IN BILATERAL SUPPORT HAVE BEEN EMPHASIZED. FOR EXAMPLE, CANADA HAS BEEN SURPRISINGLY ACTIVE, BUT FINLAND'S CONTRIBUTIONS ALSO HAVE BEEN APPRECIATED.
-- AS WAS SAID, THE WAR HAS CAUSED GREAT ECONOMIC DAMAGE. ACCORDING TO OFFICIAL INFORMATION, 40 PERCENT OF THE STATE'S BUDGET GOES TO DEFENSE. ABOUT 20 PERCENT OF THE LABOR FORCE ARE ENGAGED IN DEFENSE. IT MEANS THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN FORCED TO EXTREMELY HARD EFFORTS TO MAINTAIN, NOT TO MENTION WIDEN, THE PUBLIC SERVICES WHICH WERE CARRIED OUT DURING THE FIRST THREE YEARS AFTER THE 1979 REVOLUTION.

-- THE GOVERNMENT ESTIMATES THAT THE U.S. BOYCOTT MEASURES HAVE LED TO ECONOMIC LOSSES OF APPROXIMATELY
UNCLASSIFIED

700 MILLION DOLLARS. BESIDES THE HUMAN LOSSES, THE WAR HAS MEANT DAMAGES OF 1.5 BILLION DOLLARS, ACCORDING TO THE INFORMATION WE RECEIVED. IT IS OBVIOUS THAT THE COUNTRY FINDS ITSELF IN AN ECONOMIC STRANGLE HOLD.

-- MILITARILY THE SITUATION IS DIFFERENT. THE "CONTRAS" SEEM TO BE CLEARLY ON THE DECLINE. RECRUITMENT OF NEW SOLDIERS APPEARS SLUGGISH. THERE IS PLENTY OF MONEY, VIA THE U.S., BUT THE POSSIBILITIES FOR POLITICAL SUPPORT INSIDE NICARAGUA HAVE WORSENED RATHER THAN IMPROVED.

-- MOREOVER, IT APPEARS THAT THE CONTRAS ARE NOT EVEN TRYING TO GET POLITICAL SUPPORT. THEIR MILITARY ACTIVITY CONCENTRATES ON TERRORIST ACTS IN LIGHTLY SETTLED REGIONS, MOST OF ALL AGAINST PUBLIC SERVICES AND THE ECONOMY. VILLAGE TEACHERS AND HEALTH CENTERS, AS WELL AS GRAIN WAREHOUSES APPEAR TO BE THE MAIN TARGET FOR TERRORIST ACTIONS. AROUND 100, ALMOST A QUARTER OF THE COUNTRY'S HEALTH CENTERS, ARE OUT OF COMMISSION BECAUSE OF ATTACKS.

-- ALREADY THREE YEARS AGO, IT WAS STATED THAT THE CONTRAS HAD CLEAR POLITICAL AIMS. THEY WANTED TO CONQUER AN AREA WITHIN NICARAGUA TO ESTABLISH A "GOVERNMENT" WHICH COULD ASK FOR OFFICIAL INTERNATIONAL AID, IN FACT, MOST OF ALL FROM THE U.S. NOTHING HAS COME FROM THIS AIM. THE "CONTRAS" HAVE BEEN ABLE TO MOUNT EFFECTIVE TERROR RAIDS IN THE NORTHERN REGIONS, BUT THEY HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO ACHIEVE A LASTING MILITARY POSITION IN ANY PORTION OF THE COUNTRY.

-- THE GOVERNMENT COUNTS ON BEING ABLE TO ACHIEVE A DECISIVE CHANGE IN THE MILITARY SITUATION DURING THE COMING YEAR. VICE PRESIDENT SERGIO RAMIREZ, WITH WHOM WE HAD A LENGTHY DISCUSSION, JUDGED THE SITUATION AS DIFFICULT IN ANY CASE. EVEN IF THE "CONTRAS" COULD BE PUSHED BACK, WHICH HE CONSIDERED LIKELY, THE U.S. POSITION WOULD STILL BE A GREAT PROBLEM. WOULD THE U.S. IN SUCH A CASE GO IN DIRECT, MILITARILY,TO AVOID A POLITICAL HUMILIATION?

-- FROM RAMIREZ' ANALYSIS ONE JUDGES THAT THE THE SANDINISTAS HAVE NO ABSOLUTE PLANS TO TRY TO DESTROY THE CONTRAS -- FOR POLITICAL REASONS. THEY WANT, IN THIS WAY, TO AVOID AN AMERICAN INVASION. AT THE SAME TIME, THEY ARE CONTINUALLY LOOKING FOR A POLITICAL SOLUTION. THE SO-CALLED CONTADORA GROUP HAS RECEIVED SUPPORT FROM EIGHT COUNTRIES IN LATIN AMERICA. MOREOVER, THE EEC COUNTRIES, AND MANY OTHERS WITH THEM, HAVE PLACED THEMSELVES BEHIND A NEGOTIATED SOLUTION FOR PEACE IN THE ENTIRE REGION. IT ITS UNCLASSIFIED

POLITICAL ACTIVITY, THE U.S. HAS BECOME QUITE ISOLATED.

-- AFTER MY LATEST VISIT TO NICARAGUA, THE QUESTION OF HOW THE U.S. BELIEVES IT CAN HANDLE THE SITUATION IN NICARAGUA HAS BECOME TOPICAL. THE REAGAN REGIME HAS OPENLY WRITTEN OFF THE THOUGHT THAT NICARAGUA COULD OPENLY AND FREELY DECIDE ABOUT ITS OWN AFFAIRS. INSTEAD, THE U.S. OBVIOUSLY WANTS TO ESTABLISH IN NICARAGUA A LEADERSHIP WHICH IS DIFFERENT FROM THE ONE WHICH WAS ELECTED IN PUBLIC ELECTIONS, WHICH IS NOW IN POWER.

-- THE U.S.-FINANCED "CONTRAS" HAVE TODAY OBVIOUSLY A VERY INSIGNIFICANT SUPPORT AMONG THE NICARAGUAN POPULATION. FOR THEY HAVE ALREADY SHOWN THEIR COLORS IN THEIR INDISCRIMINATE TERROR ACTS AND THEIR CONTINUED DEPENDENCE ON THE LEADERSHIP OF SOMOZA'S FEARED NATIONAL GUARD AND THE U.S. AT ANY RATE, THE "CONTRAS" AND THEIR EXTREME RIGHTIST SYMPATHIZERS ARE THE ONLY POLITICAL BASE ON WHICH THE U.S. COULD BUILD ITS "OWN" GOVERNMENT.

-- MORE UNEQUIVOCABLY THAN DURING THE LAST VISIT I SEE SUPPORT FOR THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS WHICH IS GOING ON UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF THE SANDINISTAS AS THE ONLY HOPE FOR NICARAGUA. THE OTHER ALTERNATIVE IS A U.S.-SUPPORTED MILITARY REGIME WITH STRONG SIMILARITIES TO THE DICTATORSHIP WHICH THE PEOPLE'S RISING IN 1979 OVERTHREW. ESPECIALLY AGAINST THAT BACKGROUND, IT IS OF EXTREME IMPORTANCE THAT FINLAND TOO CONTINUE ITS AID TO BUILD UP NICARAGUA'S INDUSTRIAL LIFE AND BASIC SOCIAL SERVICES.

-- UP TO NOW, FINNISH AID HAS BEEN BOTH EFFECTIVE AND WELL-DIRECTED. THIS YEAR, FINLAND IS EXPECTED TO GIVE 5 MILLION MARKS (ABOUT DOLS 950,000) IN DIRECT AID AND 27 MILLION MARKS (ABOUT DOLS 5.1 MILLION) IN ADVANTAGEOUS LOANS TO NICARAGUA. BESIDES OUR POLITICAL AID, THIS IS OUR MOST CONCRETE METHOD TO SAY OUR VIEWS. HERE WE STILL LAG FAR BEHIND, FOR EXAMPLE, SWEDEN.

RELEASEI

Dear Ms. Snowe:

Thank you for your letter of December 20 about the missing Americans Nicholas Blake and Griffith Davis who vanished in the Guatemalan highlands in late March or early April 1985. In response to your inquiries our Embassy in Guatemala and officers in the Department of State have reviewed their actions on behalf of the men and double checked, to the best of their ability, the most recent information presented by Sam and Randy Blake. This letter responds to your request for a written report on our efforts, provides you with the results of our review, and gives a reaction to some of the theories put forward about the missing men.

The case first came to the Embassy's attention when an American citizen called the consular section on April 8, 1985, to report that a friend, American citizen Griffith Davis, was overdue from a walking trip in Guatemala's western highlands. According to the caller, Davis was to meet friends in Nebaj, a market town in the Department of Quiche, on March 29. She thought it unlikely that he was purposely overdue as he had planned to attend his sister's wedding in the United States during the second week in April. Davis was traveling with an acquaintance named Nick Blake, she said, who she thought was an American living in Antigua, near Guatemala City.

On April 8, Embassy officers confirmed the American nationality of both of the missing men through immigration records. A telephone check of registration records at the Hotel Central in Huehuetenango confirmed the report that the men met and spent the night of March 25 at the hotel before beginning their journey. Consular officers called National Police and Treasury Police headquarters and asked that units in the western highlands be alerted. Catholic and Protestant missionary groups with people working in the region were also alerted. That evening, a consular officer was able to speak by telephone with a British citizen friend of Nick Blake, Michael Shawcross. Shawcross confirmed the basics of the story given by the original caller and said that he too was concerned for the men's safety.

On April 9, Shawcross, German citizen Mikki-Linden, and the U.S. citizen who first brought the case to our attention met with an Embassy officer in the Chancery. Shawcross said that Blake was a working journalist with an interest in the insurgency in the western highlands. Blake might take an opportunity to spend time with the guerrillas, said Shawcross. Davis was described as a long-term Guatemalan resident and an experienced hiker who had no political interests, but had long wanted to hike through the area in question. Blake and Davis, according to their friends, had met only recently. Shawcross was able to give a general description of the planned route. The men had planned to take a bus from Huehuetenango to San Juan Ixchoy where they were to begin their walk east to Nebaj.

Embassy officers called the military zone headquarters in Huehuetenango and Quiche later that morning, requesting the commanders' assistance in the search for the missing Americans. The Embassy then made a telegraphic report to the Department outlining the situation. The Department began a search of passport records in order to locate and contact the families in the United States.

On April 10, the Embassy Defense Attache followed an earlier telephone call with a letter to the Guatemalan Chief of Military Intelligence requesting assistance in finding the lost Americans.

During the following week, Embassy officers tried to track rumors that messages had been received from Nick Blake by another American friend, and by the owner of the small Antigua pension where Nick Blake generally stayed in Guatemala. The American Embassy in San Jose reported that the friend told Embassy officers he had received a note at Blake's Antigua pension on March 31. That note supposedly said Blake would be in Nebaj between April 1 and 3. When Blake did not arrive in Nebaj, the friend returned to Antigua, where the owner of the pension said that another person, name unknown, had left a message that Blake would be unable to meet the friend. Embassy officers in Guatemala were able to question him regarding this sequence of events later. He said that he had been misunderstood when interviewed by our officers in Costa Rica, that he had received no message. The pension owner had a somewhat different story to tell. He said he had received two written messages in early April, purportedly from Nick Blake, saying that his return would be delayed and to say nothing to the authorities. The pension owner now says that he destroyed the notes. The Embassy believes there were never any notes. The Department contacted the mothers of the missing men April 13th. They had not heard from their sons and agreed that there was real reason for concern. Within a week, the Blakes had drawn on many of their own contacts with connections in Central America to help locate their son. Officials at the highest level of the Administration and several Congressmen were contacted by the family for assistance.

On April 18, two Embassy officers in a chartered helicopter flew to the Department of Huehuetenango and Quiche to investigate the disappearance. Accompanying the officers were the consular section fraud investigator (a veteran of the Guatemalan national police) and an Embassy security agent who speaks the area's predominate dialect. The use of a helicopter was required because the route planned by Blake and Davis between San Juan Ixcoy and Nebaj is serviced only by hiking trails and includes some of the roughest high country in Central America. In San Juan Ixcoy, where Blake and Davis left the bus and began their trek, Embassy officers met two Guatemalan army intelligence specialists who were conducting their own search for the missing Americans. The Embassy team was able to trace the route followed by Blake and Davis from San Juan Ixcoy on March 26 through San Francisco Las Flores and Mixlaj to the village of Llano, along the border between Quiche and Huehuetenango, several days later. It appears that on the morning of March 29 or 30, Blake and Davis left Llano, saying they were heading to Salquil, a large model village which can be reached by road from Nebaj. The commander of the army detachment at Las Majadas, the military outpost closest to Llano, said that he was told by Llano villagers on March 29 that two Americans were requesting permission to go to Sumal, a stronghold of the EGP (Guerrilla Army of the Poor). The Lieutenant said he instead gave the Americans permission to travel to Salquil. Villagers at Mixlaj, where Blake and Davis had spent a night during their trip, also said that the Americans had expressed an interest in going to Sumal. The villagers said they told Blake and Davis not to go to Sumal because the area was dangerous.

The date of their departure from Llano was March 29 according to the Llano villagers, and March 30, according to the Lieutenant at Las Majadas, who never met Blake and Davis. Embassy officers in Guatemala find no significance in the difference in dates. They believe it is very likely that the villagers erred, as no written record was kept. No trace of the whereabouts of Blake and Davis was found from the time they left Llano. At one point the Blake family heard their son may have been involved in a battle, but their confusion stemmed from the account of our Embassy officers flight into Salquil, where the army detachment mistook their helicopter as one bringing in reinforcements for a firefight then in progress about five miles from the village. According to the Lieutenant in charge of the Salquil garrison, Blake and Davis never arrived at Salquil. Embassy officers then backtracked to Quilen Novillo, the only occupied village between El Llano and Salquil. Villagers at Quilen Novillo said that the missing Americans had not passed through the village. At Nebaj, interviews with townspeople and military officials turned up no sighting of Blake and Davis. However, it was apparent that townspeople in Nebaj were well aware of the search for the Americans. None of the villages along the planned route are garrisoned by the Guatemalan army. There are no indications that Blake and Davis had any contact with regular government forces. Throughout the search, Embassy officers distributed flyers which included photos and descriptions of Blake and Davis, as well as numbers and addresses to contact in case someone had information to report. It should be added that this trip included a certain degree of physical risk on the part of the Embassy team. The village of Mixlaj, for example, is considered a dangerous place for official Americans.

Another American citizen friend of Nicholas Blake told Embassy officers in San Jose, Costa Rica, he had talked with Blake and Davis in Huehuetenango the night before they began their trip and Blake had said that he and Davis were going to "back door" into the guerrilla zone, avoiding the army patrols he believed were blocking the area. Blake fully expected to be "caught" (Blake's words) by the army or the guerrillas, according to this friend.

Lieutenant Colonel Jose Solis, Deputy Commander of Military Zone 20 (Quiche) came to the Embassy on April 30 to brief the Defense Attache and consular officers on a planned army sweep through the area in which Blake and Davis were believed to have disappeared. The sweep, involving some 450 infantrymen, began the following day. Units were broken into reinforced squads and employed in small "force patrols". This tactic involved greater risk as larger units are normally employed in such areas, but the smaller patrols offered more thorough coverage. Guatemalan sources reported two officers and ten enlisted men killed in the sweep. No sign of the missing Americans was reported.

On April 25, an Embassy officer in a chartered light aircraft, dropped leaflets over the Sumal area. The leaflets, printed in Spanish and the prevalent Indian dialect, Ixchil, had photos of both men. Leaflets were also provided to the zone headquarters for distribution to army patrol leaders and civil guard units.

Mrs. Mary Blake, Nicholas Blake's mother, came to Guatemala on April 25 accompanied by her son Randy Blake, family friend Lucien Yokana, and Attorney Edward Goff. Mrs. Blake's party met with Ambassador Piedra and received a thorough briefing on the investigation to that point.

Embassy officers accompanied the party to Military Zone 20 headquarters in Santa Cruz del Quiche on April 27 where the zone commander briefed them on the actions he had taken to locate Nicholas Blake and Griffith Davis. The family hired a private investigator in Guatemala at about this time.

Attorney Edward Goff, representing the Blake family, came to Guatemala again on May 23 after spending several weeks in Chiapas, Mexico near the border with Guatemala. He was accompanied by the private investigator. Both were briefed on the status of the investigation.

Sam and Randy Blake, accompanied by friends, visited Guatemala during the first week of November and again one month later. On both occasions they met with Ambassador Piedra, the Deputy Chief of Mission, and other Embassy officers. During the November visit, Sam and Randy Blake divulged two potential leads in the case. 1) The Blake brothers had heard that two persons fitting the description of their brother and Griffith Davis had landed in a helicopter in Nebaj at the end of the first week of April. According to this story, the passengers were forcibly removed from the helicopter by Guatemalan army troops and taken to the garrison headquarters. 2) a second line of inquiry was opened by their description of contacts between a Guatemalan army procurement officer and a close business contact of the Blake family. Embassy officers immediately began to check both stories.

The helicopter story was made very difficult to check since the source was unknown to the officers who worked on it. The brothers could not divulge any information that could lead back to the date or time of the event or the name of anyone who may have witnessed it. The Guatemalan military officer responsible showed the U.S. Defense Attache his log indicating there were no helicopter flights in the area described during the time frame mentioned. We have not been able to establish any information to contradict this log.

According to Sam and Randy Blake, Mrs. Remidios Diaz, a family friend and business associate living in Miami, had been approached by a Guatemalan army officer who worked in the army's procurement section. This officer, according to the story, told Mrs. Diaz that his brother, a Guatemalan intelligence officer, had personal knowledge that Blake and Davis were being held by guerrillas. For a sum, it was said, an army expedition could be organized to rescue them. On hearing the story, the Ambassador asked Sam and Randy Blake to have Mrs. Diaz call or write the Embassy. Embassy officers later tried to identify a procurement officer and an intelligence officer who are brothers in the Guatemalan army. No such persons could be identified. During a visit to Guatemala December 13th and 14th, a meeting took place between key officers of the Embassy, Mr. Richard Blake, Nicholas Blake's father, Mr. George Strawmueller, the missing man's uncle, and the family attorney, Mr. Edward Goff. At that time the Ambassador raised the question of the Diaz contact. Mr. Strawmueller said that he was the only member of the family who had spoken with Mrs. Diaz. He said she had been contacted by someone who offered to use his influence and knowledge to have a search made for the missing men. Based on the information he received from Mrs. Diaz, Mr. Strawmueller did not pursue the offer. Mr. Strawmueller indicated that the story of a Guatemalan procurement officer and his intelligence officer brother was invented by Sam and Randy Blake to fill in details regarding the contact, details that Mr. Strawmueller and Mrs. Diaz were unwilling to share. At the request of Sam and Randy Blake, Ambassador Piedra attempted to verify this with Mrs. Diaz during his December consultations in the United States but was unable to reach her because she was abroad. In January she told the Department that she had asked all her Guatemalan contacts to assist the family but had no leads. There are notes in the Department of calls she made here with offers of assistance and support for the case, also. She denied any direct contacts with Guatemalan military.

On December 17, Embassy officers flew to Nebaj where they interviewed six former members of the EGP (Guerrilla Army of the Poor), a Marxist guerrilla organization operating in northern Huehuetenango and Quiche. All six had been operating in the general area of Sumal until they returned to government control in 1985.

Sumal itself is a small cluster of buildings at the end of a high mountain ridge surrounded on three sides by sheer walls of bare stone. It is not a population center of any importance, but rather is the geographical center of a zone of conflict.

None of the six ex-guerrillas had knowledge of any strangers recently observed in the area. One mentioned Cuban advisors seen in the area in 1981 as the last strangers of whom he had heard. Two other former combatants said that two "Negroes" of unknown nationality were rumored to be traveling with an EGP unit. Each of the six said that is was impossible to believe that individual EGP members happening upon the two Americans would have harmed them. All insisted that any strangers encountered would be taken to the central committee or a guerrilla officer. After these interviews, Embassy officers went to Las Violetas, a refugee camp on the outskirts of Nebaj, to interview civilians who had fled the Sumal area in recent weeks. The refugees indicated that they knew nothing of the Americans.

Regarding theories that the Guatemalans may have been alerted by Salvadoran government officials to Nick Blake's presence in the area, American officers in Washington and Guatemala consider it very likely that Guatemalan and Salvadoran intelligence services sometimes share information of mutual interest. There is no reason to believe, however, that authorities of either government have any particular interest in Nick Blake who is neither a well-known nor controversial journalist. In a country where high-visibility journalists continue to travel freely after writing articles critical of the Guatemalan government, it is not credible that intelligence services would monitor the activities of a freelance writer who was evidently unpublished on Guatemalan affairs. Had the Government of Guatemala determined that Nick Blake was a security risk, his entry into the country could easily have been blocked. Further, it is unlikely that the army would have given him a travel permit for the conflict zone in Huehuatenango, as they did in late 1984, if he was considered a threat. Griffith Davis appears to have shown no particular interest in Guatemalan politics. His status as a casual resident would have provided Guatemalan authorities with ample opportunity to expel him from the country had they wished to do so. It would have been very difficult for the activities of the two Americans to have been closely monitored while in the highlands. Many of the civil defense groups in the small villages north of Nebaj have no radio or telephone service, and depend on hand carried messages for communication with the outside. The frequency of armed encounters between army troops and insurgents in this area would argue against any plan to send a patrol or individual agent in pursuit of the two Americans. Based on the above, and all possible inquiries along this line, the Embassy concludes that is is unlikely that either of the two Americans was of special interest to Guatemalan intelligence authorities.

Concerning the supposition that an abduction took place, it should be understood that Military Zone 20, the location of the alleged sighting, is frequently visited by Embassy officers. Our contacts there are excellent. In the considered judgement of American military and civilian officers familiar with the zone and the key personalities who operate there, an abduction of American citizens is extremely unlikely. Guatemalan Lt. Col. Marin, Commander of the Nebaj garrison at the time in question, has since been moved to a sensitive position in the new civilian government of Christian Democrat Vinicio Cerezo. Embassy officers consider him one of Guatemala's best soldiers. Deputy Zone Commander Solis is a sophisticated officer who understands the political significance such an abduction would have. The zone commander, Col. Byron Lima, is considered to be an honest, straightforward soldier. This assessment is not meant to be seen as a defense of the Guatemalan military. However, the Guatemalan army has traditionally sent its best officers to the "conflictive zones" of the highlands, and the Embassy pays close attention to this critical area and the people who are assigned there.

This overview is by no means a complete summary of all actions taken by Embassy Guatemala in the search for Nicholas Blake and Griffith Davis. The Ambassador and other Embassy officers have made an ongoing series of requests for assistance and information from Guatemalan authorities at all levels, including the Chief of State. The Embassy and the Department have, as well, looked into a number of rumors which have proved to be totally groundless.

The case will remain open and active until we have solid evidence of the welfare and whereabouts of Mr. Blake and Mr. Davis. Embassy officers regularly travel to the highlands, including areas on the northern face of the Cuchumatanes Mountain chain and along the Mexican border, and always make inquiries regarding Blake, Davis and any "strangers" who might be rumored to be, or have been in the area. In the Department, all country desk officers are aware of the case should any information about the men come from another country in the Caribbean or Central American region. All U.S. Embassies in Central America have been provided details about the missing men.

As you can well understand, the disappearance of Nicholas Blake and Griffith Davis engenders frustration and concern both for the families of the missing men and for the Americans and Guatemalans charged with finding them. A solution to this case remains a very high priority in the Department of State.

Ms. Renny Smith in the Citizens Emergency Center is following the case closely, and is in frequent contact with the family and government officials on behalf of the missing men. Please encourage anyone who may be interested in this case to call her at (202) 647-5225. If your office would like to be kept informed of developments, please call and she will contact you whenever there is significant activity on the case.

Sincerely,

2. SUMMARY. THE MOST INTERESTING DEVELOPMENT ON THE CHILE RESOLUTION IS THAT MEXICAN REP JORGE MONTANO HAS INFORMED ME THAT IN LIGHT OF THE DRAFT RESOLUTION WITH WHICH WE HAVE COME UP AND IN LIGHT OF THE FACT THAT YOU ARE WORKING WITH THE CHILEAN OPPOSITION, MEXICO IS PREPARED TO WITHDRAW FROM THE EXERCISE AND LEAVE IT TO US TO NEGOTIATE A TEXT ACCEPTABLE TO THE INTERESTED PARTIES

(PRESUMABLY EXCLUDING THE GOC). THAT IS THE GOOD NEWS. THE BAD NEWS IS THAT TO DATE I HAVE NO CLEAR STATEMENT OF SUPPORT FROM VENEZUELA, ONLY MUMBLES OF SUPPORT FROM BRAZIL AND COLOMBIA, AND THAT I AM EXPECTED TO NEGOTIATE WITH TABORGA. END SUMMARY.

3. PROMPTLY AFTER MY RETURN TO GENEVA ON FEBRUARY 24, I APPROACHED VENEZUELAN REP ADOLFO PAUL TAYLHARDAT TO INQUIRE WHETHER HE HAD ANY WORD ON OUR NEW CHILEANDRAFT. HE SAID HE HAD NOT. I THEN GAVE HIM A COPY OF OUR NEW PROPOSAL. HE THANKED ME BUT HAS NOT AS YET COME BACK WITH AN ANSWER. THE COLOMBIAN AND BRAZILIAN REPRESENTATIVES HAVE TOLD US THAT THEY LIKE OUR DRAFT BUT ARE NOT PREPARED TO CO-SPONSOR IT AT THIS TIME. SPAIN'S REP LACLETA IS NONCOMMITTAL, TELLING US THAT HE IS WAITING FOR WORD FROM MADRID AND FOR SOME INDICATION OF MEXICO'S APPROACH.

4. MEXICO'S REP JORGE MONTANO, WHOSE FIRST DAY AT THIS UNHRC SESSION WAS FEBRUARY 24, APPROACHED ME ON FEBRUARY 25 TO ASK FOR A COPY OF OUR CHILE RESOLUTION AND TO URGE THAT WE DISCUSS IT. WE MET ON FEBRUARY 26 WHEN MONTANO SUGGESTED THAT IN LIGHT OF THE STEPS WE HAVE TAKEN WE WORK TOGETHER IN AN ATTEMPT TO COME UP WITH A RESOLUTION ACCEPTABLE TO BOTH OF US. ON FEBRUARY 27 HE TOLD ME THAT AS MR. TABORGA OF THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION HAD ARRIVED IN GENEVA AND IS PREPARED TO DISCUSS OUR DRAFT WITH US, MEXICO IS WITHDRAWING FROM THIS EXERCISE, LEAVING THE MATTER ENTIRELY IN THE HANDS OF THE UNITED STATES. HE ADDED WITH A SMILE THAT MEXICO MIGHT MEDIATE ANY DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE CHRC AND US. I RESPONDED THAT WE HAD A TEXT WITH WHICH WE ARE COMFORTABLE AND THAT HAD DEPARTMENTAL CLEARANCE, THAT I WOULD HAVE TO GO BACK TO THE DEPARTMENT ON ANY CHANGES, BUT THAT I AM CERTAINLY PREPARED TO LISTEN. MONTANO SAID THAT THAT IS WHAT HE IS LOOKING FOR.

5. I MET WITH TABORGA ON FEBRUARY 28. I REPEATED TO HIM WHAT I HAD TOLD MONTANO, MAINLY THAT WE HAVE NOW AN APPROVED TEXT, THAT ANY CHANGES IN IT WOULD HAVE TO BE

REVIEWED BY THE DEPARTMENT, BUT THAT I AM WILLING TO LISTEN. RATHER THAN HAVING HIM PRESENT HIS PROPOSALS TO US RIGHT THEN, I SUGGESTED HE PUT THEM ALL IN WRITING AND SUBMIT THEM TO US ON MARCH 3.

6. AWARE OF HIS POLITICS, I WAS SURPRISED HOW PLEASANT AND MILD TABORGA IS IN HIS PERSONAL DEMEANOR. WE HAD A LONG AND AMIABLE DISCUSSION ON UNDERLYING PRINCIPLES. I EMPHASIZED THAT WE ARE INTERESTED IN ATTAINING A SPECIFIC RESULT, NAMELY A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY IN CHILE, AND THAT WE WANTED OUR ACTIONS TO SERVE THAT PURPOSE. WE WERE NOT INTERESTED IN MERE EMPTY GESTURES. TABORGA SAID HIS OBJECTIVE WAS THE SAME. WITHOUT BECOMING ARGUMENTATIVE I ASKED HIM ABOUT THE ALMEYDA SOCIALISTS AND TOLD HIM TO EXPLAIN TO ME SOMEDAY HOW ANYONE WHO PROFESSES TO BELIEVE IN DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS, AS HE DOES, COULD WORK WITH THE COMMUNISTS.

7. THOUGH I INSISTED WE DO NOT GO INTO DETAIL IN OUR INITIAL DISCUSSION, TABORGA MADE THREE BASIC POINTS ABOUT HIS INTERESTS: (A) HE WANTS TO RECITE SPECIFIC WRONG-DOINGS, (B) HE WANTS TO UNDERLINE THE ILLEGITIMACY OF THE

PRESENT GOVERNMENT, AND (C) HE WANTS TO RETAIN AGENDA ITEM 5. I PICKED UP ONLY ON THE SECOND OF THESE ITEMS. I CALLED ATTENTION TO THE FACT THAT PRESIDENT REAGAN VERY RECENTLY TRAVELED TO GENEVA TO MEET WITH CHAIRMAN GORBACHEV, THAT WE NEGOTIATE ON A GREAT VARIETY OF MATTERS WITH THE SOVIET UNION, EVEN THOUGH, TO THE BEST OF MY RECOLLECTION, THE STRENGTH OF THE BOLSHEVIK PARTY IN THE SOVIET UNION'S LAST FREE ELECTION OF THE DUMA WAS 17 PERCENT. I ADDED THAT IF PINOCHET'S GOVERNMENT IS ILLEGITIMATE, SO ARE THE

WHICH WE SUPPORT MUST FIT INTO A WORLDWIDE UNITED NATIONS CONTEXT AND MUST BE REASONABLY CONSISTENT FROM THAT POINT OF VIEW.

8. AS TO TABORGA'S COMMENTS CONCERNING SPECIFIC WRONG-DOINGS: THE DRAFT HE NOW HAS STILL CONTAINS BLANKS WHICH WE INTENDED TO FILL IN AFTER RECEIVING THE VOLIO REPORT. OUR PROPOSED ADDITIONS TO THE RESOLUTION WILL BE TRANS-MITTED BY SEPTEL.

9. I HAVE THE IMPRESSION THAT YOU WERE NEVER AS EAGER AS I WAS TO ABOLISH ITEM 5. I NOW NOTE THAT THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION AND THE VICARIATE FEEL VERY STRONGLY THAT ITEM 5 SHOULD BE RETAINED. AS YOU KNOW, THE NEXT TIME THE ITEM 5 ISSUE COULD BE RAISED WOULD BE ON MARCH 14, AT THE TIME THE PRELIMINARY AGENDA FOR THE 1987 SESSION IS ADOPTED. IF YOU THINK IT MAKES SENSE, WE COULD AGREE, AS PART OF A NEGO-TIATING PACKAGE IN WHICH WE MAKE MINOR OR NO CHANGES IN OUR PRESENT TEXT, THAT WE DO NOT ON MARCH 14 PRESS FOR AN END TO ITEM 5, BUT THAT IF THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT MAKES MEANINGFUL PROGRESS IN THE MONTHS TO COME, WE WOULD PRESS FOR THE ITEM'S ABOLITION EITHER THROUGH ACTION AT THE UNGA OR AT THE BEGINNING OF THE 1987 SESSION, WHEN THE FINAL AGENDA IS ADOPTED.

10. THUS, WE WOULD ACCOMMODATE TABORGA ON HIS FIRST SUG-GESTION, AS WE WOULD HAVE ANYWAY, REJECT HIS SECOND SUG-GESTION AND BE GUIDED BY YOUR THINKING ON THE THIRD SUGGESTION.

1. (U) JUDGE MARTA OSSA OF THE COURT OF APPEALS IN SANTIAGO ON FEB 28 ORDERED THE ARREST OF TWO TOP LEADERS OF THE CONFEDERATION OF CONSTRUCTION WORKERS, SERGIO TRONCOSO AND REINALDO ALVAREZ. THEY ARE CHARGED WITH CONTEMPT OF COURT FOR A LETTER WHICH THEY WROTE TO INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF THE THIRD TRIBUNAL OF THE SUPREME COURT ON JANUARY 21, AFTER THESE JUSTICES HAD RULED IN FAVOR OF MOST OF THE DEFENDANTS IN THE CANOVAS CASE (REFTEL). THE SUPREME COURT JUSTICES FOUND THE WORDING OF THIS LETTER INJURIOUS AND DEFAMATORY, AND ASKED THE SUPREME COURT TO ORDER AN INVESTIGATION INTO THIS MATTER. THE COURT OF APPEALS JUDGE FOUND THAT THE LETTER DID CONSTITUTE DEFAMATION

OF THE JUSTICES AND CONTEMPT OF THE COURT.

2. (U) WE UNDERSTAND THAT A THIRD OFFICIAL OF THE CONSTRUCTION WORKERS CONFEDERATION, CLAUDINA GARCIA, MAY BE ARRESTED IN THE NEAR FUTURE. SHE IS THE SECRETARY OF THE CONFEDERATION AND IS PRESENTLY OUT OF SANTIAGO ON VACATION. SHE MAY BE DETAINED ON MONDAY WHEN SHE RETURNS TO SANTIAGO.

3. (C) COMMENT. THIS UNION IS A TRADITIONAL STRONGHOLD OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, AND BOTH TRONCOSO AND ALVAREZ ARE OPENLY MEMBERS OF THE PARTY. TRONCOSO IS ALSO ON THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE NATIONAL WORKERS COMMAND (CNT). JUDICIAL ACTION AGAINST THEM HAS BEEN ANTICIPATED SINCE THEIR LETTER TO THE COURT BECAME PUBLIC KNOWLEDGE. WHILE WE DO NOT VIEW THIS CASE AS A VIOLATION OF TRADE UNION RIGHTS, WE ANTICIPATE THAT INTERNATIONAL TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS FRIENDLY WITH THE CNT WILL TAKE UP THE DETENTION OF THESE TWO UNION LEADERS IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

GIVE ANY MORE DETAILS ON GOC MOVES.

4. FOR NOW, HE MADE THE FOLLOWING POINTS: (1) VOLIO'S REPORT RECOGNIZES CERTAIN PROGRESS MADE BY CHILE AS WELL AS PRAISING THE HELP GIVEN VOLIO; (2) IT MAKES A NUMBER OF CHARGES AGAINST CHILE WHICH, THOUGH "PAINFUL," GOC WILL ACCEPT AND WILL WORK WITH VOLIO ON (LIKE EXILE AND INADEQUATE POLITICAL LIBERTIES): (3) VOLIO, HOWEVER, ALSO BRINGS IN "ERRONEOUS OR IRRELEVANT" MATERIAL, LIKE THE HEALTH CARE PROGRAM, WHERE THE GOC WILL STRONGLY ARGUE WITH HIM.

5. WHEN I ASKED DEL VALLE FOR SOME CONCRETE STEPS BY THE GOC BEFORE THE UNHRC VOTE, HE SAID THIS HAD BEEN AN EXTRAORDINARILY DIFFICULT TIME OF YEAR TO GET DECISIONS WITH MOST OFFICIALS GONE FROM SANTIAGO, BUT THERE WERE SOME STEPS THAT WERE BEING WORKED ON. HE COULD NOT BE SURE THOUGH UNTIL HE HAD TALKED TO THE PRESIDENT WHEN THESE WOULD BE TAKEN. FOR EXAMPLE, (A) THE GOVERNMENT WOULD STRENGTHEN EXISTING LEGAL ASSISTANCE COMMISSIONS SO THEY COULD RECEIVE AND INVESTIGATE COMPLAINTS AGAINST ANY GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL; (B) AUGMENT THE NUMBER OF EXILES ALLOWED TO RETURN: (C) RESTRICT THE PRACTICE OF INTERNAL EXILE TO THE MOST SERIOUS DISTURBANCES. IN ADDITION, DEL VALLE SAID THE GOC WOULD MAKE CLEAR ITS WILLINGNESS TO CONTINUE TO COLLABORATE WITH THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR.

6. I TOLD DEL VALLE THAT I CONSIDERED IT VERY IMPORTANT THAT THE CHILEAN REPRESENTATIVE IN HIS SPEECH AT THE ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

UNHRC BE ABLE TO BE SPECIFIC AND THAT THE GOVERNMENT MAKE SOME ACTUAL ANNOUNCEMENTS HERE ITSELF. I REVERTED TO THE QUESTION OF TORTURE AND DEL VALLE STRESSED THIS WAS THE SORT OF MATTER THE LEGAL ASSISTANCE BODIES COULD TAKE UP. WHEN I SAID THESE BODIES WOULD HAVE TO GAIN CREDENCE DEL VALLE RESPONDED THAT HE KNEW THAT WAS ESSENTIAL. HE ALSO SAID THE GOVERNMENT WOULD MAKE KNOWN PUBLICLY ITS CIRCULAR OF LAST JULY PROHIBITING "ILLEGAL" MEASURES.

I SAID THESE WERE POTENTIALLY ENCOURAGING SIGNS, BUT NOTED AT THE SAME TIME THAT ALL THE NEWS OF LATE COMING OUT OF CHILE HAD BEEN NEGATIVE; A PROMINENT POLITICIAN INDICTED FOR STATEMENTS HE MADE THREE YEARS AGO (SILVA CIMMA); A STUDENT LEADER IN JAIL (PALMA - DEL VALLE SEEMED AMAZED TO HEAR THAT IN THE U. S. PEOPLE COULD SAY INSULTING THINGS ABOUT OUR PRESIDENT WITHOUT BEING TOSSED IN JAIL); AND A JOURNALIST IN JAIL ON SIMILAR CHARGES, DESPITE DEL VALLE'S HAVING JUST ASSURED ME THAT ALL SORTS OF OPINIONS COULD BE VOICED IN CHILE WITHOUT SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES. I URGED THAT HE DO WHAT HE COULD TO AVOID THESE SORT OF NEGATIVE SIGNS AND IF AT ALL POSSIBLE TO SOLVE THE PROBLEMS THESE CASES POSED ALREADY. THE FURTHEST HE WOULD GO WAS TO SAY HE HOPED THE CHARGES AGAINST SILVA CIMMA WOULD BE DROPPED.

7. DEL VALLE ASKED ME IN TURN IF THE U. S. COULD FIND A WAY TO MODIFY ITS RESOLUTION TO TAKE ACCOUNT OF TWO POINTS; (1) TERRORISM; HE FELT THE FIRST VERSION REFLECTED MORE CLEARLY THE U. S. POSITION

POSSIBLE OF REFLECTING CHILEAN REALITY. MORE GENERALLY, I REMINDED DEL VALLE THAT OUR ABILITY TO SECURE A BALANCED RESOLUTION STILL RESTS LARGELY WITH THE GOC AS IT HAS FROM THE BEGINNING.

8. COMMENT: WITH REGARD TO YOUR QUESTION PARA 9 REFTEL, MY FEELING CONTINUES TO BE THAT WE SHOULD KEEP CHILE IN ITEM 5 UNLESS WE CAN GET SOME REAL SIGNS OF PROGRESS ON REDUCING HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES FROM THE GOC. I DID NOT GO INTO THE ITEM 5 VERSUS 12 WITH DEL VALLE TODAY OTHER THAN IN THE BROAD SENSE OF TALKING ABOUT A BALANCED RESOLUTION REQUIRING SOME PRIOR ACTION ON THE PART OF THE GOC THAT WAS MEANINGFUL AND CONCRETE. IN THE LIGHT OF OUR CONVERSATIONS HERE AND YOURS IN GENEVA, MY JUDGMENT AT THIS POINT WOULD BE TO LET THE CHRC KNOW WE STILL DIFFER ON THE QUESTION OF DISCRIMINATION AND TO LEAVE THE QUESTION OPEN UNTIL THE 14TH. SIMILARLY WITH THE GOC, TO LEAVE IT OPEN AND MAKE A JUDGMENT IN THE LIGHT OF WHAT THE GOC REPRESENTATIVE SAYS (AND THE REACTION THE SPEECH RECEIVES) AND IN THE LIGHT OF WHAT THE GOC DOES HERE, ESPECIALLY ON MARCH 11 WHICH IS THE ANNIVERSARY OF PINOCHET'S BEGINNING HIS CONSTITUTIONAL TERM.

9. WITH REGARD TO DEL VALLE'S TWO SUGGESTIONS, I RECOGNIZE IT MAY BE HARD TO REVIVE AGAIN THE LANGUAGE ON TERRORISM, BUT IT MIGHT BE POSSIBLE TO MAKE THE EXISTING CLAUSE A SEPARATE SENTENCE AND THEREBY GIVE IT MORE IMPORTANCE. WITH REGARD
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

TO LEGALITY, I WOULD DEFER TO WHAT VOLIO'S REPORT ACTUALLY SAYS AND SEE IF THERE CAN BE SOME REFERENCE TO SERIOUS SHORTCOMINGS WHICH WOULD STILL SHOW THAT THERE IS A LEGAL FRAMEWORK HERE OF SOME VALUE, WHICH IN EFFECT OUGHT TO BE MORE RIGOROUSLY APPLIED. END COMMENT.

10. EMBOFF DISCUSSED IN SEPARATE CONVERSATIONS THE THREE POINTS RAISED BY TABORGA (PARA 7 REFTEL) IN GENEVA WITH CHRC PRESIDENT JAIME CASTILLO AND VICE PRESIDENT MAXIMO PACHECO, NOTING THAT WE HAD FEW PROBLEMS WITH LISTING THE SPECIFIC WRONGDOINGS OF THE GOC IN THE RESOLUTION, BUT THAT THIS WOULD DEPEND ON THE VOLIO REPORT. WE DID, HOWEVER, HAVE A PROBLEM WITH ITEM NUMBER TWO RAISED BY TABORGA CONCERNING THE LEGITIMACY OF THE GOC. BOTH CASTILLO AND PACHECO STATED THAT THE CHRC HAS NO INTEREST OR INTENTION OF RAISING THIS MATTER IN THE UNHRC. PACHECO WAS FIRM IN STATING THAT THE CHRC IS NOT A POLITICAL ORGANIZATION, BUT IS ONLY INTERESTED IN HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS AND VIOLATIONS, AND NOT IN ISSUING POLITICAL STATEMENTS.

THE CHRC WOULD, AS PREVIOUSLY NOTED, LIKE TO SEE SOME REFERENCE IN THE RESOLUTION TO THE FACT THAT THE GOC HAS BROKEN WITH THE TRADITIONAL DEMOCRATIC RULE OF LAW IN CHILE, BUT THEY DO NOT WANT A PARAGRAPH IN THE RESOLUTION STATING OR IMPLYING THAT THE GOC IS ILLEGITIMATE. IF TABORGA IS ATTEMPTING TO PUSH THAT LINE, THEN THEY WANT TO KNOW RIGHT AWAY SO THAT THEY CAN EITHER BRING HIM

PACHECO NOTED THAT HE WOULD CALL THE AMBASSADORS OF FRANCE, SPAIN, ITALY, AND BRAZIL TO INFORM THEM THAT THE CHRC SUPPORTS THE US RESOLUTION, AND ASK THAT THEY HAVE THEIR GOVERNMENTS GIVE POSITIVE CONSIDERATION TO CO-SPONSORING THIS RESOLUTION. CASTILLO INDICATED THAT HE WOULD DO LIKEWISE, PLUS CALL HIS CONTACTS IN OTHER NATIONS TO LET THEM KNOW THAT THE CHRC SUPPORTS THE US EFFORT.

EXCISED KL0025

Dear Senator D'Amato:

I am writing in response to your letter of March 4, 1986 in which you express concern over the arrest of Jesuit priest and magazine editor Father Renato Hevia Rivas. Your letter was on behalf of your constituent [redacted].

As you may be aware, Father Hevia was jailed on December 5, 1985 after having turned himself in to authorities on December 4. He was charged by an investigating magistrate with slandering the president and other government officials. These charges are related to editorials he wrote as director of Mensaje magazine involving Chile's now-lifted state of siege and various violations of human and political rights in Chile under states of exception to the constitution. On December 19, Father Hevia was released from detention upon paying approximately ten dollars bond, following a court decision ordering a temporary stay in his case. Under Chilean law, this ruling indicates that there is insufficient evidence to hold the defendant, but that the case should remain open pending further developments. Both Father Hevia and the Chilean government are appealing this ruling, with Father Hevia seeking a permanent stay.

Father Hevia's release followed inquiries from our Embassy in Santiago and other interested parties. While in jail, Father Hevia was visited by many persons concerned with his welfare, including Embassy officers.

As you know, the Administration is committed to the promotion and preservation of press freedom and human rights throughout the world. We will continue to closely monitor Father Hevia's case.

We hope the foregoing has been of value to you.

Sincerely,

James W. Dyer
Acting Assistant Secretary
Legislative and Intergovernmental Affairs

IN THE UNHRC MEETING, AT WHICH POINT ENRIQUE PALET REITERATED HIS SUGGESTION THAT OTHER COUNTRIES EITHER BE ADDED TO THE ITEM COVERING CHILE, OR THAT EACH COUNTRY HAVE ITS OWN ITEM. HE MADE THE POINT THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS IN CHILE WOULD BE FACED WITH GOC GLOATING IF ITEM 5 WERE SIMPLY REMOVED FROM THE AGENDA WITHOUT ANY PRIOR ACTION BY THE GOC IMPLEMENTING THE VOLIO RECOMMENDATIONS. VICARIATE OFFICIALS THEN PROVIDED US WITH WRITTEN COMMENTS ON THE DRAFT.

3. MOST OF THE VICARIATE'S COMMENTS ARE SUGGESTIONS ON POSSIBLE CHANGES TO THE DRAFT WHICH WOULD MAKE IT MORE CLEARLY IDENTIFIABLE AS BEING CRITICAL OF THE GOC. FOR EXAMPLE, THEY WOULD CHANGE OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH 3, AFTER THE REFERENCE TO THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S REPORT, TO LIST SOME EIGHT SPECIFIC AREAS IN WHICH HUMAN RIGHTS HAVE BEEN VIOLATED IN CHILE. THESE WOULD INCLUDE THE KILLING OF OPPOSITION LEADERS, TORTURE AND INHUMAN PUNISHMENT, KIDNAPPINGS AND ATTEMPTS AT INTIMIDATION, DETENTION OF THOSE INVOLVED IN PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS, INTERNAL BANISHMENTS, EXILES, ETC. THE VICARIATE OFFICIALS UNDERSTAND THAT MOST, IF NOT ALL OF THESE VIOLATIONS WILL BE COVERED IN THE VOLIO REPORT, BUT FEEL THE U.S. DRAFT WOULD BE STRONGER IF IT ALSO LISTED THESE VIOLATIONS. THEY NOTED THAT THE U.S. DRAFT REFERS TO THE VOLIO REPORT'S LIST OF IMPROVEMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS, BUT DOES NOT CLEARLY STATE IF THE VIOLATIONS WILL ALSO BE LISTED.

4. THE VICARIATE ALSO SUGGESTS THAT OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH 4 BE CHANGED TO STRESS THE INABILITY OF THE GOVERNMENT

CONFIDENTIAL
UNCLASSIFIED
CONFIDENTIAL

IN PREVENTING THE REPETITION OF ABUSES BY THE SECURITY FORCES. THEY WOULD PARTICULARLY NOTE THE FAILURE OF THE AUTHORITIES TO INVESTIGATE THE MANY CASES OF DISAPPEARED PERSONS WHICH OCCURRED BETWEEN 1973 AND 1978, THE MURDERS OF OPPOSITION LEADERS, AND THE KIDNAPPINGS AND TORTURES OF 1985 AND PRIOR YEARS. IN THIS PARAGRAPH, THE VICARIATE SUGGESTS AMBIGUOUS

UNCLASSIFIED

WORDING TO COVER THE PROBLEM OF TERRORISM, WHICH READS AS FOLLOWS: "EQUALLY LAMENTABLE IS THE LACK OF CLARIFICATION CONCERNING ACTS OF TERRORIST VIOLENCE WHICH HAVE CAUSED NUMEROUS DEATHS AND INJURIES. THE NEED FOR THIS CLARIFICATION CANNOT SERVE AS AN EXCUSE FOR SECURITY FORCES TO COMMIT ABUSES OF FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS."

5. THE VICARIATE WOULD LIKE TO ADD TO OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH 7 SPECIFIC MENTION OF THE GOC'S FAILURE TO IMPLEMENT THE UN'S INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT ON CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS, WHICH THE GOC RATIFIED IN 1972 AND WHICH THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT PROMULGATED IN 1976, BUT WHICH HAS NOT BEEN PUBLISHED IN THE OFFICIAL GAZETTE. (EMBASSY UNDERSTANDS THAT WE CANNOT INCLUDE THIS IN OUR RESOLUTION BECAUSE U.S. IS NOT A PARTY TO THIS TREATY.)

6. FINALLY, THE VICARIATE LEADERS WOULD MAKE SOME MINOR WORD ADJUSTMENTS IN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH 8, SUBPARAGRAPH D, BY CHANGING "COURTS" TO "JUDICIAL" AND "THE COURTS" TO "THE TRIBUNALS", AND BY ADDING "HABEUS CORPUS" AFTER THE WORD "AMPARO." THEY SUGGEST OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH 9 COULD BE IMPROVED IF AFTER THE WORDS "FULLY IMPLEMENT HIS RECOMMENDATIONS"

7. EMBOFF THANKED THE VICARIATE OFFICIALS FOR THEIR COMMENTS, BUT NOTED THAT THE DRAFT RESOLUTION WAS ALREADY IN FINAL FORM. WE WOULD, HOWEVER, PASS THEIR SUGGESTIONS ON TO THE U.S. DELEGATION FOR THEIR CONSIDERATION IF THE DRAFT SHOULD BE OPENED FOR CHANGES. IN LINE WITH THOSE MADE PREVIOUSLY BY THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION. THEY FEEL MOST STRONGLY, AS DOES THE CHRC, ABOUT MAINTAINING CHILE IN SOME SORT OF SEPARATE STATUS, EITHER IN A SEPARATE ITEM ON THE AGENDA, OR IN AN AGENDA ITEM WHICH MAKES SPECIFIC NOTE OF CHILE. WE BELIEVE BOTH GROUPS WOULD WELCOME A POSITIVE USG VOTE ON A RESOLUTION CONDEMNING THE GOC, AND THAT THEIR SUGGESTIONS ON THE U.S. DRAFT RESOLUTION ARE TO BE TAKEN AS CHANGES WHICH WOULD MAKE THE INTENT OF THE RESOLUTION CLEARER TO OTHERS IN THE UNHRC AND, MORE IMPORTANTLY, TO THE GOC.

1. THIS IS HRC-151 (~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ - ENTIRE TEXT)

2. WE HAVE NOW COMPLETED OUR DRAFT RESOLUTION IN LIGHT OF THE VOLIO REPORT AND HAVE ALSO INCORPORATED SOME OF THE SUGGESTIONS ADVANCED BY TABORGA. THE REVISED RESOLUTION WAS SENT TO YOU BY SEPTEL.

3. AS OF THE EVENING OF MARCH 4, MATTERS WERE STILL GOING WELL WITH THE MEXICANS AND TABORGA. ON MARCH 5, HOWEVER, WE DISCOVERED THAT MEXICO HAS TABLED A RESOLUTION OF ITS OWN UNDER THE CHILE ITEM. THIS WAS IN BREACH OF THE COMMITMENT WHICH THEY HAD MADE AND REPEATED AS HERETOFORE REPORTED. TABORGA THEN TOLD US THAT THERE WAS A BASIC DIFFERENCE BETWEEN

HIM AND US IN THAT WE INSISTED ON RESPECTING THE LEGITIMACY OF THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT AND HE COULD NOT GO ALONG WITH THAT. OUR HUNCH IS THAT MEXICO AND TABORGA HAVE BEEN PUT UNDER PRESSURE FROM ELEMENTS THAT ARE NOT INTERESTED IN HAVING US SUPPORT A RESOLUTION ON CHILE.

4. ONCE WE HAVE AN AGREED U.S. TEXT, WE HAVE FOUR PROCEDURAL OPTIONS:

(A) WE SIMPLY TABLE UNDER ITEM 5. IN THAT CASE THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION WILL BE VOTED ON FIRST. IF IT PASSES, A MEMBER COULD MOVE THAT NO ACTION BE TAKEN ON OUR RESOLUTION AS THE SUBJECT MATTER HAS ALREADY BEEN ACTED ON. IF THE COMMISSION ADOPTS THE MOTION, THERE IS NO FURTHER VOTE ON OUR RESOLUTION.
IF IT FAILS OR IF THERE IS NO SUCH MOTION, BOTH RESOLUTIONS ON CHILE CAN BE ADOPTED.

(B) WE CAN OFFER A MOTION TO TAKE NO DECISION ON THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION, URGING THE COMMISSION THUS TO TAKE THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION OFF THE FLOOR PROCEDURALLY AND THEN VOTE FOR OUR RESOLUTION.

(C) WE CAN OFFER A MOTION TO REVERSE THE ORDER IN WHICH THE MEXICAN AND UNITED STATES RESOLUTION ARE TAKEN UP.

(D) FINALLY, WE CAN TABLE OUR RESOLUTION UNDER ITEM 12, THE GENERAL ITEM. AS RESOLUTIONS ARE VOTED ON IN THE ORDER IN WHICH AGENDA ITEMS ARE TAKEN UP, ITEM 12 WILL GET VOTED ON PRIOR TO ITEM 5. OUR RESOLUTION WOULD

THUS BE VOTED ON FIRST AND WE WOULD SIMULTANEOUSLY HAVE MADE A STATEMENT THAT WE WANT TO TREAT THE ISSUE UNDER ITEM 12. OF COURSE, THERE COULD THEN BE A PROCEDURAL WRANGLE OVER OUR GAMBIT UNDER ITEM 12. WE COULD ALSO TABLE UNDER ITEM 12 THURSDAY MORNING AND SEE WHETHER ANYONE WOULD THEN URGE US TO WITHDRAW UNDER 12 AND PROCEED UNDER 5. THE TRADE WHICH WE COULD THEN OFFER PRIOR TO THE FRIDAY DEADLINE IS THAT WE WOULD WITHDRAW UNDER 12 IF MEXICO WITHDRAWS UNDER 5 AND GIVES US A CLEAR SHOT AT THE RESOLUTION UNDER ITEM 5. (WE COULD ALSO FILE UNDER 12 AND LATER UNDER 5 FIGURING OUT LATER WHICH OF THE TWO WE WOULD WANT TO WITHDRAW).

5. I WOULD RECOMMEND THAT WE PROCEED WITH OPTION D. NEXT WE HAVE TO DETERMINE WHAT STEPS, IF ANY, WE SHOULD TAKE TO ROUND UP VOTES. WE COULD TELL THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION WE HAVE DONE OUR JOB; NOW YOU DO YOURS. (DRAFTED BY RSCHIFTER)CARMEN

REF. (A) GENEVA 2222 (B) SANTIAGO 1296

1. THIS IS HRC-164 (CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT).
2. WE HAVE TODAY TABLED, UNDER ITEM 12, THE CHILE RESOLUTION, AS SET FORTH IN REF A, MODIFIED BY THE SUGGESTIONS CONTAINED IN REF B. WE PROCEEDED RAPIDLY, AFTER RECEIVING THE COMMENTS CONTAINED IN REF B, BECAUSE RUMORS WERE SPREADING THROUGHOUT THE COMMISSION THAT NEGOTIATIONS "HAD BROKEN DOWN." MOST SIGNIFICANTLY, SPANISH REP LACLETA TOLD U.S. REP SCHIFTER THAT HE HAD RECEIVED TWO TELEPHONE CALLS FROM MADRID ON THE SUBJECT OF CHILE. THE FIRST WAS TO TELL HIM THAT IT APPEARS THERE WOULD BE AN "AGREED TEXT" ON CHILE, THE SECOND ALSO USING THE PHRASE THAT NEGOTIATIONS "HAD BROKEN DOWN" AND THAT SPAIN WOULD HAVE TO CO-SPONSOR THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION. LACLETA SAID FURTHER THAT FRANCE HAD TOLD HIM THAT IT WOULD PROCEED WITH THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION. SCHIFTER TOLD LACLETA THAT NEGOTIATIONS HAD CERTAINLY NOT BROKEN DOWN IN SANTIAGO, THAT AN AGREED TEXT EXISTS AND WOULD BE TABLED. LACLETA PROMISED TO REPORT THIS TO MADRID.

3. WHAT SCHIFTER TOLD LACLETA WAS THAT THE U.S. DRAFT RESOLUTION HAS THE SUPPORT OF THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY, THE DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE AND THE CHRC LEADERSHIP, THAT ANYTHING THAT TABORGA MIGHT BE SAYING IN GENEVA DID NOT REFLECT THE VIEWS OF JAIME CASTILLO. WE HOPE THAT EMBASSY SANTIAGO WILL BE ABLE TO GET US EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT OF THIS STATEMENT AND, IN PARTICULAR, THAT THE EC AMBASSADORS IN SANTIAGO WILL TRANSMIT THIS INFORMATION PROMPTLY TO THEIR CONFIDENTIAL

CAPITALS. THE INFORMATION SHOULD ALSO BE CONVEYED TO ARGENTINA, BRAZIL, COLOMBIA, COSTA RICA, PERU AND VENEZUELA.

4. WE PICKED UP THE FOLLOWING FURTHER TIDBITS:

A. MEXICAN REP MONTANO CLAIMS HE TABLED HIS

RESOLUTION ONLY BECAUSE CUBA PRESSED HIM TO DO SO AND THREATENED TO DO SO IF HE DID NOT. (COMMENT: THIS IS VERY DIFFICULT TO BELIEVE.)

B. WE ARE TOLD THAT THE CHILEAN EXILES, WHO ARE HERE IN SIGNIFICANT NUMBERS, HAVE BEEN HIGHLY CRITICAL OF TABORGA FOR ASSOCIATING WITH THE U.S. DEL. HE MAY VERY WELL HAVE RUN FOR COVER.

C. CHAIRMAN CHARRY SAMPER HAS TOLD SCHIFTER THAT FRANCE (REPEAT FRANCE) HAS RAISED WITH HIM THE PROCEDURAL ISSUE OF THE U.S. TABLING A CHILE RESOLUTION UNDER ITEM 12.

5. ACTION REQUESTED: U.S. DEL RECOMMENDS DEPARTMENT REQUEST EMBASSIES TO MAKE DEMARCHES IN SUPPORT OF OUR CHILEAN DRAFT RESOLUTION. IN PARTICULAR, WE REQUEST A DEMARCHE IN PARIS AT A LEVEL HIGHER THAN M. JACOLIN, RESOLUTION ACCEPTABLE AND THAT THE CHRC WANTS ONLY ONE RESOLUTION ON CHILE PRESENTED AT THE UNHRC.

3. PACHECO THEN CALLED THE DUTCH AMBASSADOR, WITH THE EMBOFF PRESENT, TO INFORM HIM THAT THE CHRC SUPPORTS THE US RESOLUTION, AND WANTS THIS TO BE THE ONLY RESOLUTION ON CHILE PRESENTED IN GENEVA. HE REQUESTED THE AMBASSADOR, AS PRESIDENT OF THE EC GROUP IN SANTIAGO, TO INFORM THE OTHER EC AMBASSADORS IN CHILE THAT THIS IS THE CHRC POSITION. HE ALSO ASKED THE AMBASSADOR TO INFORM HIS GOVERNMENT IMMEDIATELY OF THIS POSITION, AND REQUEST THAT HIS GOVERNMENT

INFORM THE OTHER EC COUNTRIES OF THE CHRC VIEWS ON THIS MATTER. PACHECO TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT THE CHRC VIEWS THE MEXICAN EFFORT IN GENEVA AS COUNTER-PRODUCTIVE, AND AS BEING AGAINST THE WISHES OF THE CHRC AND OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS IN CHILE.

4. PACHECO ALSO CALLED THE SPANISH AMBASSADOR TO GIVE HIM THE SAME MESSAGE, AND TO REQUEST THAT HE INFORM MADRID IMMEDIATELY OF THE CHRC'S VIEWS. PACHECO INFORMED EMBOFF THAT HE WOULD TRY TO CALL OTHER AMBASSADORS IN CHILE, INCLUDING THE FRENCH AND THE BRAZILIANS.

5. FINALLY, PACHECO SAID HE WOULD DISCUSS ON AN URGENT BASIS WITH CHRC PRESIDENT CASTILLO THE POSSIBILITY OF SENDING A TELEGRAM OUTLINING THE CHRC'S SUPPORT FOR THE US RESOLUTION TO UNHRC CHAIRMAN CHARRY SAMPER AND UK REPRESENTATIVE IN GENEVA SIR ANTHONY WILLIAMS. CONFIDENTIAL

IN GENEVA ON MARCH 5.

B. WE CONSIDER THAT THEY HAVE TAKEN INTO CONSIDERATION IN THIS RESOLUTION POINTS 1,2, 4, 5, 6, AND 7 OF OUR CRITERIA.

C. OUR POINT NUMBER 3 SHOULD BE RESOLVED BETWEEN THE INTERESTED COUNTRIES. (NOTE: THIS REFERS TO THE NEED TO MAINTAIN GOOD RELATIONS WITH THE TRADITIONAL SUPPORTERS OF THE CHRC WITHIN THE UNHRC.)

D. OUR POINT NUMBER 8 IS PARTIALLY CONTEMPLATED IN POINT NUMBER 6 OF THE AMERICAN RESOLUTION. (NOTE: THIS REFERS TO THE INSTRUCTIONS TO TABORGA TO PROMOTE AND PROCURE IN THE VOTING ON THE CHILEAN RESOLUTION THE BEST CONSENSUS POSSIBLE FROM THE SPECTRUM OF DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES OF DIVERSE IDEOLOGIES AND POLITICAL POSITIONS.)

E. THE ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND CULTURAL RIGHTS MENTIONED IN OUR POINT 7 ARE PARTIALLY CONTEMPLATED IN POINTS 5 AND OF THE AMERICAN RESOLUTION.

DCM RAISED WITH CASTILLO AND POLOFF WITH PACHECO THE POSSIBILITY OF THE CHRC ASKING MEXICO TO WITHDRAW ITS RESOLUTION BUT RECEIVED NO SIGN OF SUPPORT, OTHER THAN PACHECO'S STATEMENT TO EMBOFF AND DUTCH AND SPANISH AMBASSADORS THAT THE MEXICANS HAD BETRAYED THE USG IN GENEVA.

7. AS THIS TELEGRAM WAS BEING TYPED, PACHECO CALLED AMBASSADOR TO SAY THAT HE HAD JUST TALKED WITH SPANISH AMBASSADOR AND FRENCH CHARGE WHO INFORMED HIM THAT TABORGA IS APPARENTLY ATTEMPTING TO CONVINCE FRENCH AND SPANISH DELEGATES TO SUPPORT MEXICAN RESOLUTION. CHRC IS TRYING TO CONTACT TABORGA BY PHONE TO MAKE CERTAIN HE UNDERSTANDS CHRC POSITION TO SUPPORT US RESOLUTION ONLY. PACHECO ADDED THAT THE CHRC IS CONSIDERING SENDING SOMEONE TO REPLACE TABORGA. ITEM 12: A QUESTION OF THE VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS IN ANY PART OF THE WORLD, WITH PARTICULAR REFERENCE TO COLONIAL AND OTHER DEPENDENT COUNTRIES AND TERRITORIES: SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE

THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS:

AWARE OF ITS RESPONSIBILITY TO PROMOTE AND ENCOURAGE RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS AND RESOLVED TO REMAIN VIGILANT WITH REGARD TO VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS WHEREVER THEY OCCUR.

NOTING THE OBLIGATION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE TO RESPECT AND PROTECT HUMAN RIGHTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INTERNATIONAL INSTRUMENTS TO WHICH CHILE IS A PARTY, AN OBLIGATION WHICH IS NOT DIFFERENT FROM THAT OF ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT WHICH IS A PARTY TO INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS INSTRUMENTS.

RECALLING ITS SUCCESSIVE RESOLUTIONS ON THE SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE AND IN PARTICULAR ITS RESOLUTION 11 (XXXV) OF 6 MARCH 1979, BY WHICH IT APPOINTED A SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON THE SITUATION OF THOSE RIGHTS, AND ITS RESOLUTION OF 1985/47 OF 14 MARCH 1985, IN WHICH IT AGREED MOST RECENTLY TO EXTEND THE MANDATE OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FOR ONE MORE YEAR, AND IN VIEW OF THE SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN (HILE TO GIVE HIGH PRIORITY TO THE STUDY OF THIS ISSUE;

SUBJECT: BISHOP VEGA ATTACKED FOR HIS WASHINGTON REMARKS

ROME FOR EMBASSY VATICAN (INFO)

1. (U) PRO-GON DAILIES BARRICADA AND EL NUEVO DIARIO (END REACTED STRONGLY ON MARCH 7 TO THE NEWS THAT MONSIGNOR PABLO ANTONIO VEGA, BISHOP OF JUIGALPA, HAD APPEARED AT A HERITAGE FOUNDATION FUNCTION WITH RESISTANCE LEADERS CALERO, BERMUDEZ AND CRUZ AND REPORTEDLY HAD MADE STATEMENTS ATTACKING THE SANDINISTAS AND SUPPORTING PRESIDENT REAGAN'S EFFORT TO OBTAIN 100 MILLION DOLLARS FOR THE INSURGENTS. BARRICADA ANNOUNCED IN BANNER HEADLINES THAT

WHILE END CALLED HIS REMARKS "INFAMOUS."

2. (U) BARRICADA OF MARCH 7 DEVOTED ALMOST A QUARTER OF ITS FOUR PAGE ISSUE (AND MOST OF THE FIRST PAGE) TO ATTACKING VEGA. IN AN UNUSUAL FRONT PAGE EDITORIAL IT REBUKED THE BISHOP FOR BEING INVOLVED IN "A POLITICAL ACT TOTALLY ALIEN TO HIS PASTORAL MISSION." AN ACCOMPANYING CARTOON SHOWED THE BISHOP HANDING A HAMMER TO AN UNCLE-SAM-LIKE FIGURE AS HE NAILED SOMEONE TO A CROSS, WHILE MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL GUARD WATCHED. THE EDITORIAL WAS ACCOMPANIED BY ACCOUNTS OF VEGA'S STATEMENTS, REPORTED BY EFE AND THE NICARAGUAN NEWS SERVICE, AND CONCLUDED THAT VEGA HAD "OFFENDED AND MADE INDIGNANT" THE THOUSANDS OF MOTHERS OF NICARAGUAN MARTYRS AND WARNED THAT VEGA "HAS COMMITTED A GRAVE ERROR OF INCALCULABLE CONSEQUENCE FOR THE CREDIBILITY OF THE CATHOLIC HIERARCHY."
3. (U) EL NUEVO DIARIO, RAN A SPECIAL "FOCUS" ARTICLE IN BOLD TYPE ON PAGE. IT SAID THAT THE BISHOP HAD SPOKEN AT A S
GIVEN BY THE HERITAGE FOUNDATION,
SAID THAT THE BISHOP'S STATEMENTS SHOWED THE IRRAT HATRED OF THE CATHOLIC HIERARCHY FOR THE REVOLUTION, THE HIERARCHY HAD MADE COMMON CAUSE WITH THE "MERCENA
AND THAT THE BISHOP WAS ONLY ANOTHER PIECE IN PRESIDE
REAGAN'S CAMPAIGN. END FINISHED BY SAYING THAT NO HON PERSON COULD HAVE SUCH BISHOPS ACT AS MEDIATORS.
4. (C) COMMENT: THE ATTENTION GIVEN TO BISHOP VEGA'S
REMARKS SHOW HOW MUCH THE FSLN FEARS THE DAMAGE T CHURCH CAN DO THE PARTY'S SELF PROCLAIMED IMAGE AS AN INNOCENT VICTIM OF THE USG. IT HOPES TO USE THE BISHOP'S OPEN APPEARANCE WITH CALERO, BERMUDEZ AND CRUZ ALSO TO DISCREDIT THE CHURCH, NOT ONLY AS A CRITIC OR POTENTIAL
[redacted]

MEDIATOR (IN THE EYES OF THE OUTSIDE WORLD), BUT ALSO AS A CENTER OF POLITICAL POWER IN NICARAGUA. UNABLE TO STRIKE BACK PUBLICLY AT THE FSLN IN JANUARY, WHEN PRO-GON MEDIA TRIED TO PAINT HIM AS A BISHOP THE SANDINISTAS COULD LIVE WITH, VEGA HAS NOW HAD THE LAST WORD, FOR NOW. BERGOLD

SUBJ: UNHRC - CHILE RESOLUTION: CHRC PRESIDENT WILL TRAVEL TO GENEVA

REF: GENEVA 2276

2. FOLLOWING DISCUSSIONS BETWEEN EMBASSY OFFICERS, INCLUDING THE AMBASSADOR, AND THE LEADERS OF THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION ON THE PROBLEMS FACED IN GENEVA, AND THE SUPPORT OF THE CHRC FOR THE U. S. RESOLUTION ON CHILE, CHRC PRESIDENT JAIME CASTILLO HAS DECIDED IT WOULD BE BEST TO TRAVEL IMMEDIATELY TO GENEVA. HE IS SCHEDULED TO DEPART SATURDAY MARCH 8, AND WILL ARRIVE IN GENEVA MARCH 9, AT 1735 ON IBERIA 550. HE WILL STAY AT HOTEL BRISTOL, TELEPHONE 022-32-44-00, AND HAS PROMISED TO CONTACT U. S. DELEGATION AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AFTER HIS ARRIVAL.

THAT THE CHRC SUPPORTS THE U. S. RESOLUTION. IN VIEW OF THIS, WE WILL NOT PRESS THE CHRC FURTHER HERE IN SANTIAGO FOR FOLLOW-UP TELEGRAMS TO THOSE PARTICIPATING IN THE UNHRC MEETING. END COMMENT)

3. FRENCH EMBASSY OFFICIALS HAVE TOLD THE AMBASSADOR AND THE CHRC THAT THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT HAS DECIDED TO SUPPORT THE U. S. RESOLUTION. CHRC (PACHECO) SAID FRENCH LATER CALLED THEM BACK, SAID SPAIN WAS CO-SPONSORING MEXICAN RESOLUTION, AND ASKED IF THAT MEANT ANY CHANGE IN CHRC POSITION. PACHECO TOLD THEM CHRC CONTINUED TO SUPPORT U. S. RESOLUTION AND HOPED FRANCE WOULD STAND FIRM.

4. DURING THE MEETING WITH THE CHRC OFFICIALS, THEY WERE PARTICULARLY CONCERNED THAT PARA 11 OF THE 1985 RESOLUTION ON CHILE HAS NOT BEEN INCLUDED IN THE U.S. RESOLUTION. THIS PARAGRAPH STATES THAT THE UNHRC HAS DECIDED TO EXAMINE THE QUESTION OF THE SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE IN THE NEXT SESSION AS A MATTER OF HIGHEST PRIORITY. THE CHRC REPRESENTATIVES INTERPRET THIS AS NECESSARY FOR THE CHILEAN CASE TO REMAIN AS A SPECIAL ITEM ON THE UNHRC AGENDA. AFTER CHECKING WITH THE U.S. DELEGATION IN GENEVA (AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER), WE ASSURED THE CHRC LEADERS THAT THIS PARAGRAPH HAD NO PRACTICAL EFFECT ON ESTABLISHING THE AGENDA. THE AGENDA FOR THE NEXT YEAR'S MEETING IS DECIDED BY THE UNHRC AS THE LAST ORDER OF BUSINESS, AND WILL BE DECIDED THIS YEAR ON THE LAST DAY OF THE MEETING, I.E. MARCH 14. THEY INDICATED THEIR UNDERSTANDING OF THIS MATTER, AND
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NO LONGER SEE THIS AS AN IMPEDIMENT TO THEIR SUPPORTING THE U.S. RESOLUTION. THEY ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT THEY INTEND TO TELL THEIR SUPPORTERS IN GENEVA THAT THEY SHOULD CONTINUE TO SUPPORT A SEPARATE ITEM ON THE AGENDA FOR CHILE, BUT THIS WILL HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH THEIR SUPPORTING THE U.S. RESOLUTION. IN OTHER WORDS, THEY AGREE THAT THE TWO ITEMS ARE SEPARATE AND THAT THEY CAN SUPPORT THE U.S. RESOLUTION AND THEN LATER SUPPORT THE NEED FOR A SEPARATE AGENDA ITEM FOR NEXT YEAR'S MEETING OF ..E UNHRC.

5. COMMENT: WE ARE PLEASED THAT CASTILLO HAS DECIDED TO TRAVEL TO GENEVA AND PARTICIPATE IN THE FINAL DAYS OF THE UNHRC MEETING. AS PRESIDENT OF THE CHRC, HE CAN SPEAK AUTHORITATIVELY FOR THE CHRC, AND SHOULD BE HELPFUL IN CONTACTING THE OTHER DELEGATIONS ON BEHALF OF THE U.S. RESOLUTION. ALTHOUGH HIS PRESENCE IN GENEVA WILL MOVE THE COORDINATION BETWEEN THE U.S. DELEGATION AND THE CHRC TO GENEVA, WE WOULD APPRECIATE BEING KEPT INFORMED OF PROGRESS ON THE CHILE QUESTION SO THAT WE MAY BE ABLE TO KEEP OUR CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS CONTACTS UP TO DATE.

WEEK'S EC POLITICAL DIRECTORS MEETING WHERE THEY HOPE TO HELP BROKER A EUROPEAN CONSENSUS ON A GENERAL APPROACH TO CHILE -- INCLUDING THE UNHRC RESOLUTION AS WELL AS THE GENERAL QUESTION OF POLITICAL DIALOGUE. OUR CONTACTS TELL US THAT SOME OF THEIR EC COLLEAGUES, SMELLING THE BLOOD OF MARCOS AND DUVALIER, ARE PUSHING FOR IRRESPONSIBLE GESTURES.

4. WHEN WE URGED THE BRITISH TO SUPPORT THE REVISED U.S. RESOLUTION TEXT, THE ANSWER WE WERE GIVEN WAS THAT BRITAIN STRONGLY PREFERS A COMPROMISE AND COMPOSITE US/MEXICAN TEXT WHICH WOULD A) HELP TO HOLD THE LINE IN THE EC, AND B) ENHANCE PROSPECTS FOR DIALOGUE IN CHILE.

5. OUR CONTACTS ASSERT THAT THEY SEE ACCEPTABLE COMMON POINTS IN THE TWO TEXTS, AND URGE THAT WE MAKE AT LEAST ONE MORE EFFORT TO ARRIVE AT A COMPROMISE WITH THE MEXICANS. THEY BELIEVE THE RESULT WILL BE EQUALLY POSITIVE NO MATTER WHICH DRAFT IS USED AS THE STARTING POINT.

6. INCIDENTALLY, THE BRITISH WERE UPSET THAT THEY ONLY RECEIVED A COPY OF THE RAPPORTEURS' REPORT ON MARCH 7, AND THAT IT WAS A SPANISH LANGUAGE TEXT. THEY HAD HOPED TO BE ABLE TO USE THE REPORT IN ORDER TO BUILD (AND EXPLAIN THEIR) SUPPORT FOR OUR DRAFT RESOLUTION.

7. COMMENT: OUR CONTACTS WERE FEELING HARRASSED. THEY COMPLAINED THAT MANAGING RELATIONS WITH CHILE IS TAKING 50 PERCENT OF THE TIME OF AN OFFICE WHICH DEALS WITH ALL OF SOUTH AMERICA (EXCEPT ARGENTINA AND GUYANA). Mr. Michael Durkee
Director
Southern Cone Office
Department of State
Room 4908
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Michael:

First let me thank you once again for all you did to obtain that my right to freely enter my country be respected.

As I rejoice on the happy outcome, I cannot help but think of the many Chileans who are still denied this fundamental right. You kindly said over the phone a couple of weeks ago that you would welcome suggestions regarding other Chileans on whose behalf the State Department or the U.S. Embassy in Chile might intercede. You indicated that it would be easier to do so, if the people in question had some connection with the United States.

It goes without saying that I firmly believe that the problem of political exile must be solved in its entirety. I know you would agree with that. That said, efforts on behalf of individuals are certainly important, and they need not hinder the larger aim of trying to put an end to political exile as soon as possible.

As to the Chileans who live in the United States and are still denied the right to freely enter Chile, those who are more active in the exiled community in the States, for instance, Eugenio Velasco, or Professor Claudio Grossman (himself the person still denied the right to go back to Chile) may suggest how to proceed in order to achieve ideally the best result for as many Chileans as possible.

I would like to put forward the case of further two Chileans whom I know personally and who despite the fact of not living in the U.S., do have a connection with the United States:

Jose Miguel Insulza (Insulza and Insunza are different, unrelated names). He is a lawyer, 43, and specialist in international affairs. He is a Professor at the Instituto de Estudios de los Estados Unidos of CIDA, the Centro de Investigaciones Y Docencia Economica of Mexico. Actually, he may become the next Director of the Center. Jose Miguel is well-known as a Latin American scholar with a strong expertise on the United States. His daughter Francisca Valeria Insulza, 15-years old, is actually an American citizen and I understand she lives in Washington, D.C. Jose Miguel studied in an American high school, St. George's which, as you know, is related to Notre Dame University. He received his master degree at the University of Michigan. Before the present government took over in 1973, Jose Miguel was one regular participant in the famous TV program "A Esta Hora se Improvisa", in Chile. In the course of that program, as he had to debate Jaime Guzman every week, he and Jaime developed quite a cordial entente. Jaime Guzman has been interceding on his behalf but so far with no visible results. Jose Miguel was allowed temporary entry in Chile at the same time I was there in January this year. During his stay there, Jaime Guzman and others intensified their efforts on behalf of Jose Miguel to the point that he thought permission for him to return to Chile was imminent. It turned out not to be the case and actually his brother in Chile received a letter from the government last month saying that "for the time being" Jose Miguel's request could not be accepted.

Herman Schwember. Herman is a civil engineer and an economist who obtained his Ph.D in Engineering Science at Berkeley, in 1969. He was exiled in 1975 after a period in prison. I happened to be his lawyer at that time, and I know well his case. Herman was a Vice President of the Catholic University in the period before the coup d'etat. During his 10 years in exiled, he has worked as an international consultant on issues of development, particularly question of non-renewable energy. He is based in London, has his own consulting firm, and has traveled extensively on different consulting projects. He has been allowed in Chile twice on temporary basis. While there, he has been avidly sought out by the University of Chile and other official groups who enormously value his professional expertise. Actually he is acknowledged to be one of the very best professionals in his field in Chile. It mystifies me that, even within the rationale of repressive policies (if there is one), a man like Herman Schwember can be denied access to his own country.

Thank you for your kind offer to consider taking up other cases of Chileans in exile. I will keep this correspondence confidential as I understand this discretion may be instrumental to secure results. Please do not hesitate to contact me for any further discussion of these or other cases.

Sincerely,

Jose Zalaquett

P.S. I have just confirmed that Jose Miguel Insulza's daughter is indeed an American citizen . She moved to Chile just two or three weeks ago. This is yet another reason for Jose Miguel to wish to return to Chile as he cannot visit her in Chile as freely as when she lived here in D.C.

2. NEGOTIATING SESSION WITH THE CHRC DELEGATION WHICH LASTED UNTIL 3 A.M. GENEVA TIME ON MARCH 12 PRODUCED AN AD REFERENDUM TEXT FOR THE CHILE RESOLUTION SUBJECT TO TWO UNRESOLVED QUESTIONS. MEXICAN REP MONTANO HAS TOLD ME THAT HE WOULD, SIGHT UNSEEN, ACCEPT A TEXT AGREED ON BY THE CHRC DELEGATION AND THE OTHER PRINCIPAL PLAYERS HAVE TOLD US THAT THEY, IN TURN WOULD ACCEPT A TEXT AGREED ON BETWEEN THE U.S. AND MEXICO. INSTRUCTIONS ARE REQUESTED. END SUMMARY.

3. CONTRARY TO EXPECTATIONS, CASTILLO'S ARRIVAL DID NOT RESULT IN ACCEPTANCE OF THE TEXT WE HAVE TABLED. IT WAS QUITE EVIDENT THAT WHATEVER INTERNAL POLITICAL FORCES CONFIDENTIAL

4. MEXICAN REP MONTANO HAS, INTERESTINGLY ENOUGH, STILL NOT CIRCULATED HIS TABLED TEXT AND CONTINUES TO EXPRESS THE HOPE THAT THE U.S. AND THE CHRC WILL REACH AGREEMENT. HE HAS EMPHASIZED THAT IF SUCH AGREEMENT IS REACHED, HE WILL PULL BACK HIS OWN TEXT AND SUPPORT THE U.S. TEXT. FRANCE AND SPAIN WOULD THEN JOIN AS CO-SPONSORS AND THE MOMENTUM FOR UNANIMOUS OR OVERWHELMING APPROVAL OF THE RESOLUTION WOULD BE THERE.

5. THERE REMAINS THE QUESTION OF WHETHER AGREEMENT CAN, IN FACT, BE REACHED WITH THE CHRC. IN A 5-HOUR NEGOTIATING SESSION WHICH LASTED UNTIL 3:00 A.M. AND IN WHICH DEL OFF LOU AMSELEM PERFORMED MAGNIFICENTLY AS INTERPRETER, WE DEVELOPED A MODIFIED TEXT AD REFERENDUM, SUBJECT TO TWO PRINCIPAL RESERVATIONS.

6. UNDER NORMAL CIRCUMSTANCES WE WOULD BE VOTING ON THE CHILE RESOLUTION ON MARCH 12 AROUND 5:00 P.M. GENEVA TIME.

MONTANO AND I HAVE, HOWEVER, RECHED AN UNDERSTANDING TO PUT THE MATTER OFF LONG ENOUGH TO ENABLE US TO GET OUR DUCKS IN A ROW. NEVERTHELESS WE NEED A DECISION ASAP.

7. IT WAS MADE CLEAR TO THE CHRC REPRESENTATIVES THAT THE

Mr. Secretary:

Attached is the Platt-Poindexter explaining our posture on the Chile resolution in the UNHRC. It provides useful background. This matter, however, moved somewhat further down the road without Seventh Floor input than I had thought.

Briefly, pursuing our policy of incremental pressure on the Chileans to move towards democracy, ARA, IO, and HA developed a draft resolution several months ago for submission to the UNHRC. Dick Schifter worked it over in Washington and carried it to the UNHRC in Geneva. He tabled the draft as a proposed U.S. resolution on March 6. Meanwhile, the political background covering our Chile policy changed substantially in February with the fall of the Duvalier and Marcos governments. What seemed like a cautious, careful policy in January now looks more like a governmental hit list.

Dick Schifter continues to negotiate our tabled draft and needs final instructions. I approved a cable this evening which permits four minor changes to our March 6 draft and no more. If those changes are insufficient, then our draft will undoubtedly lose. In that event, we have instructed our delegation to vote against the much harsher Mexican resolution. The current assessment is that these changes will not be sufficient and the Mexican draft resolution will carry.

This is not an optimum solution. I believe the amount of detail and specificity in our tabled resolution will play into the hands of those arguing we have a "hit list" policy. However, the resolution has been tabled, it is consistent with our Chile initiatives of the past six months, and withdrawing or overtly sabotaging it now would probably cause us more problems than going ahead with it.

I have asked that Dick Schifter try to postpone the vote long enough tomorrow to give you a chance to review this package.

MEMORANDUM FOR VADM JOHN M. POINDEXTER
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: U.S. Resolution on Chile in United Nations Human Rights Commission (UNHRC)

After UN General Assembly consideration of Chile last fall resulted yet again in an unsatisfactory outcome on the Chilean human rights situation, we decided to try a positive strategy at the current UNHRC meeting by taking the initiative ourselves and sponsoring our own resolution. Our efforts also sought to capitalize on the possibility for human rights improvements afforded by the Chilean government's decision last summer to cooperate with a new UN Special Rapporteur for Chile, former Costa Rican Foreign Minister Fernando Volio.

At the General Assembly in December, as in all previous years of this Administration, we had lobbied and voted against the discriminatory Chile resolution tabled by Mexico, Cuba and Algeria, which still passed easily with the support of our European allies and other Western democracies (only 10 countries joined us in voting no). Both Pinochet and the Communists subsequently exploited our principled vote against the double standard. Both asserted U.S. indifference to Chile's record on democracy and human rights.

Our strategy since the UNGA vote has focused on developing support in the UNHRC for a reasonable alternative to the traditional Mexican/Cuban resolution on Chile as a means of developing a fair statement of concern and possible progress on the Chilean human rights situation, while establishing a counterpoint to the traditional leftist resolution. (The UNHRC resolution generally forms the basis of the subsequent UNGA text.) Beginning in January, we consulted extensively with other governments, including Chile, and shared an initial draft of a resolution. We urged the GOC to take concrete steps on human rights to help gain support for our initiative, steps which unfortunately were not forthcoming. We also consulted with Chilean human rights figures, the Catholic Church, and democratic opposition leaders.

After obtaining indications of potential support (but no co-sponsors) from the Western members of the UNHRC, and determined to avoid another sterile outcome, we decided to table a U.S. draft resolution. Press interest was minimal when U.S. delegation chief Dick Schifter tabled a U.S. text March 6. Since then, we have refined our text following further consultations with other governments and Chileans (Tab A).

The press has now seized on our initiative to make assertions of a ficticious Administration policy shift on Chile in response to events in the Philippines and Haiti. At a press conference in Geneva yesterday, Dick Schifter was asked about the decision to introduce a resolution and responded that the resolution reflected long standing U.S. policy and then moved to a general description of our two track human rights approach: we engage in quiet diplomacy to try and bring about human rights improvements; "we go public when it appears that our quiet entreaties are not adequately responded to." Schifter's statement was cited by some conspiracy theorists in the press as prima facie evidence of a policy shift.

The U.S. text is competing with another Mexican resolution on Chile, once again supported by Cuba. Our delegation has instructions to only vote for our initiative and to vote against any competing draft. A vote is expected late tonight Geneva time. Whether or not our resolution ultimately succeeds, we have put ourselves in a solid position to deflect any efforts to portray us as indifferent to human rights, and effectively underlined our concerns on the double standard. We are providing new press guidance to reiterate that the resolution does not mean a policy shift or abandonment of private diplomacy, and that we will continue to use all channels to promote greater respect for human rights and a peaceful transition to democracy.

As a procedural issue, the delegation will seek tomorrow to eliminate discriminatory special agenda item treatment of Chile, and to bring Chile under the general agenda item on human rights.

Selected telegrams to the field providing guidance on this subject are attached (Tab B).

UNHRC 1986 Resolution on HR Chile

The Commission on Human Rights:

Aware of its responsibility to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms and resolved to remain vigilant with regard to violations of human rights wherever they occur.

Noting the obligation of the Government of Chile to respect and protect human rights in accordance with the international instruments to which Chile is a party, an obligation which is not different from that of any other government which is a party to international human rights instruments.

Recalling its successive resolutions on the situation of human rights in Chile and in particular its resolution 11 (XXXV) of 6 March 1979, by which it appointed a Special Rapporteur on the situation of those rights, and its resolution of 1985/47 of 14 March 1985, in which it agreed most recently to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one more year, and in view of the serious human rights violations in Chile to give high priority to the study of this issue.

Recalling also the concern expressed by the General Assembly on the situation of human rights in Chile in its resolutions 3219 (XXIX) of 6 November 1974, 3448 (XXX) of 9 December 1975, 31/124 of 16 December 1976, 32/118 of 16 December 1977, 33/175 of 20 December 1978, 34/179 of 17 December 1979, 35/188 of 15 December 1980, 36/157 of 16 December 1981, 37/183 of 17 December 1982, 38/102 of 16 December 1983, 39/121 of 14 December 1984 and in particular, General Assembly resolution 40/145 of 13 December 1985 in which the Assembly invited the Commission on Human Rights to take the most appropriate steps for the effective restoration of human rights and fundamental freedoms in that country, including the extension of the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one more year.

Having examined the Special Rapporteur's report:

1. Commends the efforts of the Special Rapporteur during his stay in Chile and appreciates his report on the situation of human rights in Chile, prepared in accordance with commission resolution 1985/47, and the efforts made by the Special Rapporteur during his stay in Chile.

2. Recognizes as a positive development the fact that the Government of Chile permitted the Special Rapporteur to enter the country and provided the cooperation and freedom of access to persons of all social, political and economic interests necessary for his investigation.

UNCLASSIFIED

8 6 0 8 7, 3 0 4 5 6 4

3. Expresses its concern, nevertheless, at the persistence of serious violations of human rights in Chile, as described in the report of the Special Rapporteur, which refers to such violations as disappearances and torture and abuses by security forces, the climate of insecurity, the prohibition preventing several thousand Chilean exiles from returning to their country, and the suppression of fundamental rights and freedoms through the maintenance of arbitrary executive powers during the prolonged period in which states of exception to constitutional rights have been in effect.

4. Expresses its conviction that a legal and political structure based on the consent of the governed, emerging from a civilized and constructive national dialogue, representative of the will of the people expressed in free elections, and respecting the full exercise of legal rights, is essential to the full observance of human rights in Chile, as in any other nation;

5. Once again appeals to the Government of Chile to respect human rights and to re-establish democratic institutions and the principle of legality in conformity with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which are essential to the effective enjoyment and exercise of human rights and fundamental freedoms and are in the best democratic traditon of Chile;

6. Notes with particular dismay the ineffectiveness of government and judicial authorities in preventing the recurrence of abuses by security forces, and expresses special concern over the failure of all the authoritative institutions to ensure the thorough investigation and prosecution of the many recent unsolved cases of murder, kidnapping and torture as well as the many cases of disappearances;

7. Strongly urges that the Government of Chile take at least the following steps, in conformity with the specifically labeled recommendations at the conclusion of the report to the Special Rapporteur and those set forth elsewhere in that document, and adapt the measures necessary and conducive thereto:

(A) Immediately put an end to all forms of physical and psychological torture by the security and police forces and reiterate and make public the order of 30 July 1985 by the Ministers of Defense and the Interior which calls for an end to these abuses;

(B) Proceed vigorously through judicial and administrative action to investigate all reports of torture, killings, kidnappings, or other human rights violations by the security forces, take appropriate action against all persons found guilty of such violations;

(C) Effect such reorganization of the security forces and of the police as may be necessary to end persistent problems of human rights;

(D) Cooperate fully and effectively with investigations of human rights violations, assuring in all such investigations the independence of the judiciary and the maximum effectiveness of judicial remedies, particularly amparo and habeas corpus;

(E) Proceed vigorously to end the activities of groups and bands, whether private or connected with security forces, which have been reported to be responsible for kidnappings, interrogations, intimidation and beatings of ordinary citizens, and punish those responsible, especially the leaders of those groups;

(F) Amend legislation, including the laws authorizing states of emergency, states of danger of disturbance of law and order and states of seige, so as to bring it into conformity with guarantees of basic human rights as defined in applicable international agreements;

(G) Provide for protection of public order against acts of violence by punishing persons found to have been guilty of such acts through the exercise of due process of law and respect for the rights of the accused, without using terrorism as justification for any abuse of authority;

(H) Establish a permanent system to monitor the conduct of the security and police forces, including the National Center of Investigations and the Corps of Carbineros, especially during periods of detention and interrogation.

(I) End the practice of ordering internal banishment without recourse to the judicial system;

(J) Allow the return of all Chilean citizens now living abroad who wish to return, and recognizing their continuing right to enter and leave freely;

(K) Reestablish the full enjoyment and exercise of labor rights and take into account the legitimate cultural and socio-economic interests of the population;

(L. Respect activities related to the defense and promotion of human rights.

8. Requests that the Government of Chile continue and increase its cooperation with the Special Rapporteur and fully implement his recommendations, and invites the Government to submit any comments it may have to the Commmission on Human Rights at its forty-third session.

9. Decides to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one year and to request him to report on the situation on human rights in Chile to the General Assembly at its forty-first session and the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-third session.

10. Recommends to the Economic and Social Council that it make appropriate arrangements to ensure that the necessary financial resources and sufficient staff are provided to implement this resolution.

11. Decides to consider at its forty-third session, as a matter of high priority, the human rights situation in Chile.

At the General Assembly in December, as in all previous years of this Administration, we had lobbied and voted against the discriminatory Chile resolution tabled by Mexico, Cuba and Algeria, which still passed easily with the support of our European allies and other Western democracies (only 10 countries joined us in voting no). Both Pinochet and the Communists subsequently exploited our principled vote against the double standard. Both asserted U.S. indifference to Chile's record on democracy and human rights.

Our strategy since the UNGA vote has focused on developing support in the UNHRC for a reasonable alternative to the traditional Mexican/Cuban resolution on Chile as a means of developing a fair statement of concern and possible progress on the Chilean human rights situation, while establishing a counterpoint to the traditional leftist resolution. (The UNHRC resolution generally forms the basis of the subsequent UNGA text.) Beginning in January, we consulted extensively with other governments, including Chile, and shared an initial draft of a resolution. We urged the GOC to take concrete steps on human rights to help gain support for our initiative, steps which unfortunately were not forthcoming. We also consulted with Chilean human rights figures, the Catholic Church, and democratic opposition leaders.

3. I TOLD HIM I WOULD WILLINGLY GIVE HIM MY REACTIONS TO WHATEVER HE HAD TO PROPOSE AND WOULD SEEK WASHINGTON JUDGMENTS AS WELL. WE AGREED TO GET TOGETHER AGAIN FOR DINNER THE NIGHT OF MARCH 19. IN THE MEANTIME, HE WOULD CALL ME IF ANYTHING URGENT CAME OUT OF THE CONVERSATION HE EXPECTED TO HAVE WITH THE PRESIDENT MARCH 13 OR 14 ON THE RESOLUTION. HE ADDED BY WAY OF BACKGROUND THAT HE HAD BEEN BRIEFING THE PRESIDENT ON THE RESOLUTION EARLIER ON THE 12TH AND SAID THAT AT LEAST IT WAS BETTER THAN THE STANDARD MEXICAN AND CUBAN RESOLUTION. AT SOME POINT, PINOCHET WAS HANDED A TICKLER REPORT FROM GENEVA QUOTING AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER AT A PRESS CONFERENCE, SAYING THERE WAS MUCH DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE US AND THE MEXICAN APPROACH AND QUOTING PORTIONS OF THE US RESOLUTION WHICH USED TRADITIONAL TERMS LIKE "CONDEMN." PINOCHET APPARENTLY BROKE OFF DEL VALLE'S EXPOSITION AT THAT POINT BY TELLING HIM HE'D BETTER FIND OUT WHAT HIS AMERICAN FRIENDS WERE REALLY UP TO. I TOLD DEL VALLE THE PRESS STORY LOOKED TO ME AS AT BEST A DISTORTION AND HE AGREED SAYING HE HAD CONVINCED THE PRESIDENT TO HOLD OFF ANY JUDGMENTS UNTIL THEY HAD THE FULL TEXT OF THE US RESOLUTION.

UNHRC Chile Resolution

TALKING POINTS FOR THE SECRETARY'S USE WITH THE PRESIDENT

-- I regret that our policy decisions on the UNHRC Chile resolution have not evolved as smoothly as we would like; my people and I must take the responsibility.

-- For the past six months we have engaged in a policy of quiet, careful signals to Pinochet, nudging him toward commitment to democratic transition.

-- Our public support for the Cardinal's "National Dialogue Plan," wider contacts with opposition leaders, and your letter to Pinochet were all part of this effort.

-- Three months ago, as a further step, we decided to seek a consensus UNHRC resolution on Chile.

-- Our objective was to preempt the harsh Mexican-Cuban resolution which normally passes, obtain consensus on a more moderate draft, avoid another US negative vote with the minority, and send a careful signal to Pinochet.

-- We consulted closely on the draft with the NSC, the Chilean government, Chilean opposition leaders, and our European and Latin American allies.

-- The draft was tabled at the UNHRC on March 6 and, after a week of negotiation, passed by consensus this morning.

-- Unfortunately, the political background behind our Chile strategy changed significantly over the last six weeks with the fall of the Duvalier and Marcos governments.

-- What seemed like a cautious, careful policy in January now looks like a "hit list" policy.

-- The policy has not changed, but our posture on this Chile resolution undoubtedly makes it appear so.

-- My people are preparing a message for Pinochet which clarifies our decision on the UNHRC vote.

-- I will watch our actions and signals towards Chile more carefully in the future; we moved too quickly this time without considering the changed circumstances brought about by Haiti and the Philippines.

UNHRC Chile Resolution

TALKING POINTS FOR THE SECRETARY'S USE WITH THE PRESIDENT

-- For more than a year we have engaged in a policy of carefully calibrated signals to Pinochet, nudging him towards commitment to democratic transition.

-- Our public support for the Cardinal's "National Dialogue Plan," wider contacts with opposition leaders, and your letter to Pinochet were all part of this effort.

-- Three months ago, as a further step, we decided to seek support for a balanced UNHRC resolution on Chile in an effort to capitalize on Chilean government willingness to cooperate with a new UN Special Rapporteur.

-- Our objective was to preempt the harsh Mexican-Cuban resolution which normally passes, obtain consensus on a more moderate draft, avoid another US negative vote with the minority, and send a careful signal to Pinochet.

-- Since December we have consulted closely on the draft with the Chilean government, Chilean democratic opposition, Catholic Church, and human rights leaders, and our European and Latin American allies.

-- The draft was tabled at the UNHRC on March 6 and, after a week of negotiation, passed by consensus this morning.

-- This victory superseded an attempt first by the Cubans, and then the Soviets to put forward another extremist text and prevent our achieving a moderate outcome at Geneva.

-- While this successful and prudent strategy was unfolding overseas, the context at home changed significantly over the last six weeks with the fall of the Duvalier and Marcos governments.

-- Critics and doubters of our policy on democracy now are claiming a major shift towards a "hit list" approach and are using the UNHRC resolution as evidence.

-- We have already issued press guidance to make clear that there has been no policy shift, that we have not abandoned quiet diplomacy, and that we support a peaceful transition as defined by Chileans themselves.

-- We are preparing a possible message to Pinochet to follow up on your letter of November 7.

-- I will continue to watch our actions and signals toward Chile carefully to ensure that we stay in a balanced posture.

MEMORANDUM FOR VADM JOHN M. POINDEXTER
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: U.S. Resolution on Chile in United Nations Human Rights Commission (UNHRC)

After UN General Assembly consideration of Chile last fall resulted yet again in an unsatisfactory outcome on the Chilean human rights situation, we decided to try a positive strategy at the current UNHRC meeting by taking the initiative ourselves and sponsoring our own resolution. Our efforts also sought to capitalize on the possibility for human rights improvements afforded by the Chilean government's decision last summer to cooperate with a new UN Special Rapporteur for Chile, former Costa Rican Foreign Minister Fernando Volio.

At the General Assembly in December, as in all previous years of this Administration, we had lobbied and voted against the discriminatory Chile resolution tabled by Mexico, Cuba and Algeria, which still passed easily with the support of our European allies and other Western democracies (only 10 countries joined us in voting no). Both Pinochet and the Communists subsequently exploited our principled vote against the double standard. Both asserted U.S. indifference to Chile's record on democracy and human rights.

Our strategy since the UNGA vote has focused on developing support in the UNHRC for a reasonable alternative to the traditional Mexican/Cuban resolution on Chile as a means of developing a fair statement of concern and possible progress on the Chilean human rights situation, while establishing a counterpoint to the traditional leftist resolution. (The UNHRC resolution generally forms the basis of the subsequent UNGA text.) Beginning in January, we consulted extensively with other governments, including Chile, and shared an initial draft of a resolution. We urged the GOC to take concrete steps on human rights to help gain support for our initiative, steps which unfortunately were not forthcoming. We also consulted with Chilean human rights figures, the Catholic Church, and democratic opposition leaders.

DECL: OADR

After obtaining indications of potential support (but no co-sponsors) from the Western members of the UNHRC, and determined to avoid another sterile outcome, we decided to table a U.S. draft resolution. Press interest was minimal when U.S. delegation chief Dick Schifter tabled a U.S. text March 6. Since then, we have refined our text following further consultations with other governments and Chileans (Tab A).

The press has now seized on our initiative to make assertions of a ficticious Administration policy shift on Chile in response to events in the Philippines and Haiti. At a press conference in Geneva yesterday, Dick Schifter was asked about the decision to introduce a resolution and responded that the resolution reflected long standing U.S. policy and then moved to a general description of our two track human rights approach: we engage in quiet diplomacy to try and bring about human rights improvements; "we go public when it appears that our quiet entreaties are not adequately responded to." Schifter's statement was cited by some conspiracy theorists in the press as prima facie evidence of a policy shift.

The U.S. text is competing with another Mexican resolution on Chile, once again supported by Cuba. Our delegation has instructions to only vote for our initiative and to vote against any competing draft. A vote is expected late tonight Geneva time. Whether or not our resolution ultimately succeeds, we have put ourselves in a solid position to deflect any efforts to portray us as indifferent to human rights, and effectively underlined our concerns on the double standard. We are providing new press guidance to reiterate that the resolution does not mean a policy shift or abandonment of private diplomacy, and that we will continue to use all channels to promote greater respect for human rights and a peaceful transition to democracy.

As a procedural issue, the delegation will seek tomorrow to eliminate discriminatory special agenda item treatment of Chile, and to bring Chile under the general agenda item on human rights.

Selected telegrams to the field providing guidance on this subject are attached (Tab B).

Executive Secretary

UNHRC 1986 Resolution on HR Chile

The Commission on Human Rights:

Aware of its responsibility to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms and resolved to remain vigilant with regard to violations of human rights wherever they occur.

Noting the obligation of the Government of Chile to respect and protect human rights in accordance with the international instruments to which Chile is a party, an obligation which is not different from that of any other government which is a party to international human rights instruments.

Recalling its successive resolutions on the situation of human rights in Chile and in particular its resolution 11 (XXXV) of 6 March 1979, by which it appointed a Special Rapporteur on the situation of those rights, and its resolution of 1985/47 of 14 March 1985, in which it agreed most recently to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one more year, and in view of the serious human rights violations in Chile to give high priority to the study of this issue.

Recalling also the concern expressed by the General Assembly on the situation of human rights in Chile in its resolutions 3219 (XXIX) of 6 November 1974, 3448 (XXX) of 9 December 1975, 31/124 of 16 December 1976, 32/118 of 16 December 1977, 33/175 of 20 December 1978, 34/179 of 17 December 1979, 35/188 of 15 December 1980, 36/157 of 16 December 1981, 37/183 of 17 December 1982, 38/102 of 16 December 1983, 39/121 of 14 December 1984 and in particular, General Assembly resolution 40/145 of 13 December 1985 in which the Assembly invited the Commission on Human Rights to take the most appropriate steps for the effective restoration of human rights and fundamental freedoms in that country, including the extension of the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one more year.

Having examined the Special Rapporteur's report:

1. Commends the efforts of the Special Rapporteur during his stay in Chile and appreciates his report on the situation of human rights in Chile, prepared in accordance with commission resolution 1985/47, and the efforts made by the Special Rapporteur during his stay in Chile.

2. Recognizes as a positive development the fact that the Government of Chile permitted the Special Rapporteur to enter the country and provided the cooperation and freedom of access to persons of all social, political and economic interests necessary for his investigation.

3. Expresses its concern, nevertheless, at the persistence of serious violations of human rights in Chile, as described in the report of the Special Rapporteur, which refers to such violations as disappearances and torture and abuses by security forces, the climate of insecurity, the prohibition preventing several thousand Chilean exiles from returning to their country, and the suppression of fundamental rights and freedoms through the maintenance of arbitrary executive powers during the prolonged period in which states of exception to constitutional rights have been in effect.

4. Expresses its conviction that a legal and political structure based on the consent of the governed, emerging from a civilized and constructive national dialogue, representative of the will of the people expressed in free elections, and respecting the full exercise of legal rights, is essential to the full observance of human rights in Chile, as in any other nation;

5. Once again appeals to the Government of Chile to respect human rights and to re-establish democratic institutions and the principle of legality in conformity with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which are essential to the effective enjoyment and exercise of human rights and fundamental freedoms and are in the best democratic traditon of Chile;

6. Notes with particular dismay the ineffectiveness of government and judicial authorities in preventing the recurrence of abuses by security forces, and expresses special concern over the failure of all the authoritative institutions to ensure the thorough investigation and prosecution of the many recent unsolved cases of murder, kidnapping and torture as well as the many cases of disappearances;

7. Strongly urges that the Government of Chile take at least the following steps, in conformity with the specifically labeled recommendations at the conclusion of the report to the Special Rapporteur and those set forth elsewhere in that document, and adapt the measures necessary and conducive thereto:

(A) Immediately put an end to all forms of physical and psychological torture by the security and police forces and reiterate and make public the order of 30 July 1985 by the Ministers of Defense and the Interior which calls for an end to these abuses;

(B) Proceed vigorously through judicial and administrative action to investigate all reports of torture, killings, kidnappings, or other human rights violations by the security forces, take appropriate action against all persons found guilty of such violations;

(C) Effect such reorganization of the security forces and of the police as may be necessary to end persistent problems of human rights;

(D) Cooperate fully and effectively with investigations of human rights violations, assuring in all such investigations the independence of the judiciary and the maximum effectiveness of judicial remedies, particularly amparo and habeas corpus;

(E) Proceed vigorously to end the activities of groups and bands, whether private or connected with security forces, which have been reported to be responsible for kidnappings, interrogations, intimidation and beatings of ordinary citizens, and punish those responsible, especially the leaders of those groups;

(F) Amend all legislation, including the laws authorizing states of emergency, states of danger of disturbance of law and order and states of seige, so as to bring it into conformity with guarantees of basic human rights as defined in applicable international agreements;

(G) Provide for protection of public order against acts of violence by punishing persons found to have been guilty of such acts through the exercise of due process of law and respect for the rights of the accused, without using terrorism as justification for any abuse of authority;

(H) Establish a permanent system to monitor the conduct of the security and police forces, including the National Center of Investigations and the Corps of Carbineros, especially during periods of detention and interrogation.

(I) End the practice of ordering internal banishment without recourse to the judicial system;

(J) Allow the return of all Chilean citizens now living abroad who wish to return, and recognizing their continuing right to enter and leave freely;

(K) Reestablish the full enjoyment and exercise of labor rights and take into account the legitimate cultural and socio-economic interests of the population;

(L) Respect activities related to the defense and promotion of human rights.

8. Requests that the Government of Chile continue and increase its cooperation with the Special Rapporteur and fully implement his recommendations, and invites the Government to submit any comments it may have to the Commmission on Human Rights at its forty-third session.

9. Decides to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one year and to request him to report on the situation on human rights in Chile to the General Assembly at its forty-first session and the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-third session.

10. Recommends to the Economic and Social Council that it make appropriate arrangements to ensure that the necessary financial resources and sufficient staff are provided to implement this resolution.

11. Decides to consider at its forty-third session, as a matter of high priority, the human rights situation in Chile.

SUBJ: FONMIN DEL VALLE CRITICIZES THE U.S. RESOLUTION ON CHILE

REF: SANTIAGO 1507

1. (C) SUMMARY: CHILEAN FOREIGN MINISTER DEL VALLE HAS REACTED SHARPLY TO THE U.S. SPONSORED RESOLUTION IN GENEVA, CHARACTERIZING IT AS AN INTERFERENCE IN CHILEAN AFFAIRS. HOWEVER, HE DEFENDED THE DECISION TO ADMIT SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR VOLIO SINCE CHILE HAD NOTHING TO HIDE. HE PROMISED THAT FOR THE FIRST TIME THE GOC WOULD MAKE A RESPONSE TO THE UNHRC RESOLUTION. MEANWHILE, CHILEAN ALTERNATE DELEGATE IN GENEVA, PATRICIO DAMM, HINTED THAT THE GOC MIGHT END ITS COOPERATION WITH THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR IN THE FUTURE. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) SPEAKING TO THE PRESS ON MARCH 11, CHILEAN FOREIGN MINISTER JAIME DEL VALLE STATED THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION ON CHILE WHICH THE U.S. HAS PROPOSED AT GENEVA CONTAINED SEVERAL POINTS THAT CONSTITUTED AN INTERFERENCE IN INTERNAL CHILEAN AFFAIRS. HE WAS PARTICULARLY UPSET BY THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FERNANDO VOLIO THAT ARE INCLUDED IN THE U.S. RESOLUTION, CHARACTERIZING THEM AS BEYOND THE PARAMETERS OF VOLIO'S MANDATE. DEL VALLE ADDED THAT THE BEST ANSWER THAT COULD BE GIVEN TO THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE WAS THE OPINION EXPRSSED BY NTERIOR MINISTER RICARDO GARCIA IN HIS SPEECH OF 11 MARCH MARKING THE FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE PROMULGATION OF THE 1980 CONSTITUTION. IN THIS SPEECH, GARCIA EMPHASIZED THAT THE GOC WOULD NOT BOW TO FOREIGN INTERVENTION OR EXTERNAL PRESSURES.

3. (U) WHEN ASKED IF THE U.S. RESOLUTION MARKED THE END OF THE SO-CALLED "SILENT DIPLOMACY," DEL VALLE REPLIED THAT THAT APPEARED TO BE THE CASE. HE REFUSED TO COMMENT AS TO WHETHER THE U.S. AMBASSADOR HAD INFORMED HIM OF ANY CHANGE IN U.S. POLICY, BUT ADDED THAT HE CONVERSED WITH THE AMBASSADOR ON A REGULAR BASIS AND THAT THESE MEETINGS HAD NOT ENDED. DEL VALLE REFUSED TO COMMENT FURTHER ON THE RESOLUTION OR THE SUPPOSED CHANGE IN U.S. ATTITUDES, STATING THAT THE GOC WOULD INSTEAD PREPARE A RESPONSE TO THE FINAL RESOLUTION ADOPTED IN GENEVA. "LA TERCERA," A SANTIAGO DAILY, STATED IN ITS MARCH 12 EDITION THAT THE GOC WOULD CONSIDER SUSPENDING ITS COOPERATION WITH THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

DEPENDING UPON THE TEXT OF THE FINAL RESOLUTION. ALSO, THEY WOULD REJECT ANY ATTEMPT TO NAME A NEW SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR. THESE VIEWS WERE CONTAINED IN AN ARTICLE ON DEL VALLE'S REACTION BUT WERE NOT ATTRIBUTED TO A SOURCE.

4. (U) FORMER INTERIOR MINISTER SERGIO JARPA (SEE SEPTEL) HAS BEEN QUOTED AS SAYING THAT THE DECISION TO ADMIT VOLIO TO CHILE WAS A GRAVE MISTAKE. IN RESPONSE, DEL VALLE HAS DEFENDED THE DECISION, SAYING THAT THE ADMISSION OF VOLIO DEMONSTRATED THAT THE GOC HAD NOTHING TO HIDE. IN ADDITION, HE SAID THAT IT WAS NORMAL FOR THE GOC TO COOPERATE WITH AN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF WHICH IT WAS A MEMBER. THE DECISION TO ADMIT VOLIO "WAS A DEMONSTRATION OF THE GOOD-WILL OF THE GOVERNMENT." NOW THAT THE REPORT HAS BEEN PRESENTED "WE ARE GOING TO SHOW THAT IT IS NOT A GOOD REPORT." DEL VALLE INSISTED THAT HE DID NOT DESIRE TO BE DRAWN INTO AN ARGUMENT WITH JARPA, BUT GAVE HIS OPINION THAT IT WAS EASY FOR JARPA TO MAKE A JUDGMENT AFTER THE FACT. HE IMPLIED THAT JARPA WOULD HAVE MADE THE SAME RECOMMENDATION IF HE HAD BEEN THE FOREIGN MINISTER. FINALLY, WHEN ASKED IF THE DECISION TO ADMIT VOLIO HAD BEEN A MISTAKE, DEL VALLE REPLIED IN THE NEGATIVE.

5. (C) IN COMMENTS TO THE PRESS ON MARCH 12, DEL VALLE MAINTAINED HIS WAIT AND SEE ATTITUDE. HE PROMISED THAT CHILE, FOR THE FIRST TIME, WOULD MAKE A FORMAL RESPONSE TO WHATEVER RESOLUTION IS FINALLY ADOPTED IN GENEVA. THIS WOULD BE IN LINE WITH CHILE'S PREVIOUS DECISION TO WORK WITHIN THE SYSTEM. DEL VALLE SAID THAT IT WAS AN INCREDIBLE

INCLUDED ON THE LIST WERE MEXICO AND ALGERIA. DAMM WENT ON TO SAY THAT CHILE WOULD CONTINUE TO COOPERATE WITH THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR, BUT OMINOUSLY ADDED THAT THIS WAS CONDITIONAL UPON THE LEGITIMACY OF HIS MISSION. HE DESCRIBED THIS AS CONFINING THE MISSION TO THE AREAS THAT CORRESPOND TO HUMAN RIGHTS AND THAT DEAL WITH SOLUTIONS TO THE HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS THAT MAY EXIST IN CHILE. THE GOC WOULD NOT, HOWEVER, COOPERATE WITH ACTIONS THAT WERE ILLEGITIMATE OR WITH PURELY POLITICAL MANEUVERS.

SUBJECT: UNHRC Consideration of Chile

SUMMARY: After the annual unsatisfactory outcome to UNGA consideration of Chile's human rights situation in December, we adopted a positive strategy for the current UNHRC meeting to deflect passage of another discriminatory Mexican/Cuban resolution and to thwart efforts by Pinochet and the Communists to portray us as indifferent to democracy and human rights in Chile. Our victory today in Geneva is a defeat for Cuban/Soviet diplomacy. This success will please neither the Chilean Communists nor Pinochet. In following up, our immediate task is to deflect unhelpful commentary by Administration critics claiming a policy shift. We are also considering means of reiterating to Pinochet our desire to avoid confrontation, perhaps through a new Presidential message.

BACKGROUND

At the General Assembly in December, as in all previous years of this Administration, we had lobbied and voted against the traditional discriminatory Chile resolution tabled by Mexico, Cuba and Algeria, yet supported by most Western democracies. Although our principled opposition in December to the Mexican/Cuban resolution did not affect its overwhelming approval, the Pinochet government touted our position as U.S. support. The Chilean Communists, with the Soviets and their allies, flagged our negative vote as U.S. indifference to Chile's record on human rights and democracy. Talks here and in Santiago with leaders of Chile's democratic opposition showed that Pinochet/Communist disinformation was succeeding.

POSITIVE STRATEGY

Determined to clarify our stand on democracy and human rights and on the double standard, Dick Schifter and I, working closely with senior IO officers and Harry Barnes, decided early in January to make a major effort to deflect passage of the predictable Mexican/Cuban draft at the current UNHRC meeting. (The UNHRC text generally sets the parameters for the subsequent UNGA resolution.) Our efforts sought to capitalize on the possibility for human rights improvements afforded by the Chilean government's decision last summer to cooperate with a new UN Special Rapporteur for Chile, former Costa Rican Foreign Minister Fernando Volio.

Our strategy focused on developing support in the UNHRC for a balanced, accurate text on Chile as a means of developing a fair statement of concern and possible progress on the Chilean human rights situation, while establishing a counterpoint to the traditional leftist resolution. After initial discussions by Harry Barnes with the ambassadors of key Western democracies in Santiago, and with leading Chilean human rights figures and Cardinal Fresno, we circulated a draft text to WEOG capitals and Latins who might help. At the same time, Barnes briefed the Chilean government and urged adoption of concrete human rights improvements to gain support for both a balanced resolution and end to discriminatory consideration of Chile under a separate UN agenda item.

UNHRC MEETING: CHRONOLOGY

Despite our demarches, other governments balked at co-sponsoring such a Chile resolution. In late February, as the UNHRC was about to get underway, we made another set of demarches to try to obtain co-sponsors. At that time, with the agreement of IO and Harry Barnes, Dick Schifter and I decided to table our text alone if necessary. Then Volio's final report was issued, much more critical than his preliminary assessment. As the GOC had not only failed to make any significant rights improvements, but in January had taken several steps backwards, we amended our original draft in a bid for WEOG and Latin support. We also agreed to argue the special agenda item as a separate procedural issue.

After receiving indications of potential support, but no co-sponsors, on March 6 Dick Schifter tabled a U.S. resolution. The Mexicans had already introduced their text, once again with strong Cuban support. The media took no notice until later the following week.

We continued discussions, as throughout this process, with Chileans in government, the Church, the democratic opposition and human rights community, and refined our text further to broaden its appeal. Most Western delegations conditioned support on agreement of the "Chilean opposition" to our draft. We gained the backing of the democratic opposition, and superseded an attempt first by Cubans and the Soviets to prevent a moderate outcome. After considerable parliamentary maneuvering, our resolution was adopted today by consensus.

IMPLICATIONS

Because of our initiative and Dick Schifter's strenuous efforts in Geneva, we are now in a solid position to deflect new efforts by the Communists - Pinochet to portray us as indifferent to democracy and human ri .. And we have effectively underlined again our concerns on the uble standard.

Given the change in context due to events in Haiti and the Philippines, both critics and doubters of our policy on democracy are claiming a major shift. To deflect such unhelpful commentary, we have issued press guidance reiterating that the resolution does not mean a policy shift or abandonment of private diplomacy, and that we will continue to use all channels to promote greater respect for human rights and a peaceful transition to democracy.

As expected, the GOC publicly has objected to our resolution. But Foreign Minister Del Valle's initial private comments to Barnes this week were muted. Del Valle suggested they work together on ways to implement Volio's recommendations. Similarly, Interior Minister Garcia told Barnes yesterday that he was interested in looking at what could be done in showing responsiveness to Volio's recommendations, and did not criticize our sponsoring a resolution. Pinochet's reaction could be different. We will look for opportunities to get the message to Pinochet that we are serious, but hope to resolve our concerns in a non-confrontational manner.

GARCIA FEELS THERE IS A CHANCE TO TAKE THE VOLIO REPORT AS A WORKING BASIS, AND PROCEED ALONG TWO LINES. FIRSTLY, IN THOSE AREAS WHERE THERE WERE PROBLEMS THAT NEEDED CORRECTION AND COULD BE CORRECTED, THE GOC WOULD ATTEMPT TO MAKE VISIBLE PROGRESS. GARCIA RECOGNIZED THAT PROGRESS WOULD PROBABLY NOT BE FAST ENOUGH TO SATISFY CHILE'S CRITICS, BUT HE ARGUED THAT THE "DIRECTION" WOULD BE CLEAR. 1. (S) - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: PRESIDENT MONGE AND FOREIGN MINISTER GUTIERREZ SAY THERE IS NO BORDER AGREEMENT WITH NICARAGUA (ONLY A DRAFT) AND THAT THEY ARE STILL A LONG WAY FROM REACHING AN AGREEMENT. MONGE UNDERSTANDS, HOWEVER, THAT THE APPEARANCE OF PROGRESS WILL BE USED AGAINST THE PRESIDENT'S REQUEST FOR AID TO THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE. HE IS SENDING A LETTER TO THE PRESIDENT WHOSE PRINCIPAL POINTS WILL BE THAT COSTA RICA WANTS A PEACEFUL SOLUTION, HAS NOT GOTTEN ONE YET, AND BELIEVES MORE PRESSURE IS NEEDED FOR THAT REASON.

MONGE IS UNHAPPY WITH WHAT HE CALLS GUATEMALA "EVASIVENESS," WHICH HAS ARISEN OUT OF CONFLICTING GUATEMALAN AND COSTA RICAN AMBITIONS FOR A CENTRAL AMERICAN SUMMIT.

MONGE IS DEEPLY SKEPTICAL OF CONTADORA'S (AND THE EUROPEANS') PREMISE THAT THEIR MEDIATION CAN RETURN THE SANDINISTAS TO THE ORIGINAL GOALS OF THE REVOLUTION.

~~SECRET~~ UNCLASSIFIED

GUTIERREZ ADVISED US THAT THE MEETING OF 13 CONTADORA FOREIGN MINISTERS SCHEDULED FOR MARCH 21 IN PANAMA HAS BEEN POSTPONED UNTIL APRIL. END SUMMARY.

3. ACCOMPANIED BY AMB. TAMBS AND ARA/CEN OFFICER HAMILTON, I SPENT AN HOUR AND A HALF WITH PRESIDENT MONGE AND FOREIGN MINISTER GUTIERREZ MARCH 14.

4. AS IN MY PREVIOUS STOPS, I BEGAN BY EXPRESSING CONFIDENCE THAT THE PRESIDENT WILL GET THE RESOURCES NECESSARY TO STEP UP THE PRESSURE ON THE SANDINISTAS. I SAID WE WOULD ACTIVATE THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK DURING THE PERIOD BEFORE NEW SUPPLIES REACH THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE, AND INVITED PRESIDENT MONGE TO GIVE ME HIS VIEWS.

5. MONGE RESPONDED BY PICKING UP ON SEVERAL POINTS IN MY OPENING REMARKS AND WEAVING THEM INTO A PRESENTATION WHOSE MAIN THEME WAS THE NEED TO BE TOUGH WITH THE SANDINISTAS. HE SAID THIS IS THE FIRST TIME IN HISTORY THAT CENTRAL AMERICA HAS HAD FOUR DEMOCRATICALLY ELECTED GOVERNMENTS. BUT THE COINCIDENCE OF THIS WITH A LEFTIST, MILITARY DICTATORSHIP IN NICARAGUA ALLIED TO THE SOVIET UNION IS A "CATASTROPHE." COSTA RICA FOUGHT SOMOZA FOR 40 YEARS, BUT WOULD PREFER SOMOZA TO THE SANDINISTAS. FOR THREE YEARS CONTADORA HAS TRIED TO BRING PEACE BY WORKING ON THE ASSUMPTION THAT THE NICARAGUAN REVOLUTION CAN BE RETURNED TO ITS ORIGINAL GOALS. THIS IS ALSO A FAVORITE EUROPEAN NOTION, PARTICULARLY OF THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL. MONGE DOUBTS THAT THIS CAN HAPPEN AND SAYS CONTADORA CANNOT CONTINUE INDEFINITELY. IT IS BECOMING A POINT OF FRICTION AMONG LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS AND BETWEEN THE LATINS AND THE UNITED STATES. MONGE CONCLUDED BY SAYING THAT, ONCE FULLY CONSOLIDATED, THE SANDINISTAS WOULD TURN THEIR ENERGIES AGAINST THE DEMOCRACIES.

6. I RESPONDED TO THIS LAST POINT BY SAYING WE DO NOT UNDERSTAND WHY COSTA RICA, WITH SUCH A CLEAR APPRECIATION OF THE DANGER, HAD TWO DAYS BEFORE SIGNED AN AGREEMENT OF ENORMOUS STRATEGIC, TACTICAL AND POLITICAL BENEFIT TO THE SANDINISTAS. I EXPLAINED HOW IT PLAYS INTO THE HANDS OF THE PRESIDENT'S OPPONENTS. WE THINK IT IS A BAD IDEA AT ANY TIME, I SAID. COMING THREE OR FOUR DAYS BEFORE A CRITICAL VOTE IN THE CONGRESS IS MUCH WORSE. I NOTED THAT WE HAD RECEIVED REPEATED ASSURANCES -- AS RECENTLY AS A WEEK AGO -- THAT TALKS ON A BORDER COMMISSION WOULD BE DRAGGED OUT.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

7. IN RESPONSE, FOREIGN MINISTER GUTIERREZ SAID A) THERE IS NOT YET AN AGREEMENT, ONLY A DRAFT OF "BASES" FOR AN EVENTUAL AGREEMENT; B) THERE WAS STILL A LONG WAY TO GO TO GET AN AGREEMENT, INCLUDING FUNDING, FURTHER TALKS AND LEGISLATIVE APPROVAL; C) IF AN AGREEMENT MATERIALIZED, IT WOULD ONLY BE IMPLEMENTED IN THE CONTEXT OF A GLOBAL REGIONAL SETTLEMENT; AND D) COSTA RICA HAD TAKEN THE INITIATIVE TO CREATE SUCH A COMMISSION MORE THAN THREE YEARS BEFORE, BUT NICARAGUA HAD REJECTED THE IDEA. COSTA RICA WOULD LOOK RIDICULOUS IF IT BACKED AWAY FROM ITS OWN PROPOSAL. I SAID I UNDERSTOOD THESE POINTS, BUT THE AGREEMENT TO SEEK FUNDING INTERNATIONALLY MEANS THE PROJECT WILL GATHER MOMENTUM. AND THE LEGAL STATUS OF THE DRAFT AGREEMENT WILL MAKE LITTLE DIFFERENCE TO THE PRESIDENT'S OPPONENTS, WHO WILL ARGUE THAT THE AGREEMENT SHOWS THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICANS CAN WORK THINGS OUT IF THE U.S. WILL ONLY STAY OUT.

8. AFTER FURTHER DISCUSSION (DURING WHICH MONGE REMAINED SILENT), MONGE AGREED TO TRY TO LIMIT THE DAMAGE TO US BY SENDING THE PRESIDENT A LETTER HE CAN USE WITH CONGRESSMEN. ITS MAIN POINTS WOULD BE A) THERE IS NO AGREEMENT WITH NICARAGUA; B) COSTA RICA HAS TRIED FOR THREE YEARS TO GET A PEACEFUL SOLUTION WITH NICARAGUA, BUT WITHOUT RESULTS SO FAR; AND C) PRESSURE AGAINST THE SANDINISTAS IS NECESSARY. MONGE SAID HE WOULD GET THE LETTER TO US BY MONDAY. AMB. TAMBS WILL FOLLOW UP.

9. MONGE COMPLAINED AT SOME LENGTH ABOUT GUATEMALAN "EVASIVENESS", PARTICULARLY IN THE CONTEXT OF COSTA RICA'S AND GUATEMALA'S CONFLICTING AMBITIONS FOR A CENTRAL AMERICAN SUMMIT. MONGE WANTS TO HOLD A SUMMIT OF THE FOUR DEMOCRACIES IN APRIL, BEFORE HE LEAVES OFFICE IN MAY. ITS PURPOSE WOULD BE TO REVISE INTRA-REGIONAL TRADE. NICARAGUA WOULD BE EXCLUDED ON PRACTICAL (AND, IMPLICITLY, POLITICAL) GROUNDS. GUATEMALA WANTS TO HOST A SUMMIT OF THE FIVE IN MAY AND OBJECTS STRONGLY TO ANY SUMMIT BEFORE THEN. COSTA RICA OFFERED TO LOWER ITS MEETING TO THE VICE PRESIDENTIAL LEVEL, BUT GUATEMALA REFUSED, AFTER BEING TOLD BY THE NICARAGUANS THAT A SUMMIT OF THE FOUR WOULD "MAKE IT DIFFICULT" FOR THEM TO ATTEND A MEETING OF THE FIVE. COSTA RICA HAD REJECTED GUATEMALA'S SUGGESTION THAT THE MEETING OF THE FIVE BE EXPANDED TO INCLUDE ECONOMIC TOPICS. NICARAGUA IS UNABLE TO CLEAR NEARLY $400 MILLION OF ARREARAGES TO ITS NEIGHBORS, AND NEITHER THE U.S. NOR THE SOVIET UNION WILL PAY ITS DEBTS. AFTER LISTENING, I TOLD MONGE MY IMPRESSION IS THAT CEREZO IS, ON THE WHOLE, PRETTY

SOLID. HE HAS NO ILLUSIONS ABOUT THE SANDINISTAS. HE KNOWS WHERE THE GUATEMALAN GUERRILLAS GET THEIR SUPPLIES. I NOTED THAT DUARTE HAS SHOWN NO INTEREST IN EXPANDING THE GUATEMALAN SUMMIT TO INCLUDE ECONOMIC TOPICS AND THAT HE AND CEREZO WERE INTERESTED IN PRESSING THE SANDINISTAS ON DEMOCRACY, MEETING WITH THE OPPOSITION AND ELECTIONS FOR A PARLIAMENT.

10. ON CONTADORA AND RELATED MATTERS, MONGE MADE CLEAR HIS SKEPTICISM THAT IT WOULD EVER PROSPER BUT AGREED THAT IT COULD NOT BE ABANDONED. AS DUARTE HAD, HE WARNED AGAINST THE U.S. BEING SEEN AS TORPEDOING CONTADORA. GUTIERREZ SAID PANAMA HAD JUST THAT DAY (3/14) ADVISED THAT THE MEETING OF 13 CONTADORA FOREIGN MINISTERS SCHEDULED FOR MARCH 21 WAS BEING POSTPONED UNTIL APRIL, APPARENTLY FOR REASONS OF DOMESTIC INSTABILITY. MONGE (ECHOED BY GUTIERREZ) WAS PARTICULARLY CRITICAL OF MEXICO'S CONTADORA ROLE, CALLING IT NICARAGUA'S DEFENDER AND THE INSTIGATOR BEHIND CONTADORA'S PRESSURE AGAINST THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. IN RESPONSE TO MY QUESTION IF IT IS REASONABLE FOR US TO LINK RESUMPTION OF BILATERALS WITH NICARAGUA TO A SANDINISTA DIALOGUE WITH UNO, MONGE REPLIED STRONGLY THAT IT IS, THAT COSTA RICA HAS ALWAYS SUPPORTED US IN THIS QUESTION. I SAID WE WERE STICKING TO OUR POSITION. 44

SUBJECT:42ND UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION: AGENDA ITEM FOR CHILE

1. IN FINAL MEETING OF HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, U.S. REPRESENTATIVE AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER PROPOSED THAT THE COMMISSION DECIDE TO CONSIDER THE SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE UNDER ITS AGENDA ITEM ENTITLED "VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS IN ANY PART OF THE WORLD" (ITEM 12) AT ITS NEXT SESSION AND REMOVE FROM ITS AGENDA THE ITEM ON THE "QUESTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE". MOTION WAS MADE DURING CONSIDERATION OF ITEM 25 ON THE AGENDA WHICH DEALS WITH THE PROVISIONAL AGENDA FOR NEXT YEAR'S MEETING.

2. RESPONDING, MEXICAN REPRESENTATIVE MONTANO STATED THAT ADOPTION BY CONSENSUS OF CHAIRMAN'S DRAFT RESOLUTION ON CHILE HAD MARKED THE SUCCESSFUL CULMINATION OF PRUDENT AND CONSTRUCTIVE NEGOTIATIONS ON

CHILE. IN THIS SPIRIT, MONTANO APPEALED TO THE U.S. DELEGATION TO AGREE THAT ITS PROPOSAL BE TAKEN UP AT THE FIRST MEETING OF THE NEXT SESSION OF THE COMMISSION WHEN

THE FINAL AGENDA WOULD, IN FACT, BE ADOPTED. MONTANO EMPHASIZED THAT THE PROPOSAL WOULD THEN BE CONSIDERED AND ACTED ON IN THE LIGHT OF CHILE'S HUMAN RIGHTS PERFORMANCE IN THE INTERVENING PERIOD. ALGERIA THEN SPOKE IN SUPPORT OF MEXICO.

3. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER THEN ASKED WHETHER THE STATEMENT BY MEXICO MEANT THAT HIS PROPOSAL WOULD AUTOMATICALLY BE CONSIDERED AT THE FIRST MEETING OF THE NEXT SESSION. MONTANO SAID THAT WAS INDEED WHAT HE PROPOSED. SCHIFTER THEN SPOKE BRIEFLY ON THE MERITS OF THE U.S. PROPOSAL AND THE ANOMALY OF THE TREATMENT OF CHILE. HE THEN PROPOSED THAT THE DECISION BE TAKEN BY THE COMMISSION THAT THE MOTION TO STRIKE ITEM 5 BE AUTOMATICALLY CONSIDERED AT THE TIME THE FINAL AGENDA IS ADOPTED. SUMMARIZING, THE CHAIRMAN STATED THAT THE COMMISSION HAD DECIDED THAT THE PROPOSAL ON CHANGING THE AGENDA ITEM UNDER WHICH CHILE WOULD BE CONSIDERED WOULD BE DEALT WITH ON THE FIRST DAY OF THE 43RD SESSION OF THE COMMISSION. THAT PROPOSAL WAS ACCEPTED BY CONSENSUS.

4. COMMENT. WE HAD NOTIFIED OTHER COMMISSION MEMBERS OF OUR INTENTION TO OFFER THIS MOTION SHORTLY BEFORE THE MEETING STARTED. IT QUICKLY BECAME CLEAR WE HAD LITTLE SUPPORT. HAD WE PUSHED OUR PROPOSAL TO A VOTE (AT 9:30 P.M. ON THE FINAL EVENING), WE WOULD PROBABLY HAVE LOST HEAVILY. THIS WOULD HAVE MADE IT QUITE DIFFICULT TO RAISE THE ISSUE AT THE BEGINNING OF THE 1987 SESSION. OUR HAVING RAISED THE ISSUE AND OBTAINED AGREEMENT THAT IT WILL COME UP AUTOMATICALLY AT THE NEXT SESSION HAS BEEN HELPFUL IN PUTTING EVERYONE ON NOTICE AND IN LAYING A FOUNDATION FOR EARLY LOBBYING. IF CHILE MAKES SOME REAL HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS, THERE IS NOW A REAL CHANCE OF SUCCEEDING IN CHANGING THE ITEM UNDER WHICH CHILE IS CONSIDERED AT THE NEXT SESSION OF THE COMMISSION.

HAD TRIED TO REACH YOU BY PHONE WITHOUT SUCCESS AND I AM NOW AWAY MYSELF FOR SOME TIME. MESSAGE WAS SIMPLY TO CONGRATULATE YOU ON THE OUTCOME OF SUCH FRUSTRATING AND PROLONGED NEGOTIATIONS. I'M TOLD THAT IT IS VERY RARE THAT THE UNHRC ACTS BY CONSENSUS. IN ANY CASE, I WANTED YOU TO KNOW HOW MUCH I APPRECIATED YOUR WORKING SO CLOSELY WITH US HERE. I'M OPTIMISTIC ABOUT THE IMPACT OF THE RESOLUTION IN TERMS OF WHAT WE ARE TRYING TO ACHIEVE WITH BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND THE OPPOSITION.

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT

2. WE BELIEVE IT WILL BE USEFUL, FOR THE RECORD, TO NOTE THE COMMENTS MADE BY CARLOS DUPRE ON MARCH 13 CONCERNING THE ATTITUDES AND THINKING OF JAIME CASTILLO IN THE UNHRC MEETING. DUPRE, WHO IS ONE OF THE NATIONAL ADVISERS TO THE PDC, AND HAS NO AXE TO GRIND WITH CASTILLO, TOLD EMBOFFS THAT PDC PRESIDENT GABRIEL VALDES TOLD THE NATIONAL ADVISERS AT A MEETING ON MARCH 12 OF A TELEPHONE CONVERSATION HE HAD ON MARCH 11 WITH JAIME CASTILLO CONCERNING THE U.S. DRAFT RESOLUTION ON CHILE. CASTILLO STATED TO VALDES THAT WHILE HE FOUND THE U.S. RESOLUTION WORTHY OF CONSIDERATION, THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION WAS MORE CLOSELY IDENTIFIED
CONFIDENTIAL

WITH THE INTERESTS OF THE PDC AND THE CHILEAN OPPOSITION GENERALLY. WHILE HE SAW PROS AND CONS IN EACH VERSION OF THE RESOLUTION, HE WAS CONCERNED OVER CERTAIN FUTURE COMPLICATIONS WHICH MIGHT ARISE IF THE U.S. RESOLUTION WERE ACCEPTED BY THE UNHRC.

3. ACCEPTANCE OF THE U.S. RESOLUTION, CASTILLO REPORTEDLY POSITED, WOULD ENHANCE THE PRESTIGE AND THE CREDIBILITY OF THE USG WITHIN THE UNHRC AND WORLD HUMAN RIGHTS COMMUNITY GENERALLY, AND THIS WOULD INCREASE THE INFLUENCE OF THE USG OVER FUTURE VOTES ON RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING CHILE. FOR EXAMPLE, IF IN THE NEXT UNHRC MEETING THE USG SHOULD DECIDE TO ABSTAIN OR VOTE NO ON A CHILE RESOLUTION, MANY OTHER COUNTRIES COULD BE EXPECTED TO BE INFLUENCED BY THE USG ATTITUDES SINCE THEY HAD SUPPORTED THE USG THIS YEAR. THE ATTITUDE LIKELY TO BE FACED BY THE CHRC AND ITS TRADITIONAL SUPPORTERS MIGHT BE THAT IF THE USG DOES NOT SUPPORT A RESOLUTION ON CHILE, THE RESOLUTION MUST NOT BE WORTHY OF SUPPORT FROM OTHERS. THE CHRC AND THE PDC IS THEREFORE TAKING A RISK IF THE U.S. RESOLUTION IS ACCEPTED, WHILE THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION REPRESENTS CONTINUITY FOR THE CHRC AND THE UNHRC.

4. IN ANY EVENT, IT APPEARS THAT CASTILLO'S VIEWS WERE NOT ACCEPTED BY THE PDC. SPANISH AMBASSADOR SOLANO TOLD DCM THAT CLAUDIO HUEPE, ACTING PRESIDENT OF THE PDC (BECAUSE VALDES HAD BY THEN LEFT FOR THE PALME FUNERAL), CALLED HIM EVENING MARCH 13 TO SAY

UNCLASSIFIED

THAT THE PDC, AS THE LEADING CHILEAN OPPOSITION PARTY, SUPPORTED THE U.S. RESOLUTION AND WANTED IT ADOPTED. HUEPE SAID THERE SEEMED TO BE SOME CONFUSION IN SPANISH DELEGATION AT GENEVA ABOUT WHAT CHILEAN OPPOSITION REALLY WANTED, AND HE ASKED THAT SOLANO GET WORD TO HIS DELEGATION. SOLANO SAID HE TELEPHONED THE SPANISH FOREIGN MINISTRY'S WATCH OFFICER,

UNCLASSIFIED

SINCE IT WAS THEN ABOUT 11 PM MADRID TIME, AND ASKED THAT GENEVA BE INFORMED. WE NOTE FROM PARIS 11077 THAT HUEPE APPARENTLY ALSO SENT A TELEGRAM TO THE FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTRY.

5. COMMENT: WE FIND THIS A USEFUL INSIGHT INTO THE POSSIBLE MOTIVATION OF CASTILLO IN HIS EFFORTS TO DEAL WITH US, BOTH HERE AND IN GENEVA, ON THE U.S. RESOLUTION. HE OBVIOUSLY REFLECTS THE PARAMOUNT CONCERN OF THE CHRC THAT THE MOMENTUM GENERATED BY THE U.S. IN PASSING A RESOLUTION ON CHILE MIGHT CONTINUE OVER INTO OUR EFFORTS, EITHER THIS YEAR OR NEXT YEAR, TO REMOVE ITEM 5 FROM THE UNHRC AGENDA, AND INCLUDE CHILE UNDER ITEM 12. CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS AND POLITICAL PARTIES WANT TO MAINTAIN CHILE AS A SEPARATE ITEM IN ORDER TO KEEP INTERNATIONAL PRESSURE ON THE GOC, AND TO NOT PERMIT THE GOC TO CLAIM ANY SORT OF VICTORY BY HAVING THIS SEPARATE STATUS DISAPPEAR. BASED ON OTHER COMMENTS BY DUPRE AND OUR OWN KNOWLEDGE OF TABORGA, HE MOST LIKELY WENT TO GENEVA TO DELIBERATELY OBSTRUCT THE PASSAGE OF THE U.S. RESOLUTION AND TO GAIN SUPPORT FOR THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION. CASTILLO MAY HAVE BEEN DIFFERENT, AS WE BELIEVE HE WAS SUPPORTIVE OF THE U.S. RESOLUTION PRIOR TO HIS DEPARTURE FOR GENEVA. HE MAY HAVE BEEN CONVINCED BY TABORGA AND

5. MAXIMO PACHECO, THE CHRISTIAN DEMÓCRAT VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE CHRC, TOLD DCM MARCH 17 THAT WHEN TABORGA GOT HOME HE WOULD HAVE SOME EXPLAINING TO DO. HE IMPLIED THAT TABORGA'S OPPOSITION TO THE PHRASE "NATIONAL DIALOGUE" WAS ONE OF THE POINTS NEEDING EXPLANATION. I WOULD LIKE TO CONGRATULATE YOU AND THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE U.S. DELEGATION TO THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION FOR THE SUCCESS YOU ACHIEVED DURING THE JUST COMPLETED SESSION. THE ADOPTION BY THE COMMISSION OF U.S. RESOLUTIONS ON RELIGIOUS INTOLERANCE AND CHILE PROVED THAT WITH ABLE LEADERSHIP AND DETERMINATION WE CAN OBTAIN RESULTS. THE FACT THAT THIS YEAR THE U.S. TOOK INITIATIVES ON A GREATER NUMBER OF ISSUES AND WAS SUCCESSFUL ON NEARLY ALL OF THEM WAS DUE TO THE WILLINGNESS OF YOU AND THE OTHER MEMBERS OF YOUR DELEGATION TO WORK HARDER AND LONGER THAN THE OPPOSITION. AGAIN, MY CONGRATULATIONS ON A JOB WELL DONE. IT WAS ALSO NICE TO SEE PEOPLE GET ALONG SO WELL. CARMEN

ESSENTIALLY PARTY-ORIENTED CIRCULATION, IT IS CLEAR FROM ITS REFUSAL TO GRANT OR EVEN RESPOND TO FREQUENT REQUESTS REGARDING THE FOUNDING OF "LA EPOCA", THAT THE GOC IS FEARFUL OF THE POTENTIAL IMPACT OF A MASS CIRCULATION OPPOSITION DAILY. IT IS PROBABLE THAT AS LONG AS THE GOVERNMENT HAS SOME LEGAL BASIS ON WHICH TO CONTINUE REFUSAL OF PERMISSION TO PUBLISH "LA EPOCA", THERE WILL BE NO NEW PDC DAILY.

HOWEVER, THAT SITUATION COULD CHANGE DIAMETRICALLY IF THE GOC WERE TO EXHAUST MANEUVERING ROOM OR IF IT WERE TO FALTER IN ITS MANIPULATIONS AND, IN EITHER EVENT, PERMIT THE MERITS OF THE CASE TO BE HEARD IN COURT. AS WE HAVE

AUTHORITY TO "RESTRINGIR" OR RESTRICT THE FLOW OF INFORMATION. TRANSITORY ARTICLE 24 CLEARLY GIVES THE GOVERNMENT, UNDER TERMS OF THE CONSTITUTION OF 1980, THE RIGHT TO RESTRICT INFORMATION. THAT IS THE BASIS FOR ITS LEGITIMACY IN APPROVING NEW PUBLICATIONS. JOURNALISTS, LAWYERS AND OTHERS HAVE ARGUED REPEATEDLY THAT WHILE UNDER THESE CONDITIONS RESTRICTION IS LEGAL, PROHIBITION IS NOT, BECAUSE RESTRICTING PUBLICATION IS DISTINCT FROM PROHIBITING PUBLICATION. IN SUPPORT OF THEIR POSITION THEY CITE PRACTICE WHERE THE CONCEPT OF RESTRICTION HAS USUALLY SERVED TO PROHIBIT TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP (I.E. CONVEYANCE OF PERMISSION TO PUBLISH) OR CHANGE IN PUBLISHING PURPOSE (I.E. A PERIODICAL LICENSED AS, SAY, A FASHION MAGAZINE BECOMING A POLITICAL WEEKLY).

BOTH FILIPPI AND HAMILTON HOPE, THAT IF PERMISSION TO PRINT "LA EPOCA" CANNOT BE ACHIEVED VIA A LOWER COURT, THAT THEY CAN ULTIMATELY GET A FAVORABLE SUPREME COURT RENDITION ON THE DOCTRINE OF RESTRICTION WHICH WILL SET JOURNALISTIC PRECEDENT IN CHILE. FRIEDMANN

1. C - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. THE PRESIDENT HAS ASKED CENTRAL AMERICAN SPECIAL ENVOY PHILIP C. HABIB TO VISIT THE CONTADORA GROUP AND SUPPORT GROUP CAPITALS TO EXPLORE POSSIBILITIES FOR REACHING A NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT IN CENTRAL AMERICA. FOLLOWING VISITS TO EIGHT CONTADORA CAPITALS, AMB. HABIB WOULD LIKE TO VISIT THE FOUR CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES TO BRIEF PRESIDENTS (AND FOREIGN MINISTERS) ON HIS CONTADORA TRIP AND TO CONSULT ON NEXT STEPS IN THE DIPLOMATIC PROCESS. ROUGH ITINERARY, SUBJECT TO CHANGES TO ACCOMMODATE HOST GOVERNMENT SCHEDULING DIFFICULTIES, IS IN PARA 3.

FOR CONTADORA GROUP AND SUPPORT GROUP CAPITALS: PLEASE INFORM HOST GOVERNMENT OF HABIB VISIT AND ADVISE THAT WE WILL BE SEEKING A PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENT FOR ON/ABOUT THE DATE IN THE ITINERARY. AT THIS POINT WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW OF ANY HOST GOVERNMENT SCHEDULING CONSIDERATIONS THAT WOULD REQUIRE ALTERATION IN THE ITINERARY AND WHETHER, IF ITINERARY HAS TO BE CHANGED, THERE ARE ALTERNATIVE PERIODS IN WHICH A PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENT WILL BE POSSIBLE.

PLEASE ENSURE THAT FOREIGN MINISTER IS INFORMED OF THE HABIB VISIT PRIOR TO HIS DEPARTURE FOR MEETING OF CENTRAL AMERICAN AND CONTADORA MINISTERS IN PANAMA MARCH 22-23. YOU SHOULD MAKE THE POINT THAT WE HOPE THAT CONTADORA/CENTRAL AMERICAN MEETING WILL NOT RESULT IN ANY ACTION OR DECLARATION THAT FORECLOSES DIPLOMATIC OPTIONS OR OTHERWISE COMPLICATES HABIB MISSION.

FOR TEGUCIGALPA, SAN JOSE, GUATEMALA AND SAN SALVADOR: PLEASE ADVISE FOREIGN MINISTER OF HABIB TRIP TO CONTADORA CAPITALS AND OF HIS WISH TO VISIT CENTRAL AMERICA BEFORE RETURNING TO WASHINGTON. NOTE THAT HIS TRIP BEGINS THE EFFORT TO EXPLORE THE NEGOTIATING TRACK THAT HABIB DISCUSSED WITH THE PRESIDENT DURING HIS MARCH 12-14 VISIT TO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. PLEASE MAKE THE POINT THAT WE HOPE OUR FRIENDS CAN PREVENT ADOPTION OF ANY STATEMENT AT THE MARCH 22-23 MEETING OF FOREIGN MINISTERS THAT WOULD COMPLICATE THE HABIB MISSION.

4. PLEASE ADVISE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE WHETHER FOLLOWING ITINERARY IS FEASIBLE AND, EVEN WHERE REPLY IS AFFIRMATIVE, WHAT MARGIN FOR ADJUSTMENT PRESIDENT'S SCHEDULE WILL ALLOW:

WEDNESDAY APRIL 2
- ARRIVE CARACAS MID-DAY

THURSDAY APRIL 3
- EARLY AFTERNOON ARRIVAL IN BRASILIA

FRIDAY APRIL 4
- MID-DAY ARRIVAL IN MONTEVIDEO

SATURDAY APRIL 5
- MORNING ARRIVAL IN BUENOS AIRES (WE WOULD HOPE PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENT IS POSSIBLE SATURDAY OR EARLY SUNDAY, BUT HABIB WOULD BE PREPARED TO COME FRIDAY NIGHT IF IT IS NOT. WE HOPE TO AVOID MONDAY AM APPOINTMENT, HOWEVER, IN VIEW OF LONG DAY OF FLYING APRIL 7.)

MONDAY APRIL 7
- LATE MORNING ARRIVAL IN LIMA
- MID- TO LATE-AFTERNOON DEPARTURE FOR COLOMBIA
- LATE AFTERNOON OR EARLY EVENING ARRIVAL IN COLOMBIA (FOR BOGOTA: PLEASE ADVISE GOC OFFICIALS THAT BOGOTA'S ALTITUDE IS AT THE MARGIN OF WHAT STATE DEPT PHYSICIAN

-- EARLY AFTERNOON DEPARTURE FOR ANDREWS.

5. AMB. HABIB WILL BE ACCOMPANIED BY NSC STAFF MEMBER RAYMOND BURGHARDT, ARA/CEN OFFICER JOHN HAMILTON, AND SPANISH INTERPRETER RITA BOREN. {BRASILIA: PLEASE ADVISE IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO PROVIDE INTERPRETER FOR APPOINTMENT THERE.} AMB. HABIB WOULD PREFER THAT ONLY AMBASSADOR, BOREN, AND BURGHARDT OR HAMILTON ACCOMPANY HIM TO PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENT. HABIB PARTY WILL PREPARE REPORTING CABLE.

HABIB PARTY WOULD LIKE TO HAVE TWO SETS OF CABLE TRAFFIC, INCLUDING INTEL REPORTING AND WIRELESS FILE, ON ARRIVAL AT EACH STOP.

6. HABIB MISSION WILL TAKE PLACE FOLLOWING WHAT WE EXPECT TO BE FAVORABLE CONGRESSIONAL ACTION ON THE PRESIDENT'S REQUEST FOR MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE. PLEASE CONSIDER THIS FACTOR IN A SECURITY CONTEXT AND PLAN HABIB MOVEMENTS ON THE GROUND ACCORDINGLY. DEPT WILL NOT RELEASE HABIB ITINERARY IN ADVANCE BUT WILL CONFIRM HIS WHEREABOUTS ONCE HE HAS ARRIVED AT EACH STOP. PLEASE TELL HOST GOVERNMENT THAT WE WILL NOT MAKE HABIB ITINERARY PUBLIC IN ADVANCE AND ASK FOR ITS COOPERATION.

7. AMB. HABIB DOES NOT INTEND TO HOLD PRESS CONFERENCES OR TO GIVE INTERVIEWS. WE REALIZE THAT SOME PRESS ENCOUNTERS ARE INEVITABLE BUT HOPE THAT, WHERE POSSIBLE, ENTRY AND EXITS FROM PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS COULD BE ARRANGED TO AVOID PRESS CONTACT OTHER THAN PHOTO

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PREL, ECON, PHUM, CI, US
SUBJECT: MEETING WITH CHILEAN AMBASSADOR TO THE HOLY SEE

1. C - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. THIS IS AN ACTION MESSAGE: SEE PARA. 8

3. IN A LUNCHEON MEETING WITH THE CHILEAN AMBASSADOR TO THE HOLY SEE, HECTOR RIESLE CONTRERAS, AT HIS RESIDENCE--JUST THE TWO OF US--HE MENTIONED HIS CONCERN OVER THE RECENT STATEMENTS THAT HAVE COME OUT OF WASHINGTON AND GENEVA ON THE SUBJECT OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN CHILE.

4. HE STARTED BY NOTING THAT THE ECONOMY OF CHILE HAS IMPROVED SIGNIFICANTLY IN RECENT MONTHS, BASED PARTLY ON AGRICULTURE EXPORTS WHICH ARE BETTER THIS CONFIDENTIAL

YEAR THAN EVER BEFORE. BASIC METALS PRICES, SUCH AS COPPER, IRON, AND ALUMINUM, ARE DEPRESSED; BUT DESPITE THIS AND THE FACT THAT THOSE INDUSTRIES ARE

NOT DOING ALL THAT WELL, THE ECONOMY IN GENERAL IS STRONG AND IMPROVING THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY, PARTICULARLY IN THE SOUTH. THE MAIN WEAK POINT GEOGRAPHICALLY SEEMS TO BE SANTIAGO, WHERE UNEMPLOYMENT SEEMS TO BE THE HIGHEST OF ANY AREA IN THE COUNTRY AND WHERE IT SEEMS TO STUBBORNLY RESIST DROPPING BELOW THE DOUBLE-DIGIT RANGE.

5. THE AMBASSADOR MADE THE POINT VERY FORCEFULLY THAT HIS GOVERNMENT IS ON TRACK AND ON SCHEDULE WITH RESPECT TO DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS IN DECEMBER OF 1988 AND THAT THEY ARE ALSO ON TRACK AND ON SCHEDULE WITH THEIR PROGRAMS OF PRIVATIZATION AND ECONOMIC REFORM FAVORING PRIVATE ENTERPRISE. WHAT ELSE DOES THE USG WANT US TO DO, HE ASKS.

6. RIESLE ALSO MENTIONED THAT HE WAS WORKING ON A WHITE PAPER ON THE "ACUERDO NACIONAL" WHICH WILL EXPLAIN ITS PURPOSE AND ITS MEANING. WE WILL SEND IT TO THE DEPARTMENT WHEN WE RECEIVE IT.

7. FINALLY, HE RETURNED TO THE STATEMENTS THAT CAME OUT OF THE DEPARTMENT AND OUT OF GENEVA LAST WEEK CONCERNING CHILE. HE DEPLORED THE POSITION THE USG HAS TAKEN ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS ACCUSATIONS IN HIS COUNTRY BECAUSE HE SAYS THAT BY TAKING THE POSITION WE HAVE, IT IS GIVING THE COMMUNISTS OF THE COUNTRY THE OPPORTUNITY TO CLAIM THAT THEY AND THE U.S. ARE ON THE SAME SIDE OF THIS VERY IMPORTANT ISSUE IN CHILE.

8. ACTION REQUESTED: IF THE DEPARTMENT CAN GIVE US SOME TALKING POINTS ON THE ISSUE, WE WOULD APPRECIATE THEM.

USSR/Chile: Still Playing Both Sides of the Street

Moscow neither endorsed nor repudiated the use of violence against Pinochet in its broadcasts to Chile on behalf of the Chilean Communist Party (PCCh) and the Manuel Rodriguez Patriotic Front (FPMR), thereby leaving itself room for maneuver pending the outcome of moderate attempts to negotiate Pinochet's departure. Moscow reportedly supports the PCCh faction favoring joint protests with moderate oppositionists, while the FPMR favors attacks against "safe" targets; however, a large faction with in the PCCh favors a greater use of violence. Support for violent opposition to Pinochet within both organizations may be increased by the rival leftist Movement of the Revolutionary Left's advocacy of violence.

UNCLASSIFIED

Thus Moscow's recent transmission of a PCCh manifesto proclaimed that Pinochet could be toppled in 1986 if a united "combative position" and the "will to use all methods" were used, but otherwise stopped short of specifically advocating violence. In another broadcast to Chile from Moscow, the PCCh secretary general, Luis Corvalan, asked rhetorically why the Popular Democratic Movement, a communist-front group, should renounce violence (a requirement for participating in the National Accord or the Democratic Alliance (DA)) when any member party of the moderate DA in effect endorsed violence by talking to the Pinochet regime.

REF: SWIGERT-JONES TELCON OF MARCH 19

1. REPRESENTATIVE BRUCE MORRISON (DEM.-CT.), MEMBER OF THE LUNDINE SUBCOMMITTEE ON INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTIONS AND FINANCE, PLANS A PRIVATE TRIP TO CHILE ON MARCH 22 - APRIL 2, SPONSORED BY THE WASHINGTON OFFICE ON LATIN AMERICA (WOLA). MORRISON WILL BE ACCOMPANIED BY JAN SHINPOCH, CONSULTANT, FORMER STAFF DIRECTOR FOR THE LUNDINE SUBCOMMITTEE, AND VIRGINIA BOUVIER, WOLA ASSOCIATE. WOLA HAS DESCRIBED THE PURPOSE OF THE TRIP AS FOLLOWING: QUOTE
(1) TO DETERMINE IF CHILE IS A GROSS VIOLATOR OF INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNIZED HUMAN RIGHTS, WITH PARTICULAR REGARD TO "TORTURE OR CRUEL, INHUMANE, OR DEGRADING TREATMENT OR PUNISHMENT, PROLONGED DETENTION WITHOUT CHARGES, OR OTHER FLAGRANT DENIAL TO LIFE, LIBERTY, AND THE SECURITY OF PERSON" (AS OUTLINED IN SECTION 701 OF THE INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS ACT).

(2) TO DETERMINE IF U.S. APPROVAL FOR NON-BASIC HUMAN NEEDS LOANS IS IN VIOLATION OF CURRENT LAW REGULATING VOTES IN THE WORLD BANK AND THE INTER-AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK.

(3) TO ENCOURAGE CONGRESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION (OR LACK THEREOF) OF U.S. LAW.

(4) TO INCREASE INTEREST IN AND KNOWLEDGE OF CHILE AMONG SELECT MEMBERS OF KEY CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES. UNQUOTE

2. WOLA IS TAKING CARE OF ALL ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS (HOTELS, CARS, ETC.) AND MOST APPOINTMENTS. CONGRESSMAN MORRISON'S OFFICE HAS REQUESTED EMBASSY PROVIDE A COUNTRY TEAM BRIEFING ON MARCH 27 (THEY SUGGEST 3:00 P.M.) AND ASSIST IN ARRANGING APPOINTMENTS WITH THESE GOC OFFICIALS:

1) FOREIGN MINISTER DEL VALLE (MARCH 27)
2) INTERIOR MINISTER GARCIA (MARCH 27)
3) MAYOR OF CONCEPCION EDUARDO IBANEZ TILLERIA (MARCH 28)
4) RECTER OF CONCEPCION UNIVERSITY GUILLERMO CLERICUS (MARCH 28)
5) PRESIDENT OF SUPREME COURT RAFAEL RETAMEL (MARCH 31)

DAYS INDICATED ARE MORRISON'S PREFERRED DATES - ON MARCH 28 GROUP TRAVELS TO CONCEPCION AND WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE. HOWEVER, WOLA ASSURES US THAT MORRISON WILL ADJUST THE REMAINDER OF HIS SCHEDULE TO MEET WITH MINISTERS DEL VALLE AND GARCIA AT ANY OTHER TIME. ALL THESE APPOINTMENTS HAVE BEEN REQUESTED BY WOLA THROUGH UNCLASSIFIED

THE CHILEAN EMBASSY. ACCORDING TO WOLA, THE VISIT TO CONCEPCION WILL FOCUS ON THE SITUATION OF THE UNIVERSITY AND CATHOLIC CHURCH.

3. CONGRESSMAN'S OFFICE HAS EXPRESSED DESIRE FOR EMBASSY TO ARRANGE A MEETING (PERHAPS LUNCH) MARCH 31 WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF CHILEAN AND FOREIGN BUSINESS COMMUNITY, INCLUDING LOCAL REPRESENTATIVES OF AMERICAN BANKS. IN ADDITION, EMBASSY ASSISTANCE IS REQUESTED TO ATTEMPT TO ARRANGE FOR MORRISON AND OTHERS TO VISIT A SANTIAGO PRISON ON MARCH 31 (CAPUCHINOS OR WOMEN'S PENITENCIARY). MORRISON ALSO MAY REQUEST EMBASSY ASSISTANCE IN ARRANGING A PRESS CONFERENCE BEFORE DEPARTURE.

4. ALTHOUGH WE DO NOT HAVE COMPLETE SCHEDULE, WE UNDERSTAND THAT WOLA HAS ARRANGED APPOINTMENTS FOR

MORRISON WITH THE FOLLOWING:
- VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY
-- CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION
-- NATIONAL COMMISSION AGAINST TORTURE
-- CIEPLAN
-- CARDINAL FRESNO AND CONCEPCION BISHOP
-- STUDENT ORGANIZATION REPRESENTATIVES
-- CNT
-- POLITICAL LEADERS (TO BE ARRANGED BY SERGIO BITAR)

WE URGED BOUVIER AND MORRISON STAFF TO CONSIDER MEETING WITH CDT LABOR REPRESENTATIVES AS WELL AND EXPRESSED HOPE THAT POLITICAL PARTY LEADERS MEETING WOULD INCLUDE FULL SPECTRUM OF POLITICAL VIEWS, SUCH AS CONSERVATIVE PARTIES IN NATIONAL ACCORD.

5. EMBASSY SHOULD PROVIDE ALL APPROPRIATE ASSISTANCE TO REPRESENTATIVE MORRISON AND ACCOMPANYING PARTY. PLEASE

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PREL, UR
SUBJECT: MEDIA TREATMENT: HOUSE VETO ON CONTRA AID

1. [redacted] ENTIRE TEXT

2. SUMMARY

THE SOVIET MEDIA ARE TREATING THE HOUSE VOTE ON CONTRA AID AS A SERIOUS DEFEAT FOR THE ADMINISTRATION BUT NOT A DECISIVE ONE. THEY EXPECT THE ADMINISTRATION TO CONTINUE ITS EFFORTS TO PERSUADE THE CONGRESS, BUT THEIR ANALYSES IMPLY THAT, ABSENT PRESSURE TACTICS, THE ADMINISTRATION WILL FAIL. END SUMMARY.

[redacted]

3. ACCORDING TO THE SOVIET MEDIA, THE HOUSE VOTE REPRESENTS A PERSONAL DEFEAT FOR PRESIDENT REAGAN: HE LED THE CAMPAIGN OF "INTIMIDATION" AND "SCARE TACTICS" AGAINST THE HOUSE, AND UNDER HIS LEADERSHIP THE WHITE HOUSE, THE STATE DEPARTMENT, THE PENTAGON, AND THE CIA "OPENLY" SOUGHT TO "TWIST THE ARMS OF CONGRESSMEN." AT THE SAME TIME, THE VOTE REPRESENTS A REJECTION OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S "INTERVENTIONIST" AND "ADVENTURIST" POLICIES. ACCORDING TO THE SOVIET MEDIA, THE LAWMAKERS WERE ALSO EXPRESSING THEIR CONCERN THAT AID FOR THE CONTRAS WOULD LEAD TO U.S. MILITARY

UNCLASSIFIED

ACTIONS AGAINST NICARAGUA.

UNCLASSIFIED

4. THE MEDIA ARE, HOWEVER, WARNING THAT THE BATTLE IS FAR FROM OVER. THE HOUSE WILL CONSIDER POSSIBLE VARIATIONS IN APRIL. ARTICLES QUOTE ADMINISTRATION SPOKESMEN AS SAYING THAT THE ADMINISTRATION WILL CONTINUE TO SEEK CONGRESSIONAL APPROVAL OF CONTRA ASSISTANCE. THEY ALSO REPORT THAT THE REPUBLICAN-CONTROLLED SENATE IS SCHEDULED TO VOTE ON THE QUESTION, AND FUNDING FOR THE CONTRAS WILL CONTINUE TO COME FROM THE CIA AND "PRIVATE SOURCES."

5. MEDIA ANALYSES IMPLY CAUTIOUS OPTIMISM ABOUT THE RESULTS. THEY CLAIM THAT THE ADMINISTRATION IS ISOLATED. PRAVDA CORRESPONDENT GAN, CITING AN OPINION POLL, STATES THAT A MAJORITY OF AMERICANS OPPOSES THE ADMINISTRATION'S "AGGRESSIVE" POLICIES IN CENTRAL AMERICA. PRAVDA COMMENTATOR OVCHINNIKOV NOTES

THAT AFTER THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS ON NICARAGUA, LARGE NUMBERS OF AMERICANS CALLED THEIR CONGRESSMEN TO VOICE THEIR OPPOSITION TO THE ADMINISTRATION'S POLICIES. THE MEDIA ALSO CLAIM THAT:

--CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRIES ARE OPPOSED TO THE PRESIDENT'S EFFORTS;

--THE ADMINISTRATION'S ARGUMENTS HAVE NO BASIS IN FACT, SINCE THERE IS NO SOVIET OR COMMUNIST THREAT AND THE ADMINISTRATION'S ASSERTIONS TO THE CONTRARY ARE NOTHING MORE THAN "NEO-MCCARTHYISM."

COMMENT

SUBJECT: W/W: CASE OF NICK BLAKE AND GRIFF DAVIS

1. AMBASSADOR PIEDRA MET WITH MR. SAM BLAKE, BROTHER OF MISSING AMERICAN JOURNALIST NICK BLAKE, AT THE CHANCERY ON MARCH 12. MR. BLAKE WAS ACCOMPANIED BY FAMILY FRIEND JAMES ADRIANCE. ALSO PRESENT WERE DCM ROGER GAMBLE AND CONSUL GENERAL DORA TRUJILLO.

2. SAM BLAKE SUGGESTED THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF GUATEMALA BE APPROACHED TO ARRANGE AN EXCHANGE WITH THE EGP WHEREIN EGP PRISONERS WOULD BE GIVEN UP FOR THE BODIES OF NICK BLAKE AND GRIFF DAVIS. THE AMBASSADOR POINTED OUT THAT THIS ASSUMED THAT THE GUERRILLA HAD KILLED THE TWO AMERICANS. SAM BLAKE ANSWERED THAT SINCE THE ARMY HAD NOT KILLED THEM, IT HAD TO BE THE GUERRILLA. MR. BLAKE STRONGLY PUSHED FOR SUCH AN EXCHANGE AT SEVERAL POINTS IN THE MEETING.

3. MR. BLAKE TOTALLY DISCOUNTED THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE TWO AMERICANS MIGHT HAVE BEEN THE VICTIMS OF A COMMON CRIME, THE PREY OF BANDITS, CALLING THAT IDEA "TOO EASY."

4. MR. BLAKE ASKED THAT THE EMBASSY RENT A HELICOPTER SO THAT HE COULD GET TO EL LLANO. DCM EXPLAINED THAT NO USG FUNDS WERE AVAILABLE FOR SUCH TRAVEL.

5. SEVERAL QUESTIONS NOT COMPLETELY RESOLVED DURING THE MEETING ARE DISCUSSED BELOW:
---THE APRIL ARMY SWEEP THROUGH THE SUMALON AREA WAS MADE FOR THE EXPRESS PURPOSE OF SEARCHING FOR THE MISSING AMERICANS. OTHER PLANNED OPERATIONS IN THE ZONE WERE CANCELLED TO BRING MAXIMUM FORCE TO BEAR ON THE AREA IN QUESTION. THE DEPUTY ZONE COMMANDER, LTC SOLIS, FLEW TO THE CAPITAL TO BRIEF DATT AND CONOFF PRIOR TO THE OPERATION'S KICK-OFF TO INSURE THAT ALL INFORMATION WAS BEING SHARED. GOVERNMENT FORCES REPORTED SIGNIFICANT FRIENDLY CASUALTIES ON THE SWEEP.

---EMBASSY OFFICERS HAVE NOT RETURNED TO EL LLANO IN RECENT MONTHS. IT IS A DANGEROUS AREA, AND WE HAVE NO SPECIFIC QUESTIONS OR INFORMATION WHICH WOULD WARRANT TAKING THAT RISK.

---POST HAS DISCUSSED, ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS, THE

IMPROBABILITY OF A CLANDESTINE HELICOPTER ENTRY INTO NEBAJ. WE ARE ALSO ON RECORD REGARDING THE LIKELIHOOD THAT THE GUATEMALAN ARMY WOULD ATTEMPT SUCH A CLANDESTINE DETENTION, OR COULD KEEP IT A CLOSELY HELD SECRET FOR MONTHS LATER.

---THE SIX EI-EGP GUERRILLAS INTERVIEWED EARLIER IN NEBAJ HAD VOLUNTARILY RETURNED TO GOVERNMENT CONTROL AND ARE NOT "CAPTIVES" IN ANY SENSE.

6. MR. BLAKE WAS REFERRED TO THE DEFENSE ATTACHE REGARDING THE POSSIBILITY OF INTERVIEWING TROOPS INVOLVED IN THE APRIL ARMY SWEEP. (COMMENT: THE COMMANDER OF THE NEBAJ GARRISON, THE ZONE COMMANDER AND HIS DEPUTY, AND NEARLY ALL SENIOR TROOP LEADERS HAVE BEEN CHANGED IN RECENT MONTHS, BOTH AS THE RESULT OF NORMAL ROTATION AND CHANGES MADE BY THE NEW GOVERNMENT.)

7. THE REPORTED SIGHTING OF GRIFFITH DAVIS IN CHIAPAS, MEXICO, WAS DISCUSSED. MR. GAMBLE CALLED ATTENTION TO LACK OF KNOWLEDGE REGARDING THE TRUSTWORTHNESS OF THE SOURCE IN COMITAN, CHIAPAS.
7-A. AT THE SUGGESTION OF SAM BLAKE, THE AMBASSADOR, ON THE OCCASION OF THE VISIT OF AMBASSADOR HABIB TO GUATEMALA, MET WITH PRESIDENT CEREZO AND EXPRESSED TO HIM (CEREZO) OUR INTEREST IN RESOLVING THE CASE OF THE DISAPPEARANCE OF NICHOLAS BLAKE AND GRIFFITH DAVIS. THE AMBASSADOR ASKED THAT SAM BLAKE RECEIVE ALL POSSIBLE SUPPORT FROM THE GUATEMALAN AUTHORITIES IN HIS ENDEAVORS. THE PRESIDENT AGREED TO DO EVERYTHING HE COULD TO HELP IN THIS CASE. BLAKE TOLD THE DCM THAT DURING HIS MARCH 12 MEETING WITH CEREZO, THE PRESIDENT DID OFFER HIS FULL SUPPORT.

8. FOLLOWING HIS VISIT TO THE NEBAJ/SANTA CRUZ DEL QUICHE AREA, SAM BLAKE CAME TO THE EMBASSY ON MARCH 18 AND ADVISED THE DCM AND COLONEL HOOKER OF THE RESULTS OF HIS VISIT. HE HAD MET WITH QUICHE MILITARY COMMANDER COLONEL BYRON LIMA AND OTHER MILITARY OFFICIALS WHO PARTICIPATED DIRECTLY IN THE MILITARY SWEEP OF THE SUMALON AREA. BLAKE COMMENTED THAT BASED ON HIS DISCUSSIONS WITH THOSE OFFICIALS AND THE COOPERATION RECEIVED FROM THEM, HE WAS SATISFIED THAT THE ARMY WAS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DISAPPEARANCE OF HIS BROTHER AND MR. DAVIS. ACCORDING TO BLAKE, COLONEL LIMA HAS AGREED TO SEND A PATROL INTO THE AREA WHERE NICK BLAKE WAS LAST SEEN AND TO PERMIT SAM BLAKE TO ACCOMPANY THE PATROL OR, AT A MINIMUM, BE IN AN AREA RELATIVELY CLOSE TO WHERE THE PATROLING TAKES PLACE. BLAKE SAID HE BELIEVED THE PATROL WOULD TAKE PLACE IN MAY, AFTER HE CONFIRMS WITH COLONEL LIMA WHEN HE WILL BE IN THE COUNTRY.

April 1, 1986

Mr. Michael L. Durkee
Director
Office of Southern Cone Affairs
Department of State
Washington, DC 20520

Dear Mike:

This will be a brief introduction because of the press of various things yesterday and today (goals and objectives, Congressman Morrison), but I did want to give you a sense of my trip to the Antarctic. You'll hear from Frank too I know.

Perhaps because we ended up spending more time on the bounding main than we had planned, that element is the first one I would mention, simply because it reinforces the sense of how isolated the Antarctic can be. We had planned to fly back but couldn't get off the ship because of high winds and the captain decided to bring us back to the relative accessibility of Puerto Williams which gave us those two extra days in heavy seas. Still, I also came back with a strong impression of the workability of international cooperation as well the dedication and versatility of the American scientists and other personnel at our own base at Palmer Station and on the ship. So in the context of continued U. S. Chilean cooperation of a more focused nature in the sciences I hope to find a place for the polar programs. On my way through B.A. Frank had over for dinner two Argentinian officials whom he described as the Don Regan and Elliott Abrams of that country who gave me a useful sense of how Chile looks from there in exchange for impressions of Chile through U.S. eyes.

UNCLASSIFIED

Re your letter of March 7: Our public posture: Don Regan's comments ("not yet") were particularly resented here and probably would have sparked controversy even without Elliott's earlier statements. Now we have the Secretary's remarks which strike me as not all that different in substance to what the President has been saying this past year. Still they will probably keep the intervention question alive, but then I suspect in their present half defiant and half embarrassed mood, the government and its supporters (and perhaps some others) will feel they need to give vent to their sense of outraged dignity. We just have to hope that there is still some soul searching going on. I see Del Valle tonight and by the time you receive this you'll know whether he does anything other than complain.

MDB Loans: We had a good conversation with Bruce Morrison today and I will be giving some more thought as to how we might best proceed in facing what seems to me to be an even more likely set of congressional pressures on this front. In one of his phone calls about two weeks ago Bob did mention my talk with Conroh, said that he understood Conroh was misquoting me, but it is interesting that he and Elliott are of different minds. That was not clear to me when I was there and I pretty much followed Elliott's approach when I talked to Conroh - i.e. let's get ourselves ready and think through what we want. The conversation with Morrison reinforces that feeling.

We tried to make the point with Morrison that it is important that we have clearly in mind what we hope to achieve, in return for changing our vote, and that ideally that goal should be the product of consultations between the Executive and the Congress. He took the position that the law required us to vote against loans to Chile, and that we should obey the law. Nevertheless, he also complained about lack of consultations, and did not seem totally immune to argument. When I brought up IMET, he said that was obviously a sensitive subject, but that it would depend on what the rest of our strategy was; whether he were convinced that we were vigorously pushing democracy in other ways, and that greater contact with the military was a part of a broader effort.

Campaign for a Plebiscite. On March 31, Ultimas Noticias published a story attributed to "an informed source in the legislative area" that the example of constitutional change cited by Admiral Merino in his speech opening the legislative year (to remove the right of enlisted men to vote) was only one of several changes the Admiral wanted, and that changing "the mechanism of presidential succession" was another. The statement was made that although Merino had said the junta would wait upon presidential initiative to propose constitutional changes, the junta of course had constitutional authority to make its own proposals if the President did not. It was also said that Merino had no intention of staying on as commander-in-chief of the navy beyond March 11, 1989. The same day, La Tercera ran a column by Gustavo Alessandri, Jorge's nephew, which began, "It now appears evident that in the near future there will be a great national debate on the reforms that it is necessary to make in the 1980 Constitution." He therefore thought it opportune to call attention to one needed change, in the format for election of Senators. George lunched the same day with Brigadier Videla, who said he personally supported amending the Constitution to provide for competitive presidential elections.

Argentine Views. George, John Keane, Wendell, Peter DeShazo and Henry Nevares lunched today with their counterparts at the Argentine Embassy, including their military attache, Col. Guillermo Gomez, at the Argentines' invitation. The fact of the invitation and the frankness and cordiality of the discussion were interesting in themselves. The tenor of the discussion can be summed up as a division between those, like Col. Gomez, who take the Merino statements and the extremely broad support for competitive elections as evidence that Pinochet will ultimately have to yield, and those, like DCM Raul Estrada, who are impressed by Pinochet's ability to manage Chilean politics and who are convinced that any plebiscite will be held at a time of his choice, on his terms, and that he is likely to win a competitive election anyway. To the objection that there may well be a stronger opposition candidate than Valdes, Raul replies that Pinochet will ensure that there isn't, if necessary by jailing Valdes to increase his popularity. Gomez, on the other hand (although admitting to knowing no more about thinking within the army than we do), is convinced that the generals will not support Pinochet beyond 1989, and that if Pinochet does not make alternative plans by 1988 there will be a serious crisis. Everyone agreed that, contrary to the views of the left wing of the opposition (on which Morrison is avidly feeding), the GOC faces no threat in 1986.

Alternativa. I enclose a few pages from the "sample" issue of a new magazine, prepared in order to obtain permission to publish (which has been granted). It is a subsidiary of Cosas and therefore presumably will be as careful to avoid offense to the government as is Cosas. Still, there are some interesting things in it, notably the poll of presidential preferences which was won by our old friend (FNU) Ninguno. Note also the name of Alternativa's Washington correspondent. I've passed Gelbard's request for a roundup on the health of the fourth estate to Gene Friedmann.

Opposition Views on Economics. Dave's March 28 letter has just arrived, and one statement leaps out at us - that you need more reporting of opposition economic views, and that you don't have a good handle on how opposition parties would approach economic policy if in power. Did no one other than Mike Smith - who praised it profusely - read Santiago 1355? Some feedback on whether you found it useful and which aspect you would like to see further reporting on would be helpful.

Private Sector Attitudes. I enclose a memo from Dick Ades on Chilean business reaction to recent U.S. statements. Larry Hayes of Exxon's copper subsidiary told George last week that he had been in New York trying to get some additional financing from headquarters the day after Don Regan's statement and was turned down. Larry is convinced that uncertainty over where U.S. policy is heading was the reason. We will see if we can get more detail.

Enough for this week.

Sincerely,

Harry G. Barnes, Jr.

3. COMMENT. THIS IS THE SECOND CONVICTION AND SENTENCING OF A SOLDIER FOR MURDER IN AS MANY DAYS (REFTEL). ALTHOUGH THE CRIMES COMMITTED BY THE SOLDIERS ARE NOT "CLASSIC" HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, THEIR CONVICTIONS SEEM TO SIGNAL A WILLINGNESS ON THE PART OF THE ARMY TO DISCIPLINE SOLDIERS WHO COMMIT CASUAL AND PRIVATE ACTS OF VIOLENCE. IT IS NOTEWORTHY THAT BOTH SOLDIERS WERE STATIONED IN MILITARY ZONE 3, WHICH ENCOMPASSES THE DEPARTMENT OF CHIMALTENANGO. CHILE: OPPOSITION KEEPS UP THE PRESSURE

Violent anti-government protests and unrest in the universities have led to the arrests of hundreds of students and professors over the past several weeks. The Manuel Rodriguez Patriotic Front, (FPMR), the armed wing of the Communist party, has continued its bombing campaign and may now be directing more of its efforts against individuals rather than public works. The protests have not evoked widespread public sympathy, and Pinochet's refusal to negotiate with the multiparty "National Accord" is forcing the democratic opposition to resort to more forceful actions to win concessions. In an increasing number of instances the democratic opposition is cooperating with the extreme left in anti-government protests.

Opposition leaders have proclaimed 1986 the "decisive year" but little has been done to secure a prompt--let alone an accelerated--transition to civilian rule. The opposition seems to think that strikes and demonstrations combined with foreign pressures will force Pinochet to relinquish power. They may be overestimating Pinochet's vulnerability to such pressures while his military support remains solid. Even if domestic and foreign pressures impelled Pinochet to become more flexible, the opposition lacks the kind of clearly defined program that would allow it to take advantage of the situation.

The latest opposition maneuvering occurred on April 26 when a "National Civic Assembly" convened near Santiago to draw up a "Demand of Chile." Delegates representing ideologies from the center right to the communist left attended the meeting, but political parties belonging to the National Accord other than the Christian Democrats had little influence. The meeting was dominated by professional associations, largely controlled by the Christian Democrats. The "Demand" goes much farther than the "National Accord" by calling for, inter alia, the lifting of emergency measures, abolishing of the secret police, a democratically approved constitution (implicitly requiring the resignation of Pinochet), slashed military spending, the end of military control of the universities, and renegotiation of the national debt. It threatens massive civil disobedience unless the government responds by May 31. The "Demand" sponsors undoubtedly realize that the government will reject its demands giving the Civic Assembly, under considerable pressure from the far left, a pretext to justify civil disobedience. Although the "Demand" is supposed to be an attempt to promote a dialogue separate from but parallel with the National Accord, the one will inevitably impact on the other. In any case, Pinochet will probably continue to stonewall unless the opposition demonstrates an ability to mobilize broadly-based anti-Pinochet sentiment and, thereby begin to undermine his vital armed forces constituency. U.S. POLICY TOWARD CHILE

The U.S. supports a peaceful transition to democracy and human rights improvements in Chile. Through contacts with the Chilean government and responsible opposition members, the U.S. has tried to promote dialogue between the Chilean government and the democratic opposition. For its part, the Pinochet government has criticized the strong support given by the U.S. to Chile's National Accord, which includes all principal democratic parties, but excludes extremist groups committed to violence, such as the Moscow-backed Chilean Communist Party (PCCH). The Radio Moscow broadcasts to Chile have also attacked U.S. support for the democratic Accord.

At the March 1986 United Nations Human Rights Commissi (UNHRC) meeting in Geneva the U.S. sponsored a resolution o the human rights situation in Chile. The U.S. objective wa encourage rational discussion of what could be done in Chil end violations, such as torture, instead of having an extrem unbalanced resolution of the type backed by Cuba and Soviet Bloc countries in the past, which we had always voted again A last-minute Soviet/Cuban attempt to scuttle the initiativ failed and the U.S. resolution was approved by consensus.

The U.S. provides limited bilateral humanitarian food aid to Chile but since 1976, arms sales, military training or security assistance have not been authorized. In 1985 Congress permitted cash sales of certain safety of flight-related items to the Chilean Air Force.

The GDR takes its lead on Chile from the Soviets, but has taken a backseat to Havana and Moscow in terms of providing support to Chilean extremists. Both the Soviets and Cubans train Chilean terrorists, and give safehaven to extremist Chilean exiles (PCCH leader Luis Corvalan resides in Moscow) as well as extensive propaganda support to the PCCH and its armed front group, the Manuel Rodriguez Popular Front (FPMR).

TALKING POINTS

--THE U.S. SUPPORTS A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS IMPROVEMENTS IN CHILE.

--WE HAVE STRONGLY BACKED EFFORTS BY THE CHILEAN CATHOLIC CHURCH AND OTHER RESPONSIBLE CHILEANS TO PROMOTE AN ORDERLY TRANSITION THROUGH DIALOGUE AND HIGHLIGHTED CONSTRUCTIVE RECOMMENDATIONS TO END RIGHTS ABUSES AT THE UNHRC IN GENEVA.

--SUPPORT FROM SOVIET BLOC COUNTRIES AND CUBA FOR VIOLENT CHILEAN EXTREMISTS ONLY DEEPENS EXISTING POLITICAL DIVISIONS, PROMOTES MORE VIOLENCE AND STRENGTHENS THOSE WHO FAVOR EXTENDED MILITARY RULE.

--WE ARE AWARE WHO STANDS BEHIND THE FOREIGN-SUPPORTED LEFTIST TERRORISTS WHO ATTACK U.S. TARGETS, AS THE FPMR DID APRIL 28 IN A BOMBING AGAINST THE U.S. AMBASSADOR, OR THE CARBOMBING LAST JULY AGAINST OUR CONSULATE.

1. C - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. DEL VALLE AND I FOLLOWED UP OVER DINNER APRIL 1 OUR EARLIER CONVERSATION ON WHAT HE IS PROPOSING TO DO IN THE AREAS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY. HE HAS UNDERTAKEN ALONG WITH INTERIOR MINISTER GARCIA A DETAILED POINT BY POINT STUDY OF EACH OF VOLIO'S RECOMMENDATIONS. THE AIM IS TO SEE WHICH ONES CAN BE MET AND HOW. HE CLAIMS THAT NONE OF THEM ARE BEING REJECTED OUT OF HAND. ALTHOUGH HE DESCRIBES PINOCHET AS BEING STILL SUSCEPTIBLE TO THE COUNSELS OF THOSE WHO TRY TO FAN HIS SUSPICIONS. DEL VALLE CLAIMS THAT THERE IS A GOOD CHANCE OF PINOCHET'S SUPPORTING THE MEASURES THAT HE AND GARCIA WILL RECOMMEND ON BOTH FRONTS.

3. FOR MY PART I SET OUT FOR HIM THE VARIOUS CONSIDERATIONS THAT ARE IMPORTANT TO THE U.S. ALONG THE LINES OF REFTEL STRESSING BOTH OUR DESIRE TO SUPPORT SINCERE EFFORTS TO SECURE A STABLE DEMOCRACY AND OUR CONVICTION

THAT CONCRETE STEPS WERE REQUIRED TO DO SO. I ASKED DEL VALLE WHY HE THOUGHT WE OUGHT TO HAVE ANY CONFIDENCE THAT THE ASSURANCES WE WERE NOW RECEIVING WOULD TURN OUT TO BE ANY MORE TRANSLATABLE INTO ACTIONS THAN PREVIOUS ONES FROM CHILEAN GOVERNMENT SENIOR OFFICIALS.

4. HE RESPONDED THAT THE BIG DIFFERENCE WAS THE UNHRC RESOLUTION. HE COMPARED IT TO THE "YELLOW TICKET" A SOCCER REFEREE GIVES A PLAYER WHO HAS COMMITTED A FOUL AND WHO WHEN HE COMMITS A SECOND FOUL IS GIVEN A "RED TICKET" AND SENT OUT OF THE GAME. THE U.S. IN DEL VALLE'S VIEW HAS NOW GIVEN A YELLOW TICKET TO CHILE WITH ITS UNHRC RESOLUTION AND CHILE'S JOB IS TO SEE THAT IT DOESN'T GET THE RED TICKET.

5. DEL VALLE THEN REFERRED TO SECRETARY SHULTZ' ROME PRESS COMMENT ON CHILE'S BEING A DICTATORSHIP (WHICH HE WAS QUOTED IN THE PRESS AS CALLING "REGRETABLE"). WHAT MADE HIS JOB DIFFICULT WAS THAT THESE PERIODIC STATEMENTS TENDED TO SLOW DOWN THE PROCESS OF GETTING PINOCHET'S COOPERATION. HE LIKENED PINOCHET TO A DONKEY WHO WOULD MOVE BUT NOT IF YOU KEPT BEATING HIM. I GAVE DEL VALLE THE FULL TEXT OF THE QUESTION THE SECRETARY HAD BEEN ASKED AS WELL AS OF HIS REPLY AND COMPARED IT TO THE STATEMENT THE PRESIDENT HAD MADE IN MADRID IN MAY 1985. I EMPHASIZED TO DEL VALLE THAT WHILE WE WOULD INDEED TRY NOT TO COMPLICATE MATTERS BY OUR PUBLIC STATEMENTS THE REALITIES OF THE U.S. POLITICAL SITUATION WERE THAT WHAT WAS HAPPENING IN CHILE WAS COMING UNDER INTENSE SCRUTINY AND ALL COMMENT COULD NOT BE AVOIDED. HE SAID HE UNDERSTOOD THAT BUT PLEADED AGAIN FOR AS MUCH RESTRAINT AS WE COULD MUSTER IN THE ENSUING MONTHS.

6. I ASKED HIM HOW LONG HE THOUGHT IT WOULD BE BEFORE HE AND GARCIA FINISHED THEIR STUDY. HE ESTIMATES ABOUT A WEEK TO TEN DAYS IN THE HOPE OF BEING ABLE TO PRESENT IT TO PINOCHET BY APRIL 15. WE AGREED TO GET TOGETHER APRIL 14 OR 15 SO HE CAN TELL ME HOW THINGS STAND BEFORE I LEAVE FOR MY SHORT TRIP TO THE U.S. SUBSEQUENTLY HE WILL FILL ME IN ON SPECIFIC PROPOSALS AND ASK FOR ANY INPUT WE MIGHT HAVE. AT THIS STAGE HE DID NOT GO INTO ANY REAL DETAIL SAVE TO SAY HE IS WORKING ON SUCH ASPECTS AS RETURN OF EXILES (HE FAVORS A SIGNIFICANT INCREASE BUT NOT THE IMMEDIATE RETURN OF ALL), AND SEVERAL UNSPECIFIED LEGISLATIVE MEASURES TO BE PRESENTED TO THE JUNTA.

7. BY WAY OF SUMMARY HE SAID HE UNDERSTANDS THAT THE U.S.

- 1. IS NOT TRYING TO DESTABILIZE THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE.
- 2. IS CONCERNED THAT CHILE ACHIEVE FULL DEMOCRACY SUCCESSFULLY
- 3. AND THEREFORE WANTS TO SEE SOME CONCRETE STEPS IN THAT DIRECTION AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

HE SAID I COULD BE SURE THAT THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT HAD GOTTEN THAT MESSAGE AND THAT THE PRESIDENT'S MOST RECENT LETTER HAD HAD A FAVORABLE EFFECT. NONETHELESS HE CAUTIONED THAT THERE ARE ALWAYS PEOPLE WHO ARE TRYING TO PLAY ON PINOCHET'S DOUBTS. DEL VALLE BELIEVES FOR EXAMPLE THAT PINOCHET IS GETTING INFORMATION FROM AMERICAN SOURCES NOT THROUGH THE CHILEAN EMBASSY WHICH FAN THESE SAME FEARS OF HOSTILE U.S. INTENTIONS. NONETHELESS AS HE INDICATED EARLIER HE IS CONFIDENT THAT HE AND GARCIA WILL BE ABLE TO MOVE THINGS IN A POSITIVE DIRECTION. HE SAID AGAIN THAT IF HE FINDS THAT HE IS WRONG ON THIS SCORE HE WOULD RESIGN. IN ANY CASE HE STRESSED HE HAS TO RELY ON MY ABILITY TO HANDLE IN CONFIDENCE THE APPROACH HE IS TAKING SINCE HE IS GOING OUT ON A LONG LIMB BY DIVULGING

AS MUCH AS HE IS NOW OF HIS PLANS

IMPORTANCE DEL VALLE ASSIGNS TO THE UNHRC RESOLUTION AS A CONCRETE TEST OF WHAT THE GOC CAN OR CANNOT DO. PINOCHET HAS AGREED CHILE HAS TO RESPOND TO THE VOLIO REPORT. DEL VALLE WILL ALSO USE THIS AS AN IMPETUS FOR PROPOSING SPECIFIC ACTIONS. AT ANOTHER POINT HE SPOKE OF THE UNGA SESSION AS BEING THE OUTSIDE LIMIT BY WHICH THE GOC WOULD HAVE TO DELIVER ON ITS PROMISES BUT HE ALSO SPOKE OF THREE MONTHS FROM NOW AS BEING A TIME BY WHICH I OUGHT TO BE ABLE TO JUDGE WHETHER HIS PROMISES WERE WORTH ANYTHING OR NOT. I RECOGNIZE THE LIMITATIONS ON OUR REFRAINING FROM COMMENT ON CHILE. BUT COULD WE NOT FOR A WHILE LIMIT OURSELVES TO A RESTATEMENT OF OUR POSITION BY SAYING WE SEEK PROMPT AS WELL AS CONCRETE STEPS LEADING TO A SUCCESSFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY IN CHILE AS WELL AS TO AN IMPROVEMENT IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION.

4. AGREEMENT ON COMMON POLITICAL PROGRAM.

EDEN PASTORA RECENTLY SIGNED A POLITICAL PROGRAM ON BEHALF OF ARDE THAT WOULD SERVE AS THE BASIS FOR COOPERATION OF THE UNIFIED OPPOSITION, BUT UNO HAS NOT SIGNED APPARENTLY BECAUSE ENRIQUE BERMUNDEZ (FDN MILITARY CHIEF OF STAFF) IS PRESSURING TO SIGN FOR UNO. BELIEVES A SOLUTION WOULD BE TO RENEGOTIATE THE DOCUMENT BRIEFLY AND HAVE ONLY THE POLITICAL DIRECTORS OF UNO AND BOS SIGN THE DOCUMENT.

5. PASTORA CAUSES INTERNAL DISPUTES IN ARDE.

EXPLAINED THAT SERIOUS INTERNAL PROBLEMS HAVE DEVELOPED WITHIN ARDE DUE TO THE STUBBORNNESS OF EDEN PASTORA. ROLE FOR PASTORA WITHIN ARDE ARE: FSDC -- JOSE DAVILA, RESCATE -- ALFREDO CESAR, MDN -- ALVARO JEREZ, CESOCANE BAYARDO LOPEZ, AND ARDE-ADOLFO CHAMORRO, PLUS THE ARDE FIELD COMMANDERS NOW INSIDE SOUTHEAST NICARAGUA -- GANZO, LEONEL, FRANKLIN, AND NAVEGANTE. THE POLITICAL LEADERSHIP OF ARDE AND BOS IS UNHAPPY WITH THE UNCOORDINATED AND OFTEN UNHELPFUL WAY IN WHICH PASTORA SPEAKS OUT. THE MILITARY FIELD COMMANDERS DISLIKE THIS PLUS PASTORA'S ADMINISTRATION OF WHAT LITTLE FUNDS THEY RECEIVE FROM FOREIGN PRIVATE ORGANIZATIONS AND PASTORA'S AUTOCRATIC STYLE IN RUNNING THE MILITARY OPERATIONS. THE MILITARY COMMANDERS, ACCORDING FAVOR A COLLEGIAL COORDINATING MECHANISM FOR MILITARY OPERATIONS AND HAVE STRONG SYMPATHY FOR THE POLITICAL POSITION OF THE FSDC.

6. BOS RUN INFORMATION OFFICE IN SAN SALVADOR.

THEY WANT TO EDUCATE SALVADORANS TO RESIST THE MARXIST ADVANCE IN EL SALVADOR AS WELL AS TO THE REALITY OF WHAT IS HAPPENING IN NICARAGUA. THE OFFICE WOULD BE A SOURCE OF INFORMATION TO THE DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL PRESS. IT WOULD PROVIDE NAMES OF PRISONERS, DESCRIPTIONS OF ATROCITIES, AND HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS AND DISSEMINATE POLITICAL INFORMATION. EMBOFF MET WITH [redacted]
MEMBERS OF THE FRENTE SOLIDARIDAD DEMOCRATA CRISTIANO (FSDC)

EXPLAINED THAT THE MILITARY ARM OF ARDE HAS NOT RECEIVED HELP IN TWO YEARS AND CLAIMED TO HAVE 2,000 GUNS AND MEN NOW INACTIVE BECAUSE OF LACK OF MUNITIONS AND OTHER LOGISTICS. THEY EXPECTED CONGRESS TO APPROVE ASSISTANCE TO THE NICARAGUAN FREEDOM FIGHTERS AND MADE A PLEA FOR MORE EQUILIBRIUM IN THE DISBURSEMENT OF THE AID BETWEEN UNO AND BOS. THEY FAVOR COORDINATED POLITICAL AND MILITARY ACTION BETWEEN THE ARDE AFFILIATED BLOQUE OPOSITOR DEL SUR (BOS) AND UNO.

4. AGREEMENT ON COMMON POLITICAL PROGRAM.

[redacted] RECENTLY SIGNED A POLITICAL PROGRAM ON BEHALF OF ARDE THAT WOULD SERVE AS THE BASIS FOR COOPERATION OF THE UNIFIED OPPOSITION BUT HAS NOT SIGNED APPARENTLY BECAUSE ENRIQUE [redacted] MILITARY CHIEF OF STAFF) IS PRESSURING TO SIGN FOR UNO. 5. PASTORA CAUSES INTERNAL DISPUTES IN ARDE.

[redacted] EXPLAINED THAT SERIOUS INTERNAL PROBLEMS HAVE DEVELOPED WITHIN ARDE DUE TO THE STUBBORNNESS OF EDEN PASTORA. ON ONE SIDE BACKING PASTORA ARE [redacted]LO, AND COMMANDANTE EMILIANO (MILITARY CHIEF ALONG THE SAN JUAN RIVER). ON THE OTHER SIDE FAVORING A COLLEGIAL MILITARY LEADERSHIP AND STRICTLY POLITICAL ROLE FOR PASTORA WITHIN ARDE ARE: FSDC -- JOSE BAYARDO LOPEZ, AND ARDE-ADOLFO CHAMORRO PLUS [redacted] ARDE FIELD COMMANDERS NOW INSIDE SOUTHEAST NICARAGUA -- GANZO, LEONEL, FRANKLIN, AND NAVEGANTE. THE POLITICAL LEADERSHIP OF ARDE AND BOS IS UNHAPPY WITH THE UNCOORDINATED AND OFTEN UNHELPFUL WAY IN WHICH PASTORA SPEAKS OUT. THE MILITARY FIELD COMMANDERS DISLIKE THIS PLUS PASTORA'S ADMINISTRATION OF WHAT LITTLE FUNDS THEY RECEIVE FROM FOREIGN PRIVATE ORGANIZATIONS AND PASTORA'S AUTOCRATIC STYLE IN RUNNING THE MILITARY OPERATIONS. THE MILITARY COMMANDERS, ACCORDING TO [redacted] FAVOR A COLLEGIAL COORDINATING MECHANISM FOR MILITARY OPERATIONS AND HAVE STRONG SYMPATHY FOR THE POLITICAL POSITION OF THE FSDC.

6. BOS RUN INFORMATION OFFICE IN SAN SALVADOR.

[redacted] SAID BOS WANTS TO OPEN AN INFORMATION OFFICE IN SAN SALVADOR AND SEEKS USG SUPPORT FOR THE EFFORT. THEY WANT TO EDUCATE SALVADORANS TO RESIST THE MARXIST ADVANCE IN EL SALVADOR AS WELL AS TO THE REALITY OF WHAT IS HAPPENING IN NICARAGUA. THE OFFICE WOULD BE A SOURCE OF INFORMATION TO THE DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL PRESS. IT WOULD PROVIDE NAMES OF PRISONERS, DESCRIPTIONS OF ATROCITIES, AND HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS AND DISSEMINATE POLITICAL INFORMATION. [redacted] CLAIM THAT COSTA RICA IS SATURATED AND AN OFFICE NEEDS TO BE OPENED IN SAN SALVADOR.

7. COMMENT: [redacted] SECTION 02 OF 02 SAN SALVADOR 04871

LIMOIS

WE PRESUME ALL OR MOST OF THIS INFORMATION HAS ALREADY BEEN REPORTED THROUGH COSTA RICAN SOURCES BUT REPEAT IT FOR THOSE READERS WHO MAY BE UNINFORMED. COPIES OF COMMUNIQUES AND LETTERS THAT DOCUMENT THE ABOVE INTERNAL DISPUTE IN ARDE ARE BEING POUCHED TO ARA/CEN DAVE OLOUHY. APPARENTLY, THE FSDC AND OTHER POLITICAL LEADERS IN ARDE AND BOS AND THE FIELD COMMANDERS THEMSELVES ARE FINDING PASTORA NO EASIER TO DEAL WITH THAN DID ALFONSO ROBELO. HOWEVER, AT LEAST UNTIL CONGRESS DECIDES ON AID TO THE DEMOCRATIC FORCES FIGHTING THE SANDINISTAS, THERE WILL BE NO OPEN SPLIT WITHIN ARDE-BOS. ACCORDING TO [redacted] A RESTRUCTURING OF THE POLITICAL AND MILITARY ORGANIZATION OF ARDE MAY WELL SERVE U.S. INTERESTS BY MAKING IT A MORE EFFECTIVE ORGANIZATION MILITARILY AND POLITICALLY AND BY REIGNING IN PASTORA FOR TIGHTER POLITICAL COORDINATION OF HIS ACTIVITIES AND COMMENTS.

SUBJEC [redacted] OFFICIAL ON US-NICARAGUAN RELATIONS

1. CONFIDENTIAL-ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. [redacted] SAID JUNE 4 THAT FSLN OFFICIALS HERE HAD CONCLUDED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION'S EFFORT "TO MOLD OPINION" IN CONGRESS AGAINST THE GON HAD BEEN SUCCESSFUL. HE EXPECTED A VOTE ON THE HILL IN COMING DAYS IN FAVOR OF AID OF SOME SORT FOR CONTRA FORCES. HE WAS DOWNBEAT AS WELL ON CONTADORA AND ON PROSPECTS FOR PROGRESS IN BILATERAL RELATIONS. HE SAID HE SAW LITTLE PROFIT IN BEING FLEXIBLE TOWARD THE ADMINISTRATION BECAUSE IT NEVER RECIPROCATED. U.S. POLICIES WERE MAKING SOME IN THE FSLN "MORE STUBBORN", AND OTHERS "WITH ITCHY TRIGGER FINGERS...WANTED TO GET IT OVER WITH (THE U.S.) NOW"- THOUGH HE QUICKLY QUALIFIED THE LATTER AS IRRESPONSIBLE. HE SAID NEGOTIATIONS COULD PRODUCE SOLUTIONS TO SUCH ISSUES AS SANDINISTA ASSISTANCE TO INSURGENT GROUPS. THIS COULD NOT HAPPEN. HOWEVER, WHILE THE FSLN WAS UNDER PRESSURE, [redacted] IMPLIED ACKNOWLEDGMENT THAT FSLN HAD COMMITTED ERRORS IN THE PAST. BUT QUESTIONED WHETHER GON EFFORT S TO CORRECT THOSE ERRORS WOULD PRODUCE PROGRESS IN BILATERAL RELATIONS. END SUMMARY.

3. [redacted] COUNS INVITATION FOR LUNCH AT LATTER'S RESIDNCE. [redacted] WAS CLEARLY DEPRESED, PERHAPS PARTICALLY BECAUSE HE HAD HUST RETURNED FROM ONE WEEK OF VIGOROUS MILITARY TRAINING AND WAS STIFF AND SORE. HE INITIATED THE CONVERSATION BY SAYING HE THOUGHT CONTADORA WAS GOING NO PLACE. HE REPEATED A VIEWPOINT HE HAD EXPRESSED ON EARLIER OCCASIONS--THAT NOTHING WILL MOVE IN CONTADORA UNTIL THE U.S. IS READY FOR IT. THE FSLN, HE CONTINUED, SAW NO PROFIT IN BEING FLEXIBLE TOWARD THE ADMINISTRATION. NO MATTER WHAT THE FSLN DID, THERE WAS NO REPLY. THAT DID NOT NEAN, HOWEVER, THAT THE GON WOULD NOT UNDERTAKE ACTIONS INTERNALLY OR EXTERNALLY TO DEMONSTRATE ITS SELF CONFIDENCE AND FLEXIBILITY. POLCOUNS ASKED WHAT HE HAD IN MIND. HE ANSWERED, " FOR EXAMPLE, WHAT WE ARE DOING WITH THE MISQUITOS". HE SAID THE FSLN WAS MAKING

A REAL EFFORT TO CORRECT EARLIER ERRORS WITH THAT PEOPLE. POLCOUNS ASKED IF HE THOUGHT RIVERA WOULD RETURN TO THE NEGOTIATIONS [redacted] SAID HE THOUGHT HE WOULD. POLCOUNS ASKED WHY BORGE HAD BEEN ASSIGNED RESPONSIBILITY FOR ATLANTIC COAST AFFAIRS [redacted] SAID HE HAD HEARD BORGE HAD A PERSONAL INTEREST IN WHAT WAS HAPPENING THERE. IT MAY HAVE BEEN ALSO A DECISION BY THE NATIONAL DIRECTORATE THAT HE WAS BEST QUALIFIED FOR THE JOB. WAS IT A DOWNGRADE FOR BORGE? NO. NOT A DOWNGRADE EITHER FOR HIM OR FOR COMANDANTE LUIS CARRION.

4. POLCOUNS ASKED HIS VIEW OF THE SITUATION IN CONGRESS AS IT PREPARED FOR ANOTHER VOTE ON CONTRA AID. [redacted] SAID IT WAS "A REAL MESS". THERE WERE SO MANY PROPOSALS THAT NO ONE KNEW EXACTLY WHAT WAS HAPPENING. HE SAID HE AGREED WITH U.S. OBSERVERS THAT "HUMANITARION" AID TO THE CONTRAS OF SOME SORT WOULD BE PASSED. HE SAID PEOPLE IN MANAGUA WHO HAD READ THROUGH THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD ON THE APRIL CONTRA AID VOTE CONCLUDED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION'S EFFORT TO MOLD OPINION IN CONGRESS AGAINST THE FSLN HAD BEEN LARGELY SUCCESSFUL. FEW MEMBERS OF CONGRESS NOW SUPPORTED THE GON, THOUGH MANY WERE STILL AGAINST MILITARY AID.

5 [redacted] INSISTED, DURING A LENGTHY DISCUSSION ON LATIN AMERICAN RELATIONS WITH NICARAGUA, THAT THE NICARAUAN REVOLUTION WAS CONSIDERED OF TRANSCENDENT IMPORTANCE BY MANY OF THE PEOPLE OF LATIN AMERICA. EVEN IF THE GOVERNMENTS DID NOT OPENLY SUPPORT THE GON, ATTEMPTS BY THESE GOVERNMENTS TO OPPOSE THE GON--THROUGH, FOR EXAMPLE, APPROVING U.S. INTERVENTIONISM--WOULD MEET WITH A STORM OF PUBLIC PROTEST. [redacted] SAID HIS JUDGEMENT ON THIS ISSUE STEMMED FROM THE CROWDS WHICH GATHERED TO GREET AND WELCOME DANIEL ORTEGA "THROUGHOUT LATIN AMERICA AND IN SPAIN." HE TOLD OF ONE INCIDENT IN THE LATTER COUNTRY IN WHICH THE CROWD REPORTEDLY BECAME SO OPENLY PRO-DANIEL AND ANTI-REAGAN THAT DANIEL HAD TO QUIET THE CROWD TO PREVENT EMBARRASSMENT TO FELIPE GONZALEZ, WHO STOOD NEXT TO HIM.

[redacted] SAID ADMINISTRATION POLICIES TOWARD NICARAGUA MADE SOME IN THE FSLN "MORE STUBBORN". IT MADE THEM BELIEVE IN A STEREOTYPE OF THE U.S. "[redacted]CH I KNOW IS NOT TRUE[redacted] /REAGAN'S ACTIONS CONFIRM THE MOST SIMPLISTIC VIEW OF THE U.S. AND THE ROLE IT PLAYED IN THE HISTORY OF NICARAGUA. [redacted] CONTINUED THAT THE FSLN COULD NOT CHANGE WHILE IT WAS UNDER PRESSURE. IT COULD TAKE STEPS TO REMOVE OR REDUCE U.S. OBJECTIONS, BUT NOT UNDER PRESSURE. WHAT COULD THE TWO SIDES DO TO RESOLVE THIS DILEMMA? POLCOUNS REPLIED THAT IT WAS PERHAPS HARDEST TO AGREE ON WHAT SOLUTION SHOULD BE SOUGHT. THE SOLUTION THE U.S. NEEDED HAD ALREADY BEEN DEFINED IN ITS WELL-KNOWN FOUR POINTS. COULD THE FSLN ACCEPT, INTER ALIA, CESSATION OF AID TO INSURGENT FORCES IN OTHER STATES? [redacted] REPLIED THAT AGREEMENT COULD BE REACHED ON THAT ISSUE." NEGOTIATIONS COULD PRODUCE A SOLUTION". POLCOUNS NOTED THE DIFFICULTIES SURROUNDING THAT MATTER AND THE MOUNTING DISTRUST IT HAD CAUSED OVER THE YEARS IN BILATERAL RELATIONS. POLCOUNS HIMSELF HAD BEEN PRESENT SEVEAL TIMES WHEN HIGHEST LEVEL GON OFFICIALS FLATLY DENIED TO CODELS ANY GON INVOLVEMENT IN ASSISTANCE TO OTHER INSURGENT FORCES. WHEN WASHINGTON SAW REPORTS OF SUCH DENIALS AND HAD AT ITS HAND CONVINCING EVIDENCE THEY WERE NOT TRUE, U.S. WILLINGNESS TO NEGOTIATE ON THE MATTER WAS REDUCED CONSIDERABLY [redacted] RESPONDED BY ASKING WHAT

GOOD IT DID FOR THE FSLN TO SHOW FLEXIBILITY. FOR EXAMPLE, THERE HAD BEEN A PERIOD DURING WHICH ITS LEADERSHIP HAD LOWERED THE LEVEL OF RHETORIC AGAINST THE ADMINISTRATION. REAGAN, IN RETURN, HAD COMPARED THE FSLN "TO A PIECE OF MAGGOT INFESTED MEAT" IN A SPEECH. FSLN RHETORICAL EXCESSES HAD NEVER REACHED THE LEVEL OF REAGAN'S"WHAT IF WE TOOK STEPS TO SAY CERTAIN THINGS WERE DONE WRONGLY, THAT WE COMMITTED MISTAKES. WHAT GOOD WOULD IT DO IF WE REMOVED CERTAIN PEOPLE?". MENESES SAID THAT REAGAN WAS BENT ON REMOVING THE FSLN FROM POWER, ON DESTROYING IT. THERE WERE SOME IN THE FSLN "WHOSE TRIGGER FINGER WAS ITCHY," AND WHO THOUGHT"THE FSLN SHOULD GET IT OVER WITH NOW," NOT WAIT A FEW YEARS FOR THE INEVITABLE U.S. INTERVENTION.
QUICKLY ADDED THAT SUCH A POINT OF VIEW WAS IRRESPONSIBLE. IT NEVERTHELESS SHOWED THAT THE FSLN WAS DETERMINED TO DEFEND THE REVOLUTON AND "WOULD NOT FLY OFF LIKE SOMOZA". IF THE U.S. INTERVENED, THE FSLN WOULD STAY AND FIGHT.

7. CONTINUED THAT EVEN IF THE ADMINISTRATION CONTINUED TO PRESSURE NICARAGUA, SHORT OF INTERVENTION, THE FSLN WOULD SURVIVE. IT DID NOT REQUIRE MUCH SIMPLY TO SURVIVE. NO THOUGHT WAS NOW BEING GIVEN TO DEVELOPMENT OR OF SOLVING SOCIAL PROBLEMS; SURVIVAL WAS OW THE GOAL--"MAY BE WE WILL END UP LIKE SOME OF THE ARAB COUNTRIES, WORSE OFF THAN WE ARE NOW." IF IT MEANT WE WOULD DO WITHOUT CARS AND TRUCKS, THAT IS OKAY. THE "SOCIALIST"COMMUNIST AND OTHER STATES WOULD GIVE NICARAGUA ENOUGH TO SURVIVE. IN FURTHER COMMENTS, SEEMDO TO SUGGEST THAT THE FSLN CONSIDERED THAT ONCE THE REAGAN ADMINISTRATION HAD SERVED ITS SECOND TERM, ITS PROBLEMS WOULD BE MUCH REDUCED. POLCOUNS ATTEMPTED TO DISABUSE HIM OF THIS NOTION, POINTING OUT THAT U.S./ NICARGUAN RELATIONSHAD WORSENED SHARPLY WHILE THE CARTER ADMINISTRATION WAS STILL IN OFFICE. THE POST-REAGAN ADMINISTRATION WOULD PROBABLY HAVE MOST OF THE SAME PROBLEMS WITH NICARAGUA AS HAD HAD ITS TWO PREDECESSORS.

ASKED WHAT THE U.S.WOULD DO WERE THE CONTRAS DEFEATED BY THE SANDINISTA MILITARY FORCES--WOULD THE U.S. INTERVENE? POLCOUNS REPLIED THAT HE COULC NOT GIVE A DEFINITIVE REPLY, BUT THAT SUCH AN OPTION WAS, OF CDURSE, ALWAYS PRESENT. POLCOUNS ASKED IN TURN WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF CONTRA FORCES CONTINUED AT THE PRESENT LEVEL SAID THE GON WOULD HVE NO CHOICE BUT TO EXPAND MOBILIZATION UNTIL IT COULD DESTROY THEM. POLCOUNS ASKED IF THIS WOULD MEAN AN INCREASED DRAFT.
REPLIED THAT IT MIGHT NOT. OTHER FORCES SUCH AS INACTIVE RESERVE AND INACTIVE MILITIA COULD BE PUT ON COMBAT STATUS. DESTRUCTION OF THE CONTRA WAS IMPERATIVE, AND THE GOVERNMENT WOULD HAVE NO CHOICE BUT TO TAKE WHATEVER STEPS WERE NECESSARY.

In my first letter to you I said that we thought the Guatemalan Army was the most likely culprit in Nick's and Griff's disappearance. After Sam's and my trip to Guatemala in March when we met with President Cerezo and several army officials we now see how the EGP (the Spanish acronym for the guerrilla group Nick and Griff were out to meet) could very likely be responsible. While we have no real concrete evidence there are new areas that need to be investigated.

We are proceeding on two main tracks. One is to try to find someone from that region (eg. a church person) to visit the area where the two were last seen. We have pinpointed a new town, called Monte Leon, where they were heading but that has not been visited on behalf of this case. The other track we want to pursue and for which we need State Department support is to do a thorough check of the EGP network in Mexico City. Sam has made a request to the State Dept. that the CIA in Mexico City canvass their contacts with respect to this case. We would also like our government to ask the Mexican government to use their influence and contacts with the EGP and others to help determine the fate of Nick and Griff.

At this point there doesn't seem to be much of a chance that those two are still alive. Assuming they are dead the top priority is to find their bodies. We hope and pray that someone will somehow their location known. No tale of their fate will suffice, only tangible proof will allow the Blake and Daxis families to rest.

FROM: H - Milton Charlton

SUBJECT: Senator Kerry Requests Hearing on Contra Crimes

Press reports last week said that Senator Kerry has assigned several staff members to conduct an intensive investigation of allegations of contra involvement in illegal activities.

Late last week Senator Kerry met with Senator Lugar to press for a hearing on the evidence of contra misdeeds found during that investigation. The attached memo to Kerry summarizes the allegations. Kerry's staff claims that they have numerous witnesses lined up, both American and foreign, though they refuse to identify them to Lugar's staff. They have spoken of seeking subpoena powers and witness protection assistance.

The staff investigation, under way for the last two months and based on allegations dating as far back as January 1985, has apparently been directed by Jonathan Winer, a Massachusetts lawyer. When queried by Lugar's staff, Winer would not give a straight answer as to whether there was evidence suggesting Administration complicity in the alleged misdeeds, though he hinted that there may have been Administration pressures not to investigate in some cases. Nor was he willing to share any of the evidence he has collected.

Lugar's staff has promised to investigate the allegations on their own, in order to determine whether they have any merit and whether a hearing is warranted, within the next two weeks. Initial plans are to inquire with the FBI and the CIA. The staff is anxious not to provide Kerry with a vehicle for publicizing his viewpoint, and also wants to avoid interfering in ongoing investigations, but believes that the issue cannot simply be ducked.

Dear Senator Dixon:

We have received your letter of April 20, 1987 requesting information on the "no" vote cast by the United States on a resolution concerning human rights in Chile last year. Your inquiry was on behalf of your constituent [ ].

Let me assure you and your constituent that our actions in international organizations concerning Chile are determined with US support for democracy and human rights in Chile very much in mind. We take our actions in these bodies seriously, and seek to be constructive. Accordingly, we do not vote for resolutions unless we consider them sound.

There were significant parts of the resolution on Chile presented last December that reflected our own assessment of the human rights situation in that country. But, taken as a whole, we considered it to be seriously flawed in not reflecting accurately the constructive work of the UN Special Rapporteur, former Costa Rican Foreign Minister Fernando Volio.

This omission was apparent in many ways. The resolution praised Chilean government cooperation with the Rapporteur, but other positive steps mentioned in Volio's report were not acknowledged fairly. We consider it important that, whenever possible, progress should be recognized in order to encourage more progress in the future.

In addition, Volio, like the majority of the Chilean democratic opposition, had acknowledged that the assassination attempt against General Pinochet last September and the discovery of communist arsenals a month earlier had helped to impede the return of democracy in Chile. The UN resolution did not acknowledge that the government is not the sole source of political violence in Chile. We felt it was important that a resolution on Chile recognize the negative impact of terrorism. We voted against the resolution only after we were unable to obtain sufficient amendments to the text to allay these fundamental concerns.

The Honorable
Alan J. Dixon,
United States Senate.

In seeking to promote human rights and democracy in Chile, we consider it important to be vocal in deploring terrorist violence, just as we are outspoken in deploring violence by the Chilean government. As Pope John Paul II demonstrated in his recent visit to Chile, it is possible to condemn violence from all sources without providing the government justification for human rights abuses.

There has been no retreat from our vocal support for democracy and human rights in Chile. We took the initiative to propose a resolution on Chile this year in the UN Human Rights Commission, just as we did last March. Through persistent diplomatic efforts we were able to obtain improvements in an unbalanced Chile resolution circulated by Mexico, and to reach agreement on a proposal for eliminating discriminatory treatment of Chile under a separate agenda item. We succeeded in revising the text so that it would deplore "continued acts of extreme violence from all quarters." In view of the improvements we obtained, despite flaws in the text, we joined the consensus in approving the resolution.

We continue to work to encourage progress across the board in Chile. Recent months have seen encouraging efforts by the Chilean government to address some longstanding problems, such as political exile. Government security forces have recently agreed with the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) to allow visits by ICRC doctors to most prisoners. Two opposition newspapers have appeared. The government has begun to reestablish voter registries and enacted a law which permits political parties to gain legal recognition. While Chile's 1980 constitution calls for a single-candidate presidential plebiscite in 1989, rather than free elections, these measures help ensure broad discussion of prospects of the possibility of amending that constitution to permit free elections by 1989, as most opposition groups and many government supporters have advocated.

Despite these positive changes, serious human rights problems such as torture have continued. Moreover, President Pinochet gives every indication of wishing to continue in office beyond 1989, and has resisted replacement of the plebiscite with an open election.

The aforementioned steps, however, can help create the type of atmosphere conducive to a return to full democracy in Chile. We hope that these measures are followed up by greater relaxation of restrictions on individual liberties and by decisive steps to end human rights abuses. We will continue to strive to encourage human rights progress and a peaceful return to democracy in Chile. The United States Government is second to none in pressing for both of these. In contrast with most nations, we buttress our words with actions; this is recognized in Chile by both the government and the opposition.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

J. Edward Fox
Assistant Secretary
Legislative and Intergovernmental Affairs

Chile. Moscow and the Chilean communist party (PCCh) leadership in exile in the USSR won a victory in their attempt to assert control of the party in Chile -- increasingly dominated by hardliners advocating violent resistance to Pinochet -- with the reinstatement of party stalwart Jorge

Insunza to the political commission of the central committee. Insunza acknowledged the need to support the Manuel Rodiriguez Patriotic Front (FPMR), the party's armed wing, but said that it should not act without the knowledge or consent of the commission. Insunza added that the party, long divided on the issue of violent resistance, should stop making militant pronouncements that would alienate the moderate politcal opposition and attract excessive attention to itself. (The party's refusal to abjure violence has excluded it from a number of moderate opposition coalitions.)

SUBJECT: M/W CASE OF NICHOLAS BLAKE AND GRIFFITH DAVIS

REF: GUATEMALA 03679

1. AS A RESULT OF INFORMATION RECEIVED IN REFTEL AN INVESTIGATOR WAS SENT TO [illegible] FOR VERIFICATION.

2. AFO INVESTIGATOR FIRST CONFERRED WITH GABRIEL SARMIENTO THE SECRETARIO PARTICULAR DEL GOBERNADOR AND CHIEF OF THE [illegible] SARMIENTO REPORTED THAT BLAKE AND DAVIS WERE IN SAN CRISTOBAL DE LAS CASAS, BUT ONLY BECAUSE THERE IS A LARGE FOREIGN COMMUNITY THERE. HE SUGGESTED THAT THE INVESTIGATOR TALK TO BISHOP SAMUEL RUIZ GARCIA, PADRE JAVIER RUIZ, FLORA ANDERSON AND GABRIEL SUAREZ, ALL OF WHOM HE THOUGHT MIGHT BE OF ASSISTANCE IN LOCATING BLAKE AND DAVIS. SARMIENTO ALSO DISAVOWED ANY KNOWLEDGE OF [redacted]

3. UPON ARRIVAL IN SAN CRISTOBAL THE INVESTIGATOR ATTEMPTED TO CONFER WITH BISHOP RUIZ GARCIA AND PADRE JAVIER RUIZ, BOTH OF WHOM WERE OUT OF TOWN AND NOT EXPECTED TO RETURN UNTIL MID-MAY. INFORMATION DEVELOPED BY AFO INVESTIGATOR INDICATES THAT BOTH THE BISHOP AND THE PADRE ARE HEAVILY INVOLVED WITH THE GUATEMALAN REFUGEE RELIEF EFFORT IN MEXICO AND THAT THE BISHOP, IN PARTICULAR, IS DISTRUSTFUL OF ANY AUTHORITY AND PROBABLY WILL NOT BE OF ASSISTANCE IN THIS MATTER.

4. THE INVESTIGATOR CHECKED SEVERAL KNOWN HANGOUTS OF U.S. CITIZENS BUT COULD NOT FIND ANYONE WHO KNEW ANYTHING ABOUT BLAKE AND DAVIS. THE INVESTIGATOR NOTICED SEVERAL POSTERS, HOWEVER, REQUESTING INFORMATION CONCERNING BLAKE AND DAVIS' WHEREABOUTS. A CHECK AT THE HOME OF FLORA ANDERSON WAS NEGATIVE. SHE, AT ONE TIME, OWNED A HOME (PENSION) WHERE U.S. CITIZENS COULD FIND SHELTER. THE HOME HAS SINCE BEEN SOLD AND FLORA ANDERSON IS REPORTED TO HAVE RETURNED TO NEW YORK

5. THE INVESTIGATOR CONFERRED WITH SUAREZ AT HIS PLACE OF BUSINESS IN SAN CRISTOBAL. SUAREZ STATED THAT HE FIRST MET BLAKE IN 1982. BLAKE SEEMED VERY INTERESTED IN THE GUATEMALAN PLIGHT AND WANTED TO CONTACT THE GUERRILLAS. SUAREZ SAID HE TOOK BLAKE TO A REFUGEE CAMP WHERE BLAKE CHASTISED THE OCCUPANTS FOR NOT FIGHTING WITH GUERRILLAS. THE OCCUPANTS BECAME IRATE AT BLAKE'S COMMENTS AND SUAREZ HAD TO HURRY BLAKE OUT OF THE CAMP. BLAKE LEFT FOR THE U.S. SHORTLY AFTERWARDS AND SENT SUAREZ A CHECK FOR U.S. $500.00. THEIR SECOND ENCOUNTER OCCURRED IN OCTOBER OR NOVEMBER OF 1984. BLAKE WAS ENROUTE TO GUATEMALA WHEN HE STOPPED BY TO SAY HELLO. THE LAST ENCOUNTER WAS IN FEBRUARY 1985. BLAKE WAS ON HIS WAY TO HUEHUETENANGO TO VISIT A FRIEND, A COLONEL IN THE GUATEMALAN ARMY. PREVIOUSLY UNREPORTED, SUAREZ NOW SAYS BLAKE WAS RETURNING TO HUEHUETENANGO TO CONTINUE HIS RESIDENCE WITH THE COLONEL. SUAREZ REPORTED THAT BLAKE LEFT MEXICO FOOT WITH A KNAPSACK AND SLEEPING BAG THROUGH CARMENXHAN AND CROSSED THE BORDER INTO GRACIA A DIOS, GUATEMALA. SUAREZ SAID HE COULD NOT UNDERSTAND WHY BLAKE DECIDED TO CROSS THERE BECAUSE QUOTE IN GRACIA A DIOS THERE ARE MAN GUARDIAS CIVILES, INDIANS WITH GUNS, WHO ARE DANGEROUS A TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE UNSUSPECTING UNQUOTE.

6. AFO INVESTIGATOR ALSO CONFERRED WITH MEXICAN IMMIGRATION OFFICIAL ALEJANDRO MONTES WHO SAID THAT SEVERAL PEOPLE HAVE COME BY HIS OFFICE INQUIRING ABOUT BLAKE AND DAVIS. ROBERT HOOK, AN ALLEGED REPORTER FOR LONDON NEWSPAPER, IS THE LATEST PLAYER IN THIS SCENARIO. HOOK TALKED TO MONTES ON OR ABOUT APRIL 17, AND SAID THA HE WAS IN A MEXICAN BORDER TOWN NAME UNKNOWN LOOKING F BLAKE AND DAVIS AND WAS INFORMED BY PERSONS UNKNOWN TH BLAKE AND DAVID WERE THERE FIVE DAYS EARLIER LOOKING FOR THE GUERRILLAS. A FEW WEEKS PRIOR, HOOKS SAID HE WAS ALSO VISITED BY TWO OTHER MEN FROM PHILADELPHIA. HOOK PRESUMES THIS WAS BERLAND MCGUEL AND A COMPANION, WHO WE ALSO LOOKING FOR BLAKE AND DAVIS. HOWEVER, THE PHILADELPHIANS SEEMED MORE INTERESTED IN SIGHTSEEING RATHER THAN INFORMATION REGARDING BLAKE AND DAVIS. HOOK PLANS TO FLY TO THE [illegible] AND INTENDS CONTACT TO HIS PEOPLE THERE ABOUT THE MISSING U.S CITIZENS. HE WIL ADVISE EMBASSY OF THE OUTCOME.

7. ATTEMPTS BY THE AFO INVESTIGATOR TO CONFER WITH [redacted] WERE FUTILE. THE INVESTIGATOR WAS SUCCESSFUL IN TALKING WITH [redacted] EMPLOYER, [redacted] WHO IS ALSO [redacted] KNEW NOTHI ABOUT BLAKE AND DAVIS, NOR WAS HE AWARE THAT [redacted] REPORTED A SIGHTING. [redacted] PROVIDED THE INVESTIGAT WITH THE HOME PHONE NUMBER OF [redacted] IN COMITAN. THE INVESTIGATOR CONTACTED [redacted] AT THIS NUMBER WHO, AFTER FINDING OUT SHE WAS TALKING TO REPRESENTATIVE OF THE EMBASSY, STATED THAT SHE WAS ONLY THE MAID AND HAD NO IDEA WHERE [redacted] WAS OR WHEN HE WOULD RETURN.

8. COMMENTS: INFORMATION DEVELOPED THUS FAR SEEMS TO SUPPORT AMEMBASSY GUATEMALA'S POSITION THAT A SIZEABLE PEARL HAS BEEN CREATED FROM A MERE GRAIN OF SAND. SEVER ATTEMPTS HAVE BEEN MADE TO CONTACT [redacted] TO CORROBORATE HIS FINDINGS, BUT TO DATE HE HAS NOT MADE HIMSELF AVAILABLE. [redacted] WHO CLAIMS TO H THE MAID OF [redacted] WAS TRYING TO CONCEAL HER REAL ASSOCIATION WITH [redacted] AND WAS NERVOUS AND EVASIVE WHEN QUESTIONED AS TO [redacted] WHEREABOUTS. ANOTHER PROBLEM HAMPERING THE INVESTIGATION ARE THE NUMBERS OF INEXPERIENCED WELL WISHERS FROM THE U.S. GETTING IN THE WAY. THE SIGHTING OF BLAKE AND DAVIS BY THE TOWNSPEOPLE AS REPORTED BY HOOK, WERE PROBABLY MCGUEL AND HIS COMPANION. AT THIS STAGE OF THE GAME, IT IS DIFFICULT T BELIEVE THAT BLAKE AND DAVIS WOULD STILL BE TRYING TO CONTACT THE GUERRILLAS. WE WILL HOWEVER, CONTINUE TO PURSUE THOSE LEADS ALREADY DEVELOPED.

1. (U) SUMMARY.

THE FLIGHT OF 10 TO 12 THOUSAND MISKITO INDIAN REFUGEES TO HONDURAS IN THE LAST FEW WEEKS POSES A SERIOUS PROBLEM FOR THE SANDINISTAS' EFFORT TO PORTRAY THEMSELVES AS A POPULAR GOVERNMENT INNOCENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES. THE PREVIOUS WAVE OF MISKITO REFUGEES, IN 1982, LEFT A PERMA-

SUBJECT: MASS FLIGHT OF MISKITO INDIANS AGAIN THREATENS

THE SANDINISTAS HAVE RESPONDED TO THE OUTFLOW WITH A MAJOR PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN DESIGNED TO CONTRAST THEIR INNOCENCE AND GOOD INTENTIONS WITH THE WICKEDNESS OF THE CONTRAS AND CIA. ITS PRINCIPAL THEMES ARE THAT: (1) THE MISKITOS IN HONDURAS WERE KIDNAPPED BY CONTRAS AND ARE HELD THERE AGAINST THEIR WILL; (2) THIS IS PART OF A CIA PLAN TO FRUSTRATE AUTONOMY AND CREATE A SEPARATE GOVERNMENT ON THE COAST; AND (3) THE REPORTS FROM HONDURAS ON REFUGEES AND SANDINISTA ABUSES ARE BEING ORCHESTRATED OR FABRICATED BY THE USG.

4. (U) MASS KIDNAPPING

THE GON REPEATEDLY HAS CLAIMED THAT THE MISKITOS IN HONDURAS ARE NOT REFUGEES BUT KIDNAP VICTIMS. COMANDANTE BORGE PRESENTED AN EXTREME VERSION OF THIS IN A RECENT SPEECH (REF A) WHEN HE CLAIMED THAT 12 THOUSAND MISKITOS HAD BEEN KIDNAPPED IN FOUR DAYS BY KISAN/FDN FORCES, WITH THE DIRECT ASSISTANCE OF THE U.S. MILITARY AND THE CIA. THESE SAME FORCES, WITH THE CONNIVANCE OF HONDURAN AUTHORITIES, ARE PREVENTING THE THOUSANDS OF KIDNAPEES FROM RETURNING TO NICARAGUA, BORGE SAID.

5. (U) UNHCR PETITIONED

THE GON HAS BUTTRESSED ITS CLAIMS OF MASS KIDNAPPING AND FORCIBLE DETENTION BY REQUESTING THAT THE UNHCR INTERCEDE WITH THE HONDURAN GOVERNMENT TO SECURE THE RELEASE OF THE KIDNAPPED MISKITOS AND SAFEGUARD THEIR RETURN TO NICARAGUA. ACCORDING TO FSLN DAILY BARRICADA OF APRIL 22, THE GON HAS ALSO SUGGESTED THAT THE UNHCR PROPOSE A JOINT COMMISSION ON REFUGEES TO THE HONDURAN GOVERNMENT. BARRICADA OF APRIL 23 REPORTS THAT UNHCR OFFICERS FROM GENEVA AND THE PRESS WILL BE TRAVELLING TO THE RIO COCO AREA ABOUT APRIL 26 TO ASSESS THE SITUATION.

6. (U) SEPARATIST PLANS

UNCLASSIFIED

A NEW THEME INTRODUCED IN BARRICADA OF APRIL 23 IS THAT THE CIA, KISAN AND THE FDN PLAN TO DETACH THE NORTHERN PART OF THE ATLANTIC COAST FROM NICARAGUA AND CREATE A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT. COMANDANTE JOSE GONZALEZ, FSLN POLITICAL SECRETARY FOR THE REGION, CLAIMED THAT THE MASS KIDNAPPINGS WERE DONE TO REINFORCE THIS SEPARATIST PLAN.

UNCLASSIFIED

7. (U) PEACEFUL INTENTIONS

THE SANDINISTA MEDIA ARE STRESSING THE GON'S PEACEFUL EFFORTS AS A COUNTERPOINT TO THE WARLIKE ACTIONS OF THE CONTRAS. RECENT ARTICLES IN BARRICADA AND GON-SUBSIDIZED EL NUEVO DIARIO (END) HAVE TOLD OF GON INVESTMENT IN REPAIR SHOPS, ROADS AND BRIDGES FOR THE AREA. THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR DONATED A HOSPITAL BUILT FOR ITS SOLDIERS TO THE HEALTH MINISTRY. A SHIPLOAD OF FOOD FROM CUBA ARRIVED THIS WEEK IN PUERTO CABEZAS, THE REGIONAL CAPITAL AND SITE OF RECENT FOOD SHORTAGES. OTHER STORIES TELL OF GON ATTEMPTS TO SECURE A CEASE FIRE, AND ITS SUCCESS WITH SOME KISAN LEADERS. THE EMPHASIS IS ON SANDINISTA EFFORTS FOR DIALOGUE AND DEVELOPMENT ON THE COAST.

8. (U) COUNTERATTACK ON REPORTS FROM HONDURAS

BARRICADA AND END OF APRIL 22 ALSO ATTACKED U.S. EFFORTS TO CALL ATTENTION TO THE PLIGHT OF THE MISKITOS. BARRI-

SUBJECT: MASS FLIGHT OF MISKITO INDIANS AGAIN THREATENS

CADA DEVOTED HALF A PAGE TO EXCERPTS FROM AN AMERICAS WATCH REPORT OF APRIL 11 THAT, WHILE IT ADMITS THAT THE MISKITOS FLED OUT OF FEAR OF THE SANDINISTAS, CLAIMS THAT THE FLIGHT OF THE MISKITOS WAS "A PREARRANGED PLAN" CARRIED OUT BY KISAN TO INFLUENCE CONGRESSIONAL VOTING ON CONTRA AID. END OF APRIL 22 USED STORIES FROM THE BOSTON GLOBE AND PHILADELPHIA ENQUIRER, ON THE TRANSPORTATION OF REPORTERS TO REFUGEE CAMPS IN U.S. HELICOPTERS AND ALLEGED KISAN ATTEMPTS TO COORDINATE REFUGEES' STORIES, TO DEMONSTRATE THAT THE CLAIM THAT THE MISKITOS IN HONDURAS ARE REFUGEES IS A "COARSE TRICK" PLANNED IN WASHINGTON.

9. (U) SOVIETS APPARENTLY CONCERNED

SOVIET CONCERN WITH THE POTENTIAL DAMAGE THEIR NICARAGUAN CLIENTS COULD SUFFER FROM A NEW WAVE OF MISKITO REFUGEES IS SHOWN IN A RARE TASS ARTICLE FILED FROM PUERTO CABEZAS BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT SERGEY GORBUNOV. HE REPORTED THAT NINE THOUSAND MISKITOS TRIED TO RETURN TO NICARAGUA, BUT WERE PREVENTED FROM DOING SO BY "ARMED GANGS OF CIA MERCENARIES." TASS QUOTES TOMAS BORGE'S ALLEGATION THAT U.S. FORCES WERE DIRECTLY INVOLVED IN THE KIDNAPPING, AND CALLS THE SITUATION ON THE RIO COCO "ANOTHER LARGE SCALE ACT OF TERRORISM" BY THE CIA (REF B).

10. (U) REFUGEES' MOTIVES

UNCLASSIFIED

A) THERE ARE SEVERAL POSSIBLE MOTIVES FOR THE MISKITO OUTFLOW. MANY OF THE NEW REFUGEES HAD PREVIOUSLY BEEN IN SANDINISTA RELOCATION CAMPS. AS PART OF THE AUTONOMY PRO-

GRAM, THE GON RELEASED THOUSANDS OF THESE MISKITOS IN JANUARY AND FEBRUARY AND ALLOWED THEM TO RETURN TO THEIR VILLAGES, WHERE THEY DISCOVERED THAT THEIR HOUSES AND BOATS HAD BEEN BURNED, AND THEIR LIVESTOCK SLAUGHTERED BY THE EPS AFTER THEIR 198
1-82 REMOVAL. THE RETURNEES ALSO FOUND THAT THE GON WAS UNABLE TO SUPPLY THE CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS, AGRICULTURAL EQUIPMENT AND FOOD IT HAD PROMISED TO HELP THEM REBUILD. MOST OF THOSE PEOPLE SIMPLY CONTINUED ON TO HONDURAS.

B) (U) THEY, AND OTHER MISKITOS, MAY ALSO HAVE BEEN PROMPTED BY RUMORS OF A NEW, LESS DRAMATIC AND SMALLER SCALE RELOCATION CAMPAIGN BY THE SANDINISTAS. THERE HAVE BEEN SEVERAL REPORTS IN BARRICADA OF MISKITO VILLAGES "ASKING" TO BE MOVED FROM THE RIO COCO, AND THERE IS SPECULATION THAT THE SANDINISTAS WOULD LIKE POTENTIAL KISAN SUPPORTERS AWAY FROM THE BORDER. GIVEN TRADITIONAL MISKITO DISTRUST OF THE "SPANISH," AND THE UNHAPPY EXPERIENCE OF THE LAST RELOCATION, THESE RUMORS COULD HAVE HAD A POWERFUL EFFECT.

C) (U) RENEWED FIGHTING ON THE ATLANTIC COAST SINCE FEBRUARY ALSO ACTED AS A POWERFUL SPUR. THE PARTIAL TRUCE BEGAN TO CRUMBLE IN EARLY FEBRUARY WHEN LARGE SANDINISTA AIR, NAVAL AND GROUND FORCES PURSUED MISKITO LEADER BROOKLYN RIVERA AND A GROUP OF NORTH AMERICAN INDIANS HE WAS ESCORTING. THIS EFFORT APPARENTLY LED TO THE RESUMPTION OF FIGHTING. SOME REFUGEES REPORT THAT THEIR VILLAGES HAD BEEN BOMBED AND STRAFED BY EPS AIRCRAFT. OTHER REFUGEES REPORT ATTACKS ON THEIR VILLAGES BY EPS ARMORED VEHICLES AND ARTILLERY. FORTY MISKITO CIVILIANS HAVE BEEN REPORTED KILLED BY EPS ATTACKS IN THE FIRST TWO WEEKS OF APRIL. THE EPS ALSO HAS BEEN ACCUSED OF ARRESTING OR ASSASSINATING MISKITOS SUSPECTED OF TIES TO

FROM AMBASSADOR HABIB

E.O. 12356: DECL:OADR
TAGS: PREL, XX, BR, NU
SUBJ: HABIB TRIP: MEETINGS IN BRAZIL

1. SECRET ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY AND COMMENT: THE BRAZILIANS UTILIZED MY VISIT TO PROBE FOR THE BOTTOM LINE OF OUR POLICY TOWARD CONTADORA AND NICARAGUA. IN PARTICULAR, THEY WANT TO KNOW IF WE ARE WILLING TO SETTLE FOR A "YUGOSLAV" OUTCOME (I.E., THE SANDINISTAS STAY IN POWER), TRADING OFF POLITICAL OBJECTIVES FOR A SATISFACTORY AGREEMENT ON SECURITY. I STRONGLY AFFIRMED THE IMPORTANCE OF ALL OF THE CONTADORA'S OBJECTIVES. I SAID THAT WE STAYED OUT OF CONTADORA BECAUSE THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES DEFINED THEIR OBJECTIVES TO INCLUDE NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION. CONTADORA COULD NOT START CHANGING THE OBJECTIVES NOW, I SAID. OTHER POINTS OF INTEREST WERE THE BRAZILIAN OBSERVATION THAT MEXICO'S SEPULVEDA HAD BEEN IN FREQUENT TELEPHONE CONTACT WITH ORTEGA THROUGHOUT THE PANAMA MEETING, I.E., IT WAS NOT JUST D'ESCOTO WHO WAS UNYIELDING, AND THAT PANAMA'S ABADIA HAS SENT WORD THAT NICARAGUA IS NOW WILLING TO SIGN "THE" CONTADORA ACTA. ABADIA'S CABLE BARELY STOPPED SHORT OF A FORMAL INVITATION TO BE PRESENT JUNE 6. THE BRAZILIANS HAVE HEARD NOTHING ABOUT FURTHER NEGOTIATIONS, HOWEVER, AND BELIEVE THE PANAMANIANS ARE STICKING THEIR NECKS OUT IN EXPRESSING SUCH CONFIDENCE. BRAZILIAN OPPOSITION TO PARTICIPATION IN ANY PEACEKEEPING ARRANGEMENT WAS EXPRESSED OPENLY, BUT ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER FLECHA DE LIMA SAID BRAZIL COULD GIVE MATERIAL SUPPORT TO A SUPERVISORY COMMISSION. PRESIDENT SARNEY SPOKE OF THE BRAZILIAN DECISION TO JOIN THE SUPPORT GROUP IN FAMILIAR TERMS -- TO KEEP CONTADORA ALIVE AND TO SHIELD BRAZILIAN DOMESTIC POLITICS FROM REPERCUSSIONS FROM CENTRAL AMERICA. END SUMMARY AND COMMENT.

3. CHARGE WATSON AND I MET WITH ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER FLECHA DE LIMA AND HIS TOP ADVISERS FOR NEARLY TWO HOURS APRIL 24. ARA/CEN OFFICER HAMILTON (NOTETAKER) ALSO PARTICIPATED. OTHER MEMBERS OF MY PARTY AND EMBASSY STAFF JOINED US FOR MORE DISCUSSION OVER LUNCH AT ITAMARATY. CHARGE WATSON HOSTED A RETURN DINNER WITH MANY OF THE SAME OFFICIALS PLUS GENERAL IVAN DE SOUZA MENDES, HEAD OF THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE SERVICE, AND GENERAL CARLOS OLAVO GUIMARAES OF THE ARMY MINISTER'S STAFF. WE ALSO MET SEPARATELY, FOR A MORE GENERAL DISCUSSION, WITH PRESIDENT SARNEY.

4. I BEGAN WITH THE SAME POINTS I'VE STRESSED AT OTHER STOPS. MY INSTRUCTIONS ARE TO EXPLORE THE POSSIBILITIES OF A DIPLOMATIC SOLUTION; AS INDICATED BY MY LETTER OF APRIL 11, WE WILL SUPPORT AND ABIDE BY A SOLUTION THAT IS COMPREHENSIVE, VERIFIABLE AND SIMULTANEOUS IN IMPLEMENTATION. BUT WE WILL NOT ACQUIESCE IN PIECEMEAL SOLUTIONS OR THAT DO NOT OTHERWISE MEET THESE CRITERIA. WE BELIEVE THAT SETTING DEADLINE FOR REACHING A SOLUTION IS BENEFICIAL. FROM CONSULTATIONS WITH THE CENTRAL AMERICANS, WE KNOW THAT THEY ARE WILLING TO NEGOTIATE A COMPREHENSIVE SOLUTION IN GOOD FAITH. THE CENTRAL AMERICANS ARE CONCERNED, HOWEVER, THAT THE SUPPORT GROUP COUNTRIES IN PARTICULAR ARE WILLING TO SETTLE FOR ANY AGREEMENT AND THAT THEY WILL CONCEDE NICARAGUA WHAT EVER IT WANTS TO GET AN AGREEMENT.

5. ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER FLECHA DE LIMA SKETCHED OUT BRAZIL'S GENERAL POSITION IN RESPONSE. BRAZIL HAS NO TRADITION OF INVOLVEMENT IN CARIBBEAN AND CENTRAL AMERICAN MATTERS, EXCEPT FOR THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC IN 1965, A CONTROVERSIAL EXPERIENCE THAT STILL CONDITIONS BRAZILIAN ATTITUDES TOWARD PEACE-KEEPING EXERCISES. BRAZIL HAS NOT "KNOCKED ON ANYONE'S DOOR" TO GET INVOLVED IN CENTRAL AMERICA. BUT CONCERN THAT CENTRAL AMERICA COULD HAVE REPERCUSSIONS FOR BRAZIL LEAD THE SARNEY GOVERNMENT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE SUPPORT GROUP. BRAZIL IS ALSO CONCERNED THAT AGGRAVATION OF THE SITUATION IN CENTRAL AMERICA, COMBINED WITH NEW CONFLICT WITH OTHER NATIONS (READ LIBYA), WILL DIMINISH POSSIBILITIES FOR A U.S.-SOVIET DIALOGUE. ALTHOUGH BRAZIL IS PARTICIPATING IN THE SUPPORT GROUP, ITS PERSPECTIVE IS THAT OF AN ONLOOKER, NOT A FULL-FLEDGED MEMBER OF THE CONTADORA GROUP. THIS POINT WAS MADE REPEATEDLY IN VARIOUS WAYS IN SIDE CONVERSATIONS BY OTHER BRAZILIAN OFFICIALS.

6. FLECHA DE LIMA SAID HE AGREES THAT THE NICARAGUANS WERE INTRANSIGENT AT PANAMA. IT WAS NOT JUST D'ESCOTO, HOWEVER, WHO WAS HANGING TOUGH. MEXICO'S SEPULVEDA SPOKE BY PHONE MANY TIMES DURING THE WEEKEND WITH ORTEGA, WHO WAS JUST AS UNYIELDING. BUT ACCORDING TO PANAMA'S ABADIA, THE NICARAGUANS HAVE NOW CHANGED THEIR POSITION. BRAZIL RECEIVED A TELEX FROM ABADIA CIRCA APRIL 22 THAT, WHILE NOT QUITE A FORMAL INVITATION TO A JUNE 6 SIGNING CEREMONY, WAS THE NEXT THING TO IT. THE BRAZILIANS BELIEVE THE PANAMANIANS ARE ASSUMING GREAT RISK SINCE IT IS FAR FROM CERTAIN THAT THERE WILL BE ANYTHING TO SIGN. IT WOULD HAVE BEEN MORE PRUDENT TO RECONVENE NEGOTIATIONS FIRST. THE BRAZILIANS ASSUME THAT NEGOTIATIONS WILL BE RESUMED, BUT SAY THEY HAVE NO WORD AS TO WHEN. FLECHA DE LIMA ALSO ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE CONTADORA ACTA IS FAR FROM BEING READY TO SIGN AND IMPLEMENT. NOTING THAT A SWISS-NEGOTIATED PEACEKEEPING ARRANGEMENT IN 1956 RAN MORE THAN 100 PAGES IN THE BASIC LETTER OF REFERENCE ALONE, HE CONVEYED AN IMPRESSION THAT THE BRAZILIANS HAVE LITTLE RESPECT FOR THE WAY THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES ARE APPROACHING THESE ISSUES. I EMPHASIZED THAT THIS APPARENT LACK OF PROFESSIONAL ATTENTION TO THE DETAILS OF HOW AN AGREEMENT COULD BE EFFECTIVELY IMPLEMENTED CONCERNS US GREAT CONCERN. IN THE U.S. VIEW, AGREEMENTS OF THIS SORT REQUIRE A COMBINATION OF POLITICAL WILL AND EFFECTIVE MECHANISMS TO MAKE THEM WORK. THEY ARE NOT SELF-ENFORCING AND GOOD WILL IS NOT ENOUGH. BRAZILIAN PRESENCE IN THE PROCESS IS REASSURING TO US, I SAID, PRECISELY

BECAUSE THEY APPROACH SUCH MATTERS PROFESSIONALLY AND SERIOUSLY.

7. FLECHA DE LIMA SAID THERE HAD BEEN SOME MISUNDERSTANDING ABOUT BRAZILIAN INTENTIONS TOWARD POSSIBLE PEACEKEEPING ARRANGEMENTS. BRAZIL IS PREPARED TO SUPPORT SUCH ARRANGEMENTS, EVEN MATERIALLY. BUT OWING TO ITS "LACK OF FAMILIARITY" WITH THE REGION, BRAZIL IS NOT PREPARED TO PARTICIPATE WITH TROOPS. MOREOVER, IT DOES NOT BELIEVE THAT ANY LATIN AMERICAN TROOPS SHOULD BE INVOLVED; THEY WOULD BE A "TARGET FOR SABOTAGE." BETTER TO LET OUTSIDERS WITH EXPERIENCE -- E.G., THE FINNS AND AUSTRALIANS -- PROVIDE THE SOLDIERS. FLECHA DE LIMA SAID TOMAS BORGE HAD ARRIVED IN BRASILIA WITH THE MISTAKEN IMPRESSION THAT BRAZIL OPPOSES PEACEKEEPING ARRANGEMENTS ALTOGETHER. IT TOOK SOME DOING TO CONVINCE HIM OTHERWISE. I PICKED UP ON THIS SUBJECT TO REGISTER OUR OPPOSITION TO THE PROPOSED COSTA RICAN/NICARAGUAN BORDER COMMISSION AS JUST THE KIND OF PIECEMEAL APPROACH THAT UNDERCUTS CHANCES FOR A COMPREHENSIVE SOLUTION.

9. FLECHA DE LIMA ASKED IF WE REGARD MILITARY AID TO THE CONTRAS AS ESSENTIAL. I SAID THAT WE DO, BUT AS PRESSURE IN SUPPORT OF NEGOTIATIONS. IN A SERIES OF QUESTIONS AND EXCHANGES THAT INVOLVED PRESIDENTIAL ADVISER RICUPERO AS WELL AS FLECHA DE LIMA, THE BRAZILIANS PROBED FOR OUR BOTTOM LINE. WOULD WE ACCEPT A CONTADORA AGREEMENT THAT LEAVES THE SANDINISTAS IN POWER? WOULD A YUGOSLAV OUTCOME BE ACCEPTABLE? I INDICATED THAT THE QUESTION ITSELF DISTURBS US, BECAUSE IT SUGGESTS THAT THE CONTADORA MEDIATORS ARE NOT TAKING CONTADORA'S DECLARED OBJECTIVES SERIOUSLY. WE WANT THE SANDINISTAS TO DO WHAT A CONTADORA AGREEMENT REQUIRED THEM TO DO: HOLD REGULAR, FREE AND FAIR ELECTIONS; OPEN A DIALOGUE WITH THEIR OPPOSITION; LIFT PRESS RESTRICTIONS; AND ALL THE REST. THESE ARE CONTADORA OBJECTIVES THAT NICARAGUA HAS ACCEPTED, I SAID. THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES TOLD US AT THE OUTSET THAT THEY WILL PURSUE THESE OBJECTIVES AND WE STAYED OUT OF CONTADORA BECAUSE WE WERE TOLD THAT A SOLUTION INCORPORATING THEM WOULD BE ATTAINED. THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES HAVE ASSUMED A RESPONSIBILITY TO PRODUCE NOTHING LESS THAN A COMPREHENSIVE AGREEMENT. "DON'T START CHANGING THE OBJECTIVES OF CONTADORA AT THIS POINT," I CONCLUDED.

10. RICUPERO FOLLOWED UP. WHAT WILL WE DO IF OUR POLICY DOES NOT WORK? IF THE U.S. HOLDS OUT FOR DEMOCRATIZATION AND DOES NOT GET IT, WON'T IT IN THE END HAVE TO SETTLE FOR NOTHING AT ALL, I.E. THE SANDINISTAS CONSOLIDATED IN POWER WITH THE CUBANS STILL THERE? I SAID IF THE SANDINISTAS REJECT A COMPREHENSIVE SOLUTION, THE PRESIDENT WILL GET ALL THE RESOURCES HE NEEDS FROM THE CONGRESS AND THE SANDINISTAS WILL HAVE A SERIOUS PRICE TO PAY. A LONG DISCUSSION OF CONTRA CAPABILITIES ENSUED, WITH THE BRAZILIANS CLEARLY DOUBTFUL THAT THE CONTRAS CAN EVER

12. THE MEETING WITH PRESIDENT SARNEY WAS MUCH SHORTER, AMICABLE, AND GENERALLY DEVOID OF SPECIFICS. SARNEY (AND FLECHA DE LIMA IN THE FIRST MEETING) PROFESSED TO DERIVE REASSURANCE FROM THE FACT OF MY APPOINTMENT. I TOLD BOTH THAT MY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY ARE TO EXPLORE EVERY POSSIBLE AVENUE FOR A SOLUTION. SARNEY EXPLAINED BRAZIL'S DECISION TO JOIN THE SUPPORT GROUP AS AN EFFORT TO OVERCOME INERTIA AND TO PREVENT A POSSIBLE ESCALATION IN CENTRAL AMERICA OUT OF CONCERN FOR THE IMPACT IT WOULD HAVE ON BRAZILIAN POLITICS. AS DID FLECHA DE LIMA AND HIS COLLEAGUES, SARNEY STRESSED THAT BRAZIL'S ROLE IN CONTADORA IS TO SUPPORT, NOT TO TAKE INITIATIVES OR EVEN TO ACT IN PARALLEL. THIS EMPHASIS STOOD IN CONTRAST TO WHAT WE HEARD IN ARGENTINA AND URUGUAY.

5. AT A LUNCHEON HOSTED BY AMBASSADOR TAMBS ON APRIL 26, I HAD A WARM CONVERSATION WITH PRESIDENT ELECT OSCAR ARIAS WHO WAS ACCOMPANIED BY HIS BROTHER, MINISTER OF THE PRESIDENCY DESIGNATE RODRIGO ARIAS, FIRST VICE PRESIDENT ELECT JORGE MANUEL DENGO, AND FOREIGN MINISTER DESIGNATE RODRIGO MADRIGAL NIETO. I EXPLAINED THAT MY MISSION WAS TO LOOK INTO THE POSSIBILITIES OF A PEACEFUL SOLUTION TO THE CONFLICT IN CENTRAL AMERICA AND DETERMINE THE STATUS OF THE CONTADORA PROCESS FOLLOWING THE PANAMA MEETING EARLIER IN THE MONTH. I SAID THAT THE U.S. SUPPORTED PEACE, NOT PROTRACTED CONFLICT, AND WOULD WELCOME AN AGREEMENT THAT WAS COMPREHENSIVE, VERIFIABLE, AND SIMULTANEOUS. CONTADORA IS THE FRAMEWORK FOR SUCH AN AGREEMENT. THE LATIN AMERICANS HAD ASKED THE U.S. TO STAY OUT OF THE PROCESS AND WE HAD COMPLIED. NOW WE WERE LOOKING FOR THEM TO PRODUCE AN AGREEMENT BASED ON THE TWENTY-ONE OBJECTIVES THEY SET IN 1983. THE PANAMA MEETING HAD PROVIDED NEW MOMENTUM TO THE PROCESS, ALTHOUGH WE WERE DISAPPOINTED BY THE PERFORMANCE OF THE NICARAGUANS. WE WERE RAPIDLY APPROACHING THE JUNE 6 DATE SET FOR CONCLUDING AGREEMENT, BUT THERE REMAINED MANY ISSUES TO BE RESOLVED.

6. I TOLD ARIAS THAT IN MY TALKS WITH THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES, I HAD SEEN THAT THEY ALL WOULD LIKE TO ACHIEVE A GOOD AGREEMENT. I HAD BEEN IMPRESSED THAT THE DEMOCRACIES WERE WORKING TOGETHER AS NEVER BEFORE. AMONG THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUPS, I FOUND THAT MOST FELT THIS WAY, ALTHOUGH A FEW STILL SEEMED INCLINED TO WANT TO SIGN ANY AGREEMENT SIMPLY TO SIGN SOMETHING. I HAD TOLD THE LATIN AMERICANS THAT THE U.S. WOULD, OF COURSE, RESERVE THE RIGHT TO JUDGE FOR ITSELF IF THE FINAL AGREEMENT WAS ACCEPTABLE, BUT OUR VIEWS MATCHED THOSE OF THE CENTRAL AMERICANS VERY CLOSELY. CERTAINLY, WE WOULD NOT SUPPORT ANY AGREEMENT THAT THEY COULD NOT ACCEPT. MY RECENT LETTER TO THREE MEMBERS OF CONGRESS HAD MADE CLEAR THAT THE U.S. WOULD BE WILLING TO DO ITS PART TO COOPERATE WITH SUCH AN AGREEMENT.

AND NOW MANY OF THE LATIN AMERICANS COULD BETTER UNDER-STAND COSTA RICA'S DISLIKE OF THE SANDINISTAS. FOR EXAMPLE, HE HAD MET WITH PERUVIAN PRESIDENT GARCIA FOR THREE HOURS AND MADE A VISIBLE IMPRESSION ON HIM. I REMARKED THAT I HAD TALKED WITH GARCIA JUST THE DAY BEFORE, AND I AGREED THAT ARIAS HAD INDEED HAD AN IMPACT.
ARIAS BELIEVED THAT THE SUPPORT FOR THE SANDINISTAS
IN LATIN AMERICA WAS DRYING UP, AND THEIR FORMER SUPPORTERS WERE RAPIDLY BECOMING IMPATIENT WITH SANDINISTA
INTOLERANCE. THE CURRENT ROUND OF CONTADORA ACTIVITIES
MAY BE THEIR WAY OF GIVING THE SANDINISTAS ONE LAST CHANCE; IF THE SANDINISTAS DO NOT TAKE IT, THEY WILL BE ISOLATED IN LATIN AMERICA. THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUP FOREIGN MINISTERS WERE PARTICULARLY UPSET BY SANDINISTA INTRANSIGENCE AT PANAMA. FOREIGN MINISTER
D'ESCOTO HAD BEEN INFLEXIBLE AND HAD TO CONTACT MANAGUA
EVERY HALF HOUR FOR INSTRUCTIONS. HE HAD GRATUITOUSLY INSULTED THE COLOMBIANS WHO HAD BEEN WORKING HARD TO

WAS DEVELOPING FOR THE GENERALLY MIDDLE-OF-THE-ROAD DEMOCRACIES OF CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA TO BEGIN TO WORK TOGETHER AS NEVER BEFORE.

THE INAUGURATION

9. ARIAS WAS EXPECTING TEN OR TWELVE LATIN AMERICAN PRESIDENTS TO ATTEND HIS INAUGURATION. THIS WOULD SEND A STRONG MESSAGE OF LATIN SUPPORT FOR COSTA RICA TO THE SANDINISTAS. HE PLANNED TO USE THE OCCASION TO MOUNT MAXIMUM PRESSURE ON NICARAGUA. HE PLANNED A TWO HOUR MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENTS TO DISCUSS CENTRAL AMERICA. DURING HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS, HE INTENDED TO MAKE A STRONG STATEMENT ABOUT DEMOCRATIZATION IN NICARAGUA. THE ATTENDING PRESIDENTS WOULD BE INVITED TO SIGN A DECLARATION OF SAN JOSE WHICH WOULD ENUNCIATE DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES FOR ALL LATIN AMERICA. ARIAS WOULD UNVEIL HIS CALENDAR FOR DEMOCRATIZATION IN NICARAGUA. WHILE THE OTHER PRESIDENTS WOULD NOT BE EXPECTED TO DIRECTLY ENDORSE THE CALENDAR, THE DECLARATION OF SAN JOSE WOULD "RECOGNIZE WITH INTEREST" THE CALENDAR AND THUS ALLOW THEM TO SUPPORT IT INDIRECTLY. ARIAS WOULD MAKE SPECIFIC PROPOSALS FOR NICARAGUA'S NEW CONSTITUTION AND FOR A SERIES OF DATES BY WHICH CERTAIN THINGS SHOULD OCCUR. THE SCHEDULE WOULD BE ARRANGED SO THAT SPECIFIC CONCESSIONS WOULD BE REWARDED WITH SPECIFIC BENEFITS. I ASKED IF HE INTENDED TO LINK THESE PROPOSALS TO CONTADORA, AND HE INDICATED THAT THAT WAS A POSSIBILITY. HE CONFIRMED THAT DANIEL ORTEGA HAD NOT BEEN INVITED, AND SERGIO RAMIREZ PROBABLY WOULD BE REPRESENTING NICARAGUA.

10. ARIAS WAS DELIGHTED THAT VICE PRESIDENT BUSH WOULD BE HEADING THE U.S. DELEGATION. HE SAID THAT THIS WOULD GIVE ANOTHER STRONG SIGNAL OF U.S. COMMITMENT TO COSTA RICAN DEMOCRACY.

CONTADORA

11. DENGO REMARKED THAT INITIALLY CONTADORA HAD HAD NO PURPOSE. IT NOW HAD ACQUIRED A PURPOSE, HOWEVER. IT WAS TO DEFINE THE GOALS IN CENTRAL AMERICA. THESE WERE THE GOALS OF DEMOCRACY VERSUS THE GOALS OF TOTALITARIANISM. I STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE OF CLEARLY DEFINING THESE TERMS AND MAKING THEM AN ESSENTIAL ELEMENT OF THE AGREEMENT. IT WAS CENTRAL TO THE WHOLE CONTADORA PROCESS THAT THE SANDINISTAS BE COMMITTED TO CHANGE THE WAY IN WHICH THEY TREATED THEIR OWN PEOPLE.

12. ARIAS SAID THAT THE SITUATION IN PANAMA HAD BEEN CONFUSING TO EVERYONE. THE FRUSTRATION WITH THE NICARAGUANS HAD LED CAPUTO TO ASK D'ESCOTO IF NICARAGUA REALLY WANTED PEACE OR WANTED WAR. HE BELIEVED THAT PANAMA WOULD SOON CONTACT THE PARTICIPATING GOVERNMENTS

13. ARIAS ASKED ME WHAT THE CENTRAL AMERICANS SHOULD DO IF NICARAGUA REFUSED TO SIGN. I SAID THAT THEY SHOULD PROCEED AND LEAVE THE DOOR OPEN TO NICARAGUA. THE SANDINISTAS WOULD FIND THEMSELVES ISOLATED, UNDER PRESSURE, AND THE CENTRAL AMERICANS SHOULD MAKE IT POSSIBLE FOR NICARAGUA TO REINTEGRATE INTO LATIN AMERICA IF IT CHOSE TO DO SO. IT WOULD BE RETURNING ON THE CENTRAL AMERICANS' TERMS, HOWEVER. IF NICARAGUA SIGNED THE AGREEMENT AND THEN VIOLATED IT, IT WOULD BE UP TO THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUPS, AS GUARANTORS, TO SEE THAT NICARAGUA COMPLIED. THEY HAD ACCEPTED THIS RESPONSIBILITY, AND WE AND THE CENTRAL AMERICANS EXPECT THEM TO FULFILL IT.

THE SANDINISTAS AND THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE

14. I ASKED IF THERE WERE SERIOUS DIFFERENCES IN THE SANDINISTA LEADERSHIP ABOUT THE GOALS OF THE REVOLUTION. I EXPLAINED THAT IN SOUTH AMERICA, SOME PEOPLE TRIED TO TELL ME THAT NOT ALL WERE COMMUNISTS. ARIAS AND HIS COLLEAGUES ASSURED ME THAT THERE WERE NO SUCH IDEOLOGICAL SPLITS AMONG THOSE WHO CONTROL THE FSLN. (MADRIGAN SAID THAT ORTEGA WOULD HAVE TO CONSULT HAVANA AND MOSCOW ABOUT EVEN GOING TO WAR.)

UNCLASSIFIED

15. I INQUIRED ABOUT THE STATUS OF THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE UNDER A CONTADORA TREATY, NOTING THAT THEY WERE ALL NICARAGUANS. MADRIGAL SAID THAT IT WOULD NOT BE POSSIBLE TO BRING ALL OF THE RESISTANCE INTO A DIALOGUE. SOME OF ITS POLITICAL LEADERS COULD PARTICIPATE, SUCH AS CRUZ, BUT NOT CALERO OR BERMUDEZ. DENGO REMARKED THAT WITHIN THE RESISTANCE, THERE WAS A DEMOCRATIC CORE, BUT THEY WERE MIXED UP WITH ALL THESE OTHERS (WHO DENGO CLEARLY DID NOT LIKE).

ECONOMICS

16. THE REMAINING DISCUSSION DEALT WITH COSTA RICA'S

ECONOMY. ARIAS WAS CONCERNED THAT THE PERCEPTION OF INSTABILITY IN THE REGION CAUSED BY NICARAGUA WAS ADVERSELY AFFECTING HIS NATION'S ECONOMY. HE WANTED TO RESOLVE THE CRISIS SO THAT FOREIGN INVESTORS WOULD REGAIN CONFIDENCE. HE WAS INTERESTED IN DEVELOPING THE ECONOMY IN A VARIETY OF WAYS, AND LOOKED TO PROGRAMS SUCH AS THE CBI TO PROVIDE NEEDED CAPITAL. BUSBY

SUMMARY: Over 100 individuals attended the discussion--mostly university-age students. No major media, Congressional, nor academic representatives were present. The Guatemalan Embassy did not send an observer. Those in attendance included members of NISGUA, ENFOPRENSA, "Witness For Peace," the "Sojourners," the Guatemalan Human Rights Commission (GHRC) and sanctuary movement representatives. A question and answer period followed the presentations by the panel members.

The panel members were generally critical of Guatemalan governments past and present. They were in general agreement that despite the 1985 presidential elections and Cerezo's good intentions, the military and the oligarchy still rule. However, the three were less unanimous in their assessments of the significance of the elections and in the prognosis for Cerezo's reform efforts.

Nairn was especially pessimistic. He discounted the elections as a manuever designed to give the GOG the more acceptable image it requires to receive the foreign aid sorely needed to solve the ruling military/oligarchic network's financial crisis. He dismissed Cerezo as well-meaning but impotent, bought off by the military and not willing to abolish the controversial civil defense units or the development poles. Nairn predicted that efforts, led by GAM, to press for government action to examine past human rights abuses will precipitate a military response which will derail the new democratic-image campaign and will reveal the true, oppressive character of the power structure. In declaration and inference he was critical of past USG support of the GOG and of the lack of U.S. action in human rights matters.

Manz warned that this was the last chance for the government to show its good faith to the Guatemalan population. She also criticized the Church heirarchy for not supporting the GAM, and she claimed that the environment is still not right for the return of refugees.

Nairn claimed that Cerezo acknowledges that his is merely a government of transition to a true democracy and admits that the Army has 70% of the power. Archbishop Penados, Nairn says, states that the army has 80% of the power. The journalist added that Cerezo had received a $40,000 campaign loan from CACIF, the organization of private sector business, commercial and agricultural interests, in exchange for pledges that he would not undertake land or tax reform, and that "Colonel Gustavo Ruano, campaign leader for Cerezo, was with Mejia." (Note: this is a reference to Col. Julio Ruano, the chief of the Presidential (under Mejia, the Chief of State) Staff). Colonel Bucaro, Finance Minister under Lucas, has provided additional financial support to Cerezo, according to Nairn.

The military passed a flurry of last minute decree laws before it left office which "completely institutionalized its power," which continue in effect, and which Cerezo has taken no action to repeal, Nairn said. He mentioned decrees which legitimize the "food for work" assistance plans for conflictive areas and the state security council, legalize the civil defense patrols and provide amnesty for "political crimes which occurred after the March 1982 coup of Rios Montt". Nairn said there has been a "grass roots movement" by GAM and others to repeal these laws, but Cerezo has resisted so far. Cerezo's cabinet is composed of conservative technocrats; the President did not select military officers, and the Minister of Defense is picked by the army. (Note: the only change in the law is that qualifications were actually broadened so that the President can reach down to the rank of colonel to select a Minister of Defense). Current military figures were responsible for abuses in previous regimes, Nairn said and he claimed that General Gramajo's military base, "Cuartel General," in the capital, had been used for disappearances, while Colonel Mata was military zone commander at El Quiche during the period of the worst massacres.

Padilla said that Cerezo "is still not free to operate and must whisper in his own office." He added that "the army is not defeated yet, but it will be done, by law, not by Cerezo himself." As the reporter emphasized Cerezo's full commitment to democratic principles, he asked that electronic recording devices at the discussion be turned off, because he said, he wanted to share that "Vinicio said to me that he would join the guerrillas if democracy failed."

THE ECONOMY: Guatemala suffers from 40% inflation and strikes, but a government economic package will cause more price increases, and plans to compensate via taxes won't work, Nairn claimed. The GOG has approached Mexico to reschedule debt and the Inter-American Development Bank for a new loan to bring a

$600 million debt payment down to about $250 million. He said the U.S. Congress will provide development aid, and military aid is also available, with the proviso that "Cerezo has to ask for it."

CIVIL PATROLS: "Although voluntary on paper," Nairn "finds across the countryside that they are obligatory" and that "a rather surprising series of decrees" legalized them. However, Padilla said that they are now under civil control and are strictly voluntary.

THE DEVELOPMENT POLES: Beatriz Manz said that Chacaj development pole village in Huehuetenango "is the best example of economic failure of the polo program.., and that it "can't make a go of it, because it is not economically feasible."

THE GUERRILLAS: Nairn said that guerrilla political forces had diminished in the last couple of years, but insurgent military activities are about as before, with about 260 attacks last year. The main difference is that massacres destroyed the guerrilla grassroots network. There are probably several thousand guerrillas still remaining but they now must work via a more elaborate underground. The guerrillas are a latent force and their main role now is to wait to see what happens. If Cerezo doesn't make the needed reforms and dismantle the repressive capabilities of the army, they will gain more grass roots support. Many progressive Christian Democrats at local levels will possibly join the guerrillas if the Cerezo experiment doesn't work, Nairn warned.

THE U.S. ROLE IN GUATEMALA

MILITARY SUPPORT AND ECONOMIC AID: Allan Nairn told the audience that behind the scenes underground arms shipments to Guatemala continue as they have since 1977. Israel is the main supplier. Supplementary aid of more than $30 million in 1982 was received in the form of U.S.-made tanks. Laser-sights for rifles have been supplied for a number of years by Mass Transit Systems Corporation of the U.S. (Note: A Department attendee asked Nairn about details. Nairn said he had talked to the MTS president--he pointed to an article which named "Leon Kopyt"--who told him that licensing was not necessary because "items were coming from a foreign supplier," and Nairn said that he assumed Kopyt was right. However, a secretary at MTS told a munitions control official that Nairn had never talked to the MTS president).

Nairn told the group that although MTS has contracted for arms for the CIA since 1981, he "did not link this deal to the CIA."

RECOMMENDATIONS: A NISGUA representative asked the panel what U.S. policy should be. Padilla replied, "I refuse to answer." When pressed he explained that he would not reply "because the Reagan Administration doesn't understand Guatemala or Central America. We are against the Contras. The U.S. policy should be to sponsor the development of democracy. Aid should be strictly developmental, not lethal, not military. Like the president of Costa Rica said, 'the $100 million of Contra aid should better go for development in Costa Rica and Honduras.'"

Nairn said the U.S. should cut off the underground flow of arms, give no open military aid, and no economic aid until there is an objective improvement in human rights and "until the apparatus is dismantled." Economic aid should await army structural changes and actual performance. He said the Guatemalan army is "well-provisioned" and therefore a $10 million dollar military aid request is "more sideshow or symbol." The real need is money, because there is an economic crisis within the oligarchy and loans must be renegotiated, he reiterated.

FORECASTS FOR THE GOVERNMENT

The present situation appears ideal for the military because more loan money will be forthcoming from the U.S. But, "it won't work," Nairn predicted. He explained that "the GAM is mounting protest demonstrations in the streets already and therefore in the next few months the patience of the army will run out and this will lead to confrontation...."

Manz said the army "probably won't come around,"because, unlike Argentina, the Guatemalan military has not been defeated, and has conducted an "incredibly successful military campaign."

Nairn said the key question is how one can tell if the "experiment" is successful. Cerezo only wants to serve out his term, is on the record that he will not go after the army, and that his succesor must make reforms, Nairn added. "The only real test will be when popular crises arise and the army wants to crush them, i.e., when it moves beyond day-to-day assassinations and disappearances," Nairn said. He continued that he was "doubtful that it will work...the real question is to what extent will persons be permitted to say what they know, and will there be a revelation of names of officers responsible, lists of prisoner names and location where they are, or were, held. The real test is what information will be allowed to come out, and will the killings stop?"

HUMAN RIGHTS IN GUATEMALA

THE RECORD: According to Nairn, Guatemala has had "in the last five years a higher percentage of civilian population killed of any country in the world;" has been "the most dangerous place" on the globe, and "according to Enfoprensa, the number of widows and orphans indicates that since 1978, 60-100,000 people have been killed, not including urban assassinations and disappearances." He spoke of the assassination of the entire political leadership, except that of the right, by the G-2 of the Guatemalan army. He said the total was equivalent to the death of 2.6 million people in the U.S. in 5 years, and was as if "Mayors Berry and Koch, all the top leadership of the Democrats and the Republicans, and Dan Rather and Peter Jennings....," were assassinated in the U.S.

Nairn said killings are up now, although the DIT was disbanded, because the G-2 of the army is still in place. "Assassinations and disappearances also have increased because some of the dismissed DIT is running wild." The Secret Anti-Communist Army" (ESA), accused of extra-judicial executions and detentions, "is actually the G-2 unit of the army," Nairn said. The journalist announced that he would "publish an article about death squads in a few weeks."

Nairn talked about a "U.S. Embassy attitude" apparent when several Americans were killed in Guatemala (he named Brother James Miller and Father Rother). "In the Rother case the Embassy lent itself to a rather crude cover up. Witnesses saw three tall men, but three small Indians were arrested. The Embassy played along, and didn't aid the investigation. Unfortunately that is the historic pattern of the Embassy down there," he said.

BRINGING HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATORS TO JUSTICE: Manz said that the GAM and others reject Cerezo's view that "we must look forward. "The people of Guatemala will have no confidence to go on if those responsible are not brought to justice, i.e. you 'can't turn the page' as Venicio has said. The people of Guatemala cannot pretend that nothing happened," she added.

Nairn added that the current military "is as bad a crew as the country has had in years" and uses the "twisted but articulate rationale" that its actions are necessary to stop insurgents. He said that "institutionalized corruption" is "inherent in the structure", that "assassination and disappearances are part of the institution," and "that is why punishment is so important."

GAM (THE MUTUAL SUPPORT GROUP): Before introduction of the panel, an audience member announced that GAM leader Nineth Garcia and another GAM member were unable to attend the discussion as scheduled because of an incident when the two, travelling from Europe, entered the U.S. at Chicago. He claimed that they had been "mistreated" by U.S. immigration officials who accused the two of being "subversives," and had been detained and subjected to both a luggage and body search. However, another audience member refuted this account, and said the GAM travelers had only had their luggage searched and had then been allowed into the country. According to this account, the Guatemalans did not travel on to Washington because Mrs. Garcia had become ill and returned to Guatemala. (Note: Guatemalan Desk Officer Jim Cason talked with the director of immigration at O'Hare Airport in Chicago. He told Cason that the two Guatemalans had arrived from Europe without onward air travel tickets and with very little money and thus had been taken to "secondary" inspection where their baggage was examined. At this point, members of a U.S. church group who were waiting to receive the two explained that they were responsible for the visitors and Garcia and the other GAM representative were allowed to enter the U.S. The immigration official told Cason that the GAM members had not been subjected to a body search, but merely to baggage examination, and were not detained, but had been interviewed in a routine manner to establish their status, as required by U.S. immigration law.

Beatriz Manz said, '"GAM is making no headway in its demands that civilians and military be brought to justice. They will probably never hear about the tens of thousands of disappeared." Nairn noted that decree laws passed before Cerezo's inauguration had "effectively eliminated the possiblity of bringing those responsible (for human rights violations) to justice." But, he said that GAM was going to persist; that it now has 1500 members, and that it "moves with a courage that is astonishing." He said there is friction between Cerezo and Nineth Garcia of GAM, but, ".. GAM is going to create a popular dynamic with a constant, unending demand for justice."

THE GAM AND THE CHURCH: Manz said that "the 'institutional Church' has not been forthcoming. Although GAM had tried to make links--tried to have an office at the Church, it was turned down and has had even less luck since its take-over of the Cathedral." (Note: GAM associates told an Embassy political officer that GAM's first-ever meeting was at the Cathedral. Also, the Church allowed the group to use Cathedral meeting rooms even during a 48-hour fast at the Cathedral in 1985). Manz said that the relationship to GAM was "quite different in the grass roots church," however.

REFUGEES: There are "hundreds of thousands" of refugees in Mexico, Manz claimed, but the climate is not right for their return. She said, "one must understand that the human rights abuse equation includes not only bloodshed but structural changes; and that such structures are so changed now in Guatemala that it is difficult for the people to change to fit them. Therefore, even if there were no civil defense patrols, there are still problems, and it is hard for refugees to return."

MISSING AMERICANS: BLAKE AND DAVIS: A member of the audience introduced himself as a friend of the Blake family. He said that he and two Blake brothers had made four trips to Guatemala to search for the two missing free-lance reporters. He said that he and the Blakes "first went to the Embassy and made a lot of noise. They kept telling us 'we don't know anything and the army would have told us if they knew anything.'" The two missing men "had been looking to make contact with the EGP in Quiche," he said. He noted that he had gone to EL Llano at the Huehuetenango/Quiche border via military helicopter and that the region where the Americans disappeared is a "difficult area." He explained that he had heard a rumor about army involvement, "by the grapevine;" searched out the supposed witness; spoke with him "for about two hours and dried up the rumor." The friend added that "we really don't know" about the fate of the two and that "we are inclined to believe that it is as likely that guerrillas were involved as the army."

SUBJECT: HABIB TRIP: MEETINGS IN MEXICO

1. SECRET - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY AND COMMENT: WITH SEPULVEDA AND HIS CONTADORA COLLEAGUES, WITH PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID, AND AGAIN OVER LUNCH WITH SEPULVEDA, I REPEATEDLY EMPHASIZED THAT A CONTADORA AGREEMENT MUST BE COMPREHENSIVE, VERIFIABLE AND SIMULTANEOUS TO BE ACCEPTABLE TO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES AND TO THE UNITED STATES. I MADE IT CLEAR THAT THESE CRITERIA INCLUDE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL RECONCILIATION IN NICARAGUA, THAT A CONTADORA AGREEMENT WITHOUT PRECISE MECHANISMS FOR ENDING THE INTERNAL CONFLICT IN NICARAGUA DEMOCRATICALLY IS NO SOLUTION AND THAT WE WOULD NOT FEEL BOUND TO ABIDE BY SUCH AN AGREEMENT. I AM CONFIDENT BY THEIR REACTIONS THAT THE MEXICANS CLEARLY UNDERSTOOD.

PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID DESCRIBED THE U.S.-NICARAGUAN CONFLICT AS THE KEY IMPEDIMENT TO A SOLUTION. HE SUGGESTED MEDIATION THROUGH A THIRD PARTY TO RESOLVE IT. HE RULED OUT MEXICO BECAUSE "SOME BELIEVE THAT WE ARE TOO SYMPATHETIC TO THE SANDINISTAS." ALTHOUGH I DID NOT GIVE

HIM A DEFINITIVE ANSWER, I GAVE HIM NO REASON TO HOPE THAT WE WOULD AGREE. I SAID THAT CONTADORA IS FULLY

ADEQUATE TO RESOLVE BOTH THE INTERNAL CONFLICT IN NICARAGUA AND THE CONFLICT AMONG THE CENTRAL AMERICANS. THOSE PROBLEMS RESOLVED, NICARAGUA WOULD HAVE NO PROBLEM WITH THE UNITED STATES.

UNCLASSIFIED

A SECOND COMMENT OF NOTE BY DE LA MADRID WAS THAT, SINCE THE CENTRAL AMERICANS ARE MOVING TOWARD A DIRECT DIALOGUE AMONG THEMSEVLES, IT MIGHT BE BEST TO LET THEM TAKE OVER THE DIPLOMATIC PROCESS. I SUGGESTED THAT MEXICO HAS ASSUMED AN OBLIGATION TO STICK WITH THE PROCESS, WHOSE OBJECTIVE WE SEE AS CHANGING SANDINISTA BEHAVIOR.

UNLIKE THEIR CONTADORA GROUP COLLEAGUES, THE MEXICANS SEEMED TO BE UNDER NO ILLUSIONS ABOUT SANDINISTA INTENTIONS AND APPEARED DISPIRITED. THEY WERE SILENT WHEN WE ASKED ABOUT THE TIMING OF RESUMED NEGOTIATIONS. END SUMMARY AND COMMENT.

3. CHARGE BUSBY AND I MET FOR A TOTAL OF NEARLY FOUR HOURS WITH MEXICAN OFFICIALS APRIL 28. WE BEGAN WITH A 40-MINUTE INTRODUCTORY SESSION WITH FOREIGN SECRETARY SEPULVEDA AND HIS TOP CONTADORA ADVISERS: VICE MINISTER RICARDO VALERO, DIRECTOR FOR UN AFFAIRS CLAUDE HELLER, AND SEPULVEDA'S PERSONAL AIDE, MANUEL RODRIGUEZ. ARA/CEN

OFFICER HAMILTON SAT IN OUR ON SIDE. THESE SAME OFFICIALS AND WE THEN MET FOR AN HOUR WITH PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID AT LOS PINOS. CONVERSATION WITH SEPULVEDA AND HIS TEAM CONTINUED FOR ANOTHER TWO HOURS OVER LUNCH. THE CONVERSATION AND ATMOSPHERE WERE FRIENDLY AND BUSINESSLIKE THROUGHOUT. BUT BOTH SIDES WERE FRANK AND THE MEXICANS APPEARED SOBERED BY MY INSISTENCE THAT AN AGREEMENT MUST BE COMPREHENSIVE, VERIFIABLE AND SIMULTANEOUS, AND BY MY EXPLANATION OF THESE TERMS. FOR MY PART, I CAME AWAY CONCERNED THAT THE MEXICANS ARE UNWILLING TO ADDRESS THE INTERNAL POLITICAL ISSUE IN NICARAGUA IN A SERIOUS MANNER.

4. I BEGAN BY MAKING THE SAME POINTS THAT I HAVE MADE AT EVERY OTHER CONTADORA STOP. I WENT INTO SOMEWHAT GREATER DETAIL THAN IN OTHER MEETINGS, EXPLAINING WHAT WE MEAN BY EACH OF THESE TERMS. I PUT UNITED STATES CONFIDENCE AND SUPPORT FOR CONTADORA IN TERMS OF OUR BELIEF THAT IT PROVIDES A FRAMEWORK FOR ADDRESSING ALL REPEAT ALL ELEMENTS OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN CRISIS. IN PARTICULAR, I MADE IT CLEAR THAT THE POLITICAL CHAPTER OF CONTADORA IS VITAL TO ACHIEVING A WORKABLE AGREEMENT AND THAT, IN OUR VIEW, THIS IS WHERE THE GREATEST AMOUNT OF WORK STILL

REMAINS TO BE DONE. I STRESSED THAT, ALTHOUGH A CONTADORA AGREEMENT MUST BE ACCEPTABLE IN THE FIRST INSTANCE TO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES, IT MUS ALSO BE ACCEPTABLE TO THE UNITED STATES. I CITED THE INTENTION OF PRESIDENT-ELECT ARIAS IN FORMULATING A SPECIFIC TIMETABLE FOR POLITICAL ACTIONS AS THE KIND OF PRECISE APPROACH TO NATIONAL RECONCILIATION THAT THE CONTADORA PROCESS MUST TAKE TO BRING THE DRAFTING PROCESS TO A SUCCESSFUL CONCLUSION.

UNCLASSIFIED

5. SEPULVEDA RESPONDED THAT THERE ARE TWO CONTADORA DOCUMENTS THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICANS HAVE ADOPTED BY

~~SECRET~~

6. SEPULVEDA PERSISTED. HE REVIEWED THE PURPOSE OF CARABALLEDA: TO RECREATE A CLIMATE IN WHICH NEGOTIATIONS COULD RESUME AND PROSPER. THIS REQUIRES TAKING THE 9 ACTIONS ENNUMERATED IN THE CARABALLEDA MESSAGE. I REITERATED THAT THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT ACCEPT AND IS NOT BOUND BY CARABALLEDA. I SAID THERE WILL BE NO CESSATION OF U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE CONTRAS OR OF OUR OTHER PRESSURES ON NICARAGUA EXCEPT AS PURSUANT TO IMPLEMENTATION OF AN ACCEPTABLE COMPREHENSIVE AGREEMENT. MY LETTER OF APRIL 11 MAKES THAT CLEAR. ON THE OTHER HAND, I NOTED, WE WILL SUPPORT AND RESPECT, FROM THE DATE OF SIGNATURE, AN AGREEMENT THAT MEETS THOSE CRITERIA. WE SEE NO REASON WHY NEGOTIATIONS SHOULD TAKE MORE THAN

SECRET

ANOTHER MONTH OR TWO TO CONCLUDE. WE APPROVE OF CONTADORA HAVING SET A DEADLINE. ALTHOUGH IT COULD HAVE

TO SLIP SOMEWHAT, THE PROCESS SHOULD NOT IN OUR VIEW BE PROLONGED INDEFINITELY.

7. FOLLOWING THE MEETING WITH PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID (SEE PARAS 12-14), CONVERSATION WITH SEPULVEDA AND HIS AIDES CONTINUED ALONG THESE LINES FOR ANOTHER TWO HOURS. I TOOK THE LINE THAT CONTADORA HAS A RESPONSIBILITY TO MOVE NICARAGUA TOWARD DEMOCRACY. SEPULVEDA DEMURRED. THIS IS BEYOND CONTADORA'S ROLE, HE SAID. I DISAGREED ON THE GROUNDS THAT CONTADORA HAD ASSUMED SUCH A RESPONSIBILITY WHEN IT TOOK ON THE MEDIATION EFFORT AND KEPT THE UNITED STATES OUT. THE ROOT SOURCE OF CONFLICT IS THAT THE SANDINISTAS ARE NOT TREATING THEIR PEOPLE PROPERLY. THE BOTTOM LINE IS THAT THE SANDINISTAS HAVE TO CHANGE THEIR WAYS. IN OUR VIEW THAT IS WHAT CONTADORA IS ALL ABOUT. THAT IS WHY WE SUPPORT IT.

UNCLASSIFIED

8. SEPULVEDA ASKED WHAT NICARAGUA WOULD HAVE TO GAIN FROM SUCH AN AGREEMENT. I SAID A CONTADORA AGREEMENT IS THE ALTERNATIVE TO A PROLONGED AND INTENSIFIED CONFLICT THAT IS ALREADY TEARING THE COUNTRY APART. WE ALSO POINTED OUT THAT CONTADORA ACHIEVES NICARAGUAN SECURITY OBJECTIVES. SEPULVEDA SAID HE WISHED HE COULD CONVINCE THE SANDINISTAS OF THAT.

9. SEPULVEDA COMPLAINED THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICANS ARE POSTURING IN SAYING THAT THEY ARE READY, EVEN IF NICARAGUA DOES NOT SIGN, TO SIGN THE ACTA ON JUNE 6. THE HONDURANS ARE NOT RECONCILED TO THE SEPTEMBER 1985 DRAFT PROVISIONS ON MANEVUERS. THEIR TALK OF SIGNATURE IS DISINGENUOUS. I REPLIED THAT, WHILE THIS IS POSSIBLE, MY OWN IMPRESSION IS THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICANS ARE READY TO NEGOTIATE A FINAL AGREEMENT. IF THE MEXICANS DOUBT THEIR SINCERITY, THE ONLY WAY TO SMOKE THEM OUT IS TO RECONVENE

NEGOTIATIONS. THE PROBLEM IS THAT GOVERNMENTS DO NOT MAKE HARD DECISIONS UNTIL NEGOTIATIONS NEAR A CONCLUSION. CONTADORA IS AT THAT MOMENT BUT APPEARS HESITANT TO GO FORWARD. I NOTED THAT THE PANAMA COMMUNIQUE EMPHASIZED SIGNATURE BY JUNE 6. IT IS NOW THE END OF APRIL AND TALKS HAVE YET TO RESUME. WHEN WILL TALKS RESUME, I ASKED? THE MEXICANS WERE SILENT. (THE MEXICAN PRESS REPORTED APRIL 27 THAT THE CONTADORA GROUP IS CONTEMPLATING INDIVIDUAL CONSULTATIONS IN LIEU OF A NEW ROUND OF NEGOTIATIONS.)

UNCLASSIFIED

10. SEPULVEDA ALSO COMPLAINED (INTIMATING U.S. PRESSUR) THAT ARIAS HAS NOT INVITED ORTEGA, RAMIREZ, OR D'ESCOTO TO HIS INAUGURATION. I TOLD SEPULVEDA THAT RAMIREZ IS ATTENDING, ACCORDING TO WHAT ARIAS TOLD US APRIL 26. SOMEWHAT MOLLIFIED, SEPULVEDA SAID THE ARIAS INAUGURATION

COULD BECOME AN OCCASION FOR DEALING SERIOUSLY WITH REMAINING ISSUES. IT WOULD DO GOOD TO PRETEND THAT THEY DO NOT EXIST. SEPULVEDA URGED THAT I HAVE A PRIVATE CHAT WITH RAMIREZ. I WENT OVER OUR OBJECTIONS TO BILATERAL TALKS. LATER IN THE CONVERSATION, SEPULVEDA ACKNOWLEDGED THAT MY LETTER OF APRIL 11 WAS POSITIVE BUT ADDED THAT "YOU SHOULD HAVE GONE TO MANAGUA" ON THIS TRIP.

UNCLASSIFIED

11. SEPULVEDA REITERATED THAT ONLY ARMS AND MANEUVERS REMAIN TO BE NEGOTIATED BUT BACKTRACKED SOMEUHAT WHEN WE RAISED VERIFICATION AND RELATED ISSUES. I THANKED SEPULVEDA FOR PROVIDING US WITH AN UP-TO-DATE TREATY TEXT AND SAID WE WOULD STUDY IT CAREFULLY. OUR FIRST READING, HOWEVER, IS THAT WE COULD NOT AGREE TO THE PROVISIONS ON MANEUVERS, WHICH ARE TOO RESTRICTIVE. I EXPLAINED THAT THE MANEUVERS AND OUR MILITARY PRESENCE ARE REASSURING TO

BOTH HONDURAS AND TO EL SALVADOR. I URGED THAT CONTADORA GET ON WITH ACTUAL ARMS NEGOTIATIONS SO AS TO COMPLETE TALKS BY JUNE 6. SEPULVEDA SAID MATTERS ARE NOT THAT SIMPLE. "THE ACTA IS NOT READY" AND IS NOT LIKELY TO BE FOR A LONG TIME.

12. IN OUR MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT, DE LA MADRID CAME QUICKLY TO HIS MAIN POINT. IN THE MEXICAN VIEW, THE CENTRAL AMERICAN CONFLICT HAS TWO DIMENSIONS: NICARAGUA VERSUS ITS NEIGHBORS AND NICARAGUA VERSUS THE UNITED STATES. SINCE RENEWAL OF THE U.S. - NICARAGUAN DIALOGUE SEEMS IMPROBABLE, THE PRESIDENT SAID, WHY NOT TRY THIRD-PARTY MEDIATION? DE LA MADRID QUICKLY ADDED THAT MEXICO COULD NOT PLAY SUCH A ROLE, BECAUSE "SOME BELIEVE WE ARE TOO SYMPATHETIC TO THE SANDINISTAS." I SAID WE WOULD CONSIDER HIS SUGGESTIONS, BUT GAVE NO HOPE THAT WE WOULD AGREE. I SAID THE BASIC CONFLICT IS BETWEEN THE NICARAGUAN GOVERNMENT AND ITS PEOPLE. IF CONTADORA LIVES UP TO ITS COMMITMENTS AND SOLVES THE BASIC ISSUE, THE PROBLEM OF THE CONTRAS WILL GO AWAY. A BILATERAL DIALOGUE ONLY ENCOURAGES THE SANDINISTAS IN THE BELIEF THAT THEY CAN AVOID DEALING WITH THIS BASIC ISSUE.

13. DE LA MADRID SAID U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE CONTRAS CONSTITUTES THE BASIC IMPEDIMENT TO AGREEMENT. IT IS DIFFICULT FOR LATINS TO ACCEPT THAT A GOVERNMENT MUST NEGOTIATE WITH AN EXTERNALLY SUPPORTED REBEL GROUP. I POINTED TO EL SALVADOR, AND ARGUED THAT, IF CONTADORA'S POLITICAL CHAPTER HAS ANY MEANING AT ALL, IT MEANS THAT NICARAGUA MUST CHANGE ITS BEHAVIOR TOWARD ITS OWN PEOPLE. IF IT DID THAT, U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE CONTRAS WOULD BECOME A MOOT ISSUE. IF A CONTADORA AGREEMENT FAILS TO BRING ABOUT A CHANGE IN NICARAGUAN BEHAVIOR, IT

WILL NOT BE ACCEPTABLE TO THE CENTRAL AMERICANS OR TO THE

U.S. THAT, SAID DE LA MADRID, IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN

UNCLASSIFIED

US.

14. NOTING THAT CEREZO AND ARIAS APPEAR TO HAVE POSITIVE ATTITUDES TOWARD DIALOGUE, DE LA MADRID SAID THEIR EFFORTS SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED AND STIMULATED. THE IDEAL, DE LA MADRID SAID, WOULD BE FOR THEM TO TAKE OVER THE DIPLOMATIC EFFORT THEMSELVES, AND WORK OUT THEIR PROBLEMS ON THEIR OWN. I SAID CONTADORA'S HELP IS STILL NEEDED. CONTADORA HAS ASSUMED A RESPONSIBILITY TO GET AN AGREEMENT AND CAN NOT ABANDON THE PROCESS NOW. WHITEHEAD

PUBLIC DIPLOMACY PLAN FOR EXPLAINING U.S. CENTRAL AMERICAN POLICY IN EUROPE AND LATIN AMERICA

BACKGROUND

The Sandinistas came to power in July 1979 in a coalition with genuine democrats. However, within weeks the Sandinista National Liberation Front (FSLN) began a pattern of actions reflecting a betrayal of the revolution: internal repression of genuine democrats and of non-communist institutions such as religious organizations; aggression against fellow Latin American countries through armed subversion; ties with terrorist organizations in Latin America, the Middle East, and Europe; and a military buildup supported by the Soviet Bloc and Cuba. That pattern continues today.

Under President Reagan, a balanced U.S. policy has been followed in Central America. It contains four mutually reinforcing elements:

1. Encouragement of democracy;
2. Economic aid to improve living conditions;
3. Active diplomacy for realistic political solutions;
4. Security assistance to give the people of Central America the means to defend themselves against expanded Soviet-bloc/Cuban/Nicaraguan subversion or armed aggression.

Much progress has been made in four of the five Central American countries since 1981: Costa Rica, Honduras, El Salvador, and Guatemala are democratic and are steadily strengthening their democratic institutions. The U.S. Congress has year by year provided support for the President's policy through increasing appropriations for economic and security assistance (total amounts by fiscal year 1983--$513 million; 1984--$939 million; 1985--$951 million; 1986--$1,014 million).

GOALS

-- To convince audiences in Central and South America (particularly the Contadora and Contadora Support Group countries) and in Europe that U.S. policy toward Central America is balanced, workable, and the best alternative possible.

-- To convince audiences in Latin America and Europe that the Nicaraguan democratic resistance has a cohesive and credible political program and that it is a viable, democratic force worthy of the support of the U.S. and other democratic nations.

-- To demonstrate to audiences in Latin America and Europe that the Sandinistas support international terrorism and that Sandinista external subversion threatens the nascent democracies in neighboring countries.

-- To demonstrate that the Sandinistas consciously and systematically violate human rights.

-- To convince audiences in Latin America and Europe that the United States seeks only that the Sandinistas deliver on their promises of 1979 to the Organization of American States; that we believe that the best way to do this is for the Sandinistas to engage in dialogue with the opposition; that the Contadora process, if it can meet our three requirements that it be comprehensive, simultaneous, and verifiable, is an alternative we can support.

-- To demonstrate to audiences in Latin America and Europe how Sandinista ties to Cuba and the Soviet Union adversely affect U.S. and their own national security interests.

-- To persuade the internationals (Socialist International, Christian Democrats, International Democrat Union, etc.) to speak out on their concern for civil and human rights in Nicaragua, Sandinista intervention in neighboring countries, and Sandinista ties with international terrorists; and to encourage the internationals to oppose aid to the Sandinistas for the same reasons.

-- To counter Sandinista disinformation activities with facts.

MORI DocID: 756963

ADDITIONAL GOALS IN LATIN AMERICA

-- To convince the countries of Central America that the United States shares their political and economic goals and can be counted upon to stick with them for the long haul (the U.S. is a reliable ally).

-- To persuade Central American government, political, church, and labor leaders to be more active in telling the Central American story in Europe, South America, Mexico, and the Caribbean.

ADDITIONAL GOAL IN EUROPE

-- To convince European publics that the U.S. is responding in a constructive manner to the desires of Central American nations for political and economic reform.

THEMES

-- Stress positive aspects (economic development, promotion of democracy, security) of U.S. policy in Central America.

-- Set record straight on U.S. policy toward negotiations with Nicaragua and on Contadora, including Nicaraguan refusal to negotiate a comprehensive agreement and U.S. aid to the Nicaraguan resistance.

-- Emphasize democratic background and objectives of the Nicaraguan resistance, while reiterating totalitarian nature of the Sandinista regime. Point out militaristic and undemocratic Sandinista educational system; exploit existence of neighborhood committees and internal repression. Remind audiences of Sandinista efforts to crush internal opponents, especially the Catholic Church, political parties, and labor unions not controlled by the government. Focus on new Nicaraguan constitution when it is unveiled by the Sandinistas and on totally controlled process in which constitution will be subjected to "public discussion."

-- Reemphasize progress and successes in El Salvador, while publicizing the destructive and totalitarian nature of the Salvadoran guerrillas.

MORI DocID: 756963

-- Explain that the United States supports those people and governments who are furthering the democratic process--in Costa Rica, Honduras, Guatemala, and El Salvador--and seeking to foster reconciliation and the democratic process in Nicaragua.

-- Remind audiences of Sandinista and Salvadoran guerrilla ties with terrorists in Latin America (example, M-19 in Colombia) and elsewhere (including Middle East), arms and drug runners, and of their Soviet-Cuban ties. Mention Sandinista practice of giving Nicaraguan passports to terrorists.

-- Continue to present U.S. position on, and rationale for, withdrawal from Nicaraguan case before the International Court of Justice. Note: The ICJ decision on the merits of the Nicaraguan case, expected in May, will spark Nicaraguan attempts to garner support for calls for the U.S. to comply with the Court's rulings, likely including a Nicaraguan approach to the UN Security Council for enforcement of the ICJ's ruling under Article 94(2) of the UN Charter.

ADDITIONAL THEME IN CENTRAL AMERICA

-- Europeans do not have a clear understanding of progress toward democracy in Central America, nor do they understand the threat to democracy posed by the Sandinistas. The United States government cannot alone convey that story to Europeans. The Central Americans should take on a share of that task.

Note: The following three audiences have ready access to the American news media and to U.S. public opinion data. This will affect their willingness to accept materials and information aimed directly at them.

European and Latin American delegations to the United Nations
Latin American and European diplomatic missions in Washington, D.C.
Latin American and European journalists in the United States

ACTIONS

-- Make increased use of WORLDNET as an interactive medium for explaining U.S. policy in Central America (among officials to be sought as spokesmen on Central America are Vice President Bush, Ambassador Walters, Assistant Secretary Abrams, and Ambassador Habib).

-- Speech by President Reagan describing his positive vision for Central Americans. This should note our greatly increased economic assistance, including scholarship programs, and our identification with the hopes of the people of the region for a better life. The speech should also note that the door is open for Nicaraguans to share in this prospect--if their Sandinista leaders will allow them the freedom to pursue it. This speech should be a major event delivered on some appropriate occasion, preferably during the June 10-11 visit of the four Central American democratic presidents. Other possibilities might be to have the President speak to the OAS or during either the President Sanguinetti or President Azcona visits.

-- A senior Administration official, perhaps Secretary Shultz, should publicly unveil the second annual report on the implementation of the Kissinger Commission (or Jackson Plan) findings. This can be an opportunity to demonstrate that we recognize the North-South dimensions of the problem, and to stress the affirmative part of our strategy.

-- For Socialist International in Lima, June 20-23, State will instruct embassies in the countries represented to make demarches to party leaders. USIS Lima will try to place material on Central America in the Peruvian media at that time, and will also distribute ARA/LPD pamphlets presenting U.S. views on Central America.

MORI DocID: 756963

-- USIA will maintain a steady flow of AMPARTS to Europe and Latin America to speak about Central America. These will be arranged according to the needs identified by posts in their country plans.

-- In addition to continuous reporting by its own media, USIA will distribute abroad increased numbers of copies of studies produced by ARA/LPD. USIA will encourage its posts in Europe to translate more ARA/LPD documents into local languages.

-- DOD will continue its series of research/study seminars in Latin America on the Strategic Challenges to Regional Security.

-- DOD and USIA will distribute the 80-piece slide presentation "The Challenge and Response" to posts in Europe and Latin America. USIA will consider translating the show into local languages.

-- Put ARA/LPD sponsored "Arms Display" exhibit at key points in U.S. and overseas.

-- ARA/LPD will work closely with IO/UNP to prepare U.S. statements and rights of reply in multilateral fora to counter Sandinista disinformation.

-- ARA/LPD and USIA will be prepared to exploit any Nicaraguan intransigence at the Esquipulas, Guatemala, summit (May 24-26), and at the June 6 Contadora meeting (possible Contadora conclusion), and at Contadora negotiating sessions leading up to June 6. ARA/LPD and USIA will also prepare to support positions taken by the Central American democracies.

ACTIONS (Latin America)

-- During President Duarte's travel to Costa Rica, Peru, Uruguay, and Brazil, May 9-22, USIS posts at each stop promoted media coverage; USIA media covered in depth.

-- At the Costa Rican Inaugural, May 8, the U.S. delegation took the opportunity to meet with Contadora and Contadora support country leaders to demonstrate U.S. support for their goals.

[redacted]

MORI DocID: 756963

-- During visit of Uruguayan President Sanguinetti to Washington in June, Administration leaders will underscore U.S. support for democracy and economic progress, emphasizing a positive vision, rather than reiterating well-known American opposition to oppression. USIA media will cover in full and also assist Uruguayan media traveling with the president.

-- USIA will provide full media coverage and assistance to the working visit of Honduran President Azcona to Washington May 26-29. Appropriate quotes by Azcona will be played into Europe and Latin America.

-- ARA/LPD will prepare a cable to Embassies in Central America instructing them to discuss with government officials, political, church, and labor leaders the need to tell the Central American story in Europe. A special effort will be made to persuade President Duarte to begin a public affairs effort in Europe.

-- DOD Policy Support Staff prepared special briefing and display materials on Central America for use at the meeting with air force chiefs of staff from 20 Latin American and Caribbean countries May 5-9. Similar materials and briefings will be given to air force intelligence chiefs from 20 Latin American and Caribbean countries when they meet at Homestead AFB, Florida, in August 1986.

2. GOC OFFICIALS APPEAR NOT TO UNDERSTAND FULLY US POSITION ON CHILE ISSUE AT UNHRC AND HAVE TENDED TO OVERLOOK THE SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE U.S.-DRAFTED RESOLUTION, ON ONE HAND, AND THE DRAFT RESOLUTION OFFERED BY MEXICO IN 1986 AND THE SIMILAR UNHRC RESOLUTION ADOPTED IN 1985 BY A VOTE OF 32-1 (U.S.) -8, ON THE OTHER HAND. THE 1986 RESOLUTION IS THE FIRST UNHRC RESOLUTION ON CHILE SINCE 1978 TO REFER TO THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE RATHER THAN "THE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES." IT IS ALSO THE FIRST RESOLUTION SINCE 1981 NOT TO CONTAIN AN ADVERSE COMMENT ON CHILE'S 1980 CONSTITUTION, AND IS OTHERWISE FAR LESS STRIDENT THAN ANY OF ITS FORERUNNERS FOR THE LAST TEN YEARS.

3. DURING THE COURSE OF CONTACT WITH APPROPRIATE GOC OFFICIALS, YOU SHOULD EMPHASIZE THESE IMPORTANT DIFFERENCES. YOU MAY WISH TO NOTE THAT THE HIGH WATER MARK OF "NO" VOTES AND ABSTENTIONS WAS REACHED IN 1981 BUT "YES" VOTES CLIMBED SHARPLY THEREAFTER DESPITE

CONTINUED STRIDENCY IN THE RESOLUTION TEXTS. IN 1985, THE U.S. CAST THE ONLY "NO" VOTE IN THE UNHRC. EMBASSY MAY ALSO FIND IT USEFUL TO DRAW ON HISTORICAL ANALYSIS BELOW IN BRIEFING MFA OFFICIALS ORALLY TO CALL THEIR ATTENTION TO DIFFERENCES BETWEEN US RESOLUTION AND PREVIOUS TEXTS.

FY 1986 Assistance Requests for Latin America and the Caribbean

DEPARTMENT OF STATE BULLETIN
RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights Special Project (1993)
RELEASE

by Langhorne A. Motley

Based on a statement before the Subcommittee on Western Hemisphere Affairs of the House Foreign Affairs Committee on March 5, 1985. Ambassador Motley is Assistant Secretary for Inter-American Affairs.[1]

Five weeks ago, on January 29, I stressed to this subcommittee the vital importance of defending U.S. interests in the Western Hemisphere by standing by our friends, adhering to our principles, and supporting democracy and the common defense. I stressed my conviction that the Administration and the Congress have good reason to conclude that the policies we have been pursuing the last several years are beginning to succeed and that the best option for the future is firm, bipartisan continuity.

Today, I come before you to support the Administration's request of $1,551 million for economic assistance and $357 million for military aid for Latin America and the Caribbean in fiscal year (FY) 1986. This request balances important needs of the United States. We need budgetary stringency to advance the U.S. economic recovery. And we also need to protect U.S. interests abroad.

In Latin America and the Caribbean, this requires that we invest now in the future of democracy, that we support the recovery and security of our neighbors, and that we assist them to achieve a more secure environment in which political freedom and economic opportunity may flourish.

In requesting this assistance, our focus is on the U.S. national interest. We have neither the resources nor the responsibility to solve our neighbors' problems. But the fragility of democratic institutions and their vulnerability to violence—bred by poverty, injustice, and in many cases abetted by hostile external forces—create an obligation, rooted in our national interest, to help our neighbors. We do have the means and the will to serve as a friend and catalyst to help our neighbors to the path of growth with freedom. As Secretary Shultz said to you 2 weeks ago:

> . . . the domestic policies of these countries will determine the strength and sustainability of their economies and their political institutions. Our foreign assistance can provide those critical incremental resources to help them achieve those objectives.

This prepared statement addresses the assistance we have requested for FY 1986 in two ways:

First, by the three main regions for which we are proposing programs—Central America, the Andes, and the Caribbean; and Second, certain specific innovations based on lessons learned and which will require legislation to be implemented.

Central America

In Central America, except for Nicaragua, economic decline has been stemmed, and a basis for gradual long-term revitalization is being laid. While per capita income continued to decline, gross domestic product (GDP) grew by 1.2% last year after a decline of 4% over the previous 2 years. Unemployment, underutilized productive resources, lack of foreign exchange, and inflation all, nonetheless, remain serious. Were the Central American crisis economic alone, it might be on its way to resolution; but it would still be a crisis.

Significant advances are taking place with regard to another primary objective of U.S. policy—democracy and its attendant institutions. Underscoring the changes is the percedent-setting insistence in the regional Contadora peace process that democracy based on open elections is essential for peace in Central America. And five of the six countries have now held free elections. The exception, again, is Nicaragua, whose elections were carefully staged to prevent an electoral challenge to the Sandinista monopoly of power.

We are in the first year of implementation of the recommendations of the National Bipartisan Commission on Central America. Although it is less than a year since Congress approved the new funding levels, the longer term focus recommended by the bipartisan commission is beginning to take shape. We are working with governments and legal organizations to improve the administration of justice. Technical training and scholarship programs are underway. We are developing programs for leadership training, political networking, and support for democratic institutions. Nutrition and health programs have been designed and implementation has begun. The trade credit insurance program has been established. We are looking for the most effective way to strengthen the role of the Central American Bank for Economic Integration.

As all of us from Secretary Shultz on down have stressed, policy consistency is necessary in order to pursue our interests in the economic and political development of Central America. Current policy is working, and we must [illegible] perseverence we will still fail—despite our good start. We need the reliability of a multiyear commitment and the confidence that this commitment will continue to be tied to equity, reform, and freedom. We—and each of our friends in this region—need your support for this.

We propose to continue our support for economic stabilization and adjustment in FY 1986 with $601 million in economic support funds (ESF). This assistance helps governments address balance-of-payments problems, provides resources needed for imports of basic commodities, and generates counterpart funds that governments can use to address destabilizing sociopolitical problems. In addition to ESF, we propose $269 million for development assistance—for programs such as agriculture development, education, family planning, and health and nutrition.

We have requested $236 million in military assistance program (MAP) funds, $14 million for foreign military sales (FMS) credits, and $4 million in international military education and training (IMET) funds for FY 1986.

The Andean Region

The five Andean countries—Bolivia, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, and Venezuela—all have democratically elected governments. They merit U.S. support. They must deal in differing degrees with serious economic problems, coupled in some cases with the need to cope with the terrorism of guerrillas and narcotics traffickers.

Except for Venezuela and Colombia, where we are not proposing economic assistance, our aid is primarily economic but limited military assistance is also important. The only new economic assistance program in our request is an ESF program for Ecuador, Peru, and Bolivia. The economies of Peru and Bolivia, along with their democratic systems themselves, face very serious challenges and both are scheduled to hold presidential elections this year. Each has so far had great difficulty in dealing with the impact of grave natural disasters, low commodity prices, and the consequences of past policy errors. Ecuador, on the other hand, is pursuing sound economic policies, although its recovery, too, is tenuous.

We propose an ESF program of $70 million and development assistance of $57 million for these three countries. To strengthen peaceful politics and defend against antidemocratic violence, we have requested $24 million in military assistance program funds and $38

This small program is not by itself the answer to all their economic and social difficulties. It is, however, an incremental resource, and thus an added incentive for these democratic governments to engage the international financial community in ongoing dialogue. It is a means to show concrete support for their undertaking the necessary steps toward stabilization. It is a small price to pay for the chance to participate directly in the resolution of problems in countries important to the future of the region.

The Caribbean

The countries of the Caribbean do not face the immediate challenge of externally supported violence but must deal with high debt and unemployment, poor traditional export markets, internal disequilibria, and inadequate infrastructure. The island states of the eastern Caribbean also must establish their own economic viability in the world marketplace.

The problems are daunting, and solutions are not available in the short run, no matter how great the will. Markets for sugar and bauxite, two mainstays of the region, are unlikely to recover in the short term, and major investments in these industries are being abandoned. The entire world economy, from the perspective of these island nations, has undergone a major negative change over the past few years. Although the need for adjustment to these new realities is obvious, it is by far easier said than accomplished.

Economic stabilization and restructuring are necessary to build a foundation for sustained economic growth and development. That is the basic challenge facing the governments of the region. Our task is to facilitate the adjustments. Without support from the United States and others, improved policies will result in stabilization and renewed growth at levels of economic activity well below those of recent history. We must help develop growth paths which will lead to healthy and sustained development.

The more open U.S. market achieved by the Caribbean Basin Initiative can help. For our Caribbean neighbors to seize that advantage requires, among other things, foreign exchange markets which allow exporters and others in the private sector to increase export production and sales. It requires fiscal policies that stimulate investment and allow the private sector to compete equally for credit and resources with the public sector. It requires open economies receptive to investment from both domestic and foreign sources. And it requires political and social stability.

To support the adjustment process, we request $160 million in ESF for the Caribbean in FY 1986. To deal with sectoral problems and problems in human development, we propose $110 million in development assistance. We have requested $25 million in MAP funds, $4 million in FMS credits, and $2 million in IMET to assist the Caribbean nations to modernize and professionalize their security forces.

Lessons Learned: Some Legislative Proposals

Let me now turn to several legislative proposals that will help us to better advance U.S. interests in Latin America and the Caribbean. These are based on the lessons we have learned in developing and applying assistance programs. Some are recent lessons. Others are rooted on dilemmas and confusions that have bedeviled foreign assistance virtually from its inception.

Administration of Justice. Last year we proposed to help strengthen judicial systems in Central America and the Caribbean by assisting the entire process, including the training and support of law enforcement agencies under carefully defined conditions. We have learned that this is a significant, low-cost program which will strengthen democracy and the observance of basic human rights. And we have discovered a significant number of allies—Latin American and Caribbean lawyers, judges, bar associations, justice ministers, prosecutors, and professors of law—who are actively engaged in efforts to reform and strengthen a sector central to the functioning of any civilized society, and who want our support. This year we have expanded this proposal to cover all of Latin America and the Caribbean.

Economic Assistance Coordination. We are again requesting your cooperation in authorizing U.S. participation in an effective forum for dialogue on the problems of the Central American region. The bipartisan commission argued for the Central American Development Organization to facilitate the direct participation of Central Americans, from the private sector as well as from the government, in the formulation of strategies to achieve our common objectives. We believe that the operation of such a regional organization can guarantee that congressionally sought purposes will, in fact, be integrated into the long-term regional development policies. Our experience with such concepts as the Caribbean Basin Initiative has taught us that when we listen to our neighbors, they do a better job of listening to us.

Multiyear Authorization of Funds. The National Bipartisan Commission on Central America concluded that uncertaintly about future U.S. assistance undermines the implementation of current aid programs. We fully agree. This phenomenon is a reflection of a broader problem: many Latin Americans have had the experience of seeing the United States periodically lose interest in their affairs. The ironic result is that many of our neighbors to the south, especially in Central America, are more concerned about U.S. withdrawal than about American involvement. It is true that the United States—or any country—focuses attention on the "crises" that shifts in concern from one area of the world to another are to be expected; it is an altogether human trait. The problem is that, for example, the ministers of planning dealing with today's crisis must act as if international attention will shift elsewhere by tomorrow.

In Central America today, the result is to weaken not only the ability of the planners to plan, and the private sector to invest, but also to undercut the middle- and long-term approach which is a necessary part of our assistance philosophy—and one in which the Congress has always had a special interest. To in one sentence, year-by-year funding in a situation as complex as Central America diminishes the impact of our support in such key areas as human rights and economic reform.

The bipartisan commission concluded that Central America today presented an opportunity for us to initiate a more mature and more effective relationship with that majority of Central Americans who want progressive change but need a reliable and steady U.S. commitment to help them make it happen.

Training. Over the years a number of prohibitions on U.S. assistance have applied to training. While these legislative provisions have laudable goals, we believe their application to training can be self-defeating. The targets of the legislation are usually specific governments, but the "victims" are often individuals who may influence the future, often with a different government. The result is a kind of foreign policy catch-22: develop a course designed to inform future leaders about democracy; then prohibit attendance from the very countries we would like to see move in that direction.

There is no more worthwhile and long-lasting investment we can make than in people. And training—which develops professional skills while deepening understanding of our democratic and humane ideals—has proven to be an unusually effective channel for such investment. We believe that opening channels of influence and communications, rather than reinforcing existing isolation, would serve our national interests throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.

The Administration is, therefore, proposing legislation to permit training from funds made available in this act to be treated the same as the Peace Corps, U.S. Information Agency, disaster relief, and narcotics programs—that is, as being exempt from general prohibitions on assistance. Of course, Congress could otherwise specify at any time in any particular case. The human rights provisions of the Foreign Assistance Act, as well as the general prohibition against police training, would continue to apply.

Safety Equipment. Another section of the proposed legislation would permit the sale or licensing for export of items which are necessary for the safe operation of previously supplied U.S. defense equipment. Because of certain country-specific provisions in U.S. law, some countries have not been able to obtain items necessary for the safe operation of previously supplied U.S. defense articles. We believe the United States should not be in the position of denying equipment needed to avoid jeopardizing the lives of pilots or other foreign military personnel.

El Salvador Land Reform. We are again requesting authorization to use U.S. assistance funds to accelerate compensation to former landowners in El Salvador affected by the agrarian reform. The land reform has proven effective in rallying peasant support and limiting guerrilla opportunities. Valuation of affected properties, many of which were middle sized, appears to have been fair in most instances. But compensation has often been delayed. We must help this key reform move forward. Uncertainty, evictions, and other enemies of effective planning; entrepreneurship; and production are all aggravated by the absence of compensation.

El Salvador Conditionality. Finally, our proposed legislation this year does not provide for a continuation of detailed reporting requirements with regard to El Salvador. Singling out particular countries for specific monitoring has limited usefulness and can be quickly overtaken by psychological and other factors. This is especially true when a government like that of President Duarte is committed to the same objectives as we are, and the conditions serve mainly to denigrate his efforts. We demonstrated this past year, I believe, that the route of two-way cooperation between the U.S. and Salvadoran Governments is effective in achieving our mutual human rights and other priority goals.

Conclusion

I believe that our understanding of the problems and the proposals for their remedy are realistic. We have not claimed credit for all the progress in the past, and I am not predicting that we will run a 3-minute mile if you provide everything we have requested. But, as I suggested to you and your colleagues when you launched your review of policy 5 weeks ago, the alternatives—a harder line, a softer line, any attempted quick fix or plain inaction—on analysis simply do not coalesce into policies which serve our national interests.

The democratic transition in the hemisphere over the past half dozen years has shown that the people of Latin America and the Caribbean have an enhanced ability to use the kinds of economic, military, social, and political support I have outlined for FY 1986. At the same time, their own goals and objectives—whether outlined in the Contadora objectives or the latest national economic restructuring program—coincide more and more with our own. It is in our own national interest to provide that support to them.

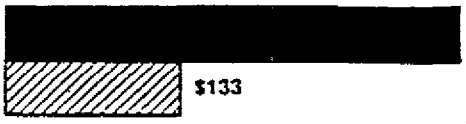
FY 1986 Foreign Assistance Requests for Selected Countries

Central America

El Salvador



U.S. assistance was part of an overall effort that enabled the Salvadoran economy to grow by 1.5% in 1984—the first year of growth since 1979. Living standards remain painfully low, but the economic decline appears to be bottoming out, helped along by the cautious optimism engendered by political and military events. The government has taken policy measures to increase incentives to exporters of nontraditional products, has made progress in allowing exchange rates to respond to market forces, and has improved its overall foreign exchange management.

Political life was highlighted over the past year by the election and inauguration of President Duarte—with congressional and municipal elections scheduled for this month. Improvements in the judiciary helped complete judicial action against the murderers of four American churchwomen. Last fall, President Duarte took the initiative to open direct dialogue with the FMLN/FDR [Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front/Revolutionary Democratic Front]. This was an important new step in the process of national reconciliation in El Salvador. Guerrilla intransigence at the second meeting dramatized the problems that lie ahead but could not obscure the Duarte Government's historic accomplishment and commitment to constitutionalism and peace.

The Salvadoran Armed Forces have played a major role in these events, moving a considerable distance in the past few years in terms of professionalism, effectiveness in combat, and observance of human rights. The guerrilla offensive planned for last fall never took place in large part because the FMLN was thrown off balance by the constant operations of the Salvadoran Armed Forces. The increased mobility provided by U.S.-supplied helicopters, and the controlled fire support of the C-47 aircraft have permitted rapid reaction to surprise attacks, interfering with the guerrillas' ability to mass, strike, and withdraw before reinforcements arrive. The improving capabilities of government troops have forced the guerrillas to break up into smaller units and to rely increasingly on economic sabotage and subversion.

It remains vital for the constitutional government of President Duarte to have the economic and military assistance it needs to defend democracy and to approach its dialogue with the insurgents with confidence. On the economic side, we are requesting $210 million in ESF and $90 million in development assistance to bolster economic stabilization, support the land reform, and provide humanitarian assistance. We are also proposing $51 million under the PL 480 program.

On the military side, the proposed MAP program of $131 million will be used for unit and individual equipment and training, ammunition, replacement parts, aircraft, and naval patrol craft. The $1.6 million IMET program will be used to teach essential technical and managerial skills, including officer development, pilot and other training, and the technical skills necessary to operate and maintain U.S. equipment. All training, as in the past, will emphasize professionalism and human rights.

1. MOST OF THE INFO IN REFTEL A WAS PASSED TO THE FAMILIES OF THE MISSING MEN. THEY ARE GRATEFUL FOR ASSISTANCE RENDERED BY AMEMBASSY MEXICO BUT DO NOT AGREE THAT WELL-MEANING AMATEURS SHOULD CEASE WORKING ON THE CASE. THEY BELIEVE THAT PRIVATE INDIVIDUALS MIGHT BE ABLE TO ASK QUESTIONS THAT GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS MIGHT AVOID. THEY ALSO APPRECIATE FREQUENT VISITS TO THE AREA SO PUBLIC AWARENESS OF THE CASE MIGHT BE KEPT UP. RANDY BLAKE POINTED OUT THAT CONCERNED GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS HAD NOT YET RESOLVED THE CASE.

2. MEXICO'S EXPERIENCE WITH [redacted] WAS INTERESTING BUT PUZZLING TO FAMILY MEMBERS. IS HE OR IS HE NOT A MEXICAN GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEE? RANDY BLAKE ASKED FOR AND WAS GIVEN MR. TELEPHONE NUMBERS AND SAID HE WOULD REPORT ANY RESULTS TO THE DEPARTMENT. THE REPORTS FROM MR. SUAREZ WERE MORE SATISFYING TO THE RELATIVES, WHO NOW BELIEVE HE IS TELLING THE TRUTH ABOUT EVERYTHING EXCEPT THE GUATEMALAN COLONEL. NICK BLAKE WAS NOT KNOWN TO HAVE ANY CONTACTS IN THE GUATEMALAN ARMY. THE FAMILIES ARE ALSO SURPRISED AT THE MEXICAN OFFICIALS READINESS TO BELIEVE THE TWO MEN ARE STILL PREPARING TO VISIT THE GUERRILLAS IN VIEW OF GOVERNMENT AND PRIVATE BRIEFINGS BEGINNING A YEAR AGO (REF B).

3. RANDY BLAKE AND JIM ADRIANCE WERE IN THE DEPARTMENT APRIL 24 FOR A TWO-HOUR MEETING ABOUT THE CASE WITH DAS THARP AND OFFICER RENNY SMITH. ALTHOUGH THEY ARE STILL NOT SATISFIED WITH THE DEPARTMENT'S ACTIVITIES ON BEHALF OF THE MISSING AMERICANS, THEY ARE UNABLE TO SUGGEST A GREAT DEAL MORE IN PARTICULAR THAT CAN BE DONE. THEY WOULD LIKE A LOCAL PRIEST OR AN AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION WORKER TO TRAVEL OVER THE ROUTE TO PERSONALLY QUERY THE LOCAL POPULATION. THEY REALIZE THAT THE EMBASSY CANNOT FORMALLY ARRANGE THIS.

4. MRS. DAVIS, WHO EARLIER HAD WRITTEN TO BISHOP RUIZ GARCIA THROUGH HER OWN BISHOP IN PENNSYLVANIA WAS APPROACHED WITH THE IDEA OF ASKING THE RELIGIOUS HIERARCHY IF ANY INFORMATION COULD BE DEVELOPED BY THE CHURCH. SHE WAS NATURALLY RELUCTANT TO ASK A PRIEST TO PUT HIS LIFE IN DANGER. SHE MENTIONED THAT SHE HAS CONSULTED A PSYCHIC WHO BELIEVES HER SON IS ALIVE AND "WITH SOMEONE WHOSE NAME BEGINS WITH J."

5. SAM BLAKE TOLD HIS BROTHER RANDY THAT THE GUATEMALAN MILITARY IS NOW IN CONTROL OF THE AREA WHERE MR. BLAKE AND MR. DAVIS DISAPPEARED. IF THIS IS TRUE, NICK BLAKE'S BROTHERS AND FRIENDS WOULD LIKE TO TRAVEL THROUGH THE AREA THEMSELVES AND MAKE INQUIRIES. THIS PLAN WAS DISCOURAGED BY DEPARTMENT OFFICERS BUT IF AMEMBASSY GUATEMALA DISAGREES WITH DEPT'S APPREHENSION, TE BLAKES WILL BE ADVISED ACCORDINGLY. THEY WERE INFORMED THAT IF THE AREA WERE CONSIDERED SAFE, EMBASSY OFFICERS IN GUATEMALA WOULD GO THERE ON BEHALF OF THE FAMILY.

TO: The Deputy Secretary

FROM: CA - Joan M. Clark

SUBJECT: Case of Nicholas Blake and Griffith Davis who are missing in Guatemala

The case of the disappearance of Nicholas Blake and Griffith Davis has been given a very high priority in the Department and has been followed closely by Vice President Bush's staff and several Congressional offices. A number of Department representatives including the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Overseas Citizens Services and Ambassador Piedra in Guatemala have frequently met with the families, their representatives, and interested parties with ideas on how the case might be solved. The most recent meeting was April 24, 1986 here in Washington. The Blake brothers have been particularly active in the case and have made several trips to Guatemala in an effort to locate the missing men.

The case came to the Department's attention on April 8, 1985 when it was reported to the American Embassy in Guatemala that the two men were overdue from a walking trip through the Guatemalan highlands. After confirming the report and the U.S. citizenship of both men, the Embassy immediately notified the Guatemalan police, missionary groups working in the highlands, and the Department. Since the area where the men were walking is known to be an area of conflict, the Guatemalan military was also asked to assist. The State Department has had a travel advisory recommending against travel to the highlands on the Mexican border since at least 1981.

Department officers located the next of kin for both men, and they were informed on April 13. The search for Mr. Blake and Mr. Davis has been ongoing for the last thirteen months. Embassy officers have personally canvassed as much of the area as security conditions permitted beginning on April 18 when two officers and a translator went there by helicopter. They continue to interview anyone from the area who might be helpful. The Guatemalan Army has made repeated searches incurring several casualties in the process. The one fact which can be verified is that the men were seen leaving the village of Llano on March 29. They had intended to spend some time with the guerrillas as Mr. Blake, a freelance journalist, was interested in pursuing a story about the conflict. Mr. Davis went along as a guide.

Mexican officials and U.S. officials in Mexico are also well aware of the case. The Guerrilla Army of the Poor (EGP), which controls much of the area where the men were hiking denies knowledge of the men's whereabouts.

A copy of a detailed congressional letter is attached along with recent cables on the case. Mrs. Blake and Mrs. Davis continue to send messages of support and encouragement to the Department for the way the case is being handled.

1. SUMMARY: EMBASSY SCIENCE COUNSELOR AND SCIENCE ATTACHE VISITED THE INSTITUTE FOR ELECTRICAL RESEARCH (IIE) APRIL 22. EMBASSY REPRESENTATIVES MET WITH HEADS OF IIE RESEARCH DEPARTMENTS AND TOURED MOST OF THE INSTITUTES MAJOR RESEARCH FACILITIES AT ITS MAIN SITE IN CUERNAVACA. IIE IS WELL-EQUIPPED AND FINANCED BY MEXICAN STANDARDS. IIE OFFICIALS EXPRESSED INTEREST IN STRENGTHENING CONTACTS WITH THE U.S. AND REQUESTED ASSISTANCE IN DEALING WITH THE PROCESS FOR GETTING PROJECTS APPROVED BY THE U.S.-GOM MIXED COMMISSION. SPECIFIC ACTION REQUESTED PARAS 11 AND 12. END SUMMARY.

VISITED THE CUERNAVCA HEADQUARTERS OF THE INSTITUTE FOR ELECTRICAL RESEARCH (IIE) ON APRIL 22. EMBASSY REPRESENTATIVES MET WITH IIE DIVISION HEADS AND VISITED A NUMBER OF FACILITIES AND LABORATORIES.

3. IIE SERVES AS THE RESEARCH ARM OF THE ELECTRICAL INDUSTRY IN MEXICO. THIS INDUSTRY IN MEXICO INCLUDES BOTH THE STATE-OWNED ELECTRIC GENERATING INDUSTRY AND THE PRIVATE ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY. REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH GROUPS SIT ON IIE'S BOARD. THE BULK OF IIE'S BUDGET CONTINUES TO COME FROM THE FEDERAL ELECTRICITY COMMISSION (CFE) THROUGH DIRECT FUNDING, BUT AN INCREASING PROPORTION OF THE BUDGET IS NOW OBTAINED THROUGH RESEARCH CONTRACTS FROM CFE OR ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS. IIE'S BUDGET IS APPROXIMATELY 3 BILLION PESOS (ONE USD EQUALS PESOS 513).

4. TOTAL STAFF AT IIE IS 1200. OF THAT NUMBER, 650 ARE COLLEGE EDUCATED RESEARCHERS. OF THE RESEARCHERS 54 PERCENT ARE ELECTICAL ENGINEERS, 17 PERCENT ARE CHEMISTS OR CHEMICAL ENGINEERS, 9 PERCENT ARE IN THE BASIC SCIENCES. 80 RESEARCHERS RECEIVED SOME PART OF THEIR HIGHER EDUCATION IN THE U.S., 39 IN THE U.K., 13 IN FRANCE, 13 IN CANADA, AND 9 IN LATIN AMERICA. OF THOSE RESEARCHERS THAT RECEIVED THEIR DEGREES FROM MEXICAN INSTITUTIONS, 188 GRADUATED FROM THE AUTONOMOUS UNIVERSITY OF MEXICO (UNAM), 170 FROM THE NATIONAL POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE, AND 60 FROM THE MONTERREY INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY. AT THE MOMENT, ONLY 10 MEMBERS OF THE INSTITUTE ARE BEING TRAINED IN THE U.S., WHILE 16 ARE TRAINING IN THE U.K. AND 8 ARE IN FRANCE. (ONE REASON FOR THIS IS THE LACK OF PROGRAMS AT THE UNCLASSIFIED GRADUATE LEVEL IN ELECTROMECHANICAL ENGINEERING IN THE U.S.) 80 OF IIE'S RESEARCHERS RECEIVE SUPPLEMENTARY, TAX-FREE SALARY GRANTS FROM THE GOM FOR HIGH QUALITY RESEARCH.

5. IIE'S PRINCIPAL DIVISIONS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

-- ENERGY SOURCES (FOSSIL, NUCLEAR, SOLAR, HYDRO, AND GEOTHERMAL)

-- POWER SYSTEMS (INCLUDING ADVANCED STUDIES ON THE COMBUSTION OF LOWER QUALITY FOSSIL FUELS)

-- EQUIPMENT

-- ENGINEERING STUDIES

-- TRAINING AND COMMUNICATION (INCLUDING COMPUTER SERVICES, EFFORTS TO DISSEMINATE THE LATEST TECHNICAL DEVELOPMENTS TO THE ELECTRICAL INDUSTRY, LIBRARIES, AND TRAINING)

COMPUTER CAPABILITY AND OTHER EQUIPMENT

6. IIE IS PROBABLY THE BEST-EQUIPPED SCIENTIFIC FACILITY IN MEXICO, ESPECIALLY IN THE AREA OF COMPUTERS. THE INSTITUTE HAS AQUIRED 12 VAX (3 VAX 11/780'S AND 9 VAX 11/730'S) IN THE PAST SIX YEARS. THE INSTITUTE ALSO HAS A LARGE NUMBER OF MINI-VAX'S AND WILL OBTAIN A VAX 8600 NEXT YEAR. AMONG OTHER USES, THE COMPUTERS ARE BEING UTILIZED FOR COMPUTER AIDED DESIGN AND MANUFACTURING.

THE INSTITUTE IS WELL-ENDOWED WITH OTHER ANALYTICAL EQUIPMENT FOR WORK SUCH AS MICROSCOPIC AND SPECTROGRAPHIC ANALYSIS OF MATERIALS AND FOR WORK ON THE COMBUSTION OF LOW-GRADE FUELS IN ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES. FOR EXAMPLE, HIGH SPEED PHOTOGRAPHY AND LASER ANALYSIS IS BEING USED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE INSTITUTE'S COMBUSTION LAB. THE CUERNAVACA FACILITY ALSO POSSESSES SOPHISTICATED EQUIPMENT FOR SIMULATING HIGH PRESSURES AND TEMPERATURES USEFUL FOR RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT IN THE AREA OF GEOTHERMAL ENERGY.

ACTIVITIES OF INTEREST

9 AMONG THE ACTIVITIES OF POSSIBLE INTEREST TO USG AGENCIES ARE THE FOLLOWING:

-- COMBUSTION LAB - IIE HAS DONE CONSIDERABLE RESEARCH ON THE EFFICIENT COMBUSTION OF HEAVY GRADE FUELS BASED ON MAYA CRUDE OIL FOR ELECTRICITY GENERATION. RESEARCH ALSO EXTENDS TO THE DESIGN AND ADAPTATION OF EQUIPMENT FOR EFFICIENT BURNING OF SUCH FUELS.

-- GEOTHERMAL ENERGY - MEXICO IS THE THIRD LARGEST GENERATOR OF ELECTRICITY FROM GEOTHERMAL ENERGY IN THE WORLD. IIE IS ACTIVE IN RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT OF EQUIPMENT AND PROCESSES USEFUL IN THIS AREA. IIE COOPERATES WITH STANFORD UNIVERSITY AND LAWRENCE BERKELEY LAB IN THESE ACTIVITIES. IIE RESEARCH INCLUDES WORK IN MAPPING AND MAINTAINING GEOTHERMAL RESERVOIRS, ENCRUSTATION, DEVELOPMENT OF CHEMICAL PRODUCTS (POTASSIUM CHLORIDE AND LITHIUM CHLORIDE) FROM BRINE, AND OTHER WORK ON BINARY CYCLE GEOTHERMAL PLANTS.
-- SOLAR ENERGY - IIE CONCENTRATES ON THE DESIGN OF SOLAR RESERVOIRS OR PONDS.

-- NUCLEAR ENERGY - IIE HAS NEARLY COMPLETED THE CONSTRUCTION OF A FULL-SCALE MOCK-UP OF THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR POWER PLANT'S CONTROL ROOM. LAGUNA VERDE IS A MID-1970'S VINTAGE GE BOILING WATER TYPE PLANT. THE FIRST UNIT OF THE PLANT IS ABOUT ONE YEAR AWAY FROM

OPERATION. THE MOCKUP INCLUDES A SOPHISTICATED COMPUTER SIMULATION OF PLANT OPERATION INCLUDING 175 GENERIC AND 500 SPECIFIC MALFUNCTIONS. COMPUTER SIMULATION IS MANAGED BY 2 SEL 6750 UNITS. THE SIMULATOR'S COMPUTER SOFTWARE MODULES (47 IN ALL) ARE ABOUT 50 PERCENT COMPLETE. UPON COMPLETION THE SIMULATOR AND THE CONTROL ROOM MOCK-UP WILL BE DELIVERED TO THE LAGUNA VERDE PLANT FOR OPERATOR TRAINING.

11. IIE OFFICIALS EXPRESSED INTEREST IN INCREASED COOPERATION WITH THE U.S. IN SEVERAL AREAS:

A) IIE OFFICIALS ARE CONCERNED ABOUT THE REDUCED NUMBERS OF STUDENTS GOING TO THE U.S. FOR TRAINING IN THE FIELDS OF INTEREST TO IIE. (MOST OF THE DIVISION DIRECTORS HAVE HAD SOME TRAINING IN THE U.S.). THE RELATIVE DEARTH OF SCHOLARSHIPS FOR TECHNICAL EDUCATION WAS NOTED.

2. BEGIN QUOTE: PROFOUNDLY AFFECTED BY THE CRITICAL SITUATION OF THE CHILEAN PEOPLE AND WORKERS, THE ICFTU AND ORIT DECIDED TO SEND TO CHILE A MISSION TO EXPRESS THEIR SOLIDARITY AND SUPPORT TO THE TRADE UNION MOVEMENT. AS A RESULT OF THIS VISIT, THE ICFTU AND ORIT MISSION CONSIDER IT THEIR RESPONSIBILITY TO MAKE KNOWN TO CHILEAN PUBLIC OPINION AND TO THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY THE FOLLOWING:

DECLARATION:

WE REITERATE OUR PERMANENT AND ACTIVE SOLIDARITY WITH THE TRADE UNION MOVEMENT AND WITH THE CHILEAN PEOPLE WHO FIGHT TO RECUPERATE THEIR HISTORIC TRADITION OF DEMOCRACY AND LIBERTY.

WE RECOGNIZE WITH ADMIRATION THE HEROIC FORCE OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, OF THE SOCIAL ORGANIZATIONS AND OF THE DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL PARTIES TO ESTABLISH COOPERATIVE MEANS TO FIND POLITICAL FORMULAS WHICH WILL PERMIT THE ACHIEVEMENT, IN THE SHORTEST POSSIBLE TIME, OF THE RESTORATION OF DEMOCRACY IN CHILE.

WE SALUTE WITH HOPE THE CONCEPTS OF THE NATIONAL ACCORD AND OF THE CIVIC ASSEMBLY, ORGANS WHICH DEMONSTRATE THE MATURITY OF THE CHILEAN PEOPLE AND WHICH CONSTITUTE FUNDAMENTAL ELEMENTS IN THE FIGHT FOR DEMOCRACY.

REPUDIATE THE UNJUSTIFIED ATTACKS OF THE MILITARY REGIME AGAINST THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY, AN ORGANIZATION RECOGNIZED WORLD-WIDE FOR ITS UNSELFISH DEDICATION TO THE DEFENSE OF HUMAN RIGHTS. IN THE NAME OF MORE THAN 85 MILLION WORKERS IN THE WORLD, WE DEMAND THE IMMEDIATE LIBERTY OF DOCTOR RAMIRO OLIVARES AND LAWYER GUSTAVO VILLALOBOS, WHO HAVE BEEN MADE VICTIMS OF THE REPRESSION

WE NOTE THAT THE MISTAKEN FINANCIAL AND ECONOMIC POLICIES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF GENERAL PINOCHET ARE THE PRINCIPAL CAUSE OF THE EXTREME EXTERNAL DEBT AND HAVE RESULTED IN THE ENDEMIC POVERTY OF THE CHILEAN PEOPLE, CHARACTERIZED BY HIGH LEVELS OF UNEMPLOYMENT AND UNDEREMPLOYMENT AND GENERAL MISERY; A SITUATION WHICH HAS IN TURN CAUSED THE EXISTENCE OF SOCIAL DISGRACES SUCH AS THE LACK OF OR THE DISMANTLING OF SCHOOLS AND HOSPITALS, THE MALNUTRITION OF A HIGH PERCENTAGE OF THE POPULATION, AND INFANTILE AND JUVENILE PROSTITUTION.

WE REITERATE OUR CONDEMNATION BEFORE PERTINENT INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS AND THE WORLD COMMUNITY, FOR THE PERSISTENT AND ABOMINABLE VIOLATIONS OF THE MOST ELEMENTAL HUMAN, POLITICAL, AND SOCIAL RIGHTS OF THE CHILEAN PEOPLE ON THE PART OF THE MILITARY REGIME.

Boris Weisfeiler

Date of Birth: April 19, 1941
[redacted] Naturalized U.S. citizen
U.S. passport #Z4003331 issued in Spain

Weisfeiler arrived in Santiago on December 24, 1985, on a LAN CHILE flight from New York City. Immediately upon arriving in Santiago he traveled by bus to Los Angeles, ~~a city that lies approximately 300 miles south of the capital~~. The following day he set out from his hotel by public transportation, we believe, in the direction of the foothills of the Andes near a spot called El Salto del Laja. Between December 26, 1984 and January 4, 1985 we have no information about his activities or whereabouts, but must assume that he was backpacking alone and camping out along the route north that he had been taking, along the Nuble river.

The afternoon of January 3, 1985, he encountered two local men who were working as shepherds and who had an encampment south of the confluence of the Nuble and the Sauce rivers. They invited Weisfeiler to share their dinner and to spend the night in their lean-to which he did. The next morning he resumed his journey on foot and later in the day met the brother of one of the shepherds on the trail that follows the Nuble, but they did not speak to each other. According to all official reports, this man was the last person to see Weisfeiler alive.

Nothing further was known about Weisfeiler until January 15, when his backpack was found on the bank of the Nuble river at a point about 1,800 meters downstream from where he encountered the shepherd's brother. That discovery led to a series of searches carried out by the local Carabineros (police), firemen and farmers in addition to searches of the Nuble river by Naval frogmen. In addition, the court in the nearby town of San Carlos opened an official inquiry into the case of Weisfeiler's disappearance and finally concluded that he was most likely dead and that the probable cause of death was drowning. In March 1985, the Court declared the case closed for Weisfeiler llegó a Santiago el 24 de diciembre de 1984 a bordo de un vuelo de LAN Chile procedente de la ciudad de Nueva York. A su llegada a Santiago viajó de inmediato por bus a Los Angeles. Al día siguiente partió de su hotel por transporte público, creemos que en dirección a los faldeos de los Andes cerca de un lugar llamado El Salto del Laja. No tenemos información sobre sus actividades o paraderos entre el 26 de diciembre de 1984 y el 4 de enero de 1985, pero debemos suponer que se encontraba "mochileando" solo y acampando por la ruta norte que había tomado, siguiendo el curso del río Ñuble.

En la tarde del 3 de enero de 1985, se encontró con dos hombres de la localidad que trabajaban como pastores y que tenían un campamento al sur de la confluencia de los ríos Ñuble y Sauce. Invitaron a Weisfeiler a compartir su cena y pernoctar en su cobertizo, lo cual él hizo. A la mañana siguiente reanudó su viaje a pié y más tarde durante el mismo día se encontró con el hermano de uno de los pastores en el sendero que sigue el curso del río Ñuble, pero no se hablaron. De acuerdo con todos los informes oficiales, este hombre fué la última persona que vió a Weisfeiler con vida.

Nada más se supo de Weisfeiler hasta el 15 de enero, al encontrarse su mochila en la ribera del río Ñuble en un punto aproximadamente 1.800 metros río abajo de donde se encontró con el hermano del pastor. Este descubrimiento condujo a un serie de búsquedas realizadas por Carabineros de la localidad (policía), bomberos y agricultores, además de búsquedas en el río Ñuble por hombres rana de la Armada. Además, la Corte de la cercana ciudad de San Carlos abrió una investigación oficial sobre el caso de la desaparición de Weisfeiler y finalmente concluyó que lo más probable era que hubiera muerto y que posiblemente su muerte fué causada por inmersión. En marzo de 1985 la Corte declaró cerrado el caso por falta de mayor evidencia.

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PHUM, UN, UNHRC, CI, US
SUBJECT: AMBASSADOR BARNES CALLS UPON CHILEAN U.N.
- AMBASSADOR DAZA

1. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. U.S. AMBASSADOR TO CHILE HARRY BARNES CALLED UPON CHILE'S AMBASSADOR TO THE U.N. PEDRO DAZA, JUNE 2, AT THE CHILEAN MISSION. CHILEAN MISSION COUNSELLOR PATRICIO DAMM AND U.S. MISSION OFFICER LEWIS AMSELEM ALSO ATTENDED.

3. DAZA ARGUED THAT THE U.N. WAS A LARGELY USELESS ORGANIZATION IN THE FIELD OF HUMAN RIGHTS. HE FELT THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUE AT THE U.N. WAS HIGHLY POLITICIZED AND THAT CERTAIN COUNTRIES, SUCH AS CUBA AND THE SOVIET UNION, WHICH CONSTANTLY ATTACKED CHILE HAD NO INTEREST IN PROMOTING RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. DAZA SAID THE U.S. AND CHILE HAD TWO PRINCIPAL GOALS IN COMMON: (1) TO IMPROVE THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE, AND (2) TO STRENGTHEN THEIR BILATERAL RELATIONS. HE DOUBTED THAT THE U.N. FORUM SERVED EITHER OF THOSE OBJECTIVES AND

STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE OF CLOSE BILATERAL CONTACTS.

4. DAZA AGREED THAT THE U.S.-DRAFTED RESOLUTION ADOPTED AT THE LAST SESSION OF THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS (CHR) WAS THE MOST MODERATE AND BALANCED OF ANY PREVIOUSLY ADOPTED BY THE U.N. HE CLAIMED, NEVERTHELESS, THAT THE COMMUNIST COUNTRIES AND CHILE'S NON-DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION, IGNORING THE RESOLUTION'S TEXT, HAD DEPICTED IT AS A UNIVERSAL CONDEMNATION OF CHILE'S CURRENT GOVERNMENT. SOME PORTRAYED THE U.S. SPONSORSHIP OF THE RESOLUTION AS A SHARP CHANGE IN U.S. POLICY AND ONE AIMED AT "DESTABILIZING" THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT.

5. AMBASSADOR BARNES SAID THE U.S. HAD ADOPTED THE COURSE IT HAD AT THE CHR AS A RESULT OF THE FRUSTRATIONS ENCOUNTERED IN OUR BILATERAL APPROACHES TO CHILE ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND AS A WAY OF TAKING THE ISSUE AWAY FROM ITS TRADITIONAL SPONSORS. BARNES SAID THE U.S. HAD OUT-MANEUVERED THE COMMUNIST COUNTRIES BY GETTING A U.N. BODY TO ADOPT A MODERATE U.S. RESOLUTION ON CHILE. THE AMBASSADOR STATED THAT THE RESOLUTION GAVE THE U.S. INCREASED INFLUENCE AMONG THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION; HE DISAGREED WITH DAZA'S CONTENTION THAT THE RESOLUTION HAD PLAYED INTO THE HANDS OF THE EXTREME OPPOSITION. BARNES POINTED OUT, HOWEVER, THAT THERE WAS A NEED FOR THE GOC TO SHOW PROGRESS IN HUMAN RIGHTS BEFORE CHILE COMES UP AT THE NEXT U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY. HE SAID THAT A NUMBER OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS CONTAINED IN THE REPORT OF THE U.N. SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON CHILE, FERNANDO VOLIO, COULD BE CARRIED OUT IMMEDIATELY BY THE GOC; THERE WAS PARTICULAR URGENCY IN DEALING WITH THE CONTINUING REPORTS OF TORTURE IN CHILE. SOMETHING ALSO COULD AND SHOULD BE DONE ABOUT THOSE CHILEANS STILL IN EXILE.
CONFIDENTIAL

6. DAZA AGREED THAT TORTURE MUST BE STAMPED OUT. HE SAID HE HAD INSTRUCTIONS TO PASS ALONG TO HIS MFA FOR INVESTIGATION ANY SPECIFIC CASES OF TORTURE BROUGHT TO HIS ATTENTION. THE GOC OPPOSED TORTURE, HE SAID. BARNES URGED THAT THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT'S STATED OPPOSITION TO TORTURE, INCLUDING RECENT ORDERS AGAINST IT ISSUED BY THE

DEFENSE AND INTERIOR MINISTRIES, BE MORE WIDELY PUBLICIZED AND THAT THE GOVERNMENT ESTABLISH IMPARTIAL MACHINERY FOR THE INVESTIGATION OF REPORTS OF SUCH ABUSES. THIS WOULD PROVIDE PROTECTION BOTH FOR VICTIMS OF TORTURE AND FOR THE GOVERNMENT AGAINST POLITICALLY MOTIVATED EFFORTS TO DISCREDIT THE GOC. DAZA SAID HE WOULD RETURN TO SANTIAGO IN EARLY JULY TO DISCUSS WHAT HIS GOVERNMENT SHOULD DO PRIOR TO THE NEXT G.A.

7. COMMENT: DAZA IS WIDELY REGARDED AS A POLITICAL MODERATE AND A FIRM BELIEVER IN THE NEED FOR CHILE TO RETURN TO DEMOCRATIC WAYS. HE IS AT THE SAME TIME, HOWEVER, VERY MUCH A PROFESSIONAL DIPLOMAT WHO SEES HIS ROLE AT THE U.N. AS ONE OF DEFENDING CHILE'S GOVERNMENT AGAINST THE CRITICISM DIRECTED AGAINST IT. THEREFORE, SOME OF DAZA'S DISAGREEMENT WITH THE APPROACH TAKEN BY THE U.S. AT THE LAST CHR CAN PROBABLY BE ATTRIBUTED TO DAZA'S SPEAKING FOR THE RECORD. DAZA IS CLEARLY WORRIED THAT UNLESS CHILE CAN SHOW PROGRESS IN IMPLEMENTING AT LEAST SOME OF VOLIO'S RECOMMENDATIONS, CHILE'S ISOLATION AT THE U.N. WILL INCREASE. SHOULD THAT HAPPEN, OUR ABILITY TO PRODUCE ANOTHER MODERATE TEXT ON CHILE, FREE OF THE RADICAL FORMULATIONS TRADITIONALLY INTRODUCED BY MEXICO AND CUBA, WILL BE GREATLY DIMINISHED. END COMMENT

8. AMBASSADOR BARNES DID NOT HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO CLEAR THIS CABLE.

THEY WERE PURSUING LEADS THAT THE EGP HAD KILLED THE TWO MISSING PERSONS. THIS LEAD IS BASED ON A COMMENT MADE TO [redacted] IN MEXICO BY A CONTACT [redacted] WITH THE EGP. B6
THIS INFORMATION WAS ALSO CORROBERATED BY WESTERN JOURNALISTS IN GUATEMALA. THE BLAKES DISCUSSED THEIR EFFORTS TO SECURE INFORMATION ABOUT THEIR BROTHER AND TALKED ABOUT A PLANNED MEETING WITH A HIGH RANKING EGP MEMBER KNOWN TO THEM ONLY AS [redacted] B6

3. (C) THE BLAKES WERE PLANNING TO MEET WITH [redacted] B6
IN MEXICO CITY THE EVENING OF MAY 30. CONTACT WAS MADE WITH MORALES THROUGH SOME ANTHROPOLOGISTS WORKING IN THE GUATEMALA HIGHLANDS. MARK FAZLOLLAH, A STRINGER FOR THE WASHINGTON POST WHO HAD TRAVELLED WITH THE GUATEMALAN TROOPS WAS SCHEDULED TO ATTEND THIS MEETING. THE MEETING, HOWEVER, DID NOT TAKE PLACE. THE BLAKES WERE ALSO ATTEMPTING TO SET UP A MEETING IN MANAGUA WITH OMAR CABEZAS, BELIEVED TO BE CLOSELY ASSOCIATED WITH THE EGP.

4. (C) THE BLAKES ASKED THE DCM IF HE WOULD CONTACT THE MEXICAN AUTHORITIES TO ASK THEM TO APPLY SUBTLE PRESSURE ON THE EGP IN MEXICO TO EITHER CONFIRM THE DEATHS OF BLAKE AND DAVIS AND RELEASE THE REMAINS, OR PROVIDE INFORMATION AS TO WHERE THE REMAINS ARE LOCATED, OR THE WHEREABOUTS OF BLAKE AND DAVIS ON THE OFF-CHANCE THAT THEY ARE STILL ALIVE.

SUBJECT: HUMAN RIGHTS: BILATERAL DISCUSSIONS WITH THE NETHERLANDS

REF: (A) STATE 175897; (B) STATE 175231; (C) THE HAGUE 03981

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. THE HA BUREAU CONTINUED ITS BILATERAL CONSULTATIONS ON SELECTED HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES IN A MAY 29 MEETING WITH THE DCM OF THE EMBASSY OF THE NETHERLANDS, GERHARD J. VAN HATTUM. OUR SIDE WAS REPRESENTED BY HA A/S RICHARD SCHIFTER, HA OFFICERS LEO MOSER, DOUGLAS WAKE, AND STANLEY IFSHIN (NOTETAKER), AND EUR/NE KIRK RESSLER.

3. WE COVERED THE SAME GROUND AND IN MUCH THE SAME MANNER AS IN REF B.

4. MR. VAN HATTUM HAD A LISTENING BRIEF, BUT, BECAUSE OF HIS PREVIOUS SERVICE AS THE NETHERLANDS AMBASSADOR TO CHILE, WAS QUITE FORTHCOMING WITH REGARD TO CHILE. VAN HATTUM LED OFF BY NOTING THAT HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE HAS NOT SHOWN MUCH IMPROVEMENT, AND "WE" HAVE THE IMPRESSION

NOTHING MUCH WILL CHANGE UNTIL PINOCHET HAS LEFT. AS 1989 APPROACHES, THE QUESTION IS "DOES HE INTEND TO LEAVE." HE ADDED THAT THE U.S. HOLDS THE KEY POSITION, AND PRESSURE FROM THE UNITED STATES COULD ALTER THE SITUATION DRAMATICALLY FOR THE GOOD. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER RESPONDED THAT WE HAVE BOTH PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY STATED THAT WE WISH TO SEE A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY, AND THAT WE CONSIDERED DIALOGUE WITH THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION INTRINSIC TO THAT PROCESS. WITH THAT END IN MIND, WE ARE CURRENTLY PROMOTING BETTER COMMUNICATION BETWEEN CONSERVATIVE BUSINESS CIRCLES AND THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION. SCHIFTER NOTED THAT WE ALSO ARE URGING THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION TO ESCHEW COOPERATION WITH THE COMMUNISTS. IT WOULD BE HELPFUL, SCHIFTER TOLD VAN HATTUM, IF OTHERS COULD CAUTION THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION OF THE NEGATIVE IMPACT ON THE MILITARY OF PERCEIVED COLLABORATION.

5. VAN HATTUM OBSERVED THAT HUMAN RIGHTS ARE "THE CORNERSTONE OF THE NETHERLANDS' FOREIGN POLICY," AND THE GOVERNMENT TRIES TO KEEP HUMAN RIGHTS CONCERNS FROM DAMAGING OTHER FOREIGN POLICY CONSIDERATIONS. HE POINTED OUT THAT WHEN HE WAS AMBASSADOR TO CHILE, HE HAD STANDING INSTRUCTIONS NOT TO PROMOTE NETHERLANDS-CHILE COMMERCIAL RELATIONS WHICH OTHERWISE MIGHT INTERFERE WITH THE NETHERLANDS' HUMAN RIGHTS CONCERNS IN CHILE.

SUBJECT: HUMAN RIGHTS - BILATERAL CONSULTATIONS WITH BELGIUM

REF: (A) STATE 175897
(B) STATE 175231; (C) STATE 154645

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: HA CONTINUED ITS BILATERAL DISCUSSIONS IN MEETING WITH BELGIUM. WE COVERED MOST OF THE SAME TOPICS AS IN EARLIER MEETINGS (REF B). THE BELGIAN SIDE MADE CLEAR THE IMPORTANCE THEY PUT ON COORDINATING WITH THE EC TWELVE, ALTHOUGH NOTING THAT BELGIUM DID PRESERVE FREEDOM OF ACTION. FOREIGN MINISTER TINDEMANS RELATIONSHIP WITH PRESIDENT DUARTE HAS BEEN IMPORTANT IN SHAPING BELGIUM'S POLICY TOWARD EL SALVADOR. END SUMMARY.

3. HA BUREAU CONTINUED ITS SERIES OF BILATERAL DISCUSSIONS IN A JUNE 6 MEETING WITH MR. ALEXIS REYN, MINISTER-COUNSELOR OF THE BELGIAN EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON. OUR SIDE WAS REPRESENTED BY HA A/S RICHARD SCHIFTER, HA DAS JAMES MONTGOMERY, HA/MLP: TOM WILLIAMS, EUR/ NE: CONFIDENTIAL

STEVE MCGANN, AND HA/MLP: STAN IFSHIN (NOTETAKER).

4. OUR PRESENTATION COVERED MANY OF THE SAME POINTS REPORTED IN REF C, INCLUDING CHILE, EL SALVADOR, CUBA, ETHIOPIA, SOUTH AFRICA, AND THE PROBLEM OF THE SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS IN BURUNDI.

5. WITH REFERENCE TO CHILE, AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER EXPLAINED THAT AT NEXT SESSION OF THE UNGA WE WOULD CONSIDER INTRODUCING A RESOLUTION ON CHILE SIMILAR TO THE RESOLUTION WHICH HAD PASSED THE UNHRC, AND SAID WE ARE INTERESTED IN EUROPEAN IDEAS ON THIS. ASSISTANT SECRETARY SCHIFTER NOTED THAT GOC HAD FOR THE FIRST TIME PERMITTED VISIT OF A SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR, NAMELY FERNANDO VOLIO (COSTA RICA). THERE ARE ELEMENTS IN GOC WHO WANT TO MAKE PROGRESS IN HUMAN RIGHTS AREA BUT GOC WILL REJECT "EXTREMIST" APPROACHES. VOTING FOR RESOLUTIONS WHICH CHALLENGE GOC LEGITIMACY, AS EUROPEAN COUNTRIES HAVE DONE, DESTROYS CREDIBILITY. EUROPEAN SUPPORT FOR A PRACTICAL, PRODUCTIVE APPROACH COULD, HOWEVER, BE VERY HELPFUL WITH GOC. IF THERE ARE IMPROVEMENTS IN CHILE'S HUMAN RIGHTS POSTURE WE WOULD BE WILLING TO TAKE NOTE OF THEM IN OUR RESOLUTION. MR. REYN ASKED ABOUT LIKELY CHILEAN REACTION TO SUCH EFFORTS. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER EXPLAINED THAT THE CHILEAN RESPONSE, EXPECTED IN THE NEAR FUTURE, TO UNHRC SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR VOLIO'S REPORT WOULD BE AN IMPORTANT FACTOR IN JUDGING THE EXTENT TO WHICH THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT IS WILLING TO IMPROVE ITS HUMAN RIGHTS PERFORMANCE IN RESPONSE TO THE RAPPORTEUR'S EFFORTS.

6. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER ALSO POINTED OUT THAT, IF WE CRITICIZE CHILE, SIMILARLY WE SHOULD CONDEMN CUBA WHICH FOR MORE THAN TWENTY-FIVE YEARS HAS BEEN GETTING AWAY WITH WORSE PRACTICES. IN FACT, ONE REASON CUBA HAS ESCAPED CLOSER SCRUTINY IS BECAUSE THE INTERNATIONAL PRESS HAS RELATIVELY OPEN ACCESS TO, FOR EXAMPLE, SANTIAGO, BUT CONFIDENTIAL

FINDS HAVANA CLOSED. JUST RECENTLY, HE CONTINUED, THE CUBANS HUSTLED OUT TWO AMERICAN JOURNALISTS FOR CONTACTING PEOPLE THE CUBAN AUTHORITIES DIDN'T WANT CONTACTED.

WELFARE/WHEREABOUTS: CASE OF NICHOLAS BLAKE AND GRIFFITH DAVIS

REF: MEXICO

1. SAM BLAKE CALLED THE DEPARTMENT JUNE 9 TO REPORT ON THE RESULTS OF THE TRIP HE AND HIS BROTHER TOOK TO MEXICO. HE SAID THEY MET WITH JOURNALISTS, AMERICAN EMBASSY OFFICIALS, EGP REPRESENTATIVES, AND A FIRST SECRETARY FROM THE EMBASSY OF NICARAGUA. HE BELIEVES THEY HAVE STRONG CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE THAT THE EGP IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR BROTHER'S DISAPPEARANCE. AS REPORTED REFTEL, THEY WISH TO REQUEST ASSISTANCE FROM THE EGP AND ANYONE WHO MAY HAVE INFLUENCE OVER THE GROUP. IF, AFTER A CERTAIN TIME, THE ASSISTANCE IS NOT FORTHCOMING, THE BROTHERS PLAN TO ORCHESTRATE A PUBLIC CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE GROUP AND ITS SUPPORTERS.

2. THE BLAKES EXPRESSED GRATITUDE FOR THE LEVEL OF INTEREST SHOWED BY AMEMBASSY MEXICO. THEY WERE PARTICULARLY IMPRESSED BY CONOFF KEN GRASTI. THEY ~~EXPRESSED~~ APOLOGIZED TO AMEMBASSY MANAGUA FOR THEIR FAILURE TO APPEAR, BUT THE MEETING BETWEEN RANDY BLAKE

AND THE NICARAGUAN EMBASSY WAS MARKED BY ACRIMONY AND THEY HAVE ABANDONED PLANS TO PERSONALLY PURSUE THE CASE WITH NICARAGUAN OFFICIALS FOR THE TIME BEING.

3. BECAUSE NICK BLAKE DEALT DIRECTLY WITH THE SANDINISTA GOVERNMENT IN ORDER TO GET ACCESS TO THE EGP, THE BROTHERS ARE CONVINCED THERE IS AN OPEN, OFFICIAL RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THAT GOVERNMENT AND THE INSURGENTS IN GUATEMALA. THEY HAVE ASKED THE U.S. EMBASSY IN MANAGUA TO APPROACH FOREIGN MINISTRY OFFICIALS THERE ONCE AGAIN ABOUT THE CASE. DEPARTMENT REQUESTS THAT POST ASK APPROPRIATE NICARAGUAN OFFICIALS WHETHER THEY WOULD BE ABLE TO INTERCEDE WITH CONTACTS IN GUATEMALA AND LEARN WHAT BECAME OF NICHOLAS BLAKE AND GRIFFITH DAVIS. PLEASE ADVISE THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ANSWER. SAM AND RANDY BLAKE PLAN TO BASE FUTURE ACTIVITIES ON BEHALF OF THEIR BROTHER ON THE RESPONSE. YY

Norma - I'd prefer a note; if the brothers suspicions have any basis in fact. Advise me. Ramsey

SUBJECT: Public Diplomacy Plan for Central America (U)

The NSC Staff approves the Public Diplomacy Plan submitted by the Department of State on this subject. We note that there has been considerable progress in the realization of our public diplomacy goals concerning Central America among European audiences. We must, however, continue to emphasize our comprehensive policy towards Central America at the same time that we focus on the specific question of Nicaragua. (C)

There is a need to maintain this as a high priority of our missions Europe and Latin America. The opposition is engaged in an intensive propaganda effort to sustain their point of view in these areas, and our activity must be at a high level to gain support for our policies. In addition to the continued provision of important materials to the field missions, we must keep up a flow of speakers to the target areas. We must also seek to utilize, as much as possible, Central American spokesmen to speak on their own behalf in Latin America and Europe. Posts in Europe and Latin America should find ways to encourage locals to travel to Central America to gain on-the-ground knowledge of what is happening. (C)

SUBJECT: READOUT ON NUCLEAR AND NUCLEAR SAFETY ISSUES

1. (C) DURING A CONVERSATION ON OTHER ISSUES, MIGUEL MEDINA THE HEAD OF THE MEXICAN COMMISSION ON NUCLEAR SAFETY AND SECURITY (CNSNS) MADE THE FOLLOWING POINTS OF INTEREST TO U.S. AGENCIES:

-- THE GOM IS BEING PRESSURED BY ENVIRONMENTAL GROUPS CONCERNING THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR POWER PLANT. THE GROUPS ARE TRYING TO GET THE GOM TO CONVERT THE PLANT TO BURN GAS OR COAL.

-- CNSNS IS NOT PERMITTED TO RESPOND IN THE PRESS TO THE CHARGES OF ENVIRONMENTAL GROUPS.

-- FUEL LOADING AT UNIT ONE AT LAGUNA VERDE IS SCHEDULED FOR JAN. 1987. ALTHOUGH THIS WILL NOT BE STATED PUBLICLY, THE TESTING PHASE FOR THE REACTOR WILL PROBABLY EXTEND LONGER THAN THE SCHEDULED EIGHT MONTHS BECAUSE A LARGE NUMBER OF SYSTEMS HAVE NOT YET BEEN TESTED.

-- ANOTHER IAEA SAFETY TEAM WILL VISIT THE REACTOR

FOLLOWING FUEL LOADING.

--CNSNS HAS FINALLY HAD ITS BUDGET FOR THE YEAR RELEASED, BUT HAS NOT YET RECEIVED FORMAL CLEARANCE TO SPEND FUNDS TO PURCHASE EQUIPMENT OR FACILITIES.

-- CNSNS, WORKING WITH UNIVERSITIES AND THE SECRETARIAT OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND ECOLOGY (SEDUE) WILL CONSTRUCT A RADIATION MONITORING NETWORK ALONG THE U.S.-MEXICO FRONTIER AREA.

-- CNSNS' AGREEMENTS WITH NRC ARE STALLED IN THE NORTH AMERICAN AFFAIRS DIVISION OF THE SECRETARIAT OF FOREIGN RELATIONS.

2. (U) JULIAN SANCHEZ OF THE NUCLEAR SAFETY DIVISION OF CNSNS ALSO NOTED THAT NRC HAD SENT COPIES OF CERTAIN NUREG'S TO THE EMBASSY FOR TRANSMITTAL TO THE CNSNS. EMBASSY HAS NOT YET RECEIVED THE NUREGS.

E.O. 12356: N/A
TAGS: ENRG, MX
SUBJECT: EMBASSY REPORTING PLAN: ELECTRICAL SECTOR

REF: 85 MEXICO 8359

1. SUMMARY: MEXICO'S NATIONAL ENERGY PLAN SETS OUT THE COUNTRY'S GOALS AND ASPIRATIONS FOR THE ELECTRICITY GENERATING SECTOR. IT EXPRESSES THE DESIRE TO DIVERSIFY SOURCES AWAY FROM THE SECTOR'S HEAVY DEPENDENCE ON HYDROCARBONS (OIL AND GAS). ALTERNATIVE ENERGY SOURCES, HOWEVER, ARE NOT PROMISING AND TEND TO BE MUCH MORE EXPENSIVE. FOR MANY YEARS NOW THE FEDERAL ELECTRICITY COMMISSION (CFE), WHICH PRODUCES AND SELLS ALL COMMERCIAL ELECTRICITY, HAS SOLD ELECTRICITY AT PRICES WELL BELOW COSTS. A HUGE DEBT HAS RESULTED. THE GOM NOW IS ADDRESSING THIS ISSUE AND HAS SET A HIGH PRIORITY ON PUTTING CFE ON A SOUND FINANCIAL BASE. SINCE 1982 ELECTRICITY RATES HAVE INCREASED SUBSTANTIALLY ALTHOUGH NOT ALL SUBSIDIES HAVE BEEN REMOVED. THE COUNTRY'S MAJOR SOURCES OF ELECTRICITY IN 1985 ARE HYDROCARBONS (62
UNCLASSIFIED

PERCENT), WATER (31 PERCENT), GEOTHERMAL (2 PERCENT) AND COAL (4 PERCENT). THE MAJOR USERS OF ELECTRICITY WERE INDUSTRY (57 PERCENT), DOMESTIC/RESIDENTIAL (20 PERCENT), COMMERCIAL/SERVICE SECTORS (16 PERCENT) AND AGRICULTURE (7 PERCENT). END SUMMARY.

2. THE NATIONAL ENERGY PLAN (NEP) FOR MEXICO CALLS FOR DIVERSIFICATION OF THE COUNTRY'S ENERGY RESOURCES. ALTHOUGH IT IS WIDELY RECOGNIZED THAT MEXICO WOULD LIKE TO MOVE AWAY FROM ITS DEPENDENCE ON HYDROCARBONS AS THE PRINCIPAL SOURCE OF ENERGY, THE ENERGY PLAN PUTS IT MORE OBLIQUELY. THE NEP WANTS TO ACHIEVE GREATER COORDINATION AMONG THE ENTITIES IN THE ENERGY SECTOR WHICH WILL GUARANTEE THE BEST COMBINATION OF PRIMARY SOURCES AND ENSURES A LONG TERM SUPPLY AT THE LOWEST COST. OTHER POINTS INCLUDE INCREASING THE NATIONAL CAPACITY FOR THE DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION OF POWER PLANTS BASED ON ALTERNATIVE SOURCES, TO SPUR THE DEVELOPMENT OF THERMOELECTRIC FACILITIES THAT CAN OPERATE ON ALTERNATIVE FUELS AND TO ESTABLISH REALISTIC PRICING. THE ALTERNATIVE SOURCES FOR ELECTRICAL ENERGY ARE HYDROENERGY, COAL, NUCLEAR POWER AND GEOTHERMAL. NON-CONVENTIONAL SOURCES SUCH AS SOLAR, WIND AND BIOMASS ARE TO BE ENCOURAGED ALONG WITH THE POSSIBILITIES FOR COGENERATION.

3. A MAJOR PROBLEM RE DIVERSIFICATION AWAY FROM HYDROCARBONS IN THE GENERATION OF ELECTRICITY IS THAT HYDROCARBONS REMAIN ABUNDANT AND COMPARATIVELY LESS EXPENSIVE. THE ALTERNATIVE SOURCES SUFFER FROM HIGHER COST AND REGIONAL VARIATIONS. ABUNDANT WATER, FOR INSTANCE, IS IN THE SOUTHERN PORTION OF THE COUNTRY WHERE MOST OF THE HYDROENERGY OPPORTUNITIES HAVE BEEN DEVELOPED

BUT ARE FAR FROM THE AREAS WHERE DEMAND IS STRONGEST. GEOTHERMAL PROSPECTS LAY MOSTLY IN THE NORTHWESTERN AREA WHICH HAS NOT YET BEEN TIED INTO THE NATIONAL GRID. COAL IS IN LIMITED QUANTITIES AND NOT THE BEST QUALITY FOR GENERATING ELECTRICITY. MEXICO IS CONSIDERING THE POSSIBILITY OF IMPORTING COAL; NO CONTRACTS HAVE YET BEEN SIGNED. NUCLEAR POWER IS ENORMOUSLY EXPENSIVE TO INSTALL. THE ORIGINAL PLAN CALLED FOR ABOUT $463 PER KILOWATT HOUR; THIS FIGURE IS NOW ABOUT $2,300. MEXICO HAS TWO UNITS UNDER CONSTRUCTION AT LAGUNA VERDE. FUEL LOADING IS SCHEDULED FOR UNIT ONE IN DECEMBER 1986, WITH FULL COMMERCIAL OPERATION LIKELY BEFORE DECEMBER 1987. UNIT TWO IS ABOUT 50 PERCENT COMPLETE AND CERTAINLY WILL

4. CURRENTLY ABOUT 25,000 LOCALITIES AND OVER 55 MILLION PEOPLE IN MEXICO HAVE ACCESS TO ELECTRICITY. THE GOAL FOR 1988 IS 30,000 LOCALITIES AND 65 MILLION PEOPLE. STILL BY 1990 A LARGE NUMBER OF AREAS AND PEOPLE WILL NOT HAVE ELECTRICITY. THIS PROSPECT REINFORCES THE NEED TO SUPPORT OPTIONS OF NON-CONVENTIONAL SOURCES. ONCE AGAIN, HOWEVER, MEXICO IS FACED WITH LIMITED FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND IT IS DIFFICULT TO FORESEE FROM WHERE THE INVESTMENT FUNDS CAN COME.

5. IN FACT, ONE OF THE MOST SERIOUS PROBLEMS FACED BY FEDERAL ELECTRICITY COMMISSION (CFE) TODAY IS FINANCIAL. PRIOR TO THE 1965-66 PERIOD CFE'S REVENUES COVERED ITS COSTS AND PROVIDED SOME FUNDS FOR INVESTMENTS. SOME EXTERNAL CREDITS ALSO WERE AVAILABLE FROM THE WORLD BANK, THE EXPORT-IMPORT BANK AND FROM SUPPLIERS. SINCE

THIS TIME, HOWEVER, THE ONSET OF ECONOMIC DIFFICULTIES AND CHANGES IN THE GOM FINANCE POLICIES, HAVE PUT CFE IN THE RED. SUBSIDIES DURING THIS TIME WERE MADE EXPLICIT BY THE GOVERNMENT TO SUPPORT INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AND PROVIDE CHEAP ELECTRICITY FOR RESIDENTIAL AND COMMERCIAL USES.

6. THE NEP RECOGNIZED THAT LOW ENERGY PRICES HAVE LED TO INEFFICIENT AND WASTEFUL CONSUMPTION PATTERNS. IN ADDITION, CFE HAS BUILT UP A LARGE "DEBT" FROM ITS OPERATING DEFICIT. THE PRESIDENT RECOGNIZED THIS FACT IN 1984 WHEN HE SAID THAT PUTTING CFE ON A SOUND FINANCIAL BASIS WAS ONE OF THE GOVERNMENT'S MAJOR DOMESTIC PRIORITIES. IN FACT THE GOVERNMENT MOVED IN JANUARY 1985 TO RESTRUCTURE ELECTRIC RATES SO THAT LARGE USERS PAY MORE. CFE HAS NOT YET ACHIEVED FULL COST RECOVERY IN ITS PRICES BUT MOVEMENT IS BEING MADE IN THAT DIRECTION. CURRENTLY, PRICES COVER ABOUT 90 PERCENT OF COSTS BUT BY UNCLASSIFIED

7. THE MAJOR SOURCES OF ELECTRICAL POWER IN MEXICO IN 1985 WERE THERMAL FROM HYDROCARBON FUELS (62 PERCENT) HYDRO PROJECTS (31 PERCENT), GEOTHERMAL FIELDS (1 PERCENT) AND COAL FIRED (4 PERCENT). THE FIGURES FOR 1984 WERE 61 PERCENT, 34 PERCENT, 1 PERCENT, AND 3 PERCENT, RESPECTIVELY. SIX YEARS AGO THE FIGURES WERE 64 PERCENT, 35 PERCENT, AND 0.5 PERCENT FROM GEOTHERMAL; THERE WERE NO PLANTS USING COAL. AS THE FIGURES SHOW LITTLE PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE IN DIVERSIFYING THE SOURCES OF ELECTRICAL POWER ALTHOUGH THE TREND IS IN THE DESIRED DIRECTION. IN 1985 THE INSTALLED OPERATING CAPACITY WAS 19,984 MW. THIS FIGURE REACH 20,806 MW IN 1985. CFE REPORTS THAT THE ANNUAL GROWTH RATE FOR ELECTRICITY USE IS ABOUT 6-1/2 PERCENT OF WHICH 1 PERCENT IS FOR EXPORT.

8. THE INCREASE IN INSTALLED CAPACITY OF 4 PERCENT FROM 1984 TO 1985 WAS ACCOUNTED FOR BY THE ADDITION OF A GEOTHERMAL UNIT AT CERRO PRIETO AND STEAM PLANTS AT EL SAUZ, PUNTA PRIETA, LIBERTAD AND CIUDAD JUAREZ. UNITS

WHICH HAD BEEN PLANNED FOR 1985 NOW WITH COMPLETION DATES IN 1986 WERE STEAM PLANTS AT TULA (2 UNITS) AND SAN LUIS POTOSI, A COAL UNIT AT RIO ESCONDIDO, AND A GEOTHERMAL UNIT AT CERRO PRIETO. CURRENT PLANS FOR 1986 CALL FOR THE INSTALLATION OF 14 PLANTS ADDING ABOUT 2,303 MW TO THE NATIONAL CAPACITY. A SHORTAGE OF INVESTMENT FUNDS PROBABLY WILL BE TRANSLATED INTO "STRETCHED OUT" PROJECTS. AS WE SAW 1985 PROJECT SLIP INTO 1986 SO WE UNCLASSIFIED

9. IN 1985, THE MAJOR USERS OF ELECTRICAL WERE INDUSTRY (57 PERCENT), RESIDENTIAL (20 PERCENT), COMMERCIAL/SERVICE SECTORS (16 PERCENT) AND AGRICULTURE (7 PERCENT). THESE FIGURES IN 1984 WERE 57 PERCENT, 20 PERCENT, 17 PERCENT, AND 7 PERCENT; THERE WAS NO SIGNIFICANT CHANGE FROM 1984 TO 1985. THE FOLLOWING IS A TABLE OF ELECTRICITY SALES FOR THE YEARS 1979-85:

10. MEXICO HAS HAD MODEST ELECTRICAL EXCHANGE PROGRAMS

NOW FOR SOME YEARS ACROSS THE BORDER AT TEXAS AND CALIFORNIA. THESE ARRANGEMENTS WERE MADE FOR CONVENIENCE UNTIL MEXICO BEGAN TO DEVELOP ITS GEOTHERMAL FACILITIES AT CERRO PRIETO NEAR THE CITY OF MEXICALI. THE FEDERAL ELECTRIC COMMISSION (CFE) NOW HAS AN AGREEMENT WITH SAN DIEGO GAS AND ELECTRIC (SDGE) AND SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON (SCE) TO SELL ELECTRICITY. PRIOR TO 1985, MEXICO
UNCLASSIFIED

WAS SELLING ONLY SURPLUS ELECTRICITY ACROSS THE BORDER, MAKING MEXICO AN OVERALL NET EXPORTER. THE FOLLOWING IS A TABLE OF IMPORTS, EXPORTS AND EXCHANGES OF ELECTRICITY FOR THE YEARS 1975-85: (GIGAWATT HOURS)

YEAR	IMPORTS	EXPORTS	EXCHANGES (1)

(1) EXCHANGES ARE PAID FOR "IN KIND."
AFTER THE SETBACK RESULTING FROM AN EXPLOSION AND FIRE AT THE CERRO PRIETO GEOTHERMAL FACILITIES IN JANUARY 1985, CFE RECOVERED SOMEWHAT ITS EXPORT CAPABILITY SO THAT BY THE END OF THIS YEAR ALL EXPORT CAPACITY SHOULD BE IN PLACE. EXPORTS OF ELECTRICITY SHOULD EARN THE COUNTRY SOME $70-80 MILLION THIS YEAR.

11. SINCE DECEMBER 1982, MEXICO HAS MOVED TOWARD MORE REALISTIC PRICES FOR ENERGY UNITS. (SEE TABLE IV BELOW FOR PRICE HISTORY 1974-85). IN JANUARY 1985, SUBSTANTIAL INCREASES WERE MADE IN ELECTRICITY RATES. THE AVERAGE INCREASE WAS 18 PERCENT BUT DOMESTIC USERS EXCEEDING 50 KILOWATT HOURS PER MONTH WILL BE CHARGED AT A HIGHER

RATE. RATE INCREASES IN 1984 WERE 35 PERCENT. THE 1985 RATE INCREASES, HOWEVER, PROVIDED FOR A 2.5 PERCENT PER MONTH INCREASE EACH MONTH AFTER FEBRUARY EXCEPT FOR AGRICULTURAL USERS. THE NEW RATES ARE EXPECTED TO MOVE CFE AWAY FROM THE OVER 200 BILLION PESO (CURRENT RATE OF EXCHANGE IS 630 PESOS TO THE DOLLAR) PER YEAR SUBSIDY BILL AND PROVIDE FUNDS FOR INVESTMENTS DURING 1986. THESE NEW RATES SHOULD MOVE THE SYSTEM TO WITHIN ABOUT 90 PERCENT OF ITS COSTS. SOME FACILITIES SUCH AS THE CERRO PRIETO GEOTHERMAL PLANTS EXPECT TO REALIZE INCOME IN EXCESS OF COSTS. AT SOME POINT YET TO BE DETERMINED THE SLIDING SCALE OF RATE INCREASES WILL PUT CFE OUT OF THE SUBSIDY BUSINESS ALTOGETHER, EXCEPT FOR ELECTRICITY TO WATER PUMPING UNITS FOR IRRIGATION. THESE LATTER RATES CFE OFFICIALS ANTICIPATE WILL BE KEPT WELL BELOW COSTS AS A FORM OF GOVERNMENT AID TO AGRICULTURE. A POSSIBLE HITCH IN THIS PLAN IS THE VERY HIGH INFLATION RATE BEING RECORDED, PERHAPS OVER 100 PERCENT IN 1986.

PLANS AS IT IS IN THE ENERGY SECTOR AT LARGE. MEXICO IS FAIRLY SELF-SUFFICIENT IN CERTAIN SMALLER ITEMS BUT IS AT A COMPARATIVE DISADVANTAGE FOR THE LARGER TRANSFORMER/GENERATOR ITEMS. NEVERTHELESS, THERE IS AN ACTIVE EFFORT TO ENCOURAGE LOCAL PRODUCTION. AND ALONG THESE LINES THE GOVERNMENT HAS STEPPED UP ITS EFFORTS TO COORDINATE AMONG THE VARIOUS ENERGY ENTITIES IN THE SECTOR TO FOSTER A WIDER BASE FOR PROCUREMENT. SOME CFE OFFICIALS BELIEVE THAT MORE EFFORT IS NEEDED IN THIS AREA, ESPECIALLY IN STANDARDIZED SPECIFICATIONS FOR SUCH ITEMS AS MOTORS AND OTHER MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT.

16. SO FAR IN 1986 THE OUTLOOK FOR SUFFICIENT RAINS TO STOCK HYDROELECTRIC RESERVOIRS AT LEAST IN THE SOUTH IS GOOD. THE DROP IN NATURAL GAS PRODUCTION HAS INCREASED THE DEMAND FOR FUEL OIL TO FIRE THE THERMAL PLANTS. NO COAL IMPORTS ARE IN THE PLANS FOR 1986. WHILE SOME INCREASED PRODUCTION IS EXPECTED FROM THE GEOTHERMAL FIELDS, WE SEE LITTLE CHANGE IN THE SOURCE OR USE PATTERNS FOR ELECTRICAL ENERGY IN 1986.

5. WITH REGARDS TO CHILE, AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER STRESSED THE NEED TO ACHIEVE A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT. OUR POLICY IS TO SUPPORT DIALOGUE BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND ALL THOSE ELEMENTS, FROM RIGHT OF CENTER TO LEFT OF CENTER, WHO ARE INTERESTED IN DEMOCRACY. EFFORTS BY SOME ELEMENTS OF THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION TO FORM TACTICAL ALLIANCES WITH THE COMMUNISTS ARE LIKELY TO STRENGTHEN THE HAND OF HARDLINERS WITHIN THE MILITARY AND THUS ARE COUNTERPRODUCTIVE. WE HAVE NO ASSURANCE OF SUCCESS FOR OUR POLICY BUT ARE DETERMINED TO CONTINUE PRESSING IT, ESPECIALLY WITH THE MILITARY. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER NOTED THAT WE ARE DISTURBED BY SUCH TENDENCIES AS USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE IN SUPPRESSING DISSENT, POLICE SWEEPS IN URBAN AREAS, AND THE CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY. HE OBSERVED THAT WE RECOGNIZE THAT CHILE HAS A TERRORISM PROBLEM WITH WHICH IT MUST COPE, BUT THAT WE BELIEVE IT MUST DO SO UNDER THE RULE OF LAW. FINALLY, HE POINTED TO OUR INITIATIVE IN THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, AND SAID THAT WE ARE CONSIDERING SPONSORING A SIMILAR RESOLUTION AT THE UNGA AND WOULD WELCOME THE COMMENTS AND SUPPORT OF OUR WESTERN EUROPEAN FRIENDS.

6. ELIASSEN OBSERVED THAT PINOCHET HAS SAID HE WILL STAY IN POWER UNTIL 1989 -- COULD THERE BE A PEACEFUL TRANSITION WITH PINOCHET IN POWER? AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER RESPONDED THAT WE RECOGNIZE PINOCHET AS A HARDLINER. THE QUESTION IS WHETHER OTHER ELEMENTS IN THE MILITARY WILL CONCLUDE IT IS IN EVERYONE'S BEST INTEREST TO PROCEED WITH A PEACEFUL TRANSITION AND WHETHER THEY CAN PERSUADE PINOCHET TO ACCEPT THAT VIEW.

1. [redacted] - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SHIPMENT OF NUCLEAR FUEL CYCLE MATERIALS IS A RARE EVENT IN MEXICO. WE ARE UNAWARE OF ANY SHIPMENT OF SIGNIFICANT QUANTITIES OF PLUTONIUM OR MIXED OXIDE FUEL AND DO NOT HAVE ANY INFORMATION THAT SUCH MATERIALS EXIST IN MEXICO EXCEPT IN QUANTITIES SUITABLE FOR LABORATORY STANDARDS. MEXICO HAS NOT RECEIVED A SHIPMENT OF HIGHLY ENRICHED URANIUM IN THIS DECADE TO OUR KNOWLEDGE. MEXICO'S POWER REACTORS HAVE NOT YET OPERATED SO THAT NO LARGE QUANTITIES OF SPENT FUEL HAVE YET BEEN PRODUCED HERE. THE ONLY SPENT FUEL WOULD BE FROM THE TRIGA RESEARCH REACTOR AT THE INSTITUTE FOR NUCLEAR RESEARCH (ININ). THIS SPENT FUEL WOULD BE LOW IN PLUTONIUM CONTENT. MOREOVER, MOST - IF NOT ALL - OF THE REACTOR'S FUEL SUPPLY IS STILL BEING USED AT ININ.

3. WITH REGARD TO THE SHIPMENT OF NUCLEAR MATERIALS IN GENERAL, THE GOM IS NOT A PARTY TO THE CONVENTION ON [redacted]

IN ADDITION, THE RELEVANT GOM AGENCIES ARE WELL ACQUAINTED WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THE U.S. CODE OF FEDERAL REGULATIONS FOR THE SHIPMENT OF NUCLEAR MATERIAL.

4. THE GOM AGENCIES INVOLVED IN SHIPMENT'S OF NUCLEAR MATERIAL ARE THE NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR NUCLEAR SAFETY AND SAFEGUARDS (CNSNS) WHICH IS THE MEXICAN COUNTERPART TO THE USNRC AND IS IN CHARGE OF SUCH SHIPMENTS, THE SECRETARIAT OF ENERGY AND PARASTATAL INDUSTRIES (SEMIP), WHOSE U.S. COUNTERPART WOULD BE DOE, ELEMENTS OF THE MEXICAN MILITARY, AND RELEVANT FEDERAL POLICE AGENCIES AND THE SECRETARIAT OF COMMUNICATIONS AND TRANSPORTS. FOR THE HIGHWAY SHIPMENT OF NUCLEAR MATERIALS, FOR EXAMPLE, ESCORT BY THE FEDERAL HIGHWAY POLICE IS PROVIDED. THE MEXICAN MARINES OR ARMY ARE OFTEN TASKED WITH THE PHYSICAL SECURITY OF NUCLEAR MATERIAL AT MEXICAN INSTALLATIONS. FOR EXAMPLE, PHYSICAL SECURITY OF LEU FUEL FOR THE LAGUNA VERDE POWER REACTOR IS CURRENTLY PROVIDED BY MEXICAN MARINES.

5. THE NUCLEAR SHIPMENTS OF WHICH THE EMBASSY IS AWARE, HAVE BEEN MADE BY TRUCK. THE EMBASSY IS UNAWARE OF ANY THREATS OR INCIDENTS INVOLVING THE SHIPMENT OF NUCLEAR MATERIAL IN MEXICO.

1. CONFIDENTIAL-ENTIRE TEXT.

2. BEGIN SUMMARY: HA CONTINUED ITS SERIES OF HUMAN RIGHTS BILATERAL DISCUSSIONS IN A MEETING WITH SPANISH AMBASSADOR. WHILE TOUCHING ON AFRICA AND THE CSCE PROCESS THE MEETING FOCUSED ON LATIN AMERICA AND PARTICULARLY ON CHILE. AMBASSADOR MANUECO NOTED THAT BOTH CHILE AND CUBA WERE POLITICALLY SENSITIVE ISSUES IN SPAIN, AND THAT POLITICIANS AND HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS MIGHT TAKE THE INITIATIVE AWAY FROM THE PROFESSIONAL DIPLOMATS ON THESE ISSUES. [NR

1] AMBASSADOR MANUECO CONCLUDED BY WELCOMING THESE EXCHANGES, AND SAYING THAT HE WOULD REPORT THE IDEAS THAT HAD COME OUT OF THEM TO MADRID WITH HIS SUPPORT. END SUMMARY.

3. THE HA BUREAU CONTINUED ITS SERIES OF BILATERAL HUMAN RIGHTS DISCUSSIONS IN A JUNE 26 MEETING WITH SPANISH AMBASSADOR GABRIEL MANUECO. THE DEPARTMENT WAS REPRESENTED BY HA ASSISTANT SECRETARY RICHARD SCHIFTER, HA/MLP: TOM WILLIAMS, HA: GEORGE LISTER, AND HA/MLP: STAN IFSHIN (NOTETAKER).

TURNING TO CHILE, MANUECO NOTED THAT THE SPANISH AMBASSADOR IN SANTIAGO IS A FORMER UNDERSECRETARY OF THE MINISTRY AND VERY MUCH A PROFESSIONAL DIPLOMAT. HE ADDED THAT SPAIN IS IN TOUCH WITH THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS IN CHILE. "WE ARE NOT DUPED BY PROPOGANDA ON CHILE OR NICARAGUA. PRIME MINISTER GONZALES 'KNOWS THEM.'

. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER BEGAN WITH CHILE. HE NOTED THAT WE ALL WANT TO SEE A STRENGTHENING OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTIES, AND A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY. HE CONTINUED THAT THERE WAS ONE AREA WHERE SPAIN COULD PLAY A CRUCIAL ROLE--A KEY ELEMENT IN SUCH A TRANSITION IS THE FAITH OF THE MILITARY IN THE MODERATES WHO WILL BE CALLED UPON TO LEAD THE COUNTRY. THE MILITARY MUST BE ASSURED THAT CIVILIAN LEADERS WILL NOT RETURN THE COUNTRY TO THE SITUATION IN THE EARLY 70S; THERE MUST BE NO ALLIANCES WITH LENINISTS. SOME PERSONS IN THE CHILEAN DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION SAY THERE IS NO ALLIANCE, BUT MERELY A TACTICAL ARRANGEMENT, BUT THIS CREATES A SITUATION WHERE CHILEAN HARDLINERS CAN SAY TO MODERATES IN THE MILITARY "YOU CAN'T TRUST THEM, THEY ARE IN BED WITH THE COMMUNISTS." IF SPAIN WERE TO WARN THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION TO ESCHEW CONTACTS WITH THE COMMUNISTS IT WOULD HAVE GREAT CREDIBILITY.

. MANUECO RESPONDED BY POINTING TO THE COMPLEXITY OF

SPANISH-CHILEAN RELATIONS. PINOCHET, HE NOTED, HAS TRIED TO EMULATE FRANCISCO FRANCO. THIS CREATES A DIFFICULT SITUATION FOR ANY SPANISH POLITICIAN DEALING WITH CHILE. MOREOVER, CONTACTS WITH THE CHILEAN MILITARY RAISE RISKS WITH REGARD TO SPANISH PUBLIC OPINION. THE SPANISH MILITARY IS NOW TRYING TO BE VERY PROFESSIONAL; THE CHILEAN MILITARY WAS VERY DISCIPLINED, VERY PROFESSIONAL. THERE ARE ALL SORTS OF UNEASY VIBRATIONS IN CONTACTS WITH THE CHILEAN MILITARY. USING THE ANALOGY OF SPAIN AFTER THE DEATH OF FRANCO, MANUECO POINTED OUT THAT IT WAS VERY DIFFICULT TO PROMOTE CONTACT BETWEEN OPPONENTS OF FRANCO AND PERSONS WHO HAD COOPERATED WITH THE REGIME, AND TRUST COULD ONLY BE BUILT UP OVER TIME. SIMILARLY IT WILL BE DIFFICULT TO ESTABLISH CONTACT

BETWEEN THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION AND THE CHILEAN MILITARY.

3. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER REPEATED THE IMPORTANCE OF PERSUADING THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION TO AVOID CONTACTS WITH THE COMMUNISTS, THAT THE MILITARY NEEDS TO BE ASSURED THAT THE LENINISTS HAVE NOT ENTRENCHED THEMSELVES WITHIN OPPOSITION STRUCTURES. MANUECO SAID "THE MILITARY MUST BE PEPARED TO TAKE RISKS." SCHIFTER POINTED TO THE COMMUNIST ROLE IN THE SPANISH CIVIL WAR, HOW THEY HAD EMBEDDED THEMSELVES AND USURPED THE LEADING POSITION. MANUECO RETURNED TO THE THEME "HOW TO PERSUADE THE MILITARY." SCHIFTER RESPONDED THAT WE COULD LEAVE THIS PROBLEM TO OUR RESPECTIVE AMBASSADORS IN SANTIAGO, BUT, HE REITERATED, SPAIN IS UNIQUELY CAPABLE OF CONVEYING THE MESSAGE TO THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION IN CHILE REGARDING THE IMPORTANCE OF AVOIDING CONTACTS WITH THE COMMUNISTS. MANUECO SAID THAT COMMUNICATING WITH THE OPPOSITION PARTIES "IS EASY" AND THAT HE WOULD CONVEY THE IDEA TO MADRID. HOWEVER, HE ADDED, "WHAT THE REACTION IN MADRID WILL BE I DON'T KNOW." EVERYONE, HE EXPLAINED, SEES SUCH THINGS THROUGH THE PRISM OF THEIR OWN EXPERIENCE, AND SPANISH POLITICIANS MAY BE RELUCTANT TO ADVISE CHILEAN POLITICIANS ON SUCH MATTERS.

4. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER REVIEWED THE RECORD OF SPANISH INVOLVEMENT IN OUR CHILE INITIATIVE AT THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION. HE NOTED THAT THE SPANISH AMBASSADOR IN SANTIAGO HAD SEEMED TO SUPPORT OUR RESOLUTION. SIMILARLY, THE SPANISH REPRESENTATIVE IN GENEVA SEEMED TO THINK OUR RESOLUTION MADE SENSE. BUT SOMETHING SEEMED TO HAVE GONE WRONG IN MADRID, AND SPAIN HAD SUPPORTED THE COMPETING MEXICAN DRAFT WHICH IN OUR VIEW WAS POLEMICAL AND HENCE COUNTERPRODUCTIVE. MANUECO NOTED THAT CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS IS A POLITICAL ISSUE IN SPAIN. MANY PERSONS ACTIVE IN HUMAN RIGHTS TODAY WERE ANTI-FRANCO ELEMENTS, TO THIS DAY THEY DON'T BELIEVE THAT COEXISTENCE WITH FRANCO WAS A GOOD POLICY. MOREOVER, MANUECO CONTINUED, MEXICO HAS INFLUENCE WITH CERTAIN POLITICIANS IN SPAIN. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER SAID WE WOULD LIKE TO PROVIDE COPIES OF THE TEXTS OF THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION AND OURS FOR THE AMBASSADOR TO COMPARE. THEREAFTER, WE'D LIKE TO DISCUSS IT WITH HIM.

After much discussion, Bob Kagan, who was Elliot Abrams' Special Assistant, was named as Otto's replacement. Kagan's office was folded under ARA for command and control but continues to have a reporting responsibility to the IPC and the SPG as part of my effort to give it an interagency mandate. It remains to be seen if this will weaken the effort. One key will be the need for people to be assigned from an interagency pool.

Meanwhile, I continue to chair weekly meetings to sustain the public diplomacy effort. They are attended by Kagan, Speakes rep, Buchanan rep, DOD, CIA, USIA and NSC LA officer. (When there is a Sitrm mtg of the Centam coordinating group for Hill strategy we get a feed from that group). Our brief is much broader. We seek to lay out and implement broader international strategies, particularly in LA and EUR. We approved a new strategy paper on 16 June which was sent out over Rod McDaniel's signature. This basically calls for a sustained effort to garner support for our overall Centam policy, increase understanding of the issues and, in the specific case of Nica, concentrate on gluing black hats on the Sandinistas and white hats on UNO. We have requested a community report on the level of activity sustained under the latest NSC PD tasking by 31 Aug.

The group has produced an outstanding collection of materials to suuport our policy. It is also light years ahead of where it was three years ago, but much work needs to be done. At our most recent weekly Centam mtg the following items were covered:

--Senate strategy: Focus on key Senators who can be brought over to increase victory margin and show momentum.

--Maximize exposure for Bishop Bismarck Carvallo and La Prensa to highlight Nic internal crackdown. Lousy coverage to date in foreign press and not much better in US.

--Play on key themes in Europe which will strengthen our case:

o Popularize Centam support for UNO. Note USIA poll which showed popular support for armed opposition to Nics in Honduras and Costa Rica.

o We are on the winning side. The House vote can help convince the Europeans that we will see this through...we are not going to be blown away by the Hill. It is always politically easier to support a winner.

UNCLASSIFIED

DO 63427

--Arms Display--use on Hill or at UN. This does not mean to say everything is perfect, but there is a process under way and world opinion, often fluctuating because of many reasons includng the East-West Relationship, has been gradually moving. We have to sustain it.

SUBJECT: AMBASSADOR HABIB'S MEETING IN COSTA RICA

~~1. SECRET - ENTIRE TEXT~~

2. SUMMARY: AMBASSADORS HABIB AND TAMBS MET WITH PRESIDENT ARIAS AND FOREIGN MINISTER MADRIGAL ON JUNE 10 TO REVIEW CONTADORA DEVELOPMENTS. HABIB EXPLAINED THAT THE PURPOSE OF HIS MISSION WAS TO MAKE CLEAR OUR DESIRE TO KEEP THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK ALIVE AS WE INCREASE PRESSURE ON THE SANDINISTAS. WE WERE PLEASED THAT THE CORE FOUR NOW HAD THE INITIATIVE IN THE NEGOTIATIONS; WE WERE PREPARED TO SUPPORT A UNIFIED CORE FOUR POSITION, ASSUMING THAT IT WAS CONSISTENT WITH OUR CRITERIA. ARIAS EXPRESSED PESSIMISM ABOUT THE POSSIBILITY OF A NEGOTIATED SOLUTION. THE CORE FOUR AND NICARAGUA WERE SPEAKING DIFFERENT LANGUAGES AND THE NEW AID TO THE CONTRAS WOULD GIVE MANAGUA AN EXCUSE TO BECOME MORE TOTALITARIAN AND INTRANSIGENT. HABIB COMMENTED THAT WE WOULD BE ABLE TO SEE LATER THIS YEAR WHETHER INCREASED PRESSURE RESULTED IN GREATER SANDINISTA FLEXIBILITY.

MEANWHILE, THE CORE FOUR SHOULD DEFINE THEIR POSITION SO THAT THEY WOULD BE PREPARED IF MANAGUA DID SHOW IT WAS READY TO NEGOTIATE. MADRIGAL EXPLAINED THAT A CENTRAL AMERICAN FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING ORIGINALLY PLANNED FOR JULY 14 IN GUATEMALA WAS NOW CANCELLED. MADRIGAL HAD INSISTED THAT THE FIVE MINISTERS SHOULD NOT MEET UNTIL THE CORE FOUR HAD AGREED ON A UNIFIED POSITION. MADRIGAL HOPES THAT THE CORE FOUR MINISTERS CAN MEET IN TEGUCIGALPA ON JULY 16, FOLLOWED BY A MEETING OF THE FIVE THE FOLLOWING WEEK ON THE MARGINS OF ANOTHER VICE PRESIDENTIAL SESSION ON THE CENTRAL AMERICAN PARLIAMENT. THIS SCHEDULE DEPENDS ON RESOLVING A DIPLOMATIC SPAT BETWEEN HONDURAS AND GUATEMALA, WHICH REMAINS A RELUCTANT PARTNER IN THE CORE FOUR. MADRIGAL SAYS THE CORE FOUR ARE NOW WORKING ON THREE DOCUMENTS: (1) A CRITIQUE OF THE JUNE 7 ACTA, WHICH MAY BE ISSUED JOINTLY; (2) A JOINT "POLITICAL STATEMENT" WHICH WILL EMPHASIZE WHY THE DEMOCRACIES CAN NEVER LIVE IN PEACE WITH A MARXIST-LENINIST NICARAGUA; AND (3) THEIR INDIVIDUAL RESPONSES TO THE CONTADORA GROUP. MADRIGAL CONTINUES TO INSIST ON A DEMOCRATIZATION TIMETABLE FOR NICARAGUA. HE STRESSED THAT THE CORE FOUR REMAIN UNITED IN DEMANDING THAT ALL SECURITY, POLITICAL AND VERIFICATION ISSUES MUST BE RESOLVED BEFORE SIGNATURE. ARIAS AND MADRIGAL ENVISION AN AGGRESSIVE CORE FOUR APPROACH WHICH WOULD PUT CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUP COUNTRIES ON THE DEFENSIVE FOR THEIR INCONSISTENT POSITION ON HEMISPHERIC DICTATORSHIPS. END SUMMARY.

3. AMBASSADORS HABIB AND TAMBS, ACCOMPANIED BY NSC STAFF MEMBER BURGHARDT, MET WITH PRESIDENT ARIAS ON JULY 10. FOREIGN MINISTER MADRIGAL AND MINISTER OF THE PRESIDENCY RODRIGO ARIAS WERE ALSO PRESENT AT THE MEETING IN THE PRESIDENT'S HOME.

4. HABIB BEGAN BY EXPLAINING THAT THE PURPOSE OF HIS MISSION WAS TO MAKE CLEAR OUR DESIRE TO KEEP THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK ALIVE AS WE INCREASE PRESSURE ON THE SANDINISTAS. WE WERE NOT WEDDED TO ANY PARTICULAR FORUM -- IT COULD BE CONTADORA OR, IF THE CENTRAL AMERICANS PREFERRED, SOME OTHER ARRANGEMENT. IT WAS ESSENTIAL, HOWEVER, THAT IN ANY NEGOTIATING FORUM, THE CORE FOUR REMAIN FIRM ON THE CRITERIA OF COMPREHENSIVENESS, SIMULTANEITY AND VERIFIABILITY. WE WERE PLEASED THAT CONTROL OF THE PROCESS HAD NOW PASSED TO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES AND THAT THE INITIATIVE WAS NOW IN THEIR HANDS RATHER THAN IN MEXICO'S. HABIB SAID WE BELIEVE THAT THE INCREASED PRESSURE ON THE SANDINISTAS ULTIMATELY WILL HELP THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK, BUT IT WILL TAKE A FEW MONTHS FOR THE PRESSURE TO BE FELT AND MEANWHILE THE SANDINISTAS APPEAR TO BE RESISTING ANY ATTEMPT AT A POLITICAL SOLUTION.

5. HABIB SAID THAT A MAJOR PURPOSE OF HIS TRIP WAS TO UNDERSTAND BETTER THE POSITIONS OF THE FOUR DEMOCRACIES. WE WERE NOT COMPLETELY CLEAR ON THE POINTS OF AGREEMENT AND DISAGREEMENT AMONG THE FOUR. WE HOPED THAT THE FOUR COULD DEVELOP A UNIFIED POSITION. WE WERE PREPARED TO SUPPORT A UNIFIED POSITION, ASSUMING THAT IT WAS CONSISTENT WITH OUR THREE CRITERIA. WE AGREED WITH THE EMPHASIS WHICH COSTA RICA HAD PUT ON NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRACY, BUT BELIEVED IT NEEDED MORE SPECIFICITY.

6. PRESIDENT ARIAS RESPONDED THAT NOW THAT THE CONTADORA GROUP HAS ASSUMED A LOW PROFILE, THE OTHER CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES RECOGNIZE THAT COSTA RICA SHOULD PLAY SOMETHING OF A LEADERSHIP ROLE BECAUSE OF ITS PRESTIGE AS A DEMOCRACY. ARIAS SAID HE WAS PESSIMISTIC. A DIPLOMATIC SOLUTION SEEMED TO BE VERY FAR AWAY. ALL OF CONTADORA'S EFFORTS SEEMED TO BE LOST BECAUSE EVERY DAY HE BECAME MORE SKEPTICAL ABOUT NICARAGUA. SINCE THE ESQUIPULAS SUMMIT, HE HAD UNDERSTOOD THAT THE CORE FOUR AND NICARAGUA ARE SPEAKING DIFFERENT LANGUAGES. WITH THE NEW AID FOR THE CONTRAS, THE NICARAGUAN GOVERNMENT WILL HAVE AN EXCUSE TO BE EVEN MORE TOTALITARIAN, CLOSED AND ALIGNED WITH THE SOVIET BLOC.

7. ARIAS OBSERVED THAT THE MORAL AUTHORITY OF CONTADORA HAD BEEN UNDERMINED BY THE ACCUSATIONS AGAINST PANAMA. ARIAS INTENDED TO EXPLOIT THAT SITUATION BY PUTTING THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUPS ON THE DEFENSIVE CONCERNING

THEIR STAND ON DEMOCRACY. HE HAD TAKEN THE FIRST STEP IN A STATEMENT ISSUED ON THE OCCASION OF THE GOCR SEVERING RELATIONS WITH SOUTH AFRICA; HE HAD CRITICIZED CUBA, NICARAGUA, PARAGUAY AND CHILE AS NONDEMOCRATIC REGIMES. BY CRITICIZING RIGHT AND LEFT WING DICTATORSHIPS, COSTA RICA WOULD GIVE THE LIE TO ACCUSATIONS THAT IT ONLY ATTACKED NICARAGUA TO PLEASE THE U.S. HE WOULD ALSO DEMONSTRATE THE INCONSISTENCY OF THE SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRIES WHICH ATTACK CHILE WHILE

REFRAINING FROM ANY CRITICISM OF NICARAGUA. IN THIS WAY, COSTA RICA WOULD BE HELPING THE U.S.

8. HABIB COMMENTED THAT THE INCREASED REPRESSIVENESS OF THE NICARAGUAN GOVERNMENT COULD WORK AGAINST THE SANDINISTAS INTERNALLY AS WELL AS INTERNATIONALLY. THE EXAMPLE OF FREEDOM AND PROGRESS IN COSTA RICA ALSO MUST HAVE SOME EFFECT ON THE NICARAGUAN POPULATION AS THEY SUFFERED INCREASED REPRESSION AND ECONOMIC DECLINE. ARIAS AGREED THAT EVERY DAY THE NICARAGUAN COMMUNISTS LOSE POPULAR SUPPORT, BUT HE DID NOT SEE THEIR CONTROL OVER SOCIETY THREATENED IN ANY WAY. HE WISHED THAT HE WAS MISTAKEN, BUT HE DID NOT THINK THAT THE CONTRAS COULD WIN. HE WAS ALSO CONCERNED THAT THE NEW AID TO THE CONTRAS WOULD REDUCE POLITICAL PRESSURE ON NICARAGUA FROM LATIN AND EUROPEAN COUNTRIES; THOSE GOVERNMENTS WOULD NOW SEE DANIEL ORTEGA AS THREATENED BY FORCES BACKED BY THE POWERFUL U.S. AND WOULD ASSUME THAT IT WAS MORE DIFFICULT TO EXPECT ANY FLEXIBILITY.

THE NICARAGUAN REGIME MORE FLEXIBLE DIPLOMATICALLY. BY THE END OF THE YEAR, WE PROBABLY WOULD KNOW WHETHER IT HAD THE DESIRED EFFECT. MEANWHILE THE CORE FOUR SHOULD DEFINE AND UNIFY THEIR POSITION SO THAT THEY WOULD BE PREPARED IF MANAGUA DID SHOW IT WAS READY TO NEGOTIATE.

10. FOREIGN MINISTER MADRIGAL AGREED THAT THIS PERIOD HAD TO BE USED TO KEEP THE DIPLOMATIC CHANNEL OPEN, WITH THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES TAKING THE INITIATIVE AND DEMONSTRATING NEW AGGRESSIVENESS. MADRIGAL THOUGHT THE CONTADORA GROUP HAD HANDED RESPONSIBILITY TO THE CENTRAL AMERICANS BECAUSE OF THE STRONG CORE FOUR REACTION TO MEXICO'S EFFORTS TO EXCLUDE THEM FROM THE LAST PANAMA MEETING.

UNCLASSIFIED

11. MADRIGAL EXPLAINED THAT THE MEETING OF CENTRAL AMERICAN FOREIGN MINISTERS, ORIGINALLY PLANNED FOR JULY 14 IN GUATEMALA, HAS NOW BEEN CANCELLED. GUATEMALA HAD PUSHED HARD FOR THE MEETING TO BE HELD ON THE MARGINS OF A VICE PRESIDENTS' MEETING ON THE CENTRAL AMERICAN PARLIAMENT. BUT MADRIGAL PERSUADED THE GOG TO CANCEL THE ENTIRE AFFAIR BECAUSE: (1) THE CORE FOUR HAVE NOT YET DEFINED THEIR UNIFIED POSITION; (2) VICE PRESIDENT DENGO IS IN TAIWAN. MADRIGAL HOPES THAT A MEETING OF THE CORE FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS WILL BE HELD ON JULY 16 IN TEGUCIGALPA, BUT HONDURAS IS RELUCTANT TO INVITE

GUATEMALA (BECAUSE LOPEZ CONTRERAS IS IN A SNIT OVER QUINONES' APPARENT FAILURE TO CONVENE THE FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING ON JULY 27) AND IT IS NOT CERTAIN GUATEMALA WOULD ACCEPT.

COSTA RICA WOULD HAVE PREFERRED A JOINT STATEMENT, BUT HONDURAS AND EL SALVADOR ALREADY HAVE ISSUED THEIRS. (3) A JOINT "POLITICAL DOCUMENT" WHICH WOULD GO BEYOND THE ISSUE OF THE ACTA AND DISCUSS THE GVERALL REGIONAL SITUATION. MADRIGAL SAID THAT AT THE JUNE 27 FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING IN GUATEMALA (WHICH LOPEZ CONTRERAS APPARENTLY DID NOT ATTEND) HE WAS TASKED TO PREPARE A FIRST DRAFT OF THIS POLITICAL DOCUMENT, WHICH WOULD EMPHASIZE WHY THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES COULD NEVER LIVE IN PEACE WITH A MARXIST-LENINIST NICARAGUA.

MEETING OF VICE MINISTERS CONCERNING THE POSSIBILITY OF INSERTING A DEMOCRATIZATION TIMETABLE INTO THE ACTA. MADRIGAL SAID SOME COUNTRIES HAD VIEWED THIS COSTA RICAN PROPOSAL AS TOO "INTERVENTIONIST" AND OTHERS SAW A TECHNICAL PROBLEM IN THE REQUIREMENT TO POSTPONE ALL IMPLEMENTATION UNTIL THE ACTA GOES INTO EFFECT. MADRIGAL THOUGHT THESE PROBLEMS HAD BEEN OVERCOME AT THE JUNE 27 FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING. THERE WAS AGREEMENT THAT A POLITICAL TIMETABLE WAS NECESSARY AND SOME ACTIONS, SUCH AS OPENING OF A DIALOGUE WITH THE OPPOSITION, COULD BE REQUIRED BETWEEN SIGNATURE AND RATIFICATION. MADRIGAL STRESSED THAT THE CORE FOUR WERE COMPLETELY UNIFIED ON THE NEED TO REQUIRE THAT ALL ISSUES -- POLITICAL AND SECURITY -- MUST BE AGREED BEFORE SIGNATURE. COSTA RICA WAS CONFIDENT, MADRIGAL SAID, THAT THE CORE FOUR POSITION ON CONTADORA ADHERED TO THE SAME THREE CRITERIA WHICH WERE THE BASIS OF THE U.S. POSITION.

14. HABIB BRIEFED THE COSTA RICANS ON HIS DISCUSSIONS ON CENTRAL AMERICA IN LONDON AND PARIS. THE AMBASSADOR NOTED THAT WHILE THE SANDINISTAS ARE CARRYING OUT AN EFFECTIVE PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN IN EUROPE, THE CORE FOUR ARE NOT. FOREIGN SECRETARY HOWE OBSERVED THAT THE SANDINISTAS WERE HAVING A FREE RUN BECAUSE THE OTHER CENTRAL AMERICANS ARE NOT PLAYING A PUBLIC DIPLOMACY ROLE. MADRIGAL EXPLAINED HIS MINISTRY'S BUDGETARY PROBLEMS BUT TOOK THE POINT THAT DIPLOMATS FROM THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES NEED TO BE MORE VOCAL.

15. ARIAS ALSO RAISED ECONOMIC ISSUES, PLEADING FOR GREATER FLEXIBILITY IN THE APPLICATION OF AID CONDITIONALITY FOR ESF DISBURSEMENTS. HABIB PROMISED TO LOOK INTO THE ISSUE AFTER DISCUSSING IT WITH AMBASSADOR TAMBS.

16. AT THE END OF THE MEETING, ARIAS INVITED THE PRESS INTO HIS HOME AND ASKED THAT HABIB REMAIN FOR THE QUESTION AND ANSWER PERIOD. IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION ON CONTRA AID, ARIAS RESPONDED THAT THE SANDINISTAS, BECAUSE OF THEIR INTRANSIGENCE, HAD ONLY THEMSELVES TO BLAME FOR THE VOTE IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Dear Sergio:

I am writing to you and -- through you-- to the other coordinators of the National Accord to make the following inquiry.

Recent events in Chile have increased public attention in the United States on the efforts of the Chilean people to achieve a peaceful transition to democracy. During the two day strike sponsored by the Civic Assembly, the American people saw dramatic and shocking evidence of the brutality with which General Pinochet has responsed to these efforts. Now more than ever before, there is a deep desire among the American people and in the Congress for the United States to play a positive and constructive role in the effort to achieve an early return to democracy in Chile.

As you may recall, when I left Chile last January, I made a point of saying that those of us in Congress who cared so deeply about the restoration of democracy in Chile would be guided by the advice and leadership of the National Accord. The purpose of this letter is to seek that advice and leadership. We would be grateful to receive your thoughts on how we in the Congress can be most helpful in your efforts to achieve an early return to democratic government and a genuine reconciliation among the Chilean people.

I would be grateful if you would circulate this letter among the other coordinators of the National Accord.

Thank you for all that you have done. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Edward M. Kennedy

AMBASSADORS HABIB AND CORR MET WITH SALVADORAN PRESIDENT DUARTE ON JULY 11 TO REVIEW THE STATUS OF THE CONTADORA PROCESS. DUARTE SAID THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICANS HAD TAKEN THE LEAD AND THE DEMOCRACIES WERE WORKING TOGETHER TO DEFINE THEIR POSITION AND IMPROVE THE AGREEMENT. HE STATED THAT EL SALVADOR WOULD INSIST THAT ANY AGREEMENT MEET THE ESSENTIAL CRITERIA: COMPREHENSIVE, VERIFIABLE, AND SIMULTANEOUS. HE EXPLAINED THAT BECAUSE OF GUATEMALA'S "ACTIVE NEUTRALITY" POLICY, COMPLETE UNITY AMONG THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES WAS NOT FEASIBLE AT THIS TIME. THE CURRENT ALIGNMENT WAS THREE-ONE-ONE, BUT HE HOPED THAT WITH PATIENCE, THE NATURAL DEMOCRATIC ORIENTATION OF CEREZO AND HIS CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS WOULD LEAD THEM TO SIDE WITH THEIR FELLOW DEMOCRATS

AGAINST THE COMMUNIST SANDINISTAS. DUARTE OPINED THAT UNLESS THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE COULD PENETRATE INTO THE POPULATED CENTERS OF NICARAGUA AND CHALLENGE THE TOTAL CONTROL OF THE SANDINISTAS THERE, THEY COULD NOT PREVAIL ON THE BATTLEFIELD. HE WAS VERY CONCERNED THAT THE SANDINISTAS WOULD RESPOND TO THE U.S. ASSISTANCE FOR THE RESISTANCE BY PROMOTING A MAJOR GUERRILLA OFFENSIVE IN

END SUMMARY

3. AMBASSADORS HABIB AND CORR MET WITH PRESIDENT DUARTE, VICE PRESIDENT CASTILLO, MINISTER OF THE PRESIDENCY TENORIO, AND EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE PRESIDENT PERDOMO ON JULY 11 TO REVIEW THE STATUS OF THE CONTADORA PROCESS.

4. DUARTE OPENED THE MEETING BY EXPRESSING HIS CONCERN ON THE POSSIBLE IMPACT ON EL SALVADOR OF THE APPROVAL OF THE ASSISTANCE FOR THE NICARAGUAN DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE. SALVADORAN INTELLIGENCE HAD OBTAINED INFORMATION INDICATING THAT THE SANDINISTAS INTENDED TO RESPOND TO THE ASSISTANCE BY PROMOTING A MAJOR GUERRILLA OFFENSIVE IN EL SALVADOR. AS PART OF THE DEVELOPMENT OF THIS "SECOND FRONT," THE SANDINISTAS WOULD PROVIDE THE FMLN GUERRILLAS WITH SA-7 ANTIAIRCRAFT MISSILES. DUARTE AND HIS MILITARY WERE VERY TROUBLED BY THE PROSPECTS OF THE HIGH LOSSES SUCH WEAPONS COULD INFLICT ON SALVADOR'S RELATIVELY SMALL AIR FORCE. THE MILITARY HAD EVEN WARNED DUARTE TO CUT BACK ON HIS TRAVEL AROUND THE COUNTRY IN ORDER TO REDUCE HIS EXPOSURE TO THIS NEW THREAT. HABIB REPLIED THAT IF THE WAR DOES ESCALATE AND ANTIAIRCRAFT MISSILES ARE INTRODUCED, THE GOES WOULD NEED TO HAVE LOST AIRCRAFT REPLACED AND WOULD HAVE TO INSTITUTE APPROPRIATE COUNTERMEASURES TO PROTECT THEIR PLANES AND HELICOPTERS. DUARTE STRESSED THAT HIS MILITARY WOULD HAVE TO KNOW THAT THEY COULD DEPEND ON BEING PROVIDED WITH THE RESOURCES TO MATCH THE GUERRILLA ESCALATION.

5. HABIB EXPLAINED THAT THE PURPOSE OF HIS VISIT WAS TO INQUIRE ABOUT THE STATUS OF THE CONTADORA PROCESS. HE WANTED TO LEARN EL SALVADOR'S IDEAS ABOUT RECENT DEVELOPMENTS AND ITS PLANS FOR CONTINUING THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS. DUARTE REPLIED THAT CENTRAL AMERICA HAD SECURED CONTROL OF THE PROCESS AND THAT CONTADORA COULD ONLY MOVE IF THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WANTED TO PUSH IT. HABIB NOTED THAT THIS NEW CENTRAL AMERICAN DOMINANCE WAS A POSITIVE FACTOR, ADDING THAT IN WHATEVER FORM THE NEGOTIATIONS CONTINUE, IT WOULD BE USEFUL TO KEEP THE ESSENCE OF THE CONTADORA PROCESS. DUARTE CONCURRED, STATING THAT THE PRINCIPLES AND CONCEPTS OF CONTADORA (A COMPREHENSIVE REGIONAL SETTLEMENT IMPLEMENTING THE 21 POINTS IN THE 1983 DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES) REMAINED VALID. EL SALVADOR WOULD INSIST ON STRENGTHENING THE INTERNAL DIALOGUE. DUARTE SAID THAT EL SALVADOR WOULD CONTINUE TO WORK WITH THE OTHER CENTRAL AMERICANS TO IMPROVE THE AGREEMENT. HE NOTED THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICAN FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING SCHEDULED FOR GUATEMALA ON JULY 14 HAD BEEN POSTPONED. INSTEAD, A MEETING OF THE CORE THREE WOULD BE HELD IN TEGUCIGALPA ON WEDNESDAY, JULY 16.

6. THE DISCUSSION THEN TURNED TO AN ANALYSIS OF CENTRAL AMERICAN UNITY AND PARTICULARLY THE ROLE OF GUATEMALA. DUARTE EXPLAINED THAT THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS IN GUATEMALA SHARED HIS PARTY'S BASIC CONCEPTS AND PRINCIPLES, BUT THAT THE REALITIES OF GUATEMALA'S SITUATION SHAPED THEIR ATTITUDE ABOUT CERTAIN TOPICS. THUS, EL SALVADOR AND GUATEMALA DID NOT SEE EYE TO EYE ON EVERY ISSUE. IN THE ECONOMIC FIELD, THERE WERE POLICIES FOLLOWED BY CEREZO THAT MIGHT BE GOOD FOR GUATEMALA, BUT WERE BAD FOR EL SALVADOR. FOR EXAMPLE, GUATEMALA'S SUBSIDY PROGRAM ON CERTAIN GOODS ALLOWED GUATEMALA TO VIRTUALLY DUMP THOSE PRODUCTS IN THE SALVADORAN

MARKET. THIS SERIOUSLY HURT SALVADORAN PRODUCERS. AS ANOTHER EXAMPLE, HE SAID THAT GUATEMALA WANTED EL SALVADOR TO PAY IN DOLLARS FOR GUATEMALAN PRODUCTS, WHILE IT PAID QUETZALES FOR SALVADORAN PRODUCTS. THESE TYPES OF DIFFERENCES SPREAD ALSO INTO THE POLITICAL ARENA. CEREZO WAS USING HIS RELATIONS WITH NICARAGUA AND MEXICO TO ISOLATE GUATEMALA'S OWN LEFT AND GAIN MORE

UNCLASSIFIED

POLITICIAL SPACE FOR HIMSELF. HE SAID THAT CEREZO WAS ANXIOUS TO HAVE NICARAGUA PARTICIPATE IN THE CENTRAL AMERICAN PARLIAMENT AND WANTED TO USE MEXICO TO HELP CONVINCE THE SANDINISTAS TO REMAIN IN THE PARLIAMENT.

UNCLASSIFIED

7. DUARTE SAID THAT BECAUSE OF THIS SITUATION, EL SALVADOR HAD MORE IN COMMON WITH COSTA RICA THAN IT DID WITH GUATEMALA. RATHER THAN A STRONG ALLIANCE OF THE FOUR CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES VERSUS NICARAGUA, DUARTE SAW THE MORE REALISTIC BREAKDOWN TO BE THREE-ONE-ONE. CASTILLO REMARKED THAT GUATEMALA DID NOT HAVE A WELL-DEFINED POSITION. CEREZO HAD PROCLAIMED A POLICY OF "ACTIVE NEUTRALITY", PORTRAYING ITSELF AS A MEDIATOR IN THE CENTRAL AMERICAN CRISIS. HE ADDED THAT GUATEMALA WAS FINDING THIS POSITION HARDER AND HARDER TO SUSTAIN. HE ANTICIPATED THAT AT SOME FUTURE POINT, GUATEMALA WOULD ULTIMATELY SIDE WITH THE OTHER DEMOCRACIES.

8. DUARTE ASSERTED THAT EL SALVADOR SHOULD FIRST WORK WITH COSTA RICA AND HONDURAS TO DERIVE A COMMON POSITION WITH RESPECT TO THE CONTADORA AGREEMENT. ONCE A JOINT POSITION WERE ACHIEVED, THEN THE CORE THREE COULD BEGIN TO WORK TO ADD GUATEMALA. AFTER THE CORE FOUR HAD REACHED A COMMON POSITION, THEN THEY COULD MOVE ON TO

NICARAGUA TO SEE WHAT THE SANDINISTAS WERE PREPARED TO DO. CASTILLO SAID THAT COSTA RICA DID NOT SHARE THIS IDEA OF PATIENTLY WORKING ON GUATEMALA TO BRING IT AROUND AND THAT SAN JOSE PREFERRED TO INCLUDE GUATEMALA AS A FULL PARTNER FROM THE BEGINNING. WHILE THERE WAS THE COMMON BELIEF THAT THE DEMOCRACIES SHOULD BE UNITED, THERE WAS THUS DIFFERENCES ABOUT HOW THAT UNITY WAS TO BE FORGED.

9. DUARTE SAID THAT THE ESQUIPULAS MEETING IN MAY AND RECENT STATEMENTS BY FMLN GUERRILLA LEADER VILLALOBO AND NICARAGUAN FOREIGN MINISTER D'ESCOTO HAD UNDERSCORED THE NEED TO HAVE THE TERMS USED IN THE AGREEMENT CLEARLY DEFINED. IT WAS CLEAR, HE NOTED, THAT THE WORD "DEMOCRACY" MEANT ENTIRELY DIFFERENT THINGS TO THE DEMOCRACIES AND TO THE COMMUNISTS. EL SALVADOR WAS THEREFORE DRAFTING A DOCUMENT WITH PRECISE DEFINITIONS FOR THE TERMS USED IN THE AGREEMENT. IN ACCORDANCE WITH EL SALVADOR'S THREE-ONE-ONE APPROACH, IT WOULD FIRST CONSULT WITH HONDURAS AND COSTA RICA AND THEN MOVE ON TO GUATEMALA. SINCE THIS PAPER WAS FUNDAMENTALLY A THEORETICAL PAPER CONTAINING THE CONCEPTS THAT CEREZO'S PARTY SHARED, DUARTE WAS HOPEFUL THAT GUATEMALA WOULD ACCEPT IT.

10. RESPONDING TO HABIB'S INQUIRY ABOUT THE LATEST SPAT BETWEEN HONDURAS AND GUATEMALA, DUARTE SAID THAT THE GUATEMALANS HAD NOT BEEN TREATING THEIR NEIGHBORS'

VICE PRESIDENTS AND FOREIGN MINISTERS PROPERLY, AND HONDURAN FOREIGN MINISTER LOPEZ CONTRERAS HAD FELT SNUBBED AT LAST MONTH'S MEETING IN GUATEMALA. LOPEZ WAS NOT MET AT THE AIRPORT AND HAD TO FIND HIS OWN WAY TO THE HOTEL. THERE, HE DISCOVERED THAT HE DID NOT EVEN HAVE A RESERVATION. WHEN HE FINALLY SAW THE GUATEMALAN FOREIGN MINISTER, QUINONES EXPRESSED SURPRISE THAT LOPEZ HAD EVEN COME. DUARTE COMMENTED THAT CASTILLO HAD RECEIVED SIMILAR TREATMENT, BUT THAT EL SALVADOR HAD COME TO EXPECT BEING SLIGHTED BY THE GUATEMALANS AND SIMPLY IGNORED IT.

11. HABIB STRESSED THE NEED FOR THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES TO BE MORE ENERGETIC IN THEIR PUBLIC DIPLOMACY EFFORTS. HIS RECENT TRIP TO EUROPE HAD SHOWN ONCE AGAIN THAT ALTHOUGH THE DEMOCRACIES HAD A GOOD STORY TO TELL, THEIR MISSIONS WERE LARGELY INACTIVE, WHILE THE SANDINISTA PROPAGANDA MACHINE WAS HIGHLY EFFECTIVE. HABIB' COMMENTS STRUCK A RAW NERVE; DUARTE

CONCEDED THAT MORE NEEDED TO BE DONE, BUT HE LISTED NUMEROUS FACTORS -- BUDGET CONSTRAINTS, LACK OF EXPERIENCED PERSONNEL, HEAVY COMMITMENT OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY'S SCARCE RESOURCES TO THE HONDURAN BORDER DISPUTE ISSUE -- WHICH INHIBITED THEIR EFFORTS. DUARTE SAID THAT THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS DID NOT HAVE THE WORLDWIDE PROPAGANDA APPARATUS OF THE SANDINISTAS AND THEIR COMMUNIST ALLIES. TO GET ATTENTION, HE OFTEN HAD TO TRAVEL HIMSELF, BUT EVEN THEN HIS MESSAGE WAS FREQUENTLY IGNORED BY THE PRESS. "WE JUST DON'T COUNT IN EUROPE," HE CONCLUDED. HABIB ACKNOWLEDGED THESE PROBLEMS, BUT HE URGED THAT EL SALVADOR RAISE THIS ISSUE WITH THE OTHER DEMOCRACIES TO SEE IF SOMETHING COULD BE DONE.

12. ASKED ABOUT THE SITUATION IN NICARAGUA, DUARTE SAID THAT THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE HAD NOT PENETRATED INTO THE POPULATED CENTERS OF THE COUNTRY. THE WAR HAD NOT TOUCHED THE GREAT MAJORITY OF THE NICARAGUAN PEOPLE, AND THE SANDINISTAS REMAINED IN TOTAL CONTROL. "THE REAR GUARD OF THE SANDINISTAS IS ABSOLUTELY SOLID," HE SAID, AND UNLESS THE RESISTANCE COULD CARRY THE WAR TO THE CITIES, THE SANDINISTAS COULD PREVAIL ON THE BATTLEFIELD. WHILE NICARAGUA'S ECONOMIC SITUATION WAS VERY POOR, THIS WOULD NOT DESTABILIZE THE REGIME.

13. HABIB CONCLUDED BY STATING THAT THE U.S. WAS PLEASED THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WERE NOT DOMINANT IN THE PEACE PROCESS. HE REITERATED THAT THE ESSENCE OF THE CONTADORA PROCESS WAS USEFUL -- A COMPREHENSIVE, VERIFIABLE, AND SIMULTANEOUS AGREEMENT -- AND WAS GLAD TO SEE THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WERE WORKING TO

~~SECRET~~

IMPROVE THE AGREEMENT AND MOVE THE WHOLE PROCESS IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION. IN THE COMING MONTHS, HE ADDED, THE IMPACT OF THE AID TO THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE WOULD BE FELT IN MANAGUA, AND THEN WE WOULD ALL SEE IF THE SANDINISTAS WOULD BE PREPARED TO NEGOTIATE IN EARNEST. DUARTE AGREED THAT THE SITUATION HAD IMPROVED; THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WERE STRONGER, WHILE THE CONTADORA GROUP WAS WEAKER. THE REPLACEMENT OF THE BETANCUR ADMINISTRATION IN COLOMBIA WAS LIKELY TO REDUCE THE POSITION OF THE CONTADORA GROUP EVEN FURTHER. (DUARTE SAID HE PLANNED TO ATTEND THE INAUGURATION OF PRESIDENT-ELECT BARCO.)

14. COMMENT

DUARTE REMAINS COMMITTED TO ACCEPT NOTHING LESS THAN A STRONG AND EFFECTIVE SETTLEMENT. HE WILL CONTINUE WORKING WITH THE OTHER DEMOCRACIES TO IMPROVE THE CURRENT DRAFT AND DEFINE THEIR COMMON POSITION. WHILE HE HAS A DIFFERENT VIEW THAN THE COSTA RICANS OF HOW TO HANDLE THE GUATEMALAN PROBLEM, HE FULLY RECOGNIZES THE NEED FOR CORE FOUR UNITY AND IS FOLLOWING WHAT HE BELIEVES TO BE A MORE REALISTIC AND PRACTICAL COURSE TO ACHIEVE THAT END. HABIB ASSURED QUINONES THAT DESPITE PRESS REPORTS HE HAD NOT COME TO SOLICIT PUBLIC SUPPORT FOR THE NICARAGUAN DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE BUT RATHER TO REAFFIRM U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS. QUINONES NOTED THAT THE CONTADORA PROCESS WAS IN A DIFFICULT TIME, AND THAT THE CORE THREE NOW DISTRUSTED THE CONTADORA GROUP. HE SAID THAT GUATEMALA CONTINUED TO SUPPORT THE PROCESS BUT THAT IT HAD NO PLANS FOR NEW INITIATIVES. HE DID NOT BELIEVE THAT MEXICO WOULD EVER ALLOW CONTADORA TO BE CONVERTED FROM A PROCESS FOR HELPING NICARAGUA INTO A PROCESS FOR PRESSURING NICARAGUA. ALTHOUGH PRESIDENT CEREZO HAD ENDORSED THE PRINCIPLE OF DEMOCRATIZATION, QUINONES BELIEVED THAT THE SANDINISTAS WOULD RESIST ANY MOVEMENT TOWARDS TRUE DEMOCRACY AND THEREFORE INSISTANCE ON THIS WOULD MAKE AN AGREEMENT IMPOSSIBLE. HABIB URGED THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES WORK TOGETHER TO DEFINE THEIR COMMON POSITION SO THAT THEY WOULD BE READY IF THE SANDINISTAS DECIDED THAT, AS A RESULT OF INCREASED PRESSURE BROUGHT ABOUT BY OUR AID TO THE RESISTANCE, THEY SHOULD TO NEGOTIATE SERIOUSLY. DURING THE MEETING, THE GAP BETWEEN GUATEMALA AND THE OTHER DEMOCRACIES REPEATEDLY SURFACED. END SUMMARY.

3. AMBASSADORS HABIB AND PIEDRA MET WITH GUATEMALAN FOREIGN MINISTER QUINONES ON JULY 12 TO REVIEW THE STATUS OF THE CONTADORA PROCESS. HABIB BEGAN BY ASSURING QUINONES THAT DESPITE ERRONEOUS PRESS REPORTS, HE HAD NOT COME TO OBTAIN THE PUBLIC SUPPORT OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMORACIES FOR THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE. HIS PURPOSE WAS TO REAFFIRM THAT THE U.S. WAS MAINTAINING ITS TWO-TRACK POLICY OF PRESSURE AND NEGOTIATIONS. WE WANTED TO KEEP THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK OPEN FOR THE TIME WHEN THE SANDINISTAS DECIDED THEY WERE READY TO NEGOTIATE. U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE RESISTANCE WAS INTENDED TO SUPPORT THE PEACE PROCESS, NOT SABOTAGE IT. THE CONTADORA PROCESS HAD ENTERED A NEW PHASE, WITH THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES NOW DOMINATING THE PROCESS. WE BELIEVED THAT THE PEACE PROCESS SHOULD CONTINUE, ALTHOUGH THE CENTRAL AMERICANS SHOULD BE THE ONES TO DECIDE WHETHER TO CONTINUE USING THE EXISTING CONTADORA FRAMEWORK OR SUBSTITUTE SOME OTHER FORUM. IN ANY EVENT, WE BELIEVED THAT IT WOULD BE USEFUL TO KEEP THE ESSENCE OF CONTADORA: THE CONCEPT OF A COMPREHENSIVE, VERIFIABLE AND SIMULTANEOUS REGIONAL SETTLEMENT IN SUPPORT OF THE 21 OBJECTIVES OF CONTADORA.

4. QUINONES COMMENTED ON THE DIFFICULT SITUATION IN WHICH THE CONTADORA PROCESS CURRENTLY FOUND ITSELF. HE DESCRIBED THE CONFUSION SURROUNDING THE RECENT MEETING IN PANAMA, INCLUDING THE CONTADORA GROUP'S INDECISION ABOUT INVITING THE CENTRAL AMERICANS AND NICARAGUAN FOREIGN MINISTER D'ESCOTO'S UNEXPECTED PRESENCE IN PANAMA. THE CORE THREE SUSPECTED THAT THE ENTIRE AFFAIR HAD BEEN ARRANGED BY THE CONTADORA GROUP TO GIVE NICARAGUA AN OPPORTUNITY TO SIGN AN AGREEMENT. THUS, THEY WERE DISTRUSTFUL OF THE CONTADORA GROUP AND WERE FEELING THAT THE ENTIRE CONTADORA PROCESS MAY HAVE BEEN A MISTAKE. HE ADDED THAT IT HAD BEEN A MISTAKE FOR THE CONTADORA GROUP TO HAVE PRESENTED A NEW DRAFT ACTA DURING THE PANAMA MEETING.

5. QUINONES THEN REVIEWED THE EVENTS SINCE THE PANAMA MEETING. HE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE CORE FOUR WORKING-LEVEL MEETING IN EL SALVADOR HAD ACCOMPLISHED LITTLE. HE STATED THAT THE CORE FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS

HAD MET IN GUATEMALA ON THE MARGINS OF THE VICE PRESIDENT'S MEETING, BUT ADDED THAT THERE HAD BEEN PROBLEMS. HE SAID THAT NICARAGUAN VICE PRESIDENT RAMIREZ HAD ASKED HIM TO ARRANGE A MEETING WITH THE CORE FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS. HONDURAN FOREIGN MINISTER LOPEZ DECLINED, HOWEVER, AND HASTILY DEPARTED THE FOLLOWING MORNING. QUINONES JUDGED THAT THE IMPORTANT THING ABOUT THIS WAS THAT THE NICARAGUANS WANTED TO CONTINUE THE NEGOTIATIONS. HABIB RESPONDED THAT THE OTHER CENTRAL AMERICANS DID NOT WANT TO TALK TO NICARGUA UNTIL THEY HAD BEEN ABLE TO DEFINE THEIR JOINT POSITION.

6. QUINONES CONFIRMED THAT THE JULY 14 MEETING OF THE VICE PRESIDENTS HAD BEEN POSTPONED. HE EXPLAINED THAT COSTA RICA HAD SENT WORD THAT IT WAS NOT PREPARED TO MEET WITH NICARAGUA. ANOTHER FACTOR WAS THAT ONE OF THE SANDINISTA COMANDANTES HAD INSULTED GUATEMALA IN A MEXICAN NEWSPAPER BY ASSERTING THAT CEREZO'S APPEAL FOR MORE U.S. ECONOMIC ASSITANCE AMOUNTED TO ASKING FOR A RAISE IN SALARY.

7. QUINONES SAID THAT GUATEMALA'S POSITION ON CONTADORA WAS ACCURATELY SUMMARIZED IN THE RECENT JOINT COMMUNIQUE ISSUED DURING CEREZO'S VISIT TO MEXICO. THE BRIEF PASSAGE IN THE TEXT PRAISED CONTADORA AND CALLED FOR CONTINUING THE NEGOTIATIONS. IT OFFERED NO SPECIFICS, HOWEVER. PRESENTLY, EVERYONE WAS WAITING FOR ALL THE CENTRAL AMERICANS TO RESPOND TO THE JUNE 7 DRAFT. HABIB NOTED THAT THEY ALL HAD EITHER DECLARED THEIR POSITION OR WERE ABOUT TO DO SO. THE DEMOCRACIES WERE WORKING TO DEFINE THEIR POSITION MORE CLEARLY. FOR EXAMPLE, THEY FAVORED STRENGTHENING THE PROVISIONS ON DEMOCRATIZATION AND WERE CONSIDERING INCLUDING A TIMETABLE FOR DEMOCRATIZATION IN NICARGAUA IN THE VERIFICATION ANNEX. QUINONES RESPONDED THAT COSTA RICAN FOREIGN MINISTER MADRIGAL WAS WRONG TO THINK THAT THE CORE FOUR COULD CONVERT CONTADORA FROM A PROCESS FOR HELPING NICARAGUA INTO A PROCESS FOR PRESSURING NICARAGUA: MEXICO WOULD NOT LET THAT HAPPEN. HE SAID THAT MADRIGAL WAS ALSO WRONG TO PUSH NICARAGUA ON DEMOCRACY: THE SANDINISTAS WOULD INSIST THAT THAT WAS AN INTERNAL MATTER. HE BELIEVED THAT THIS WOULD BE EVEN HARDER TO NEGOTIATE THAN THE MILITARY MATTERS, FOR NICARAGUA WOULD RESIST IT STRONGLY. THE NET EFFECT WOULD BE TO MAKE IT IMPOSSIBLE TO REACH AN AGREEMENT.

8. HABIB REPLIED THAT DEMOCRACY MUST BE IN INTEGRAL ELEMENT OF ANY SETTLEMENT, NOTING THAT CEREZO HAD CONCURRED IN THIS. AS THE SANDINISTAS FELT INCREASING

UNCLASSIFIED

MILITARY PRESSURE, THEY MIGHT LOOK FOR A WAY OUT THROUGH A POLITICAL SETTLEMENT. QUINONES AGREED THAT ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS ON DEMOCRATIZATION COULD BE INCLUDED IN THE VERIFICATION ANNEX, BUT INSISTED THAT THE CHAPTER ON POLITICAL MATTERS IN THE BODY OF THE AGREEMENT WAS CLOSED AND COULD NOT BE RENEGOTIATED. HABIB STATED THAT PRIOR TO SIGNATURE ANY SECTION COULD BE REVISED IF NECESSARY, BUT THAT THE VERIFICATION ANNEX WOULD BE AN APPROPRIATE PLACE TO INCLUDE SUCH COMMITMENTS. HE STRESSED THAT THE LANGUAGE ON DEMOCRATIZATION MUST BE PRECISE SO THAT THERE COULD BE NO QUESTION ABOUT THE SPECIFIC COMMITMENTS AND WHETHER THEY WERE BEING FULFILLED. QUINONES REITERATED HIS CONCERN THAT NICARAGUA WOULD NOT ACCEPT REAL DEMOCRATIZATION, AND THUS AN AGREEMENT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE.

9. HABIB STATED THAT THE IMPORTANT THING NOW WAS FOR THE DEMOCRACIES TO WORK TOGETHER TO DEFINE THEIR POSITION. AS OUR AID TO THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE BEGAN TO FLOW, THE SANDINISTAS WOULD FEEL INCREASING MILITARY PRESSURE. THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES SHOULD BE READY TO RESPOND IF AND WHEN THE SANDINISTAS SHOWED THAT THEY WERE READY TO TALK SERIOUSLY. QUINONES EXPRESSED RESERVATIONS ABOUT THE MILITARY SITUATION, NOTING THAT NICARAGUA HAD JUST RECEIVED ANOTHER SHIPMENT OF HELICOPTERS. HABIB RESPONDED THAT THE RESISTANCE WOULD RECEIVED WEAPONS TO COUNTER THE HELICOPTER THREAT.

10. HABIB THEN ASSURED QUINONES THAT HE UNDERSTOOD GUATEMALA'S DESIRE TO DEMONSTRATE ITS INDEPENDENCE, BUT STATED THAT ON POLITICAL ISSUES THE DEMOCRACIES SHOULD STAND UNITED. QUINONES RESPONDED THAT IT WAS NOT NECESSARY TO WORK WITH THE DEMOCRACIES IN ORDER TO SUPPORT THEM. HABIB REITERATED THE IMPORTANCE OF UNITY.

11. QUINONES ASKED WHAT COULD FOLLOW CONTADORA. HABIB REPLIED THAT PERHAPS THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WOULD NOW MOVE TO CREATE THEIR OWN PROCESS. IF SO, THEY COULD USE THE ESSENCE OF CONTADORA AS THE BASIS FOR NEGOTIATIONS. HE WARNED AGAINST ALLOWING NICARAGUA TO SPLIT THE PEACE PROCESS EITHER BY COUNTRY OR ISSUE. QUINONES REMARKED THAT THE SANDINISTAS WOULD LOVE TO DO EXACTLY THAT.

12. HABIB THEN DESCRIBED HIS IMPRESSIONS OF HIS RECENT TRIP TO EUROPE. HE NOTED THAT FRANCE, IN PARTICULAR, WAS REVISING ITS POLICY TOWARD THE REGION, ADDING THAT IT MIGHT BE RECEPTIVE TO AN APPEAL BY GUATEMALA FOR ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

13. HABIB CLOSED BY RESTATING THAT THE U.S. HAD NOT ABANDONED THE NEGOTIATING TRACK OF ITS POLICY. WE BELIEVED THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICANS SHOULD CONTINUE WORKING TO DEFINE THEIR POSITION, PARTICULARLY WITH REPECT TO DEMOCRACY. QUINONES AGREED.

14. COMMENT: THE ABSENCE OF CEREZO, WHO WAS OUT OF TOWN, DETRACTED FROM THE USEFULNESS OF THE MEETING. QUINONES, WHO IS PERSONALLY MORE SYMPATHETIC TO OUR POSITION, CLEARLY FELT BOUND TO HOLD BACK AND FOLLOW HIS PRESIDENT'S LINE. AMBASSADOR PIEDRA WILL ENSURE THAT OUR MESSAGE IS DELIVERED DIRECTLY TO CEREZO DURING HIS NEXT MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT. STILL, QUINONES' REMARKS, PARTICULARLY HIS RESERVATIONS ABOUT PUSHING DEMOCRACY AND COOPERATING WITH THE OTHER CENTRAL AMERCAN DEMOCRACIES, UNDERSCORE THE GAP BETWEEN GUATEMALA AND THE CORE THREE.

8. HABIB REPLIED THAT DEMOCRACY MUST BE IN INTEGRAL ELEMENT OF ANY SETTLEMENT, NOTING THAT CEREZO HAD

CONCURRED IN THIS. AS THE SANDINISTAS FELT INCREASING

MILITARY PRESSURE, THEY MIGHT LOOK FOR A WAY OUT THROUGH A POLITICAL SETTLEMENT. QUINONES AGREED THAT ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS ON DEMOCRATIZATION COULD BE INCLUDED IN THE VERIFICATION ANNEX, BUT INSISTED THAT THE CHAPTER ON POLITICAL MATTERS IN THE BODY OF THE AGREEMENT WAS CLOSED AND COULD NOT BE RENEGOTIATED. HABIB STATED THAT PRIOR TO SIGNATURE ANY SECTION COULD BE REVISED IF NECESSARY, BUT THAT THE VERIFICATION ANNEX WOULD BE AN APPROPRIATE PLACE TO INCLUDE SUCH COMMITMENTS. HE STRESSED THAT THE LANGUAGE ON DEMOCRATIZATION MUST BE PRECISE SO THAT THERE COULD BE NO QUESTION ABOUT THE SPECIFIC COMMITMENTS AND WHETHER THEY WERE BEING FULFILLED. QUINONES REITERATED HIS CONCERN THAT NICARAGUA WOULD NOT ACCEPT REAL DEMOCRATIZATION, AND THUS AN AGREEMENT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE.

UNCLASSIFIED

9. HABIB STATED THAT THE IMPORTANT THING NOW WAS FOR THE DEMOCRACIES TO WORK TOGETHER TO DEFINE THEIR POSITION. AS OUR AID TO THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE BEGAN TO FLOW, THE SANDINISTAS WOULD FEEL INCREASING MILITARY PRESSURE. THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES SHOULD BE READY TO RESPOND IF AND WHEN THE SANDINISTAS SHOWED THAT THEY WERE READY TO TALK SERIOUSLY. QUINONES EXPRESSED RESERVATIONS ABOUT THE MILITARY SITUATION, NOTING THAT NICARAGUA HAD JUST RECEIVED ANOTHER SHIPMENT OF HELICOPTERS. HABIB RESPONDED THAT THE RESISTANCE WOULD RECEIVED WEAPONS TO COUNTER THE HELICOPTER THREAT.

10. HABIB THEN ASSURED QUINONES THAT HE UNDERSTOOD GUATEMALA'S DESIRE TO DEMONSTRATE ITS INDEPENDENCE, BUT STATED THAT ON POLITICAL ISSUES THE DEMOCRACIES SHOULD STAND UNITED. QUINONES RESPONDED THAT IT WAS NOT NECESSARY TO WORK WITH THE DEMOCRACIES IN ORDER TO SUPPORT THEM. HABIB REITERATED THE IMPORTANCE OF UNITY.

UNCLASSIFIED

11. QUINONES ASKED WHAT COULD FOLLOW CONTADORA. HABIB REPLIED THAT PERHAPS THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WOULD NOW MOVE TO CREATE THEIR OWN PROCESS. IF SO, THEY COULD USE THE ESSENCE OF CONTADORA AS THE BASIS FOR NEGOTIATIONS. HE WARNED AGAINST ALLOWING NICARAGUA TO SPLIT THE PEACE PROCESS EITHER BY COUNTRY OR ISSUE. QUINONES REMARKED THAT THE SANDINISTAS WOULD LOVE TO DO EXACTLY THAT.

12. HABIB THEN DESCRIBED HIS IMPRESSIONS OF HIS RECENT TRIP TO EUROPE. HE NOTED THAT FRANCE, IN PARTICULAR, WAS REVISING ITS POLICY TOWARD THE REGION, ADDING THAT IT MIGHT BE RECEPTIVE TO AN APPEAL BY GUATEMALA FOR ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE.

13. HABIB CLOSED BY RESTATING THAT THE U.S. HAD NOT ABANDONED THE NEGOTIATING TRACK OF ITS POLICY. WE BELIEVED THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICANS SHOULD CONTINUE WORKING TO DEFINE THEIR POSITION, PARTICULARLY WITH REPECT TO DEMOCRACY. QUINONES AGREED.

UNCLASSIFIED

14. COMMENT: THE ABSENCE OF CEREZO, WHO WAS OUT OF TOWN, DETRACTED FROM THE USEFULNESS OF THE MEETING. QUINONES, WHO IS PERSONALLY MORE SYMPATHETIC TO OUR POSITION, CLEARLY FELT BOUND TO HOLD BACK AND FOLLOW HIS PRESIDENT'S LINE. AMBASSADOR PIEDRA WILL ENSURE THAT OUR MESSAGE IS DELIVERED DIRECTLY TO CEREZO DURING HIS NEXT MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT. STILL, QUINONES' REMARKS, PARTICULARLY HIS RESERVATIONS ABOUT PUSHING DEMOCRACY AND COOPERATING WITH THE OTHER CENTRAL AMERCAN DEMOCRACIES, UNDERSCORE THE GAP BETWEEN GUATEMALA AND THE CORE THREE. SUBJECT: VISIT OF DAS ROBERT GELBARD - JULY 13-18: OVERVIEW OF VISIT RESULTS

1. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: ALTHOUGH INITIALLY THOUGHT OF AS AN ORIENTATION TO UR, DAS GELBARD'S VISIT COINCIDED WITH A PERIOD OF HEIGHTENED STRAINS IN OUR RELATIONS AND THEREFORE HAD A MUCH BIGGER IMPACT. A SERIES OF CONCURRENT EVENTS AND GELBARD'S MESSAGES IN PUBLIC AND PRIVATE COMBINED TO TURN THE VISIT INTO A MAJOR INGREDIENT OF OUR POLICY IMPLEMENTATION PROCESS. IT REMAINS TO BE SEEN WHETHER THE GOC WILL BE INFLUENCED BY GELBARD'S MESSAGE, BUT THERE IS NO LONGER MUCH DOUBT THAT THE MESSAGE WAS CLEAR AND PRECISE ENOUGH TO KNOW EXACTLY WHAT THE U.S. WANTS. THE FOREIGN MINISTER SAID PRECISELY THAT THE DAY AFTER GELBARD'S PRESS CONFERENCE. WE THINK THE MODERATE OPPOSITION ALSO BENEFITED NOT ONLY BY THE BOOST HE OFFERED BUT ALSO BY HIS INSISTENCE ON PRAGMATISM. END SUMMARY.

3. WHILE THE CASE OF BURN VICTIM ROJAS AND THE ATTACK ON THE AMBASSADOR BY SENATOR HELMS DREW THE MOST ATTENTION, UNDERLYING TENSIONS CAUSED BY CHILE'S FAILURE TO MAKE SIGNIFICANT PROGRESS ON EITHER HUMAN RIGHTS OR A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION WERE THE MAJOR THEMES OF GELBARD'S DISCUSSIONS. THE ATTITUDE OF GOVERNMENT OFFICALS WAS GENERALLY AN UNCOMPROMISING DEFENSE OF WHAT THEY ARE DOING AND FRUSTRATION THAT THE U.S. IS NOT SATISFIED WITH THEIR PROMISES. THEY NOTED THAT THE POLITICAL PARTIES LAW WILL BE IN FORCE AND OPERATING IN MARCH 1987, AND MINISTER OF INTERIOR GARCIA CLAIMED THAT A POLITICAL CONTEXT OF CIVIL LIBERTIES WOULD ACCOMPANY IT TO MAKE IT MEANINGFUL. AMONG THE MILITARY INTERLOCUTORS, THERE WAS A SLIGHTLY MORE WILLINGNESS TO LISTEN TO THE US VIEWPOINT ON THE PART OF SOME, AND RESPONSIVENESS RANGING FROM ALMOST TOTAL (MATTHEI) TO NIL (CNI CHIEF GORDON).

4. REACHING OUT TO THE ARMY BELOW THE VERY TOP LEVEL. WAS OBSTRUCTED AND ADMIRAL MERINO WAS FRIGID, WHILE STANGE AND MATTHEI RECOGNIZED THE NEED FOR FUNDAMENTAL CHANGES. THE IMPRESSION RECEIVED BY GELBARD WAS THAT OF A GOVERNMENT RIGID IN ITS POSITION, WITH BLINDERS ON AND WITHOUT THE WILL TO ENGAGE ITS OWN POPULATION, MUCH LESS THE OPPOSITION. HE STRESSED THE NEED FOR CONFIDENCE BUILDING MEASURES AND THE GOC'S RESPONSIBILITY AS A GOVERNMENT TO TAKE THE FIRST STEPS TO REACH OUT. WHEN GELBARD MENTIONED GROWING RADICALIZATION AND POLARIZATION, MOST CHILEAN OFFICIALS DENIED IT. WHETHER SINCERE OR A DEFENSE MECHANISM, THE ATTITUDE OF GOC AUTHORITIES WAS THAT THINGS ARE GOING FINE IN CHILE EXCEPT FOR A FEW AGITATORS, AND IF FOREIGNERS WOULD LEAVE CHILE ALONE AND WAIT, THEY WILL BE PLEASANTLY SURPRISED THAT ALL WILL WORK OUT FINE.

5. SOME OF THE CONSERVATIVE BUSINESS COMMUNITY, CHILEAN AND U.S., SHARE THIS VIEW, WHILE OTHERS ARE DISTURBED BY UNCERTAINTY BUT UNWILLING TO GET INVOLVED. MANY OF THEM EXPRESSED OPPOSITION TO U.S. POLICY, FEARING THAT THE U.S. WILL CONTRIBUTE TO INSTABILITY. THE CHILEAN BUSINESSMEN GENERALLY AGREED, AND SOME EMPHASIZED THAT THE OPPOSITION IS IRRESPONSIBLE AND UNTRUSTWORTHY. OTHERS AGREED TO THE NEED FOR A QUICK RETURN TO DEMOCRACY THAT WOULD ENSURE THE TRANSITION DID NOT RESULT IN A TAKEOVER BY MARXISTS. CARDINAL FRESNO EMPHASIZED THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT THEY ARE AMONG THE FEW WHO CAN INFLUENCE PINOCHET. SEVERAL OF THEM, PERHAPS THINKING OF THE POSITIVE EFFECTS OF THE ECONOMIC BOOM ON THE APPROVAL OF THE 1980 CONSTITUTION, TALKED WISTFULLY ABOUT HOW THE REVIVING ECONOMY WOULD MAKE PEOPLE PAY LESS ATTENTION TO POLITICAL MATTERS.

6. THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION WAS MORE DEPRESSED THAN USUAL, PROBABLY BECAUSE OF PINOCHET'S SPEECHES THE WEEK BEFORE IN WHICH HE MADE CLEAR HIS DETERMINATION TO PREVENT ANY SUBSTANTIAL CHANGE IN 1989, AND THEIR OWN WEAKNESS TO COMBAT IT. THE ABSENCE OF OPPOSITION PRAGMATISM, WITH A FEW NOTABLE EXCEPTIONS, WAS ONLY SLIGHTLY LESS STARK THAN THE RIGIDITY AND BLINDNESS OF THE GOVERNMENT. THE NATIONAL ACCORD PARTY LEADERS DID SAY THE PARTIES RECOGNIZE THE NEED TO REASSURE THE MILITARY ON HUMAN RIGHT TRIALS, PRIVATE PROPERTY AND THE FUTURE ROLE OF THE COMMUNISTS, BUT THEY DIVERGE SHARPLY ON HOW A CONSENSUS SOLUTION LIKE IT.

7. GELBARD TRIED TO DISCOURAGE THEM FROM SOCIAL PRESSURE TACTICS BECAUSE IT PLAYS INTO THE HANDS OF THE EXTREMES WHO EMPLOY VIOLENCE, BUT MOST OF THEM STILL SUSTAIN HOPES SUCH PRESSURE WILL ERODE MILITARY ZEST FOR GOVERNANCE ENOUGH TO

REMOVE PINOCHET AND BEGIN BARGAINING. THE AFL-CIO SUPPORTED CDT ADVOCATES A NATIONWIDE STRIKE LATER IF OTHER ACTIONS FAIL, BUT OPPOSES SMALL STOPPAGES

OR STRIKES IN THE NEAR FUTURE. IN THE MIND OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND SOME OTHERS, A SOCIAL PRESSURE STRATEGY REQUIRES COORDINATION WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY, BUT GELBARD MADE CLEAR U. S. OPPOSITION TO THEIR LINKS WITH THE COMMUNISTS. ALL AGREED THAT MORE FREQUENT AND CLOSER CONTACTS BETWEEN U. S. AND CHILEAN MILITARIES IS NECESSARY. SURPRISINGLY, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF CNT LABOR LEADERS, OPPOSITION REPS OPPOSED ECONOMIC SANCTIONS WHICH COULD HURT CHILE'S ECONOMY, BUT THEY ADVOCATE THE USE OF THE THREAT OF ECONOMIC PUNISHMENT TO TRY TO MOVE THE GOC. EVEN CARDINAL FRESNO AND ACCORD COORDINATOR SERGIO MOLINA SAID THERE WOULD BE NO OTHER CHOICE UNLESS THERE WERE A POLITICAL BREAK-THROUGH IN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS.

8. DURING A MEETING WITH CONSERVATIVE PRO-GOVERNMENT POLITICAL FIGGURES JAIME GUZMAN, JUAN DE DIOS CARMONA AND JAIME TORMO, THE LAST TWO DEFENDED THE REGIME, ALTHOUGH THEY CALLED FOR OPEN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS AND REJECTED PINOCHET'S ATTEMPT TO SUCCEED HIMSELF. THEY ALSO CALLED FOR A POLITICAL PARTIES LAW AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. GUZMAN CALLED FOR LIBERALIZATION ACROSS THE BOARD (UNIVERSITIES, REPEAL OF TRANSITORY PRIVISION 24, RETURN OF EXILES AND SO ON) BUT ARGUED AGAINST AN OPEN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. HE FORECASTS A CIVIL WAR IF EITHER THERE IS AN OPEN ELECTION OR THERE IS A PLEBISCITE AND PINOCHET IS THE CANDIDATE. HE INSISTS ON A PLEBISCITE FOR A CONSENSUS CANDIDATE, WHO COULD BE ANYONE ACCEPTABLE TO THE PARTIES, SOCIAL ORGANS (EMPLOYERS) AND ARMED FORCES. HE CONSIDERED FERNANDO LENIZ OR SERGIO MOLINA POSSIBLE CONSENSUS CANDIDATES. LENIZ, IN TALKING WITH GELBARD, PROPOSED MOLINA AS A POSSIBLE SINGLE CANDIDATE OF THE OPPOSITION, MOLINA, WHO WAS PRESENT, NEITHER PUSHED THE IDEA NOR OBJECTED TO IT.

9. THE OPPOSITION HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSIONS REPORTED A DETERIORATION IN CONDITIONS IN RECENT MONTHS. THEY WANT TO SEE A SHARP RESOLUTION AT

THE UN THIS DECEMBER. THE VICARIATE IS UNDER CONTINUING GOC PRESSURE AND FEAR HAS AFFECTED THE WORK OF SOME VICARIATE EMPLOYEES. THE VICARIATE AND THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (CHRC) ACCEPT THE CREATION OF AN OFFICIAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (OHRC) AS A POTENTIALLY POSITIVE MOVE AND WILL GIVE IT A CHANCE TO PROVE ITSELF. ALTHOUGH THE MORE RADICAL MEMBERS OF THE CHRC BOARD (TABORGA AND DOMINGUEZ) OPPOSED COLLOBORATION WITH IT OF ANY KIND, THE VICARIATE IS PREPARED TO BRING CASES TO THE OGRC. THE CHRC WANTS TO WORK CLOSELY WITH THE US ON THE UN RESOLUTION THIS FALL, WITH ALMEYDA SOCIALIST TABORGA PROPOSING THAT THE U.S. WORK WITH THE CHRC'S TRADITIONAL FRIENDS (READ NON-ALIGNED RADICALS, MEXICO AND OTHERS ON THE FAR LEFT) IN ORDER TO SECURE A CONSENUS RESOLUTION. IN GELBARD'S MEETING WITH THE OHRC MEMBERS, THEY STRESSED THAT THEY WERE STILL SETTLING IN BUT INTEND TO PROVE THEIR INDEPEDENCE AND SERIOUSNESS. GELBARD ALSO MET WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF THE CIVIC ASSEMBLY AND WITH THE PARENTS OF BURN VICTIM CARMEN QUINTANA.

10. IN MEETINGS WITH UNIVERSITY RECTORS AND STUDENT LEADERS, GELBARD WAS APPRISED OF THE GULF THAT DIVIDES THEM AND THE LACK OF COMMUNICATION. THE RECTORS, WITH ONE EXCEPTION, FOCUS ON AGITATORS, WHILE THE STUDENTS ARE BEING DRAWN INTO GREATER RADICALISM BY THE POLITICAL DEADLOCK AND RECTOR INTRANSIGENCE. THEY AGREED, HOWEVER, THAT ONE OF THE ROOT CAUSES OF PROBLEMS IS FISCAL STARVATION.

11. MEDIA COVERAGE WAS GREATER THAN ANY RECEIVED IN RECENT YEARS FOR A U.S. VISITOR, AND WAS BALANCED EXCEPT FOR THE GOVERNMENT CONTROLLED "LA NACION", WHICH BEAT THE ANTI-INTERVENTION DRUM. GELBARD'S PRESS CONFERENCE RECEIVED WIDE DISSEMINATION AND HAS PROMOTED GENERALLY FAVORABLE REACTIONS FROM MOST OF THE MODERATE OPPOSITION. DEL VALLE SAID HE WOULD COMMENT FURTHER AFTER

CAREFULLY STUDYING THE STATEMENT ALTHOUGH HE SAID IT HAD VARYING POINTS ABOUT WHICH THE GOC AGREED OR DISAGREED. IT HAD THE VIRTURE, HE SAID, OF BEING "A VERY CLEAR AND PRECISE YARDSTICK WITH WHICH TO MEASURE (USG) THINKING; THERE IS NO WAY TO BE MISTAKEN ABOUT IT." DEL VALLE AGREED WITH GELBARD'S

STATEMENT ABOUT A CLIMATE OF MISTRUST: "IT IS OBVIOUS THAT IT EXISTS...ALL CHILEANS, WITHOUT EXCEPTION, SHOULD WORK TO ELIMINATE IT." THE FAR LEFT ATTACKED GELBARD'S MISSION AS INTERVENTION, AS DID THE FAR RIGHT. SEVERAL MEMBERS OF THE CENTER-RIGHT FACTION OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY TOLD GELBARD AND/OR EMBOFFS THAT THEY WERE PLEASED WITH THE CLARITY AND PRECISION OF HIS STATEMENT REGARDING STEPS THAT THE U.S. THINKS ARE NECESSARY TO HAVE A MEANINGFUL DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION.

12. IN THE WAKE OF THE WHITE HOUSE STATEMENT EXPRESSING FULL CONFIDENCE IN THE AMBASSADOR AND UNDERCUTTING THE UNHELPFUL INTERVENTION OF SENATOR HELMS, GELBARD ENJOYED ENHANCED CREDIBILITY AS THE SPOKESMAN FOR A STATE DEPARTMENT WHOSE CONTROL OF OUR POLICY TOWARD CHILE HAD JUST BEEN STRONGLY REINFORCED. HE WAS THUS ABLE TO SPEAK WITH AUTHORITY THAT WAS UNQUESTIONED BY INTERLOCUTORS AND MAY BE PART OF THE REASON HE WAS RECEIVED AT AN UNUSUALLY HIGH LEVEL, (ALL FOUR JUNTA MEMBERS AND FIVE MINISTERS, ALL IN SEPARATE MEETINGS). HE WAS NOT RECEIVED BY THE PRESIDENT, BUT PINOCHET GENERALLY RECEIVES ONLY HIGHER RANKING U.S. OFFICIALS. GELBARD'S ATTENTIVE AUDIENCE HEARD A VERY CLEAR AND DETAILED

MESSAGE OF WHAT IT IS WE MEAN BY A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION; THAT THE PROMULGATION OF LAWS IS NOT ENOUGH. IT MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A LIBERALIZED CLIMATE AND AN ATTITUDE OF COMPROMISE. WE THINK THE VISIT GAVE THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION A BOOST, AND IT REINFORCED OUR ATTEMPTS TO GET THEM TO APPROACH THEIR CHALLENGE WITH PRAGMATISM AND A CLEAR, LOGICAL AND PEACEFUL STRATEGY DESIGNED TO PERSUADE THE MILITARY THAT A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION IS IN THEIR LONG TERM INTEREST. IT REMAINS TO BE SEEN HOW EACH SIDE REACTS.

1. 88 STUDENTS WERE DETAINED AFTER OCCUPYING THE MAIN CAMPUS BUILDING OF THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY ON JULY 16. THE OCCUPATION WAS AN EFFORT TO FORCE THE RECTOR, JUAN DE DIOS VIAL, INTO SIGNING A DOCUMENT THAT WOULD READMIT EXPELLED STUDENT DAUNO TOTORO. THE TAKEOVER WAS WELL PLANNED AND PEACEFULLY EXECUTED.

SUBJ: DAS GELBARD'S MEETING WITH FINANCE MINISTER BUCHI

1. SUMMARY: IN A MEETING WITH FINANCE MINISTER BUCHI ON JULY 15, DAS GELBARD OUTLINED U.S. CONCERNS ON VOTES ON UPCOMING MDB LOANS, AND ASKED FOR BUCHI'S HELP IN INFLUENCING CHILEAN POLICIES TO AVOID NEGATIVE VOTES. BUCHI DEMURRED ON THE REQUEST, NOTING HIS LIMITED INFLUENCE OUTSIDE ECONOMIC ISSUES; BUCHI ALSO OUTLINED CHILEAN ECONOMIC POLICY OVER THE PAST TWO YEARS, AND PROJECTED MODERATE ECONOMIC PERFORMANCE. END SUMMARY.

ECONOMIC PERFORMANCE 1985-6

2. DAS GELBARD, ALONG WITH THE AMBASSADOR AND EMBOFF, HELD A 45 MINUTE MEETING WITH FINANCE MINISTER HERNAN BUCHI BUC. MR. GELBARD OPENED THE MEETING BY ASKING FOR MINISTER BUCHI'S THOUGHTS ON THE CURRENT CHILEAN ECONOMIC SITUATION. MINISTER BUCHI NOTED THAT WHEN THE GOC PUT TOGETHER ITS PLAN FOR 1985-6, IT HAD TO ADJUST TO A WORSE-THAN-PREDICTED ECONOMIC SITUATION, PRINCIPALLY CAUSED BY SOFT COMMODITY PRICES. THE GOC DELIBERATELY CHOSE A POLICY OF 1) BOOSTING EXPORTS, PARTICULARLY NON-TRADITIONAL EXPORTS, THROUGH AN EXCHANGE RATE DEVALUATION, ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

AND 2) INCREASING EMPLOYMENT BY FREEZING REAL WAGES AND CHANGING LABOR LAWS TO ALLOW GREATER EMPLOYMENT FLEXIBILITY. ALTHOUGH COMMODITY PRICES CONTINUED TO DECLINE, CHILE WAS ABLE TO MORE THAN MAKE UP THE DIFFERENCE THROUGH HIGHER VOLUME. NON-TRADITIONAL EXPORTS RESPONDED PARTICULARLY WELL, ALTHOUGH BUCHI THOUGHT THAT THE FUTURE FOR CONTINUED GROWTH WAS UNCERTAIN. ON THE EMPLOYMENT FRONT, MINISTER BUCHI NOTED THAT NOT ONLY HAD THE UNEMPLOYMENT RATE FALLEN, BUT THAT THE NUMBER OF PERSONS IN GOVERNMENT SPONSORED EMPLOYMENT PROGRAMS DROPPED FROM 9 PERCENT OFF THE WORK FORCE AT THE BEGINNING OF 1985 TO AROUND 5 PERCENT AT PRESENT.

VOTES ON MDB LOANS

4. IN THE LAST 10 MINUTES OF THE MEETING, DAS GELBARD RAISED THE ISSUE OF POSSIBLE NEGATIVE VOTES OR ABSTENTIONS ON UPCOMING MDB LOANS. MR. GELBARD NOTED OUR LEGISLATION THAT REQUIRES THAT THE ADMINISTRATION TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE GOC'S HUMAN RIGHTS PERFORMANCE IN OUR MDB VOTES. HE ALSO MENTIONED THAT WE WOULD BE TAKING THE ISSUE UNDER REVIEW OVER THE NEXT SEVERAL MONTHS AS LOANS CAME BEFORE THE BOARDS OF DIRECTORS -- THE IBRD AND IDB, BUT NOTED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION WAS ALREADY UNDER CONSIDERABLE PRESSURE TO VOTE AGAINST CHILE LOANS FROM THE CONGRESS,

THE AFL-CIO AND HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS. HE MENTIONED, TOO, THE UNFORTUNATELY LEAKED EXCHANGE OF MEMORANDA BETWEEN TREASURY AND STATE WHICH DEMONSTRATED THAT EVEN SIX MONTHS AGO TREASURY HAD BEEN INCLINED TO VOTE AGAINST CHILEAN LOANS ACROSS THE BOARD. HE ADDED THAT BANKERS ARE WORRIED FOR THE FIRST TIME ABOUT POLITICAL INSTABILITY SWAMPING THE EXCELLENT ECONOMIC PROGRESS THAT HAS BEEN MADE. MR. GELBARD NOTED THAT HE HOPED THAT IT WOULD NOT HAVE TO COME TO A U.S. VOTE AGAINST THE MDB LOANS, SINCE A) HE WAS CONCERNED ABOUT POLITICIZING BANK LOAN VOTES, AND B) HE PERSONALLY ADMIRED THE CHILEAN ECONOMIC POLICIES WHICH WERE IN MANY RESPECTS A MODEL FOR THE BAKER PLAN. NEVERTHELESS, MR. GELBARD ADDED, THE CURRENT POLITICAL SITUATION MAY FORCE THE U.S. GOVERNMENT INTO VOTING "NO". HE ASKED MINISTER BUCHI TO INTERCEDE WITH GENERAL PINOCHET TO MODERATE THESE POLICIES.

5. MINISTER BUCHI RESPONDED THAT THERE WERE LIMITS TO HIS INFLUENCE. OUTSIDE THE ECONOMIC SPHERE, HE HAD LITTLE INFLUENCE WITH THE JUNTA. THE MINISTER ASKED FOR UNDERSTANDING OF THE DIFFICULTIES THAT THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT HAS HAD IN CARRYING OUT SUCH A DIFFICULT ECONOMIC PROGRAM. GOVERNMENTS AROUND THE WORLD HAD BEEN THROWN OUT FOR ATTEMPTING TO IMPOSE AUSTERITY PROGRAMS. MINISTER BUCHI EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT WE WOULD NOT TAKE ACTIONS WHICH WOULD UNDERCUT THE SUCCESSFUL ECONOMIC PROGRAM. AS AN ASIDE, MINISTER BUCHI ADDED THAT OTHER GOVERNMENTS WERE FAR WORSE IN TERMS OF CORRUPTION AND OTHER PROBLEMS. BARNES

SUBJECT: COMANDANTE ZERO VOWS TO CONTINUE THE
- POLITICAL STRUGGLE
1. APPEARING ON THE SPANISH TELEVISION TALK SHOW "EL PORTADO," EDEN PASTORA CRITICIZED BOTH THE UNITED STATES AND THE SANDINISTA REGIME. PORTRAYING HIMSELF AS REPRESENTING THE TRUE NICARAGUAN SANDINISTA REVOLUTION, HE CHARACTERIZED THE JUNTA AS "TRAITORS TO THE REVOLUTION." HE ALSO SAID HIS GUERRILLA MOVEMENT FAILED BECAUSE THE CIA DID NOT ALLOW HIM THE "POLITICAL-MILITARY SPACE" TO SUCCEED. PASTORA OFFERED TWO REASONS FOR GIVING UP THE ARMED FIGHT: ONE, THAT U.S. AID TO THE CONTRAS PROHIBITED HIS OWN GROUP'S SUCCESS, AND, TWO, THE CIA PREVENTED HIM FROM RECEIVING ANY SUPPORT. HE LEFT OPEN THE POSSIBILITY OF RETURNING TO THE FIGHT IF "THE U.S., AND OTHER COUNTRIES WOULD SUPPORT HIM FINA2. HAVING GIVEN UP THE GUERRILLA FIGHT, PASTORA SAID HE HOPES TO CONTINUE THE STRUGGLE POLITICALLY BY HEADING "A MOVEMENT OF THE CENTER." IN THIS HE PLANS TO PRESENT "A THIRD WAY" BETWEEN THE NICARAGUAN REGIME AND THE U.S. SUPPORTED CONTRAS. HE EXPRESSED BELIEF THAT THE PLAN COULD WORK IF "THE DEMOCRACIES SUPPORT IT," BUT DOUBTS HE CAN SUCCEED BY WORKING FROM WITHIN NICARAGUA. "ONE CANNOT RETURN TO A COUNTRY OCCUPIED BY 3,000 CUBAN SOLDIERS DISGUISED AS INTERNATIONALISTS, A COUNTRY THAT LACKS FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION, WHERE ALL WHO OPPOSE THE GOVERNMENT, EVEN THOUGH THEIR CRITICISM IS REVOLUTIONARY, ARE CONSIDERED COUNTER-REVOLUTIONARY, A CIA AGENT, A TRAITOR," HE EXPLAINED.

3. THE FORMER ANTI-SOMOZA FIGHTER SAID HE ABANDONED THE SANDINISTAS IN 1982 WHEN HE REALIZED "HE DID NOT FIGHT THE REVOLUTION IN ORDER TO DRIVE A MERCEDES OR LIVE IN THE VILLAS OF THE SOMOCISTAS." "I ALSO REALIZED," HE CONTINUED, "THAT I DID NOT WANT TO BE IN THE HANDS OF MOSCOW OR CUBA." HE FURTHER CRITICIZED THE SANDINISTA REGIME FOR ITS INABILITY TO MAKE POLITICAL DECISIONS WHEN A CONSENSUS CANNOT BE REACHED. AS AN EXAMPLE OF SANDINISTA INDECISIVENESS PASTORA POINTED TO HIS EXPERIENCE AFTER HE GAVE UP THE GUERRILLA FIGHT AND WAS IN A COSTA RICAN JAIL. WHILE HE WAS IN JAIL SEVERAL FSLN LEADERS WANTED TO TALK TO HIM, A SIMPLE ACTION THAT PASTORA SAID WOULD HAVE CAUSED CONGRESS TO VOTE AGAINST AID TO THE CONTRAS. HOWEVER, ACCORDING TO PASTORA, NO CONVERSATIONS WERE EVER HELD BECAUSE TOMAS BORGE OPPOSED THE IDEA AND NO CONSENSUS WAS REACHED. DESPITE HIS DISILLUSIONMENT PASTORA ALSO SAID HE FEELS CLOSER TO THE ACTUAL LEADERS OF NICARAGUA THAN TO THE CONTRA LEADERS. HIS DIFFERENCES WITHIS DIFFERENCES WITH THE COMANDANTES ARE "POLITICA MORAL" RATHER THAN PERSDNAL, HE SAID.
4. FINALLY, PASTORA SAID THAT UNLIKE THE COMANDANTES, HE DOES NOT FEAR AN IMMINENT U.S. INVASION. IN HIS ANALYSIS THE POLITICAL CONDITIONS ARE NOT RIGHT. HOWEVER, HE ADDED THAT SHOULD "THE MARINES LAND I WOULD

5. FROM MADRID PASTORA TRAVELLED TO BARCELONA WHERE A PLANNED PRESS CONFERENCE WAS INTERRUPTED BY PRO-SANDINISTA DEMONSTRATORS. THIRTY MEMBERS OF A GROUP CALLED "THE CATALAN COMMITTEE FOR SOLIDARITY WITH NICARAGUA" MINGLED WITH JOURNALISTS IN THE LAW OFFICES OF JAVIER NART, WHERE THE PRESS CONFERENCE WAS TO BE HELD. 1. FOLLOWING IS COMPLETE TEXT OF A STATEMENT BY DAS ROBERT GELBARD AT HIS PRESS CONFERENCE IN SANTIAGO ON 7/17.
2. BEGIN TEXT: "MY PURPOSE IN COMING TO CHILE WAS TO LEARN AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE ABOUT THE CURRENT SITUATION IN THIS COUNTRY BY MEETING WITH A WIDE SPECTRUM OF INFLUENTIAL CHILEANS IN MANY DIFFERENT FIELDS. THIS TRIP WAS PLANNED MORE THAN TWO MONTHS AGO.

IN THE PAST FEW DAYS, I HAVE SPOKEN WITH MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA, WITH MINISTERS AND OTHER HIGH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, POLITICAL LEADERS, TRADE UNIONISTS, CATHOLIC CHURCH OFFICIALS, STUDENTS, BUSINESSMEN, INTELLECTUALS, UNIVERSITY AUTHORITIES, AND YOUTH LEADERS ON A RANGE OF ISSUES OF BI-LATERAL AND GLOBAL CONCERN. THEY HAVE BEEN VERY FRANK AND FORTHCOMING IN GIVING ME THEIR OPINIONS, WHICH I VERY MUCH APPRECIATED. I HAVE ALSO BEEN CANDID IN EXPRESSING THE POSITION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT REGARDING CHILE'S TRANSITION TO DEMOCR DEMOCRATIC RULE.
THAT POSITION, REITERATED BY U.S. OFFICIALS FROMQY PRESIDENT REAGAN TO SECRETARY SHULTZ TO AMBASSADOR BARNES IS THAT THE UNITED STATES SUPPORTS A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO FULL DEMOCRATIC RULE IN CHILE BY THE UNCLASSIFIED

MOST PROMPT AND EFFECTIVE MEANS. HOW CHILE ACHIEVES A DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM MUST BE DETERMINED BY THE CHILEAN PEOPLE.

IN THE OPINION OF MY GOVERNMENT, A TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY CAN ONLY COME ABOUT THROUGH THE CREATION OF AN ENVIRONMENT OF GREATER FREEDOM WHICH IS CONDUCIVE TO DEMOCRATIC DECISION-MAKING. SUCH AN ENVIRONMENT WOULD BE MARKED BY FREEDOM OF INFORMATION, FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY, LEGAL POLITICAL PARTIES, AND RESPECT FOR CIVIL AND HUMAN RIGHTS. THE UNITED STATES HAS COMMENTED FAVORABLY ON THE AUTHORIZATION TO PUBLISH A NEW DAILY NEWSPAPER "LA EPOCA" AND OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION WHOSE MEMBERS I MET WITH YESTERDAY. WE LOOK FORWARD TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF ELECTORAL REGISTERS AND THE FULL LEGALIZATION OF POLITICAL PARTIES IN THE VERY NEAR FUTURE. THESE WILL BE POSITIVE STEPS, BUT TO BE TRULY MEANINGFUL, THEY SHOULD BE TAKEN IN A CONTEXT OF FULL CIVIL LIBERTIES, SUCH AS FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY, SPEECH, AND PRESS AND ACCESS TO THE MEANS OF COMMUNICATION. ADVANCES IN THESE CRUCIAL AREAS MEAN PROGRESS IN RESTORING DEMOCRACY. DELAY IN BRINGING ABOUT THESE CHANGES BENEFITS THE ENEMIES OF DEMOCRACY ON THE EXTREME LEFT AND RIGHT.

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES SUPPORTS THE EFFORTS OF TRUE DEMOCRATS IN CHILE TO BUILD A BROAD CONSENSUS AND ENGAGE IN MEANINGFUL DIALOGUE. WE PARTICULARLY ADMIRE THE EFFORTS OF CARDINAL JUAN FRANCISCO FRESNO AND THE EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE TO BRING ABOUT NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND AN END TO VIOLENCE. EFFORTS SUCH AS THOSE OF THE CARDINAL WE HOPE WILL LEAD TO AN UNDERSTANDING AMONG SECTORS OF CHILEAN SOCIETY WHICH, AS I HAVE PERSONALLY NOTED DURING MY VISIT, REMAIN DEEPLY DIVIDED BY A LACK OF COMMUNICATION AND MUTUAL DISTRUST. WE REJECT VIOLENCE FROM ANY SIDE AS AN ATTACK NOT ONLY ON HUMAN AND CIVIL RIGHTS BUT AGAINST THE FUTURE OF A DEMOCRATIC CHILE. GROUPS SUCH AS THE COMMUNIST PARTY, WHO FAVOR VIOLENT MEANS TO POLITICAL ENDS TODAY, CANNOT BE EXPECTED TO ABIDE BY DEMOCRATIC RULES TOMORROW. THOSE WHO ACCORD LEGITIMACY TO THE COMMUNISTS AND OTHER EXTREMISTS ARE NOT CONTRIBUTING TO A STABLE, DEMOCRATIC CHILE.

IN THE COMING MONTHS, THE GOVERNMENT AND PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES WILL FOLLOW EVENTS IN CHILE WITH GREAT INTEREST. WE REALIZE, HOWEVER, THAT THE DESTINY

OF CHILE IS A MATTER FOR CHILEANS TO DECIDE. MY GOVERNMENT IS CONFIDENT THAT WHEN THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE IS FREELY EXPRESSED, CHILEANS WILL REJECT CONFRONTATION IN FAVOR OF RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRACY." DESHAZO UNQUOTE SHULTZ

INFORMATION MEMORANDUM

S/S KO126

TO: The Secretary

FROM: PA - Bernard Kalb BK

SUBJECT: Editorial Comment on I. Murder in Chile of Rojas de Negri
II. World Court Ruling Against U.S.

I. MURDER IN CHILE OF ROJAS DE NEGRI

We received comment from 28 papers (published July 12-21) on events surrounding the death of Rodrigo Rojas de Negri. The 24 papers that commented on either the U.S. response or Ambassador Barnes' role, were all laudatory. All 22 papers commenting on Senator Helms' activities in Chile were harshly critical.

U.S. Response Deemed Praiseworthy

Twenty-four papers approved of the administration's response: "Reagan Administration officials are closing ranks in a cohesive, coherent, and welcome policy toward Chile's military dictatorship" (Miami HERALD); "In too many countries the United States has been on the wrong side of progress and democracy, but that has not been the case recently in Chile" (Milwaukee JOURNAL). Nine of these papers commended Ambassador Barnes: "To their credit, the White House and State Department make plain that this sensitive Ambassador is not for burning. He has made himself a vivid symbol of democratic values" (New York TIMES); "Mr. Barnes' gesture of compassion...fully endorsed by the administration, was a demonstration of the kind of values we treasure in this country and would like to see a lot more of in Chile" (Chicago TRIBUNE).

Nine of these papers also took the opportunity to criticize past U.S. practices toward Chile: "The difficulty is that the U.S. helped to create this friendly dictator, and the Reagan administration is finding it increasingly hard to excuse or live with him" (St. Louis POST-DISPATCH).

Helms Viewed Harshly

All 22 papers commenting on statements made by Senator Helms during his visit to Chile were strongly critical: "Senator Jesse Helms of North Carolina evidently sees himself as the last obstacle to a Communist takeover of the State Department" (Louisville COURIER-JOURNAL); "Senator Helms is giving aid and comfort to one of the most brutal dictatorships in the Western Hemisphere" (Raleigh [NC] NEWS & OBSERVER); "...nobody, especially a U.S. senator, should go to a foreign country and attempt to undercut U.S. policy, which is what Senator Helms did in Chile" (Washington TIMES). Four of these papers criticized the senator's overall foreign policy effectiveness: "Having succeeded in mucking up administration policy toward Mexico... Helms...now is trying his hand with Chile" (Philadelphia INQUIRER); "He is also extradordinarily ill-informed about Latin American affairs" (Charleston [SC] NEWS & COURIER).

Administration Urged to Continue Pressure

Ten papers urged the administration to continue pressuring the Pinochet regime towards democracy: "The recent U.S. policy of quiet pressure and indirect criticism must give way to forthright and firm denunciation of the last important dictator in Latin America" (Los Angeles TIMES); "The United States cannot impose democracy on Chile. But it can sustain and increase the volume of its protest..." (Minneapolis STAR TRIBUNE). Five papers drew an analogy with other dictatorships: "To a remarkable extent, the situation in Chile resembles that of the Philippines at this time last year when Ferdinand E. Marcos insisted he would remain in office come what may....Unlike former President Marcos [however], General Pinochet has shown no reluctance to order his troops to fire on their own people" (Baltimore SUN); "Chile is becoming ripe for a Sandinista equivalent..." (Kansas City [MO] STAR).

Your Meeting with Costa Rican Public Security Minister Benjamin Piza

SETTING

Benjamin Piza is a key player in President Luis Monge's administration. He has been Minister of Public Security since September 1984. He reorganized his Ministry in March 1985 to increase efficiency and requested monetary authorization for additional civil guard personnel. Piza supports U.S. assistance programs to upgrade the Costa Rican security forces. He has approached other Western countries for security assistance. Piza shares our concerns regarding Nicaragua.

I. MEETING OBJECTIVES

- To emphasize U.S. security commitment to Costa Rica and support for Costa Rican democracy.

II. SUPPORT FOR DEMOCRACY

- Costa Rica is Central America's model democracy; uninterrupted free elections since 1948.
- February 86 elections, along with November elections in Honduras and Guatemala, symbolize what we stand for in region.
- POINTS TO MAKE
  - -- U.S. policy in region is predicated on fostering the democratic process. We want to avoid becoming an issue in your domestic politics.
  - -- We look forward to continued close relations with Costa Rica whoever wins elections.

III. SUPPORT FOR COSTA RICAN SECURITY

- o We have provided measured program of security assistance and reiterated our Rio Treaty commitments. Costa Ricans seek frequent reassurance.
- o Security assistance controversial; portrayed by Cubans and Sandinistas as militarizing unarmed Costa Rica.
- o Central American counterterrorism proposal provides $1.5 million for Costa Rican law enforcement.
- o POINTS TO MAKE
  - -- We are prepared to defend Costa Rican democracy; we take our Rio Treaty commitments seriously.
  - -- Our support of Nicaraguan resistance is intended to resolve the Sandinista threat in the mid-term.
  - -- The USG will continue to respond appropriately to requests for security aid.
  - -- The counterterrorism program now proposed to the U.S. Congress includes $1.5 million for Costa Rica. We anticipate that the proposal will be adopted, although exact funding levels are uncertain.

IV. NICARAGUA

- o Costa Rica's support for our regional policy has resulted in vicious Cuban and Sandinista propaganda.

[redacted]

- o The OAS this summer refused to condemn Nicaragua for a May 31 border incursion which killed two Costa Rican

Civil Guardsmen. This inability to mobilize Latin support when threatened has shaken the Monge government and prompted it to reassess its foreign policy.

o POINTS TO MAKE

-- Sandinista goals in Nicaragua and in Central American region becoming increasingly clear, not only to those whose interests are directly involved, but to those previously sympathetic to the Sandinista regime.

-- We appreciate Costa Rica's continuing cooperation [redacted] Both political and military pressure against the Sandinistas are vital to long-term regional stability.

-- We share your concern for the failure of the OAS to condemn vigorously Sandinista border incursions, including the May 31 attack against the Civil Guardsmen.

* -- I trust that U.S. security assistance and training have made a substantial contribution to your ability to respond effectively to protect your borders AND DEAL WITH NICARAGUAN ARCH EFFORTS TO DESTABILIZE YOUR GOVERNMENT.

-- You may rest assured that the U.S. will continue to offer its full support to your country in its efforts to maintain a firm position in opposition to Sandinista goals, and to meet the needs of your own people.

Your Meeting with Guatemalan Chief of State Oscar Mejia Victores and Vice Head of State Hector Rodolfo Lobos

SETTING

You will be meeting with Chief of State Mejia and Brigadier General Rodolfo Lobos, Vice Head of State and Chief of the National Defense Staff. Lobos is the leading contender for Minister of Defense by virtue of his current positions and senior rank in the military hierarchy but does not appear to have the full support of the institution. Many junior and middle-grade officers believe [redacted] that his selection as MOD would signal a perpetuation of past mistakes. President-elect Vinicio Cerezo favors Hector Gramajo for the post, but has told General Mejia that he will accept the military's candidate. Lobos' eligibility for the MOD is questionable under the existing Organic Military Law, and an internal battle is raging in the military on whether to amend the Law to allow for Lobos' eligibility. General Mejia plans to retire following the inauguration.

I. MEETING OBJECTIVES

- To state strong USG support for institutionalization of the democratic process in Guatemala and for the Cerezo administration.
- To indicate willingness to help the Guatemalan military modernize as long as civilian rule is respected and there is continuing progress in human rights.

II. SUPPORT FOR DEMOCRACY

- The Guatemalan military lived up to its pledge of impartiality in the just-concluded elections. There is no evidence it intends to prevent Cerezo from assuming office January 14.
- But Cerezo is inexperienced and may be under pressure from party hardliners to pursue policies that bring him into conflict with the military.
- A coup or insubordination would be disasterous for our efforts to establish closer relations with the Guatemalan military.

o POINTS TO MAKE

-- Your institution is to be commended for living up to its pledge of electoral impartiality. This will help us in getting Congressional support for more military assistance.

-- We plan to support your new government fully and will work through it to improve bilateral relations.

-- We will use appropriate occasions to encourage the new government to work constructively with your institution for the benefit of Guatemala.

-- You have indicated in the past that your institution intends to support fully the new civilian government. We applaud that commitment.

-- A cooperative relationship with the new civilian authorities will bear fruit in our attempts to get the assistance you and the President need in the military area.

-- Once you and the President have decided on your needs, we will attempt to remove existing Congressional restrictions on the kind and amount of military assistance we can provide.

EO 12958 1.6(d)(1)>10<25Yrs (C)

-- We are willing now to [redacted] and provide other support permitted by our laws to your counterinsurgency efforts.

-- Our preliminary plans are to ask Congress for MAP grant aid for FY87 and for additional FMS credits and IMET training funds as well.

-- What are your estimates of the insurgents plans for the coming year and their ability to destabilize the country?

SUBJECT: HUMAN RIGHTS: BILATERAL CONSULTATIONS WITH JAPAN

REF: STATE 191757

1. CONFIDENTIAL UNCLASSIFIED ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: HA CONTINUED ITS SERIES OF HUMAN-RIGHTS CONSULTATIONS IN A MEETING WITH THE JAPANESE DCM. ALTHOUGH OUR APPROACH WAS ROUGHLY SIMILAR TO THAT IN THE PREVIOUS MEETINGS IN THIS SERIES, DEALING WITH CHILE, PARAGUAY, EL SALVADOR, CUBA, SOUTH AFRICA, ETHIOPIA, BULGARIA, AND IRAN, THE JAPANESE REACTION WAS SHARPLY DIFFERENT FROM THAT OF OUR EUROPEAN AND AUSTRALIAN INTERLOCUTORS PRESUMABLY REFLECTING THE RELATIVE LACK OF A DOMESTIC HUMAN RIGHTS CONSTITUENCY. THE JAPANESE MADE IT CLEAR THAT HUMAN RIGHTS IS NOT YET PART OF THEIR BILATERAL DIPLOMACY AND THAT JAPAN DOES NOT "INTERVENE" IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF OTHER COUNTRIES. THE JAPANESE WERE SUPPORTIVE REGARDING OUR APPROACHES TO THE CHILE AND

E LALVADOR RESOLUTIONS IN UN FORA. THEY ALSO TOLD US THAT A JAPANESE MINISTER HAS BEEN IN TOUCH WITH ANC LEADER OLIVER TAMBO IN LUSAKA. END SUMMARY.

3. THE HA BUREAU CONTINUED ITS SERIES OF BILATERAL HUMAN RIGHTS DISCUSSIONS IN A JULY 25 MEETING WITH THE JAPANESE EMBASSY'S DEPUTY CHIEF OF MISSION, HAOHIRO KUMAGAI. ALSO PARTICIPATING FOR THE JAPANESE SIDE WAS MASATOSHI MUTO FROM THEIR UN MISSION, AND EMBASSY THIRD SECRETARY NORIE OKA. THE DEPARTMENT WAS REPRESENTED BY HA ASSISTANT

CONFIDENTIAL UNCLASSIFIED

SECRETARY RICHARD SCHIFTER, HA/MLP: TOM WILLIAMS, EAP/J: CHARLES COHEN, IO/HW: BEVERLY ZWEIBEN, AND HA/MLP: STAN IFSHIN (NOTETAKER).

4. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER EXPLAINED OUR RATIONALE FOR HOLDING THESE BILATERAL CONSULTATIONS. THE JAPANESE SIDE RESPONDED THAT IT APPRECIATED THE INITIATIVE, AND HAS SIMILAR VIEWS AS TO HOW HUMAN RIGHTS SHOULD BE ADDRESSED IN INTERNATIONAL FORA. WHEN AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER TURNED TO COUNTRY SPECIFIC SITUATIONS, HOWEVER, IT WAS APPARENT

THAT JAPAN HAS VERY DIFFERENT VIEWS REGARDING HUMAN RIGHTS AS AN ELEMENT IN BILATERAL RELATIONS WITH THIRD COUNTRIES. AS MR. MUTO PUT IT "OUR BASIC NOTION IS TO AVOID INVOLVEMENT IN THE POLITICAL AFFAIRS OF OTHER COUNTRIES." MINISTER KUMAGAI PUT IT THIS WAY, "WE REPORT, BUT WE DO NOT INTERVENE. WE ARE VERY PASSIVE."

5 THE OCCASION FOR THESE REMARKS WAS AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER'S FIRST PRESENTATION, THAT ON CHILE. SCHIFTER NOTED THAT THE STRUCTURES EXIST IN CHILE FOR A DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM, AND THAT A RECENT POLL HAD INDICATED THAT MORE THAN SEVENTY PERCENT OF THE POPULATION FAVORS THE DEMOCRATIC CENTER WITH THE REMAINDER DIVIDED MORE OR LESS EQUALLY BETWEEN THE EXTREME RIGHT AND THE EXTREME LEFT. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER NOTED THAT THESE EXTREMES FEED ON ONE ANOTHER. OUR POLICY IS TO WORK WITH THE CENTER TO PROMOTE A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY. WE HOPE TO PERSUADE A PREPONDERANT NUMBER OF OFFICIALS IN THE GOVERNMENT AND THE MILITARY OF THE IMPORTANCE OF SUCH A TRANSITION, AND WE BELIEVE THAT AT LEAST SOME PEOPLE IN THE GOVERNMENT ARE PAYING ATTENTION TO THIS VIEW. THE CHURCH IS ACTIVELY COMMITTED TO PROMOTING PEACEFUL CHANGE, AND THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY IS INCREASINGLY CONCERNED WITH LOOKING BEYOND PINOCHET. ULTIMATELY, SCHIFTER CONTINUED, THE DECISIONS WILL HAVE TO BE MADE BY CHILEANS, BUT WE MAY BE ABL5 TO PLAY A USEFULCCA ALYTIC

ROLE. THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITY, JAPAN AND THE U.S., SCHIFTER CONCLUDED, ARE THE MAJOR FOREIGN "PLAYERS" IN SANTIAGO, AND WE BELIEVE IT WOULD BE USEFUL FOR OUR EMBASSIES THERE TO EXCHANGE THOUGHTS ON THE SITUATION.

6. KUMAGAI WAS CLEARLY DISCONCERTED BY THIS PRESENTATION. HE NOTED THAT HIS TALKING POINTS PREPARED BY THE FOREIGN MINISTRY FOR THIS MEETING HAD LOOKED AT THE CHILEAN SITUATION IN TERMS OF A UN RESOLUTION. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER NOTED THAT THIS WAS PRECISELY OUR POINT IN HOLDING THESE BILATERAL MEETINGS. WE BELIEVE IT MAKES MORE SENSE TO START BY LOOKING AT THE ACTUAL SITUATION IN A COUNTRY AND FROM THAT SITUATION DETERMINE WHAT SHOULD BE DONE IN MULTI-LATERAL FORA, INCLUDING THE MULTI-LATERAL DEVELOPMENT BANKS. KUMAGAI NOTED THAT

JAPAN HAS WANTED TO USE INTERNATIONAL FORA TO IMPROVE THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION INSIDE A GIVEN COUNTRY, BUT, HE CONCEDED, "YOUR WAY DOES SEEM MORE PRACTICAL; RESOLUTIONS SHOULD BE BASED ON FACTS." HOWEVER, HE CONTINUED, "OUR AMBASSADORS USUALLY DO NOT HAVE AN ACTIVIST ROLE IN TERMS OF THE INTERNAL POLITICS OF A GIVEN COUNTRY."

7. SCHIFTER NOTED THAT HUMAN RIGHTS IS A RELATIVELY NEW AREA IN DIPLOMACY. IN MANY COUNTRIES IT IS DEALT WITH BY THE OFFICE HANDLING INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS. IN THE US STATE DEPARTMENT WE NOW HAVE A HUMAN RIGHTS BUREAU WHICH LOOKS AT SUCH PROBLEMS ACROSS THE BOARD, BILATERALLY AND MULTI-LATERALLY. THE FRENCH HAVE NOW CREATED A POSITION OF "UNDERSECRETARY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS" IN THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE, AND THE FRG IS ALSO CONSIDERING CREATING AN OFFICE TO DEAL WITH HUMAN RIGHTS ACROSS THE BOARD. KUMAGAI NOTED THAT JAPAN HAD CREATED A

DIVISION TO DEAL WITH HUMAN RIGHTS, BUT THAT IT STILL LOOKS AT HUMAN RIGHTS IN TERMS OF INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS.

8. MUTO, RESPONDING TO OUR POINTS ON CHILE, NOTED THAT PUBLIC OPINION POLLS THERE SHOWED THAT MOST PEOPLE WERE PRINCIPALLY CONCERNED WITH ECONOMIC PROBLEMS, AND, IN ANY CASE, THE MATTER OF TRANSITION IN THE FORM OF GOVERNMENT IS A POLITICAL PROBLEM RATHER THAN A HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEM. AFTER REFERRING TO JAPAN'S WISH TO AVOID INVOLVEMENT IN THE POLITICAL AFFAIRS OF OTHER COUNTRIES, MUTO CONCLUDED, "IT WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT TO DO WHAT YOU ARE SUGGESTING." AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER RESPONDED THAT WE WERE NOT SUGGESTING ANY SPECIFIC COURSE OF ACTION FOR JAPAN, RATHER WE WERE DESCRIBING WHAT WE ARE DOING AND WERE ENCOURAGING DISCUSSION WITH OUR FRIENDS BOTH HERE AND IN THE COUNTRIES CONCERNED TO ACHIEVE THE GREATEST POSSIBLE MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING.

9. TURNING TO TREATMENT OF CHILE BY THE UN, SCHIFTER NOTED THAT OVER THE YEARS THE RESOLUTIONS ON CHILE HAD BEEN VERY MUCH AN AFFRONT TO THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT--THEY HAD REFERRED TO THE "CHILEAN AUTHORITIES" RATHER THAN USE THE TERM GOVERNMENT", THEY HAD ATTACKED THE 1980 CONSTITUTION, AND THEY HAD USED VITUPERATIVE LANGUAGE. AS

WE BELIEVE IT NECESSARY TO PERSUADE THE PERSONS IN AUTHORITY TO RETURN TO THE BARRACKS, WE CONSIDERED SUCH RESOLUTIONS COUNTERPRODUCTIVE. CONSEQUENTLY, AT THE 1986 UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION SESSION, WE INTRODUCED OUR OWN RESOLUTION. OUR RESOLUTION REFERRED TO THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT, AVOIDED CHALLENGES TO THE CONSTITUTION, AND INSTEAD OF EMPTY INVECTIVE CALLED FOR SPECIFIC IMPROVEMENTS IN CHILE'S HUMAN RIGHTS PERFORMANCE BASED ON THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF UNHRC SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FERNANDO VOLIO. SCHIFTER CONCLUDED BY NOTING THAT, ALTHOUGH WE HAVE NOT YET MADE A FINAL DETERMINATION, WE MAY SPONSOR A SIMILAR RESOLUTION AT THE UNGA. MOREOVER, IF THERE ARE IMPROVEMENTS IN THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION WE WILL REFER TO THEM IN OUR RESOLUTION. OBVIOUSLY RELIEVED TO BE DISCUSSING MULTI-LATERAL HUMAN RIGHTS DIPLOMACY, KUMAGAI AGREED, NOTING THAT A RESOLUTION SHOULD NOT JUST BE ACCUSATORY BUT SHOULD ENCOURAGE IMPROVEMENTS, AND SHOULD MENTION IMPROVEMENTS ALREADY MADE. HE ALSO NOTED THAT JAPAN PREFERS THAT CHILE BE CONSIDERED UNDER UNHRC AGENDA ITEM 12, THE ITEM THAT DEALS WITH HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD, RATHER THAN UNDER ITEM 5, WHICH DEALS SOLELY WITH CHILE.

EYES ONLY

Dear Bill,

Judging from the tone of Pat Leahy's personal letter (attached), we are in for another round of finger pointing with Congressional liberals, this time over our support for Duarte in the Salvadoran elections. My personal thoughts on this matter are:

-- We are going to have to move quickly to contain this issue.

-- We will need a precise chronology of what we have done, who, when, etc.

-- A detailed exposition showing what was done in this area under the Carter Administration would be helpful. (The finding dates back to Carter, I understand.)

-- We need info on what others have done, Germany, Venezuela, etc. to show that outside support for candidates is not only a usual but accepted practice.

-- Also needed will be as much data as possible on what funds ARENA has received from U.S. sources. We can use this to show that our efforts were designed to redress other outside influences.

I think the people in your agency are best equipped to dig out this information.

If Congress runs true to form, this should break on us next week when our legislation is being considered.

Regards,

Tony Motley

DRUG TRAFFICKING AND THE NICARAGUAN DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE

vec R

Trends in Central and South America

In recent years, the overwhelming majority of illict drugs entering the United States from Latin America have originated in Mexico or South America. In Central America, Belize is a major marijuana producer, and there is some production of marijuana throughout the isthmus. With the exception of Belize, the only other Central American country which has been a substantial producer of illicit drugs is Panama. Thanks to the U.S. assisted eradication program, Panama's production has sharply declined. Guatemala and Costa Rica are marginal producers. Otherwise, the Central American countries have been associated with drug trafficking principally as transhipment points from the large producer countries on the continent of South America.

Panama is particularly important because of its strategic location between North and South America, and it serves as a transit point for licit and illicit international commerce. Cocaine and marijuana are routed through Panama from Colombia, Peru, and Bolivia to markets in the United States, and chemicals used in processing flow the other way. In addition, the sizeable international banking establishment in Panama--some 120 banks with deposits of over $30 billion--is frequently used to launder large sums of money derived from drug traffic. To a lesser extent, other Central American countries have also been used as points for transhipment in both maritime and air traffic of drugs, and have attracted a certain amount of drug money.

Central America has not escaped the attention of international drug traffickers as a possible safehaven from law enforcement agencies. Costa Rica had been a favorite refuge for U.S. drug offenders, resulting in numerous extraditions to the United States of fugitives from justice . Mexican drug trafficker Rafael Caro Quintero, who was implicated in the murder of Drug Enforcement Agency Special Agent Enrique Camarena, also sought refuge in Costa Rica, but was captured and expelled to Mexico. Another well-known trafficker of Honduran citizenship, Ramon Mata Ballesteros, whose network involved operations in both Mexico and Colombia and who is also suspected of involvement in the Camarena murder, fled prosecution in other countries, escaped from jail in Colombia, and travelled to Honduras. He is currently under detention in Honduras pending prosecution. Most of the governments of Central America have a good record of prosecuting drug trafficking offenders and cooperating with the efforts of international law enforcement agencies to bring traffickers to justice in other countries.

In Nicaragua, however, a former Interior Ministry official has provided details on how Minister of Interior Tomas Borge provided Colombian traffickers with planes, refueling, and transhipment facilities. During a DEA investigation conducted in 1983-1984 photographs were obtained of Borge aide Federico Vaughan loading cocaine into a plane at the military airport in Managua. Vaughan was was subsequently indicted in the Southern District of Florida for his involvement in smuggling cocaine into the United States.

Drug Traffic and Guerrilla Groups

Connections between guerrilla groups and drug trafficking in Latin America have been reported. In Colombia, active insurgent movements and terrorist groups have exacted funds from the drug trade. The longest such association -- dating from the early 1980s -- is with the Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia (FARC). The M-19, a group which gained particular notoriety in 1985 with its attack on the Palace of Justice in Bogota, has also developed ties with drug traffickers. In Peru, the major terrorist group, Sendero Luminoso, and Peruvian drug traffickers reportedly have made contact but not on any organized basis. They benefit from each others' activities in that both create an environment of lawlessness and stretch military and law enforcement resources.

With regard to the Nicaraguan democratic resistance groups, there has been no evidence that organizations associated with the major resistance umbrella group, the United Nicaraguan Opposition, have participated in or benefited from drug trafficking. There has been little incentive for traffickers to use resistance members within Nicaragua where they have not up to now controlled land, air, or sea routes of value to traffickers. The resistance organizations themselves have had few physical assets to complement the multiple assets already controlled by the Latin American traffickers. Instead, the available evidence points to involvement with drug traffickers by a limited number of persons having various kinds of affiliations with or political sympathies for resistance groups.

Following is a review of federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies' findings on the principal allegations of Nicaraguan democratic resistance groups' involvement in drug trafficking activities.

...e "Progman" Case

This case gets its nickname from swimmers who brought ...caine ashore on the West Coast from a Colombian vessel in ...nuary 1983. A lengthy investigation was conducted in ...82-1983 by a San Francisco Organized Crime Drug Enforcement ...sk Force. It focussed on a major Colombian cocaine smuggler, ...lvaro Carvajal-Ninota, who supplied a number of West Coast ...raffickers. It was alleged, but never confirmed, that ...icaraguan citizen Horacio Pereira, an associate of Carvajal, ...ad helped the Nicaraguan resistance. Pereira was subsequently ...onvicted on drug charges in Costa Rica and sentenced to twelve ...ears imprisonment. Two other Nicaraguans, Carlos Cabezas and ...ilio Zavala, who were among the jailed West Coast traffickers ...onvicted of receiving drugs from Carvajal, claimed long after ...heir conviction that they had delivered large sums of money to ...esistance groups in Costa Rica and that Pereira, who was not ...harged in the case, had said the profits from the drug sales ...ould finance resistance activities.

Zavala, convicted in 1983 on cocaine trafficking charges ...nd now serving time in a federal penitentiary, was one source ...f a March 16, 1986 story in The San Francisco Examiner which ...eported that there were resistance ties to the drug ring. ...his was the first time Zavala made any mention of resistance ...nvolvement. Officials of the Justice Department subsequently ...eviewed the transcripts of some 11,000 wiretaps collected ...uring this extensive investigation and found no mention of the ...icaraguan resistance or any resistance leader. The U.S. ...torney in the case notes that Cabezas and Zavala did not ...ise these issues as a defense in their trial or at ...ntencing, but waited two years before making these ...egations, which, as indicated, could not be confirmed.

The Examiner story reported that the specific resistance ...up involved was the United Nicaraguan Opposition/Nicaraguan ...olutionary Armed Forces (UNO/FARN) headed by Fernando ...ro" Chamorro. The story also mentioned a Nicaraguan exile ...tical group based in Costa Rica, the Conservative Party of ...raguans in Exile (PCNE) as the possible recipient of drug ...y -- through two of its officials, Francisco Aviles Saens ...Vicente Rappaccioli Marquis. The head of the UNO/FARN, Fernando Chamorro, has categorically denied that he or his organization have been involved in the drug trade, and denied that Francisco Aviles Saenz has acted, as alleged, as UNO/FARN's agent in such matters. Aviles reportedly joined the UNO/FARN in early 1984, but never occupied a leadership position. He did some legal work for the UNO/FARN in San Jose, Costa Rica, but he has never held the position of international secretary of the UNO/FARN as he apparently presented himself in a letter obtained by the Examiner. Upon being informed of Aviles' implication in the San Francisco case, UNO/FARN expelled him from the organization in March 1986.

DEA has examined allegations of linkages between members of the UNO/FARN and suspected traffickers. It has found no information indicating that members of this group have been involved in narcotics trafficking.

Pena-Cabrera

Two Nicaraguans were arrested in 1984 in another investigation of drug trafficking conducted in San Francisco. One of them, Renato Pena-Cabrera, claimed at the time of his arrest that he was a volunteer worker for the San Francisco-based Nicaraguan Democratic Front (FDN). DEA has found no evidence that Pena and his associate were engaged in drug trafficking at the direction of the San Francisco-based FDN, nor for that matter any connection between the San Francisco-based FDN and the FDN which is the largest resistance group fighting in Nicaragua.

Cuban-American Connection

There have been allegations that Rene Corvo and other Cuban-Americans involved in anti-Sandinista activities in Costa Rica were connected with Miami-based drug traffickers. Corvo reportedly recruited a group of Cuban-American and Cuban exile combatants and military trainers in the Miami area who operated inside Nicaragua and in the northern part of Costa Rica. Two Cuban exiles in this group, Mario Rojas Lavas and Ubaldo Hernandez Perez, were captured by the Sandinistas in June 1986. They were reportedly members of the UNO/FARN group headed by Fernando "Negro" Chamorro. There is no information to substantiate allegations that this group from Miami has been a source of drug money for the UNO/FARN or any other resistance organization.

Sandino Revolutionary Front (FRS)

Information developed by the intelligence community indicates that a senior member of Eden Pastora's Sandino Revolutionary Front (FRS) agreed in late 1984 with a Colombian narcotics trafficker that FRS pilots would aid in transporting narcotics in exchange for financial assistance. According to this information, the FRS officer agreed to the use of FRS operational facilities in Costa Rica and Nicaragua to facilitate transportation of narcotics. The Colombian trafficker agreed to provide financial support to the FRS, in addition to aircraft and training for FRS pilots. After undergoing flight training, the FRS pilots were to continue to work for the FRS, but would also fly narcotics shipments from South America to sites in Costa Rica and Nicaragua for later transport to the United States. Shortly thereafter, the Colombian reportedly provided the FRS one C-47 aircraft and two crated helicopters. He is reported to have paid the sum of $100,000 to the FRS, but there is no information available on who actually received this money. Supposedly he promised to pay an additional $200,000 per month once the narcotics shipments began, but there is no indication that this sum was ever delivered.

Only one incident of drug trafficking is known to have resulted from this agreement. A FRS pilot, Gerardo Duran, was arrested in January 1986 in Costa Rica for alleged involvement in transporting cocaine to the United States. DEA has been unable to substantiate allegations linking Eden Pastora directly with these activities. In a meeting with Secretary of State Shultz on March 7, Pastora categorically denied any involvement by himself or by his organization in drug trafficking. The Secretary reiterated the U.S. position that no resistance group would receive any U.S. assistance if it retained within its ranks any member who has engaged in drug trafficking.

Two individuals, who were members of or were affiliated with the Democratic Revolutionary Alliance (ARDE), the umbrella group to which the FRS belonged, were involved in small scale seizures of illicit drugs, one in Guatemala and one in Costa Rica, but there is no information to indicate that ARDE leaders or the organization itself were involved in narcotics trafficking.

2. SUMMARY: I WAS CALLED IN BY DEL VALLE LATE AUGUST 1 TO RECEIVE A NOTE (NOT A "PROTEST") OVER ASSISTANT SECRETARY ABRAMS' JULY 30 TESTIMONY, WHICH HE CHARACTERIZED AS NOT ONLY CONTAINING INACCURACIES BUT AS NOT BEFITTING A COUNTRY THAT IS SUPPOSED TO BE MAINTAINING NORMAL RELATIONS WITH CHILE. PINOCHET, HE SAID, WAS HURT BECAUSE HE WANTED GOOD RELATIONS WITH THE U.S. AND WE WERE NOT RESPONDING. I TOLD HIM CHILE NEEDED TO GIVE FURTHER THOUGHT AS TO WHY SO MANY COUNTRIES LIKE THE U.S. WERE DISTURBED BY DEVELOPMENTS HERE AND NOT TRY TO EXPLAIN IT ALL AWAY BY ASSUMING A MARXIST CONSPIRACY. BY PRESIDENT PINOCHET WITH THE TASK OF HANDING ME A NOTE, BUT BEFORE HE DID SO, HE WANTED TO PROVIDE SOME EXAMPLES OF WHY THE GOC WAS SO BOTHERED BY THE ABRAMS TESTIMONY TO THE HOUSING BANKING COMMITTEE HEARING JULY 30. HE SAID IT WAS PRIMARILY THE TONE OF WHAT HE CALLED TREATING CHILE AS IF IT WERE A POOR RELATIVE RATHER THAN ANOTHER INDEPENDENT COUNTRY, ONE WITH WHOM THE U.S. WAS PRESUMABLY SEEKING GOOD RELATIONS. HE TOOK PARTICULAR OFFENSE AT THE EXPRESSION "CARROTS AND STICKS", SAYING THAT IN CHILE THAT WAS THE SORT OF LANGUAGE YOU USED WITH DONKEYS NOT COUNTRIES, AT LEAST IN PUBLIC. HE ALSO OBJECTED TO ABRAMS' REFERENCES TO THE LARGE NUMBER OF PEOPLE DETAINED WITHOUT CLARIFYING THAT THEY WERE ONLY DETAINED FOR A FEW HOURS OR THE ALLUSIONS TO CASES OF TORTURE WITHOUT INDICATING THAT THE ALLEGATIONS HAD NOT BEEN PROVED. THESE POINTS WERE AT BEST "INEXACT", WHATEVER DEGREE OF TRUTH THEY MIGHT CONTAIN, AND WHEN WE NEXT MET HE WOULD BE ABLE TO SHOW ME AT LEAST TEN CASES WHERE ABRAMS WAS FACTUALLY OFF BASE. HE WAS ALSO UNHAPPY THAT THE U.S. WAS ALWAY CRITICIZING CHILE BUT NEVER A COUNTRY LIKE MEXICO, AS IN THE CASE OF THE MEXICAN ELECTION FRAUD.

4. DEL VALLE SAID THAT PINOCHET HAD ASKED HIM TO CONVEY HIS (PINOCHET'S) SENSE OF BEING "DEEPLY HURT" BY THIS LATEST INSTANCE OF U.S. INABILITY TO UNDERSTAND WHAT WAS HAPPENING IN CHILE. AS THE NOTE WOULD INDICATE, THE GOC WANTED GOOD RELATIONS WITH THE U.S. WE HAD A COMMON ENEMY IN THE FORM OF MARXISM AND WHERE WE DISAGREED, IT WAS REALLY OVER THE PACE OF HOW FAST THE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY SHOULD TAKE PLACE. THE U.S. OUGHT TO PUT THINGS IN CLEARER

FOCUS AND WITHOUT BECOMING AN EXPONENT OF THE GOC AT LEAST SHOW MORE IN THE WAY OF UNDERSTANDING FOR WHAT THE GOC WAS CONFRONTING. DEL VALLE SAID HE DID NOT WANT TO GO INTO GREAT DETAIL TODAY BUT THAT WE WOULD GET TOGETHER IN MID MONTH AFTER HE RETURNS FROM HIS TRIP TO BOGOTA WHICH WILL BE FOLLOWED BY A WEEK'S LEAVE.

5. I TOLD HIM THAT HE OUGHT TO LOOK MORE CAREFULLY AT THE ABRAMS STATEMENT. HE WOULD SEE THAT ABRAMS HAD GONE OUT OF HIS WAY TO RECOGNIZE THOSE THINGS THAT WERE POSITIVE (SOME OF THEM BEING POINTS DEL VALLE HAD MADE TO ME. DEL VALLE ALLOWED AS TO HOW THIS WAS SO). IN ADDITION, ABRAMS COULD NOT REFUSE TO APPEAR AT A CONGRESSIONAL HEARING NOR TO ANSWER QUESTIONS PUT TO HIM AND I FELT HE WAS SETTING OUT VERY OBJECTIVELY THE SITUATION THAT FACED US IN OUR RELATIONS WITH CHILE. FINALLY, I TOLD DEL VALLE THAT WHATEVER ONE MIGHT SAY ABOUT THE INTERPRETATION OF THIS EVENT OR THAT OF A CERTAIN PHRASE, IT WAS A FACT THAT CHILE HAD A VERY NEGATIVE REPUTATION IN MOST OF THE WORLD. DEL VALLE INTERRUPTED TO SAY THAT THE SOVIETS WERE WORKING TIRELESSLY TO DEFAME CHILE AND OTHERS WERE JOINING IN THEIR GAME. I URGED HIM NOT TO BE FOOLED BY HIS OWN ARGUMENT, FOR THERE WAS SOMETHING MUCH DEEPER GOING ON WHICH THE GOC NEEDED TO UNDERSTAND. IF HE WANTED THE U.S. TO HELP CHILE, HE HAD TO RECOGNIZE THE RECIPROCAL NATURE OF HIS REQUEST. WHAT WE COULD DO DEPENDED NOT ONLY ON THE POLITICAL FORCES IN OUR OWN COUNTRY, BUT ALSO VERY MUCH ON WHAT THE GOC DID. DEL VALLE SAID HE RECOGNIZED THAT AND THEN WITH A LONG SIGH SAID

Pinochet - prisoners

Sir:

This to urge you to use Congress to focus world attention on the plight of Juan Luis Gonzalez and Francisco Rivas - two Chilean physicians arrested by the Pinochet government.

As you know, the physicians have been investigating the torture of prisoners by the Pinochet regime, and in trying to force the dictator to hold democratic elections. It is reported that they are still alive; hopefully, if enough pressure is brought to bear, they may be able to remain alive.

SUBJECT: GON VICE MINISTER OF DEFENSE GIVES MILITARY BRIEFING

1. JOAQUIN CUADRA LACAYO, VICE MINISTER OF DEFENSE AND CHIEF OF THE GENERAL STAFF OF THE SANDINISTA PEOPLES ARMY (EPS), HAS BEEN THE LATEST IN A SERIES OF EPS OFFICIALS TO DECLARE THE "STRATEGIC DEFEAT OF THE CONTRAS." CUADRA'S COMMENTS WERE MADE DURING A PRESS BRIEFING ON THE MILITARY SITUATION COVERING THE PERIOD JANUARY TO JULY 1986, AND WERE CARRIED BY THE SANDINISTA TELEVISION NETWORK AUGUST 1 AND BARRICADA AUGUST 3. CUADRA REPORTEDLY BOASTED THAT EVEN THE "HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS WILL NOT CHANGE THE STRATEGIC SITUATION OF THE CONTRAS."

2. CUADRA MADE THE FOLLOWING ADDITIONAL POINTS:

-- HE CLAIMED THAT THE "JORGE SALAZAR" REGIONAL COMMAND, WHICH HAD SOUGHT TO "DEVELOP STRATEGIC OPERATIONS IN BOACO AND CHONTALES (REGION V)," HAD BEEN FORCED TO RETREAT TO "MILITARILY DISADVANTAGED TERRITORY;"

-- CUADRA SAID THAT DURING THE FIRST SIX MONTHS, THE CONTRAS HAD SUFFERED 2,745 KILLED AND THAT THE EPS HAD CAPTURED 300. HE CLAIMED THE CONTRA HAD VIOLENTLY KIDNAPPED 259 PERSONS, A FIGURE THAT CORRESPONDED COINCIDENTLY TO THE NUMBER OF CONTRA DESERTERS FOR THE LAST FEW MONTH?;

-- HE NOTED THAT THE CONTRAS HAD BEEN "INCAPABLE OF BREAKING THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL RESTRUCTURING THAT THE REVOLUTION HAD CARRIED OUT IN THE WAR REGIONS;"

-- HE HAILED THE "IMPORTANT SUCCESS" OF THE EPS IN BEING ABLE TO "FILL UP" WITH PERSONNEL THE BLI'S AND THE "LIGHT HUNTER" UNITS;

-- CUADRA WARNED THAT THE FORTHCOMING PRESENCE OF U.S. MILITARY ADVISERS "PRESAGES" THE DIRECT INVOLVEMENT OF U.S. TROOPS;

-- HE EMPHASIZED THAT THE "POLITICAL ELEMENT" OF THE APPROVAL OF MILITARY AID TO THE CONTRAS IS THAT THE CIA HAS BEEN GIVEN "A FREE HAND TO OPENLY CARRY OUT NEW OPERATIONS AGAINST NICARAGUA;"

-- HE EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT THE CONTRAS WOULD BENEFIT FROM IMPROVED ARMAMENTS AND COMMUNICATION EQUIPMENT.

August 4, 1986

Dear Senator Kennedy:

I refer to your letter of July 11th, which I showed to Messrs. Zabala and Leniz, the other two coordinators of the National Accord.

The rigid position adopted by the government in maintaining unchanged the terms of the constitution approved in 1980, specially in the procedure for the election of the next president, as well as its rejection of any dialogue with the opposition has led them in turn to renew "social mobilization".

The results of this have been a growing polarization, that only favors both extremes, and which will impede a peaceful transition to a viable democracy.

As you know, in the National Accord, signed almost a year ago, there is a specific recognition of the fundamental role that the Armed Forces have and will continue to play in our country.

In the near future they will have a decisive part in working out the solution to the present situation and, subsequently, in protecting the new democratic system.

For that future role, it is important that the armed forces have the opportunity to become familiar again with the experiences of their counterparts in various democratic countries, and to do so on the basis of comparable conditions.

The recent visit of Mr. Robert Gelbard to Chile allowed him to get a clear picture of the present situation, and we are sure that he will be able to convey to you any further information you may need.

We hope that the above will help you to understand the current atmosphere in Chile. It is in this overall context, we believe that both domestic and foreign policies could be usefully reviewed.

Sincerely yours,

Sergio Molina

SPECAT EXCLUSIVE FOR DOD AND USCINCSO GEN. GALVIN

EO 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PGOV, PREL, CR
SUBJ: GENERAL GALVIN'S CALL ON PRESIDENT PINOCHET

1. C - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. GENERAL GALVIN'S EXPRESSION OF PLEASURE AT HAVING THE OPPORTUNITY TO CALL ON PRESIDENT PINOCHET TOGETHER WITH THE AMBASSADOR (AFTER SOME UNCERTAINTY OF WHETHER PINOCHET WOULD RECEIVE US BOTH) WAS GREETED BY PINOCHET WITH A COMMENT ABOUT MILITARY MATTERS BEING MILITARY MATTERS AND THUS APPROPRIATE FOR DISCUSSION ONLY AMONG THE MILITARY. GENERAL GALVIN THEN WENT ON TO DESCRIBE THE TWO PURPOSES OF HIS VISIT: 1) TO BECOME ACQUAINTED WITH THE CHILEAN ARMED FORCES NOT JUST IN THEIR OFFICES BUT IN THE FIELD, BY WAY OF DIRECT CONTACT WITH THE TROOPS; AND 2) HIS INTEREST IN UNDERSTANDING PRESIDENT PINOCHET'S CONCEPT OF THE FUTURE OF CHILE. HE NOTED THAT THAT CONCEPT WAS NOT WELL UNDERSTOOD IN THE UNITED STATES. IN ADDITION, HE MENTIONED THAT HE WAS NOT COMING AS A "MESSENGER," BUT JUST WANTED TO UNDERSTAND THINGS BETTER, A COMMENT THAT PINOCHET WELCOMED.
GEN. GALVIN ADDED THAT PRES. PINOCHET'S "CALENDAR" OF STEPS LEADING UP TO THE PLEBISCITE IN '88 OR ELECTIONS IN '89 WAS NOT REALLY CLEAR TO PEOPLE IN THE US.
PINOCHET RESPONDED THAT IT WAS ALL IN THE CONSTITUTION AND HE INTENDED TO FOLLOW THE SCHEDULE LAID OUT THERE. HE CALLED FOR A COPY AND LATER GAVE IT TO GEN. GALVIN. EXPANDING ON THE POINT CONCERNING CLARIFICATION OF THE CALENDAR OF EVENTS FOR THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE, PINOCHET ASKED, "WHERE YOU MAKE A MILITARY PLAN, DO YOU GO OUT AND TELL EVERYONE ABOUT IT?" GALVIN SAID NO. PINOCHET THEN ADDED, "I HAVE A PLAN, BUT I'M NOT GOING TO TELL ALL ABOUT IT EITHER." GALVIN RESPONDED THAT THERE IS NO NEED TO REVEAL THE WHOLE PLAN, BUT IN THIS "AGE OF INFORMATION," PEOPLE NEED TO KNOW WHERE PINOCHET IS LEADING AND WHAT HE HAS IN MIND -- OR THEY WILL SPECULATE AND BELIEVE RUMORS.

PINOCHET CONTINUED HIS COMMENTS BY TALKING ABOUT THE 1980 CONSTITUTION'S TIMETABLE AND HOW THE ELECTORAL REGISTRY LAW WAS ABOUT TO BE ENACTED AND HOW POLITICAL PARTIES LAW WOULD COME INTO EFFECT THE FIRST PART OF THE YEAR (AS HE MENTIONED LATER HE HAD SAID IN A LETTER TO PRESIDENT REAGAN). OTHER LAWS WOULD FOLLOW.

SINCE EVERYTHING WAS SET OUT IN THE CONSTITUTION. THERE WERE OF COURSE POLITICIANS ("OPPONENTS," "HIS ENEMIES") WHO WANTED TO CHANGE ALL THIS AND WANTED TO GO BACK TO THE TIMES OF SCARCITY, PLANNED ECONOMY AND MARXIST INFLUENCE, INCLUDING SOME "FRIENDS" OF THE US LIKE VALDES AND TOMIC WHO USED TO ATTACK THE US.

4. WHEN GEN. GALVIN ATTEMPTED TO EMPHASIZE THE POINT THAT CHILE'S MESSAGE WAS NOT GETTING ACROSS IN THE US AND SUGGESTED TO PINOCHET THAT IT WOULD BE IN CHILE'S INTEREST TO SEE THAT THE TRANSITION TIMETABLE WAS MORE CLEARLY UNDERSTOOD, PINOCHET SAID THAT WAS IMPOSSIBLE BECAUSE THE COMMUNISTS WOULD TAKE WHATEVER CHILE SAID, "WRAP IT UP," AND DISTORT IT. IN ADDITION, PAPERS LIKE THE NEW YORK TIMES AND THE WASHINGTON POST WERE "IN THE HANDS OF THE COMMUNISTS." WHEN GEN. GALVIN DISAGREED, SAYING SUCH PAPERS WERE LIBERAL, NOT COMMUNIST, PINOCHET SAID "THAT MAY SEEM THAT WAY TO YOU, BUT AS SEEN FROM HERE, THEY ARE."

5. AT THIS POINT, I TRIED TO MAKE THE POINT THAT THE CONSTITUTIONAL LAWS COULD BE A FACTOR IN CHILE'S FAVOR AND ASKED ABOUT REPORTS THAT THERE WERE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN PINOCHET AND THE MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA AND WHETHER THIS WOULD DELAY THE POLITICAL PARTIES LAW. PINOCHET RETORTED THAT CHILE WAS NOT A "BANANA REPUBLIC" AND THAT ALL THE LAWS HAD TO SECURE THE APPROVAL OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL TRIBUNAL. HE WENT ON TO SAY THAT IT WOULD BE THE PEOPLE OF CHILE WHO WOULD DECIDE IN A PLEBISCITE WHO THE NEXT PRESIDENT OF CHILE WOULD BE. ANYONE COULD BE THE CANDIDATE AND AS FOR THE RUMORS ABOUT HIMSELF...AT THAT POINT, HE SHRUGGED HIS SHOULDERS.

6. EARLIER IN TALKING ABOUT THE SPECIALNESS OF THE CHILEAN SITUATION, PINOCHET HAD DWELT ON THE FACT THAT CHILEANS ARE "WHITE," NOT "INDIANS;" NOT LIKE THE REST OF LATIN AMERICA OUTSIDE THE SOUTHERN CONE. THIS MEANT THEY DO THINGS DIFFERENTLY, AND WERE MUCH MORE LIKE AMERICANS.

7. BECAUSE CHILEANS ARE DIFFERENT, HOWEVER, PINOCHET INSISTED THEY WON'T TAKE ORDERS FROM ANYONE FROM OUTSIDE. THERE'S TALK NOW ABOUT CUTTING OFF CREDITS. "LET THEM CUT OFF THE CREDITS. WE DON'T CARE. MAYBE WE'LL DIE OF HUNGER. SO WE'LL DIE OF HUNGER."

8. WHEN GENERAL GALVIN SAID HE DID NOT SEE THE U. S. AS TRYING TO EXERCISE PRESSURE, PINOCHET INSISTED THAT WHATEVER NAME WAS USED, IT WAS PRESSURE AND HE WENT ON TO SAY THAT HE HAD DEFINITE INFORMATION THAT THE CIA WAS FINANCING THE OPPOSITION. HE HAD EARLIER SAID THAT FOREIGN OFFICIALS WILL ACT VERY "SAINTLY" AND DENY THEY ARE DOING ANYTHING, BUT HE KNOWS BETTER. SAYING THAT I, TOO, MAYBE WAS VERY "SAINTLY," I MAINTAINED NONETHELESS THAT THERE WAS NOTHING IN WHAT PINOCHET WAS SAYING ABOUT THE CIA.

9. PINOCHET COMPLAINED ABOUT THE EXAGGERATED TREATMENT IN THE U. S. MEDIA OVER THE TWO YOUNG PEOPLE WHO HAD BEEN BURNED, NOTING HE KNEW FOR SURE THAT THE ONE WHO HAD DIED WAS A COMMUNIST AS WAS HIS FATHER, "WHO IS NOW IN RUSSIA" AND HIS MOTHER, "WHO WAS KICKED OUT OF CHILE AS A COMMUNIST - EVEN IF THE BOY WAS A FRIEND OF CHULTZ' ADVISOR'S DAUGHTER," (HE FIRST SAID "HELMS") IN ANY CASE, HE ALSO KNEW THAT THE BURNING HAD BEEN CAUSED BY EXPLOSIVES THE TWO HAD CARRIED ON THEMSELVES. HE TOOK A SWIPE AT MY ATTENDING THE ROJAS FUNERAL BY SAYING PEOPLE WHO WENT TO SOME FUNERALS DIDN'T SEEM TO CARE WHEN NON-COMMUNISTS GOT HURT. HE COULDN'T UNDERSTAND WHY THE U. S. MADE SO MUCH FUSS OVER WHATEVER SMALL THING HAPPENED IN CHILE WHILE IGNORING WHAT GOES ON IN A COUNTRY LIKE MEXICO. PINOCHET DID PAY AN INDIRECT COMPLIMENT TO SENATOR KENNEDY BY SAYING THAT THE KENNEDY AMENDMENT HAD MADE IT POSSIBLE FOR CHILE TO BECOME MORE SELF-RELIANT AS WELL AS DEVELOP NEW SOURCES OF ARMS FROM COUNTRIES LIKE FRANCE.

18. GENERAL GALVIN BROUGHT THE CONVERSATION BACK TO THE THEME OF THE MILITARY FOCUS PART OF HIS VISIT, SAYING HE WAS A "SIMPLE INFANTRYMAN," TO WHICH PINOCHET RESPONDED THAT HE WAS TOO. HE ALSO RECALLED HE HAD KNOWN SOME OF GENERAL GALVIN'S PREDECESSORS. GENERAL GALVIN MENTIONED THAT PRIOR TO HIS DEPARTURE FROM WASHINGTON LAST WEEK, HE HAD BEEN TOLD BY BOTH THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE AND THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF THAT THEY WANTED HIM TO EXTEND U. S. LINKS WITH THE CHILEAN ARMED FORCES. HE ADDED THAT AS HE HAD ALREADY DISCUSSED EARLIER WITH THE DEFENSE MINISTER, THERE WERE VARIOUS WAYS THIS COULD BE DONE SUCH AS WAR GAMES, SMALL EXERCISES, VISITS, SEMINARS; AND HE ASKED PINOCHET'S AGREEMENT O PURSUE THIS DISCUSSION. IN THE CONTEXT OF THE FLEXIBILITY THAT HE HAD IN HIS COMMAND, HE THOUGHT IT WOULD BE POSSIBLE TO ACHIEVE SOME "IMPORTANT" RESULTS. PINOCHET ENCOURAGED HIM TO PURSUE THE TOPIC WITH THE DEFENSE MINISTER.

11. AMBASSADOR'S COMMENT: IT WAS BEEN SEVERAL MONTHS SINCE I'VE SPENT THIS MUCH TIME WITH PINOCHET. HE HAD TROUBLE RESTRAINING HIMSELF AT TIMES IN GETTING ACROSS HIS MESSAGE ABOUT CHILE NOT SUCCUMBING TO PRESSURE FROM THE U. S. THOUGH HE GAVE THE SENSE THAT HE WAS LISTENING, I HAD THE FEELING A GOOD PART OF THE TIME HE WAS JUST WAITING FOR ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY TO PUT HIS OWN MESSAGE ACROSS. TO THAT EXTENT, I HAD THE FEELING THAT HE WAS MORE OBSESSED THAN WHEN I SAW HIM LAST. THERE WERE ALSO SEVERAL TIMES WHEN PINOCHET SEEMED TO BE SEARCHING FOR A WORD AND TAKING A LITTLE LONGER THAN USUAL TO FIND IT.

12. GENERAL GALVIN'S COMMENTS: PINOCHET'S MESSAGE SEEMED TO BE: "I HAVE A STRATEGY AND I'M GOING TO REVEAL IT IN MY OWN GOOD TIME AND DON'T CROWD ME." HE DID NOT RESPOND OVERTLY TO THE SUGGESTION THAT HIS STRATEGY MIGHT BE PROVIDING AMMUNITION TO HIS OPPONENTS, BUT THERE IS ALWAYS A CHANCE HE WILL CONSIDER THE POINTS WE RAISED.

FOR A MAN WHO HAS TAUGHT IN UNIVERSITIES AND WRITTEN BOOKS ON POLITICAL ASPECTS OF GEOGRAPHY, FOR A GENERAL AND A PRESIDENT, PINOCHET IS SURPRISINGLY UNSOPHISTICATED IN HIS WORLD VIEWS. HE SOUNDED STRANGELY LIKE A CHILEAN [illegible]

SUBJECT: HUMAN RIGHTS: BILATERAL CONSULTATIONS WITH FINLAND

REF: (A) HELSINKI 03201; (B) STATE 191757

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: HA CONTINUED ITS SERIES OF BILATERAL HUMAN RIGHTS CONSULTATIONS IN A MEETING WITH THE FINNISH AMBASSADOR. AFTER ACKNOWLEDGING "THE SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES GEOGRAPHY IMPOSES" ON FINLAND, WE EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT FINLAND WOULD BE ABLE TO BE EVENHANDED IN ITS APPROACH TO HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS EVERYWHERE IN THE WORLD. COUNTRIES DISCUSSED INCLUDED EL SALVADOR, GUATEMALA, CHILE, CUBA, ETHIOPIA AND SOUTH AFRICA. THE FINNISH SIDE EXPLAINED THAT FINLAND SHARES THE IDEALS OF THE US, BUT DOES NOT EASILY TAKE A PUBLIC STANCE ON THESE ISSUES. THE AMBASSADOR DID INFORM US OF THE RATHER COMPREHENSIVE SET OF SANCTIONS FINLAND HAS TAKEN AGAINST SOUTH AFRICA. HE ALSO RAISED QUESTIONS ABOUT THE POSSIBILITY OF ESTABLISHING A HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS, AND ABOUT THE FUNCTIONING OF THE UNHRC SPECIAL RAPPORTEURS. END SUMMARY.

. THE HA BUREAU CONTINUED ITS SERIES OF BILATERAL HUMAN RIGHTS DISCUSSIONS IN A JULY 29 MEETING WITH FINNISH AMBASSADOR PAAVO RANTANEN. AMBASSADOR RANTANEN WAS ACCOMPANIED BY SECOND SECRETARY MARJUKKA METTALA. THE CONFIDENTIAL

DEPARTMENT WAS REPRESENTED BY HA ASSISTANT SECRETARY RICHARD SCHIFTER, HA/MLP: TOM WILLIAMS, EUR/NE: DICK CHRISTENSON, IO/HW: BEVERLY ZWEIBEN, AND HA/MLP: STAN EFSHIN (NOTETAKER).

. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER EXPLAINED OUR RATIONALE FOR THESE TALKS, AND OBSERVED THAT, ALTHOUGH WE RECOGNIZE THE SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCE GEOGRAPHY IMPOSES ON FINLAND, WE HOPE THAT FINLAND CAN TAKE AN EVENHANDED, UNIFORM APPROACH TO HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE WORLD. AMBASSADOR RANTANEN RESPONDED THAT FINLAND APPRECIATES THE INITIATIVE OF INCLUDING IT IN THESE

CONSULTATIONS. WE SHARE THE IDEALS OF THE US, HE CONTINUED, BUT DO NOT EASILY TAKE A PUBLIC STANCE, AND DO NOT NORMALLY WISH TO BE INVOLVED IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF OTHER COUNTRIES. SCHIFTER NOTED THAT WE HAVE FOUND FINLAND'S PRINCIPLED STANCE ADMIRABLE. WE WANTED TO EXCHANGE VIEWS WITH FINLAND ON THE FACTUAL SITUATIONS IN CERTAIN PROBLEM AREAS SO THAT IN FORA LIKE THE NORDIC CAUCUS FINLAND WOULD BE AWARE OF OUR VIEWS AND BE ABLE, AS APPROPRIATE, TO TAKE THEM INTO ACOUNT.

. THE CONVERSATION NEXT TURNED TO CHILE. AMBASSADOR CHIFTER NOTED THAT THE SITUATION IS VERY DIFFERENT FROM HAT IN CENTRAL AMERICA. AS DISTINCT FROM ELECTED OVERNMENTS WE ARE DEALING WITH A MILITARY DICTATORSHIP. CONSTITUTION IS IN PLACE, HOWEVER, AND ELECTIONS ARE CHEDULED FOR 1989 AND 1990. WE WANT THESE ELECTIONS TO E AS FREE AND FAIR AS POSSIBLE. HARDLINERS IN THE OVERNMENT DO NOT WANT TO LET GO. THE RADICAL LEFT IS SING VIOLENCE TO TRY TO UNDERMINE CHILEAN SOCIETY. HESE TWO EXTREMES FEED ON ONE ANOTHER. THE GREAT AJORITY OF CHILEANS FAVOR THE DEMOCRATIC CENTER. WE ARE RYING TO SUPPORT THE CENTER, SCHIFTER CONCLUDED, AND WE OPE OTHER DEMOCRACIES WILL JOIN WITH US IN SUPPORTING A EACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY.

0. AMBASSADOR RANTANEN SAID THAT THIS IS CERTAINLY INLAND'S WISH, AND INQUIRED WHETHER WE SAW INDICATIONS F IMPROVEMENTS IN THE COMING MONTHS. AMBASSADOR CHIFTER RESPONDED THAT PROGRESS IN CHILE DEPENDS VERY JCH ON DISCUSSIONS WITHIN THE MILITARY JUNTA, AND HETHER A CONSENSUS FOR DEMOCRACY WILL DEVELOP OR A ONSENSUS FOR A HARD-LINE. FRANKLY, WE DO NOT KNOW HOW T WILL COME OUT. SCHIFTER NOTED THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS AKING SOME STEPS:--IT HAS ESTABLISHED AN OFFICIAL HUMAN

AGE 07 STATE 247686

IGHTS COMMISSION. WE WILL HAVE TO SEE HOW IT FUNCTIONS

EFORE MAKING ANY JUDGMENTS.--A VOTER REGISTRATION LAW IS UPPOSED TO BE PROMULGATED BY SEPTEMBER.--A POLITICAL ARTIES LAW IS TO BE PROMULGATED IN EARLY 1987. SCHIFTER ADDED THAT, CURRENTLY, ALTHOUGH OSTENSIBLY LLEGAL, POLITICAL PARTIES EXIST, AND FUNCTION.) CHIFTER CONCLUDED THAT, ON BOTH THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT, HERE ARE THOSE WHO ARE TRYING TO DERAIL THESE EVELOPMENTS.

1. RANTANEN ALSO ASKED ABOUT THE RODRIGO ROJAS CASE. MBASSADOR SCHIFTER NOTED THAT AMBASSADOR BARNES HAD TTENDED THE FUNERAL AND THAT WE HAD MADE NUMEROUS PRESS TATEMENTS ABOUT THE CASE. HE INDICATED THAT WE WOULD XPRESS OURSELVES FURTHER AS DEVELOPMENTS UNFOLDED.

2. SCHIFTER NOTED THAT WE WERE CONSIDERING OFFERING A ESOLUTION IN THE UNGA SIMILAR TO THE ONE WE HAD PONSORED AT THE UNHRC, AND WOULD BE INTERESTED IN THE HOUGHTS OF OUR DEMOCRATIC FRIENDS ON THIS. HE EXPLAINED HE DISTINCTIONS BETWEEN OUR RESOLUTION AND PREVIOUS ESOLUTIONS ON CHILE, WHICH BECAUSE OF THEIR INTEMPERATE, ITUPERATIVE LANGUAGE, WE HAD BEEN FORCED TO VOTE GAINST. MANY THOUGHT OUR RESOLUTION AT THE UNHRC HAD NDICATED A CHANGE IN US POLICY. THERE HAD BEEN NO HANGE IN POLICY, SCHIFTER EXPLAINED, BUT BY OFFERING OUR WN DRAFT, WE HAD CAUSED A MORE REASONABLE RESOLUTION TO E ADOPTED. IF A RESOLUTION CONTAINS INAPPROPRIATE ANGUAGE, IT IS UNACCEPTABLE TO US. RANTANEN TERMED THE S RESOLUTION AT THE UNHRC A "GREAT SUCCESS" AND NOTED HAT FINLAND HAD WELCOMED IT.

NR

NR

8. AMBASSADOR RANTANEN ASKED ABOUT THE PROSPECTS FOR STABLISHING THE POSITION OF UN HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR UMAN RIGHTS, WHICH, HE NOTED, FINLAND SUPPORTS. MBASSADOR SCHIFTER RESPONDED THAT WE TOO SUPPORT THE ONCEPT, BUT ITS OPPONENTS, PRINCIPALLY THE SOVIETS, HAVE FFERED AMENDMENTS WHICH SO WARPED THE ORIGINAL PROPOSAL S TO MAKE IT WORTHLESS. IN RECENT YEARS, WE HAVE UPPORTED THE ESTABLISHMENT OF SUBJECT MATTER RAPPORTEURS HICH, IN PART, WE VIEW AS A WAY OF GOING AT THE CREATION OF A HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS PIECEMEAL.

19. RANTANEN ASKED ABOUT THE ROLE OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEURS, AND WHETHER WE SEE ANY ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT IN THE OPERATION. SCHIFTER RESPONDED THAT THE OPERATION OF THE VARIOUS SPECIAL RAPPORTEURS SEEMED TO DEPEND VERY MUCH ON THE INDIVIDUALS CHOSEN. BY AND LARGE, WE BELIEVE THE PATTERN HAS BEEN GOOD. IF ADDITIONAL SUPPORT COULD BE PROVIDED TO THE RAPPORTEURS, SCHIFTER ADDED, PRESUMABLY THEY COULD DO MORE.

20. RANTANEN CLOSED THE MEETING BY NOTING THAT THIS HAD ALL BEEN VERY USEFUL, AND HE WOULD REPORT IT FULLY TO HELSINKI. WHITEHEAD

2. SUMMARY: EMBASSY SCIENCE COUNSELOR AND SCIENCE ATTACHE MET WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF THE INSTITUTE FOR NUCLEAR RESEARCH (ININ) AND THE SECRETARIAT FOR ENERGY, MINES, AND PARASTATAL INDUSTRIES (SEMIP) ON AUGUST 8. THE GOM REPRESENTATIVES OFFERED PROPOSALS FOR RESOLVING TWO OUTSTANDING ISSUES INVOLVING THE SUPPLY OF NUCLEAR FUEL TO MEXICO. THE MEXICANS WISH TO PURCHASE FOR A NOMINAL SUM NATURAL URANIUM FUEL THAT HAS BEEN LEASED FROM DOE VIA THE IAEA FOR SOME 15 YEARS. THE MEXICANS BELIEVE THIS THE BEST MEANS TO RESOLVE THE REFUSAL OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ZACATECAS TO PAY RENT ON THE FUEL IT HAS HELD FOR THIS PERIOD. THE MEXICANS HAVE ALSO PROPOSED AN INTRIGUING MEANS TO ESCAPE FROM THE IMPASSE OVER THE SUPPLY OF FUEL ELEMENTS TO THE TRIGA REACTOR AT ININ.

THE REPRESENTATIVE OF SEMIP AT THE MEETING PROPOSED THAT BACKUP SAFEGUARDS PROVIDED FOR IN THE EXCHANGE OF NOTES ON THE SUPPLY OF FUEL ELEMENTS TO THE TRIGA BE

LEASED NATURAL URANIUM FUEL

4. U.S.-ORIGIN NATURAL URANIUM FUEL ON A TRILATERAL U.S.-GOM-IAEA LEASE ARRANGEMENT FOR APPROXIMATELY 15 YEARS. THE FUEL, WHICH IS IN THE FORM OF SMALL URANIUM METAL/ALUMINUM CLAD ELEMENTS, WAS SUPPOSED TO BE USED FOR TWO SUBCRITICAL ASSEMBLIES IN MEXICO. THE ASSEMBLIES WERE LOCATED AT THE NATIONAL POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE (IPN) IN MEXICO CITY AND AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ZACATECAS. ACCORDING TO THE MEXICANS, THE ASSEMBLY

AT IPN HAS BEEN IN FREQUENT USE AND THE POLYTECHNIC HAS ALWAYS PAID THE RENT FOR THE FUEL. THE ASSEMBLY AT ZACATECAS, ON THE OTHER HAND, HAS NEVER USED THE FUEL AND HAS NOT PAID A DIME FOR IT. (THE EMBASSY KNOWS FROM OTHER SOURCES THAT THE DONATION OF THE ASSEMBLY TO ZACATECAS SPARKED AN ACADEMIC TONG WAR BETWEEN VARIOUS FACULTIES OF THE UNIVERSITY OVER OWNERSHIP AND USE OF THE REACTOR. THIS DISPUTE HAS NEVER BEEN RESOLVED.)

OTHER HAND, BELLO NOTED THAT THE PROMPT RENTAL PAYMENTS MADE BY IPN NOW TOTALLED MORE THAN THE SALE VALUE OF THE FUEL.

6. IN ORDER TO TERMINATE THIS PROBLEM, THE MEXICANS SUGGESTED THAT THE USG AGREE TO THE SALE OF THE FUEL TO THE GOM FOR A NOMINAL PRICE (SLIGHTLY MORE THAN USD 1000.00). THE FUEL WOULD BE PURCHASED BY ININ AND WOULD BE USED BY IPN. THIS WOULD RESOLVE THE CONTINUED NON-PAYMENT OF RENT BY ZACATECAS AND WOULD REMOVE THE NEED TO EVER HAVE TO RETURN THE FUEL TO THE U.S. DE ALBA SAID THE GOM WOULD PROPOSE THIS SALE IN VIENNA IF IT RECEIVED AN INDICATION FROM THE USG THAT THIS WOULD BE ACCEPTABLE. (THE EMBASSY DOES NOT HAVE A COPY OF THE TRILATERAL LEASE FOR THE FUEL, BUT, ACCORDING TO BELLO, THE AGREEMENT DOES HAVE A PROVISION IN IT FOR THE SALE OF THE FUEL TO MEXICO.)

7. EMBOFFS INDICATED THEY WOULD REPORT THE PROPOSAL TO WASHINGTON.

FUEL ELEMENTS FOR THE ININ TRIGA REACTOR

8. BELLO THEN PROPOSED THAT THE SOLUTION TO THE FUEL LEASE PROBLEM BE LINKED FINANCIALLY TO A RESOLUTION OF THE SUPPLY OF THE REMAINING FUEL ELEMENTS FOR THE TRIGA REACTOR AT ININ. EMBASSY SCIENCE ATTACHE NOTED THAT THE TWO PROBLEMS WERE QUITE DIFFERENT FROM THE USG POINT OF VIEW AND OPINED THAT IT WOULD MAKE RESOLUTION OF EITHER PROBLEM MORE COMPLICATED IF THEY WERE LINKED. BELLO THEN PROPOSED A SIMPLE ONE-TIME EXTENSION OF THE LAPSED U.S.-GOM-IAEA TRILATERAL SUPPLY AGREEMENT FOR FUEL FOR THE TRIGA TO GET THE REMAINING ELEMENTS FROM THE U.S. TO MEXICO. BELLO AND DE ALBA REHASHED THE NOW-FAMILIAR GOM ARGUMENTS THAT THE U.S. HAD RETRO-

ACTIVELY CHANGED THE LEGAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE EXPORT OF THE ELEMENTS AFTER ININ HAD PAID FOR THEM. EMBOFFS MADE CLEAR THAT ISSUANCE OF AN EXPORT LICENSE FOR THE ELEMENTS WAS CONTINGENT ON MEETING U.S. LEGAL REQUIREMENTS FOR SUCH LICENSES. EMBASSY SCIENCE ATTACHE NOTED THERE WAS NO INTEREST IN WASHINGTON IN MAKING SPECIAL EXEMPTIONS TO THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY ACT.

9. IN REPLY TO EMBASSY SCIENCE COUNSELOR'S INQUIRY ABOUT WHY THE GOM RESISTED NEGOTIATING A NEW SUPPLY AGREEMENT, DE ALBA AND BELLO STATED THAT THE SECRETARIAT OF FOREIGN RELATIONS WAS FIRMLY AGAINST A BILATERAL NUCLEAR AGREEMENT WITH THE U.S. WITH REGARD TO A TRILATERAL NUCLEAR SUPPLY AGREEMENT, THE U.S. REQUIREMENT FOR A BILATERAL EXCHANGE OF NOTES ON BACKUP SAFEGUARDS WAS VIEWED BY THE GOM AS A MEANS FOR THE USG TO TURN A MULTILATERAL AGREEMENT INTO A BILATERAL ONE ACCORDING TO DE ALBA.

11. WE PRESUME WHAT DE ALBA HAS IN MIND WOULD BE SOME MEANS FOR THE GOM TO AGREE TO OPANAL INSPECTIONS AS PROVIDED FOR IN ARTICLE 16 OF THE TREATY OF TLATELOLCO SHOULD IAEA SAFEGUARDS NO LONGER BE AVAILABLE.

12. COMMENT: WE FIND THIS SUGGESTION INTRIGUING. ALTHOUGH IT WOULD APPEAR TO US THAT SOME CREATIVE MEANS WOULD HAVE TO BE FOUND TO MAKE ARTICLE 16 1 (B) APPLY TO A REQUEST FOR BACKUP SAFEGUARDS, THIS MAY NOT BE IMPOSSIBLE. MOREOVER, AT FIRST GLANCE, WE DO NOT SEE WHY SUCH A CHALLENGE INSPECTION PROVISION UNDER THE TREATY COULD NOT BE SPECIFIED TO AN EXTENT NECESSARY TO MAKE THE INSPECTION THE FUNCTIONAL EQUIVALENT OF IAEA SAFEGUARDS, IN THE UNLIKELY EVENT THAT IAEA INSPECTIONS WERE NOT BEING APPLIED HERE. WE ARE, HOWEVER, UNFAMILIAR WITH THE LEGAL HISTORY OF THE BACKUP SAFEGUARDS REQUIREMENT. WE WOULD, THEREFORE, APPRECIATE A CAREFUL EXAMINATION OF THIS PROPOSAL BY THE RELEVANT USG AGENCIES. END COMMENT.

GUATEMALA: MISSING AMERICANS

Q: What has the State Department done to investigate the April 1985 disappearance of Nicolas Blake and Griffith Davis in Guatemala?

A: -- AS SOON AS IT LEARNED ON APRIL 8, 1985 THAT BLAKE AND DAVIS HAD NOT RETURNED FROM A HIKING TRIP IN THE EL QUICHE AREA, OUR EMBASSY IN GUATEMALA REQUESTED GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT ASSISTANCE. ARMY PATROLS IN THE AREA WERE ALERTED AND THE GUATEMALAN ARMY FOLLOWED UP WITH A WEEK-LONG, 450-MAN SEARCH OF THE AREA. THE ARMY INCURRED A NUMBER OF CASUALTIES IN CLASHES WITH GUERRILLA UNITS DURING THE SEARCH. EMBASSY OFFICERS TRAVELED TO THE AREA AND TRACED BLAKE AND DAVIS AS FAR AS THE VILLAGE OF LLANO, ON THE EDGE OF GUERRILLA-OCCUPIED TERRITORY. ON APRIL 25, AN EMBASSY OFFICER AIR-DROPPED 4,500 LEAFLETS IN SPANISH AND THE LOCAL INDIGENOUS INDIAN LANGUAGE. THE EMBASSY DISTRIBUTED ANOTHER 500 BY HAND THROUGHOUT THE SURROUNDING AREA. DURING THE SUMMER AND FALL, WE CONTINUED TO FOLLOW UP ON POSSIBLE LEADS IN THE CASE AND MAINTAINED CLOSE CONTACT WITH THE FAMILIES. IN DECEMBER 1985, EMBASSY OFFICERS RETURNED TO THE AREA AND INTERVIEWED SEVERAL FORMER GUERRILLAS WHO HAD DEFECTED TO THE GOVERNMENT. OUR POSTS IN MEXICO HAVE ALSO PURSUED POSSIBLE LEADS IN THE BORDER AREA WITH GUATEMALA.

Q: Does the Department agree with Nicolas Blake's brothers' contention that the "Guerrilla Army of the Poor" (EGP) is responsible for the disappearances and probable deaths of the two?

A: -- WE STILL CONSIDER THIS TO BE AN OPEN CASE; NO BODIES HAVE BEEN FOUND. GIVEN THE COMPLETE LACK OF HARD EVIDENCE ABOUT WHAT MAY HAVE HAPPENED TO BLAKE AND DAVIS, WE WILL NOT SPECULATE ON WHO MAY BE RESPONSIBLE. THE AREA IN WHICH THEY WERE HIKING IS CONSIDERED EXTREMELY DANGEROUS BECAUSE OF GUERRILLA ACTIVITY AND THE DEPARTMENT TRAVEL ADVISORY FOR GUATEMALA HAS LONG URGED AMERICANS TO AVOID THE AREA.

However we have no reason to doubt the findings (beliefs) of the GOG + the family regarding the murders.

-- THE EGP IS THE LARGEST OF SEVERAL MARXIST GUERRILLA GROUPS IN GUATEMALA. IT IS ALIGNED WITH CUBA AND GENERALLY OPERATES IN THE NORTHWEST HIGHLANDS.

CHRONOLOGY OF BLAKE-DAVIS CASE

March 29, 1985	Americans last seen in Llano, El Quiche Department
April 8	First report of disappeance reached Embassy in Guatemala City from friends who had been unable to locate them. Embassy requested Guatemalan government assistance. Army dispatched patrols in area.
April 18	Embassy officers traveled to area by helicopter, traced route of Blake and Davis to Llano, interviewing people along way.
April 24	Guatemalan Army mounted week-long, 450-man search operation in El Quiche.
April 25	Embassy officer drops 4,500 leaflets printed in Spanish and local indigenous language over guerrilla territory. 500 more distributed by hand in surrounding area.
May-December	Embassy continued to maintain close contact with Guatemalan authorities who assured that patrols were still on lookout. Embassy and Department officers maintained liaison with families of Blake and Davis and with Blake family private investigator. Every lead was investigated by the Embassy, which also arranged for meetings between family members and Guatemalan officials.
December 17	Embassy officers travel again to El Quiche and interview privately six former guerrillas who had voluntarily surrendered to authorities since the disappearance. None had any knowledge of the whereabouts of Blake or Davis.

21. SCHIFTER RAISED THE CHILE SITUATION, INFORMING THE SWISS THAT WE ARE HEAVILY INVOLVED IN TRYING TO GET SOME IMPROVEMENTS. AN ADVISORY COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS HAS BEEN CREATED BY THE GOVERNMENT. WE ARE WAITING TO SEE WHAT WILL BE THE RESULTS. REGARDING TORTURE, THE INCIDENCE HAS GONE DOWN. AN ORDER WAS ISSUED IN JUNE OR JULY 1985 PROHIBITING TORTURE. WE HAVE HAD NEW REPORTS

OF TORTURE, AND HAVE SAID TO THE CHILEANS THAT ONE CASE IS ONE TOO MANY. THERE IS A PROBE UNDERWAY OF THE RECENT KILLING OF A MAN BY THE MILITARY. WE DO NOT BELIEVE THAT WAS ORDERED BY THE TOP, BUT RATHER WAS DONE BY SOLDIERS ON THE SPOT. MORE WOULD BE GAINED FOR THE MILITARY REGIME BY PUNISHING THOSE RESPONSIBLE THAN WOULD BE IF THERE WERE A WHITEWASH. WE ARE ALSO INTERESTED IN PRESSING FOR DIALOGUE BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION. THE CHURCH AND BUSINESS COMMUNITY COULD PLAY A SIGNIFICANT ROLE IN SUCH A PROCESS. WE SEE POSSIBILITIES FOR DEVELOPING A CONSENSUS ON A PEACEFUL, ORDERLY AND DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION. THE SWISS TOLD US THAT [redacted] THE CNI CENTER, WHERE THEY BELIEVE TORTURE HAS TAKEN PLACE. THE SWISS DECLARED THAT THEY HAVE BEEN VERY VIGOROUS AND FORCEFUL WITH THE CHILEANS. IF TORTURE IS DECREASING, THAT IS A VERY ENCOURAGING SIGN.

SUBJECT: HUMAN RIGHTS: BILATERAL CONSULTATIONS WITH NEW ZEALAND

REF: STATE 191757 (NOTAL)

1. CONFIDENTIAL-ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: HA CONTINUED ITS SERIES OF BILATERAL HUMAN RIGHTS CONSULTATIONS IN A MEETING WITH THE NEW ZEALAND AMBASSADOR. OUR PRESENTATION INCLUDED CHILE, PARAGUAY, EL SALVADOR, CUBA, SOUTH AFRICA, IRAN AND BULGARIA. THE NEW ZEALAND AMBASSADOR OBSERVED THAT HIS MISSION HAS "A VERY LIMITED BRIEF" BUT ACKNOWLEDGED THE NEED TO PRODUCE "MORE COHERENT, PURPOSEFUL AND POWERFUL END RESULTS." END SUMMARY.

3. THE HA BUREAU CONTINUED ITS SERIES OF BILATERAL HUMAN RIGHTS DISCUSSIONS IN AN AUGUST 11 MEETING WITH NEW ZEALAND AMBASSADOR ROWLING, A FORMER PRIME MINISTER. AMBASSADOR ROWLING WAS ACCOMPANIED BY DEPUTY CHIEF OF MISSION JOHN WOOD. THE DEPARTMENT WAS REPRESENTED BY HA ASSISTANT SECRETARY RICHARD SCHIFTER; HA DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY JAMES MONTGOMERY; IO/HW: BEVERLY ZWEIBEN; AND HA/MLP: ED MICHAL (NOTETAKER).

CONFIDENTIAL

4. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER EXPLAINED THAT WE WISHED TO EXCHANGE INFORMATION ON A SYSTEMATIC BASIS WITH OTHER WESTERN DEMOCRACIES TO GET IDEAS, CONVEY OUR THOUGHTS, AND ENGAGE, WHERE APPROPRIATE, IN JOINT ACTIVITIES. HE POINTED OUT THAT IT IS IMPORTANT TO PLACE IN CONTEXT WHAT IS GOING ON IN A COUNTRY BEFORE IT COMES UP IN INTERNATIONAL AGENCIES, RATHER THAN LET INTERNATIONAL AGENCY POLITICS DRIVE SUCH ISSUES.

5. AMBASSADOR ROWLING RESPONDED THAT THIS PROPOSAL HAS A GREAT DEAL OF MERIT. ALTHOUGH HIS MISSION HAS A LIMITED BRIEF, IT HAS NO PROBLEM IN PLACING HUMAN RIGHTS HIGH ON

ITS LIST OF PRIORITIES. HE NOTED THAT NEW ZEALAND HAS NOT BEEN A CO-SPONSOR ON ANY COUNTRY-SPECIFIC RESOLUTIONS, BUT WOULD VOTE FOR THEM IF APPROPRIATE. NEW ZEALAND DOES HAVE MORE FAITH IN PRIVATE THAN PUBLIC RECRIMINATIONS. HE OBSERVED THAT PROMINENT ISSUES OFTEN COME UP BECAUSE OF THE MEDIA OR INTERNATIONAL POLITICS, AND SAW A DISCREPANCY IN TREATMENT OF COUNTRIES. ROWLING TWICE MENTIONED THAT NEW ZEALAND LACKS INFORMATION. HE CONCLUDED THAT THIS ILLUSTRATES THE NEED TO PRODUCE "MORE COHERENT, PURPOSEFUL AND POWERFUL END RESULTS."

6. SCHIFTER INDICATED THAT THIS IS PRECISELY HOW WE SEE ALL THESE PROBLEMS, AND SAID WE ARE PREPARED TO EXCHANGE DATA. WE ARE INTERESTED IN ENSURING THAT ALL THOSE SHARING A COMMITMENT TO PRINCIPLES OF DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT ACT TOGETHER TO REALIZE THEM. THE OBJECTIVE OUGHT TO BE TO SOLVE PROBLEMS, RATHER THAN ISSUE PRONOUNCEMENTS.

7. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY THEN TURNED TO CHILE, WHICH HAS BEEN DISCUSSED IN THE UN SINCE 1974, ALTHOUGH THE CHILEAN RECORD IS NOT ONE OF THE WORLD'S WORST. HE EXPLAINED THAT WE ARE DEALING WITH A COUNTRY WHICH HAS CONFIDENTIAL

VIABLE DEMOCRATIC TRADITIONS, PROVIDING AN ALTERNATIVE TO THE EXISTING STRUCTURE. THERE ARE QUITE A NUMBER OF PARTIES IN THE CENTER AND A RECENT POLL INDICATED 72 PERCENT OF THE CHILEANS FAVOR A RETURN TO DEMOCRACY. WE WANT TO ENCOURAGE A TRANSITION BACK TO DEMOCRACY. IT IS NECESSARY, HOWEVER, FOR DEMOCRATIC GROUPS TO CONDUCT THEMSELVES SO AS TO GAIN THE CONFIDENCE AND SUPPORT NOT ONLY OF THE PUBLIC BUT THE MILITARY. WE BELIEVE THERE

MAY BE MILITARY SENTIMENT IN FAVOR OF A RETURN TO DEMOCRACY BUT ALSO SOME SENTIMENT AGAINST. AT THE OTHER END OF THE SPECTRUM THERE ARE THE COMMUNISTS AND ASSOCIATED GROUPS, WHICH HAVE PLEDGED TO INSTALL A LENINIST GOVERNMENT AND RESORTED TO TERRORISM. WE ARE URGING GOVERNMENT CIRCLES TO CONSIDER SERIOUSLY MOVES TOWARD DEMOCRATIZATION. WE ALSO ARE CAUTIONING THE DEMOCRATIC GROUPS NOT TO ASSOCIATE WITH LENINIST GROUPS, TO AVOID BOTH BEING MANIPULATED AND SCARING OFF THE MILITARY, WHICH WOULD BELIEVE CIVILIANS COULD NOT BE TRUSTED.

8. SCHIFTER POINTED OUT THAT THE COMMUNISTS' VOTING STRENGTH TRADITIONALLY AMOUNTED TO 15 PERCENT OR LESS IN CHILE, SO THEY USE MANIPULATION AND FORCE TO PROJECT POWER. REGARDING THE GOVERNMENT, WE HAVE MADE OUR POSITION VERY CLEAR REGARDING SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT IS CLAIMING SOME IMPROVEMENTS. FOR ONE, THERE IS THE ADVISORY COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS APPOINTED BY THE GOVERNMENT. WE BELIEVE THE JURY IS STILL OUT ON THAT BODY, AND THE REAL QUESTION IS WHAT THEY WILL PRODUCE. THE GOVERNMENT ALSO HAS PROMISED TO PROMULGATE A NEW VOTER REGISTRATION LAW, POSSIBLY BY SEPTEMBER, TO PREPARE FOR THE 1989 ELECTION. CONFIDENTIAL

IT HAS FURTHER PROMISED A POLITICAL PARTIES LAW. SCHIFTER NOTED THAT ALTHOUGH SUCH PARTIES ARE PRESENTLY OUTLAWED, THEY DO EXIST AND THEIR LEADERS DO MAKE FREQUENT PUBLIC STATEMENTS. AS FAR AS THE MILITARY IS CONCERNED, SOME JUNTA MEMBERS HAVE EXPRESSED THEMSELVES IN A WAY DIFFERENT FROM PINOCHET. TO THE EXTENT TO WHICH MESSAGES IN SUPPORT OF DEMOCRATIC PROCESSES CAN BE SENT, MODERATES WOULD BE STRENGTHENED.

9. SCHIFTER EXPLAINED THAT OUR OPTIONS IN CHILE ARE CLEAR; WE KNOW WHERE THE DEMOCRATS WANT TO GO. THE US VOTED AGAINST RESOLUTIONS ON CHILE FOR MANY YEARS, BUT OFFERED A RESOLUTION OF ITS OWN IN THE LAST UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION MEETING AND MIGHT OFFER ONE AT THE NEXT UNGA. IF SO, IT WOULD BE ONE THAT IDENTIFIES THE PROBLEMS. IT WOULD ALSO, HOWEVER, REFER TO THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT, RATHER THAN TO CHILEAN "AUTHORITIES," AND AVOID CHALLENGING THE LEGITIMACY OF THE CHILEAN CONSTITUTION. FINALLY, IF THE GOVERNMENT ACTS CONSTRUCTIVELY, WE WILL BE PREPARED TO ACKNOWLEDGE IT IN THE RESOLUTION.

10. AMBASSADOR ROWLING REVEALED THAT THE PRIME MINISTER

RECENTLY HAD OCCASION TO CALL IN THE CHILEAN AMBASSADOR TO TELL HIM THAT RELATIONS HAD REACHED A CERTAIN STAGE, BUT WOULD NOT IMPROVE WHILE CHILE LACKED HUMAN RIGHTS AND A DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM.

Dear Kim:

I'm off this afternoon and depending on how fast the pouch is may well have talked to you or Jim by the time you read this. It was good to get your first letter. For my part I don't feel we have to make it a weekly exchange in any sort of slavish fashion. Still, I've found that there usually are things that accumulate that are worth sharing. Let me start first, though, with comments on your letter of August 21.

Interagency Meeting on MDB Loan Issue. Thanks for the fill-in on who's taking what position. So far I would say they fit pretty much my expectations, based on my own last series of discussions in Washington. I come out in favor of a greater sense of speed, in that I think we need to allow enough time for lobbying or discussion or whatever the right word is in the sense of helping other countries, particularly the Latin American democracies, as Jackie noted, to think through the issues. You will have seen the report on the second in a series of get togethers that John Keane and I have had with the Brazilian, Argentine, Venezuelan and Costa Rican Ambassadors which anticipates some of the things Bob has in mind. My conclusion from these talks here is that there is just a lot of spade work that needs doing whatever the eventual outcome. And, if we want to be effective, we should not be alone. In addition, of course, there's the whole question of using leverage in a timely fashion, which we address in our telegram.

Section 552 Lobbying. I was disappointed to find that some potential allies were backing out of joint efforts to try to scuttle this proposal. Please persist with the Peace Corps for one, because Jack Burgess, the Assistant Director, did promise me some help.

As to tactics, a couple thoughts occurred to me; 1) Why is Obey so interested? It ought to be possible to find out, since he has not been up to this point one of the active members of the House on Chilean matters. 2) Which subcommittee of the Senate appropriations committee will get the bill? I assume Kasten's on Foreign Operations. In that case, I know Hatfield well, and also Leahy, Inouye, Johnston and DeConcini.) So far as AID's worry about crossing Obey on housing, you ought to get in touch, as I believe David had earlier, with the people in the cooperative movement who are the ones trying to help on a housing guarantee program; namely, Wally Campbell and Ted Weihe. If AID is too timid, the coop movement won't be, since it was they who first alerted us to the problem.

A final comment. It seems to me that in order to minimize both the damage the Obey amendment might do as well as to minimize the amount of change being sought from Obey, his language could be amended in turn to reflect some of the language that appears in Section 701 on MDB loans and human rights. The operative phrase there as in sub section (d) is that the U. S. "should seek to channel assistance to projects which address basic human needs" of the people of the country, or in sub section (f) where assistance is "directed specifically to programs which serve the basic human needs."

Fernando Leniz. I talked to Fernando last Sunday and had I known you and he knew each other would have said something then. I've asked John to get in touch with him next week to pass on your invitation. Fernando told me that his schedule was more flexible than when he had first talked to Martha and he could make it to Washington any time between the 12th and the 19th. Jim's thoughts about people to see jibe with mine and what I told Fernando, except I would say definitely Kennedy, because Fernando as one of the Accord coordinators understands the importance of the Kennedy amendment to the Kennedy amendment on IMET and is prepared to talk about that. (Fernando helped draft the Molina letter.) His only concern is that if he sees Kennedy, that it be done discretely since in military and business circles here Kennedy is the equivalent of Helms in other quarters. I'll mention this aspect to Martha when I talk to her.

There follow some of Fernando's thoughts as he expressed them to me last Sunday on the MDB loans. Fernando Leniz is convinced that Pinochet is counting on our blocking the SAL because this will give him the missing element he needs to propel himself beyond 1989. He will be able to add foreign intervention - U. S., that is - to Soviet intervention and wrap it all up in a beautiful nationalistic surge. Fernando agrees with me that if we were to block a loan we would get no support publicly of any significance from the opposition. He understands our dilemma and thinks we can help accomplish the primary goal (which is to isolate Pinochet) by trying to combine a gesture to the Armed Forces as represented by the amendment to the Kennedy amendment with abstentions on the loans. He even thinks the amendment to the amendment could have a clause saying it would take effect after the free elections. I've offered to talk further to Martha Muse about people he should see and I'll pass those thoughts on to Jim so he's aware, but Martha would be the coordinator.

Weisfeiler Case: We just sent a diplomatic note to the Foreign Ministry requesting answers to several questions on contradictions between our files and the Foreign Ministry's. (A copy is enclosed.) Jayne thinks, and I agree, we should wait until we have a response to that note before we go any further. We will let you know later if we think a letter from Bob to Stange would be useful.

CINCLANT Visit. The very day that I told John I thought it would be better to have an Army Officer, for example, Lt. General Ballantyine, come before another Navy Officer in the wake (no pun intended) of UNITAS' Admiral Chandler's visit, we received the IADB message on Ballantyne's imminent arrival. As John told you, I was very surprised and unhappy with this short notice. By the time you receive this, the visit will have been over, or been turned off by you and Bob. If it is turned off, I want you to know that I would like Ballantyne to come although with more forward planning. As you can imagine one of my concerns is the way the Chileans will exploit it. If there isn't proper planning both in Washington with briefings and with advance notice down here, which would include a briefing by the Embassy at the beginning of the visit, we could have unhappy surprises. We will also need to focus on how else we (the U.S.) relate to him as a non-U. S. representative.

IIR Chilean Army Officers Fearful of Civilian Prosecution. We received two weeks ago a copy of a cable with marginal notes from Jim. Peter DeShazo (who works on administration of justice) Don Knight, and the DAO will be coordinating a response that we hope to get out next week.

Jarpa. John has done a memcon of our conversation with Jarpa a few days ago. What John did not include in detail for reasons that will be obvious is Jarpa's remark on the need for us to try to persuade Pinochet to change his political strategy, or at least policies in some respects. As you will see in that memcom Jarpa blames Pinochet's unwillingness to announce open elections in 1989 on fear of becoming a lame duck. Jarpa said he has been trying to convince the President that he would be better off taking the initiative. Jarpa also said that the U.S. might play a useful role in this sense. As a military man, Pinochet will listen to U. S. military officers and he recommended fairly strongly that Dick Walters be sent down to spend some time talking to the President. According to Jarpa, Pinochet would consider Walters a credible interlocutor, one who is a friend and genuinely represents the views of the U. S. military, (which is what Pinochet values). In response to my question, he added that General Galvin would also be good, as would senior military officers from the other services, although they would not be as useful as Army officers. Jim will recall that the possibility of a presidential envoy is something I have discussed with Elliott and Bob. So, I would want to raise this again with them before we think of sending someone.

Goals and Objectives. In one of the recent ARA/SC letters, you mentioned that we (and other posts) would be receiving instructions on a new goals and objectives exercise. We haven't seen the new requirement and wonder if the idea has been dropped.

Military IV Grants. Charlotte Roe recently offered an IV Grant to Brigadier Ernesto Videla, one of the officers I've been most impressed with. Videla is currently the head of the Chilean section of the Argentine/Chilean Intregation Committee and would have been a natural for a tailored IV on any one of a number of subjects, including a study of our intricate border relations with Mexico and Canada. However, Videla said that he would be promoted to General this year and will not be able to travel but he would like to be re-considered later. This could be one of our most important IVs. Some politicans consider him the ideal transition figure.

The Uprising Plan. Del Valle, as reported in our cable (Santiago 5770 handed me a copy of analysis of documents reportedly captured from the individual recently detained as responsible for the arms caches. It purports to show an elaborate plan for a national uprising, which includes a detailed order of battle of the Chilean armed forces which is surprisingly accurate. This suggests some degree of penetration. We will be sending a more detailed assessment, but we have enclosed an advance copy of what Del Valle handed me.

Sincerely,

Harry G. Barnes, Jr.

4. CHARGE AND POLCOUNS MET FOR AN HOUR ON AUGUST 29 AT HUMAN RIGHTS CENTER WITH PROFESSOR VOLIO, ACCOMPANIED BY HIS UNHRC STAFFER, CARLOS VILLAN-DURAN. CHARGE DREW ON REFS B AND C TO SET FORTH DEPARTMENT AND AMB BARNES' PERSONAL DESIRE THAT VOLIO NOT RESIGN. HIS RESIGNATION WOULD AT BEST LEAVE A VACUUM AND AT WORST HAVE A NEGATIVE IMPACT ON UNGA AND COMMISSION CONSIDERATION OF CHILE, ON PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, AND ON DIALOGUE BETWEEN AUTHORITIES AND MODERATE OPPOSITION NEEDED FOR TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY. CHARGE EXPRESSED A/S SCHIFTER'S HIGH REGARD FOR VOLIO AND EMPHASIZED AMB BARNES' POINT THAT HE ALONE ENJOYED OPPOSITION CONFIDENCE AND GOVERNMENT TOLERANCE.

5. VOLIO REPORTED THAT HE HAD COME TO GENEVA (ON AUG 25) DETERMINED TO RESIGN. HIS DUTIES AS DEFACTO MAJORITY LEADER IN PARLIAMENT AND AS COUNSEL TO COSTA RICA IN THE ICJ COMPLAINT FILED BY NICARAGUA LEFT HIM NEITHER THE TIME NOR THE STAFF SUPPORT NECESSARY TO CONTINUE. UNHRC ASYG HERNDL HAD ENERGETICALLY SOUGHT TO DISSUADE VOLIO, HE SAID, SINCE RESIGNATION WOULD BE SEEN AS A SETBACK FOR UNHRC AS WELL AS HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE. VOLIO SAID HERNDL IS EXPLORING WAYS TO LIGHTEN THE BURDEN, THE HEAVIEST ELEMENT WHICH IS THE ABSENCE OF STAFF SUPPORT IN SAN JOSE TO HANDLE THE VOLUME OF CHILEAN RELATED CORRESPONDENCE. CLEARLY GRATIFIED THAT DEPARTMENT WISHED HIM TO CONTINUE, VOLIO ASSURED CHARGE THAT HE WOULD NOT MAKE FINAL DECISION ON RESIGNATION BEFORE SEEING A/S SCHIFTER.

BOLIVIAN DECLARATION OF A STATE OF SEIGE

Q: WHAT DOES THE U.S. THINK OF THE BOLIVIAN GOVERNMENT'S DECLARATION OF A STATE OF SIEGE?

A: IN KEEPING WITH PROVISIONS OF THE BOLIVIAN CONSTITUTION PRESIDENT PAZ ESTENSSORO DECLARED A STATE FO SEIGE YESTERDAY. BOLIVIANS FACE SERIOUS ECONOMIC DIFFICULTIES BROUGHT ABOUT BY LOW WORLD PRICES FOR TIN, BOLIVIA'S MOST IMPORTANT EXPORT. MANY THOUSANDS OF JOBS ARE THREATENED BY THE CLOSING OF THE CAPITAL. THE GOVERNMENT, FEARING THE MINERS WOULD DISRUPT THE LIFE OF LA PAZ AS OCCURRED IN APRIL AND NOVEMBER 1985, HAS TAKEN THESE LEGAL MEASURES TO PREVENT THE MARCH FROM ENTERING THE CITY.

Q: DOES THE BOLIVIAN GOVERMENT'S DECISION TO DECLARE A STATE OF SIEGE HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH THE PRESENCE OF U.S. HELICOPTER AND TROOPS?

A: THE PROTEST MARCH BY THE BOLIVIAN MINERS AND THE BOLIVIAN GOVERNMENT DECISION TO DECLARE A STATE OF SIEGE

HAVE NO RELATION TO THE ANTI-NARCOTICS CAMPAIGN IN THE EASTERN BOLIVIAN JUNGLES OR THE ASSISTANCE THE U.S. IS GIVING TO THE BOLIVIAN OPERATION.

Q: WHAT IS THE U.S. GOVERNMENT DOING TO ASSIST THE BOLIVIAN GOVERNMENT?

A: THE U.S. IS WORKING CLOSELY WITH THE BOLIVIAN GOVERNMENT IN MANY AREAS. WE ARE PROVIDING SIGNIFICANT LEVELS OF DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANCE TO BOLIVIA THROUGH VARIOUS PROGRAMS, AS WELL AS HELPING THE GOB IN NARCOTICS CONTROL ACTIVITIES. IN RESPONSE TO A RECENT BOLIVIAN REQUEST FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE, THE DEPARTMENT OF TREASURY ANNOUNCED THAT IT IS ACTIVELY CONSIDERING A BRIDGE LOAN.

CHILE: DEFENSE MINISTER STATEMENTS ON U.S.SATELITES

IF AKSED

Q: CAN YOU COMMENT ON PRESS REPORTS THAT CHILEAN DEFENSE MINISTERE CARVAJAL SAID THAT THE U.S. SUPPLIED SATELITE INFORMATION THAT ALLOWED THE CHILEANS TO DETECT CLANDESTINE INTRODUCTION OF WEAPONS INTO CHILE FROM FISHING BOATS?

A: THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT HAS ISSUES A CLARIFICATION INDICATING THAT IT WAS NOT THE ITNENT OF THE DEFENSE MINISTER TO SUGGEST THAT U.S. SATELITES HAD PROVIED INFORMATION LEADING TO THE RECENT DISCOVERY OF CLANDESTINE ARMAS CACHES IN CHILE. IN POINT OF ACT, WE DID NOT PROVIDE ANY SUCH INFORMATION.

Q; CAN YOU COMMENT ON REPORTS THAT NASA AGREEMENTS WITH CHILE PROVIDE FOR SATELITE INFORMATION IN TRACKING SOVIET OR CUBAN FISHING VESSELS?

A; THE SUGGESTION THAT NASA AGREEMENTS WITH CHILE PROVIDE FOR SHARING SATELITE INFORMATION ON SUCH MATTERS IS INCORRECT. THE BROUGH TRACKING STATTION THAT NASA HAS OPERATED IN CHILE SINCE 1957 WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE RECEIVES DATA OF A STRICTLY SCIENTIFIC NATURE FROM COMMERCIAL SATELITES AND FROM SATELITES OPERATED BY THE NATIONAL OCEANIC AND ATMOSPHEREIC ADMINISTRATION.

MEXICO: VICTOR CORETZ INCIDENT

Q: IS THERE ANY COMMENT ON THE MEXICAN DIPLOMATIC NOTE DEALIG WITH THE VICTOR CORTEZ CASE?

A: THE NOTE RESPONDS TO THE ESSENTIAL ISSUE RAISED IN OUR DIPLOMATIC NOTE IN THIS CASE, THE BEATING AND TORTURE OF VICTOR CORTEZ.

IT STATES THE ACTIONS TAKEN AGAINST THE ELEVEN POLICE OFFICIALS ACCUSED IN THIS INCIDENT. SPECIFICALY, IT POINTS OUT THAT THOSE SUSPECTED OF MISTREATING MR. CORTEZ HAVE BEEN REMANDED TO A JUDGE WHO WILL TRY THEM.

IT DISCUSSES THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT'S UNDERSTANDING OF THE NATURE OF VICTOR CORTEZ'S DIPLOMATIC STATUS AND ACTIVITIES IN MEXICO.

FINALLY, IT REAFFIRMS AT SOME LENGTH MEXICO'S DETERMINATION TO CONTINUE THE FIGHT AGAINST NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING.

Q: IS THERE ANY TRUTH TO REPORTS THAT THE NOTE RESTRICTS THE OPERATIONS OF DEA IN MEXICO?

A: THE NOTE DEALS SPECIFICALLY WITH THE CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING THE VICTOR CORTEZ INCIDENT. IT DOES NOT CHANGE THE GROUND RULES FOR DEA IN MEXICO.

PERU: PIA VESTA CASE

Q: DO YOU HAVE ANY COMMENT ON THE ALLEGATIONS COMING OUT OF PERU THAT THE CIA WAS INVOLVED IN THE PIA VESTA CASE?

A; ALLEGATIONS THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT, OR ANY OF ITS ENTITIES, DEPARTMENTS OR AGENCIES, IS SOMEHOW LINKED TO THE PIA VESTA CONTRABAND WEASPONS CASE ARE TOTALLY FALSE. THE U.S. GOVERNMENT HAS NO CONNECTION WHATSOEVER WITH THE ARMS FOUND ABOARD THE PIA VESTA.

RIGHTS CONSULTATIONS IN A MEETING WITH COSTA RICAN EMBASSY CHARGE LUIS GUARDIA. THE CHARGE NOTED THE CHANGES IN DEMOCRACY IN LATIN AMERICA WHICH HAVE OCCURRED

SINCE PRESIDENT REAGAN TOOK OFFICE. GUARDIA INDICATED COSTA RICA IS CONCERNED THAT CHILE WILL BECOME ANOTHER NICARAGUA. CONCERNING PARAGUAY HE NOTED THAT DOMINGO LAINO, WHILE NOT AN EXTREMIST, IS GOING TOO MUCH TO THE LEFT TOO FAST. GUARDIA DECLARED THAT THE OAS HAD FAILED TO DISCUSS A REPORT ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CUBA SEVERAL YEARS AGO, BUT THE GREATER NUMBER OF DEMOCRATIC MEMBERS MIGHT MAKE IT POSSIBLE TO BRING UP THE ISSUE AGAIN. AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER NOTED THAT WE HAD HEARD THAT SALVADORAN FOREIGN MINISTER CASTILLO-CLARAMOUNT WAS GOING TO ASK COSTA RICA TO BE THE LEAD SPONSOR FOR THE UNGA RESOLUTION ON EL SALVADOR. SCHIFTER INDICATED HE WILL BE GOING TO COSTA RICA SOON, IN PART TO PERSUADE UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FOR CHILE FERNANDO VOLIO NOT TO RESIGN. SCHIFTER ALSO POINTED OUT THAT WE HOPE TO REPLACE THE UNHRC SPECIAL RAPPORTEURS FOR HAITI AND EL SALVADOR WITH "ADVISORY SERVICES" DURING THE UNGA. GUARDIA PROMISED IN CLOSING THAT, IN GENERAL, THE US CAN COUNT ON COSTA RICA'S SUPPORT. END SUMMARY.

3. PARTICIPANTS--THE HA BUREAU CONTINUED ITS SERIES OF BILATERAL HUMAN RIGHTS DISCUSSIONS IN AN AUGUST 29 MEETING WITH COSTA RICAN CHARGE GUARDIA. THE DEPARTMENT WAS REPRESENTED BY HA ASSISTANT SECRETARY RICHARD SCHIFTER; HA/MLP DIRECTOR TOM WILLIAMS; HA/HR: KATHLEEN BARMON; ARA/CEN: ROSE LIKINS; AND HA/MLP: ED MICHAL (NOTETAKER).

4. BILATERAL CONSULTATIONS--AMBASSADOR SCHIFTER INFORMED CONFIDENTIAL

CHARGE GUARDIA THAT WE VIEW HUMAN RIGHTS AS AN IMPORTANT ISSUE IN BOTH BILATERAL RELATIONS AND INTERNATIONAL FORA. WE RECENTLY BEGAN A SERIES OF BILATERAL CONSULTATIONS ON HUMAN RIGHTS WITH MEMBERS OF THE WESTERN GROUP AT THE UN. COSTA RICA WAS THE FIRST NATION WITH WHICH WE DECIDED TO CONSULT AFTER FINISHING THAT SERIES, SINCE WE WANT TO TALK WITH THOSE WHO START WITH THE SAME ASSUMPTIONS ON HUMAN RIGHTS AS WE DO. WE WISH TO LAY OUT OUR INTERESTS AND CONCERNS, AS WELL AS EXCHANGE INFORMATION. WE WOULD APPRECIATE ANY GUIDANCE COSTA RICA COULD PROVIDE ON HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES IN LATIN AMERICA.

5. COSTA RICAN CONCERNS--GUARDIA DECLARED THAT HIS GOVERNMENT IS VERY PLEASED WITH THE US ATTITUDE. THE US IS PROVIDING AN ELEMENT VITAL TO HUMAN RIGHTS: DEMOCRATIZATION. COSTA RICA IS VERY HAPPY TO NOTE THE CHANGES IN DEMOCRACY IN LATIN AMERICA WHICH HAVE OCCURRED SINCE PRESIDENT REAGAN TOOK OFFICE. THERE HAVE BEEN SUBSTANTIAL IMPROVEMENTS IN HUMAN RIGHTS IN GUATEMALA UNDER CEREZO AND IN EL SALVADOR UNDER DUARTE. DUE TO THE GUERRILLA WAR, THE SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR IS DIFFERENT THAN IN THE REST OF CENTRAL AMERICA.

6. CHILE--GUARDIA NOTED THAT COSTA RICA VIEWS WITH GREAT CONCERN THE SITUATION IN CHILE. WITHOUT APPROPRIATE STEPS IN THE NEAR FUTURE, IT COULD END UP ANOTHER NICARAGUA. SCHIFTER RESPONDED THAT OUR EMBASSY HAS BEEN IN TOUCH WITH THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION IN CHILE, WHICH IS A SIGNIFICANT GROUP. THE DEMOCRATIC

ALLIANCE (AD) ALMOST CERTAINLY REPRESENTS A MAJORITY OF THE PEOPLE. THE KEY QUESTION IS WHAT THE CHANCES ARE FOR A NON-VIOLENT, DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION. WE NEED TO APPLY OURSELVES TO THAT GOAL. WE ARE TRYING TO DO PRECISELY WHAT GUARDIA SUGGESTED--DEAL WITH A SITUATION IN WHICH INTRANSIGENCE HELPS THE COMMUNISTS. GUARDIA COMMENTED CONFIDENTIAL

THAT THE CHILEANS HAVE A DEMOCRATIC TRADITION, WITH WHICH SCHIFTER AGREED. AT THE END OF THE MEETING, GUARDIA RETURNED TO CHILE, NOTING THAT IF POLITICAL PARTIES COULD ASSURE THE MILITARY THAT IT WOULD NOT RISK PROSECUTION, AS IN ARGENTINA, THE MILITARY WOULD BE PREPARED TO GIVE UP POWER, ESPECIALLY IN VIEW OF THE ECONOMIC PROBLEMS. SCHIFTER STATED THAT THE AIR FORCE AND NAVY MAY BE BE READY TO RETURN TO THE BARRACKS AFTER 1989, BUT PINOCHET COMES FROM THE ARMY, AND HAS MAINTAINED SOLID ARMY SUPPORT FOR HIS REMAINING IN POWER AT LEAST UNTIL CURRENT TERM ENDS IN 1989. GUARDIA REMARKED THAT SANGUINETTI IN URUGUAY IS CONFIRMING THE TOTAL AMNESTY DECREED BY THE DEPARTING MILITARY GOVERNMENT TO THE MILITARY AND CIVILIANS, WHICH IS THE ONLY WAY TO REBUILD THE COUNTRY.

7. UNHRC SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FOR CHILE FERNANDO VOLIO-SCHIFTER NOTED THAT HE INTENDS TO GO TO COSTA RICA IN A FEW WEEKS AND WILL MEET GUARDIA'S FELLOW COUNTRYMAN

FERNANDO VOLIO AND TRY TO PERSUADE HIM NOT TO RESIGN AS UNHRC SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FOR CHILE. GUARDIA DECLARED THAT HE AGREES VERY MUCH THAT IF VOLIO RESIGNS, IT WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT TO FIND SOMEONE WHO KNOWS SO MUCH ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS AND YET IS "OF THE CENTER." SCHIFTER PROMISED TO DO HIS VERY BEST TO PERSUADE VOLIO TO STAY ON, SINCE IT WOULD BE NEARLY IMPOSSIBLE TO FIND SOMEONE ELSE WHO IS ACCEPTABLE TO BOTH SIDES.

8. PARAGUAY--OUR IMPRESSION REGARDING PARAGUAY IS THAT THERE IS A CERTAIN AMOUNT OF FERMENT IN BOTH THE OPPOSITION AND THE COLORADO PARTY, LOOKING TOWARD THE POST-STROESSNER ERA. GUARDIA REPLIED THAT DOMINGO LAINO OF THE PARTIDO RADICAL AUTENTICO IS NOT A COMMUNIST, BUT THE COSTA RICANS BELIEVE HE IS GOING TOO MUCH TO THE LEFT CONFIDENTIAL

AND WANTS TO MOVE TOO FAST.

9. OAS-SCHIFTER ASKED TO WHAT EXTENT THE OAS CAN DEAL WITH THE GREAT MAJORITY OF DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES IN LATIN AMERICAN TO ENCOURAGE THE STRENGTHENING OF THE FOUNDATIONS OF DEMOCRACY. GUARDIA (WHO IS ALSO CHARGE D'AFFAIRE OF THE COSTA RICAN OAS MISSION) NOTED THAT IN THE OAS CHARTER THERE ARE PROMISES TO MAINTAIN DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS WHICH APPLY TO CHILE, PARAGUAY AND NICARAGUA. BOTH ARGENTINA AND BRAZIL MIGHT BE HELPFUL. SCHIFTER STATED THAT THE QUESTION IS WHAT CAN BE DONE IN PRACTICAL TERMS TO ENCOURAGE DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS.

10. NICARAGUA-GUARDIA OBSERVED THAT WHEN SOMOZA FELL IN NICARAGUA, THE COSTA RICANS THOUGHT THE SANDINISTAS WOULD BE A DEMOCRATIC ALTERNATIVE. COSTA RICA UNDERTOOK A LOT OF PROJECTS TO SUPPORT POLITICAL PARTIES. ALL THAT EFFORT SUBSEQUENTLY WAS SUSPENDED, WHICH GUARDIA BELIEVES WAS AN ERROR, SINCE COSTA RICA SHOULD HAVE STAYED IN TOUCH WITH THOSE PARTIES.

11. CUBA AND THE OAS--SCHIFTER POINTED OUT THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CUBA IS VERY BAD AND FEW TALK ABOUT IT. GUARDIA DECLARED THAT SEVERAL YEARS AGO THERE WAS AN OAS HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION REPORT ON CUBA. MEXICO, NICARAGUA AND GRENADA WERE VERY MUCH OPPOSED TO

DISCUSSING IT. MEXICO TOOK THE POSITION THAT THE OAS COULD NOT TAKE ACTION ON THE REPORT ABOUT A GOVERNMENT THAT WAS ABSENT FROM THE TABLE. A NUMBER OF RIGHT-WING COUNTRIES ALSO SUPPORTED THAT POSITION. WITH MORE DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES NOW IN THE OAS, THE CHANCES OF GETTING ACTION ON CUBA ARE ENHANCED. SCHIFTER RESPONDED THAT DISCUSSING HUMAN RIGHTS IN CUBA WOULD BE FAIR. THERE IS NO REASON WHY AN ABSENCE SHOULD PREVENT DISCUSSION. GUARDIA SUBSEQUENTLY MENTIONED THAT A NEW CONFIDENTIAL

AMBASSADOR WILL BE ARRIVING TO REPRESENT COSTA RICA AT THE OAS. SCHIFTER NOTED THAT IT WOULD BE VERY USEFUL TO SEE WHETHER IT IS POSSIBLE TO REMOVE THE PRECEDENT AGAINST DISCUSSING CUBA. GUARDIA RESPONDED THAT NICARAGUA WOULD SAY IT IS A POLITICAL ISSUE IF THE US BRINGS UP CUBA, BUT COULD NOT SAY MUCH IF COSTA RICA OR ANOTHER COUNTRY WERE TO BRING IT UP.

12. COSTA RICA AND THE OAS--TOWARD THE END OF THE MEETING, SCHIFTER NOTED THAT WE WANT TO FOCUS ON HOW THE US AND COSTA RICA CAN WORK TOGETHER IN THE OAS. WE WANT TO BE SUPPORTIVE IF COSTA RICA IS PREPARED TO BE OUT IN FRONT ON CERTAIN ISSUES. GUARDIA SAID HE WOULD LIKE TO DISCUSS THESE ISSUES REGULARLY.

13. GUATEMALA AND EL SALVADOR IN THE UN--SCHIFTER THEN TURNED TO THE ISSUES OF GUATEMALA AND EL SALVADOR IN THE UN. HE NOTED THAT IN THE LAST UNHRC SESSION THE SECTION ON THE RAPPORTEUR ON GUATEMALA WAS CHANGED TO ADVISORY SERVICES. THE COSTA RICAN REPRESENTATIVE SOLEY SOLER PUT

IN A RESOLUTION ON EL SALVADOR, WHICH WAS OPPOSED BY THE MEXICANS. SOLER HANDLED HIMSELF WELL, BUT THE RAPPORTEUR'S MANDATE WAS CONTINUED. SALVADORAN FOREIGN MINISTER CASTILLO-CLARAMOUNT HAS INDICATED HE WILL REQUEST THAT COSTA RICA SPONSOR THE RESOLUTION ON EL SALVADOR AT THE UNGA. SCHIFTER OBSERVED THAT WE HAD GONE BACK TO SOLER'S ORIGINAL TEXT, BEFORE THE MEXICANS CHANGED IT, AND MADE SOME SUGGESTED CHANGES WITH THE OBJECTIVE OF ENDING THE MANDATE OF THE RAPPORTEUR FOR EL SALVADOR. WE WOULD LIKE COSTA RICA TO LOOK OVER OUR SUGGESTIONS FOR THE RESOLUTION TO BE INTRODUCED IN THIS YEAR'S UNGA. SCHIFTER GAVE GUARDIA A COPY OF SOLER'S

DRAFT FROM THE UNHRC WITH SUGGESTED CHANGES AND PROMISED TO PROVIDE A CLEAN COPY.

14. HAITI--GUARDIA OBSERVED THAT COSTA RICA IS HAPPY WITH THE NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN HAITI. SCHIFTER CAUTIONED THAT IT WOULD BE VERY USEFUL TO THINK IN TERMS OF ADVICE THAT COULD BE GIVEN. FOR EXAMPLE, THERE IS NO NEED FOR THE UN RAPPORTEUR. HE HOPES THAT HAITI WILL MOVE ON TO ADVISORY SERVICES AT THE NEXT UNHRC SESSION. GUARDIA SAID COSTA RICA HAS OFFERED TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO THE GOH TO ESTABLISH AN IDENTIFICATION NUMBER SYSTEM, WHICH WOULD USE A COMMON NUMBER FOR VOTING, SOCIAL SECURITY, DRIVER'S LICENSE AND PASSPORT PURPOSES. HE ASKED WHETHER THE US MIGHT ABLE TO SUPPORT SUCH PROJECTS. SCHIFTER STATED THAT IT IS BEST FOR THE U.S. TO PROVIDE ONLY FUNDS.

15. EL SALVADOR--SCHIFTER THEN BROUGHT UP EL SALVADOR, WHICH NEEDS IMPROVEMENTS IN ITS JUDICIAL SYSTEM. IT WOULD BE VERY USEFUL TO GET SPAIN TO PROVIDE SERVICES. COSTA RICA COULD BE A GOOD INTERMEDIARY TO ORGANIZE A PROGRAM SUITABLE FOR CENTRAL AMERICA. THE EC COULD ALSO GET INVOLVED. COSTA RICA'S GUIDANCE IS NEEDED ON WHAT OUGHT TO BE DONE. AFTER A SHORT DIGRESSION, SCHIFTER POINTED OUT THAT THE MILITARY HAS ACCEPTED ITS ROLE AS DEFENDER OF THE CONSTITUTION. DUARTE IS LISTENED TO AND RESPECTED, BUT A GREAT DEAL IS REQUIRED TO BE DONE. GUARDIA AGREED, SAYING THAT JUDICIAL REFORM IS VERY IMPORTANT IN EL SALVADOR, SINCE THERE ARE SO MANY VIGILANTE KILLINGS. SCHIFTER RESPONDED THAT THE LEFT USES SUCH KILLINGS TO MAKE PROPAGANDA. THERE IS A GREAT DEAL OF VIOLENCE WHICH NEEDS TO BE DETERRED BY MORE EFFECTIVE LAW ENFORCEMENT. EL SALVADOR NEEDS RESOURCES FOR THAT, HOWEVER, ESPECIALLY FROM THE EC. THE COSTA RICAN ROLE COULD BE ENLARGED TO INCLUDE RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN LEGAL SYSTEMS, AS WELL AS GOVERNMENT-TO-

GOVERNMENT EXCHANGES. GUARDIA SAID THAT THE STABILITY THIS WOULD BRING WOULD BENEFIT COSTA RICA AS WELL. IT TAKES TIME, THOUGH: IT HAS TAKEN 46-50 YEARS FOR COSTA RICA TO REACH THE POINT AT WHICH IT IS NOW. COSTA RICA IS SURPRISED THAT EL SALVADOR HAS ACHIEVED SO MUCH IN SUCH A VERY SHORT PERIOD. SCHIFTER AGREED THAT EVEN IN THE MIDST OF A CIVIL WAR, DEMOCRACY HAS GROWN THERE WHICH WE HOPE CAN BE NURTURED.

16. ETHIOPIA--SCHIFTER THEN TURNED TO THE REST OF WORLD. HE REVIEWED THE PROBLEM OF RELOCATIONS AND VILLAGEIZATION IN ETHIOPIA, WHICH HAS RESULTED IN MISERY AND DEATHS OF HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS. ON A UNHRC RESOLUTION ON THIS SUBJECT, THE WESTERN GROUP VOTED WITH JAPAN AND COSTA RICA.

17. SOUTH AFRICA--GUARDIA STATED THAT SOUTH AFRICA IS CAUSING CONCERN IN COSTA RICA. IT IS A MAJOR POLITICAL ISSUE FOR ALL PARTIES THERE, AND THE COSTA RICAN CONGRESS DECIDED BY AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY TO CLOSE THE COSTA RICAN EMBASSY THERE. BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND THE OPPOSITION VOTED TOGETHER ON THAT ISSUE, ALTHOUGH COSTA RICA MAINTAINS CONSULAR RELATIONS. SCHIFTER DECLARED THAT WE ARE GREATLY TROUBLED BY THE SITUATION IN SOUTH AFRICA, SINCE WE DO NOT SEE A REAL DEMOCRATIC ALTERNATIVE YET. SECRETARY SHULTZ HAS MADE THE POINT THAT WHAT THE US DOES ON SANCTIONS MATTERS MUCH LESS THAN WHAT HAPPENS IN THE MARKETPLACE AS COMPANIES FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD PULL OUT. THE QUESTION IS WHAT WE CAN DO SO WHEN THE SOUTH AFRICAN LEADERSHIP REALIZES THEY NEED TO CHANGE, THERE IS AN INTERLOCUTOR. GUARDIA REMARKED THAT IT IS SO DIFFICULT A SITUATION THAT SOMETIMES HE BELIEVES THE WHITES MIGHT NEED TO PARTITION THE COUNTRY INTO THE CONFIDENTIAL

EQUIVALENT OF CANTONS, OR LATIN AMERICA WILL END UP WITH 7 MILLION SOUTH AFRICAN REFUGEES. SCHIFTER EMPHASIZED THAT THE US IS TRYING TO MAINTAIN DIRECT RELATIONSHIPS WITH THE BLACK COMMUNITY. WE ARE GIVING AID DIRECTLY, WITHOUT GOING THROUGH THE GOVERNMENT, AMOUNTING TO $ 25 MILLION PER YEAR. SCHIFTER OBSERVED HE HAS FOUND THERE IS NO EASY SOLUTION TO ANY PROBLEM--IT IS ONLY A MATTER OF THE DEGREE OF DIFFICULTY. THIS WILL BE ONE OF THE WORST AND IT IS NOT CLEAR WHERE IT CAN END UP. GUARDIA DECLARED THAT THE SOVIET UNION IS ANXIOUS TO HAVE THE SOUTHERN PART OF AFRICA.

18. IRAN, EASTERN EUROPE AND NED--SCHIFTER INDICATED THAT THE US IS ALSO CONCERNED ABOUT THE SITUATIONS IN IRAN AND EASTERN EUROPE. AS MATTERS COME UP, WE HOPE TO STAY IN TOUCH. SCHIFTER THEN SUGGESTED THAT GUARDIA GET IN TOUCH WITH CARL GERSHMAN OF THE NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR DEMOCRACY, SINCE COSTA RICA COULD BE VERY HELPFUL. FOR EXAMPLE, COSTA RICA COULD LEAD SOME PROJECTS. GERSHMAN'S MISSION IS TO TRY TO SUPPORT DEMOCRATIC EFFORTS EVERYWHERE. IT IS IMPORTANT TO GET COSTA RICA INVOLVED SO SUCH EFFORTS WILL BE BOTH CREDIBLE AND EFFECTIVE.

19. COSTA RICA SUPPORT FOR US--IN CLOSING, GUARDIA STATED THAT THE US CAN COUNT WITH COSTA RICA'S SUPPORT AND ANYTHING IT CAN DO TO EFFECT CHANGES LITTLE BY LITTLE, EVEN THOUGH COSTA RICA IS NOT VERY POWERFUL. SCHIFTER REPLIED THAT IN WESTERN EUROPE, IF COSTA RICA TAKES A POSITION MANY COUNTRIES PAY ATTENTION, BECAUSE COSTA RICA IS HIGHLY RESPECTED.

1. FOLLOWING IS EMBASSY'S DRAFT OF SUGGESTED PRESS GUIDANCE CONCERNING ALLEGATIONS OF "DEATH SQUADS" AND POLITICAL "HIT LISTS" IN HONDURAS.

2. Q. WHAT IS THE RESPONSE TO PRESS REPORTS THAT HONDURAN DEATH SQUADS ARE BEING ACTIVATED AND TO THE PUBLICATION OF A "DEATH LIST" OF 15 PROMINENT HONDURANS?

R. THE ALLEGATIONS OF DEATH SQUAD ACTIVITIES AND OF THE EXISTENCE OF A "DEATH LIST" ARE BOTH TOTALLY UNSUBSTANTIATED. SUCH BASELESS CHARGES APPEAR TO BE PART OF A POLITICALLY-MOTIVATED EFFORT TO SLANDER HONDURAS' RECORD ON HUMAN RIGHTS WHICH IS ONE OF CONSISTENT PROGRESS. THE MOST RECENT DEPARTMENT OF STATE HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT INDICATES THAT THERE WERE NO PUBLIC ACCUSATIONS OF POLITICALLY-MOTIVATED DEATHS OR ANY DOCUMENTED DISAPPEARANCES IN 1985; NO EVIDENCE OF EITHER POLITICALLY-MOTIVATED DEATHS OR OF DISAPPEARANCES HAS COME TO THE EMBASSY'S ATTENTION IN 1986. THE DEMOCRATICALLY-ELECTED GOVERNMENT OF PRESIDENT AZCONA, WITH THE FIRM SUPPORT OF THE ARMED FORCES, HAS AFFIRMED ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS ITS UTMOST RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS.

3. Q. WHAT ABOUT THE CHARGES THAT THE CIA THROUGH THE "CONTRAS" CONTINUE TO COLLABORATE WITH SPECIAL UNITS IN THE ARMED FORCES IN THREATENING AND ELIMINATING POLITICAL OPPONENTS IN HONDURAS?

R. THE US GOVERNMENT IS NOT AND HAS NEVER BEEN INVOLVED IN SUCH ALLEGED ACTIVITIES.

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PREL, XK, ES, OVIP (HABIB, PHILIP C.)
SUBJECT: AMBASSADOR HABIB'S MEETINGS IN EL SALVADOR - SEPTEMBER 8

~~1. SECRET - ENTIRE TEXT.~~

2. SUMMARY: IN A WIDE-RANGING CONVERSATION OVER DINNER SEPTEMBER 8, DUARTE STRESSED TO AMBASSADOR HABIB THE DIFFICULTIES HE WILL FACE IN THE COMING WEEKS. HE BELIEVES HIS GOVERNMENT WILL BE SEVERELY TESTED BY THE INTRODUCTION OF A "WAR" TAX TO OFFSET MASSIVE BUDGET DEFICITS AND HIS DETERMINATION TO ENFORCE THE DRAFT. ON CONTADORA, WHILE SUSPICIOUS OF RENEWED CONTADORA ACTIVITY, DUARTE IS CONFIDENT THAT NO SOLUTION CAN BE IMPOSED ON THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WITHOUT THEIR CONSENT. HE BELIEVES THAT GUATEMALA IS MOVING FARTHER AWAY FROM THE CORE THREE, BUT ALSO THAT CEREZO SHARES A SINCERE COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY WHICH WOULD PREVAIL IN ANY CRITICAL DECISION. DUARTE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE UPCOMING DIALOGUE WITH THE SALVADORAN INSURGENTS WILL NOT PRODUCE ANY RESULT AND PREDICTED ITS FAILURE WILL ABET A MAJOR ATTACK ON HIM FROM THE RIGHT. END SUMMARY.

3. AMBASSADOR CORR HOSTED DINNER AT THE RESIDENCE SEPTEMBER 8 ON THE OCCASION OF AMBASSADOR HABIB'S VISIT. PRESIDENT DUARTE WAS ACCOMPANIED BY VICE PRESIDENT CASTILLO CLARAMOUNT, NEWLY NAMED FOREIGN MINISTER RICARDO ACEVEDO, UNDERSECRETARY FOR POLITICAL AFFAIRS JOAQUIN MATA, AND PRESIDENTIAL SECRETARY JULIO RIVAS GALLONT.

4. CONTADORA: AMBASSADOR HABIB INFORMED PRESIDENT DUARTE THAT THE PURPOSE OF HIS VISIT WAS TO DEMONSTRATE U.S. COMMITMENT TO THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK AND TO CONSULT WITH THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES ON THE EVE OF THE UNGA AND IN ANTICIPATION OF THE BEGINNING OF THE FLOW OF AID TO THE CONTRAS. THE SALVADORANS KNEW OF THE PLANNED MEETING OF THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUPS IN NEW YORK SEPTEMBER 22 AND ADDED THAT THEY HAD BEEN INVITED TO A BREAKFAST SEPTEMBER 23 WITH BOTH GROUPS. DUARTE EXPRESSED HIS DISPLEASURE THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WERE BEING SUMMONED TO BREAKFAST WITH THE CONTADORA GROUPS AND SAID HE WAS NOT SURE EL SALVADOR WOULD ACCEPT THE INVITATION. POINTING OUT THE POSSIBILITY THAT HONDURAS AND COSTA RICA WOULD REFUSE TO ATTEND BECAUSE OF THE ICJ SUITS, AMBASSADOR HABIB URGED HIM TO CONSULT WITH THE OTHER DEMOCRACIES BUT COUNSELED AGAINST LEAVING THE FIELD OPEN TO THE SANDINISTAS. THROUGHOUT THE LENGTHY CONVERSATION HABIB REPEATEDLY EMPHASIZED THE NEED FOR THE DEMOCRACIES TO PRESENT THEIR CASE FORCEFULLY. HE RAISED THE IDEA THAT THE DEMOCRACIES MAY WISH TO PERFECT AND ANNOUNCE THEIR AGENDA FOR NEGOTIATIONS PRIOR TO THE NEW YORK MEETINGS.

5. DUARTE SAID HE WAS SUSPICIOUS OF CONTADORA'S MOTIVES IN CALLING FOR THESE MEETINGS ON THE FRINGES OF THE UNGA AND SPECULATED THAT THEY MIGHT EVEN PRESENT ANOTHER DRAFT NEGOTIATED SECRETLY WITH NICARAGUA SINCE JUNE 7. HE REPORTED THAT THE BRAZILIAN AMBASSADOR HAD TOLD HIM EARLIER IN THE DAY THAT THE SUPPORT GROUP WAS PREPARING TO INITIATE" CONTINENTAL ACTION" ON CONTADORA. WHILE PROFESSING TO BE UNCLEAR ON THE MEANING OF THIS STATEMENT, THE PRESIDENT THEORIZED THAT ARGENTINE FOREIGN MINISTER CAPUTO COULD BE USING THE BRAZILIANS TO DO SOMETHING HE IS TOO WEAK TO ACCOMPLISH HIMSELF. THE PRESIDENT EMPHATICALLY REJECTED THE POSSIBILITY OF A BILATERAL ACCORD WITH NICARAGUA UPON HEARING AMBASSADOR HABIB'S REPORT THAT THE MEXICANS NOW SEEMED INCLINED TO PUSH BILATERAL AGREEMENTS IN PLACE OF A COMPREHENSIVE ONE. DUARTE COMMENTED THAT IT WAS LOGICAL FOR MEXICO TO TAKE THIS APPROACH SINCE ITS GOAL FROM THE BEGINNING WAS TO PROTECT NICARAGUA AND IT ONLY AGREED TO THE MULTILATERAL APPROACH UNDER PRESSURE FROM THE OTHER CENTRAL AMERICANS AND EVENTUALLY VENEZUELA AND COLOMBIA. HE REPORTED THAT, AT THE BALAGUER INAUGURATION, HE REJECTED AN ORTEGA PROPOSAL FOR A SUCH DEAL, REMINDING ORTEGA THAT THE OTHER CENTRAL AMERICANS HAD TO BE INCLUDED.

6. CORE FOUR UNITY: DUARTE SAID HIS CURRENT EVALUATION OF THE STATUS OF THE DEMOCRACIES WAS THAT THEY WERE THREE AND ONE QUARTER COMPARED TO THREE AND ONE HALF AT THE TIME OF HABIB'S LAST VISIT. HE EXPLAINED THAT CEREZO HAD A DIFFERENT POLITICAL SITUATION WHICH DID NOT ALLOW HIM TO APPEAR TO ACT IN CONCERT WITH THE U.S., BUT THAT HE IS SINCERELY COMMITTED TO DEMOCRACY AND IN THE FINAL ANALYSIS, HIS IDEOLOGY WOULD BE THE DETERMINING FACTOR. DUARTE NOTED HIS CLOSE RELATIONSHIP WITH CEREZO AND SAID THEY WILL MEET THIS WEEKEND TO INAUGURATE A NEW BRIDGE LINKING THE TWO COUNTRIES. FOREIGN MINISTER ACEVEDO ADDED AT THIS POINT THAT THE SALVADORANS UNDERSTOOD FROM THE GUATEMALAN AMBASSADOR THAT VICE FONMIN VILLAGRAN WOULD BE NAMED AMBASSADOR TO THE OAS. DUARTE ALSO SPECULATED THAT OF THE OTHER TWO MEMBERS OF THE CORE THREE, COSTA RICA WAS MOST LIKELY TO REACH A SEPARATE, BILATERAL AGREEMENT WITH NICARAGUA.

7. NICARAGUA: DUARTE SAID HE DID NOT PERCEIVE ANY CRACKS IN THE SANDINISTA LEADERSHIP, BUT NOTED WHAT HE PERCEIVED TO BE LESS AGRESSIVE STATEMENTS BY ORTEGA FOLLOWING HOUSE APPROVAL OF THE 12M MILLION DOLLAR PACKAGE FOR THE RESISTANCE. DUARTE TOLD HABIB THAT THE SALVADORAN CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT PROVIDE FINANCIAL SUPPORT AND TRAINING TO THE NICARAGUAN SOCIAL CHRISTIAN PARTY AND WOULD SEND A DELEGATION TO THE UPCOMING ANNUAL MEETING OF THE NICARAGUAN PARTY.

8. SALVADORAN ECONOMY: DUARTE STRESSED (AS HE SAID HE HAD IN HIS MEETINGS WITH AID DIRECTOR MCPHERSON) THE CRITICAL BUDGETARY SITUATION HE FACES WHICH COMPELS HIM TO INTRODUCE A NEW "WAR" TAX ON CAPITAL. HE REPORTED THAT THE ARMY HAS EXCEEDED ITS BUDGET BY 12M MILLION COLONES THIS YEAR AND THAT THE TAX MAY RAISE 14M MILLION COLONES TO OFFSET THAT DEFICIT. DUARTE NOTED THAT THE CONSTITUTION REQUIRES THAT HE PRESENT A BALANCED BUDGET TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL ASSEMBLY BY SEPTEMBER 30. HE ADDED THAT HIS DEFICIT FOR NEXT YEAR COULD BE AS HIGH AS

784 MILLION DOLLARS EVEN AFTER INCLUSION OF INCOME FROM FOREIGN ASSISTANCE. DUARTE RELATED THAT THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE DO NOT PERCEIVE THE GOVERNMENT TO BE IMPROVING THE STANDARD OF LIVING AND THAT IT HAS BECOME AN EMOTIONAL ISSUE, WEAKENING HIS GOVERNMENT. HE CONCLUDED THIS PORTION OF THE DISCUSSION BY NOTING THAT THERE IS A THREE-WAY PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN THE U.S., HIMSELF, AND THE ARMY TO KEEP THE COUNTRY GOING, BUT THAT IT COULD FAIL WITH IRREVERSIBLE CONSEQUENCES IF ANY ONE OF THE PARTNERS SURRENDERS ITS COMMITMENT.

9. EC AID: AMBASSADOR HABIB SHARED WITH THE PRESIDENT SOME FIGURES ON THE LEVELS OF EC AID TO CENTRAL AMERICA DURING THE 1985-84 PERIOD AND URGED HIM TO BRING THEM UP WITH THE EUROPEANS IN AN ATTEMPT TO CORRECT THE IMBALANCE FORWARDING NICARAGUA.

10. COMMENT: DUARTE'S OPINION OF CONTADORA HAS NOT CHANGED; HE WAS MORE CONFIDENT THAN EVER THAT AN EXTERNALLY-CONTRIVED SOLUTION CANNOT BE IMPOSED ON THE CENTRAL AMERICANS. HIS DISDAIN AND SUSPICION OF THE PROCESS AND THE MEDIATORS WAS A RECURRENT THEME OF THE CONVERSATION. HIS INTENTION TO DECLINE THE BREAKFAST INVITATION IN NEW YORK IS MORE EVIDENCE OF HIS AVERSION TO NEW INVOLVEMENT WITH CONTADORA. BUT DUARTE'S FOCUS RIGHT NOW IS NOT CONTADORA. HE IS UNDERSTANDABLY PREOCCUPIED WITH DOMESTIC CONCERNS ON SEVERAL FRONTS. PASTORINO

TAGS: PREL, XX, HO
SUBJECT: AMBASSADOR HABIB'S MEETINGS IN HONDURAS, - SEPTEMBER 9

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. AMBASSADOR HABIB AND CHARGE PASTORINO MET WITH PRESIDENT AZCONA ON SEPTEMBER 9 TO REVIEW THE DIPLOMATIC SITUATION. AZCONA REITERATED HONDURAS' POSITION OF REFUSING TO PARTICIPATE IN ANY MEETING WITH NICARAGUA ("FOR THE TIME BEING") AS LONG AS NICARAGUA MAINTAINS ITS CASE AGAINST HONDURAS IN THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE. AZCONA STRESSED THAT ANY FUTURE NEGOTIATIONS MUST DEAL WITH DEMOCRATIZATION IN NICARAGUA AS WELL AS THE ISSUE OF MILITARY BALANCE. HABIB SAID WE AGREED COMPLETELY. AZCONA THOUGHT THE NEGOTIATING POSITION OF THE CORE THREE WAS FIRM AND CLEAR AND HE BELIEVED THAT CEREZO WAS EVOLVING IN A POSITIVE DIRECTION. ON OTHER ISSUES, AZCONA EXPRESSED FRUSTRATION THAT FINAL APPROVAL OF THE $100 MILLION WAS TAKING SO LONG AND CONCERN THAT THE SANDINISTAS MIGHT REACT TO STRONG CONTRA PRESSURE BY LAUNCHING AN ATTACK AGAINST HONDURAS' VULNERABLE SOUTHERN REGION. DURING LUNCHEON MEETING, GEN. GALVIN OUTLINED SOME CONTINGENCY PLANS AND ARRANGEMENTS. AT A SEPARATE MEETING, FOREIGN MINISTRY ADVISER CALLEJAS COMMENTED THAT IN THE MONTHS AHEAD THE DIPLOMATIC TACTICS OF THE CORE FOUR WOULD DEPEND TO A LARGE EXTENT ON THE SUCCESS OF THE CONTRAS. AN AGGRESSIVE DIPLOMATIC STANCE WOULD REQUIRE "VISIBLE AND CREDIBLE VICTORIES." END SUMMARY.

3. AMBASSADOR HABIB AND CHARGE, ACCOMPANIED BY NSC STAFF MEMBER BURGHARDT, MET WITH PRESIDENT AZCONA IN THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE ON SEPTEMBER 9. THE CONVERSATION WAS CONTINUED AT A LUNCH HOSTED BY THE CHARGE, AT WHICH FINANCE MINISTER BU GIRON, CINCSO GEN. GALVIN, MILGP COMMANDER, DATT, AND POLOFF ALSO PARTICIPATED.

4. HABIB EXPLAINED THAT HE WAS VISITING THE CORE FOUR COUNTRIES TO EXCHANGE VIEWS ON THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK, INCLUDING THE FUTURE OF THE CONTADORA PROCESS. HABIB NOTED THAT WE UNDERSTOOD THAT THE CONTADORA GROUP, LED BY MEXICO, WAS HOLDING A MEETING WITH THE SUPPORT GROUP FOREIGN MINISTERS IN NEW YORK ON SEPTEMBER 22. THE U.S. POSITION WOULD CONTINUE TO BE THAT WE MUST NOT BE THE ONES RESPONSIBLE FOR SABOTAGING THE EFFORTS ON THE CONTADORA GROUP. WE WOULD LEAVE THE DOOR OPEN FOR A DIPLOMATIC SOLUTION.

5. AZCONA SAID HIS VIEW OF CONTADORA WAS THAT IT REPRESENTED A POLITICAL WAY OUT WHICH DEPENDED ON NICARAGUA, BUT ANY FUTURE DISCUSSIONS MUST DEAL WITH DEMOCRATIZATION AS WELL AS THE ISSUE OF MILITARY BALANCE. HABIB COMMENTED THAT WE AGREED COMPLETELY THAT ANY AGREEMENT WOULD BE INCOMPLETE WHICH DID NOT PROVIDE FOR DEMOCRATIZATION IN NICARAGUA. STRONG PRESSURE WAS NEEDED TO CREATE THE POSSIBILITY THAT NICARAGUA WOULD SHOW ANY FLEXIBILITY ON THE IMPORTANT ISSUES. AZCONA NOTED THAT ANY HOPE FOR SANDINISTAS FLEXIBILITY ON POLITICAL ISSUES WAS REMOTE SINCE THEY ARE NOT DEMOCRATS; THE SANDINISTAS ARE ACCUSTOMED TO ABSOLUTE POWER AND ARE NOT PREPARED TO NEGOTIATE ANY RELINQUISHING OF THAT POWER.

6. HABIB STRESSED THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT FOR THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES TO MAINTAIN THEIR UNITY OF VIEWS ON WHAT WAS REQUIRED FOR NEGOTIATIONS TO SUCCEED. THE CRITERIA OF SIMULTANEITY, COMPREHENSIVENESS AND VERIFIABILITY MUST BE MAINTAINED. WE HAD INFORMATION THAT THE MEXICANS WOULD MAKE ANOTHER EFFORT TO PROMOTE BILATERAL NEGOTIATIONS. AZCONA ASSURED US THAT ANY SUCH EFFORTS WOULD BE UNSUCCESSFUL WITH HONDURAS. AZCONA SAID HONDURAS ALSO WOULD CONTINUE TO REFUSE TO PARTICIPATE IN ANY MULTILATERAL TALKS IN THE CONTADORA CONTEXT AS LONG AS NICARAGUA MAINTAINED ITS SUIT AGAINST HONDURAS IN THE ICJ. PRESSED BY HABIB ON WHETHER THIS POSITION WOULD BE SUSTAINED, AZCONA REPLIED THAT IT WAS HONDURAS' POSITION "FOR THE TIME BEING."

7. AZCONA RELATED THAT AT THE BARCO INAUGURATION, VENEZUELA HAD OUTLINED TO HIM A CONTADORA/SUPPORT GROUP PROPOSAL THAT THOSE EIGHT COUNTRIES WOULD RAISE $500 MILLION IN AID FOR THE CENTRAL AMERICAN COUNTRIES, OF WHICH THE MAJOR PART WOULD GO TO NICARAGUA ON CONDITION THAT IT DEMOCRATIZE AND CUT TIES WITH THE SOVIET BLOC. AZCONA SAID HE RESPONDED THAT HE COULD SUPPORT SUCH AN APPROACH IF NICARAGUA WOULD DEMONSTRATE THAT IT REALLY WAS PREPARED TO HAVE FREE ELECTIONS. AZCONA COMMENTED TO US THAT SOME COUNTRIES OBVIOUSLY WERE OPERATING UNDER ILLUSIONS, PARTICULARLY ARGENTINA AND MEXICO. SANGUINETTI, BARCO AND LUSINCHI, HOWEVER, HAD A CLEAR UNDERSTANDING OF THE SITUATION.

8. AZCONA THOUGHT THAT THE NEGOTIATING POSITIONS OF THE CORE THREE WERE FIRM AND CLEAR. HE ALSO BELIEVED THAT CEREZO WAS EVOLVING IN A POSITIVE DIRECTION. HABIB NOTED THAT IN JULY THE FOUR DEMOCRACIES HAD DEVELOPED AN AGENDA FOR ANY FUTURE TALKS WITH NICARAGUA. AT SOME POINT, IF THE CONTADORA GROUP TRIES TO REASSERT ITSELF, IT MIGHT BE USEFUL TO MAKE THE AGENDA PUBLIC. AZCONA MADE NO RESPONSE TO THE SUGGESTION.

9. AZCONA EXPRESSED SOME FRUSTRATION THAT IT WAS TAKING SO LONG FOR THE U.S. TO APPROVE THE $100 MILLION IN AID FOR THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE. HABIB EXPLAINED OUR CONGRESSIONAL PROCEDURES. AT ANOTHER POINT IN THE CONVERSATION, AZCONA STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE OF RESISTANCE LEADERS COMPORTING THEMSELVES PROPERLY IN HONDURAS, DEMONSTRATING DEVOTION TO THEIR STRUGGLE RATHER THAN HAVING A GOOD TIME AT BANQUETS AND DISCOS.

10. AZCONA ALSO EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT ONCE THE CONTRA PRESSURE REALLY BEGINS TO TAKE EFFECT IN EASTERN NICARAGUA, THE SANDINISTAS COULD REACT BY LAUNCHING AN ATTACK IN HONDURAS' VULNERABLE AND STRATEGIC CHOLUTECA

REGION. IN THAT EVENT, U.S. ASSISTANCE WOULD HAVE TO BE FORTHCOMING WITHIN 18-24 HOURS. DURING THE LUNCH MEETING, GEN. GALVIN ADDRESSED THIS CONCERN BY STRESSING THE COMMITMENT OF PRESIDENT REAGAN TO HONDURAS' SECURITY AND BY OUTLINING SOME OF THE LONG-STANDING CONTINGENCY PLANNING.

EXDIS

11. BURGHARDT, RANDOLPH (ARA/CEN) AND POLOFF HAD A SEPARATE MEETING WITH FOREIGN MINISTRY ADVISORS TO REVIEW THE DIPLOMATIC SITUATION. POLICARPO CALLEJAS SAID HONDURAS CONSIDERED NICARAGUA'S ICJ SUIT AGAINST HONDURAS AND COSTA RICA INCONSISTENT WITH EFFORTS TO SEEK A DIPLOMATIC SETTLEMENT. IN ITS SUIT, NICARAGUA CITED ONE PASSAGE OF THE PACT OF BOGOTA, WHICH AT ANOTHER POINT CLEARLY STATED THAT A COUNTRY SHOULD RESORT TO JUDICIAL OR OTHER SUCH MEASURES ONLY AFTER ALL DIPLOMATIC CHANNELS HAVE BEEN EXHAUSTED. ALTHOUGH CONTADORA IS IN A STATE OF "CATALEPSY" IT IS STILL OFFICIALLY ALIVE AND THEREFORE THE ICJ SUIT IS INVALID. FOR THAT REASON, CALLEJAS NOTED, IT WAS IMPORTANT TO AVOID ANY NEW CONTADORA NEGOTIATING SESSIONS WHICH COULD RESULT IN FORMALLY KILLING THE PROCESS. THE ADVISERS STATED, AS HAD AZCONA, THAT THEY HAD NO INFORMATION CONCERNING A CONTADORA INVITATION TO A NEW YORK BREAKFAST MEETING WITH THE CENTRAL AMERICANS (AS REPORTED TO US BY THE SALVADORANS). CALLEJAS THOUGHT IT POSSIBLE THAT CONTADORA MIGHT PRESSURE NICARAGUA TO DROP THE ICJ SUIT, A PROSPECT WHICH WOULD PLEASE HONDURAS BECAUSE IT WAS BURDENED BY THE EXPENSE AND DISTRACTION OF ITS OTHER ICJ CASE WITH EL SALVADOR.

EXDIS

EXDIS

13. RANDOLPH ASKED WHAT THE ADVISERS THOUGHT THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES SHOULD BE DOING ON THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK DURING THE MONTHS AHEAD. CALLEJAS RESPONDED THAT THE TACTICS OF THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WOULD DEPEND TO A LARGE EXTENT ON THE SUCCESS OF THE CONTRAS. IF THE CONTRAS HAD "VISIBLE AND CREDIBLE VICTORIES" THAT WOULD DICTATE AN AGGRESSIVE COURSE OF ACTION, WHILE A STRING OF CONTRA DEFEATS WOULD DICTATE A DIFFERENT COURSE (UNDEFINED).

DURING LUNCH WITH GEORGE LISTER OF HUMAN RIGHTS BUREAU TODAY, LOCAL RADICAL PARTY REPRESENTATIVE HERNAN GUTIERREZ URGED THAT EMBASSY INCLUDE DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE PRESIDENT ENRIQUE SILVA IN PREPARATIONS FOR CHILE U.N. INFORMATION MEMORANDUM

~~SECRET/SENSITIVE~~ S/S

TO: The Secretary

FROM: ECA - Philip C. Habib

SUBJECT: My September Trip to Central America

I visited the Central American democracies on September 7-11 to consult with them on the peace process. I told the four Presidents that final approval of the aid package for the Nicaraguan democratic resistance was imminent and that the assistance would soon start to flow. I made certain they understood that we wanted to keep the negotiating track alive. We would neither support nor oppose efforts to revive Contadora, as this was up to the Contadora countries and the Central Americans to decide. We would continue to support the Central Americans' demands that any agreement be comprehensive, verifiable and simultaneous.

The four democracies have no plans for any major activity on the diplomatic front in the immediate future. I believe they are waiting to see what impact the aid has on the correlation of forces on the battlefield.

The Contadora and Support Groups will meet in New York on September 22 on the margins of the UNGA. This appears to be a Mexican initiative (supported by Colombia) to revive Contadora. Mexico may push for bilateralism, which would be very much against our interests as it would allow the Sandinistas to avoid the obligations of a comprehensive, regional agreement. It is unclear whether the other Contadora and Support Group countries will follow Mexico's lead. The new Barco administration in Colombia is not backing away from Contadora as some had predicted, but it is adopting a policy which is more favorable to the Central American democracies. Panama has told us that it will join Venezuela in opposing any attempt to promote bilateralism. Panama says it will promote a series of informal Contadora Group consultations with individual Central American countries to explore any possiblity for resolving discrepencies in the draft Acta. Some of the Support Group countries are also shifting their position as a reaction to Sandinista intransigence and repression.

The Central American democracies are firm in their determination to resist bilateralism and to reject any attempt by Contadora to impose an unsatisfactory agreement. They continue to demand that any agreement meet the criteria of comprehensiveness, verifiability and simultaneity.

In some countries, leaders expressed concerns that the United States would not stay the course in Central America. Whenever I heard this, I argued forcefully that we were indeed in for the long haul and rejected the proposition that the U.S. resolve not to accept a Marxist-Leninist state in Central America could end with the Reagan Administration.

The basic unity of views toward the issues remains intact in Costa Rica, El Salvador and Honduras. Guatemala continues to pursue what it describes as an independent policy, but the Core Three Presidents are confident that Cerezo will be with them in the final analysis.

President Cerezo assured me that Guatemala strongly supports democratization throughout Central America. He explained that because of a combination of internal and external factors, he was compelled to adhere to a policy of "active neutrality." He was far more critical of the Sandinista regime than on my previous visits. He stressed that he would work closely with the Social Christian Party in Nicaragua to oppose the Sandinistas. While Cerezo's policy is sometimes troublesome and thwarts our desire for complete unity among the four democracies, I believe that we need to continue to exercise patience. Cerezo is a democrat at heart, and this will ensure that he ultimately comes down on the right side.

President Duarte is as solid as ever. He is absorbed with domestic matters -- the economy, the dialogue with the guerrillas -- and generally unconcerned about Contadora. He understands that the Contadora countries cannot impose an agreement he does not like, and he is content to wait and see what happens in Nicaragua.

President Azcona said that "for the time being" Honduras would maintain its position of refusing to participate in multilateral talks with Nicaragua (concerning either Contadora or the Central American parliament) so long as Nicaragua maintains its suit in the International Court of Justice. Honduran Contadora experts commented that the ability of the democracies to carry out an aggressive diplomatic strategy would require "visible and credible victories" by the contras.

President Arias continues to take the lead in demanding democracy in Nicaragua. However, the Sandinistas have succeeded through their ICJ suit in compelling him to take firm action to prevent the contras from operating militarily in Costa Rica. He is deeply concerned about the effects of the war on Costa Rica, particularly in terms of the economic and social costs of the flood of Nicaraguan refugees. Because of the recent interview with the New York Times, I spoke directly with him about the importance of refraining from making any public statements critical of our policy. I believe that this problem can be managed as Arias is fundamentally on the right side, [redacted] In this regard, I believe it would be most useful to have the President invite Arias to Washington for an official visit at the earliest possible date.

During my trip, I also met in Panama with Ambassadors Gillespie and Reich. They will be taking our basic message back to the Colombians and Venezuelans. I paid a courtesy call on Panamanian Foreign Minister Abadia as well. Abadia gave me his "official word" that Panama would oppose bilateralism during the September 22 meeting. He envisioned a series of informal meetings with the Central Americans in New York, but he did not expect any major breakthroughs as the differences between Nicaragua and the Central Americans are great and neither side is prepared to compromise at this time.

Unless the Contadora Group launches a major new initiative in New York which requires immediate action by us, I do not foresee a need for me to return to the region in the near future. The focal point of activity will now shift to New York and the effort to revive Contadora. In this context, your meetings at the UNGA will provide another opportunity to reinforce our views. As of now, you have appointments in New York with Presidents Cerezo and Arias, and with Foreign Ministers involved in Contadora. President Duarte will come later in the session, but President Azcona will not be coming.

TAGS: PREL, OVIP (HABIB, PHILIP C.), CS, XK
SUBJECT: AMBASSADOR HABIB'S MEETING WITH COSTA RICAN PRESIDENT ARIAS

1. [redacted] - ENTIRE TEXT

2. SUMMARY: AMBASSADOR HABIB TOLD PRESIDENT ARIAS THAT THE US INTENDED TO MAINTAIN THE NEGOTIATING PART OF ITS TWO-TRACK POLICY EVEN AS AID BEGAN TO FLOW TO THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE. WE WERE CONCERNED THAT THE CONTADORA GROUP, PARTICULARLY MEXICO, MAY PUSH FOR BILATERALISM. ARIAS SAID COLOMBIA WAS ADOPTING A MORE FAVORABLE POLICY AND VENEZUELA, BRAZIL AND URUGUAY WERE ALSO MOVING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION. MEXICO WAS STILL THE MAIN PROBLEM AND ATTEMPTING TO WOO COSTA RICA AND PROMOTE BILATERALISM. COSTA RICA WAS FIRM IN RESISTING BILATERALISM AND IN RESISTING ANY ATTEMPTS BY THE CONTADORA GROUP TO IMPOSE AN UNSATISFACTORY AGREEMENT. COSTA RICA COULD NOT SUPPORT THE CONTRAS, HOWEVER, AND IN LIGHT OF THE ICJ SUIT BY NICARAGUA, MUST TAKE STEPS TO PREVENT THEM FROM USING COSTA RICA MILITARILY. ARIAS INSISTED THAT HIS COUNTRY COULD BETTER SERVE THE CAUSE OF DEMOCRACY IN THE POLITICAL SPHERE THAN BY ASSISTING THE CONTRAS. ARIAS WAS DEEPLY TROUBLED BY THE EFFECTS OF THE WAR ON COSTA RICA, NOTING THE DRAIN THAT REFUGEES WERE CREATING ON HIS COUNTRY'S SCARCE RESOURCES. THE CONTRA AID COULD GENERATE 50,### ADDITIONAL REFUGEES AND SHAKE COSTA RICA LIKE "AN EARTHQUAKE." ARIAS EXPLAINED THAT COSTA RICA'S NEUTRALITY WAS DIFFERENT FROM THAT OF GUATEMALA; COSTA RICA WOULD TAKE NO PART IN THE WAR IN NICARAGUA, BUT IT WAS STRONGLY IN THE DEMOCRATIC CAMP AGAINST THE MARXIST SANDINISTAS. END SUMMARY.

3. ON SEPTEMBER 18, AMBASSADOR HABIB AND CHARGE TULL CALLED ON PRESIDENT ARIAS TO DISCUSS THE PEACE PROCESS IN CENTRAL AMERICA. ARIAS WAS ACCOMPANIED BY SEVERAL OF HIS CLOSEST ADVISORS, INCLUDING VICE PRESIDENT DENGO, FOREIGN MINISTER MADRIGAL, AND MINISTER OF THE PRESIDENCY RODRIGO ARIAS. HABIB EXPLAINED THAT THE APPROVAL OF CONTRA AID, THE UPCOMING UNGA, AND SIGNS THAT THE CONTADORA GROUP WAS ABOUT TO REVIVE ITS ROLE CONVINCED US THAT IT WAS TIME TO CONSULT WITH OUR FRIENDS IN CENTRAL AMERICA. HE SAID THAT THE CONTRA AID WOULD SOON BE PASSED INTO LAW AND BEGIN TO FLOW. THE US WANTED TO KEEP THE NEGOTIATING TRACK ALIVE. AS PRESSURE ON THE SANDINISTA REGIME MOUNTED, IT COULD GREATLY AFFECT THE PEACE PROCESS BY GIVING NICARAGUA AN INCENTIVE TO NEGOTIATE. THE US BELIEVED THAT WHETHER OR NOT CONTADORA RESUMED ITS ACTIVITY WAS A MATTER FOR THE CONTADORA NATIONS AND THE CENTRAL AMERICANS TO DECIDE. THE US WOULD NOT PUSH FOR A RESUMPTION OF CONTADORA, NOR WOULD WE SABOTAGE IT. IF CONTADORA WERE TO SURVIVE, HOWEVER, IT WAS IMPORTANT THAT IT TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE POSITIONS OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. THE US WANTED WHAT THEY WANTED, A COMPREHENSIVE, VERIFIABLE AND SIMULTANEOUS AGREEMENT. WE WERE CONCERNED BY REPORTS THAT MEXICO WOULD BE PUSHING FOR BILATERAL NEGOTIATIONS, AN APPROACH LONG FAVORED BY NICARAGUA, AS THIS WOULD ALLOW THE SANDINISTAS TO ESCAPE MANY OF THE ASPECTS OF A COMPREHENSIVE, REGIONAL SETTLEMENT. DURING THIS TRIP, THE OTHER THREE DEMOCRACIES HAD ALL STATED THAT THEY HAD NO INTEREST IN BILATERALISM.

4. ARIAS STATED THAT THERE HAD BEEN POSITIVE CHANGES IN THE CONTADORA GROUP. HE HAD HELD LONG DISCUSSIONS WITH COLOMBIAN PRESIDENT BARCO AND FOREIGN MINISTER LONDONO, WHO WAS PARTICULARLY WELL INFORMED ABOUT CONTADORA, AND BELIEVED THAT THEY WERE CHANGING COLOMBIA'S POLICY. HE ALSO HAD TALKED WITH VENEZUELAN PRESIDENT LUSINCHI AND THOUGHT THAT THE GOV'S POSITION WAS SHIFTING AS WELL. MADRIGAL SAID THAT HIS RECENT TRIP TO BOGOTA WAS HIGHLY SIGNIFICANT, AS THE COLOMBIANS WERE OPENLY SUPPORTING COSTA RICA BY MAKING HIM THE FIRST FOREIGN MINISTER TO

BE INVITED BY THE NEW ADMINISTRATION. MADRIGAL ALSO SENSED THAT BRAZIL AND URUGUAY WERE MOVING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION. THE PROBLEM WAS MEXICO, WHO HE BELIVED WAS THE DRIVING FORCE BEHIND THIS LATEST EFFORT TO REVIVE CONTADORA. HE INSISTED THAT COSTA RICA WAS NOT A "SECOND CLASS DEMOCRACY," AND WOULD NEVER ALLOW THE CONTADORA GROUP TO IMPOSE AN AGREEMENT ON IT. HABIB ASSURED THE COSTA RICANS OF US SUPPORT ON THIS POINT. HE THEN ASKED ABOUT THE AGENDA THE CORE FOUR HAD PREPARED IN JULY. MADRIGAL RESPONDED THAT THE BASIC THRUST OF THEIR POSITION HAD BEEN CONTAINED IN THEIR RESPONSE TO THE JUNE DRAFT, BUT THAT THE AGENDA MAY BE MADE PUBLIC IN THE FUTURE IF THE SITUATION WARRANTED. MADRIGAL SAID THAT HE WAS AWARE OF THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUP MEETING IN NEW YORK ON SEPTEMBER 22. HE ADDED THAT SPAIN, BELGIUM AND BRAZIL HAD ALL INVITED VARIOUS COMBINATIONS OF THE CONTADORA GROUPS AND CENTRAL AMERICANS TO SOCIAL FUNCTIONS SUCH AS BREAKFASTS, BUT THAT THERE WAS NO SCHEDULED MEETING OF CONTADORA AND THE CENTRAL AMERICANS. ARIAS THOUGHT THAT THERE WAS LITTLE CHANCE THAT THIS NEW CONTADORA ACTIVITIY WOULD PRODUCE ANY RESULTS, AS THE SANDINISTS WERE NOT READY TO NEGOTIATE SERIOUSLY. TO THE CONTRARY, THEY WERE LOOKING FOR OPPORTUNITIES TO DEMONSTRATE THEIR RADICALISM.

5. MADRIGAL SAID THAT MEXICO WAS INDEED PUSHING BILATERALISM. THE MEXICANS WERE PUSHING HARD TO PROMOTE THEIR TIES WITH COSTA RICA -- FOR EXAMPLE, BY INVITING PRESIDENT ARIAS AND OTHER OFFICIALS TO VISIT THERE -- IN ORDER TO MAKE IT APPEAR THAT MEXICO HAD WARM RELATIONS WITH COSTA RICA AND THEREBY DEMONSTRATE ITS AUTHORITY IN THE CONTADORA PROCESS. ARIAS STRESSED THAT HIS GOVERNMENT WOULD NEVER ACCEPT SUCH A BILATERAL APPROACH. HE STATED THAT HE HAD NEVER CONSIDERED THIS POSSIBILITY. IT WAS QUITE CLEAR TO US THAT IT WOULD HAVE TO BE A REGIONAL [redacted] WOULD NEVER WORK." MADRIGAL ADDED THAT

HE WAS LEERY OF ANY BILATERAL AGREEMENT WITH NICARAGUA ON ANY SUBJECT AT THIS TIME, AS IT MIGHT BE CONSTRUED AS AN EFFORT TO APPEASE NICARAGUA IN CONNECTION WITH THE ICJ SUIT AND AS A SIGN OF WEAKNESS OF COSTA RICA'S CASE.

5. ARIAS SAID THAT HIS INSITENCE ON DEMOCRACY IN NICARAGUA DID NOT MEAN THAT HE SUPPORTED THE CONTRAS. HE STRESSED THAT HE DID NOT WANT TO BE CRITICIZED FOR BEING NEGLIGENT OR COMPLACENT ABOUT HANDLING THE CONTRAS. HE ACKNOWLEGED THAT SOME COSTA RICANS WERE HELPING THE CONTRAS, BUT THIS WAS NOT GOCR POLICY. OFFICIALS WHO WERE CAUGHT WERE BEING DISMISSED. HE INSISTED THAT COSTA RICA COULD BE FAR MORE VALUABLE TO THE CAUSE OF DEMOCRACY

IN THE DIPLOMATIC SPHERE THAN IT COULD BY ASSISTING THE CONTRAS. ARIAS SAID THAT COSTA RICA MUST WIN THE ICJ SUIT, DESCRIBING IT AS A CHANCE FOR A VICTORY OF DEMOCRACY OVER DICTATORIAL MARXISM. THE NICARAGUANS HAD SUGGESTED THAT THE GOCR MAKE SOME GESTURE TO GET THEM TO DROP THE SUIT. COSTA RICA REFUSED, AS IT INTENDED TO FIGHT THE CASE AND WIN. MADRIGAL ADDED THAT COSTA RICA WAS CONSIDERING A COUNTER-SUIT. RODRIGO ARIAS NOTED THAT A RECENT POLL SHOWED THAT THE COSTA RICAN PEOPLE ENDORSED THE GOCR'S POSITION ON NOT ASSISTING THE CONTRAS BY A LARGE MARGIN. WHILE THE PEOPLE DISLIKED THE SANDINISTAS AND WISHED THAT THE GON BE OVERTHROWN, THEY BELIEVED THAT THE CONTRA AID WOULD JEOPARDIZE THEIR OWN COUNTRY AND PREFERRED TO STAY NEUTRAL.

7. PRESIDENT ARIAS EMPHASIZED THAT THE COSTA RICAN PEOPLE WERE GREATLY DISTURBED BY THE EFFECTS OF THE WAR IN NICARAGUA ON THEIR COUNTRY. THERE WERE SOME 250,000 REFUGEES IN COSTA RICA, ABOUT HALF OF WHOM WERE NICARAGUANS. THIS WAS EQUIVALENT TO TEN PERCENT OF THE POPULATION. THESE PEOPLE, ONLY A FEW OF WHOM QUALIFIED AS REFUGEES ELIGIBLE FOR ASSISTANCE IN THE DEFINITION OF THE UNHCR, WERE IMPOSING AN ENORMOUS BURDEN ON COSTA RICA. THEY WERE OVERTAXING THE COUNTRY'S SOCIAL SERVICES, SUCH AS SCHOOLS AND MEDICAL CARE, AND CREATING RAPIDLY GROWING RESENTMENT. RODRIGO ARIAS SAID THAT THE CONTRA AID COULD GENERATE 50,000 ADDITIONAL REFUGEES, AND THIS WOULD SHAKE COSTA RICA LIKE AN EARTHQUAKE OF POINT EIGHT ON THE RICHTER SCALE.

8. ASKED IF HE HAD HEARD OF ANY CRACKS AMONG THE SANDINISTA COMANDANTES, ARIAS REPLIED THAT HE WAS AWARE OF NOTHING BEYOND THE TRADITIONAL RUMORS. HE SAID THAT THE COMANDANTES WERE UNITED BY FEAR OF THE US. HE COMMENTED THAT DANIEL ORTEGA HAD BEEN SELECTED PRESIDENT BY THE NINE BECAUSE HE WAS RELATIVELY WEAK AND WOULD NOT POSE A THREAT TO THE SYSTEM OF SHARED POWER AS BORGE WOULD HAVE. AT ESQUIPULAS, IT WAS APPARENT THAT ORTEGA DID NOT HAVE THE AUTHORITY TO SPEAK FOR THE NICARAGUAN GOVERNMENT. MADRIGAL ADDED THAT ALTHOUGH THERE WERE DIVISIONS IN THE FSLN, ONCE DECISIONS WERE MADE, THEY ALL FOLLOWED THEM AND WORKED TOGETHER.

9. WHEN HABIB SAID THAT GUATEMALAN PRESIDENT CEREZO HAD TOLD HIM THAT THE COG WOULD BE VERY FIRM ON SUPPORTING DEOMOCRACY BUT WOULD MAINTAIN ITS ACTIVE NEUTRALITY POLICY, ARIAS REPLIED THAT THIS WAS DOMETHING THE TWO GOVERNMENTS HAD IN COMMON. ARIAS WENT ON TO EXPLAIN THAT THERE WAS A DIFFERENCE IN THE TWO GOVERNMENT'S DEFINITIONS OF NEUTRALITY. FOR COSTA RICA, IT MEANT NOT TAKING A PART IN THE MILITARY

CONFLICT OR VIOLENCE IN NICARAGUA. THERE WAS NO IDEOLOGICAL NEUTRALITY, HOWEVER, AS THE GOCR WAS SOLIDLY IN THE CAMP OF THE DEMOCRACIES. HE ADDED THAT THE RELATIVE STRENGTHS OF THE LEFT IN COSTA RICA AND GUATEMALA WAS A FACTOR IN THE POLICIES OF THE TWO GOVERNMENTS. IN COSTA RICA, THE LEFT WAS WEAK AND

GROWING WEAKER AS A RESULT OF EXPOSURE TO THE SITUATION INSIDE NICARAGUA. IN GUATEMALA, THE LEFT WAS STILL A MAJOR FACTOR WITH WHICH CEREZO MUST CONTEND. VICE PRESIDENT DENGO NOTED THAT CEREZO HAD SAID THAT IN ORDER TO STAY IN POWER, HE MUST COPE WITH THE ARMY, THE GUERRILLAS, AND THE OLIGARCHY; CEREZO REMAINED IN A WEAK POSITION AND SO HAD TO BE CAUTIOUS ABOUT HIS POLICIES.

10. COMMENT: ARIAS REMAINS AS COMMITTED AS EVER TO ACCEPTING NOTHING SHORT OF A COMPREHENSIVE AGREEMENT THAT INCLUDES DEMOCRATIZATION IN NICARAGUA. HE WAS FIRM ABOUT RESISTING ANY ATTEMPTS AT BILATERALISM OR CONTADORA'S IMPOSING AN AGREEMENT. HE IS VERY CONCERNED ABOUT THE ICJ CASE, AND THE SANDINISTAS HAVE SUCCEEDED IN COMPELLING HIM TO TAKE SERIOUS ACTION TO KEEP THE MILITARY ELEMENTS OF THE RESISTANCE OUT OF COSTA RICA. HE WAS GREATLY CONCERNED ABOUT THE GROWING REFUGEE PROBLEM, AND WE WILL NEED TO FACTOR THIS ELEMENT INTO OUR PLANS AS THE AID BEGINS TO FLOW TO THE CONTRAS AND MILITARY ACTIVITY INCREASES. END COMMENT. SHULTZ

1. FATHER TERRENCE CAMBIAS THE PROVINCIAL HEAD OF THE MARYKNOLL ORDER IN CHILE PAID A VISIT TO CONGEN TO RELATE THAT HE HAD BEEN CALLED TODAY TO THE OFFICE OF THE INVESTIGATIONS POLICE, FOREIGNER'S DIVISION, AND WAS GIVEN NOTICE THAT HIS PERMANENT RESIDENCE VISA WAS COMMUTED TO TEMPORARY STATUS. THE SPECIFIC LENGTH OF STAY WAS CITED AS FIFTEEN (15) DAYS. THE MEANING OF THIS ACTION IS NOT PRESENTLY CLEAR. POSSIBLY, THE GOC'S INTENT IS ONLY TO CAUSE MINOR HARASSMENT BY DEMANDING SHORT TERM VISA RENEWAL BUT IN THIS SCENARIO TOTAL VISA REVOCATION IS ALWAYS A POSSIBILITY, DEPENDENT ON WHETHER ONE PROVOKES OFFICIAL DISPLEASURE BY A SPECIFIC ACTION.

2. CONGEN HAS APPOINTMENT TO SEE THE CHIEF OF THE FOREIGNER'S DIVISION ON THE FIFTEENTH IN LATE AFTERNOON TO CLARIFY THE APPARENT CHANGE IN RESIDENCY POLICY AS IT PERTAINS TO FOREIGN RELIGIOUS MISSIONARIES. THOUGH A SOONER CONVERSATION WOULD BE DESIRABLE, IT IS KNOWN THAT THE OFFICIAL IS INUNDATED AT THE MOMENT DUE TO REVIEW OF OTHER NATIONALITY CASES; I.E. FRENCH, PERUVIAN AND

3. FATHER THOMAS HENEHAN CAME IN A FEW HOURS AFTER FATHER CAMBIAS. HE IS A SUBORDINATE OF CAMBIAS' AND WAS PREVIOUSLY ARRESTED WITH HIM. HENEHAN WAS GIVEN THE SAME NOTICE--CHANGE OF PERMANENT RESIDENCE STATUS TO A 15 DAY VISA. THE PROCESSING WAS DONE BY A MID-LEVEL OFFICIAL WHO WENT TO SOME LENGTH TO ASSURE THE PRIEST THAT THIS ACTION WAS BEING DONE UNDER ORDER OF THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR, NOT THE CHIEF OF THE FOREIGNER'S OFFICE. HE WAS ACCOMPANIED BY HUMBERTO LAGOS, A LAWYER WITH THE VICARIA DE LA SOLIDARIDAD ON THE ADVICE OF HIS SUPERVISORY CHILEAN BISHOP, BISHOP MORENO. LAGOS HAS SUGGESTED AN APPEAL OF THE ORDER BE FILED AND BOTH PRIESTS, HENEHAN AND CAMBIAS, ARE CONSIDERING THIS ACTION. IT IS NOTEWORTHY THAT NEITHER IS ENGAGED IN PASTORAL WORK BUT RATHER SOCIAL ACTION AND THAT THE PERUVIAN AND MEXICAN CASES REFERRED TO IN PARAGRAPH 1 ARE LAY MEMBERS OF THE MARYKNOLL ORDER.

4. FATHER HENEHAN FILLED IN CONGEN ON HAPPENINGS AFTER HIS ARREST. MOST PARTICULARLY THE CONDITION OF HIS HOUSE UPON RETURN FROM THE JAIL. HE STATED THAT THE RESIDENCE WAS THOROUGHLY SEARCHED AND 3 YEAR OLD LEFT OF CENTER MAGAZINES, A FEW THEOLOGY BOOKS AND TWO BIBLES WERE CONFISCATED. THERE WAS STRUCTURAL DAMAGE SUCH AS A WALL PARTIALLY BROKEN DOWN. THE MOST INTERESTING ALLEGED PROPERTY ALTERATION WAS A CONCEALED HOLE DUG IN THE BACK GARDEN UNDER A BRICK AND WOOD PLATFORM THE PRIESTS HAD CONSTRUCTED TO KEEP GARBAGE CONTAINERS OFF THE GROUND. FATHER HENEHAN SAID THE POLICE STATED THEY HAD LOCATED THIS APERTURE DURING THEIR SEARCH AND ALLEGED THE PRIESTS WERE ABOUT TO STORE ARMS UNDERGROUND.

2. THE CENTRAL FOR DEMOCRATIC WORKERS (CDT) ISSUED A STATEMENT ON SEPTEMBER 5 CONCERNING THE INCIDENT WHICH OCCURRED LATE THE PREVIOUS EVENING IN WHICH THE CAR DRIVEN BY THE SON OF CDT SECRETARY GENERAL HERNOL FLORES WAS SHOT AT BY A MILITARY PATROL. THE SHOTS HIT THE CAR AND BROKE THE REAR WINDOW, CAUSING FLORES' SON TO STOP. HE WAS THEN REPORTEDLY DRAGGED FROM THE CAR, BEATEN BY THE SOLDIERS, THREATENED, AND THEN EVENTUALLY TURNED OVER TO THE CARABINEROS. THE CDT STATEMENT NOTED THAT FLORES HAD BEEN FOLLOWED AND PHOTOGRAPHED ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS

DURING THE PAST TWO MONTHS, AND HAD BEEN DRIVING HIS SON'S CAR ON THE PREVIOUS FEW DAYS. THE CDT STRESSED ITS ALARM, NOTING THE SIMILARILTY OF THESE EVENTS WITH THOSE WHICH TOOK PLACE PRIOR TO THE MURDER IN 1982 OF TUCAPEL JIMENEZ, WHOM FLORES REPLACED AS HEAD OF THE ASSOCIATION OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES.

3. FLORES HAS TOLD US THAT HE BELIEVES THE SHOTS WERE INTENDED FOR HIM, AND WERE MEANT TO KILL HIM. HE STATED THAT HE HAD BEEN FOLLOWED ON A CONTINUOUS BASIS SINCE THE JULY 2-3 GENERAL STRIKE, AND HAD BEEN OPENLY PHOTOGRAPHED BY THOSE FOLLOWING HIM. THE EMBASSY'S LABOR ASSISTANT CALLED FLORES'S SON ON SEPTEMBER 5 AND HE RELATED THE EVENTS WHICH TOOK PLACE ON THE NIGHT OF THE 4TH. HE HAD SPENT ALL OF THAT DAY, DURING WHICH A WELL PUBLICIZED ANTI-GOVERNMENT STRIKE WAS TAKING PLACE, IN THE HOME OF HIS GIRL FRIEND IN THE SUBURB OF PUDAHUEL. AT APPROXIMATELY 11 THAT EVENING HE GOT IN HIS CAR TO DRIVE HOME. SEVERAL BLOCKS FROM HIS GIRL'S HOUSE, SHOTS WERE FIRED AT HIS CAR, BREAKING THE REAR WINDOW AND THE REARVIEW MIRROR. HE IMMEDIATELY STOPPED THE CAR AND LAID DOWN ON THE SEAT TO AVOID BEING HIT. THE SOLDIERS THEM CAME UP TO THE CAR AND DRAGGED HIM OUT, AND BEGAN SLAPPING HIM AROUND. THEY ACCUSED HIM OF IGNORING A COMAMND TO HALT, AND THIS CAUSED THEM TO FIRE ON HIS CAR. AFTER SOME RATHER ROUGH TREATMENT, AND VERBAL INSULTS, THE SOLDIERS TURNED HIM OVER TO A CARABINERO PATROL, WHICH TOOK HIM TO A CARABINERO HEADQUARTERS, AND THEN TO A CLINIC TO CHECK ON HIS PHYSICAL CONDITION. HE HAD SUFFERED NO WOUNDS, BUT A BLOOD TEST SHOWED THAT HE HAD A SIGNIFICANT AMOUNT OF ALCOHOL IN HIS BLOOD SYSTEM. THE CARABINEROS THEN CHARGED HIM WITH DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF ALCOHOL, AND RELEASED HIM. HE REPORTED THAT HE WAS NOT HURT, OTHER THAN SHAKEN UP A BIT.

4. AIFLD DIRECTOR TORRES ALSO TALKED WITH FLORES, WHO REITERATED HIS CONCERN OVER HIS PERSONAL SAFETY, AS WELL AS THAT OF HIS SON. HE ASKED AIFLD FOR ASSISTANCE IN PERHAPS GETTING HIS FAMILY OUT OF CHILE, AND IN PROVIDING GUARD SERVICE TO THE CDT OFFICES. TORRES SAID THAT FLORES HAS A TENDENCY TO OVER-REACT, AND THAT THE SITUATION SHOULD BE WATCHED FOR THE NEXT FEW WEEKS TO SEE IF THIS WAS AN ISOLATED INCIDENT OR PART OF A PATTERN OF INTIMIDATION OF FLORES AND/OR THE CDT.

5. COMMENT: FLORES HAS BEEN NERVOUS SINCE EARLY JULY, PARTICULARLY AFTER MOST OF THE LEADERS OF THE NATIONAL CIVIC ASSEMBLY WERE DETAINED, AND HE AND CNT LEADER SEGUEL WERE NOT. HE HAD MENTIONED ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS HIS CONCERN THAT THE GOC MIGHT HAVE SOMETHING ELSE PLANNED FOR HIM, OTHER THAN DETENTION, AND NOTED THE IMPRESSION WHICH HE HAD THAT PEOPLE WERE FOLLOWING HIM. IN DISCUSSING THE SHOOTING INCIDENT, HE HAD STRESSED THAT HE HAD BEEN USING HIS SON'S CAR FOR SEVERAL DAYS JUST PREVIOUS TO THE INCIDENT, AND WAS THEREFORE CONVINCED THAT THE SHOTS WERE INTENDED TO KILL HIM, AND HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH HIS SON. E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PHUM, UNGA, CI, US
SUBJECT: CHILEAN COUNSELOR ON U.S. SUPPORT FOR
- U.N. HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION ON CHILE

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. IN A BRIEF CONVERSATION WITH MISSOFFS ON THE MARGINS OF THE OPENING MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE ON HUMAN RIGHTS, SEPTEMBER 12, CHILEAN MISSION COUNSELOR PATRICIO DAMM (PROTECT) MADE A STRONG PLEA THAT WE NOT SPONSOR A RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE AT THIS UNGA. HE SAID A SIEGE MENTALITY WAS DEVELOPING IN THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT AND THAT A U.S.-SPONSORED OR SUPPORTED RESOLUTION CRITICAL OF THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE WOULD MAKE MATTERS WORSE IN CHILE. DAMM SAID THAT CUBA AND MEXICO AND OTHER RADICALS WOULD BE PUSHING HARD AT THIS UNGA FOR A HARSH CRITICISM OF CHILE. ANY SIGN THAT THE U.S. WAS WILLING TO CRITICIZE CHILE WOULD ONLY ENCOURAGE THOSE RADICALS EVEN MORE.

3. DAMM SAID THE RECENT ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AGAINST

GENERAL PINOCHET WAS A "DISASTER" FROM THE HUMAN RIGHTS PERSPECTIVE. ACCCORDING TO DAMM, THE GOC HAD BEEN SCHEDULED TO ANNOUNCE "COSAS FANTASTICAS" ("FANTASTIC THINGS") ON HUMAN RIGHTS THIS WEEK, BUT THAT THE ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION HAD CHANGED EVERYTHING. HE ADMITTED THAT THE GOC HAD MADE A BAD MISTAKE BY CRACKING DOWN ON THE MODERATE OPPOSITION, ESPECIALLY THE PRESS, IN THE WAKE OF THE ATTEMPT. HE SAID ANY RESOLUTION ON CHILE AT THE UNGA WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY CONCENTRATE ON THE STEPS TAKEN BY THE GOC AFTER THE ATTEMPT WITHOUT EVEN MENTIONING THE INFLUX OF ARMS TO TERRORIST GROUPS FROM COMMUNIST COUNTRIES.

HONDURANS?

A: WE HAVE NO EVIDENC5 TO SUBSTANTIATE THE ALLEGATIONS OF DEATH SQUAD ACTIVITIES IN HONDURAS OR THE EXISTENCE OF A "HIT LIST." SUCH CHARGES APPEAR TO BE PART OF A POLITICALLY-MOTIVIATED EFFORT TO SLANDER HONDURAS'

GENERALLY GOOD RECORD OF CONSISTENT PROGRESS ON HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES. THERE WERE NO SUBSTANTIATED ACCUSATIONS OF POLITICALLY-MOTIVATED DEATHS OR ANY DOCUMENTED DISAPPEARANCES IN HONDURAS IN 1985; NO EVIDENCE OF EITHER POLITICALLY-MOTIVATED DEATHS OR DISAPPEARANCES HAS COME TO THE U.S. EMBASSY'S ATTENTION IN 1986. THE DEMOCRATICALLY-ELECTED GOVERNMENT OF PRESIDENT AZCONA, WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE ARMED FORCES, HAS AFFIRMED ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS ITS FIRM SUPPORT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS.

Q. WHAT ABOUT THE CHARGES THAT THE CIA, THROUGH THE "CONTRAS," COLLABORATES WITH SPECIAL UNITS IN THE ARMED FORCES TO THREATEN AND TO ELIMINATE POLITICAL OPPONENTS IN HONDURAS?

A: THE CHARGES ARE ABSURD. THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IS NOT -- AND HAS NOT -- ENGAGED IN SUCH ALLEGED ACTIVITIES. SHULTZ

Re: Persecution in Chile

Dear Congressman Bentsen:

As a constituent of your district, I would like to express my profound concern about the current events in Chile and in particular the present status of Fr. Terence Cambias M.M., Fr. Thomas Henehan M.M. and lay missioner Jose Luis Aguilar. These pastoral workers have dedicated their lives to the poor of Chile and have recently been threatened with expulsion.

Fr. Cambias and Henehan were arrested without cause on Sept. 8, 1986 in barriada Santa Monica. Upon release, their permanent visas were rescinded and reissued temporarily for a period of 15 days. It is of the utmost importance that swift and decisive action be taken on their behalf if they are to be allowed to continue their apostolic work.

In the case of lay missioner Jose Luis Aguilar, a Mexican with U.S. residence working for the Catholic Foreign Missionary Society of America, we are seriously concerned about his personal safety and possible mistreatment given the fact that he is not a U.S. citizen. Mr. Aguilar has been under arrest since September 8.

There is no need to reiterate the seriousness of the threat which faces Fr. Cambias, Fr. Henehan and Mr. Aguilar, as I am sure you are all well aware of the persecution of the Catholic Church in Chile. It was only one week ago that three French priests were expelled from Chile, thus denying the faithful of their pastoral activities. Although the problems of the Chilean people are far from being solved, especially their struggle against one of the most ruthless dictators in Latin America, your actions could be a determining factor. I both urge and encourage you to do all within your power to stop another injustice from occurring by calling on the Chilean government to permit these pastoral workers to continue their religious functions in Chile. Further, through your petition I would hope that the U.S. State Department exercise its influence for the good of the Chilean people and the aforementioned individuals.

Sincerely,

SUBJECT: PROSPECTS FOR DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION SET BACK BY ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AGAINST PINOCHET: REQUEST FOR CONSULTATIONS

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. THIS IS AN ACTION MESSAGE -- SEE PARA 4.

3. BEGIN SUMMARY AND INTRODUCTION: THE BLOODY ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AGAINST CHILEAN PRESIDENT PINOCHET SEPT. 7 BY COMMUNIST TERRORISTS HAS ELIMINATED PROSPECTS FOR ANY EARLY BREAKTHROUGH IN DEVELOPING MEANINGFUL DIALOGUE BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION ON A TRANSITION TO DEMOCRATIC SELF GOVERNMENT. THE STUNNING TERRORIST ATTACK, WHICH KILLED SIX CHILEAN POLICEMEN AND INJURED ELEVEN OTHERS, FOLLOWED BY THE GOVERNMENT'S ACTIONS DURING THE STATE OF SIEGE IMPOSED AFTER THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT, HAVE HELPED TO CONFIDENTIAL

REINFORCE AND ACCELERATE AN ALREADY EXISTING TREND TOWARD DEEPENING POLARIZATION. THIS DYNAMIC HAS TROUBLING IMPLICATIONS FOR U.S. POLICY IN CHILE OF ENCOURAGING A PEACEFUL DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION AND HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS. THE LATEST DEVELOPMENTS AND OTHER RECENT HUMAN RIGHTS SETBACKS HAVE PUT INTO SERIOUS QUESTION FUTURE U.S. SUPPORT FOR MULTILATERAL DEVELOPMENT BANK LOANS TO CHILE, IN VIEW OF U.S. LEGISLATION REQUIRING CONSIDERATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS CONDITIONS IN DETERMINING U.S. VOTES IN THE MDBS.

4. EMBASSIES ARE REQUESTED TO APPROACH HOST GOVERNMENTS

ASAP AND SHARE OUR VIEWS ON THE GENERAL DETERIORATION OF THE SITUATION IN CHILE, ESPECIALLY INCLUDING MEASURES TAKEN UNDER THE STATE OF SIEGE FOLLOWING THE FAILED ASSASSINATION ATTACK ON PRESIDENT PINOCHET. CONSIDERING THE POTENTIAL FAR-REACHING IMPLICATIONS OF THE MDB LOAN VOTE ISSUE, EMBASSIES ARE REQUESTED TO CONSULT WITH APPROPRIATE FINANCE MINISTRY OFFICIALS AS WELL AS WITH FOREIGN MINISTRIES (WHERE THERE IS A HUMAN RIGHTS MINISTRY AS IN FRANCE, THEY SHOULD BE APPROACHED AS WELL). TALKING POINTS ARE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 18 AND MAY BE LEFT WITH HOST GOVERNMENTS AS A NON-PAPER. PLEASE REPORT HOST COUNTRY REACTION. END INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY.

--TERRORISTS ASSAULT PINOCHET MOTORCADE--

5. ON SEPTEMBER 7 COMMUNIST TERRORISTS AMBUSHED CHILEAN PRESIDENT PINOCHET'S MOTORCADE IN A ROCKET PROPELLED GRENADE AND AUTOMATIC WEAPONS ATTACK, KILLING SIX BODYGUARDS AND WOUNDING ELEVEN OTHERS. PINOCHET HIMSELF WAS INJURED SLIGHTLY BY A PIECE OF SHRAPNEL IN THE HAND. THE UNPRECEDENTED TERRORIST ATTACK FOLLOWED DISCOVERIES LAST MONTH OF A HUGE QUANTITY OF ARMS DESTINED FOR THE SAME COMMUNIST-SUPPORTED TERRORIST ORGANIZATION--THE

MANUEL RODRIGUEZ PATRIOTIC FRONT (FPMR)--THAT TOOK CREDIT FOR THE ATTACK AGAINST CHILE'S PRESIDENT. IN ADDITION TO TRYING TO ASSASSINATE PINOCHET, THE TERRORISTS PROBABLY INTENDED TO SHOW THAT EVEN AFTER THE DISCOVERY AND SEIZURE OF THEIR SECRET ARMS CACHES LAST MONTH, THEY ARE A FORMIDABLE FORCE TO CONTEND WITH.

--GOC RESPONDS BY INSTITUTING STATE OF SIEGE--

6. THE TERRORISTS NARROWLY MISSED KILLING PINOCHET BUT SUCCEEDED IN ACHIEVING BOTH THEIR OWN STRATEGIC GOALS AND THOSE OF PINOCHET: THE GOVERNMENT'S ACTIONS FLOWING FROM THE STATE OF SIEGE IMPOSED IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE ATTACK HAVE REINFORCED THE ALREADY SIGNIFICANT TREND TOWARD POLARIZATION AND AT LEAST TEMPORARILY SOLIDIFIED PINOCHET'S SUPPORT, PARTICULARLY AMONG THE MILITARY. THE GOC'S REACTION IN FACT SHOWED LITTLE LINKAGE TO THE ACTUAL ATTEMPT. THE GOVERNMENT HAS USED STATE OF SIEGE

POWERS TO CLOSE REUTERS AND ANSA AND TO SUSPEND PUBLICATION OF SIX OPPOSITION MAGAZINES, INCLUDING THE CENTRIST WEEKLY HOY, LATER ALLOWED TO REOPEN. USING THE EXCEPTIONAL POWERS OF DETENTION UNDER THE STATE OF SIEGE, THE GOC SO FAR HAS DETAINED ABOUT FIFTY PEOPLE, INCLUDING A FEW MAJOR DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION AND HUMAN RIGHTS LEADERS (BEST KNOWN IS SOCIALIST PARTY LEADER RICARDO LAGOS), AS WELL AS SEVERAL FRENCH AND AMERICAN PRIESTS (THE FORMER WERE EXPELLED FROM CHILE, THE LATTER RELEASED).

7. SINCE THE STATE OF SIEGE WAS IMPOSED, RIGHTIST TERRORISTS HAVE BECOME MORE ACTIVE. THE FOREIGN EDITOR OF ANALISIS (ONE OF THE THOSE MAGAZINES SUSPENDED) WAS ADBUCTED BY UNKNOWN ASSAILANTS REPORTEDLY IDENTIFYING THEMSELVES AS POLICE SHORTLY AFTER THE STATE OF SIEGE WAS DECLARED AND FOUND DEAD THE NEXT DAY. AT LEAST THREE OTHER DEATHS HAVE OCCURRED IN SIMILAR CIRCUMSTANCES. A PREVIOUSLY UNKNOWN RIGHTIST TERRORIST GROUP TOOK RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE DEATH SQUAD-STYLE KILLINGS, APPARENTLY REVENGE FOR THE DEATHS OF PINOCHET'S BODYGUARDS.

--U.S. REACTION--

8. THE STATE DEPARTMENT SPOKESMAN ON SEPT. 8 STRONGLY CONDEMNED THE ATTACK THE PREVIOUS DAY AGAINST PRESIDENT PINOCHET, AND DENOUNCED THE COMMUNIST TERRORIST ORGANIZATION THAT PERPETRATED IT. AT THE SAME TIME THE SPOKESMAN EXPRESSED CONCERN ABOUT THE IMPACT OF GREATER RESTRICTIONS ON CIVIL LIBERTIES ON PROSPECTS FOR A PEACEFUL TRANSITION, AND NOTED OUR HOPE THAT THESE MEASURES WOULD END QUICKLY. OUR PUBLIC STATEMENTS SINCE HAVE NOTED THAT WE ARE DISTURBED BY THE ARRESTS OF NON-VIOLENT HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION REPRESENTATIVES AND BY CLOSURE OF OPPOSITION PUBLICATIONS. WE HAVE EXPRESSED OUR STRONG OPPOSITION TO VIOLENCE OF ALL SOURCES, ABHORING THE KILLINGS OF THE ANALISIS EDITOR AND OTHERS SIMILARLY MURDERED. WE HAVE STRESSED THAT STRONG EFFORTS ARE NEEDED IN CHILE NOW TO BRING AN END TO POLITICAL VIOLENCE AND RESTORE A CLIMATE CONDUCIVE TO DISCUSSION OF A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY.

--DIM PROSPECTS FOR DIALOGUE--

9. PINOCHET IS LIKELY TO USE THE ESCALATION OF TERRORISM TO CONTINUE TO SHUT OFF ANY PROSPECT OF DIALOGUE WITH THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION AT THE TIME WHEN IT IS MOST DESIRABLE TO PREVENT FURTHER POLARIZATION. LAST DECEMBER PINOCHET REJECTED AN APPEAL BY CHILEAN CARDINAL FRESNO FOR DIALOGUE WITH THE MAJOR PARTIES OF THE DEMOCRATIC

CONFIDENTIAL

OPPOSITION, GROUPED TOGETHER UNDER THE CHURCH-SPONSORED NATIONAL ACCORD FOR A TRANSITION TO FULL DEMORACY. WE HAD WELCOMED ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE NATIONAL ACCORD IN AUGUST 1985, AS REPRESENTING A MAJOR ADVANCE TOWARD MODERATION AND GREATER PRAGMATISM BY CHILE'S DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION, AND CALLED AT THAT TIME FOR ALL CHILEAN LEADERS TO RESPOND POSITIVELY TO THE ACCORD'S CALL FOR DIALOGUE. ALTHOUGH SOME OTHER JUNTA MEMBERS HAVE ADVOCATED DIALOGUE WITH THE NATIONAL ACCORD, PINOCHET HAS REMAINED ADAMANTLY OPPOSED TO ANY SUCH DISCUSSIONS.

10. IN GENERAL THE VIOLENT ATTACK ON PINOCHET TOGETHER WITH THE DISCOVERY OF HUGE CLANDESTINE ARMS CACHES HAS HAD A SOBERING EFFECT ON THE CHILEAN PUBLIC. IN THE SHORT TERM, THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT HAS LED THE MILITARY AND PINOCHET'S OTHER SUPPORTERS TO CLOSE RANKS BEHIND HIM. THIS SURGE OF SUPPORT MAY PROVE TEMPORARY BUT ALSO COULD HELP PINOCHET'S EFFORTS TO DEVELOP SUPPORT FOR HIS SELECTION BY THE JUNTA AS THE CANDIDATE IN THE PRESIDENTIAL PLEBISCITE SCHEDULED FOR 1989. (IN A PUBLIC SPEECH IN JULY PINOCHET IMPLIED STRONGLY THAT HE INTENDED TO CONTINUE IN OFFICE FOR ANOTHER TERM, BUT BACKED DOWN AFTER THE SOME OF THE OTHER JUNTA MEMBERS MADE PUBLIC STATEMENTS OF THEIR OWN TO THE EFFECT THAT NO CANDIDATE HAD YET BEEN SELECTED.)

11. THE GOC HAS FINALLY BEGUN TO PUT INTO EFFECT SOME OF THE POLITICAL LAWS WHICH ACCORDING TO THE 1980 CONSTITUTION, MUST BE IN PLACE BEFORE THE PLEBISCITE. FULFILLING EARLIER PUBLIC PROMISES BY GOC OFFICIALS, DURING HIS SPEECH SEPTEMBER 11 MARKING THE THIRTEENTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE MILITARY COUP, PINOCHET ANNOUNCED PROMULGATION OF A LAW TO BEGIN REESTABLISHING NATIONAL

VOTER REGISTRIES IN 1987. HE ALSO PROMISED THAT A LAW LEGALIZING POLITICAL PARTIES WOULD BE IN PLACE BY EARLY 1987. THESE TENTATIVE POSITIVE STEPS, HOWEVER, WERE OVERSHADOWED BY THE CURRENT CLIMATE OF CONFRONTATION, ENCOURAGED BY PINOCHET'S REPEATED, HARSH PUBLIC ATTACKS ON THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION.

12. FOR ITS PART, THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION IN CHILE REMAINS FRAGMENTED AND WITHOUT STRONG, COHERENT LEADERSHIP. DESPITE THE ADVANCE REPRESENTED BY THE NATIONAL ACCORD CONSIDERABLE CONFUSION STILL EXISTS AS TO WHERE THESE PARTIES STAND ON KEY ISSUES SUCH AS THE FUTURE ROLE FOR THE COMMUNIST PARTY. SOME PARTIES HAVE ACKNOWLEDGED THIS PROBLEM AND BEGUN TO TAKE CORRECTIVE MEASURES. STATEMENTS BY THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY REJECTING ALLIANCE WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY COULD BUILD GREATER CONFIDENCE, IF FOLLOWED THROUGH. THE CENTER-LEFT COALITION THE DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE RECENTLY REITERATED ITS SUPPORT FOR THE PRINCIPLES OF THE NATIONAL ACCORD, SUGGESTING A PLEBISCITE TO REFORM THE CONSTITUTION TO ALLOW FOR OPEN ELECTIONS IN 1989, INSTEAD OF THE SCHEDULED SINGLE-CANDIDATE PLEBISCITE, AN IDEA WHICH HAS SOME SUPPORT WITHIN THE ARMED FORCES.

13. A FOLLOW-UP AGREEMENT SIGNED LAST WEEK BY MOST OF THE POLITICAL PARTIES IN THE NATIONAL ACCORD (AND SOME OTHERS) HELPED TO CLARIFY FURTHER DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION POSITIONS. THIS NEW DOCUMENT OFFERS SPECIFIC GUARANTEES FOR PRIVATE PROPERTY AND ALSO ATTEMPT TO ADDRESS MORE SPECIFICALLY THAN THE ACCORD THE CONCERNS OF THE CHILEAN ARMED FORCES REGARDING POST-TRANSITION PROSECUTIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AND THE ROLE OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY. THESE TENTATIVE STEPS TOWARD FACILITATING THE BEGINNING OF A MEANINGFUL DIALOGUE, HOWEVER, WILL NOT PROSPER, IF THE TREND TOWARD POLARIZATION CONTINUES.

--TERRORIST VIOLENCE ON RISE--

14. THERE ARE OMINOUS SIGNS THAT CHILE'S COMMUNIST TERRORISTS MAY ATTEMPT TO BRING ABOUT A MAJOR ESCALATION IN VIOLENCE. THE ATTACK AGAINST PINOCHET CAME SHORTLY AFTER THE DISCOVERY OF SEVERAL HUGE ARMS CACHES, CONTAINING OVER 3,000 M-16S, TWO MILLION ROUNDS OF AMMUNITION, ROCKET-PROPELLED GRENADE LAUNCHERS, LIGHT ANTI-TANK LAUNCHERS (OF THE TYPE USED AGAINST PINOCHET'S MOTORCADE), AND HIGH-TECH EXPLOSIVES. THESE ARMS WERE DESTINED FOR THE FPMR, AND APPARENTLY SUPPLIED BY CUBA.

--OUR DILEMMA ON MDB LOANS TO CHILE--

15. IN VIEW OF PINOCHET'S INTRANSIGENCE TOWARD DIALOGUE AND RECENT SETBACKS IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION AGGRAVATED BY THE STATE OF SIEGE, THE U.S. FACES A DILEMMA IN DETERMINING ITS POSTURE TOWARD CHILEAN LOANS SCHEDULED TO COME UP THIS FALL IN THE MDBS. U.S. LEGISLATION (SECTION 701 OF THE INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS ACT OF 1981) REQUIRES THAT U.S. EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS NOT SUPPORT LOANS TO COUNTRIES IN WHICH THERE IS "A PATTERN OF GROSS VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS",

EXCEPT FOR LOANS THAT ARE DETERMINED TO MEET BASIC HUMAN NEEDS (BHN). BIPARTISAN CONGRESSIONAL SENTIMENT IN FAVOR OF LEGISLATIVE RESTRICTIONS REQUIRING THE U.S. TO OPPOSE NON-BHN MDB LOANS TO CHILE IS GROWING, AND IS LIKELY TO BECOME MORE ACUTE IN THE WAKE OF THE STATE OF SIEGE AND ACCOMPANYING HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS.

16. WE SHARE MANY OF THE CONCERNS OF CONGRESS REGARDING

HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS AND THE LACK OF MOVEMENT TOWARD DEMOCRACY IN CHILE. WE RECOGNIZE AT THE SAME TIME THAT U.S. VOTES ON MDB LOANS TO CHILE MAY PROVIDE THE OPPORTUNITY FOR THE U.S. TO USE ITS INFLUENCE IN FAVOR OF CONCRETE HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS AND MOVEMENT TOWARD DEMOCRACY. U.S. APPROVAL OF MDB LOANS WITHOUT SIGNIFICANT CHANGE IN CHILE WOULD UNDERMINE OUR CREDIBILITY WITH THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION, AND WITH THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT AND ARMED FORCES.

17. THESE LOANS, IN PARTICULAR A $250 MILLION DOLLAR

STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT LOAN (SAL) PRESENTLY SCHEDULED TO BE REVIEWED IN OCT./NOV., ARE IMPORTANT TO CHILE'S ECONOMIC HEALTH AND ITS ABILITY TO CONTINUE TO OBTAIN FUNDS FROM THE COMMERCIAL BANKS. DENIAL OF THESE FUNDS COULD UNDERMINE CHILE'S COMPLEX FINANCIAL PACKAGE AND HAVE A NEGATIVE IMPACT ON CHILE'S ECONOMY AND ITS POSITIVE, FREE MARKET MODEL. IF THE SAL IS BLOCKED AND CHILE'S FINANCIAL PACKAGE UNRAVELS, THIS COULD HAVE NEGATIVE IMPLICATIONS BEYOND THE CHILEAN CASE.

--TALKING POINTS--

--THE BOLD ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT, BY THE COMMUNIST-LINKED
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

MANUEL RODRIGUEZ PATRIOTIC FRONT (FPMR) AND THE EARLIER DISCOVERY OF HUGE QUANTITIES OF ARMS DESTINED FOR THIS GROUP WERE OMINOUS SIGNS THAT THE EXTREME LEFT IN CHILE MAY UNDERTAKE A SERIOUS ESCALATION OF VIOLENCE. WE CONSIDER THESE ARMS DISCOVERIES GENUINE, AND BELIEVE THE FPMR RECEIVED OUTSIDE HELP--PROBABLY FROM CUBA--IN OBTAINING THESE WEAPONS.

--THE GREATER RESTRICTIONS ON CIVIL LIBERTIES AND FREEDOM OF THE PRESS ACCOMPANYING THE STATE OF SIEGE FOLLOWED OTHER RECENT HUMAN RIGHTS SETBACKS. FREQUENT ARMY SWEEPS OF POOR NEIGHBORHOODS TOOK PLACE THIS SPRING AFFECTING THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE. THERE HAVE CONTINUED TO BE CREDIBLE REPORTS OF TORTURE BY SECURITY FORCES. AT LEAST ONE ARMY OFFICER HAS BEEN IMPLICATED BY A MILITARY TRIBUNAL IN THE BURNING DEATH OF A YOUNG CHILEAN U.S. RESIDENT. THESE PROBLEMS AND THOSE ACCOMPANYING THE STATE OF SIEGE HAVE OBSCURED A FEW RECENT POSITIVE STEPS TAKEN BY THE GOVERNMENT, SUCH AS APPOINTMENT OF AN OFFICIAL HUMAN RIGHTS ADVISORY BOARD AND PROMULGATION OF A LAW TO REOPEN ELECTORAL REGISTERS IN 1987.

-- WE FACE A DIFFICULT DECISION IN THE NEAR FUTURE ON HOW WE WILL VOTE ON CERTAIN LOANS TO CHILE COMING UP IN THE WORLD BANK AND INTERNATIONAL FINANCE CORPORATION AND IN THE INTER-AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK. U.S. LEGISLATION REQUIRES THAT WE TAKE NOT ONLY ECONOMIC CRITERIA INTO ACCOUNT IN REVIEWING LOANS, BUT ALSO THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. WE STRONGLY ADMIRE CHILE'S EFFECTIVE TEAM OF ECONOMIC MANAGERS AND FREE MARKET ORIENTATION, BUT, AS WE HAVE INDICATED, HAVE SERIOUS CONCERNS ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS CONDITIONS AND THE LACK OF MOVEMENT TOWARD IMPLEMENTING A TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY.
CONFIDENTIAL

-- AT THIS POINT WE WANT TO MAKE YOU AWARE OF OUR DEEP CONCERNS ON THIS MATTER. THE OPPOSITION MEDIA TRIED TO MAKE MUCH OF THE ANNIVERSARY AND THE PANAMA DEFENSE FORCES' (FDP) COMPLICITY IN THE STILL UNRESOLVED CASE, BUT -- EXCEPT FOR THE MASS ITSELF -- THERE WAS LITTLE PUBLIC INTEREST IN THE MATTER. THE FDP/GOP DID NOTHING TO IMPEDE THE COMMEMORATION, BUT THE FDP-CONTROLLED ERSA PRESS REPLAYED ALLEGATIONS THAT [redacted]

OBSERVED SEPTEMBER 13. DURING THE PRECEDING WEEK -- LABELED "DAYS OF REFLECTION" BY ITS ORGANIZERS -- THE SPADAFORA FAMILY, FRIENDS AND POLITICAL SYMPATHIZERS CARRIED OUT A SERIES OF PUBLIC SEMINARS, MARCHES, VIGILS AND RELIGIOUS SERVICES DESIGNED TO FOCUS ATTENTION ON THE ALLEGED RESPONSIBILITY OF THE FDP FOR SPADAFORA'S KIDNAPPING, TORTURE AND DECAPITATION. SINCE THE GOP QUASHED THE OFFICIAL INVESTIGATION AFTER TWO MONTHS, ACTUAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE SLAYING HAS NEVER BEEN ESTABLISHED, ALTHOUGH MOST PANAMANIANS CONCEDE THAT FDP OFFICIALS IN FACT WERE THE GUILTY PARTIES. THE OPPOSITION CONTINUES TO POINT TO NORIEGA HIMSELF, AT THE VERY LEAST, AS THE INTELLECTUAL AUTHOR OF THE CRIME. WINSTON SPADAFORA, THE MURDERED MAN'S BROTHER, DECLARED ON SEPTEMBER 12, "EVEN IF NORIEGA DID NOT GIVE THE ORDER FOR HUGO'S DETENTION AND SUBSEQUENT DECAPITATION, HE -- NORIEGA -- SURELY KNOWS EVERYTHING THAT HAPPENS IN PANAMA; HE KNOWS PERFECTLY WELL HOW THE CRIME OCCURRED."

4. THE COMMEMORATIVE WEEK BEGAN WITH AN UNPLANNED CONFRONTATION BETWEEN STUDENTS AND AN FDP UNIT IN CHITRE, SPADAFORA'S BIRTHPLACE, AN EVENT WHICH COULD HAVE -- BUT DID NOT -- SET THE TONE FOR THE ENTIRE WEEK'S EVENTS. FDP PERSONNEL ARRIVING TO PAINT A LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL WERE GREETED BY STUDENTS SHOUTING PRO-SPADAFORA AND ANTI-FDP SLOGANS. NO VIOLENCE ENSUED, HOWEVER, AND THE SOLDIERS COMPLETED THEIR JOB WITHOUT FURTHER INTERRUPTION. THE REST OF THE WEEK PASSED WITHOUT MUCH PUBLIC ATTENTION, ALTHOUGH THE OPPOSITION MEDIA DID ITS BEST TO PLAY UP THE PROGRAMMED EVENTS.

5. THE CULMINATION OF THE COMMEMORATIVE WEEK WAS A SPECIAL MASS AT A PANAMA CITY CHURCH PRESIDED OVER BY PANAMA'S AUXILIARY BISHOP OSCAR BROWN AND ATTENDED BY EX-PRESIDENT ARNULFO ARIAS, CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC LEADER RICARDO ARIAS CALDERON AND A HOST OF OTHER OPPOSITION POLITICAL AND MEDIA LEADERS. IN HIS CAREFULLY WORDED HOMILY, BISHOP BROWN CALLED FOR THE PERPETRATORS OF THE CRIME TO STEP FORWARD AND RECEIVE THE CHURCH'S ABSOLUTION AND FOR AN IMPARTIAL, EXHAUSTIVE OFFICIAL INVESTIGATION TO BE CARRIED OUT. THE MASS ATTRACTED AN OVERFLOW CROWD, MAKING IT THE HIGH POINT OF AN OTHERWISE UNREMARKABLE WEEK OF ACTIVITIES.

7. PUBLIC INTEREST IN THE SPADAFORA CASE WANED LATE LAST YEAR, AND THE POLITICAL OPPOSITION HAS BEEN UNABLE TO REVIVE IT. THE OPPOSITION CONTINUES TO ATTEMPT TO CAST SPADAFORA IN THE UNLIKELY ROLE OF A MARTYR FOR JUSTICE IN THE HANDS OF A BRUTAL MILITARY REGIME. HOWEVER, THE FDP HAS BEEN ABLE TO CLOSE RANKS IN DEFENSE OF THE INSTITUTION AND INDIVIDUALS SUSPECTED OF COMPLICITY IN THE CRIME. JUDGING BY THE GENERAL PUBLIC'S INDIFFERENCE TO THE ANNIVERSARY EVENTS, THE SPADAFORA EPISODE HAS PLAYED ITSELF OUT AND, BARRING UNFORESEEN DEVELOPMENTS, THERE SEEMS NO LIKELIHOOD OF REVIVAL OF GENERAL INTEREST IN IT.

His Excellency
Mr. Ronald Reagan
President of the United States of America
Washington, D.C.
U. S. A.

Mr. President:

Ten years ago, on September 21, 1976 my father, Orlando Letelier del Solar, former Ambassador and Minister for Foreign Affairs of Chile, was murdered in the heart of the nation's capital, in the most notorious act of international State terrorism ever known in the history of the United States of America. Ronni Karpen Moffit, an American citizen of a mere 25 years of age, also perished as a result of the car bombing that rainy Tuesday morning on Embassy Row.

I am the youngest of his four sons. Also I am an American citizen, born and raised in the city where my father Orlando Letelier and Ronni Karpen Moffit lost their lives. As such, I was educated according to the values and principles of Justice and Liberty proclaimed by the Founding Fathers of America. It is due to my commitment with these ideals and my conviction that they must be defended if humanity is to advance toward a better world that I have decided to submit this letter for your consideration.

According to the investigation pursued by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (F.B.I.) and the U.S. Justice Department the assassins of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Karpen Moffit were agents of D.I.N.A., the political police of General Augusto Pinochet's regime, who hired Cuban nationalists to aid them in their terrorist mission. In the trial held in Washington D.C. the persons involved in the crime were identified and it was proved that the orders leading to these brutal killings were given by General Manuel Contreras, head of D.I.N.A., a subordinate and trustworthy person of General Pinochet. In a civil suit presented in a New York court the Government of the Republic of Chile and at least three members of the Chilean armed forces were found guilty of these murders. Neither of these legal suits can be considered closed since Justice has not yet been done.

There are two lines of action still pending in the United States with respect to these crimes: on one hand, the extradition to the U.S. of three members of the Chilean armed forces for trial; on the other, the materialization of the judgment dictated by a New York court against those held responsible for these deaths.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Presently the people of Chile are engaged in the difficult and painful struggle of recuperating democracy for this country. When the goals of justice and liberty are reached there is no doubt that the absolute clarification and doing of Justice in the case of the assassination of Orlando Letelier in Washington D.C. shall be of the utmost priority. The American people can be certain that the Chilean people as a whole will contribute actively in the conclusion of the task initiated ten years ago by the U.S. judicial system in the Letelier-Moffit case. We shall discover the whole truth and Justice will be done in this land.

Until that day, no one, neither in Chile nor in the United States, can betray their moral and political obligation to continue the investigations and actions which logically and legally result from the previous findings contained in the sentences dictated by the North American courts in the case of the murder of my father and of Ronni Karpen Moffit.

The relatives and friends of Orlando Letelier, on the tenth anniversary of his assassination, have decided to initiate new efforts in Chile so that all the truth be kown and that all those responsible for this horrendous crime be indicated and taken before the courts of Justice. The lines of action contemplate the reactivation of the legal suit pending in the Chilean courts; the recuperation of his Chilean nationality which was cowardly stripped away by the government eleven days before his murder and finally the repatriation of his remains, presently buried in Venezuela.

The complete clarification of this act of international State terrorism and the application of Justice is without a doubt a common concern of the people of Chile and the United States. This results from their common commitment to the superior values of Justice and Liberty.

In the belief that the Government of the United States is seriously committed to the struggle against international terrorism as well as to the democratic cause of the Chilean people, may I ask you, as President of the United States, to help my family and me in our efforts so that Justice be done, by interceding in this case - according to the rightful interest of the American people - so that the legal actions pending in the U.S. courts be executed, not allowing any obstacle, no matter how high nor how big, hinder the conquering of this deeply needed goal.

Thanking you in advance I remain,

Sincerely yours

Juan P. Letelier

EXCISE

Dear Representative Gregg:

I am writing you to express my grave concern about the escalation of human rights violations in Chile, and to ask your support in bringing a halt to these abuses.

I am aware that you are familiar with Amnesty International's Chile Briefing and Appeals cases on behalf of several victims of political killings in which the security forces have been implicated. I respectfully ask you to contact the Chilean Ambassador to the United States to express concern regarding the involvement of security forces in political killings, to call for prompt and complete investigations into each appeal case, and to urge that law enforcement officials responsible for these crimes be brought to justice immediately.

I am also very concerned that the State of Siege declared following the assassination attempt on General Pinochet is allowing for further serious abuse of human rights. While acknowledging the lawful function of the state to take steps to enforce the law and to prevent violence, I am nonetheless convinced that emergency measures should never violate fundamental human rights as has been the case in Chile. I therefore also request that in your contact with the Ambassador, you express concern about human rights violations under the emergency measures.

I take the liberty of further asking that you contact the State Department to urge them to offer protection and support to human rights workers in Chile who may be at risk.

In appreciation for all efforts you undertake to stop human rights violations in Chile, I am

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. English:

I am writing out of concern for the United States votes on aid to Chile in multilateral banks. The World Bank will consider a $250 million structural adjustment loan in November, and it is uncertain what position the Reagan administration will take.

United States law mandates that the Administration oppose loans of this type to countries with a pattern of gross violations of internationally recognized human rights. See section 701 of the International Financial Institutions Act. The present regime in Chile is universally acknowledged to have a terrible human rights record. Tens of thousands of Chileans have been executed over the last 13 years for their political beliefs, while still greater numbers have suffered detention, torture and exile. The situation has deteriorated in the current year, with at least 28 deaths at the hands of security forces (including the burning of U.S. resident Rodrigo Rojas,) the closing of all opposition news media and widespread arrests under the recently imposed state of siege.

In spite of the legal requirements, the current Administration has voted in favor of $2.2 billion in loans to Chile and has never voted against a loan to protest human rights violations. In order to rectify this situation, I urge you to cosponsor the bill introduced by Representative Michael Barnes (H.R. 5155) which would require that U.S. representatives vote against all future assistance to Chile other than basic human needs programs. I also request you to write to Secretary of State George Schultz and urge the Administration to vote against the up-coming loan in the World Bank. I would appreciate a copy of your letter and thank you for your concern.

Very truly yours,

Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. McCloskey:

I am writing out of concern for the United States votes on aid to Chile in multilateral banks. The World Bank will consider a $250 million structural adjustment loan in November, and it is uncertain what position the Reagan administration will take.

United States law mandates that the Administration oppose loans of this type to countries with a pattern of gross violations of internationally recognized human rights. See section 701 of the International Financial Institutions Act. The present regime in Chile is universally acknowledged to have a terrible human rights record. Tens of thousands of Chileans have been executed over the last 13 years for their political beliefs, while still greater numbers have suffered detention, torture and exile. The situation has deteriorated in the current year, with at least 28 deaths at the hands of security forces (including the burning of U.S. resident Rodrigo Rojas,) the closing of all opposition news media and widespread arrests under the recently imposed state of siege.

In spite of the legal requirements, the current Administration has voted in favor of $2.2 billion in loans to Chile and has never voted against a loan to protest human rights violations. In order to rectify this situation, I urge you to cosponsor the bill introduced by Representative Michael Barnes (H.R. 5195) which would require that U.S. representatives vote against all future assistance to Chile other than basic human needs programs. I also request you to write to Secretary of State George Schultz and urge the Administration to vote against the up-coming loan in the World Bank. I would appreciate a copy of your letter and thank you for your concern.

Very truly yours,

SUBJECT: CHILE: Next Steps on MDB Vote Strategy

Although he raised the MDB vote issue with Baker, the Secretary did not check off a box in the action memo we sent asking for his approval of the postponement strategy. However, the Secretary's agreement to raise the issue with Baker seems to represent approval of the overall strategy. We have tried to learn whether Baker in fact has raised the Chile loan issue with Conable, but have no answer from Treasury to date.

The replies to our telegram on the MDB loan vote issue so far generally have followed anticipated lines. (About a third of the embassies which we asked to approach governments have reported; Bonn, Rome and Mexico are the only important ones remaining to be heard from.) As we suspected, there is no groundswell of support for opposition to Chile loans, although the idea of postponement, which the French suggested to us, might attract greater support, if pursued. We propose sending out a second cable early this week requesting third country approaches to the GOC in support of postponement. The Bank/Fund meetings next week provide a good opportunity to ask third countries to weigh in.

Before others do, however, we believe it is important that we approach the GOC directly, first here and then later in Santiago. An ideal time to make our pitch would be your lunch with Errazuriz this Wednesday. This would set up next week nicely for the Secretary to reinforce the message with Del Valle, and for Wallis and Darmon to do so separately with Finance Minister Buchi. (We are sending you a separate memo on your meeting with Errazuriz including specific points to make.)

RECOMMENDATIONS

1) That in your meeting with Errazuriz, you ask that GOC postpone consideration of the loans and suggest specific steps to be taken to enable us to resume support for MDB loans.

GA

_____ Agree _____ Disagree

2) That you authorize us to seek Department and Treasury clearance for the attached draft telegram seeking third country support for the postponement strategy.

FROM: ARA - James H. Michel, Acting

SUBJECT: Your Meeting with Chilean Foreign Minister Jaime Del Valle, Monday, Sept. 29, 11:00 -11:30 a.m.

I. DOUBTS ABOUT COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION

- Apparently intent on remaining in office beyond 1989, Pinochet was strengthened by the assassination attempt, which set back already slim hopes for meaningful dialogue with democratic opposition

- Prolonged restrictions on civil liberties and snail's pace in approving laws related to transition have reinforced belief of democratic opposition that Pinochet does not intend to permit change of government in 1989

- Del Valle complains that U.S. public criticisms complicate efforts to persuade Pinochet to allow reforms; virulent attacks in GOC press on Amb. Barnes this summer made atmosphere even tenser

- Points to Make:

  -- We are concerned about absence of meaningful progress on implementing a democratic transition

  -- Your government says it is committed to a transition but your actions are inconsistent--even counterproductive--to putting in place an effective transition

  -- How is it possible to prepare the country for a return to democracy when you maintain severe limitations on freedoms of expression and speech?

  -- We welcome reopening of electoral registers next year but more than laws are needed to prepare for eventual move to civilian rule

  -- Failure to take prompt, effective measures--legalizing non-communist, democratic political parties, restoring freedoms of assembly and press--increases polarization, strengthening communists

-- Now is time to isolate communists and strengthen center, by reaching out to the centrist parties of the democratic opposition in the National Accord, which have just provided important guarantees on issue of private property

-- Only through meaningful dialogue can you test their positions on other key issues

-- Time is running out to build stable foundation for democracy that protects both Chilean and U.S. interests

-- Ambassador Barnes has full confidence of President Reagan and he; attacks on him set back development of our relations

II. MULTILATERAL DEVELOPMENT BANK LOANS

o First Chile loan could come up for vote mid-October in the IFC; SAL expected for Oct/Nov in IBRD

o GOC is aware that we would have to abstain or vote no if votes were to take place today

o Points to Make:

-- Have no desire to harm your economic recovery; support your positive, free market economy as a model for others

-- Must take account of US legislation; face intense congressional pressures on issue of MDB loan votes as well as for other punitive measures which we oppose

-- Strongly suggest that you postpone the loans until steps can be taken on transition and human rights situation that will enable us to help you

-- Don't box us in a corner: we will not be put in position of pursuing sterile approach on MDB loan votes for Chile of last Administration

III. COMMUNIST-SPONSORED TERRORISM

- o President Reagan sent message regretting Sept. 7 terrorist attack against Pinochet
- o U.S. experts who examined huge quantity of Communist terrorist weapons found in August believe Cuba involved in arms traffic to Chile
- o Points to make:
  - -- President's message expressed the repugnance of all Americans for this attack and for all other acts of terrorism
  - -- Pleased we could send experts to assist in tracing Communist arms delivered with help of Cuba, and are considering now how to publicize findings when report is done
  - -- Our ability to do more on this issue affected by lack of progress on transition and human rights problems

IV. HUMAN RIGHTS

- o Pinochet has used state of siege to close opposition press and round up opponents--mainly Communists, but also non-violent left
- o Despite curfew and other controls right-wing death squads operating freely
- o State of siege followed other human rights setbacks this year, most visibly the Rojas burning, under investigation by military courts
- o Points to Make:
  - -- Welcome establishment of human rights advisory board, but concerned by serious setbacks in human rights over past year
  - -- Support bringing terrorists to justice but object to use of state of siege powers to stifle dissent; cannot understand failure to curb right-wing terrorists
  - -- Visible due process on Rojas case very important

V. UN ISSUES: HUMAN RIGHTS, UN REFORM, PUERTO RICO/NAMIBIA

- We almost certainly will sponsor an updated Chile resolution at the UNGA, and have told the GOC we are likely to do so to preempt another harsh, unbalanced Mexican/Cuban resolution, as was adopted last year

- Full agreement within G-18 on all reform recommendations in G-18 report, except for key subject of budget decision-making project, in which African G-18 members have not concurred

- Chile very helpful on Puerto Rico and Namibia resolutions

- Points to Make:

-- No final decision on sponsoring a Chile resolution in UNGA; want to work with you to seek passage of a balanced and constructive text

-- Important to continue positive relationship with UN Rapporteur Fernando Volio

-- UN at critical juncture, without major reforms it risks losing vital support; G-18 report provides historic opportunity for reform

-- GA approval of G-18 recommendations to establish a budget decision-making process based on consensus is critical to US support for UN reform and to restored UN funding by US Congress

-- Appreciate your support on Puerto Rico and Namibia

SETTING

Rumors have circulated several times over the last year about Del Valle's imminent replacement by a Pinochet hard-liner. His influence with Pinochet is minimal. Del Valle earned Pinochet's displeasure by convincing him to allow UNHRC rapporteur Volio to visit Chile last year, a decision which Pinochet blames as paving the way for the US resolution last March in Geneva.

Del Valle was surprised when he learned he would meet with you, instead of Under Secretary Armacost. At his Sept. 1984 meeting with Armacost, Del Valle promised to resign if a political parties law were not approved before the end of that year. Armacost discreetly did not mention the pledge last year.

CHILE - ECONOMY AT A GLANCE

o Chile has achieved upper middle-income status with sound economic policies, but future growth and development prospects are clouded by political uncertainty regarding how Pinochet exits from power.

-- Chile produces and exports more copper than any other country in the world. Copper accounted for nearly half of Chile's export earnings in 1985 and provided a substantial share of fiscal revenues.

-- Chile is making progress toward diversifying exports: grapes have overtaken copper in the US market. Access to GSP helps make the United States Chile's second most important export market.

-- Chile is the fifth largest debtor in Latin America with nearly $20 billion in external debt, an amount that exceeds Chile's entire gross domestic product. Debt service obligations take up more than half of export earnings.

o The GOC has taken a responsible and innovative approach to debt management. Chile has an excellent record of compliance with its IMF agreements.

-- In 1985, the GOC pulled together a complex financial package which combined a three-year extended fund facility for the International Monetary Fund, structural adjustment loans from the World Bank and a co-financing arrangement with commercial banks.

-- Chile has led other debtors in creative approaches to debt-related problems. For example, $370 million has been converted from debt to equity under central bank foreign exchange regulations.

-- However, investment continues to stagnate. According to the Chilean Investment Commission, US investment in Chile amounted to $1.232 billion at end-1985.

o Chile is doing better than projected thus far in 1986.

-- The trade surplus is expected to surpass $1 billion and economic growth to reach 3-5 percent. Inflation and unemployment are also down.

-- Chile's balance of payments situation has benefitted from slightly higher international copper prices, lower oil prices and lower interest rates.

-- However, loans coming up for votes this fall in the multilateral development banks are crucial to Chile's continued progress.

SETTING

Rumors have circulated several times over the last year about Del Valle's imminent replacement by a Pinochet hard-liner. His influence with Pinochet is minimal. Del Valle earned Pinochet's displeasure by convincing him to allow UNHRC rapporteur Volio to visit Chile last year, a decision which Pinochet blames as paving the way for the US resolution last March in Geneva.

Del Valle was surprised when he learned he would meet with you, instead of Under Secretary Armacost. At his Sept. 1984 meeting with Armacost, Del Valle promised to resign if a political parties law were not approved before the end of that year. Armacost discreetly did not mention the pledge last year.

Del Valle to Raise UN Resolution with Shultz

USUN reports by phone that they learned from the Chilean Mission that Del Valle intends to raise the possibility of US resolution on Chile at the UNGA with Shultz, and probably request that we not do so. The Secretary's talking points indicate no decision has been made, but we may table a text to deflect the likely strident Mexican/Cuban draft. Coindidentally, Jackie Tillman called today to ask about the state of play on a resolution and asked to be included in discussions on a possible text. (Swigert)

Opinion on MDB Votes

Jackie Tillman also reported that she has tentatively put Chile on the NSC calendar for discussion Oct. 17, in case there is inter-agency conflict on loan votes. She said that Poindexter prefers an abstention, and would have major problems with a no vote. (This is her view as well.) We explained the state of play--no decision, but agreement between State and Treasury that under current conditions a yes vote could not be sustained. She said that was the NSC view as well. In a discussion yesterday with visiting mid-level political leaders from National Accord parties, only the National Union Party (MUN) representative suggested U.S. opposition to Chile loans--if ineffective in actually blocking the loans--would spark any lasting nationalistic reaction that could be used by Pinochet to his long term benefit. While careful not to recommend U.S. opposition, even the National Party representative present stressed the importance of the U.S. sending a clear signal of dissatisfaction with current human rights conditions. GSP/Worker's Rights

On Chile, the meeting deadlocked between Labor and State on whether the Chilean reply to our readout on complaints constituted sufficient progress to be considered "taking steps" per the legislation. We argued that we could not expect to get more "steps" from the GOC and that the time had come to consolidate our gains by focusing on enactment of the legislative proposals in the Chilean response. STR remained neutral, but while holding off a judgement on whether Chile met the legislative criteria, pushed for agreement to "probe" the GOC on whether they could do anything more. We agreed to seek some clarifications from the GOC on the measures they proposed and to take under advisement the question of a probe. DOL later reported their willingness to agree to nothing more than a probe/clarification at this time, but reserved their position on whether Chile has met the legislative criteria. (Bolton-Swigert)

4. SORREANO SAID THAT ANY DECISION BY THE USG ON SUPPORT FOR LOANS TO CHILE WAS A DOMESTIC POLITICAL MATTER, IMPLYING THAT HE THOUGHT IT IMPROPER TO EXPRESS AN OPINION, BUT THEN ADDED THAT IMPOSING CONDITIONS ON LOANS FROM MULTILATERAL INSTITUTIONS TO CHILE WAS APPROPRIATE, IF IT WAS DONE AS AN ATTEMPT

5. SORREANO SUGGESTED THAT THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT WAS USING ALLEGATIONS OF SOVIET AND CUBAN SUPPORT FOR THE OPPOSITION AS A JUSTIFICATION FOR MAINTAINING ITSELF IN POWER. HE CONCLUDED WITH THE OBSERVATION THAT

THE BEST SOLUTION FOR CHILE WOULD BE SOMETHING SIMILAR TO WHAT HAPPENED IN THE PHILIPPINES. (DRAFTED:PRSIEKERT) BUSBY

EXCISE

Dear Representative Gregg:

As a member of the Newport/Claremont chapter of Amnesty International, I am taking the liberty of writing you regarding Amnesty International's current campaign on Chile.

Since 1983, the human rights situation in Chile has deteriorated significantly. The government has responded to each legitimate expression of protest from both the middle and left segments of Chilean society with random killing, incommunicato detentions, torture and extrajudicial executions. The recent attempt on General Pinochet's life and the present state of siege seem to be only an intensification of an already untenable situation. I am enclosing a copy of Amnesty International's Chile Briefing for your information.

I respectfully request you to convey my group's concerns to the Chilean ambassador:

Ambassador H.E. Hernan Felipe Errazuriz
Embassy of Chile
1732 Massachusetts Avenue
Washington, DC 20036.

It is my understanding that the United States does not provide foreign aid to Chile. Nevertheless, I would greatly appreciate your attention to the forthcoming considerations of the World Bank and the Inter-American Development Banks regarding new and renewed loans to Chile.

Thank you for your attention to my concerns. I would be greatful to you for anything that you could do to improve the human rights situation in Chile.

Sincerely yours,

3. A SIGNIFICANT AND INCREASING CONCERN WITH THE SITUATION IN CHILE WAS THE COMMON THREAD THAT APPEARED IN THE THREE MEETINGS I HAD TODAY WITH THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF ARGENTINA, PERU, AND, OF COURSE, CHILE. WITH THE LATTER, I STRESSED THAT CHILEANS, AMERICANS, AND OTHERS AROUND THE WORLD WERE ALL RAPIDLY LOSING FAITH IN GENERAL PINOCHET'S STATED INTENTIONS TO RETURN TO A DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM. NOTING

THAT CHILE HAS MANY GOOD FRIENDS IN THE U.S., INCLUDING YOU AND ME, I EXPRESSED OUR DEEPENING WORRY ABOUT THE DANGEROUS POLARIZATION THAT IS OCCURRING, WITH INCREASING GOVERNMENT REPRESSION ON THE ONE HAND

AND COMMUNIST VIOLENCE ON THE OTHER. I PRESSED THE URGENT NEED FOR PINOCHET AND HIS GOVERNMENT TO CREATE AN ATMOSPHERE THAT FOSTERS DEMOCRACY.

4. THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF TWO OF CHILE'S NEIGHBORS FULLY SHARE OUR OWN GREAT CONCERN; THEY, TOO, CLEARLY SEE THE SOVIETS AND CUBANS AS MOVING IN TO BUILD ON THE TRADITIONALLY STRONG CHILEAN COMMUNIST PARTY AND TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF PINOCHET'S INCREASINGLY STUBBORN REFUSAL TO TRY TO DEVELOP A CONSENSUS WITH CHILE'S LARGE, WEAKENING CENTER. I CONTINUE TO HAVE THE SENSE, AS DID THE ARGENTINE AND PERUVIAN, THAT PINOCHET AND THE COMMUNISTS SEEM TO HAVE AN IMPLICIT MEDIUM-TERM ALLIANCE AIMED AT TRYING TO PREVENT A DEMOCRATIC ALTERNATIVE. WE WILL NEED TO CONCENTRATE ON THIS INCREASINGLY DANGEROUS PROBLEM AND HOW TO CONVINCE PINOCHET TO MOVE IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION TO CREATE THE NEEDED DEMOCRATIC ENVIRONMENT LEADING TO A FULLY DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM IN 1989.

SUBJECT: SECRETARY SHULTZ MEETS WITH CHILEAN FOREIGN MINISTER DEL VALLE, SEPTEMBER 29, 1986

UNCLASSIFIED

1. (SECRET - ENTIRE TEXT.)

2. SUMMARY. SECRETARY SHULTZ EXPRESSED TO FOREIGN MINISTER DEL VALLE THE USG'S AND HIS OWN SERIOUS CONCERN WITH THE DIRECTION IN WHICH THE CHILEAN SITUATION IS HEADING. AS ONE WHO DESCRIBED HIMSELF AS A LONG-TIME FRIEND OF CHILE, THE SECRETARY EMPHASIZED THE NEED FOR THE GOVERNMENT TO CREATE AN ATMOSPHERE CONDUCIVE TO A TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY, EXPRESSED SERIOUS CONCERN REGARDING THE GOC'S NEED TO CONVINCE ITS OWN PEOPLE AND THE WORLD OF ITS INTENTIONS TO FOLLOW THROUGH ON ITS COMMITMENTS, URGED GREATER OBSERVANCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND DUE PROCESS AND STRESSED OUR DEEP WORRY ABOUT THE SERIOUS AND INCREASING POLARIZATION INVOLVING GOVERNMENT REPRESSION AND COMMUNIST VIOLENCE, WHICH THE CHILEAN COMMUNISTS, ACTIVELY SUPPORTED BY CUBA AND THE SOVIET UNION, ARE USING TO WORSEN THE SITUATION. DEL VALLE EMPHASIZED THE GOC'S INTENT TO PROCEED WITH ITS PLAN

FOR A FULL TRANSITION BY 1989 AND PLEADED FOR TRUST FROM THE USG. HE STRESSED 1) THAT NEGATIVE U.S. VOTES IN THE MDB'S WOULD HAVE A SERIOUS NEGATIVE IMPACT ON CHILE AND BILATERAL RELATIONS; 2) HE URGED THAT THE U.S. NOT SPEAK OUT PUBLICLY ABOUT ITS CHILEAN CONCERNS AND, 3) HE PLEADED FOR NO U.S.-SPONSORED HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION IN THE UN THIS YEAR. END SUMMARY.

3. SECRETARY SHULTZ MET WITH CHILEAN FOREIGN MINISTER DEL VALLE FOR FIFTY MINUTES ON SEPTEMBER 29, THEIR FIRST MEETING TOGETHER. THE SECRETARY WAS ACCOMPANIED BY AMBASSADOR WALTERS, ASSISTANT SECRETARIES ABRAMS AND KALB AND DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY GELBARD (NOTETAKER). WITH DEL VALLE WERE AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ, UNDER SECRETARY ILLANES AND A NOTETAKER.

4. SECRETARY SHULTZ BEGAN BY STATING THAT HE WISHED TO PASS ON TO THE FOREIGN MINISTER THE U.S. PERCEPTION OF THE CHILEAN SITUATION AND WHAT WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE TAKE PLACE RECOGNIZING THAT WHAT HAPPENS IS PRIMARILY CHILE'S BUSINESS, ALTHOUGH THE U.S. HAS A GREAT STAKE ON THE ISSUE. BEYOND THAT, MANY PEOPLE IN THE U.S. -- INCLUDING HIM -- HAVE MANY FRIENDS AND INTERESTS IN CHILE. THE SECRETARY ADDED THAT AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO HE HAD KNOWN MANY PEOPLE WHO HAVE PLAYED A MAJOR ROLE IN CHILE'S ECONOMIC POLICY. ALL OF THESE FACTORS LED HIM TO SAY THAT HE WAS AMONG THE MANY WHO ARE PRO-CHILE. THE SECRETARY NOTED THAT THE U.S. ANALYSIS OF THE SITUATION ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THERE WAS A TRADITIONALLY LARGE AND PROBLEMATICAL COMMUNIST PARTY, WHICH HAS A PERFECT WILLINGNESS TO

OF CHILE AS A DEMOCRATIC NATION. WITH A SERIOUS THREAT FROM THE LEFT, ON THE ONE HAND, AND A DEMOCRATIC, PEACEFUL TRADITION ON THE OTHER, THERE IS A STRONG NEED TO HAVE A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION TAKE PLACE IN A PEACEFUL, ORDERLY MANNER, LEADING TO A DEMOCRATICALLY ELECTED GOVERNMENT WITH ALL THE PROPER JUDICIAL WAYS OF DEALING WITH INDIVIDUALS THAT A DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM USES. THE SECRETARY STATED SAID THAT OUR SERIOUS CONCERN IS THAT WE SEE A VIOLENT POLARIZATION OCCURRING IN CHILE. THERE IS THE APPARENT FEELING ON THE PART OF THE GOVERNMENT THAT CONSIDERABLE ARMED FORCE AND CONTROL ARE NEEDED WITHIN THE SOCIETY, BUT THIS IS NOT INCOMPATIBLE WITH A TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY.

POSITIVE STEPS HAVE BEEN TAKEN, BUT THEY WERE NOT CONVINCING. THE LARGE NUMBER OF NON-COMMUNISTS WITHIN CHILE ARE INCREASINGLY CONCERNED THAT THEY HAVE NOWHERE TO GO AND THE CENTER IS LOSING FAITH. THE SECRETARY POINTED OUT THAT OPINION IS INFLAMED AROUND THE WORLD, INCLUDING WITHIN THE U.S. AND INSIDE PRESIDENT REAGAN'S ADMINISTRATION, BUT WE WERE READY TO STAND UP AND FIGHT FOR LAW AND ORDER AND A PEACEFUL SITUATION IF THERE IS THE CLEAR SIGN OF A TRANSITIONAL ATMOSPHERE TOWARD DEMOCRACY. HOWEVER, THAT POSSIBILITY HAS APPEARED INCREASINGLY DIMINISHED AS THE ATMOSPHERE OF REPRESSION ON THE ONE HAND AND COMMUNIST VIOLENCE ON THE OTHER HAND GROWS LARGER. WITHIN THE U.S., CONGRESS HAS BECOME DEEPLY CONCERNED ABOUT EXPRESSING U.S. UNHAPPINESS, PARTICULARLY THROUGH MDB VOTES. THE ADMINISTRATION IS CONCERNED THAT IF WE VOTE FAVORABLY ON CHILEAN LOANS, CONGRESS MIGHT REDUCE OVERALL REPLENISHMENTS TO THE BANKS. THE U.S. DOES NOT WANT TO HARM THE CHILEAN ECONOMY, WHICH IS AN EXAMPLE OF GOOD ECONOMIC MANAGEMENT, BUT

6. THE SECRETARY ADDED THAT AMBASSADOR BARNES IS TRYING TO EXPRESS OUR SUPPORT FOR CHILE AND FOR A TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY, BUT ALSO FOR DUE PROCESS AND LEGAL RIGHTS. HE NOTED THAT BARNES IS ONE OF OUR MOST DISTINGUISHED DIPLOMATS AND HAD DONE AN EXCELLENT JOB IN INDIA, WHERE HE PLAYED AN ESSENTIAL ROLE IN IMPROVING U.S.-INDIAN BILATERAL RELATIONS.

7. IN SUM, THE SECRETARY NOTED THAT HE HAD PROVIDED DEL VALLE WITH THE USG'S VIEWS SO FRANKLY BECAUSE HE PERSONALLY CARES A LOT ABOUT CHILE, AS DO PRESIDENT REAGAN AND MANY OTHERS WITHIN THE ADMINISTRATION AND WITHIN THE U.S. AS A WHOLE. THIS WAS WHY IT HURTS US SO MUCH TO SEE WHAT IS HAPPENING AND WHY IT IS ABSOLUTELY CRITICAL FOR GENERAL PINOCHET TO REACH OUT TO THE VAST BULK OF THE PEOPLE WHO DO NOT WANT VIOLENCE AND WHO DO WANT A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION, WHILE UNDERSTANDING THAT COMMUNISM IS NOT GOOD FOR CHILE OR THE HEMISPHERE AS A WHOLE.

8. DEL VALLE EXPRESSED HIS THANKS FOR THE SECRETARY'S VERY FRANK AND SINCERE COMMENTS, AND SAID THAT THEY WERE MORE OR LESS WHAT HE KNEW WOULD BE THE USG'S VIEWS. HE STRESSED THAT THE GOC AND HE, AS FOREIGN MINISTER, CAN GUARANTEE CATEGORICALLY THAT THEY WANT TO REACH FULL DEMOCRACY BY THE SCHEDULED DATE, INCLUDING ALL THE STIPULATED EVENTS THAT MUST OCCUR PRIOR TO THAT DATE. DEL VALLE COMMENTED THAT EVEN WITH ALL THE PROBLEMS CHILE HAD EXPERIENCED IN

UNCLASSIFIED

THE PAST TWO WEEKS, PINOCHET HAD PROCEEDED WITH THE ELECTORAL REGISTRATION LAW AND WILL ENACT THE POLITICAL PARTIES LAW. THE GOVERNMENT HAD ALSO INITIATED A DIALOGUE WITH SOME POLITICAL PARTIES OF THE RIGHT RECENTLY AND WOULD PERMIT PUBLICATION OF A CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER IN MARCH 1987. THE GOVERNMENT WOULD COMPLY TO THE LETTER WITH WHAT IS SCHEDULED UNDER THE CONSTITUTION AND, AS HE HAD TOLD BARNES, THE GOC COULD MENTION 14-15 STEPS IN THIS PROCESS THAT HAVE TAKEN PLACE, ALTHOUGH THE U.S.

DOESN'T SEEM TO RECOGNIZE THEM. SECRETARY SHULTZ ACKNOWLEDGED THAT WHEN STEPS WERE TAKEN, THE U.S. HAD INDEED ACKNOWLEDGED THEM PUBLICLY. DEL VALLE RESPONDED THAT THIS MAY BE TRUE, BUT THE FOLLOWING DAY WE ACT AS IF THE GOC HAD NOT DONE ANYTHING. HE NOTED THAT CHILE WAS FOLLOWING A DIFFICULT PATH WITH TERRORIST ATTACKS, STRIKES, LABOR MOVEMENTS, VICIOUS SLANDER AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT FROM SOME OF THEIR MEDIA AND A SUSTAINED, 13-YEAR CAMPAIGN FROM THE SOVIET UNION. ADDITIONALLY, NUMEROUS CHILEAN POLITICANS TRAVELLED AROUND THE WORLD LYING ABOUT THE SITUATION AND SPREADING DISINFORMATION. IN THIS REGARD, HE NOTED THAT WHEN HE HAD MET WITH THE POPE SEVERAL MONTHS AGO, THE POPE HAD RECOGNIZED THE DEGREE OF DISINFORMATION THAT WAS BEING SPREAD ABOUT CHILE. DEL VALLE ADDED THAT THE GOC HAD TOLD THE POLITICIANS THAT IF THEY WANT A DIALOGUE WITH THE GOVERNMENT THEY NEED TO RECOGNIZE THAT COMMUNISM IS AN EVIL AND DISTANCE THEMSELVES FROM IT. FOR EXAMPLE, HE MENTIONED, THE PDC HAS AN ALLIANCE WITH THE COMMUNISTS IN THE UNIVERSITIES AND IN PLANNING STRIKES. THE OPPOSITION ALSO SUPPORTS ECONOMIC SANCTIONS WHEN IT IS OUTSIDE CHILE. THEREFORE, THE BASE FOR CONSTRUCTING DEMOCRACY WITH THEM IS WEAK. THE GOVERNMENT HAS THUS DECIDED TO PROCEED WITH ITS OWN PROGRAM WHICH THEY INTENDED TO IMPLEMENT AS PROMISED. DEL VALLE ACKNOWEDGED THAT THERE ARE HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS, BUT WHEN THERE WERE STRIKES AND VIOLENT OUTBURSTS FROM EXTREMISTS THESE WERE NATURAL OCCURRENCES. HOWEVER, THE GOC FUNDAMENTALLY RESPECTS HUMAN RIGHTS. DEL VALLE STRESSED, FOR EXAMPLE, THAT CHILE HAS DONE VERY WELL ON SOCIAL POLICY AND HAS MADE A PARTICULAR EFFORT TO HELP THE NATION'S POOR AND HAD DONE VERY WELL IN THE AREAS OF PUBLIC HEALTH AND EDUCATION. AND IN THE SPECIFIC HUMAN RIGHTS AREA, MORE THAN A YEAR HAD PASSED WITHOUT ANY EXILES OR DISAPPEARED; RECENTLY, THE VICARIATE HAD NOT EVEN

MADE ANY COMPLAINTS. EVEN SINCE THE STATE OF SEIGE AND THE DISCOVERY OF THE ARMS CACHES, ONLY ONE SIGNIFICANT POLITICAN HAD BEEN ARRESTED AND HE WAS NOW FREE; THE WIRE SERVICES THAT HAD BEEN CLOSED WERE NOW REOPENED AND MOST OTHERS WHO HAD BEEN IMPRISONED WERE NOW FREE. THE GOC HAD THUS NOT BEEN SEVERE IN IMPLEMENTING THE STATE OF SIEGE AND WAS NOW TRYING TO CUT IT BACK. DEL VALLE ADDED THAT MEXICO WAS FUNDAMENTALLY WORSE ON HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS.

9. DEL VALLE CONCLUDED BY SAYING THAT HE WANTED TO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO ASK FOR THREE THINGS:

-- A. NEGATIVE U.S. VOTES IN THE DEVELOPMENT BANKS WOULD BE A GRAVE ERROR BECAUSE IT WOULD BE A SANCTION AGAINST THE PEOPLE OF CHILE, NOT JUST THE GOVERNMENT. IT WOULD HURT THE ECONOMY, EMPLOYMENT AND WOULD BE A SERIOUS BLOW TO BILATERAL RELATIONS.

-- B. THE U.S. HAS THE TOTAL RIGHT TO ASK THE GOC TO EXPLAIN ITS INTENTIONS, WHY INCIDENTS HAVE OCCURRED AND THE GOC WOULD RESPOND. HOWEVER, DOING THIS PUBLICLY GIVES THE APPEARANCE THAT THE USG IS TRYING TO DIRECT CHILE, WHICH IS NOT A SUITABLE WAY TO INFLUENCE MILITARY OFFICIALS. HE THUS URGED FEWER PUBLIC STATEMENTS.

-- C. DEL VALLE URGED THAT THE USG REVERT TO ITS PREVIOUS POLICY OF ABSTAINING OR OPPOSING UNBALANCED UN HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTIONS CONDEMNING CHILE RATHER THAN SPONSORING ITS OWN, ALBEIT MORE BALANCED, RESOLUTION. DEL VALLE NOTED THAT THE EFFECT OF THE U.S. SPONSORED RESOLUTION IN GENEVA EARLIER THIS YEAR

HAD BEEN TO HURT THE POSSIBILITY OF CHANGE BECAUSE IT SUPPORTED THE OPPOSITON'S VIEWS. DEL VALLE SAID HE HAD WORKED HARD TO ALLOW UN RAPPORTEUR VOLIO'S VISIT ALTHOUGH THE GOC HAD PROBLEMS WITH HIS FINAL REPORT, BUT WHEN THE U.S. JOINS A CONSENSUS CONDEMNING CHILE, PINOCHET DOUBTS THE WISDOM OF WORKING IN THE UN. HE STRESSED THAT HE WAS NOT THREATENING, BUT CHILE NEEDS SUPPORT AND IS THE GREATEST ALLY THE U.S. HAS.

10. IN CONCLUSION, DEL VALLE SAID THAT THE GOC IS HONEST, TRADITIONALLY DEMOCRATIC AND IS GOING TO MEET ITS OBLIGATONS ON A TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY. HE SAID THAT CHILE HAS ITS OWN ROAD TO FOLLOW ON THIS AND THE

U.S. SHOULD TRUST IT EVEN IF THE GOC'S PATH DOESN'T NECESSARILY COINCIDE WITH WHAT THE USG WOULD LIKE TO SEE. DEL VALLE SAID THAT HE KNOWS THAT THE U.S. HAS A DIFFICULT CONGRESS TO DEAL WITH REGARDING CHILE, BUT URGED A TOUGH U.S. POSITION TO OVERCOME THEM. CHILE WAS DOING EVERYTHING IT COULD TO DEFEAT COMMUNISM AND TERRORISM AND WOULD RETURN TO DEMOCRACY.
11. IN RESPONSE, THE SECRETARY SAID THAT HE HOPED THAT DEL VALLE AND OTHERS IN THE GOC WOULD THINK OVER WHAT HE HAD SAID. THE GOC NEEDS TO CREATE AN ATMOSPHERE THAT FOSTERS DEMOCRACY. THE U.S. WANTS TO SUPPORT CHILE, BUT IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO DO SO WHEN THERE IS SUCH WIDESPREAD GOVERNMENT REPRESSION AND EVENTS SUCH AS THE ROJAS'S MURDERERS NOT BEING

Estimado señor Presidente :

Agradezco sus sentidas expresiones de preocupación hacia mi persona y mi nieto por el alevoso ataque que, con características de acción guerrillera, sufriera el pasado 7 de Septiembre. En la misma forma, le manifiesto mi reconocimiento por su solidaridad con el enorme pesar que me ha causado la muerte y las heridas de los hombres que conforman mi escolta de seguridad, cuya valiente actuación fue en extremo eficiente y heróica.

Sus palabras son de un especial valor, ya que provienen de alguién que a su vez sufrió, si bien con significación distinta, un criminal ataque que comprometió su integridad física y la de cercanos colaboradores.

Resulta reconfortante saber que los Estados Unidos se hallan junto al pueblo de Chile en su condena a este acto cobarde, como también en su rechazo al empeño de los terroristas extremistas en todas partes y, en el caso de nuestro Continente, de las guerrillas marxistas, que actúan para obstaculizar los esfuerzos hacia soluciones pacíficas y democráticas de los problemas.

Quiero entender con buen espíritu lo que usted señala como su apoyo al sometimiento a la justicia de los responsables del atentado, puesto que ello no responde a un esfuerzo arbitrario del suscrito, sino que, simplemente, a la aplicación por mi Gobierno del tradicional criterio chileno de ajustarse a los imperativos de un Estado de Derecho.

Junto con ser muy grato para mí recibir la seguridad de su amistad, quisiera indicarle con un sentimiento recíproco, que la vigencia del Estado de Sitio, justificada por la extrema gravedad de los últimos acontecimientos, no debe constituir un desaliento al desarrollo del diálogo y de los esfuerzos en que nos hallamos para cimentar un consenso democrático sólido, tan esencial para el éxito de la transición en que estamos trabajando. Nuestro criterio de aplicación de las facultades que tal estado de sitio otorga sólo tiene como objetivo neutralizar la agresión revolucionaria armada que nos afecta, promovida sin duda por el expansionismo soviético - cubano, que usted, como nadie, experimenta y combate en situaciones tan cercanas a su gran nación.

El ingreso clandestino de armas a Chile, en cantidad que expertos norteamericanos han calificado como una de las mayores enviadas a un país de Latinoamérica, y el intento de la guerrilla, en posesión de tales armas, de asesinar a la máxima autoridad de la República, son hechos graves que comprueban la seria agresión comunista que resiste Chile.

Esos hechos demuestran también que mi Gobierno está en lo cierto cuando adopta las adecuadas precauciones y resguardos para el cumplimiento de los objetivos institucionales que el pueblo se trazó, impidiendo con tales medidas que se creen las condiciones favorables a los propósitos totalitarios de los grupos marxistas.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Por ello, el éxito del diálogo y la obtención del consenso, como su Gobierno sabe, están estrechamente vinculados a una clara definición teórica y a una tajante actitud práctica de importantes sectores de la oposición política, en contra de la acción destructora de la democracia que realiza el izquierdismo marxista en Chile y que dió origen a nuestros problemas políticos actuales. Estas actitudes son indispensables para que la plena democracia que se busca sea estable y segura.

Comparto sus esperanzas de que estas medidas extraordinarias puedan suspenderse tan pronto se logre un razonable control sobre la amenaza de orden bélico a que me he referido. En todo caso ellas no afectarán el proceso de institucionalización democrático que impulsa mi Gobierno.

La reciente dictación de la Ley de Inscripciones Electorales y Servicio Electoral y el estado de avance de la Ley de Partidos Políticos, que deberá ser una realidad en los primeros meses de 1987, constituyen una clara muestra de lo anterior.

Reitero mi agradecimiento por sus sinceras condolencias por aquellos que perdieron la vida y sus sentidos deseos de recuperación de quienes resultaron heridos en este vil atentado.

Saluda al Señor Presidente, con especial consideración,

September 30, 1986

His Excellency
Ronald Reagan
President
The United States
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

Your kind expression of concern as to my person and my grandson with reference to the September 7 assassination attempt which partook of the characteristics of a guerrilla warfare attack is very much appreciated. I also appreciate your solidarity with the enormous grief I feel for the deaths and injuries among the men who made up my security escort, whose valiant acts were efficient and heroic to the extreme.

Your words have a special value to me, coming from someone who has personally suffered a criminal attack, although different in meaning, which endangered your physical integrity and that of your close collaborators.

We take great comfort in recognizing that the United States stands with the people of Chile in their condemnation of this cowardly act, as well as in their rejection of activities carried out by terrorist extremists everywhere and, in our own Hemisphere, by Marxist guerrilla organizations attempting to block efforts to find peaceful and democratic solutions to our problems.

Republic of Chile
Office of the President

I want to understand what you refer to as your support for the submission to justice of those responsible for that attempt with good intentions, as there is no arbitrary effort involved on the part of the undersigned, but, simply, the application by my Government of traditional Chilean criteria of conformity to the imperatives of a State of Law.

In addition to being very pleased to receive the assurances of your friendship, reciprocating those feelings, I should like you to know that the State of Siege, justified by the extreme gravity of recent events, must not discourage the development of dialog and of efforts underway at the present time to establish the solid democratic consensus essential for the success of the transition on which we are working. The single objective of our criteria for the application of the powers granted by such a state of siege is to neutralize the revolutionary armed aggression with which we are presently confronted, doubtlessly promoted by the same Soviet-Cuban expansionism, which you, as no one else, must experience and combat in situations so close to your own great nation.

The clandestine entry of arms into Chile, in amounts characterized by American experts as among the largest arms deliveries ever to a Latin American country, and the attempt of guerrilla organizations in the possession of such arms to assassinate the maximum authority of the Republic, are grave facts which demonstrate the serious Communist aggression Chile is resisting at the present time.

These facts also indicate the correctness of my Government's having adopted adequate precautions and safeguards for compliance with the institutional objectives set by our people, thus impeding the creation of conditions favorable to the totalitarian goals of Marxist groups.

Republic of Chile
Office of the President

The success of dialog and obtaining a consensus, as your Government knows, are therefore closely linked to the ability of significant sectors of the political opposition to clearly define their principles and to adopt decisive, practical attitudes against the democracy-destroying activities of Marxist leftists in Chile, the root of our present political problems. Such attitudes are indispensable for the full democracy we all seek to be stable and safe.

I share your hopes that the extraordinary measures we have implemented can be suspended as soon as reasonable control is established over the threat of virtual war to which I have referred. In any case, such measures shall not affect the institutionalization process my Government is advancing.

The recent passage of the Law on Election Registration and the Election Service, as well as the advanced status of the Law on Political Parties, which must go into effect during the first months of 1987, are clear demonstrations of the above.

Again, my appreciation for your sincere condolences for those who lost their lives and your desires for the recovery of those injured in that murderous attack.

Mr. President, my most sincere consideration,

(signed)
A. Pinochet U.

2. SUMMARY: IN A DISCUSSION WITH HA ASSISTANT SECRETARY SCHIFTER, VENEZUELA'S AMBASSADOR TO CHILE, HECTOR VARGAS ACOSTA, REVIEWED HUMAN RIGHTS CONDITIONS IN CHILE. HE SPOKE OF A SYMBIOTIC RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN GENERAL PINOCHET AND THE CHILEAN COMMUNIST PARTY, EACH HELPING THE OTHER AND EXPRESSED THE VIEW THAT THE GOVERNMENT MUST END ITS REPRESSIVE MEASURES WHILE THE DEMOCRATIC PARTIES OF CHILE MUST DISSOCIATE THEMSELVES COMPLETELY FROM THE COMMUNISTS. HE URGED THAT CHILEAN LOAN APPLICATIONS AT INTERNATIONAL LENDING INSTITUTIONS BE DEFERRED OR POSTPONED RATHER THAN VOTED DOWN. FINALLY, HE EXPRESSED THE BELIEF THAT LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES SHOULD ACTIVELY JOIN THE EFFORTS OF THE UNITED STATES IN ENCOURAGING A TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY. ASSISTANT SECRETARY SCHIFTER EXPRESSED VIEWS IN GENERAL AGREEMENT WITH THE POINTS MADE BY AMBASSADOR VARGAS. END SUMMARY.

3. HA ASSISTANT SECRETARY SCHIFTER MET ON SEPTEMBER 18 AT THE DEPARTMENT WITH VENEZUELA'S AMBASSADOR TO CHILE HECTOR VARGAS ACOSTA FOR A COMPREHENSIVE DISCUSSION OF HUMAN RIGHTS CONDITIONS IN CHILE AND THE NEED TO END THE PRESENT CYCLE OF VIOLENCE. VARGAS STARTED OUT BY STRESSING WHAT HE VIEWED AS THE SYMBIOTIC RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN GENERAL PINOCHET AND CHILE'S COMMUNIST PARTY. IN 1973, HE SAID, 70 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION WELCOMED PINOCHET. TODAY, BY CONTRAST, 70 PERCENT WANT HIM TO LEAVE. HIS REPRESSIVE MEASURES HAVE TENDED TO POLARIZE CHILEAN SOCIETY, STRENGTHENING THE COMMUNISTS. THE COMMUNISTS IN TURN, BY RESORTING TO VIOLENCE, BRING ON MORE REPRESSION. RECENT KILLINGS AND OTHER ACTS OF VIOLENCE BY ARMED CIVILIANS, VARGAS SAID, WERE THE WORK OF GOVERNMENT OPERATIVES, PROBABLY ASSOCIATED WITH CNI.

4. VARGAS WAS NOT AT ALL ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT THE PERFORMANCE OF THE LEADERS OF THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION, MAKING A PARTICULARLY CAUSTIC REMARK ABOUT GABRIEL VALDES. IN HIS VIEW, THEY DID NOT DO ENOUGH TO DISTANCE THEMSELVES FROM THE COMMUNISTS.

5. INDICATING GENERAL AGREEMENT WITH VARGAS, SCHIFTER ASKED WHETHER THE MOST RECENT VIOLENT EPISODES MIGHT

CONFIDENTIAL
CLASSIFIED

NOT HAVE THE EFFECT OF PERSUADING MODERATES IN THE GOVERNMENT AND DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION LEADERS TO MAKE AN EFFORT TO REACH AN UNDERSTANDING SO AS TO AVOID EVEN GREATER CIVIL STRIFE. SCHIFTER CALLED PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO PLANS TO PUBLISH A DRAFT OF THE POLITICAL PARTIES LAW. HE ASKED WHETHER IN THE ABSENCE OF A FORMAL DIALOGUE BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION, THE INVITATION FOR COMMENTS ON THE POLITICAL PARTIES LAW MIGHT NOT SERVE AS A BASIS FOR AN INFORMAL DIALOGUE. HE ASKED FURTHER WHETHER IN THIS CONTEXT IT WAS NOT A MISTAKE FOR THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS TO TAKE THE POSITION THAT THEY WOULD REJECT ANY LAW BASED ON THE 1980 CONSTITUTION. VARGAS ANSWERED BOTH QUESTIONS AFFIRMATIVELY, SUGGESTING THAT THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC RESPONSE WAS THE POSITION OF VALDES BUT WOULD NOT BE SUBSCRIBED TO BY JUAN HAMILTON. THERE FOLLOWED A FURTHER DISCUSSION ABOUT THE UNCERTAINTY AS TO WHERE ZALDIVAR STOOD.

6. CONCERNING THE PRESENT DISCUSSIONS OF CHILEAN APPLICATIONS FOR LOANS FROM INTERNATIONAL LENDING INSTITUTIONS, VARGAS EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT AN ABSTENTION OR "NO" VOTE COULD BE AVOIDED. HE HOPED THAT ACTION ON THE LOANS COULD BE DEFERRED OR POSTPONED

LONG ENOUGH FOR SOME PROGRESS IN CHILE TO BE IN EVIDENCE, SUCH AS PROMULGATION OF THE POLITICAL PARTIES LAW, SO AS TO MAKE A YES VOTE POSSIBLE. VARGAS SAID THAT HIS OWN GOVERNMENT WOULD BE FAVORABLY DISPOSED TO A POSTPONEMENT/DEFERRAL STRATEGY.

7. IN PURSUING THE EFFORT AT THE RETURN TO DEMOCRACY IN CHILE, VARGAS NOTED, LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES, PARTICULARLY VENEZUELA, BRAZIL, ARGENTINA, AND URUGUAY, SHOULD JOIN THE EFFORT SO THAT THE ISSUE WOULD NOT BE CLOUDED BY THE PERCEPTION THAT IT IS ONLY THE UNITED STATES THAT IS PUSHING IN THAT DIRECTION. NOTING THAT THE ARMY IS THE ONLY FORCE SUPPORTIVE OF PINOCHET'S HARD-LINE POSITIONS, HE EXPRESSED THE VIEW THAT THE BRAZILIAN ARMY AND POSSIBLY ALSO THE VENEZUELAN ARMY COULD BE IN TOUCH WITH CHILEAN ARMY OFFICERS IN EFFORTS TO PERSUADE THEM TO MODIFY THEIR POSITIONS.

8. ONE OTHER POINT MADE BY AMBASSADOR VARGAS WAS THAT THE POPE'S SCHEDULED VISIT TO VENEZUELA IN THE SPRING OF 1987 OFFERS ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY TO BRING THE CONTENDING SIDES TOGETHER AND TO PUT PRESSURE ON

PINOCHET FOR CHANGE. WHITEHEAD

REPORT ON THE SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR

October 1, 1986 - March 31, 1987

RELEASABL

RELEASED
El Salvador Human Rights
Special Project (19[illegible])

This report responds to the congressional requirement that the Administration report on progress in El Salvador during the period October 1, 1986 through March 31, 1987. The report discusses four key areas: dialogue between the Government of El Salvador and the insurgents; civilian control over the military; judicial reform; and land reform. In addition, the report provides an overview of other important developments during the reporting period.

OVERVIEW

The powerful earthquake that struck San Salvador on October 10, 1986 was the most significant event of the reporting period. The quake left over 1,000 persons dead, some 10,000 wounded, and over 100,000 homeless. Replacement costs for destroyed and damaged infrastructure exceed one billion dollars. Some 150 public schools, four major hospitals, and hundreds of public and private buildings were destroyed or significantly damaged.

The government of President Jose Napoleon Duarte responded quickly and effectively to the quake. The President immediately declared a national disaster, convoked a national emergency committee meeting, and implemented the government's emergency action plan. At the President's request, a private sector committee was created to receive and carefully account for national and international contributions of material and money. All international donations were channeled through this private sector committee and monitored by an independent U.S. accounting firm.

One week after the quake the relief distribution effort was divided into fourteen zones and nine surrounding municipalities, each with a relief distribution center. Supplies were distributed to each zone based on a preliminary damage assessment conducted by the San Salvador municipal government. Requesting organizations submitted their needs to the local relief distribution center, which verified the need and handled distribution. While there was some isolated criticism from some localities which did not feel that aid came quickly enough or in sufficient amounts, it is clear that the government did the best it could under the difficult, chaotic and fluid circumstances. Reports that the government was keeping out private relief flights were greatly exaggerated and were based upon an initial requirement that relief flights obtain 24-hour advance landing clearances in order to allow time to arrange reception and clearance facilities at the airport. The requirement was dropped after complaints about waiting relief flights. The government's emergency committee spot-checked these distribution efforts for waste and fraud.

El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

President Duarte assigned some relief responsibilities to the Armed Forces, which carried out civic action projects, maintained control at damaged buildings, provided security, cleared streets and removed rubble. There were virtually no incidents of looting or other civil disturbances in the city, even during the first days after the initial shock, in which hundreds of thousands remained outside their homes in fear of major aftershocks. The Armed Forces radio station, Radio Cuscatlan, was the only local media source which stayed on the air throughout the quake and its aftershocks, serving to help locate and reassure families concerned about relatives.

The non-governmental sector responded as well. Archbishop of San Salvador Arturo Rivera Damas formed a separate emergency committee that independently received and distributed assistance to needy persons. The Church kept the government informed of its relief activities. The El Salvador Red Cross provided first aid and rescue services, with the help of over 400 volunteers, and set up a service to trace missing persons.

Two weeks after the earthquake, the combined government-private sector operations had by and large successfully dealt with the emergency phase of the crisis and were turning their attention to rehabilitation and long-term reconstruction. Temporary shelter had been provided to the homeless, medical care given to the injured, and many public services had been restored. Water shortages continued to be problematic due to pipe breaks, but U.S. Government-supplied water bladders temporarily served the needs of the public.

The U.S. and some 30 foreign countries provided emergency relief to El Salvador in the aftermath of the quake. In addition to more than $2 million provided by the Office of Foreign Disaster Assistance, the Congress quickly appropriated $50 million in interim reconstruction assistance. This money is being carefully disbursed in accordance with a reconstruction plan worked out by the government in conjunction with U.S. aid officials. Priority projects are temporary employment generation, restoration of public services, temporary housing and slum rehabilitation, and credits for housing reconstruction.

The earthquake is a major blow to the government's efforts to stabilize its faltering economy. Along with the earthquake, concern for the economy highlighted the reporting period. After experiencing nominal economic growth in 1984 and 1985, the economy faltered in 1986 and into early 1987. The dramatic drop in coffee prices in late 1986 bodes ill for foreign exchange earnings from El Salvador's most important export crop. Low prices for coffee and U.S. sugar quotas have worsened the balance of trade and fiscal deficits. Investor confidence -- both domestic and foreign -- remains shaky in the face of continuing sabotage by the Marxist-Leninist insurgents.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights

El Salvador's economic problems are largely a result of the continuing violence. The Salvadoran Armed Forces continue to maintain the initiative in the field, further reducing guerrilla strength and allowing the government to secure ever larger areas of the country. Nevertheless, the Farabundo Marti National Liberation front (FMLN) guerrilla bands have persisted in their strategy of destabilizing the government by destroying the economy and engaging in acts of terrorism. As mentioned in the previous report, the guerrillas have recognized that they have no hope of defeating the government militarily, and are instead trying to undermine support for the government by demonstrating that it cannot provide security for all its citizens. The guerrillas have continued their extensive use of contact mines and increasingly engage in the execution of civilians, the machine-gunning of vehicles, kidnapping, and extortion.

As part of the "prolonged popular war" strategy the FMLN and its political wing, the Democratic Revolutionary Front (FDR) have engaged in a sophisticated propaganda campaign, relying on sympathizers in El Salvador and abroad to spread disinformation about the Duarte government's human rights record, alleged repression of unions, and U.S. Government policies. The goal of this campaign is to erode the democratic government's support abroad and reduce the assistance that helps it defend itself against guerrilla sabotage and attack.

In February 1987 the government and the FMLN/FDR agreed to exchange Col. Omar Napoleon Avalos, kidnapped by the FMLN in October 1985, for 57 persons awaiting trial on charges of membership in or active support for guerrilla organizations through manipulation of labor and human rights front organizations. The negotiations leading to the exchange were mediated by the Catholic Church. In addition, 39 severely wounded guerrillas were permitted to leave the country.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (19

In the labor field, the most significant development was the decision by the democratic labor group Popular Democratic Unity (UPD) to withdraw from the insurgent-dominated front, the National Unity of Salvadoran Workers (UNTS). The UNTS remains dominated by the communist First of May Committee and other insurgent front unions. Meanwhile, the UPD has declared its intention to be an independent democratic labor movement. The other main democratic grouping, the National Union of Workers and Peasants (UNOC), remains the largest labor movement in the country.

Politically, the period was characterized by intense and bitter conflict between the government on the one hand and the private sector and the conservative opposition on the other hand. Private sector/government relations were quite good in the aftermath of the earthquake, when President Duarte made a conscientious effort to coordinate the relief effort with the private sector. Shortly before the earthquake, however, the Legislative Assembly had passed a bill authorizing an extraordinary tax on capital designed to raise funds to support the war effort. Not incidentally, the bill was designed to force the wealthy to take on more of the burden of the war.

The private sector and the conservatives vehemently opposed the law, publicly and vociferously attacking the government. The UNTS organization, despite the tax package's progressive features, made common cause with the conservatives and also attacked the package. Conservative businessmen petitioned the Supreme Court to rule on its constitutionality, and in January the Court issued a narrow technical ruling invalidating a portion of the law. Although concerned by this development, both President Duarte and his Minister of Defense said publicly that they would unhesitatingly abide by the Court's ruling.

Ultra-conservatives in the private sector have created the National Action Movement (MAN), a civic organization virulently opposed to the government. A national business closure orchestrated by MAN and supported by other private sector groups succeeded in paralyzing the nation's business activity for one day, January 22, 1987. Notwithstanding these confrontations, the government continues talks with the private sector, with a view toward reestablishing trust and arriving at a consensus on the proper role of the government in the economy.

The government and the opposition parties are now at loggerheads over a reform to the Electoral Law passed in December 1986 by the Assembly. The new law gives the President of the Central Elections Council (CCE) the power to make administrative decisions without consulting his two colleagues. Under the 1983 Constitution, the CCE is comprised of three members, elected by the Assembly, and representing the parties that won the largest vote totals in the previous election. The president of the CCE is a representative of the party with the most votes. In this case, the president of the CCE is a representative of the majority Christian Democratic Party (PDC), while the other two members represent the two largest conservative parties.

El Salvador: Human Rights

Alleging that the PDC would use the administrative powers of its representative on the CCE to manipulate the forthcoming 1988 Legislative Assembly and 1989 Presidential elections, the opposition staged a "parliamentary strike" in the Legislative Assembly on January 6, 1987. The strike continues at this time, despite efforts to negotiate a solution. Recently, the Supreme Court has agreed to hear a challenge to the new law, and a ruling should be forthcoming in the near future.

The practical effect of the opposition boycott of the Assembly has been to prevent action on votes requiring a two-thirds majority (The PDC has 33 deputies in the 60 seat body). Thus, the State of Emergency, in existence since 1980 and renewed monthly by a two-thirds vote in the Assembly, has lapsed. With it, the emergency legislation governing the procedures for prosecuting suspected guerrillas, known as Decree 50, also lapsed, although temporary legislation to provide for continued processing of Decree 50 cases already in the courts has been passed.

At this time, all constitutional guarantees are in place in El Salvador, and the police may hold suspects for 72 hours before either releasing them or remanding them to the civilian courts. It should be noted that even though the State of Emergency in theory had suspended constitutional guarantees such as freedom of the press and assembly, these restrictions were not enforced by the Duarte government. The press -- including numerous publications from the left -- is free from any governmental restrictions. Labor, student, and other groups are able to engage in any legal activities without interference from the government.

Also during the reporting period, the Liberation Party (formerly Patria Libre), a conservative offshoot of the Nationalist Republican Alliance (ARENA) gained formal recognition by the elections council as a legal party. The Liberation Party is now actively engaged in organizing for next year's legislative elections.

RELEASED
El Salvador Human Ri
Special Project (19

The March 1988 Legislative Assembly elections are already beginning to occupy the attention of all political parties. The conservatives are hopeful that popular dissatisfaction with the economy is providing the opening for a conservative majority in those elections, while the ruling PDC is working hard to maintain the support of its traditional backers in the lower economic classes.

Also of interest is a public opinion poll conducted in El Salvador by La Consultoria Interdisciplinaria en Desarrollo (CID), a Gallup International Research Institutes affiliate located in Costa Rica. Although the poll was commissioned by the Christian Democratic party, it was conducted by an independent organization using experienced poll-takers. Between October 10 and 28, 1986, the group interviewed 1280 citizens from all social classes residing in various parts of the country. We include below some relevant findings below. In some cases, the October results are compared to those obtained in an April 1986 poll conducted by CID.

DIALOGUE

By now, the chronology of events regarding dialogue is well-known. Although dialogue was discussed in informal contacts before the election of President Duarte in May 1984, it was not until September of the same year that the President initiated the formal process by calling for talks in a speech before the U.N. General Assembly. The peace offer presented by Duarte at the October 15 La Palma talks called for pacification of the country within the framework of the constitution approved in 1983 by the freely elected Constituent Assembly, and guarantees for the reincorporation of the left into the political process. In general, the talks at La Palma took place in a conciliatory atmosphere.

The mood changed abruptly at the November 30, 1984 meeting at Ayagualo, when the FMLN -- repudiating the conciliatory line taken by their more moderate civilian counterparts in the FDR at La Palma -- presented a list of hard-line demands calling for the abrogation of the constitution, the formation of a provisional government, the end of outside military aid and advisers, a cease-fire based on territorial demarcation, and reorganization of the armed forces. Only after these steps were completed would the guerrillas agree to participate in elections. These demands were a repudiation of the hard-won electoral achievements of the people of El Salvador and denied the legitimacy of the elections.

On June 1, 1986 President Duarte called for a third round of talks. After much discussion and a private preliminary meeting in Mexico City, the government agreed to an FMLN proposal to hold the talks at Sesori, in the eastern part of the country. Despite this agreement, the FMLN/FDR insisted on the "demilitarization" of a 400-square mile area around Sesori. The government could not agree to cede control of five percent of its national territory, and the guerrillas consequently refused to participate in the meeting. Nevertheless, President Duarte went to Sesori as scheduled on September 19 and called on the guerrillas to participate in meaningful talks. Since that time, both sides have expressed their willingness to engage in further discussions.

Little has changed in the negotiating positions of each side since the November 1984 Ayagualo meeting. The government continues to insist on maintaining the constitutional order and stands ready to discuss the procedures and security guarantees necessary for reincorporation of the insurgents into the political process. It has also repeatedly expressed its readiness to discuss ways to limit the impact of the war on the civilian population. The FMLN has held firm in its demands for abrogation of the constitution, power-sharing in advance of elections, and negotiations leading to the integration of the two armed forces. It is reluctant to discuss humanizing measures, other than evacuation of wounded guerrillas for treatment abroad in exchange for hostages held by the FMLN, because sabotage and terrorism are key components of its "prolonged popular war" strategy. Given the lack of movement on basic components of each side's negotiating position, the prospects for an early solution to the conflict through dialogue are not promising at this time.

Since more than two years have gone by with little substantive movement toward a political solution, we think it appropriate to discuss in more detail the reasons for that lack of movement. The U.S. continues to believe that a political solution to the conflict in El Salvador is essential to bring about a stable democratic society, restore economic growth, establish social justice, and end the bloodshed. We must be aware, however, that the dialogue process is not an end in itself. The goal of the Government of El Salvador -- a goal we support -- is not simply to end the war, but to end it in a way that guarantees the continuation of the current constitutional order and paves the way for the development of genuine democracy in El Salvador.

In any negotiation, the relative strength of the parties at odds is must be considered. The party with less strength is usually forced by circumstances to adapt its proposals to reflect the reality of the issue in conflict. In El Salvador, the fundamental fact is that the politico-military situation has changed dramatically since the first dialogue meeting at La Palma in October 1984. At that time the FMLN was arguably equal in strength to the Government of El Salvador (GOES) -- at least in terms of its military prowess.

From 1984 to 1986, however, the power of the GOES has grown vastly, relative to that of the FMLN/FDR. Militarily, the armed forces have become ever more effective and are engaged in permanent operations to disrupt guerrilla logistics, reduce the size of their forces, and rout them from their formerly secure rear areas in the northern part of the country. The strength of the armed forces was amply demonstrated when in early 1986 they eliminated the insurgent presence on the strategic Guazapa Volcano, long a guerrilla stronghold and the headquarters of their armed forces for the western and central parts of the country. The guerrillas, who formerly controlled territory and attempted to set up "popular local governments," are no longer able to establish and defend territorial boundaries. Government military forces operate at will throughout the country. The guerrilla armed forces, now numbering about one half of the their 1984 strength, have no hope of defeating the GOES on the battlefield, while the GOES continues to steadily reduce guerrilla strength.

Politically, the passage of time has validated and legitimized the efforts of President Duarte and those participating in the democratic process. It is clear that the vast majority of Salvadorans consider the current constitutional order to be the legitimate government of the country. They have expressed their desire for democracy by voting in four elections that have been pronounced by hundreds of qualified international observers - including members of the U.S. Congress - to have been free and fair.

At the same time, as more and more observers both inside and outside of El Salvador are beginning to recognize, the GOES has made enormous progress in ending the serious human rights abuses and repression on the part of the extreme right and some members of the military and security forces that occurred in the early 1980s. This development has been essential in legitimizing the democratic process, both domestically and internationally.

The United Nations Special Representative for Human Rights in El Salvador, in his 1986 report to the U.N. Human Rights Commission, lauded President Duarte and his government for continuing the dramatic progress of recent years in improving the human rights situation.

On the other hand and contrary to the claims of FMLN/FDR sympathizers abroad, the perceived political legitimacy of the FMLN/FDR -- both domestically and internationally -- has fallen substantially. (In reality, as demonstrated by the abject failure of their 1981 "final offensive," which was accompanied by calls for national insurrection, the FMLN has never enjoyed substantial popular support within El Salvador.) Moderate democratic countries throughout the world are distancing themselves from even tacit support of the insurgents. FDR politicians are getting the cold shoulder from governments that previously sympathized with their cause. Financial support for the insurgents from the west has declined dramatically.

As noted above, independent public opinion polls indicate that far less than ten percent of the Salvadoran population would favor a guerrilla victory. The insurgents continue to inflict damage on their image by ceaselessly engaging in sabotage and terrorism that almost invariably results in increased suffering by the common people. By their indiscriminate use of land mines (which has been condemned by the Church, the U.N. Human Rights Commission and other organizations as violations of the ~~Geneva Convention of 1949~~ on ~~civilians~~, because they have killed and wounded hundreds of civilians); their unprovoked machine-gunnings of trucks, cars, and buses; their executions of persons suspected of sympathizing with the government; their kidnapping of elected local officials; their murder of peasants disregarding orders not to harvest export crops; their burning of those crops; and their endless destruction of the electrical system, the guerrillas are inadvertently demonstrating to the people their true colors. More and more Salvadorans -- however apathetic or unhappy with President Duarte's policies -- are coming to see the guerrillas as a ruthless band of insurgents whose goal is simply to prolong the war until they gain power.

Given this situation, in which the guerrillas are militarily and politically vastly inferior to the GOES, one would expect that their negotiating position on dialogue would change. But it has not. As if in a politico-military vacuum, they continue to demand the abrogation of the constitution, power-sharing in advance of elections, and the integration of the two armies. It is not reasonable to expect that the GOES, negotiating from a position of political legitimacy and strength, would consent to the destruction of its fledgling democracy and in effect commit suicide, which is essentially what the guerrillas are demanding.

Instead, the GOES continues to offer generous terms to those insurgent elements who would lay down their arms and participate in peaceful political struggle within the institutions established by the 1983 constitution. The GOES stands ready to discuss unconditional amnesty and comprehensive guarantees for returning insurgents who wish to be politically active. That those insurgents could safely do so is becoming more and more evident. Already, several mid-level members of Ruben Zamora's Popular Social Christian Movement (MPSC) are living in El Salvador, quietly testing the political waters. Some have been in the country for more than a year; none has had any problems with the government or the extreme right. Guillermo Ungo's National Revolutionary Movement Party (MNR) remains a legal political party. A new leftist Social Democratic Party has been operating for more than one year. None of its leaders or members has experienced any problems with the government or the extreme right.

All these signs -- combined with the steady improvement in human rights recognized by the U.N. Human Rights Commission, the Interamerican Human Rights Commission, and other organizations -- point to the viability of an appropriate plan to reincorporate insurgents into the democratic process. Indeed, it is possible that moderate democratic elements of the insurgent alliance will participate in the March 1988 elections for the Legislative Assembly.

Although some democratic members of the FDR may return to participate in the democratic process, their communist counterparts in the FMLN are unlikely to do so. The military leaders of the FMLN, who have a long and bloody history of eliminating moderate or dissident opposition within their organizations, have publicly vowed never to lay down their arms until they achieve power. These leaders are probably unalterably committed to gaining power through force of arms -- unless they are handed power in a political agreement. The military leaders of the FMLN took to the hills in the 1970s because they believed that armed force was the only way to bring about real change in El Salvador. After 15 or more years of fighting, they will settle for nothing less than (probably permanent) control of the government.

What kind of El Salvador might we reasonably expect were the FMLN to take power? We would expect a rapid evolution toward a communist state. In November 1985, the FMLN publicly declared its intention to form a single Marxist-Leninist vanguard party. The hard-core military leadership of the FMLN is beyond question communist. Their own words and actions amply support this contention. It is not reasonable to suppose that the moderate elements of the FDR -- latecomers to the revolutionary movement without any independent base of support within El Salvador -- would be able to dictate the evolution of a revolutionary regime to the armed revolutionaries who have struggled so long to gain power.

The real power in the FMLN/FDR alliance is in the hands of those with the guns: the communist military leaders of the FMLN. The reason for the lack of movement in the FMLN/FDR's dialogue position is that the communists can never agree to a political solution that does not explicitly or implicitly hand power to them. They realize that the ballot box will not bring them into positions of political power. They have clearly stated that they would prefer an endless war, which at least offers the hope that the existing system will one day be overthrown.

The guerrillas' strategy of prolonged popular war is explicitly based in part on the hope that the U.S. will lose its resolve to support the long and difficult process of democratization in El Salvador. Their aim is to wait until military and economic assistance levels are reduced to the point that they can again become militarily effective or successfully foment an irretrievable political and economic crisis. For the U.S., our moral responsibility is clear: It is to support the efforts of the civilian Government of El Salvador to negotiate a political settlement to the war under the terms of the constitution and the democratic process. The hope of dialogue is that, as the moderate elements of the FDR more and more come to realize that the military track will bring them no closer to political power and only causes hardship, pain and suffering to the people they claim to represent, they will incorporate themselves into the legitimate political process. Eventually, the hardcore, armed elements of the FMLN will find themselves isolated and without significant internal support. They will be forced to either give up the fight or remain as marginalized terrorists on the fringes of society.

CIVILIAN CONTROL OF THE MILITARY AND HUMAN-RIGHTS

One notable aspect of the dialogue process has been the element of overall civilian control and direction. Contrary to what is often alleged about civilian control in El Salvador, it was President Duarte and his civilian advisers who began, developed and led the dialogue process. The delicate preliminary meetings between the government and the guerrillas last summer, for example, were carried out solely by President Duarte's chosen civilian representatives

The guerrillas' failure to show up at Sesori has been blamed on the presence of Salvadoran government troops operating in the area, implying that the Salvadoran military somehow sabotaged the talks by conducting normal operations. As noted above, the guerrillas had demanded an extraordinarily large part of eastern El Salvador be "demilitarized", a demand the government felt it could not possibly meet. President Duarte had already guaranteed the safety of the guerrilla leaders, a promise all knew to be firm as the President had similarly guaranteed the well-being of the insurgents during the 1984 Ayagualo round. Intransigent guerrilla demands, not the Salvadoran military, stopped the progress of the 1986 dialogue.

There is little question that the military as an institution has historically played a predominant role in Salvadoran society. It has traditionally viewed itself as the ultimate arbiter of the nation's fate, an attitude that began to change after the reformist coup of October 15, 1979. Since that time, the military has steadily submitted itself to civilian control and authority and, in fact, has guaranteed the integrity of Salvadoran democracy by providing security for the elections of 1982, 1984, and 1985.

The Salvadorans saw a neighboring military force, Somoza's National Guard, disintegrate because of a failure to reform on the part of the ruling regime. Reformist elements of the Salvadoran military, facing the beginning of an active insurgency supported by Cuba and Nicaragua, overthrew the old regime and began the long and often bitter process of democratic reform.

The principle of civilian control of the military was neither easily nor rapidly established. Throughout the years of the revolutionary junta (1979-1982) and the provisional government (1982-1984), civilian power was often tenuous. Individual officers or groups of officers centered on military academy graduating classes often seemed as powerful as the still developing civilian institutions.

Nevertheless, as Salvadoran democrats -- military and civilian -- struggled to establish constitutional democracy in the midst of a bitter war, the principle of civilian control over the military began to take hold. The military recognized that its duty was to protect democratic institutions, not to impose candidates upon them. Consequently, the military played no political role in the elections of 1982, 1984 and 1985, an important break with the past.

With the election of President Duarte in 1984, El Salvador finally established a constitutional democracy. The principle of civilian authority, clearly implicit in the military's guaranteeing the security of the elections but remaining aloof from the political struggle, was strengthened early in the Duarte presidency by his issuance (in September 1984) of strict guidelines on aerial combat operations. These guidelines have been followed, and civilian loss of life in such operations has been minimal, occasioned at times by guerrilla fighters taking refuge among civilians during combat with the government, at other times by mistakes by Salvadoran pilots. The Air Force has also paid compensation to families that have lost relatives in air operations.

The most important area for the establishment of civilian control has been the area of human rights. President Duarte has made it a priority of his regime to pursue all violators of human rights, irrespective of position and influence. His government has kept the infamous Las Hojas case open, despite a number of legal setbacks over the years, patiently collecting evidence and submitting it to a civilian court. That court found the government's evidence permissible in August 1986 and the case remains active.

The Duarte government continued investigating and attempting to investigate the intellectual authors of the January 1981 Sheraton Hotel murders. Civilian courts ruled against the government's evidence in all but one of its attempts to prosecute the principals in the case (the actual gunmen were convicted in 1985). The government is still pressing its case against Captain Eduardo Avila Avila, presenting its latest evidence in November 1986. In December, the judge in charge of the case accepted the government's new evidence and reopened the case.

In the NORDAC ammunition fraud case, the government's appropriate civilian organs -- the Supreme Court, a lower level criminal court, and the Attorney General's office -- are involved in investigating, with United States assistance, the facts of the case in order to ascertain what, if any, Salvadoran laws were broken on Salvadoran soil. The government also continues to investigate the Armenia well case and the March 1980 murder of Archbishop Romero.

The most recent government investigation of military officers involves a kidnapping-for-profit ring uncovered in early 1986. An active duty officer is detained, two others fled the country and have since been charged with desertion. Former officer Isidro Lopez-Sibrian, a principal in planning the Sheraton murders, is also in jail for his involvement in the ring. This case was a critical test for civilian authority as it involved a number of active duty military officers using their positions in the Armed Forces to commit criminal acts. The government, the police and the Armed Forces were clear in their intent to see that justice was done.

It is not only in human rights and criminal cases where the civilian government maintains control of overall policy. In the extremely delicate area of foreign relations, the President and his ministers are the sole judges of the course of Salvadoran foreign policy. Civilians decide El Salvador's position on numerous foreign policy issues, including Contadora, the peace plan of Costa Rican President Arias, the border question with Honduras, and bilateral relations with the United States. All of these issues are crucial for El Salvador's security interests; the military's natural interest in them is nevertheless subordinated to civilian direction and control.

The military and security forces have also strictly followed the civilian legislature's dictates on extraordinary security legislation, especially Decree 50. This decree, in force until January 1987, was fundamental in controlling domestic subversion. When it lapsed, the military no longer had civilian-sanctioned authority to hold prisoners for up to 15 days before bringing them before a judge. Although such legislation was of obvious importance to the military's legitimate security interests, it nevertheless bowed to the legislature's failure to extend Decree 50 and no longer holds prisoners more than 72 hours, the normal period allowed under Salvadoran criminal law.

The Duarte government expends more than 30 percent of its budget on the war. The President decided in late 1986 to impose new taxes to help finance this cost. A special one-time "war tax" was to be levied, a move the military strongly supported. The tax, however, was challenged in court and the Salvadoran Supreme Court shortly thereafter found the tax unconstitutional. Minister of Defense Vides Casanova publicly defended the Court's right to make such a ruling, despite the lost appropriations.

President Duarte, working with the Roman Catholic Church, has also been releasing wounded guerrillas as a humanitarian gesture. The military accepts such releases as the prerogative of the President.

The dramatic reduction in death squad killings is another indication of civilian control. It was widely suspected, for example, that in the early 1980s renegade security force members were responsible for political killings. As civilian authority asserted itself through El Salvador's democratic reforms, the military could no longer consider itself a law unto its own. The government, with the agreement of senior military officers, made a conscious effort to prosecute the more notorious killers. It did not always succeed, but the message was unequivocal -- the military would have to submit to civilian authority in the politically charged area of human rights.

Death squad killings in El Salvador have been drastically reduced. The State Department believes some 20 deaths in 1986 may well have been committed by rightist vigilantes, although no self-avowed death squad has taken credit for a killing in El Salvador since late 1985. The guerrillas are now responsible the majority of political executions, killing suspected government informants and agricultural workers who run afoul of insurgent sabotage efforts.

Civilian authority is firmly established in El Salvador. The Salvadoran military, as much if not more than most Latin American military establishments, has learned and accepted the principles of democratic civilian leadership. Lines of authority and responsibility have been clearly established and consistently respected.

Administration of Justice

Historically, Salvadoran judicial procedure, like that of most other Latin American Nations, has been based upon the Napoleonic Code, which itself derived from the Roman system. Code systems differ markedly from Anglo-Saxon common law legal systems such as that of the United States. Although many recently drafted constitutions in Latin countries call for the presumption of innocence, their legal systems rooted in the Napoleonic Code rest on a presumption of guilt. Frequently, jury trials are not available; decisions of guilt or innocence are made by an investigating magistrate, whose findings are reviewed by a higher appeals court or tribunal. The systems rely very heavily on written evidence and on witness and defendant testimony.

In developing countries, legal systems developed during the colonial era and continued little changed into the present decade are burdened by low pay for the ill-trained judges and staff, antiquated facilities, equipment and procedures, and police forces unprepared to use modern forensic technology in investigating crimes.

In El Salvador, the system began to show the strains of serious breakdown in the 1970s when leftist opposition groups began to turn to armed insurgency, relying on kidnappings and holdups to supply themselves with cash for arms and ammunition and on terrorism to make their political presence felt. Some army officers and right-wing groups emulated the guerrilla tactics in running kidnapping for profit rings. The public security forces had no technical or forensic expertise upon which to rely in investigating the crime wave. Judicial response to the situation was also inadequate. Suspects with enough money or the ability to intimidate judges through threats of violence were able to obtain release. As frustration with the inadequacy of the system mounted, right-wing death squads appeared on the scene, often aided by members of the security forces. Political and death squad violence mounted, and the courts found themselves no more able to respond to right-wing crime than to left-wing terrorism.

The judicial system's breakdown was brought home to the U.S. public when renegade National Guardsmen killed four U.S. churchwomen in late 1980 and two U.S. employees of the American Institute for Free Labor Development (AIFLD) were gunned down in a January 1981 attack on the Salvadoran land reform director. The U.S. Government provided FBI expertise to investigate the cases and, spurred by the extreme difficulty in seeing the cases against the perpetrators prosecuted, it began to look closely at the need to reform the judicial system to cope with the current reality. Out of that situation grew the Administration of Justice project, first focused on El Salvador, and later expanded to include other Central American countries and parts of South America. A number of other countries in the hemisphere suffer from judicial inadequacies similar to those of El Salvador, but none have been under the combined pressure of left and right-wing terrorism, combined with an on-going insurgency.

Any discussion of the progress in the judicial reform program must begin with the recognition that this politically volatile project, implying as it does far-reaching changes in societal attitudes, has been in existence only since late summer 1985. It was at that time that the Salvadoran Legislative Assembly passed the legislation establishing the commissions called for by the project. Serious start-up problems at first precluded rapid progress, but indications now point to a widespread consensus within the government, the judiciary, the military, the legal community, and the people that the reform program is essential to furthering democracy in El Salvador. With this consensus, the pace of progress on all fronts of the program is quickening.

The judicial reform program comprises four distinct yet mutually reinforcing projects: the Revisory Commission, the Commission for Investigations, the Judicial Protection Unit, and Judicial Administration.

The Revisory Commission

In our last report, we noted that the Revisory Commission had completed its analysis of penal, civil and administrative law. Working groups responsible for each area are drafting legislation for submission to the Legislative Assembly. Once their work is completed, the Commission reviews the product and submits it to the legal community and the public for comments and and further review. This process, although time consuming, is essential for building the consensus necessary for the reforms to take hold once they are implemented. (During the last several months, the Commission has sponsored a number of well attended open forums on various reforms under consideration.) After the outside comments are received, the working group revises the proposed legislation to take into account the comments and recommendations and then sends it back to the Commission for final revision and approval. The Commission then formally submits the draft legislation to the Assembly.

In the area of civil law, the Commission has submitted to the Assembly a thorough study and analysis of Articles 105 and 267 of the Constitution, which deal with the holding, transfer and registering of rural land and the definition of what constitutes a campesino and a small farmer -- issues that have been the subject of great controversy and debate in the Assembly, and which are essential to the agrarian reform process. The Commission's proposal was used as the basis for the law adopted in November 1986 by the Assembly.

The civil law working group has also completed and submitted to the Commission its study of the rights of parents in informal marriages and of illegitimate children, an area of great importance in El Salvador, where the large majority of marriages are informal. The same working group is also preparing studies on immediate reforms to the adoption law and other areas of familial relationships.

The administrative law working group is preparing legislation on a National Council on the Judiciary and the Judicial Career System. The team is analyzing a survey taken of judiciary employees and practicing attorneys. In addition, it is preparing a comparative analysis of similar initiatives in other countries. The results of the survey and the comparative legal analysis were discussed at an open forum in March, with the participation of international legal experts from Spain, Venezuela, and other countries. The recommendations of the forum will be incorporated into the draft legislation sent to the Commission. The same working group is also preparing a proposal for legislation on a public defender office and legal aid. The study is being revised to incorporate recommendations made during two three-day seminars held in December 1986.

In the area of penal law, after an exhaustive review and analysis of Decree 50 (the February 1984 legislation governing prosecution of suspected guerrillas during a state of emergency), the Commission submitted to the Legislative Assembly its proposed legislation to replace Decree 50. Decree 50 has been criticized for its inadequate provisions for access to counsel, the 15 day administrative period after arrest, and the lengthy time needed to process cases.

The proposed law addresses each of these issues by requiring immediate access to counsel, limiting the period of detention to the same three day period for normal criminal cases, and drastically shortening the time limits for investigating and processing the case. Unlike under Decree 50, the new law would limit the role of the military courts by giving jurisdication for appeals to the civilian courts and the Supreme Court. Of course, after debate in the Assembly the new legislation may emerge in a modified form, but it is an indication of the kind of quality work being produced by the Revisory Commission.

The penal law working group has also submitted to the Commission for review its proposals for immediate reforms to the penal procedural code and proposals to bring the legal system into compliance with Article 27 of the 1983 Constitution, which prohibits the death penalty. The working group is also studying reforms concerning rules of evidence; procedures on the execution of sentences; the jury system; laws regulating amnesty, pardons, and commutations; right to legal counsel; and an in-depth analysis of administrative detention.

Commission for Investigations

The Commission for Investigations consists of the Forensics Unit and the Special Investigative Unit. The first phase of the Forensic Unit (consisting of six sections: fingerprinting, firearms identification, document examination, polygraphing, photography and drafting) is fully operational. The unit moved to its new fully equipped headquarters in March. Now that the staffing and equipping of phase I is completed, the Commission for Investigations is turning its attention to selecting personnel to staff the divisions that will comprise phase II (serology, hairs and fibers, chemistry/toxicology and mineralogy). The training and equipment plans for these divisions are ready for implementation.

Over the last several months, members of the Special Investigative Unit and the Forensics Unit have received training in the following areas: crime scene search, legal medicine, forgery detection, crime scene drawing analysis, firearms, and questioned documents.

The Special Investigative Unit (SIU) continues its work on nine high-profile criminal cases, most involving abuses of human rights. Two of the cases involving Salvadorans have been resolved. Recent action in other cases under the SIU's jurisdiction include the reopening of the Sheraton-AIFLD murder case against Captain Eduardo Avila. Avila has appealed this action to the Supreme Court, which is completing its review of the appeal. The murder case against the alleged killers of U.S. citizen Michael Kline is in the final stages before going to a jury trial. In the kidnapping ring case, involving Decree 50 charges against several military officers and civilians, several of whom have apparent death squad links, the investigative judge is gathering judicially admissable evidence. As noted earlier, one officer is incarcerated and others are fugitives who have fled the country. The 1982 Las Hojas murder case has been reopened and the investigative judge is interviewing witnesses who have recently come forward. Witness interviews are underway in the 1980 murder of Archbishop Romero. Evidence in the Armenia well case has been turned over to the courts for judicial action.

The Judicial Protection Unit

After considerable debate, Salvadoran and U.S. officials have reached agreement on a revised concept for the Judicial Protection Unit (JPU). Under the revised concept, the JPU will be a civilian risk assessment management team drawing on public security force personnel or private contractors as needs arise to do the actual protection work. All of the members will be high school graduates and civilians. Their psychological profiles and physical condition will be assessed prior to their being hired, and they will be trained in judicial protection methods in El Salvador and abroad. The JPU will not itself act as an executive protection service, but rather will focus on assessing risk and assuring protection for witnesses, judges, prosecutors, and investigators. As envisioned, the JPU will eventually develop a capacity to implement a witness protection program to relocate witnesses and their families. Recruitment, testing, and selection of personnel for the JPU is now underway.

Judicial Administration and Training

Significant progress has been made in efforts to improve and streamline the system of judicial administration. Four new First Instance Tribunals (two Decree 50 and two Mercantile) began operations during the reporting period. In the Supreme Court, a new administrative unit designed to assist with the implementation of the reform programs and to assume most of the Court's administrative activities has been established. Agreement was reached for the establishment of three law libraries. The training of legal personnel has continued. Project funds and local currencies are being used to finance activities in support of the administration of justice effort.

LAND REFORM

On numerous occasions during the last several decades, military governments with reformist proclivities tried to redistribute land to the peasantry. Each of these attempts was stymied by the entrenched landed oligarchy, which jealously guarded its prerogatives. In a very real sense, the current conflict resulted from the grossly unfair pattern of land distribution in the countryside. In particular, the rapid development of export crops like cotton and sugar following World War II forced thousands of peasants off their land and into the marginal areas of the cities. Given El Salvador's high rate of population growth, the pressures for land were bound one day to produce an upheaval. (Nevertheless, it is important to note that the current conflict is not the result of a massive uprising by the lower classes. Rather it is the work of committed -- mostly middle and upper class -- revolutionaries who found fertile ground for their philosophies among a relatively small minority of the lower classes. Their recruitment efforts were abetted by the massive repression unleashed by the large landowners as they began to see their previously impregnable position threatened during the 1970s.)

The reformist military government that took power in the 1979 coup saw clearly the need to radically change the existing pattern of land distribution to prevent a takeover by the communist guerrillas. And before he took his Christian Democratic Party into the ruling junta in 1980, Jose Napoleon Duarte required the junta and the military to unequivocably commit themselves to large scale agrarian reform.

Land reform in El Salvador is now an established fact. Even the staunchly conservative ARENA and Partido Liberation parties have stated repeatedly that the land reform was a necessary measure that cannot and should not be undone. The fact is that, regardless of the dislocation caused by the reform, some 22 percent of the arable land in the country has been taken from its former owners and placed in the hands of peasant cooperatives and small private farmers. Also, some 26 percent of the nation's farm families are now in the reform sector. By any definition, this is a radical redistribution of land; it has resulted in new opportunities for hundreds of thousands of the rural poor.

Since 1980, the Salvadoran agrarian reform has transferred 782,000 acres of farmland to 525,000 beneficiaries and family members. As noted above, it has redistributed control of 22 percent of El Salvador's scarcest factor of agricultural production -- land. It has dramatically changed the nation's agricultural production structure. While more still needs to be done, the reform and its beneficiaries have faced and overcome many challenges. There is no longer fear of counter-reform or talk of reversing the new patterns of land tenure. The few Phase I owners who still hope to reclaim individual properties are doing so peacefully on the bases of legal challenges in the court system, and Phase III beneficiaries no longer report attempts to evict them. Nor do they suffer violence related to their claims.

Compensation is proceeding and beneficiaries are paying on their agrarian debts. In mid-1986, the GOES restructured the debt of Phase I cooperatives, reducing the interest rate and extending the grace periods and repayment schedules. Even before the restructuring, 65 cooperatives had already made payments on their agrarian debt.

Reform sector production is, on the whole, declining, but this is true of agricultural production in El Salvador as a whole, and the Phase I yields still exceed national averages. The declining Phase I production is viewed as a function of world prices, weather, and changing cropping patterns rather than as a result of the reform. Phase III beneficiaries produce an increasing share of the basic grains consumed in El Salvador.

Recent legislative changes have simplified the Phase III titling process. The land registry system is being changed to a folio real and modernized, which should reduce the time required to register a property, and it is now legal to register properties on which current mortgages exist, heretofore impossible.

Phase I:

Phase I of the agrarian reform expropriated the properties of persons owning combined landholdings of more than 1,235 acres. Some 469 properties totaling 542,000 acres were affected. These properties were organized into 317 cooperatives (or production units). A census of these cooperatives in early 1987 found 295 of the (499,000 acres) functioning in one form or another; 20 were found to be abandoned because of the war; and two could not be reached because of their location in conflictive areas, although it is safe to assume that if they function at all, it is only intermittently.

There are 31,359 direct (188,154 indirect) beneficiaries of Phase I. On the average, Phase I beneficiaries enjoy about five times as much land per family (although the land is owned collectively) as Phase III beneficiaries. It is generally believed that the Phase I beneficiary pool could be expanded greatly (some estimates run as high as three times the present number of members) by either dividing the land up and farming it individually or adding more members to existing cooperatives. The GOES intends to increase the number of Phase I beneficiaries, but since this involves "reforming the reform" and reducing the holdings of recently endowed beneficiaries, it is approaching the issue cautiously.

About 65 percent of the land in the active Phase I cooperatives is currently cultivated or in pasture. The rest is either covered by infrastructure and forests (20 percent) or is idel (15 percent). More than 17,000 acres of Phase I land is rented to and farmed individually by over 9,000 non-members, and many more non-members live on cooperatives and provide seasonal labor. The recent census revealed that approximately one-half of the families living on Phase I cooperatives are not members.

Compensation of former landowners, a prerequisite to titling, is proceeding. As of February 1, 1987, full or partial compensation had been paid on 411 of the 469 properties expropriated (88 percent); and titles had been issued to 197 of the 317 cooperatives (62 percent). Until 1986, the availability of funds for compensation was a constraint on titling. The GOES recently added 40 million colones ($8 million) to the compensation fund to match 105 million colones ($21 million) of local currency provided by USAID at the end of 1986 for compensation. This should be sufficient to complete compensation, and except for a small number of properties (20-30) in court litigation, almost all titles should be issued by the end of 1987.

The professional management and accounting programs continue with 169 managers and 197 accountants now employed. This activity will continue to be funded by local currency.

Credit was extended to 267 cooperatives (85 percent) during the crop year 1985/86, an increase of 18 cooperatives over the previous year. Of the 267 cooperatives with credit during 1985/86, 142 of them (53 percent) had no overdue loans whatsoever. The main reasons for cooperatives not receiving credit were as follows: excessive debts (29); did not request credit (9); and location within conflictive zones (2). USAID's Agrarian Reform Financing Project will continue to extend credit through 1991.

There are unresolved issues that still affect the Phase I cooperatives and beneficiaries. Beneficiary rights and responsibilities are not well-defined, although many cooperatives made ad hoc provision for resolving various rights issues: inheritance, pensions, obligations of members, the right to rent or lease land. The GOES has agreed to provide draft legislation on the issue of membership rights before July 1987. The equity of cooperative members and a mechanism to transfer equity, permitting exit from the cooperatie without financial penalty, is still unresolved. The GOES is expected to enact a new general law of agrarian reform sometime in the latter half of 1987, replacing the revolutionary decrees under which the reform still operates, but how many of these issues it will resolve is still unclear.

Phase II

Phase II implementation has been widely misunderstood and is generally reported never to have taken place. In fact, Phase II has been taking place through voluntary sales since ratification of the 1983 constitution, which gave Salvadorans the right to own a maximum of 605 acres. Those owning more had three years (until December 20, 1986) to sell off the excess to qualified buyers (cooperative members and small farmers).

A census of the 389 owners identified as owning in excess of 605 acres in 1983 was conducted in 1985, one year before the constitutional time limit expired. It indicated that all but 22 percent of the owners had already complied and all but 6 percent were trying to sell off their excess. The recalcitrant 6 percent stated they did not believe that the GOES would pass the required implementing legislation defining who could purchase the land. The implementing legislation defining "campesinos" and "small farmers" as the eligible buyers was passed only days before December 20, 1986. Further legislation determining the disposition of any excess land expropriated under Phase II has not been passed, but is expected as part of the reform legislation due prior to July 1987.

Depending upon the willingness and ability of owners to sell their excess, USAID estimates that the amount of land potentially expropriated under Phase II ranges from 15,000 to 42,000 acres, although given the state of the land resistry system, determining precisely how much is to be expropriated from whom will be difficult.

The census found that many of those who were trying to comply with the time and acreage limits were having difficulty selling their land, much of which was mortgaged or located in conflict zones. Persons who were eligible and wanted to buy the land had no means to do so since land financing mechanisms for campesinos and small farmers are virtually non-existent. The GOES and USAID are currently working on the possibility of land financing or land sale guarantee mechanisms to be funded with local currency. Various options exist. USAID tends to support a mechanism which would give options to purchasers instead of creating a land financing monopoly in either a GOES institution or a particular private institution. Using the campesino organizations to identify potential buyers and even indirectly guarantee purchases from a central fund is under consideration.

Phase III

Phase III, or the "Land-to-the Tiller" program, was enacted in April 1980 by Decree 207. It was based on the principle that agricultural land should belong to the persons who farm it. Decree 207 allowed small, independent farmers who rented or sharecropped land to claim up to 17 acres of it. Its objective was to give secure title to persons who traditionally had cultivated different parcels each year under a variety of ad hoc arrangements with various landlords. Coupled with El Salvador's chronic land scarcity and over-population, the former system not only weighted the terms of trade heavily in favor of the landlord, but also gave the farmer little incentive to conserve soil or make long term investment.

Under the Phase III program, renters and sharecroppers who thought they were eligible had one year to file a title petition at local offices of the National Financial Institute for Agricultural Lands (FINATA). After initial processing in the local office, FINATA issued a provisional title which gave usufructory rights to the land to petitioners while the complex and time-consuming titling process of verification, measurement, valuation, etc, ground away toward definitive titles which could then be registered in the name of the beneficiaries.

The Phase III program has faced many implementation problems, most of which have been overcome.

When it turned out that some affected landlords were smallholders themselves, economic peers, and, in some cases, relatives of claimants, the program appeared to merely redistribute poverty among the poor until a FINATA administrative ruling exempted properties belonging to persons who owned less than 17 acres themselves or were otherwise disadvantaged.

The inability of FINATA personnel to service petitioners in conflictive zones has reduced the total number of Phase III beneficiaries and has thus so far has precluded the opportunity for secure land ownership to many potential beneficiaries within those zones.

In June 1984, after three extensions, the filing period closed and FINATA shifted its resources from extending the program to as many elegible claimants as possible to the laborious task of verifying petitions and transferring titles. FINATA continues these tasks today, and with the aid of a modernized land registry system, the number of definitive titles being registered has increased significantly.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Specia' Project (1993)

Phase III beneficiaries are, on the average, among the more disadvantaged of the 2.2 million rural poor in El Salvador. One of the main objectives of granting secure title was to increase family income. In this regard, Phase III has been very successful. Total family income for Phase III beneficiaries nearly doubled between 1982 and 1984. Moreover, even when adjusted for inflation, income from the parcels increased 9 percent, a claim which few agriculturalists in El Salvador could make over the same period of time.

Phase III beneficiaries have traditionally cultivated basic grains for sale and subsistence, but with basic grain production fallilng countrywide, Phase III farms have become an important source of basic foodstuffs for the country. From 1982 to 1984, the percentage of national basic grain production attributable to Phase III beneficiaries has increased from 11 to 25 percent, and 62 percent of the production enters the marketing system (versus 58 percent in 1982).

Diversified production was another objective of Phase III, based on the hypothesis that secure tenure would promote investment in the irrigation, drainage and other structures necessary for crop diversification. In 1982, basic grains accounted for 95 percent of the value of Phase III production. In 1984, basic grains accounted for 72 percent of the value, diversified crops having increased in importance from 5 percent to 28 percent over the two year span. The average value per acre of diversified crops is 250 percent of the value of basic grains.

Although over the years the Phase III beneficiaries have employed only the crudest of tools and technology, secure tenure is now changing their propensity to invest and adopt different methods. The value of productive capital goods (plows, sprayers, irrigation equipment) has increased 197 percent (in constant prices adjusted for inflation) since 1982. With regard to productive investment expenditures, Phase III beneficiaries demonstrate an above average propensity to invest additional income in technological improvements.

Whereas before secure tenure the farmer had virtually no incentive to make long term improvements, in 1984 over 21 percent had invested in soil conversation measures of some kind; 13 percent had planted permanent (and generally higher value) crops; and 6 percent had installed irrigation, drainage or other related improvements.

El Salvador: Human Rights

Twenty-two percent of the Phase III beneficiaries received formal technical assistance during 1984, mostly from the Agricultural Development Bank and the Ministry of Agriculture. Both technical assistance and agricultural credit remain problematic because of the low level of education and widely dispersed and often remote locations of Phase III beneficiaries.

In summary, we see a situation in which a significant portion (12 percent) of the rural poor have gained secure access to the land through Phase III, and they are responding remarkably to the opportunity. Although family incomes have increased, standards of living have remained constant, but only because beneficiaries are forgoing personal consumption for productive investments.

Independently, these individual small farm families are increasing the area they cultivate through buying or renting land. They are producing one-fourth of the corn and one-fifth of the beans consumed in El Salvador. While increasing production of basic grains, they are also diversifying into higher value crops. Increased disposable family incomes are being used to purchase productive capital goods, conserve precious resources, and make farm improvements -- all investments in the future.

While maintaining the security afforded by traditional production methods, they are experimenting with improved crop varieties and adopting new technology. Many of these improvements are being made with only minimal access to formal technical assistance and credit.

When asked what is the most important benefit of Phase III, the almost all beneficiaries answer either: "secure access to land" or "assured work." The Phase III beneficiaries are demonstrating that with little else than secure title and the opportunity to work, even the poorest of farm families are willing to sacrifice today to build a future in rural El Salvador.

Chairman Lundine. The meeting of the International Development Subcommittee will come to order.

As I noted in my notice to you last week, I will now move to close this meeting as provided under the rules of the House. Secretary Abrams is here in the spirit of consultation with us and it is important that we have the opportunity to speak candidly with him in private in this matter.

All those in favor of conducting this as an on the record but closed meeting, say aye.

Opposed?

The motion is carried.

Now, having gotten that out of the way we are going to have to excuse ourselves briefly to go vote.

(A short recess was taken)

STATEMENT OF ELLIOTT ABRAMS, DIRECTOR, INTER-AMERICAN FOUNDATION, ACCOMPANIED BY HARRY BARNES, U.S. AMBASSADOR TO CHILE, AND JOSEPH W. CONROW, DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY, DEVELOPING NATIONS, DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Mr. Abrams. With respect to the arms caches, at the request of the Government of Chile, we sent a team down and their conclusions, at least so far as we have stated them publicly, are that first the arms caches ~~was~~ were for real, there ~~was a~~ were large arms caches, and that ~~it was~~ they were not ~~a~~ plant or the creation of anybody in the Chilean Government and that ~~it was~~ they were extremely large.

The exact nature of what we found, what things, and where they were from, we have never stated publicly. We are working now to try to get a sanitized verion of that for public use.

To see how far the intelligence community is willing to go, the Chileans have made a number of statements about what is in there, but we have neither confirmed nor denied what they said is what in fact we found. So, all we have said really so far on the record is that we were asked to look at the arms caches and that we found some very large and genuine arms caches in the northern part of Chile.

Chairman Lundine. That takes care of that.

Why don't you start out.

Mr. McCandless. In the process of discovering this, did it look like it was an accumulated type of cache or was it transported most of it at one time? Was it possibile to

Mr. Abrams. I would say it wasn't possible to interpret. I have had a briefing on it and from my recollection of the briefing you would not be able to tell the size of it. I think you would go from that size of it, which was many tons. It is unlikely that one shipment would deliver that large a cache. It is more likely to have been somewhat smaller shipments, just for the purposes of concealment.

Mr. Torres. What was the tonnage on that?

Mr. Abrams. Have we ever stated publicly the tonnage? Seventy tons. We haven't, but the chilean Government has put that on the record.

Mr. McCandless. The perceived way of transporting?

Mr. Abrams. By sea.

Some general comments, by way of introduction and then I would like to ask Ambassador Barnes and Jim Conrow to comment.

I was here July 30, as you remember. Since then the situation has clearly gotten worse in Chile, for a variety of reasons.

For one thing, there was on September 7 an assassination attempt against President Pinochet, which was conducted by the Emmanuel Rodriguez Patriotic Front, which is a communist organization, and this is clearly a polarizing event in any political system, including the Chileans'.

It had a profound effect on Pinochet in part because his grandson was in the car. His life was at risk as well as that of Pinochet. Several people were in fact killed.

Secondly, this followed the discovery of these very large arms caches indicating that there was, taken together, an indicated and prospective willingness to use massive amounts of violence on the part of the communist left. 'This created a kind of -- this opened a trap into which the Government of Chile had the choice of falling or not falling. That is, it could have responded with great additional repression, or it could have refused to fall into the trap. It jumped into that trap.

What we have seen in the aftermath of the assassination attempts is a very heavyhanded crackdown, for example, on ~~the~~ freedom of expression in ways that are unrelated to the assassination attempt ~~the~~ the communist group tries to kill you so you close down the Christian Democratic Party ~~newspapers~~ magazine, Obviously all these are polariz~~ation~~ing events and they are very distrubing to us.

There have been in addition to the restrictions on freedom of expression, arrests of human rights figures and political leaders, the closure of magazines and foreign news agencies -- Reuters, for example -- and a refusal or failure to punish any individuals in the government or connected with the government responsible for any of the human rights abuses and probably most serious, what I would call death squad killings in three four cases. Again no one punished for that.

Now, Pinochet, in a speech that he made after the assassination attempt, took several steps forward and several steps back. He promised an electoral register law, something we have been waiting on for a long time, and they said they would do for a long time, that is to reopen the electoral registers in 1987. The idea is a simple one. If you claim you are ultimately going to have an election, then you have to start registering people. There haven't been elections in Chile -- well, you could say it.

Ambassador Barnes. In March '73 there was a parlimentary election.

Mr. Abrams. Thirteen and a half years. So he did that. That is a step forward and he committed himself in the same speech to publishing a draft political party law, again which is supposed to be part of the transition.

I think that those are positive steps, but I think that overall, there is no question that things are negative because the transition is not simply a matter of one or two laws, it is a question of ~~primacy~~ primacy, an atmosphere of what message comes through to the people of Chile from the government, ~~and~~ The message that is coming through (from us) is we are working hard for transition.

All that raises, of course, a lot of questions for U.S. policy. ~~One thing they have done on Cirile, is~~ We have not been sitting in the closet talking about this with each other, with Treasury, with the Ambassador, but a lot of other people. It was a subject of discussion between Secretary ~~Schultz~~ Shultz and several South American foreign ministers at the UN General Assembly, and we have also sent lengthy cables of instruction and requests for information and reaction, to places like Bonn and Rome and Paris and London to see what they are thinking about Chile and about loans.

They are all going to have to vote. We think now that the vote will be in November. This is on the basis of discussions with World Bank officials. ~~Probably the first of November.~~

These votes are more important now because the situation is more highly charged emotionally.

Now, I will ask Jim to talk about the economic situation. From a political point of view, we don't have the votes to bloc the loan ourselves. Preliminary discussions with the Europeans indicate first a mixture of views. I think the Italians have for some time not supported loans to Chile.

The Scandinavians have made it clear they won't support the loans. The biggest voters -- France, England, Germany -- have indicated real reluctance to refuse support for these loans.

Each of them has different reasons for doing so. What they say to us is, first, ~~to the general~~ is that the nonpolitization of the banks ~~that~~ is a matter of principle for most of them, and they don't have our statutes, ~~so that~~ we also believe in that principle as a generalization, but we don't strictly adhere to it, in many cases because we have a statute that we have to fulfill.

Nobody else is in that position. So we are not going to be alone if we refuse to support the loan, but right now, I would say that there aren't going to be all that many people with us. Maybe as a result of our diplomatic contacts there will be some more.

I would say the up side and down side, what we are trying to do with this vote and everything else we do, is to help the transition and help create a stronger center in Chile.

The ~~new~~ best thing that could happen would be that Pinochet would make a significant number of forward steps between now and mid-November and we would delightedly vote yes.

What are the chances of that happening?

Not large. So what do we do? Well, we talk to the Europeans, we talk to the Chileans. We have talked to the Chilean opposition to ask them for their advice and ask them for their pressure on the government in an effort to get them to at least take some steps.

We have talked to the Europeans in a sense, trying to set up some more support, so if and when we announce ~~we announce~~ that we are not going to support the loan, we are not alone in doing that.

I don't like the idea that we would be alone. I think that we can enhance our hand and I would like to get some more support.

I am sorry to say there is no enthusiasm in Latin America for opposing this loan. We talked to people who will give a half half hour speech about how terrible the situation is in Chile and fine, are you going to be with us? No. For a variety of reasons -- Latin solidarity, nonpolitization, we might be on that side of the street next week. And most, in fact, I think it is fair to say all Latins will vote as a bloc for the loans.

What we are doing diplomatically in a sense is letting people know that though we have not made a final decision, it looks as if we are not going to support these loans, we will be coming back to you to talk about that and ask for a judgment and support on your part.

One thing, just one more comment. If we could block the loan, which I doubt that we can do, that is not simply state our opposition, but block it, get enough people to go with us, there is a danger. The danger is that Pinochet could whip up a kind of nationalist fervor, saying that "These people are trying to destroy our economy."

The other side of this coin is there is a danger if we are against the loan, and we don't block it, we then look as if we are isolated and ~~if we are~~ not strong enough and that, of course, reduces our ability to move Pinochet in the future. So this is not a happy situation again.

The best outcome would be, on the one hand, if steps are taken, which would allow us to vote yes; that is probably not going to happen.

The second best outcome would be to get a lot of countries to go with us. That is also probably not going to happen; we are probably going to end up in a situation in which there are up sides and down sides. We don't support the loan and the loan goes through, and we will then have to try to use that to influence events in Chile as best we can to help what, ~~for the~~ in short hand, I will call the good guys.

Ambassador Barnes. I might touch on two elements which are part of the context of the comments you have made. I see things evolving over the last six months or so in Chile. What has that to do with the democratic opposition? You will recall that over a year ago, democratic opposition, ~~eleven~~ groups issued what they call the National Accord, and not only did that represent a significant merging of ideas which otherwise traditionally very diverse groups, ~~represented~~ involvement by the Catholic Church through the Archbishop, in encouraging opposition to try to come up with something in the way of an alternative that might promote some sort of meaningful dialogue with the government.

Hopes which were significant in the fall of last year when I talked to some of ~~them~~ before going to Chile for the first time, ~~have~~ for the most part turned out to be far from being realized. The accord is still in place, the groups, with the exception of one part of the ~~team~~, basically adhering to it. And yet the government's slow but eventual total rejection of the accord as a basis for any sort of discussion has been a much more serious thing than anybody thought at the time.

Nonetheless, my own feelings ~~are~~ mid-summer were that the opposition was beginning to try to pull itself together again, and recognize the need of trying to build on the basic accord. It went in two directions. On the one hand, some of the people on the right, ~~called~~ the National Party, drew up a very detailed approach as to what some of the more general terms in the Accord might mean. For example, questions such as private property. And that was subscribed to by just about all the others in the first part of September, but lost really in the attention that Pinochet's assassination attempt got.

They went in the second direction, which was to try to simply, by feeling if they could state very clearly a principal demand, a principal goal, and that might help them get further support, particularly among the elements of the society which still provide some significant backing for Pinochet, and the form this took was to issue a call for elections, not plebiscite in '89, but elections.

Essentially all this was hampered during this period of state of siege in terms of what they can do. And therefore, I worry that they have lost still further ground, whereas the extremes in each case have been strengthened.

The second element I want to touch on is the basis of support for Pinochet. Two important elements here are the business community and the military. I see an interesting development as far as the business community is concerned. I am talking here largely of associations of business groups, the equivalence of a chamber of commerce. Whereas, a year ago, most of them said in effect, we are so happy with the present government's policies, economic management of the soeciety and we don't want to get involved with anything, now they are saying we are still very happy with the policies, but we are not sure the policies are going to last, unless we begin to take a more active role ourselves in trying to promote some of ~~this~~ our free market ideas. So they have begun in the last couple of months to start talking to some of the democratic opposition.

I think this is significant on two grounds. One, it will help make the democratic operation more realistic in terms of what the economic problems of the country are.

Secondly, I would like to point out ~~thing, this~~ that there is an indication that Pinochet's support group is beginning to have questions about what is going to happen in the future, and the situation in the military is ~~more complex~~, in the sense, even more complex.

Pinochet, in July, tried to launch a campaign for succeeding himself. Under the 1980 constitution that could happen if he gets designated as the candidate in '88 or '89. But he decided to advance the timetable by a couple of years, and in so doing, he stunned just about everybody in the country, including some of his own supporters.

In a very short time, the other members of the military junta, in one form or another, said we don't think '89 is an indication for continuation of Pinochet in office, and in what was rare for Pinochet, he had publicly backed off somewhat and said I really wasn't understood, I was talking about a prolongation of the regime, not myself in office.

We have also begun to see a very few indications of thinking in the military. Contacts are quite limited -- indications of concern about what happens if Pinochet does push the idea of staying beyond '89, what implication that has for the military. One of the adverse conditions of the event Elliott was describing is that those elements, be they in the other services or the Army themselves, are having to be quiet at least for sometime, because they don't want to appear in public to be questioning Pinochet's position, in light of the assassination attempt.

end mhl

Mr. Conrow. I have the easy part -- to discuss briefly the Treasury's perception of the economy in Chile and what is going on in the development banks.

Let me begin by saying that most of the attention in the development bank area has focused on the World Bank structural adjustment loan for $250 million which, as Elliot indicated, is now scheduled for World Bank board consideration sometime in November.

But in the actual pipeline of the two multilateral banks that are involved in Chile, the World Bank and the InterAmerican Loan Bank, there are projects totalling in $1 billion, something well over $900 million, and they deal in a variety of areas of the economy, a number of which would fall under any definition of being basic human needs types of loans. Others, though, are project -- basic infrastructure type projects loans as well as major structural adjustment loans.

With regard to the World Bank structural adjustment, as I said, it was for $250 million and is expected to come before the board in mid-November.

Disbursements of the first half of the loan is a condition to a draw down of the final traunch of commercial bank financing facilities which was put together for 1985-1986.

Receipts ~~on~~ of the first half of the loan by end of this year is also ~~notices~~ needed for the rescheduling of the 1987 public sector maturities held by Chile, vis-a-vis the commercial banks.

It is our judgment that if this loan were to be defeated, as Elliott had indicated earlier, that not only does the commercial bank package then stop, but also the rescheduling effort stops; the anticipation of seeking new funding from the commercial banks for 1987 and beyond would be delayed rather dramatically.

We would be clearly moving into a financial crisis with Chile and its ability -- in fact, its inability -- to service obligations, and the whole situation on the economic side would take a rather dramatic turn down.

I say this just to point out the other side of the equation, that at Treasury we are looking at ways to say that Chile, on the economic side, not political side, is a model performer.

They have adjusted to the loss of external factors that have been extremely harsh on them, but they have nevertheless put together very effectively an economic team that has pursued a very strong economic program. They have been in compliance with an IMF standby program all alone. They usually sail through all of the targets that are required of them. They have taken inflation levels that were in excess of 26 percent and brought them down now to roughly 18 percent.

They have reduced their unemployment level, which was up to nearly 20 percent, down to a level of around 11 percent.

This is a country that is pursuing what we at Treasury consider to be basically the Baker Plan. They are implementing effectively adjustment programs designed to promote economic growth in their country and doing it rather well.

They are also breaking ground in financing, in terms of other debtors, in the sense of pursuing debt equity swaps, trying to bring more foreign investment into the country, quiet economic investment in lieu of greater and greater debt.

They are setting a model for a number of Latin American countries on how to do that. So, on the other side of the whole equation is an economic team in this country that is really pursuing a very sound set of policies we want to encourage them to continue.

Obviously, development banks, the World Bank, and Inter-America Bank are very important parties to this whole effort.

I would echo what Elliott has said in terms of consultations that we are having with institutions and with other governments as to our approach to these loans, and I think that the answer is very clear. As Elliott said, it is that most of the countries accept our assessments of the political situation in Chile, they see the polarization growing there, but none of them, at least none of the major countries, are prepared to go down the road of voting in the development banks based on this kind of criteria.

They want to keep their votes linked to economic rationale, don't want to get into the political environment.

As Elliott has indicated, we have the statute problem. Most of these governments -- all these governments do not have that kind of legislative issue before them.

So, it seems to us quite clear that the other governments, particularly the Europeans and the Japanese, are not going to be prepared to use their voice and their vote in these institutions to pursue this human rights objective vis-a-vis Chile, and quite clearly from the Latin American ~~countryside~~ area, as I think Elliott has indicated.

I feel very strongly in my conversations with them out-and-out rejection of the notion they would enter into a voting pattern in the development banks that would be in opposition to supporting the loans for Chile. They would not do that.

Mr. Fauntroy. Let me start by saying -- you indicate that ideally, of course, Pinochet would be moved to give an indication that we are linked up on the whole process towards democracy, but that is not likely.

What are we doing to persuade, attempt to persuade them that, of course, that ought to be seriously considered?

Ambassador Barnes. Essentially, what we are trying to do is to use every possible channel we can to get, in essence, that message across. That ranges from conversations that Secretary Shultz had earlier this week with the Chilean foreign minister in New York to the content that I have had with a great variety of people in Santiago.

Going back to some of the things I said earlier, for example, I am not limiting myself only to the government, but trying to go to people in the business communities, trying to go to people in the military.

The responses we tend to get varies somewhat from period to period. They are essentially two, one, you don't understand the seriousness of the problem we are facing, and secondly, we have our own time table. We committed ourselves to make a change in 1989, and don't get so impatient. We are going to make that change.

Part of the problem, as I indicated earlier, a serious consequences of the events of the last couple of weeks is that not only does this constitute a serious situation, it shows, as Elliott mentioned, that the Chilean government was incapable of not falling into the trap of using repression just as a general approach to all their problems.

Essentially, our strategy is to reinforce the efforts of the democratic side by trying to help them reach a better understanding with the forces in the society so that it becomes more evident to Pinochet that he is losing rather than gaining ground for the sort of approach he wants to take. But clearly, our role is marginal compared to what Chileans can and have to do themselves.

Mr. Fauntroy. You concede the west Europeans will not entertain the thought of joining us in it?

Ambassador Barnes. The Japanese say, "Keep hands off." The Western Europeans are quite active in terms of conveying their unhappiness, particularly with the human rights situation, to the government.

Mr. Fauntroy. In tangent with you, yes, but they draw the line, as Elliott indicated, when it comes to further action of the sort that we are talking about.

Mr. Abrams. I don't want to give a picture of complete pessimism. The Italians will be on. I don't know about the Germans. You know we put them in and this is why this is a closed hearing -- put them in a tender spot.

If we refuse to support that loan and they support that loan, then they are going to hear about it in parliament to the end of time.

This German government has moved to the right of Ronald Reagan and Chile, and the German socialists are going to go nuts, and so it is for somebody like Genscher in Bonn -- it is going to be very tough.

So, I am pessimistic about the possibility of getting a lot of European support, but it is not hopeless; maybe we can get some.

Mr. Fauntroy. It seems to me that in this case they would be very happy to join with you in seeing if we can get something to our being embarrassed.

Mr. Abrams. Well, it may be. We are getting pressure from the banks. It might be because all the bankers are in town this week for the World Bank/IMF meeting, with a whole bunch of bankers. All they want to talk about is about Chile. It is very interesting that they don't want to talk about Brazil or Mexico. They want to talk about Chile because they know that -- all over, this being talked about -- they want us to vote yes.

That has a certain impact, but it is overridden by congressional pressure and by the fact of the law.

In Germany and Japan that is not true. The banks are more influential. They don't have a statute, and presumably they are in a slightly different position in the foreign ministry.

Mr. Levin. Why is it overridden by congressional pressures and the law? You have the banks on one side and congressional pressure and the law on the other side.

Isn't there an American policy?

Mr. Abram. Well [redacted], you know, you could decide, for example, that the statute permits you to vote yes. Let us suppose Pinochet made lots of improvements or you could decide you could squeeze by on the statute but didn't want to. So even if you pass the legal test you still have a policy mag 8

test under which you might say, all things considered, that we shouldn't support this loan even though it would be legal for us to do.

dr fls

I just wanted to say, the British, I guess -- again, this is a closed hearing -- the British, of course, have a very close relationship with Chile, for many, many years, especially in naval affairs, and they have got the complication of the Falklands, so the British are probably the least likely to join with us out of the Europeans.

The other thing, this is another complication, if you are going to ask the question who ultimately will decide this -- State or Treasury -- Conrow and I would have a fist-fight. In most European countries, there is no such fist-fight. The finance ministries clearly decides the votes in the multilateral banks, and the foreign ministries have almost no say. That militates against human rights consideration at any time.

Mr. Bereuter. Well, as you know, as my colleagues know, I have introduced a resolution to encourage you to vote no. I continue to think that might be helpful for me to have it and for you to vote no, but I am not sure that I want to see Chile plunge into economic chaos if there is another course of continued pressure on a variety of fronts -- disaffection among army generals, particularly the southern units -- I think I have read about that -- which might encourage Pinochet to leave in 1989 and move toward implementation of the democratic process.

But isn't there a possibility that you can have such people standing with you and voting no, or at least abstaining to make a point to increase -- have people move away on the one-quarter billion dollar loan from the World Bank in particular?

It seems to me the failure to approve that, plus all the commercial money of that leverage could cause a very substantial problem in the economy which might only increase Pinochet's strength. So I am not sure that there is any inconsistency in the U.S. taking this tough stand and doing what is in the best interests of moving them toward democracy. But that really all depends upon your assessment of whether the military, for example, might continue to press Pinochet to leave on schedule.

So I would ask you just to go back for a second or two to the question of the differential as between the military, the naval military, southern generals, and so on, and any kind of likelihood, given the assassination attempt which has come up since we have talked last, that that could happen.

Ambassador Barnes. My assessment is that arbitrarily that is the only way I can handle it. I say to the end of the year, Pinochet is going to be able to benefit politically from the assassination attempt. Unless he, for other reasons of his, decides to lift the state of seige, which is not only regulation but also sort of mentality and atmosphere, and thereby encourages at least indirectly in the way of free thinking, then I think it is practically impossible for anybody be they commander of the Navy, Air Force, or what-not, or even less, an Army General, to raise any serious questions about what he is up to in the short run or long run.

But I do think, though, that the longer time goes, again arbitrarily, I might put it in the beginning of next year, when political activity gets going again in Chile after their summer vacation, which ends in March -- by that time, the tendencies which I think are longer term tendencies, concern about what happens to the country after 1989 or what happens in 1989, also, those tendencies will again be reinforced and perhaps with some useful inputs from people like ourselves, maybe possibly again to get a situation which is more fluid, in one sense, more options, and yet perhaps more restrictive as far as Pinochet's options are concerned, because he could feel time again is moving very much against him as it was for a while this summer.

Mr. Bereuter. Jim, what percentage can vote no or abstain and still have a loan approval?

Mr. Conrow. You could have in the World Bank 22 Executive Directors. You could theoretically have 21 of 22 abstain and 1 Director vote yes, and the loan goes forward. You need to develop a quorum. Once a quorum is there, it is simply yes, no, and abstentions are out of the vote.

Mr. Morrison. Question: A majority vote approves the loan in terms of voting shares?

dr4

Mr. Conrow. Yes, sir. And the United States represents roughly 20 percent.

Mr. Abrams. This is not a good place to have this discussion. We should have had it beforehand.

My understanding is if 51 percent of the people fail to support the loan, it doesn't go through.

Mr. Conrow. Only if they vote no.

Mr. Abrams. We will have to check and get back again.

Mr. Fauntroy. You will get that together for us?

Mr. Abrams. We will supply that for the record.

[The information follows:]

dr5

Mr. Levin. I had a crack at a question, so I will pass.

Mr. McMillan. What would a kind of assessment of the political landscape in Chile be if free elections were held? How do you think it would shake out? Is there any way to really predict that?

Ambassador Barnes. It is hard to tell, because there has been no election, as indicated earlier, since 1973. There has been no real competition with the limited exception of some elections in the universities for student representatives. And there the left, center, center-left groupings and ~~those~~ generally the Christian Democrats have done best, but not a majority. And ~~they have either had a second,~~ the communist-supported groups have generally come in second and and those on the right a poor third.

There are public opinion polls which seem to have some validity, but beyond that it is hard to tell. I will give my best guess for what it is worth. If Pinochet ran in an election, I think he would lose. If Pinochet ran in a plebiscite, he ~~will~~ would lose.

If, however -- I will qualify the election part -- if, however, the ~~opposition~~ democratic opposition essentially fell apart amongst themselves, as they are capable of doing in an election period, not sticking together, then Pinochet might be able to get a plurality.

There are other scenarios that are being talked about, such as a consensus candidate where the military and the civilian political leaders would get together and agree for the good of the country ~~this is the sort of~~ on a person who ought to lead Chile for an interim period. And if you got that sort of consensus, I think that person probably could win an election, because it would be perceived as a way out of this period.

Mr. McMillan. Somewhat related to that, I got here a little late, and in terms of the arms caches, what identifiable groups had control of those?

~~Ambassador~~ Mr. Abrams. I don't think we have answered that. We have not yet answered that question publicly.

Mr. McMillan. You used the term "terrorist."

~~Ambassador~~ Mr. Abrams. Yes, sir.

Mr. McMillan. By that, do we mean the Chilean Communist Party or -- ~~Ambassador~~ Mr. Abrams. Chileans have said some things. I am not sure how, but the Chileans have said the arms were for the Manuel Rodriguez Front, which is the ~~army's~~ armed wing of the Chilean ~~Community~~ Party.

We have some classified information on that that we can share with some of the Members and that we can give you later on.

Mr. McMillan. What is the magnitude of the Chilean foreign debt, and how much is owed to the United States, and what are the basic constraints?

dr7

Mr. Conrow. I just happen to have that here with me. The total debt outstanding by Chile at the present time is $19.3 billion. Debt owed to United States Government agencies, which would be basically the U.S. Export-Import Bank, is $800 million. The debt owed to United States banks, represented in 1985, which is our most recent date, is $6.6 billion.

Mr. Fauntroy. $6.6 billion?

Mr. Conrow. Billion.

Mr. Kolbe. That means that roughly the other $7.2 billion -- rather, $12 billion, is owed European and other countries?

Mr. Conrow. Yes, sir.

Mr. Kolbe. That is also a combination of governmental units, agencies and private banks, commercial banks?

Mr. Conrow. That is right.

Mr. McCandless. How many major banks would represent that loan portfolio?

Mr. Conrow. I don't have that clearly. You could probably take the top 10 banks in ~~Chile~~ the U.S., and they would undoubtedly account for nearly 80 percent.

Mr. Abrams. I think you would find no surprises. If you look at the largest 15 U.S. banks, those are more or less the largest lenders to Chile.

Ambassador Barnes. The head of the Bank Advisory Committee is Manufacturers Hanover.

dr8

Mr. McCandless. The reason for asking this -- do we have any one bank that is in deep -- or deeper than, say, the next bank, irrespective of its size and in terms of U.S. banks?

Mr. Abrams. No bank, I would say, in my discussions, has been talking that way to me. This is not Brazil or Mexico where you have $100 billion of total exposure. It is not trivial, but I don't think there are any banks which make the claim that their own financial stability is at stake here.

Mr. Conrow. The one that comes closest would be Manufacturers Hanover.

Mr. Torres. Well, I wanted to say it seems to me that in the general discussion here we keep talking about the problem that the Government of Chile continues to perpetuate upon its people and somehow a state of seige will be the one factor that could release us from taking a different attitude. I don't think the state of seige here was the most important aspect at all, but rather the comportment of the government in all of its actions, its repression of people, its stifling of the press, keeping people, workers from the right to strike, et cetera. And I have seen no proof -- I hear the Ambassador saying there could be some easing up eventually, but we fail to see any real proof of any moves in that direction.

I think that the vote becomes a critical factor in leveraging that position for our government and perhaps for our allies who want to go along with you.

I can appreciate polling our allies, and some of them, the European Community people being -- having the attitude they have, that is politics. I can appreciate -- and am not surprised the Latinos are in full solidarity in their position. We have been isolated many other times in the multilateral organizations, UN, ILO, FAO.

In my other life as a human rights representative, I was isolated in the UN agency. I was always voting no, no. Why do we vote no? I think we do so because it is our responsibility to do so. It is just part of the principles.

You said that you are going to reserve judgment at this point on how we vote. You may come back to the body to see what kind of attitude we have. I just simply feel we have a law and a relevant amendment in that law. We have the International Financial Institutions Act, and therein the Hawkins amendment.

What are we to believe? I am going to vote no. I am going to stand on the Floor of the House and I am going to vote no for my colleague's resolution because I think the resolution is telling us to break the law.

Are we prepared to break the law? Are we so afraid to vote no in the world body? I think we have to stand up to it.

Mr. Abrams. I don't disagree when others are with us or not, it may be nice or may be not nice, but it cannot determine how we vote. What it can do is help determine the effectiveness of the vote, which is very important.

I mean, there are two reasons to vote against the loan. One of them is because we have a legal responsibility to do so. If that is true, because we want to make our position clear, because we need to show the Chilean government, we need to show the people, the American people, that is one of the reasons, in essence to vote no for us.

But then you want to have the greatest possible impact in Chile for whatever you do. And there the question of how others vote becomes important and ~~as~~ legislation is not useful.

And so whatever we do, it seems to me we should try to get -- I am assuming we are not voting yes for the moment -- that we try to get the greatest possible support, and, for example, if we vote no we would like to get as many people as possible to vote no or at least abstain. Maybe some ~~more~~ people who can't say no would abstain because ~~it~~ abstentions in large numbers would be a stronger message to the Chileans.

What is missing in all of this, I think this came through in what the Ambassador was saying, we don't know how to get from here to there. We know what is wrong, but we don't know how to fix it.

And when I say we, it is not we, we in the United States Government; when we talk to Chileans in the opposition, and we all want the democratic transition, they don't know how either.

When I say to them at the end of a meeting, well, so what are you going to do, what is the next step, where do you go from here, the answer they give is, we don't know. You have got one way to define the problem you have. This has been very good for Chile. You have a very disciplined army. It is not Bolivia where you have a coup a year. What happens when that army has made the decision to take over the government and its commander said, Stay, and you are trying to work against all of the Chilean military to get the army to break away from its commander.

No one has figured out how to do this. And so you want to send a message. I would only say, I am repeating myself, there is not any sense in determining how we vote. We have to determine how we vote in Washington. But then, once we may have that decision, we have to get as much support as possible. So the message comes through resoundingly to everyone in and out of the Chilean government. They are capable of saying it is Congressional pressure on Reagan or it is the State Department or it is the Americans. We don't want them to be able to say we want them to have to look at it not only the Americans, but also the Germans or whoever it is we can get together with us.

I think that makes a message stronger. If need be, we will be alone. That is not a good result; that is an acceptable result, but not the best result.

Mr. Torres. We have the capability as a government to enhance or to influence our neighbors, our colleagues, but whether it be in the European Community or in Latin America, it seems to me that we are really not for political consideration as you said earlier, that is the reason to have the closed meetings. We are not leaning hard on the Germans, on the Italians, how about the French. Our colleagues were new members to the European Community, where is Spain and Portugal on this?

Mr. Abrams. Spain -- it is interesting you mentioned that country, the Spanish in particular are in a tough place. You have a socialist prime minister. Chile is very big in Spain. They don't like to vote against loans. They hate it, and this is putting, this really puts them in between a rock and a hard place.

Mr. Fauntroy. Tell them you have company.

Mr. Cunrow. If I might pick up a little, there is a fine line where you go to get enough support amongst the ~~countries~~ other governments so the United States isn't isolated in this to the extreme where you actually get enough where you stop the loan from going forward and then impacting the whole economy of Chile, and whether this is one's intent or not, I think that is one of the issues that we have to sort through.

If you carry this out to the extreme, and we are successful in getting the Europeans and the Japanese and others to fall into line behind us, we actually shut down MDB lending to Chile, then shut down commercial bank lending to Chile, and then precipitate a financial crisis in Chile, and all that follows thereafter, is that an outcome we want to see? Is that going to produce the results that you want to see?

I think the answer in all of our minds is that is a hell of a role of the dice. We are not sure, at least I am not, and I defer to my colleagues.

Mr. Abrams. We have talked about this. I think it is impossible to be sure. Chileans in the opposition, maybe this is wrong, but my sense is that most of the ones we have talked to don't want us to support the loan, but they also don't want the loan to be defeated, is that right?

Ambassador Barnes. I did a lot of talking before I left Santiago, to find out who felt what; that is, I couldn't find any of them even if they said we ought to vote against loans who said they would be prepared to say that was a good thing publicly when we did it.

Mr. Torres. We haven't heard about much about the front, what about --

Ambassador Barnes. This was a group of people organized in a national strike in early July -- professional groups, some people in trade unions. They attempted to broaden the base beyond the democratic ~~links~~ parties, beyond the National ~~Accord~~ through this strike.

Interpretations vary as to how successful it was. Government reaction put most of the leaders in jail for about seven or eight weeks. When they came out of jail almost all of them felt they had moved the situation ahead by ~~bringing~~ involving more people, more groups in the society. The political ~~party~~ parties had to take more of a lead role themselves, and that is still in the process of or was in the process of being sorted out between the assembly people and the political parties.

~~When~~ Then the assassination attempt took place, ~~the state of siege~~ and everything is sort of stagnant right now. My feeling is that they don't know what it is they can usefully do at this point.

Mr. McCandless. My question has a number of facets to it. Let's see if I can boil it down.

Let me play "what if." What if the assassination had been successful? What in your mind would have taken place?

Ambassador Barnes. I think what would have happened --

Mr. McCandless. As far as the government proceeds.

Ambassador Barnes. I think what would have happened would probably have been an attempt on the part of the remaining members of the junta, the groupings of three commanders in chief, other armed forces plus an army representative --

Mr. McCandless. This consists of roughly how many people?

Ambassador Barnes. Four people. They performed in the present Chilean ~~present~~ context legislative functions.

I think what could have happened would have been that they would have attempted to assert some authority given their composition. I think they would have announced their willingness to proceed to at least a discussion of the constitutional reforms, i.e., election instead of a plebiscite.

Mr. McCandless. We do not have a second man per se?

Ambassador Barnes. No, there is no second person automatically as such. There is a senior member of the junta who is the navy commander, with the protocol rank of a second person, but he practically never functions as such.

The other thing that could have happened, that might have happened simultaneously, would have been a lot of popular emotion over the situation. Some people ~~are~~ were euphoric, some people were consternation, it would have been a very up-ended situation. I think in the circumstances, probably people would have responded, a majority of them, to some attempt to establish a framework for change.

Mr. McCandless. The second question deals with the experiences recently. There are a number of grape growers in town right now. They are very interested in competition that is beginning to surface beyond that they have experienced before, in Chile and the amount of, planting, the acreage, taking place, to the degree if this continues for another five years, there will be more grapes grown in Chile than in California.

In discussing this in fave days with the shippers and packers, the growers and this and that, the one grower said that don't worry about it, competition, in less than two years it will be taken care of, because we will get this mess cleaned up down here or it will take care of itself.

However you might wish to interpret it, what do you perceive as that businessman's saying to our businessman, don't worry about competition; it will take care of itself in a stability of the government or in the ability to function or something?

Ambassador Barnes. I guess I don't know what he would mean because if there is a transition to a democratic society, unless he assumed that that would be such a chaotic democratic society, or that there would be a return to the traditional ~~five years~~ Chilean approach of having state control of the activity

thing, I would be sort of confused. I don't know what else.

Mr. McCandless. In your mind, do you think the accord can stay?

Ambassador Barnes. It is not staying in the bottle. I think the time is extraordinarily short. The recent discoveries we are talking about, and the arms caches, the assassination attempt and so on, indicate a further level of violence which I think is the real world.

Mr. McCandless. The communities obviously given the opportunity would move. And the communists, who would be the next group to move in in an attempt to try to correct the deficiencies or whatever you wish to call it of the current system?

Ambassador Barnes. You could imagine a group of democratic parties, trying to perhaps interest some people in the military in making a change, but that is the outer edges of anything at this stage.

I think the democratic parties are still at this point willing to keep trying. I am less sure whether a year from now they will feel they are still prepared to do that.

Mr. McCandless. A business professional man may in part, beyond that of belonging to these parties?

Ambassador Barnes. Business people for the most part have stayed out of the parties. As I indicated earlier, some of them are beginning to think they have got to start talking to the parties in order to try to influence the parties. You don't ordinarily think of business people as having party affiliation.

Mr. McCandless. They are not supporters of the army?

Ambassador Barnes. They are ~~more~~ supporters, not so much of the army, but more supporters of the policy of this government of encouraging the private sector. They obviously like that.

Mr. Morrison. I want to thank you, and our Chairman, who is absent for the convening of this, and thank you gentlemen for being present. I think it is useful and I hope it will be the rule and not the exception in this process.

I also want to note that we wanted the executive session with certain concern about confidentiality. I don't think it was ever said at the outside folks came back into the room, our concern that what is said in the room not go beyond it since we have prior experience apparently that is less than satisfactory, so I assume that everybody understands that.

Mr. Cunrow, one thing you said along the line of discussing the obligation, that was disturbing to me. I have to note you said that you had a statute problem -- that is a quote -- in comparison to the Europeans, and I would like to --

Mr. Cunrow. I was taking a line from Elliott.

Mr. Morrison. I won't ask you to respond to this, but I would ask you to think about the fact that one of the strengths of our democracy, the kind of thing we are trying to instill in Chile, is that statutes aren't a problem, things we sometime disagree, but they are facts, and they are policies and they are statements of desires of our government, acting as a whole.

I think it is troublesome to have representatives of our government refer to our statutes as a problem. I think maybe within your advocacy of Congress, you might say you don't like a particular statute. The notion of your thinking of that in international relations is a problem, it seems to me to have a problem.

I wonder about --

Mr. Abrams. Now it is my turn.

Mr. Morrison. I wasn't going to let you yet.

I wonder about what I will call, you may take umbrage at the Nicaragua approach. When we discussed the Nicaragua loan before, which is a loan that has been deferred repeatedly, on the grounds that it may have some political coloration, you have deferred it on economic grounds. When we had our hearings last winter, you suggested that the Nicaragua economy run as it was wasn't sound and that there were a lot of technical questions that went on. It seems to me that is the analogy here and I wonder, first, two analogy I want to make, one is the issue of never getting to a vote as part of the strategy of opposing loans, which it seems to me votes are very rarely there is vote occur every one of these where a loan gets voted down, feeling going to get voting down is like to ask for deferral and that clearly there is a strategy.

The other point though is it seems to me defers discussion and I would like to hear you all comment on it, is that assuming that Marxist economy or centrally planned economy has lots of problems and that is really one of the reasons we don't like the idea of a loan to Nicaragua, doesn't a prerogative military regime isn't a time bomb and is not just as economically unviable in the long run even if the particular economic policy and moment and why are we not making those kind of arrangements to the Europeans and others which get around their prissy little distinction between politics and economics which I don't think really exists in the world.

Mr. Abrams. Well, I guess I disagree on the question of the economics system, and I would cite Taiwan and South Korea as examples of long-term dictatorships which have undergone phenomenal economic growth. Brazil underwent phenomenal economic growth under the period of military dictatorship that only ended in 1984. So I think in fact, this is not a great thing but I think it is a fact that right-wing military dictatorships are capable of presiding over great economic growth because they can free up the economy. Whereas, communist regimes, with their approach to economic policy, have a dismal, unbroken ~~dismal unblemished~~ dismal track record of failing to produce good economic growth.

China is a good example because it is becoming less communist.

Mr. Morrison. Well, I mean it is the same point. I don't want to debate China with you.

Mr. Abrams. There is where I think we must disagree - and ~~the fact that, it is our opinion,~~ It is our opinion that Chilean economic management is very good. There is dispute about this. But we strongly feel that the Chilean economic team trained by George Shultz at the University of Chicago ~~has and~~ has been a terrific economic team and they are doing everything that the United States would like to see in terms of economic management. So one difference between this case and one difference between the case of Nicaragua is that in fact we in the administration believe Nicaragua economic policy is guaranteed to produce a disaster and is indeed producing it.

For example, this has nothing to do with the embargo. They can't produce rice and beans; whereas, the Chilean economic management is terrific.

Mr. Morrison. To get away from the general case, I think there is a fundamental problem just to state it in the distinction between politics and economics, because I think we would all agree in western deomotratic countries that the balance of public and private sector, which is the great argument about what they are doing in Chile and what good is and bad is is a political question, not an economic question, and so that distinction that we always are drawing seems to me is fatally flawed. That is a matter of debate somewhere else.

But the concern I have is that holding no brief for the Government of South Korea or the Government of Taiwan, the act of killing and imprisoment and oppression in Chile right now, dealing also with a country with a demotratic tradition, long traditionally active political parties, it seems to me whether or not we agree with the general case, does have some room for suggesting the question of the cork in the bottle.

I asked that question and the answer was we really couldn't say if that was true. Anybody's idea of good economic situation is not one where the society might blow up.

Mr. Abrams. I think there is a certain truth in that and one analogy ~~here~~ is South Africa. That is a number of banks have withdrawn from Soth African lending despite the fact that the U.S. Government has yet to act. Simply as a banking matter, that is too dangerous a situation for them, and regardless ~~whether it is not~~ whether it is a moral question now for banks, it is just exposure and they don't want to lend.

So I agree, you reach a point where that becomes a straight economic question.

Mr. Conrow. With regard to the economic team in Chile, who we do have as I said, a very high regard for, we are today in fact meeting with those people -- the Minister of Finance, the President of the Central Bank, -- we have been meeting with them off and on the better part of this week.

This issues comes up all the time with them, that even though they are doing all the things one would like to see done on the economic side, the fact of the matter is the political situation is getting out of hand and it is going to ~~have a jeopardy on~~ jeopardize their ability to impliment.

So we are saying to the Miniser of Finance, you had better ~~alert~~ alert Pinochet about your need to move on this front, because it is going to undercut you in your ability to implement an effective economic program. There is no question ~~about that~~, that the message is getting through to them loud and clear. The problem that we have is these guys do not believe they are in a position to have influence on Pinochet, on his political issues.

Mr. Morrison. You spoke about the bankers, U.S. bankers speaking to you about their problem, and I would ask what you have done to get those bankers to talk to the business leaders of Chile, to say, you know, school is out, sooner or later the the show is going to fall apart because what we're hearing back from the State and Trasury and the U.S. is that they are not going to tolerate a continuation of this status quo.

Has that happened? Are you doing it and to what extent?

Mr. Abrams. Yes sir. Their reaction varies. I find some of them say, absolutely, and we told [redacted] Minister so and so that human rights questions are crucial.

Others give you a look which I am very familiar with from my human rights days, which is, why are you messing around with this, shut up, this is money, and we are not interested in delivering that message.

Mr. Morrison. I would urge that beyond the issue of delivering the message to the ministers, because I think ministers have their unique little problems that from my discussions with business leaders down there, the business leaders have to hear from bankers and bankers in the U.S. that that string has been played out, because what business leaders say, it seems to me, and Mr. Branes can correct me if I am wrong -- what they say, we can't be bothered with all this political stuff because we like this economic program and they have made the right choices as far as we are concerned, they have to hear the message that this has no long term viability on their political choices.

Ambassador Barnes. This we are doing.

Mr. Morrison. Just to sum up one point. I think, I hope we will close this discussion, which I hear a bottom line, tha you agree that since July, if anything worse under human rights basis if not vote was indicated in July, then a no vote seems to be indicated now, and I would hope that we at the end of this process, would be one that we are not about to be surprised after we go out of session, and that if you find yourselves with a different point of view between now and then, that there will be some process set up with the chairman to give us an opportunity to weight in on that point before you.

Mr. Abrams. Yes, I am glad to end that way. I could see circumstances under which we would abstain, and when I say refuse to support the loan, to me that includes both abstaining and voting no under certain circumstances.

I would ~~rather~~, for example, be in a group ~~of people~~ that abstained rather than alone voting no, as one example, so I don't want you to rule out the possibility of abstention

Mr. Bereuter. Would you explain why you would rather abstain rather than be the sole country voting no?

Mr. Abrams. I think it might have a larger impact. We really have not made a decision on this. It might have a stronger impact on the government and business community of Chile if a large group of western countries votes together and refuses to support that loan.

Mr. Conrow. I would point out that in the MDBs abstention is viewed as opposition. It is not neutral; it is viewed as opposition.

Mr. Morrison. It is not clear that is what the statute says?

Mr. Abrams. Well --

Mr. Morrison. Oppose. If you are correct about the vote, then abstension is a true abstention and doesn't contribute to a loss of the ability to get the loan. I wouldn't consider that opposition.

Mr. Torres. Gentlemen, time has expired.

Secretary Abrams, Ambassador Barnes, Secretary Conrow, the subcommittee, I am sure, joins me in saying we are indebted to you for taking the time to give us this extraordinary executive briefing and may I state for the staff and others that are here, the confidentiality of this meeting and the meeting now stands adjourned.

Thank you.

(Whereupon, at 3:50 p.m., the subcommittee was adjourned, subject to the call of the chair.)

Honorable George Shultz
Secretary of State
Department of State
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Mr. Secretary:

In light of the persistent and systematic violation of human rights in Chile, I am writing to urge that you oppose the upcoming structural adjustment loan from the World Bank for Chile.

The recent death of a U.S. citizen, Rodrigo Rojas deNegri, at the hands of Chilean security forces is but one example of the consistent disregard for human and political rights in Chile. Under current law, you have the responsibility to oppose loans from international financial institutions to nations that engage in a pattern of gross violations of human rights. The Reagan administration has supported these loans in the past; however, Chile's newly imposed state of emergency with its mass arrests and detention of legitimate press and political opposition leaders provides sharp, new evidence that a change in U.S. policy is long overdue. When Chile's World Bank application for a structural adjustment loan comes up for a vote, therefore, I strongly urge you instruct the U.S. to oppose this loan.

I appreciate your attention to this request and look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

2. ON SEPTEMBER 26 DUTCH PRIME MINISTER LUBBERS ANNOUNCED THE RELEASE (AS REPORTED REF A) OF THREE OF THE FOUR CHILEAN STUDENTS WHO HAD EARLIER BEEN DETAINED AFTER BEING HAULED OUT OF DUTCH EMBASSY VEHICLES IN SANTIAGO. THE LOCAL PRESS NOTED THAT THE RELEASE FOLLOWED "FIERCE" DUTCH PROTESTS AND ANOTHER DEMARCHE BY FOREIGN MINISTER VAN DEN BROEK TO HIS CHILEAN COUNTERPART DURING A MEETING ON THE MARGINS OF UNGA IN NEW YORK.

3. THE MEDIA REPORTED THAT THE CHILEAN MINISTER HAD TOLD VAN DEN BROEK THAT DUTCH EMBASSY OFFICIALS WOULD BE PERMITTED TO VISIT THE FOURTH STUDENT WHO WAS STILL BEING DETAINED BECAUSE THE INQUIRY

AGAINST HIM HAD NOT YET BEEN COMPLETED. VAN DEN BROEK WAS QUOTED AS TELLING THE PRESS THAT THE FOURTH STUDENT WAS SUSPECTED BY THE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES OF ILLEGAL ARMS POSSESSION, BECAUSE EXPLOSIVES HAD BEEN FOUND IN HIS HOUSE; HE STRESSED THAT THE CHARGE WAS NOT RELATED TO THE INCIDENT INVOLVING THE DUTCH EMBASSY.

4. WE HAVE SINCE DISCUSSED THIS CASE WITH BOTH MFA AND PARLIAMENTARY CONTACTS HERE, WHO APPEARED PLEASED WITH THE CHILEAN RESPONSE AND SATISFIED THAT IT WOULD ENABLE THEM TO AVOID FURTHER POLITICAL CONFRONTATION WITH CHILE. PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE ON CHILE IS STILL EXPECTED, BUT OUR CONTACTS BELIEVE THAT THE RELEASE OF THE THREE STUDENTS PUTS THE GON IN A POSITION TO RESIST PRESSURE FOR ANY DRASTIC STEPS AGAINST CHILE AT THIS TIME.

5. HOWEVER, OUR CONTACTS TELL US PRIVATELY THAT THEY HOPE THAT IMPENDING VOTES ON CREDITS TO CHILE IN MULTILATERAL LENDING INSTITUTIONS CAN BE POSTPONED IN ORDER TO AVOID HAVING TO ADDRESS THE ISSUE OF WHETHER HUMAN RIGHTS CONCERNS SHOULD BE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT IN CONSIDERATION OF LOANS WHICH THE DUTCH HAVE TRADITIONALLY ARGUED SHOULD BE DECIDED ON TECHNICAL GROUNDS.

6. THE DUTCH SAY THEY APPRECIATE AND VALUE THE CLOSE CONTACT WHICH THEY HAVE HAD WITH OUR EMBASSY IN SANTIAGO ON THIS AND RELATED ISSUES. HEIMANN

TO: All Office Directors

FROM: ARA - Elliott Abrams

SUBJECT: Latin American Debt

In discussions with a number of American bankers last week we heard the following:

Mexico

-- Financial package approved in principle, but it will be much more difficult than in 1982 to get approval of all 500+ creditor banks, and 100% agreement is needed.

-- Low spread over LIBOR of 13/16ths for extremely long period of 20 years (for the rescheduling of $44 billion) will hurt bank balance sheets and is of great concern to banks. One banker regretted the opportunity cost of this provision saying his bank would lose money relative to other uses to which its funds could be put.

-- Banks have serious doubts about ability of Mexicans to make agreed upon and necessary reforms.

-- Six billion dollars of new money was excessive in the view of one banker unless Mexico was planning to implement a "Plan Azteca" of sweeping reforms in a few months.

Brazil

-- Present economic growth and current account balance are excellent.

-- However, inflation figures are dishonest and price controls combined with widespread evasion are creating serious shortages and distortions of relative prices.

-- Problem of price distortions and low level investment spell potential for problems in the future.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
DECL: OADR

UNCLASSIFIED

LOT 89F44 Box 213

Colombia

-- Best medium-term prospect other than Brazil.

-- One problem is Barco's slow pace in naming cabinet and getting it functioning well. (e.g. unimpressive Minister of Finance).

Chile

-- Every banker expressed concern over possible negative vote by U.S. on Chilean World Bank loan.

-- Some acknowledged that this concern was related to the fact that $150 million of the $250 million structural adjustment loan was a specific condition for the commercial banks to disburse money they had committed.

-- Banks were following situation in Chile closely and were well-informed on Chile's political environment.

-- Some bankers urged us to abstain because a no vote could reinforce Pinochet's political standing domestically which has increased recently after the attempt on his life.

-- Our policy was explained:

- On July 30, we would have recommended a "no" vote; decision on whether to vote no, abstain, or yes depends on assessment of Chilean human rights situation at the time the loan is presented to the World Bank board.

- We preferred to postpone decision on loan to permit greater time for Chile to make needed political and human rights changes. We would pay a heavy price on the Hill for an abstention. That is why our decision, when it occurs, will reflect a great deal of careful consideration.

Peru

-- Economic situation is steadily deteriorating.

-- Peru able to obtain some trade financing from a few renegade European banks for exports (i.e., with immediately offsetting transaction to provide payment), but trade financing for imports disappearing and shortages growing.

-- U.S. banks have been required to reserve 30% against Peruvian loans; thus Garcia has painted himself into a corner because no new financial support can be considered until something can be done to deal with this effective 30% loss of Peruvian assets.

-- Despite many efforts Garcia has been unable to gain Latin support for his approach on debt.

-- This situation should force Garcia into negotiating soon.

-- Despite Garcia's problems, he is too popular for the army to risk a take over now -- maybe later when they can blame an economic collapse on Garcia.

Ecuador

-- Good economic policies under Febres, but increasingly poisoned political atmosphere which is of concern.

-- No successor to Febres is in sight.

-- Febres does have support of army.

Venezuela

-- Handling of FOCOCAM, enacting it and then simply abolishing it instead of amending it, was tasteless irritant to banks.

-- No Fund arrangement and no prospects of one.

-- Nonetheless, outlook for improved oil prices over next two years and increasing reserves make Venezuela less worrisome than other countries.

Costa Rica

-- Recent arrogant stance of Costa Rican authorities is problem to several banks with significant Costa Rican assets, and banks affected are seriously evaluating possibility of most extreme response, namely seizure of Costa Rican assets.

Honduras

-- Banks are very close to a rescheduling agreement with the Hondurans (terms expected to be 15 years with spread of 1-1/8 over LIBOR).

El Salvador

-- Surprisingly, is considered the model debtor in Central America and is current on interest and principal payments.

THE SANDINISTAS IGNORED THE FACTS, HOWEVER, BECAUSE BY ANY COMPARISON (AS SEEN FROM MANAGUA), WHETHER DE JURE OR DE FACTO, THE SANDINISTAS' CODIFIED REPRESSION HAS PROVEN AS ONEROUS AS THAT IN CHILE. WE HAVE COMPARED THE FACTS, AS WE KNOW THEM, IN THIS MESSAGE AND WE INVITE EMBASSY SANTIAGO TO FILL IN THE COMPARISON. ABUSES IN PARAGUAY AND NICARAGUA.

2. (U) WHAT WE HAVE IN MIND IS AN UNCLASSIFIED TEXT ON THE ORDER OF THE FOLLOWING, TO BE USED BY USIA AND/OR ARA/LPD. END SUMMARY AND INTRODUCTION.

3. (U) BEGIN UNCLASSIFIED TEXT
DURATION OF THE DECREES

A. THE CURRENT SANDINISTA STATE OF EMERGENCY HAS BEEN IN EFFECT FOR ALMOST A YEAR AND CAN BE RENEWED FOR ONE YEAR PERIODS. THE STATE OF SIEGE IN CHILE HAS A 90 DAY DURATION AND IS RENEWABLE FOR AN EQUAL PERIOD.

RESTRICTIONS ON FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION, ASSEMBLY AND TRAVEL

B. THE NICARAGUAN DECREE HAS BEEN APPLIED TO PROHIBIT PARADES AND OUTDOOR RALLIES BY LABOR UNIONS AND POLITICAL PARTIES AND OUTDOOR SERVICES BY PASTORS AND PRIESTS. WHILE THE STATE OF EMERGENCY DECREE DOES NOT INCLUDE THE POWER OF "INTERNAL BANISHMENT" (AS IN THE CASE OF CHILE'S STATE OF SIEGE), THE GON HAS EXPELLED A RELIGIOUS LEADER (BISHOP VEGA) AND PROHIBITED THE RE-ENTRY INTO THE COUNTRY OF TWO OTHERS OPPOSED TO ITS POLICIES (FATHER BISMARK CARBALLO AND 1984 PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE ARTURO CRUZ). THOUSANDS OF CAMPESINOS HAVE BEEN DETAINED AND FORCIBLY RELOCATED, GENERALLY FOR POLITICAL REASONS (SUSPECTED OF AIDING THE ARMED RESISTANCE, OPPOSITION TO GOVERNMENT POLICIES, ETC.).

C. THE GON HAS USED THE REQUIREMENT OF AN EXIT VISA

UNCLASSIFIED

TO STEM THE EXPATRIATION OF DRAFT AGE YOUNG MEN AND TO HARASS OPPOSITION POLITICAL, LABOR AND CIVIC LEADERS. THOUSANDS OF YOUNG MEN HAVE BEEN DENIED PERMISSION TO EXIT THE COUNTRY, EVEN THOUGH THEY HAVE COMPLIED WITH THE NICARAGUAN CONSCRIPTION REGULATIONS. SOME OPPOSITION FIGURES, WHILE NOT BEING DENIED PERMANENTLY PERMISSION TO LEAVE, HAVE HAD TO WAIT TWO WEEKS FOR EXIT VISAS AND HAVE BEEN GRANTED ONLY SINGLE JOURNEY EXIT VISAS. THESE ACTIONS APPARENTLY WERE DESIGNED TO DISCOURAGE CRITICISM OF THE GON BY THE TRAVELLER WHILE OUTSIDE OF THE COUNTRY AND TO DELAY URGENT TRAVEL.

FREEDOM OF PRESS AND SPEECH

E. BOTH REGIMES HAVE USED THEIR EMERGENCY POWERS TO CLOSE DOWN OPPOSITION NEWSPAPERS OR MAGAZINES AND TO MUZZLE THEIR CRITICS. THE GON ACTION APPEARS HARSHER, HOWEVER, SINCE THE NEWSPAPER LA PRENSA (SUSPENDED INDEFINITELY IN JUNE) HAD BEEN THE ONLY INDEPENDENT WRITTEN MASS MEDIUM IN THE COUNTRY. THE CATHOLIC RADIO STATION WAS SILENCED IN JANUARY FOR AN "INDEFINITE" PERIOD AND, NINE MONTHS LATER, REMAINS SHUT DOWN. THE CHURCH NEWSPAPER DIED STILLBORN WHEN ITS PRESS WAS CONFISCATED IN OCTOBER 1985. BOTH LA PRENSA AND CATHOLIC RADIO HAD BEEN HEAVILY CENSORED, WITH EVEN THE

I. HAVING PROPPED ITSELF UP FROM ITS INCEPTION ON REPRESSION SANCTIONED BY A STRING OF UNPOPULAR EMERGENCY MEASURES, THE GON HAS WITNESSED A MASS EXODUS OF ITS CITIZENS, ESTIMATED AT FROM 320,000 TO 550,000 PEOPLE. WITH THE STATE OF EMERGENCY AS THE UNDERPINNING OF ITS ACTIONS, THE GON CAN BE EXPECTED TO CONTINUE TO EMPLOY EAST BLOC SECURITY TECHNIQUES. IT WILL PRESSURE AND MANIPULATE OPPOSITION FIGURES AND GROUPS, AND REDUCE FURTHER THEIR POLITICAL SPACE WITHIN THE COUNTRY, WHILE SIMULTANEOUSLY CROWING ABOUT PLURALISM.

SUBJ: DEBATE OVER SOCIAL MOBILIZATION

1. (C) A FERVENT DEBATE OVER OPPOSITION STRATEGY WAS SPARKED BY A PAPER PREPARED FOR INTERNAL DISCUSSION WITHIN THE SOCIALIST PARTY/NUNEZ (PSCH/N) BY SOCIOLOGIST JOSE JOAQUIN BRUNNER. THE PAPER, WHICH WAS LEAKED TO THE PRESS ON SEPTEMBER 27, MAINTAINS THAT THE STRATEGY OF SOCIAL MOBILIZATION FOLLOWED IN 1986 HAS FAILED MISERABLY BECAUSE IT HAS BEEN DOMINATED BY THE COMMUNIST-LED DEMOCRATIC POPULAR MOVEMENT (MDP), WHICH SEEKS TO DESTABILIZE THE GOVERNMENT AND DEFEAT THE ARMED FORCES POLITICALLY. BRUNNER SAYS THAT UNTIL THE OPPOSITION BREAKS AWAY FROM THE MDP AND DEVELOPS A NON-CONFRONTATIONAL MOVEMENT FOR FREE ELECTIONS, IT WILL NOT MOBILIZE THE MAJORITY OF CHILEANS OR SUCCEED IN INITIATING SERIOUS DIALOGUE WITH THE ARMED FORCES. ALTHOUGH THE PAPER'S PUBLICATION EVOKED INDIGNANT CRITICISM FROM THE PSCH/N LEADERSHIP, DEMOCRATIC SOCIALISTS ADMIT PRIVATELY THERE IS CONSIDERABLE AGREEMENT OVER

UNCLASSIFIED

THE MAIN POINTS OF THE DOCUMENT. THE DEBATE SHOULD ALSO HELP OTHER DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE PARTIES CONDUCT THE KIND OF CRITICAL ANALYSIS THAT CAN LEAD TO A MORE REALISTIC CONSENSUS.

2. (U) A PAPER PREPARED BY JOSE JOAQUIN BRUNNER, DIRECTOR OF THE LATIN AMERICAN FACULTY FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES (FLACSO-CHILE), HAS SPARKED A NEW DEBATE OVER SOCIAL MOBILIZATION. THE PAPER WAS ORIGINALLY INTENDED AS AN INTERNAL DISCUSSION DOCUMENT FOR THE PSCH/N, BUT WAS LEAKED TO THE PRESS LAST WEEK. IN THE DOCUMENT BRUNNER MAINTAINS THAT THE STRIKES OF JULY AND SEPTEMBER DEMONSTRATED THE UTTER FAILURE OF THE OPPOSITION'S STRATEGY TO CHANGE THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE. SOCIAL MOBILIZATION, HE SAID, HAS BEEN "WEAK, FRAGMENTARY AND INEFFECTIVE." IT HASN'T REACHED THE MIDDLE CLASS, NOR HAS IT RESULTED IN ANY SIGNIFICANT INDUSTRIAL SHUTDOWN OR PARALYZATION OF PUBLIC SERVICES. WORST OF ALL, HE NOTES, "PINOCHET HAS BEEN SUCCESSFUL IN SHOWING THE COUNTRY THAT THE OPPOSITION IS SUBORDINATE TO THE ACTIONS OF THE MOST RADICALIZED SECTOR, WHILE THE GROUPS OPPOSED TO THE USE OF 'ALL THE METHODS OF STRUGGLE' WERE IN FACT RELEGATED TO THE SIDELINES."

CAPACITY OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY (PCCH).

4. (U) THE PAPER CONCLUDES THAT THE OPPOSITION NEEDS A RIGOROUS SELF-CRITICISM IF IT IS TO RECUPERATE FROM THE "FAILED STRATEGY" OF 1986 AND TO STRENGTHEN ITS "AUTONOMOUS" SECTORS, I.E. THE DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE, THE CIVIC ASSEMBLY, THE NATIONAL ACCORD AND THE PACT FOR

GOVERNABILITY. IT WILL HAVE TO DISTANCE ITSELF EXPLICITLY FROM THE MDP. IT MUST REALIZE THE CONTRADICTIONS OF SEEKING A NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT WITH THE ARMED FORCES WHILE ENGAGING IN SOCIAL MOBILIZATION AIMED AT THEIR POLITICAL DEFEAT. IT MUST ACCEPT THE "CONDITIONS CREATED BY THE 1980 CONSTITUTION" AS A GIVEN AND CREATE A BROADLY BASED MOVEMENT FOR FREE ELECTIONS.

5. (U) PUBLIC REACTIONS:

PSC GENERAL SECRETARY RICARDO NUNEZ ISSUED A STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF THE PARTY'S POLITICAL COMMISSION CENSURING THOSE WHO LEAKED THE PAPER TO THE PRESS AND STRESSING THAT THE PSC SUPPORTS SOCIAL MOBILIZATION, DOES NOT ACCEPT THE LEGITIMACY OF THE 1980 CONSTITUTION, AND CONSIDERS THAT PINOCHET IS THE MAIN IMPEDIMENT TO A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION. SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENT RENE ABELIUK SAID IT CONFIRMED HIS THESIS THAT IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO COORDINATE WITH THOSE WHO HAVE DIAMETRICALLY OPPOSED OBJECTIVES. THE OLD FORMS OF SOCIAL MOBILIZATION, HE SAID, HAVE BEEN WORN OUT AND USED BY THE EXTREMES OF BOTH RIGHT AND LEFT. ANDRES ZALDIVAR, CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC (PDC)/LEADER, SAID HE SHARED MANY OF BRUNNER'S CONCLUSIONS BUT THAT SOCIAL MOBILIZATION COULDN'T BE ABANDONED SIMPLY BECAUSE THE

GOC HAD REMAINED INTRANSIGENT AND THE ULTRA LEFT HAD FOLLOWED A VIOLENT PATH. HOWEVER, GENARO ARRIAGADA, DIRECTOR OF RADIO COOPERATIVE WHO IS IDENTIFIED WITH THE GROUP CLOSE TO GABRIEL VALDES, SAID THAT THIS KIND OF SELF-CRITICISM IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY IF SOCIAL MOBILIZATION IS TO BE RESCUED FROM THE GROUPS THAT TRY TO CONFUSE IT WITH "PURE AGITATION," EXTREMIST RHETORIC AND TACTICS. "THE OPPOSITION MUST BE CHANNELED INTO A SOCIAL MOVEMENT FOR FREE ELECTIONS, AS CLEAR AND COMPELLING AS SIMILAR DEMANDS GENERATED IN BRAZIL, URUGUAY AND THE PHILLIPINES," HE SAID.

6. (C) COMMENTS: UNBEKNOWNST TO BRUNNER, WHO LEFT CHILE LAST WEEK, HIS DISCUSSION PAPER WAS DELIVERED TO THE DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE (AND FROM THERE TO THE PRESS) BY HERNAN VODANOVICH, NUNEZ'S FORMER RIVAL FOR THE PSD SECRETARY GENERALSHIP. FLACSO ASSOCIATE ANGEL FLISFISCH TOLD POLOFF THAT VODANOVICH WAS EAGER TO DO SOME CROWING THAT "HE HAD SAID IT

UNCLASSIFIED

FIRST" AND TO ADVANCE HIS FACTION. AS A RESULT NUNEZ, WHO LARGELY AGREES WITH THE BRUNNER ASSESSMENT, THOUGHT HE HAD TO COME DOWN HARD TO HOLD ON TO A RANK AND FILE WHICH STILL THINKS THE IDEA OF NEGOTIATING WITH PINOCHET OR THE MILITARY IS SOMEWHAT HERETICAL. ONE MORE, IMPORTANT ELEMENTS OF THE OPPOSITION APPEARED TO BE EMBROILED IN CONVOLUTED ARGUMENTS OVER HOW MUCH TO BLAME THE COMMUNISTS FOR THE STATUS QUO AND WHETHER OR NOT TO ACCEPT THE CONSTITUTION.

7. (C) IN THE LONG TERM, HOWEVER, THE DEBATE SHOULD HAVE A TONIC EFFECT. BRUNNER'S INTELLECTUAL HONESTY ENCOURAGES PARTIES FROM THE DEMOCRATIC LEFT TO THE CENTER-RIGHT TO DEFINE A MORE MODERATE CONSENSUS. ACCORDING TO THE CONSERVATIVE MAGAZINE "QUE PASA", IT ALSO "REAFFIRMS THE CONCEPT OF SELF-CRITICISM WHICH MARKS A PARTY (READ PSCH/N) THAT IN THE LAST 10 YEARS HAS REVISED ALL ITS ASSUMPTIONS TO THE POINT WHERE IT MAINTAINS THAT THE MARKET AND PRIVATE PROPERTY ARE OF VITAL IMPORTANCE IN A DEMOCRACY." PSCH/N LEADERS CONFIDE THAT ONCE THE FIREWORKS ARE OVER, IT WILL BE RELATIVELY EASY TO AGREE ON THE BASIC POINTS: THAT 1986 HAS BEEN THE GOC'S YEAR; THAT THE COMMUNISTS HAVE EXCLUDED THEMSELVES FROM THE LEGITIMATE OPPOSITION; THAT THE CONSTITUTION SHOULD BE NO OBSTACLE TO COMING TO TERMS WITH THE MILITARY; AND THAT NEW, LESS CONFRONTATIONAL FORMS OF SOCIAL PROTEST MUST BE CREATED.

1. (C) SUMMARY:
IN THE WAKE OF JUNTA MEMBER MERINO'S PUBLIC SUPPORT FOR DIALOGUE BETWEEN THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION AND THE ARMED FORCES (REFTEL), TWO OTHER MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA (BUT NOT THE ARMY) HAVE ECHOED THAT SENTIMENT. THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION HAS WELCOMED MERINO'S STATEMENT, WITH VARYING DEGREES OF ENTHUSIASM DEPENDING UPON THEIR PLACEMENT ON THE POLITICAL SPECTRUM. THE PUBLIC NATURE OF THE STATEMENTS RAISES SOME HOPES THAT A DIALOGUE, THOUGH NOT IMMINENT, IS PERHAPS FEASIBLE IN THE NEAR FUTURE. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) TWO MEMBERS OF THE RULING JUNTA HAVE ECHOED ADMIRAL MERINO'S SUPPORT FOR A DIALOGUE BETWEEN VARIOUS SECTORS AND THE ARMED FORCES. AIR FORCE GENERAL FERNANDO MATTHEI, SPEAKING TO THE PRESS IN IQUIQUE ON OCT. 1, SPOKE IN FAVOR OF THE GENERAL IDEA OF DIALOGUE AND GAVE HIS OPINION THAT IT WAS SOMETHING THAT SHOULD HAVE BEGUN LONG AGO. THE FOLLOWING DAY, CARABINERO GENERAL RODOLFO STANGE SAID THAT HIS DOOR WAS ALWAYS OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, SINCE IT WAS PART OF HIS DUTY AS A CARABINERO AND AS A MEMBER OF THE JUNTA TO RECEIVE PEOPLE WITHOUT MAKING DISTINCTIONS AMONG THEM.

3. (U) THE SANTIAGO PRESS HAS GIVEN EXTENSIVE PLAY TO MERINO'S OFF-THE-CUFF REMARKS, CONCENTRATING ON THE REACTION OF VARIOUS POLITICAL SECTORS. IN GENERAL, THE RIGHT-OF-CENTER POLITICAL PARTIES HAVE WELCOMED THE MERINO STATEMENT WHILE GETTING IN A FEW DIGS AT THE LEFT. HERNAN CHADWICK OF THE INDEPENDENT UNION (UDI), A PRO-GOVERNMENT PARTY OUTSIDE OF THE NATIONAL ACCORD, STATED THAT THE CALL FOR DIALOGUE WAS A LONG-HELD POSITION OF THE UDI. HE EMPHASIZED THAT THE DIALOGUE, AS EXPRESSED BY MERINO, WOULD BE BETWEEN SECTORS AS WELL AS POLITICAL PARTIES. FERNANDO MATURANA OF THE NATIONAL UNION, A SIGNATORY PARTY OF THE NATIONAL ACCORD STRESSED THAT DIALOGUE WOULD REQUIRE THE ELIMINATION OF FACTORS THAT HAD PREVIOUSLY BLOCKED A POLITICAL OPENING, SUCH AS CONTACTS WITH MARXISTS AND ACTIONS THAT AIDED SUBVERSIVES (READ SOCIAL MOBILIZATION).

4. (U) SEVERAL SPOKESMEN FOR THE CENTRIST CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) WERE QUOTED IN SUPPORT OF THE CALL FOR DIALOGUE (FYI: THE MERINO STATEMENT WAS IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION CONCERNING A PROPOSAL MADE BY PDC PRESIDENT GABRIEL VALDES). NATIONAL ACCORD COORDINATOR SERGIO MOLINA AND FORMER CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT ANDRES ZALDIVAR GAVE FULL SUPPORT TO THE IDEA, WHILE VALDES SAW IT AS

UNCLASSIFIED

A POSITIVE STEP BUT INTERJECTED HIS OPINION THAT THERE WERE "TERRORISTS AND FOMENTORS OF VIOLENCE IN THE GOVERNMENT, IN THE EXTREME RIGHT AS WELL AS THE EXTREME LEFT," AND THAT THE TRUE ROAD TO DEMOCRACY WAS THAT EXPRESSED THROUGH THE NATIONAL ACCORD.

5. (U) OTHER POLITICAL SPOKESMEN EXPRESSED SOME

RESERVATIONS ABOUT ANY FUTURE DIALOGUE. SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENT RENE ABELIUK POINTED OUT THAT HIS CENTRIST PARTY HAD SUPPORTED DIALOGUE SINCE 1973 BUT THAT A DIALOGUE REQUIRED TWO SIDES, AND THAT ONLY THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION HAD BEEN WILLING TO DISCUSS THE ISSUES IN THE PAST. HE REITERATED HIS PARTY'S OPENNESS TO A NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT, WHILE EMPHASIZING THAT THE RETURN TO A TRUE DEMOCRACY WAS NOT NEGOTIABLE. ALONG THIS LINE, HE MENTIONED THAT A REFORM OF THE 1980 CONSTITUTION WAS NECESSARY IN ORDER TO TRANSFORM IT INTO A VEHICLE OF CONSENSUS AND TRUE DEMOCRACY.

6. (U) SPEAKING FOR THE LEFT-OF-CENTER RADICAL PARTY, RICARDO NAVARRETE EXPRESSED THE VIEW THAT WHAT MERINO WAS SUPPORTING WAS MERELY WHAT SHOULD BE THE NATURAL STATE OF AFFAIRS. WHILE ACKNOWLEDGING THE IMPORTANCE OF MERINO'S STATEMENT, HE WONDERED ALOUD IF THOSE SENTIMENTS WERE SHARED BY OTHERS WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT.

7. (C) COMMENT:

THE VIEWS EXPRESSED BY JUNTA MEMBERS MERINO, MATTHEI, AND STANGE COME AS NO SURPRISE SINCE THEY HAVE FOR SOME TIME BEEN SAYING THE SAME THING IN PRIVATE AND, OCCASIONALLY, IN PUBLIC. THE FACT THAT

THEY ARE ALL SAYING THE SAME THING AT APPROXIMATELY THE SAME TIME IS OF SOME SIGNIFICANCE, AS WELL AS THE TOTAL LACK OF ANY RESPONSE FROM THE ARMY REPRESENTATIVE ON THE JUNTA, GENERAL JULIO CANESSA. THE WILLINGNESS OF THE AIR FORCE, NAVY, AND CARABINEROS TO SPEAK TO ELEMENTS OF THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION MEANS VERY LITTLE WITHOUT THE PARTICIPATION OF THE ARMY, THE LARGEST AND MOST IMPORTANT OF THE UNIFORMED SERVICES. THE REACTION OF THE POLITICIANS WAS AS EXPECTED, WITH THE CENTER SUPPORTING THE IDEA WITH LITTLE OR NO COMMENT, WHILE ELEMENTS OF THE RIGHT AND LEFT, WHILE SUPPORTING THE IDEA, COULD NOT RESIST THE OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE A FEW DIGS AT THE OTHER SIDE OR TO INTERJECT THEIR POLITICAL POSITIONS. SUBJECT: UNDERSECRETARY WALLIS' OCT. 1 MEETING WITH CHILEAN FINANCE MINISTER BUCHI

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: DURING A 45-MINUTE CORDIAL DISCUSSION OCT. 1 AT THE SITE OF THE BANK/FUND MEETINGS, UNDERSECRETARY WALLIS AND FINANCE MINISTER BUCHI REVIEWED THE RECENT POSITIVE PERFORMANCE OF CHILE'S ECONOMY AND DISCUSSED U.S. CONCERNS REGARDING HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN CHILE AS THEY PERTAIN TO U.S. VOTES ON MDB CONFIDENTIAL

LOANS TO CHILE. WALLIS EMPHASIZED STRONG CONGRESSIONAL OPPOSITION TO U.S. SUPPORT FOR LOANS TO CHILE. THERE WAS A GREAT RISK THAT YES VOTES BY THE ADMINISTRATION ON

THESE LOANS--AND POSSIBLY EVEN ABSTENTIONS--WOULD PROMPT COUNTRY-SPECIFIC LEGISLATION MANDATING NEGATIVE VOTES IN THE FUTURE. WALLIS ASKED BUCHI WHETHER LOANS TO CHILE EXPECTED TO BE REVIEWED BY EXECUTIVE BOARDS NEXT MONTH MIGHT NOT BE POSTPONED UNTIL EARLY 1987, TO PROVIDE TIME FOR THE GOC TO MAKE HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS AND MOVEMENT ON A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION THAT WOULD PERMIT THE U.S. TO SUPPORT THE LOANS. BUCHI, SECONDED BY CHILEAN AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ, INSISTED THAT DELAY WAS NOT FEASIBLE. IN ORDER TO CONTINUE ITS ECONOMIC RECOVERY, HE ARGUED THAT CHILE NEEDED TO HAVE IN PLACE BY LATE NOVEMBER EITHER THE SECOND WORLD BANK STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT LOAN (SAL) OR AN AGREEMENT WITH THE COMMERCIAL BANKS TO PROVIDE NEW MONEY IN 1987. HE OBSERVED THAT COMMERCIAL BANKS WOULD BE VERY UNLIKELY TO MAKE A COMMITMENT TO PROVIDE NEW MONEY WITHOUT THE SAL IN PLACE. WALLIS AGREED, BUT COMMENTED THAT THE GOC NEEDED TO BALANCE THE POSSIBLE ADVERSE CONSEQUENCES OF POSTPONEMENT AGAINST THE UNCERTAIN RESULTS OF GOING AHEAD WITH THE SAL UNDER CURRENT CIRCUMSTANCES. END SUMMARY.

--CHILE'S STRONG ECONOMIC RECOVERY--

3. WALLIS ASKED ABOUT CHILE'S CURRENT ECONOMIC PERFORMANCE. BUCHI RECALLED THAT WHEN THEY HAD LAST MET ABOUT EIGHTEEN MONTHS AGO, THE GOC HAD NEARLY COMPLETED A FINANCIAL PACKAGE REFINANCING ITS EXTERNAL DEBT. WITH THE PACKAGE IN PLACE, CHILE HAS RESUMED ECONOMIC GROWTH, WHICH SHOULD BE CLOSE TO 5 PERCENT FOR 1986.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNEMPLOYMENT HAD EASED TO 10.8 PERCENT; THE COMBINED UNDEREMPLOYMENT/UNEMPLOYMENT FIGURE WAS NOW ONLY 15.8 PER CENT, AFTER REACHING NEARLY 30 PERCENT AT ITS PEAK.

4. BUCHI SAID THAT CHILE HAD LAID THE GROUNDWORK FOR MEDIUM TERM GROWTH. AS GROSS NATIONAL SAVINGS WENT UP--NEARLY 9 PER CENT IN 1986 AFTER HOVERING AT 2-3 PER CENT FOR THE PREVIOUS TWO YEARS--INVESTMENT IN FIXED CAPITAL GOODS HAD ALSO INCREASED. THE BUDGET DEFICIT HAD EASED TO 2.2 PERCENT FROM OVER 4 PERCENT A YEAR AGO. INFLATION HAD ALSO DROPPED AND SHOULD BE BETWEEN 15-20 PERCENT THIS YEAR. FOREIGN INVESTMENT WAS INCREASING.

ASKED ABOUT CAPITAL FLIGHT, BUCHI NOTED THAT CAPITAL WAS RETURNING TO CHILE, NOT LEAVING. IN SUM, THE MEDIUM-TERM OUTLOOK FOR THE ECONOMY WAS VERY POSITIVE.

--UNCERTAINTY ABOUT THE FUTURE --

5. WALLIS ASKED UNDER SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES WHETHER THERE WAS ANYTHING THAT WAS NOT GOING SO WELL. EXPECTATIONS, BUCHI RESPONDED. HE EXPLAINED THAT AS 1987 APPROACHED, IT WAS CLEAR THAT CHILE HAD TO GO TO THE COMMERCIAL BANKS AGAIN TO PUT TOGETHER A NEW REFINANCING PACKAGE. LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE WAS DIFFICULT. IT WAS HARD TO SAY NOW HOW DIFFICULT OR EASY IT WOULD BE FOR CHILE TO MANAGE ITS NEW MONEY NEEDS.

6. ACCORDING TO BUCHI, POLITICAL UNCERTAINTY WAS NOT A MAJOR PROBLEM. THERE WAS MORE OF A PERCEPTION OF CONTINUITY THAN OF NEW FUTURE UPHEAVALS, SUCH AS DURING THE ALLENDE PERIOD. BUCHI COMMENTED, HOWEVER, THAT THE 1987 FINANCING WAS A PROBLEM, AND WOULD BECOME MORE PROBLEMATIC THE MORE TIME PASSED WITHOUT AN AGREEMENT. HE ADDED THAT UNCERTAINTY OVER THE SAL WAS PART OF THE PROBLEM.

UNCLASSIFIED

--POSTPONMENT OF MDB LOANS TO CHILE--

7. PICKING UP ON BUCHI'S REFERENCE TO THE SAL, WALLIS ASKED WHAT THE CONSEQUENCES WOULD BE OF POSTPONEMENT OF THE SAL UNTIL NEXT YEAR. IN RESPONSE, BUCHI SAID SUCH A DELAY MIGHT NOT CARRY ANY IMPORTANCE OR COULD BE EXTREMELY IMPORTANT. THE VARIABLE WAS THE ATTITUDE OF THE COMMERICIAL BANKS. SHOULD THE COMMERCIAL BANKS CONCLUDE THAT POSTPONEMENT OF THE SAL MEANS SOMETHING NEGATIVE, THIS COULD DESTROY THE ENVIRONMENT FOR CONTINUED ECONOMIC GROWTH, AND COULD SEND A MAJOR SHOCKWAVE THROUGH THE ECONOMY JUST AS THE RECOVERY IS TAKING HOLD.

8. AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ AGREED, NOTING THAT THE SAL WAS A CONDITION FOR DISBURSEMENT OF THE LAST TRANCHE OF THE COMMERCIAL BANK NEW MONEY FACILITY NEGOTIATED LAST YEAR. ERRAZURIZ ADDED THAT IT WAS QUITE POSSIBLE THAT CHILE

--IMPACT OF CONGRESSIONAL CONCERNS OVER CHILE--

9. WALLIS COMMENTED THAT THE REASON HE HAD BROUGHT UP THIS SUBJECT WAS BECAUSE OF THE STRONG REACTION AGAINST U.S. SUPPORT FOR MDB LOANS TO CHILE EVIDENT IN THE U.S. CONGRESS. PRESENTLY, THE CONGRESSIONAL ENVIRONMENT WAS SUCH THAT IF THE U.S. VOTED YES ON CHILE LOANS, OR POSSIBLY ABSTAINED, LEGISLATION WOULD BE PASSED OBLIGING THE ADMINISTRATION TO VOTE AGAINST CHILE LOANS IN THE

UNCLASSIFIED

FUTURE. NOTING THAT LEGISLATION IN CHILE GOVERNING THE STATE OF SIEGE WOULD EXPIRE BY THE END OF THE YEAR, THAT STEPS HAD BEEN TAKEN TO REOPEN ELECTORAL REGISTERS NEXT YEAR AND THAT A POLITICAL PARTIES LAW WAS ALSO EXPECTED TO BE ENACTED IN EARLY 1987, HE WONDERED WHETHER IT MIGHT NOT MAKE SENSE TO DELAY THE LOANS UNTIL AFTER THESE STEPS HAD BEEN TAKEN. HE SAID HE UNDERSTOOD FULLY THAT IN

IDEAL TERMS THE BEST COURSE WOULD BE TO PROCEED WITH THE LOANS AS PLANNED. NONETHELESS, HE SUGGESTED THAT THE CHILEANS THINK THROUGH THE CONSEQUENCES OF THE CONGRESS MANDATING U.S. OPPOSITION TO CHILE LOANS, OR REDUCING THELEVEL OF U.S. PARTICIPATION IN THE MDBS. HE CONCLUDED THAT IT WAS A CASE OF WEIGHING ONE RISK AGAINST THE OTHER.

10. CONTINUING,WALLIS AGREED THAT THE CONSEQUENCES OF POSTPONEMENT COULD BE UNPREDICTABLE, BUT NOTED THAT THE CONSEQUENCES ON THE POLITICAL SIDE WERE EQUALLY UNPREDICTABLE IF THE GOC PROCEEDED WITH THE LOANS AS PLANNED. THERE WERE SERIOUS U.S. POLITICAL CONCERNS AFFECTING CHILE, AS AMB. ERRAZURIZ WAS WELL AWARE. WALLIS STRESSED THAT HE WAS NOT ADDRESSING THE ISSUE OF WHETHER U.S. PUBLIC PERCEPTIONS--FORMED IN LARGE PART BY PRESS AND TELEVISION ACCOUNTS--BORE ANY RELATION TO REALITY. WHAT HE WANTED TO SIGNAL WAS THAT THEY HAD A SERIOUS PROBLEM HERE. THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT HAD LEFT

THE IMPRESSION, WHETHER CORRECT OR NOT, THAT THERE WAS SERIOUS INSTABILITY IN CHILE. SIMILARLY, THERE WAS A WIDESPREAD IMPRESSION THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD OVERREACTED IN ITS APPLICATION OF THE STATE OF SIEGE FOLLOWING THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT. THE CLIMATE WAS NOT GOOD.

11. IN RESPONSE, BOTH BUCHI AND ERRAZURIZ REPEATED THAT THE LOANS COULD NOT BE DELAYED. BUCHI SAID THAT IN HIS VIEW IT WAS NECESSARY THAT BEFORE THE END OF NOVEMBER

CONFIDENTIAL

CHILE HAD AN AGREEMENT EITHER WITH THE WORLD BANK OR WITH THE COMMERCIAL BANKS. THEY COULD NOT WAIT LONGER THAN NOVEMBER. HE COULD ONLY RECOMMEND A STRATEGY OF POSTPONING THE WORLD BANK LOANS IF THERE WERE A REALISTIC EXPECTATION THAT THEY COULD REACH AN AGREEMENT WITH THE BANKS WITHOUT THE SAL. AN AGREEMENT WITH THE BANKS ALONE WAS VERY UNLIKELY.

12 BUCHI SAID THAT HE HAD ALREADY BEEN IN TOUCH WITH THE WORLD BANK STAFF REGARDING THE SAL. THEY EXPECTED TO BRING THE SAL TO THE EXECUTIVE BOARD FOR A VOTE IN NOVEMBER. HE EMPHASIZED ONCE AGAIN THE IMPORTANCE THIS LOAN HOLDS FOR CHILE'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY. HE ADDED THAT IN HIS VIEW FOR CHILE TO HAVE THE CHANCE TO RETURN TO POLITICAL NORMALCY, THERE HAD TO BE A REASONABLE ECONOMIC BASE.

13. ERRAZURIZ COMMENTED THAT IT WOULD BE DISASTROUS IF CHILE COULD NOT OBTAIN THE SAL. SUCH A DEVELOPMENT WOULD HALT ECONOMIC NORMALIZATION AND JEOPARDIZE THE CONTINUITY OF SOUND ECONOMIC POLICIES. BUCHI ADDED THAT ONE COULD NOT PREDICT HOW HIS GOVERNMENT MIGHT REACT IF IT WERE DENIED FUNDS FROM ABROAD. ERRAZURIZ AGREED THAT THE CURRENT POLITICAL CLIMATE WAS NEGATIVE. HE ARGUED, HOWEVER, THAT PRESIDENT PINOCHET'S REACTION TO THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT HAD BEEN VERY MODERATE, IN TERMS OF WHAT COULD HAVE HAPPENED. HE SAID THAT ONLY TWENTY PEOPLE HAD BEEN DETAINED IN SANTIAGO UNDER THE SPECIAL STATE OF SIEGE POWERS AND ONLY FIVE DAYS AFTER THE ATTACK THE ELECTORAL REGISTRY LAW WAS PROMULGATED. THE STATE OF SIEGE HAD ALREADY BEEN LIFTED IN ONE OF CHILE'S THIRTEEN

COULD BE DEVELOPED THAT WOULD SHOW PROGRESS WAS BEING MADE ON THE TRANSITION.

14. WALLIS RESPONDED THAT HE HAD NOT SUGGESTED THAT CHILE MIGHT NOT OBTAIN THE SAL; RATHER, HE HAD ASKED ABOUT PROSPECTS FOR POSTPONING ITS CONSIDERATION. HE OBSERVED THAT AMB. ERRAZURIZ' COMMENTS SUGGESTED THAT POSPONEMENT MIGHT IN FACT BE A VERY GOOD COURSE, SINCE BY EARLY 1987 THERE MIGHT BE A MUCH BETTER CLIMATE IN CHILE AND DIFFERENT CIRCUMSTANCES HERE. HE ONLY WISHED TO SUGGEST THAT THE GOC SEPARATE WHAT WAS DESIRED FROM WHAT WAS REALISTIC. IN MAKING THEIR DECISION ON WHAT TO DO, HE URGED THAT THE GOC BALANCE THE NEGATIVE ASPECTS OF POSTPONMENT AGAINST THE UNCERTAINTIES AND NEGATIVE ASPECTS OF MOVING AHEAD IN THE CURRENT CLIMATE. HE COMMENTED THAT WERE THE SAL NOT TO GO THROUGH, IT WOULD BE MUCH BETTER IF THAT OCCURED ON THE GOC'S INITIATIVE, RATHER THAN ON THE BANK'S INITIATIVE.

15. BUCHI INDICATED THAT HE UNDERSTOOD THE POINT, ADDING THAT IT WAS HIS RESPONSIBILITY TO DECIDE WHAT TO DO. BOTH HE AND ERRAZURIZ REITERATED, HOWEVER, THAT POSTPONEMENT IN THEIR VIEW WAS NOT FEASIBLE. THE MEETING ENDED WITH WALLIS EXPRESSING INTEREST IN MEETING AGAIN WITH BUCHI DURING FUTURE VISITS TO WASHINGTON.

16. PARTICIPATING IN THE MEETING FOR CHILE WERE: MINISTER BUCHI AND AMB. ERRAZURIZ; FOR THE U.S., MR. WALLIS; CHARLES RIES (E); LARRY BENEDICT (EB/ODF); PETER WHITNEY (ARA/ECP); JIM SWIGERT (ARA/SC-NOTETAKER).

SUBJ: RECENT POLL REITERATES CHILEAN POPULACE PREOCCUPATION WITH ECONOMIC CONCERNS

REF: SANTIAGO 3356

1. (U) SUMMARY: PRELIMINARY FINDINGS OF A PUBLIC OPINION POLL, AS PUBLISHED IN A SANTIAGO NEWSPAPER, SHOW STRONG SUPPORT FOR THE POLITICAL CENTER, A REJECTION OF EXTREMISM, AND A PREOCCUPATION WITH ECONOMIC AFFAIRS OVER POLITICAL MATTERS. THIS SUBSTANTIATES THE FINDINGS OF A PREVIOUS POLL CONDUCTED IN DECEMBER, 1985. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) THE OCTOBER 5 EDITION OF CONSERVATIVE SANTIAGO DAILY "EL MERCURIO" PUBLISHED PRELIMINARY FINDINGS FROM A PUBLIC OPINION SURVEY CONDUCTED BY THE CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF CONTEMPORARY REALITY (CERC), UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE ACADEMY FOR CHRISTIAN HUMANISM. THE STUDY, FUNDED BY THE FORD FOUNDATION, WAS CARRIED OUT IN THE GREATER SANTIAGO AREA IN JUNE, 1986. THIS TIME FRAME WAS CHOSEN SINCE IT COINCIDED WITH THE WORLD CUP IN MEXICO, WITH A RESULTANT LOWERING OF POLITICAL ACTIVITY AND POLITICAL PASSIONS IN SANTIAGO. ACCORDING TO PROJECT DIRECTOR CARLOS HUNEEUS, THE POLL DUPLICATED A SERIES OF STUDIES THAT HAD BEEN CONDUCTED BETWEEN 1957 AND 1973. HUNEEUS EMPHASIZED THAT THE POLL SHOWED LITTLE CHANGE IN PUBLIC OPINION, IN SPITE OF A SIGNIFICANT BREAK WITH CHILE'S POLITICAL TRADITIONS AND TWO SEVERE ECONOMIC CRISES SINCE THE LAST STUDY IN 1973. THE "EL MERCURIO" ARTICLE PRESENTED ONLY A FEW OF THE STUDY'S FINDINGS SINCE THE FULL REPORT HAS NOT BEEN RELEASED. SOME OF THE MORE INTERESTING RESULTS FOLLOW.

3. (U) EXTREME ANTI-GOVERNMENT ACTIVITIES WERE REJECTED BY THE VAST MAJORITY OF THOSE POLLED. 7.6 PERCENT EXPRESSED SUPPORT FOR POWER OUTAGES, 2.2 PERCENT SUPPORTED THE PLACING OF BOMBS, 12.9 PERCENT WERE IN FAVOR OF THE OCCUPATION OF SCHOOLS OR FACTORIES, AND LESS THAN 13 PERCENT SAID THEY APPROVED OF TRANSPORTATION BLOCKAGES. AS FOR MORE CONVENTIONAL METHODS OF PROTEST, THE STUDY REVEALED THAT APPROVAL/REJECTION OF SUCH TACTICS AS MARCHES, CONCENTRATIONS, POT-BANGING, AND STRIKES WAS APPROXIMATELY 50-50. ON THE OTHER SIDE, RESPONDENTS SHOWED LITTLE SUPPORT FOR EXTREME GOVERNMENT ACTIONS TO COMBAT TERRORISM AND SUBVERSION. BY A 7 TO 1 MARGIN, THE RESPONDENTS REJECTED THE GOVERNMENT'S USE OF EXILE. THE IMPLEMENTATION OF A STATE OF SIEGE WAS OPPOSED BY A MARGIN OF 2-1/2 TO 1 (THE POLL WAS CONDUCTED BEFORE THE DECLARATION OF THE CURRENT STATE OF SIEGE). THE GOVERNMENT PRACTICE OF CONDUCTING MILITARY SWEEPS OF POOR NEIGHBORHOODS WAS OPPOSED BY UNCLASSIFIED

A SIMILAR 2-1/2 TO 1 MARGIN. LESS EXTREME GOVERNMENT TACTICS WERE ALSO REJECTED. WHILE CLOSE TO HALF THOSE QUESTIONED SUPPORTED A CURFEW, ONLY 10 PERCENT SUPPORTED PRESS CENSORSHIP AND 24.3 PERCENT FAVORED THE DETENTION OF THOSE INVOLVED IN PROTESTS.

4. (U) THE POLL WOULD INDICATE THAT THE OVERRIDING

PREOCCUPATION OF THE CITIZENS OF SANTIAGO IS THE ECONOMIC SITUATION. TWO-THIRDS OF THOSE PARTICIPATING MENTIONED SUCH PROBLEMS AS UNEMPLOYMENT, THE COST OF LIVING, AND JOB SECURITY AS THEIR MAJOR CONCERN WHILE ONLY 18 PERCENT MENTIONED POLITICAL PROBLEMS SUCH AS THE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY, VIOLENCE, OR TERRORISM. IN EXPRESSING A POLITICAL PREFERENCE BY ASSIGNING THEMSELVES A NUMBER ON A LEFT-RIGHT SPECTRUM FROM 1 TO 10, ALMOST 40 PERCENT CHOSE THE CENTER (NUMBER 5). SLIGHTLY MORE RESPONDENTS CHOSE RIGHT-OF-CENTER OVER LEFT-OF-CENTER.

5. (U) COMMENT: THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THE "EL MERCURIO" ARTICLE IS SOMEWHAT SKETCHY. HOWEVER, IT WOULD SEEM TO RECONFIRM WHAT PREVIOUS POLLS HAVE SHOWN (SEE REFTEL ON FLACSO POLL OF DEC. 1985), THAT THE CHILEAN CENTER IS STRONG AND THAT THE OVERWHELMING PREOCCUPATION OF THE POPULACE IS ECONOMIC RATHER THAN POLITICAL.

1. THE FOLLOWING IS AN UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION OF A LETTER RECEIVED OCTOBER 7 FROM THE SOCIALIST PARTY OF CHILE. BEGIN QUOTE

MR. CHARGE D'AFFAIRES:

IN THE NAME OF THE SOCIALIST PARTY OF CHILE AND IN THAT OF THOSE WHO SIGN BELOW, WE DUTIFULLY EXPRESS OUR GREATEST THANKS FOR YOUR ACTIVE CONCERN AND SOLIDARITY OVER THE UNJUST INCARCERATION OF ONE OF THE LEADERS OF OUR ORGANIZATION, RICARDO LAGOS. THE MEASURES TAKEN BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND YOUR EMBASSY WERE OF GREAT IMPORTANCE IN OBTAINING HIS FREEDOM.

THE AMPLE AND DIVERSE SUPPORT WE RECEIVED, AS MUCH HERE AS INTERNATIONALLY, ARE THE BEST TESTAMENT TO THE UNDERSTANDING THAT EXISTS FOR OUR EFFORTS TO FIND A POLITICAL SOLUTION TO THE GRAVE NATIONAL CRISIS, AS THIS REPRESENTS THE ONLY OPTION THAT REFLECTS THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COUNTRY AND THE WISHES OF THE IMMENSE MAJORITY OF CHILEANS. THOSE WHO SUPPORT A LOGIC OF CONFRONTATION AND WAR ARE EXTREME SECTORS, ON OPPOSITE SIDES, AND ARE AN OBVIOUS MINORITY. THEIR ATTITUDE CAN ONLY COMPROMISE THE FUTURE OF THE CHILEAN NATION.

ALLOW US, MR. CHARGE, TO ASK THAT YOU PASS ON TO YOUR GOVERNMENT AND TO THE DIFFERENT AMERICAN PERSONALITIES AND ORGANIZATIONS THE HIGHEST REGARDS AND THANKS OF ALL THE SOCIALIST LEADERS AND MILITANTS FOR THE SOLIDARITY THEY EXPRESSED TO US DURING THE RECENT OCCURANCES. THIS COMMITS US TO INTENSIFY OUR EFFORTS TO OBTAIN DEMOCRACY AND LIBERTY IN THIS COUNTRY.

WE TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS OPPORTUNITY TO EXPRESS TO YOU OUR HIGHEST ESTEEM.

SINCERELY,

THERE IS THE OPPORTUNITY TO SEE HIM A FEW FEET AWAY AT THE TE DEUM IN SANTIAGO CATHEDRAL ON INDEPENDENCE DAY, SEPTEMBER 18. AND MOST IMPORTANTLY, THERE IS THE ANNUAL COURTESY CALL BY THE COMMANDER OF UNITAS, MADE THIS YEAR ON SEPTEMBER 24. THIS TELEGRAM ATTEMPTS TO DRAW SOME CONCLUSIONS FROM THESE OBSERVATIONS.

ON THE COVER OF THE INTERNATIONAL EDITIONS OF NEWSWEEK AND TIME. THE HAIR, THE EYEBROWS AND THE MUSTACHE ARE MOSTLY WHITE. HE LOOKS HEALTHY, BUT IF ANYTHING OLDER THAN HIS 70 YEARS. HE IS STILL WATCHING HIS DIET; AT THE LUNCHEON HIS AIDES ARRANGED FOR FRESH FRUIT INSTEAD OF ICE CREAM, AND BROUGHT ALONG A SPECIAL DECANTER WITH WHAT APPEARED TO BE APPLE JUICE, WHICH HE DRANK INSTEAD OF THE UBIQUITOUS CHILEAN WINE. HIS MOVEMENTS ARE STATELY. DESPITE SEVERAL MOMENTS OF INTENSE EMOTION, THE SEPTEMBER 11 SPEECH SEEMED LESS VIGOROUS THAN LAST YEAR'S. HIS CONVERSATION, DURING BOTH THE LUNCHEON AND THE COURTESY CALL, WAS VERY LOW-KEY IN VOLUME, TONE AND STYLE, EVEN WHEN DISCUSSING (AS HE DID ON BOTH OCCASIONS) THE ATTEMPT ON HIS LIFE. HE SEEMED DETACHED, ALMOST BEMUSED BY THE FAILURE OF SO MANY BULLETS AND ROCKETS TO REACH THEIR TARGET.

4. IN HIS MEETING WITH THE AMBASSADOR IN AUGUST (REF A). PINOCHET SAID "HELMS" WHEN HE MEANT "SHULTZ." THE AMBASSADOR ALSO NOTED THAT THERE WERE "SEVERAL TIMES WHEN PINOCHET SEEMED TO BE SEARCHING FOR A WORD AND TAKIN A LITTLE LONGER THAN USUAL TO FIND IT." THAT WAS NOT NOTICEABLE IN THE SEPTEMBER 24 MEETING (REF B), BUT PINOCHET TWICE SAID M-19'S WHEN HE MEANT M-16'S, A CURIOUS MISTAKE FOR AN INFANTRYMAN. THE SECOND TIME HE GAVE THE KIND OF EMBARRASSED EXPLANATION THAT AN ELDERLY PERSON GIVES WHEN THE TONGUE DOES NOT OBEY THE MIND.

RESPECTS HIM IN LITTLE ELSE, CONTINUES TO RESPECT AND FEAR HIM AS A FORMIDABLE OPPONENT. HE IS ALERT AND FORCEFUL IN CONVERSATION, AND, ALTHOUGH WE DID NOT SEE IT IN SEPTEMBER, WE SUSPECT HE IS STILL CAPABLE OF INTIMIDATING A VISITOR WITH THE INTENSITY OF HIS REAL OR APPARENT ANGER.

6. PINOCHET HAS, HOWEVER, LONG BEEN FIXATED ON EXTREMELY SIMPLISTIC AND RIGID IDEAS ABOUT BOTH LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL POLITICS. WITH AGE CLEARLY CREEPING UP ON HIM, IT BECOMES INCREASINGLY UNLIKELY THAT ANYONE OR ANY EVENT WILL BE ABLE TO SHAKE HIS VIEW. HE WILL CONTINUE, IN BEST MILITARY FASHION, TO SEEK TOTAL VICTORY AGAINST ABSOLUTELY UNACCEPTABLE OPPONENTS AND OPPOSING IDEAS.

7. HIS GENERALS AND HIS AIDES OF COURSE SEE HIM MUCH MORE OFTEN THAN THESE FEW SEPTEMBER GLIMPSES. ONE WONDERS WHETHER, IF NOT THE RIGIDITY (WHICH MANY OF THEM SHARE), THEN PERHAPS THE EVIDENT AGING MAY EVENTUALLY CAUSE THEM TO QUESTION THE WISDOM OF SWEARING THE GENERAL IN FOR ANOTHER EIGHT YEARS, TO END WHEN HE IS 81. SUBJECT: ASSISTANT SECRETARY ABRAMS' SEPTEMBER 25 MEETING WITH ARGENTINE FOREIGN MINISTER CAPUTO

1. SUMMARY: ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS ELLIOTT ABRAMS AND DAS ROBERT GELBARD MET WITH ARGENTINE FOREIGN MINISTER CAPUTO AT THE ARGENTINE MISSION TO THE UN ON SEPTEMBER 25. A WIDE RANGE OF TOPICS WAS COVERED, THOUGH MUCH OF THE MEETING FOCUSED ON CHILE. CAPUTO DESCRIBED THE GOA AS DEEPLY DISTURBED BY EVENTS IN CHILE. CAPUTO REVEALED TO ABRAMS THAT FIDEL CASTRO HAD TOLD PRESIDENT ALFONSIN AND HIM IN HARARE DURING THE NAM SUMMIT THAT CUBA HAD INDEED PROVIDED THE HUGE AMOUNT OF ARMS TO CHILEAN TERRORISTS WHICH WERE RECENTLY DISCOVERED IN CLANDESTINE LOCATIONS. ALFONSIN INTENDS TO TAKE THIS UP PERSONALLY WITH CASTRO ON HIS RETURN FROM MOSCOW. THE ARGENTINES ALSO REMAIN

CAUTIOUS ON USING ECONOMIC PRESSURE AGAINST SANTIAGO. ON PARAGUAY, CAPUTO REVEALED THAT THE GOA HAS DAMNING EVIDENCE OF INVOLVEMENT IN NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING BY THE GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY IN PARAGUAY. THE GOA PLANS TO SHARE THIS INFORMATION WITH US AND SEEK SUGGESTIONS ON

STEPS TO SUPPRESS THE TRAFFICKING. ON CENTRAL AMERICA, CAPUTO AND ABRAMS DISAGREED OVER THE PROSPECTS AND MAKE-UP OF THE CONTRAS. THE GOA BELIEVES THAT ECONOMIC INCENTIVES CAN MOVE THE SANDINISTAS, A POINT ABRAMS LABELLED AS NAIVE. THE SITUATIONS IN PERU, MEXICO AND BOLIVIA WERE ALSO BRIEFLY TOUCHED UPON, WITH BROAD AGREEMENT OVER THE NEED TO AID BOLIVIA. END SUMMARY

2. CAPUTO AND ABRAMS MET ON SEPTEMBER 25 IN NEW YORK FOR APPROXIMATELY 75 MINUTES. THE DISCUSSION WAS BOTH FRANK AND AMICABLE. IN ADDITION TO ABRAMS AND CAPUTO, ARA DAS ROBERT GELBARD AND ARA/SC REGIONAL OFFICER LEN KUSNITZ (NOTETAKER) ATTENDED THE MEETING AT THE ARGENTINE UN MISSION. CAPUTO CHOSE TO SEE ABRAMS WITHOUT ANY ARGENTINE MISSION PERSONNEL, APPARENTLY DUE TO THE SENSITIVITY OF SOME OF HIS COMMENTS.

3. THE INITIAL TOPIC OF DISCUSSION WAS PERU. CAPUTO EXPRESSED CONCERN OVER THE STABILITY OF THE GARCIA REGIME AND THE ECONOMIC POLICIES LIMA IS FOLLOWING. ABRAMS OPINED THAT PERU IS LOOKING FOR A CONFRONTATION ON ITS DEBT AND WAS NOT LIKELY TO BE DISAPPOINTED. GELBARD ADDED THAT EXCEPT FOR THE ECONOMIC AREA, WE HAVE NOTICED AN INCREASED STRAIN OF PRAGMATISM RUNNING THROUGH LIMA'S POLICIES. THIS HAS LED TO FRUITFUL COOPERATION IN COMBATTING TERRORISM AND DRUG TRAFFICKING.

4. THE MEETING THEN TURNED TO CHILE, CAPUTO STRESSING THE SENSITIVITY OF HIS REMARKS. WHILE AT THE NAM SUMMIT IN HARARE, CAPUTO SAID, FIDEL CASTRO HAD ADMITTED TO ARGENTINE PRESIDENT ALFONSIN THAT CUBA HAD INDEED PROVIDED THE HUGE AMOUNT OF ARMS TO CHILEAN TERRORISTS WHICH WERE RECENTLY DISCOVERED IN CLANDESTINE LOCATIONS. ALFONSIN HAD BEEN VERY WORRIED ABOUT THE SITUATION IN CHILE AND THIS ONLY ADDED TO HIS CONCERN. ACCORDING TO CAPUTO, ALFONSIN TOLD CASTRO THAT PROVIDING ARMS TO CHILEAN TERRORISTS WAS DANGEROUS AND DESTABILIZING -- A DEFINITE THREAT TO THE SECURITY OF ARGENTINA. CAPUTO ALSO SAID THAT PRESIDENT ALFONSIN INTENDED TO EXPRESS HIS DEEP CONCERN TO CASTRO AGAIN PERSONALLY IN HAVANA DURING HIS STOP-OVER VISIT ON THE RETURN LEG OF HIS UPCOMING MOSCOW VISIT. IN FACT, CAPUTO SAID, THIS WAS THE PURPOSE OF THE HAVANA STOP: TO "TELL CASTRO TO STAY OUT OF CHILE." BUENOS AIRES, THE ARGENTINE FOREIGN MINISTER CONTINUED, ALSO SUSPECTED CUBAN INVOLVEMENT IN SOME FACET (E.G., TRAINING) OF THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT ON PINOCHET. HOW ELSE COULD THE OPERATION HAVE BEEN SO PROFESSIONALLY CARRIED OUT, CAPUTO WONDERED ALOUD.

5. THE GOA, CAPUTO STATED, WANTED CHILE TO HAVE A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY. THE KEY WAS EITHER FOR PINOCHET TO GO NOW, OR MAKE CLEAR WHEN HE INTENDED TO LEAVE. CAPUTO, HOWEVER, WAS PESSIMISTIC ON THIS ACCOUNT. IT WAS DIFFICULT TO SEE HOW ANOTHER YEAR LIKE THIS ONE COULD AID THE CAUSE OF CHILEAN DEMOCRACY, HE ADDED. ABRAMS, GELBARD AND CAPUTO WERE IN AGREEMENT ON THE NEED TO REVERSE THE DEEPENING POLARIZATION IN CHILE, WHICH ONLY PLAYED INTO THE HANDS OF THE EXTREME LEFT AND PINOCHET TO THE DETRIMENT OF THE DEMOCRATIC CENTER. GELBARD SUGGESTED THAT PART OF THE BLAME FOR SLOW MOVEMENT TOWARD A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION LAY WITH THE LEADERSHIP OF THE CHILEAN CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY. CAPUTO LISTENED ATTENTIVELY, ASKING WHAT THE US THOUGHT

OF PDCLEFTIST LEADER TOMIC. ABRAMS SAID WE DID NOT CONSIDER TOMIC TO BE A VIABLE OR TRUSTWORTHY LEADER OF THE PDC. ABRAMS ALSO NOTED THAT VALDES MIGHT EVENTUALLY BE REPLACED BY MORE MODERATE POLITICIANS.

6. ON THE QUESTION OF MDB LOANS TO CHILE, CAPUTO WAS CAUTIOUS. THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY POINTED OUT THAT WE DON'T WANT TO HARM CHILE'S ECONOMY. NOR DO WE WANT TO CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE LOANS AND GIVE PINOCHET NATIONALISTIC AMMUNITION TO BUILD HIS DOMESTIC BASE OF SUPPORT. CAPUTO SAID NEITHER HE NOR ALFONSIN WANT TO USE

ECONOMIC PRESSURE AGAINST SANTIAGO, THOUGH THEY ARE RECONSIDERING THEIR POSITION IN LIGHT OF RECENT EVENTS.

7. THE CONVERSATION THEN MOVED ON TO PARAGUAY, WITH CAPUTO AGAIN STRESSING THE SENSITIVITY OF HIS REMARKS. THE GOA, CAPUTO SAID, HAD UNCOVERED AN IMPORTANT NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING CHANNEL ORIGINATING IN PARAGUAY AND PASSING THROUGH ARGENTINA. THE PARAGUAYAN GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY WERE DIRECTLY IMPLICATED IN THIS MOVEMENT OF DRUGS. THE GOA PLANNED TO SHARE THIS INFORMATION WITH US AND SEEK SUGGESTIONS ON THE STEPS NECESSARY TO SUPPRESS IT. ABRAMS NOTED THAT WE HAD SIMILAR INFORMATION, SOME OF WHICH IMPLICATES PARAGUAYAN ARMY GENERAL RODRIGUEZ.

8. BOLIVIA WAS ALSO DISCUSSED. ABRAMS AND CAPUTO AGREED ON THE NEED TO CONTINUE HELPING LA PAZ. GELBARD BRIEFLY DESCRIBED THE CURRENT STATE OF PLAY WITH OPERATION BLAST FURNANCE AND THE FACT THE THE USG WOULD SHORTLY TURN OVER SIX HELICOPTERS FOR NARCOTICS INTERDICTION TO THE BOLIVIANS. OUR CURRENT PROGRAM, GELBARD ADDED, WOULD END IN MIDNOVEMBER WHEN THE RAINY SEASON ARRIVED IN BOLIVIA. ABRAMS ALSO INFORMED CAPUTO THAT BRAZIL'S

PRESIDENT SARNEY HAD EXPRESSED HIS APPRECIATION OF THE NEED TO AID THE PAZ ESTENSSORO GOVERNMENT. IN THIS VEIN, BRAZIL WAS EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES OF BUYING BOLIVIAN GAS. CAPUTO, NOTING ARGENTINA DOES NOT NEED THE GAS IT BUYS FROM BOLIVIA, TERMED THIS TREMENDOUS PROGRESS.

9. ON MEXICO, CAPUTO ASKED ABOUT WHAT SEEMED TO HIM A CAMPAIGN OF CRITICISM AGAINST THE DE LA MADRID GOVERNMENT. ABRAMS CORRECTED THIS IMPRESSION, SAYING THE RECENT VISIT TO THE US OF THE MEXICAN PRESIDENT WENT WELL. THE INCREASED PUBLIC PROFILE OF OUR COMMENTS ON MEXICO SIMPLY REFLECTS A GROWING AWARENESS OF MEXICO'S IMPORTANCE TO THE US.

10. ABRAMS THEN INTRODUCED THE SUBJECT OF CENTRAL AMERICA. CAPUTO CLEARLY DID NOT RELISH DISCUSSING THIS SUBJECT. HE STRESSED THAT CARE MUST BE TAKEN LEST THE

WAR IN NICARAGUA SPILL INTO THE REST OF LATIN AMERICA. CAPUTO BLUNTLY SAID IT IS HIS VIEW THAT THE CONTRAS ARE MERCENARIES AND CANNOT WIN AND THAT THE BEST TRACK WAS TO OFFER ECONOMIC INCENTIVES TO MANAGUA TO MOVE TOWARD DEMOCRACY AND CUT ITS TIES TO THE EASTERN BLOC. THE GOA WOULD PUSH THIS VIEW IN ITS TALKS WITH OTHER COUNTRIES INVOLVED IN THE CONTADORA PROCESS. ABRAMS RESPONDED THAT THE USG DID NOT SHARE CAPUTO'S ASSESSMENT OF EITHER THE CONTRAS MAKEUP OR PROSPECTS. HE SUGGESTED THAT THE GOA FIRST MEET WITH THE CONTRA LEADERS BEFORE CRITICIZING THEM. CAPUTO SHOOK HIS HEAD SAYING, "YOU ARE SO INTELLIGENT AND SO NAIVE AT THE SAME TIME ON SOME THINGS." ABRAMS RESPONDED THAT THE GOA IS NAIVE IF IT BELIEVED A COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT COULD BE REMOVED THROUGH PURELY ECONOMIC INCENTIVES. SHULTZ

Señor Encargado de Negocios:

En nombre del Partido Socialista de Chile y en el de los abajo firmantes, cumplimos con el deber de expresar el mayor agradecimiento por la activa preocupación y la solidaridad entregadas a raíz del injusto encarcelamiento del dirigente de nuestra organización, Ricardo Lagos. Las iniciativas adoptadas por el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos y esa Embajada, constituyeron un factor de extraordinaria importancia para lograr su liberación.

La amplitud y diversidad del apoyo recibido, tanto interno como internacional, son el mejor testimonio de comprensión del accionar en que estamos empeñados por alcanzar una solución política para la grave crisis nacional, en cuanto representa la única opción que responde a los intereses superiores del país y a la aspiración de la inmensa mayoría de los chilenos. Son sectores extremos, de signos opuestos, y evidentemente minoritarios, los que pugnan por imponer una lógica de confrontación y guerra, la cual sólo puede llegar a comprometer el futuro de Chile como nación.

Permítanos, señor Encargado de Negocios, solicitarle tenga a bien transmitir a su Gobierno, así como a las distintas personalidades y organizaciones estadounidenses de diversa naturaleza, el reconocimiento de todos los dirigentes y militantes socialistas por las expresiones solidarias que nos hicieron llegar ante los últimos acontecimientos. Ello nos compromete a intensificar los esfuerzos por conquistar la democracia y la libertad en este país.

Hacemos propicia la oportunidad para manifestarle nuestra más distinguida consideración.

FOR LAGUNA VERDE, AS AMENDED (INFCIRC/203 AND /203/ADD.1), AND THE DOE/MEXICO ENRICHMENT CONTRACT.

3. DOE ENRICHMENT HAS READ LETTER FROM CUEVAS CANCINA AND MEXICAN RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING FEDERAL ELECTRICITY COMMISSION TO USE IMPORTED MATERIAL FOR CONVERSION TO

NUCLEAR FUEL, ETC. AND JUDGED THAT THEY DO NOT CONTAIN ENOUGH INFORMATION TO PERMIT DOE TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE MATERIAL IN SPAIN MEETS DOE'S CRITERIA FOR ACCEPTANCE UNDER MEXICO'S ENRICHMENT CONTRACT WITH DOE. DOE CONCURRENCE IN THE PROPOSAL IS NECESSARILY CONTINGENT UPON SATISFACTION OF THOSE CRITERIA WITH WHICH MEXICAN NUCLEAR AUTHORITIES SHOULD BE FAMILIAR. (FYI: THE MATERIAL BASICALLY HAS TO BE #NATURAL FEED" MATERIAL AND NEVER ENRICHED.)

4. DEPARTMENT NOTES THAT LETTER FROM MEXICAN RESREP CUEVAS CANCINA (NO. 1508; 433.5'391.8(CNLV)'86) TO AGENCY DG BLIX INDICATES MEXICAN DESIRE TO RECOVER ENRICHMENT TAILS MATERIAL. USG HAS NO OBJECTION TO SUCH A PROCEDURE. WE BELIEVE, HOWEVER, THAT MEXICAN LETTER IS MISTAKEN INSOFAR AS IT ASSUMES THAT PROVIDING FOR THE RECOVERY OF TAILS MATERIAL NEEDS TO BE "EXPRESSLY INCLUDED" IN THE LAGUNA VERDE TRILATERAL PROJECT AND SUPPLY AGREEMENT. WE CONSIDER THAT ADHERENCE TO THE "WRITTEN NOTICE" PROCEDURE ANTICIPATED BY THE ENRICHMENT CONTRACT WOULD BE ADEQUATE, WOULD AVOID ANY AMENDMENT OF THE PROJECT AND SUPPLY AGREEMENT AND SO ACHIEVE OUR MUTUAL GOAL OF NOT HAVING THE TRANSACTION REQUIRE BOARD APPROVAL.

5. (FYI: AS LONG AS THE LAGUNA VERDE PROJECT AND SUPPLY AGREEMENT IS NOT REPEAT NOT AMENDED, USG WILL BE ABLE TO PERMIT TRANSACTION WITHOUT ASKING FOR ADDITIONAL COMMITMENTS. HOWEVER, IF THE GOM WERE TO INSIST ON AMENDING THE P&S AGREEMENT ON THE ISSUE OF TAILS MATERIAL, THE USG WOULD HAVE TO INSIST ON AN EXCHANGE OF NOTES CONFORMING TO THE SECOND AMENDMENT TO THE U.S./IAEA COOPERATION AGREEMENT. AS UNVIE IS AWARE, GOM IS VERY SENSITIVE ON THIS. END FYI.) WHITEHEAD

3. EMBASSY ARRANGED OCTOBER 12 FOR DEA AGENT CASTILLO TO INTERVIEW THE TWO CREWMEMBERS WHO WERE CAPTURED OCTOBER 8. NO ONE ELSE WAS PRESENT FOR THE DISCUSSION, WHICH WAS HELD IN THE PRISONERS' PENITENTIARY CELL. THE AIRPLANE'S PILOT, FRANCISCO RUBIANO, DID MOST OF THE TALKING. HE TOLD CASTILLO THAT THE PLANE, BELONGING TO A MR. RODRIGUEZ, FLEW FROM CALI TO A CLANDESTINE AIRSTRIP IN LA CAUCA, COLOMBIA TO PICK UP ITS LOAD OF COCAINE. IT THEN DEPARTED FOR ANOTHER CLANDESTINE AIRSTRIP TO THE SOUTH OF LA CEIBA, HONDURAS WHERE THE LOAD WAS TO BE DELIVERED TO A MR. BARBAS. RUBIANO SAID THAT PREARRANGEMENTS HAD BEEN MADE WITH NICARAGUAN OFFICIALS HE WOULD NOT IDENTIFY TO ALLOW THE PLANE AN UNMOLESTED OVERFLIGHT ONCE THE CRAFT IDENTIFIED ITSELF WITH A SPECIAL CALLSIGN (WHICH HE WOULD NOT REVEAL). THE PILOT CLAIMED THAT HE DID NOT REFUEL IN NICARAGUA. HE SAYS HE LEFT LA CAUCA WITH 480 GALLONS OF FUEL, AND HAD 300 POUNDS IN HIS LEFT WING WHEN HE LANDED; HIS RIGHT WING WAS PUNCTURED BY HAF INTERCEPTORS' FIRE, EMPTYING THE TANK. RUBIANO DID NOT SAY HOW MUCH IT HELD WHEN IT WAS HIT.

4. AGENT CASTILLO HAS THE IMPRESSION THAT HE CAN GET MORE INFORMATION FROM THE TWO CREWMEMBERS IF HE CAN INTERVIEW THEM OUTSIDE OF THE PENITENTIARY AND SEPARATELY. THIS REQUIRES A COURT ORDER. ATTORNEY GENERAL ZEPEDA HAS PROMISED TO COOPERATE WITH US. INDEED, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL WANTS TO TRANSFER THE PRISONERS TO A MILITARY BASE SINCE THE PENITENTIARY AUTHORITIES HAVE BEEN BOUGHT OFF BY DRUG KING MATTA BALLESTEROS -- A RESIDENT OF THE JAIL. WE HOPE THE INTERVIEW WILL TAKE PLACE BY MIDWEEK.

5. AGENT CASTILLO WISHES TO KEEP HIS INFORMATION ON THE NICARAGUAN CONNECTION CONFIDENTIAL UNTIL HE CAN ROUND IT OUT. OUR IMPRESSION FROM GOH CONTACTS IS THAT THEY HAVE NO MORE INFORMATION THAN WE DO ON THE MATTER. AS NOTED REFTEL, WE WILL ENCOURAGE THEM TO FULLY DEVELOP THIS ANGLE OF THE INVESTIGATION.

EXCISE

Dear Senator Bentsen:

We have received your letter of October 2, 1986 requesting information regarding the recent detentions in Chile of Father Henehan and Father Cambias, two Maryknoll priests. You also requested information on Jose Luis Aguilar, a religious lay worker based in Chile. Fathers Cambias and Henehan are US citizens; Mr. Aguilar is a Mexican citizen with US residency. Your inquiry was on behalf of your constituent.

You will be pleased to learn that Fathers Henehan and Cambias were released shortly after being detained. While in detention they were visited by an American Embassy consular officer. Mr. Aguilar, detained September 8, was released September 13.

Our Embassy in Santiago has also been in touch with Chilean authorities concerning Father Henehan's and Father Cambias' visa problems. Currently, both are residing in Chile on temporary visas. We will continue to monitor this situation.

If we can be of any further assistance to your office in this matter please do not hesitate to contact us.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

J. Edward Fox

EXCISE

Dear Mr. Kramer:

We have received your letter of September 30, 1986 inquiring into the welfare of Dr. Juan Luis Gonzalez and Francisco Rivas, two Chileans detained in Santiago in early July. Your inquiry was on behalf of your constituent.

Drs. Gonzalez and Rivas and others were charged with violating state security laws due to their role in organizing the July 2-3 general strike. They are all leaders of the opposition Civic Assembly organization. On July 16, a civilian court formally indicted them. On August 18, Drs. Rivas and Gonzalez were released on bail.

Our Embassy in Santiago is closely monitoring the cases of Drs. Gonzalez and Rivas. We have been in touch with local human rights groups and have received no indication of mistreatment in these cases. We have publicly made clear that we expect Chilean authorities to provide those charged with protections of due process.

I hope the foregoing has been of value to you.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

J. Edward Fox

INFORMATION MEMORANDUM

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ S/S 10/20

TO: The Secretary

FROM: ECA - Philip C. Habib

SUBJECT: Status of the Central American Peace Process

The Contadora countries have failed to follow up on their activities in late September on the margins of the UNGA in New York. It is clear that they have not discovered a formula for moving the peace process to its next stage, a stage that would necessarily include meeting the objections of the Central American democracies to the June draft agreement. At the present time, Nicaragua is unwilling to make the compromises necessary to make its position acceptable to the democracies, and the Contadora countries are not prepared to put pressure on the Sandinistas.

The October 1 Contadora declaration (inspired by Mexico) was openly biased in favor of Nicaragua. Costa Rica, El Salvador, and Honduras were understandably irritated by the Contadora countries' failure to consult with them during the week-long deliberations preceding the declaration. The Contadora countries' behavior has reinforced the Central Americans suspicions of Mexican domination of the Contadora process. The democracies are fully prepared to resist Contadora pressure to accept anything short of a good agreement, one which coincides with our essential criteria: comprehensive, verifiable, and simultaneous.

For the time being, there may well be some public relations-oriented activities by Nicaragua and the Contadora countries at the UN. Also, I take literally what the Contadora countries told me in New York about holding ad-hoc meetings on the peace process whenever an opportunity presents itself, such as the SELA meeting in Lima and next month's OASGA in Guatemala. Nevertheless, the peace process itself is essentially on hold, as everyone awaits the results of our aid to the Nicaraguan democratic resistance. It will be several months before the impact of our aid is felt on the battlefield, and it is unlikely that there will be any change in the positions of either side in the intervening period.

I currently plan to meet with the Presidents of the four Central American democracies in mid-November, thus maintaining our consultation on the issues and demonstrating once again our support for a diplomatic solution. Until that time, I will be in and out of Washington on personal business. I will keep in touch, and if anything comes up which requires my presence, I will change my plans accordingly.

Dear Senator Cranston:

We have received your letter of October 2, 1986 regarding the welfare of Chilean Abraham Muskatblit Eidelstein. Your letter was on behalf of your constituent.

Mr. Muskablit Eidelstein was kidnapped and killed by unknown assailants in Chile on September 12. On September 23, the Santiago Court of Appeals appointed a special investigating judge to look into this case.

We share your constituent's strong concern over this, and three other similar deaths in Chile, during the first half of September. We have publicly and privately made known our concern that those guilty of these murders be brought to justice.

SUBJECT: CHILE: CONSULTATIONS ON MDB LOAN VOTES

REF: STATE 291496

1. ~~CONFIDENTIA~~L - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: DEPARTMENT APPRECIATES EMBASSIES' EFFORTS IN RAISING THE ISSUE OF MDB LOANS TO CHILE. WE UNDERSTAND FULLY THE CONCERNS EXPRESSED BY MANY GOVERNMENTS CONCERNING THE POLITICIZATION OF THE MDBS. WE ARE NOT SEEKING ASSISTANCE TO DEFEAT LOANS TO CHILE, WHICH WE AGREE WOULD HAVE UNCERTAIN POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC EFFECTS THAT COULD VERY WELL BE COUNTERPRODUCTIVE TO OUR GOAL OF ENCOURAGING A PEACEFUL DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION. AFTER CAREFUL REVIEW OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE, HOWEVER, AND TAKING INTO ACCOUNT OUR POLICY CONCERNS AND THE OBLIGATIONS OF U.S. LAW REGARDING HUMAN RIGHTS AND VOTES IN THE MDBS, WE HAVE CONFIDENTIAL

CONCLUDED THAT WE WILL BE UNABLE TO SUPPORT NON-BHN MDB LOANS TO CHILE UNLESS THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION CHANGES SIGNIFICANTLY FOR THE BETTER BEFORE THE NEXT EXECUTIVE

BOARD VOTE. THE NEXT MDB LOAN TO CHILE, A 250 MILLION DOLLAR STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT LOAN (SAL), IS SCHEDULED TO GO TO THE WORLD BANK EXECUTIVE BOARD FOR A VOTE IN LATE NOVEMBER. ABSENT SIGNIFICANT HUMAN RIGHTS IMPROVEMENTS--WHICH WE CONSIDER UNLIKELY OVER THE NEXT FIVE WEEKS--WE PLAN TO ABSTAIN ON THE SAL AND ON SUBSEQUENT NON-BHN MDB LOANS TO CHILE. ACTION ADDRESSEES ARE REQUESTED TO APPROACH HOST GOVERNMENT FINANCE AND

FOREIGN MINISTRIES AS SOON AS POSSIBLE (AS WELL AS OTHER GOVERNMENT ENTITIES AND POLITICAL PARTIES WHICH MIGHT INFLUENCE PARTLY SUCH DECISION), INFORM THEM OF OUR DECISION, AND REQUEST THEIR SUPPORT IN ALSO ABSTAINING ON THE CHILE LOANS IN ORDER TO SEND A STRONG SIGNAL OF JOINT CONCERN TO THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT, WITHOUT JEOPARDIZING APPROVAL OF LOANS. END SUMMARY.

3. THE DEPARTMENT APPRECIATES EMBASSIES' EFFORTS TO RAISE OUR CONCERNS REGARDING CHILE AND THE DILEMMA FACED BY THE U.S. ON VOTES FOR LOANS TO CHILE IN THE MDBS. WE UNDERSTAND THE DESIRE EXPRESSED BY MANY GOVERNMENTS TO AVOID MIXING POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC/TECHNICAL CRITERIA AND ARE NOT REQUESTING SUPPORT TO DEFEAT MDB LOANS TO CHILE. WE FULLY SHARE THE DESIRE EXPRESSED BY THE UK AND OTHERS TO AVOID GIVING PINOCHET A POLITICAL WEAPON THAT COULD BE USED TO EXPLOIT STRONG CHILEAN NATIONALISTIC SENTIMENTS AND STRENGTHEN HIS BASE OF SUPPORT WITHIN THE ARMED FORCES AND CONSERVATIVE SECTORS SUSPICIOUS OF THE FRAGMENTED DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION. WE AGREE THAT PERMANENTLY DEFEATING MDB LOANS WOULD ENTAIL OTHER COUNTERPRODUCTIVE EFFECTS, INCLUDING DAMAGE TO CHILE'S ECONOMY AND POSITIVE FREE MARKET MODEL, WHICH ULTIMATELY COULD BENEFIT CHILE'S STRONG COMMUNIST PARTY.

4. AT THE SAME TIME AFTER A CAREFUL REVIEW OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE, TAKING INTO ACCOUNT U.S. LEGISLATIVE REQUIREMENTS DISCUSSED REFTEL, CONGRESSIONAL OPINION, AND THE ADMINISTRATION'S STRONG POLICY CONCERNS REGARDING HUMAN RIGHTS AND A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION, WE HAVE CONCLUDED THAT WE CANNOT SUPPORT NON-BHN MDB LOANS TO THAT COUNTRY UNLESS SIGNIFICANT HUMAN RIGHTS IMPROVEMENTS TAKE PLACE. WITH THIS IN MIND, WE RAISED WITH GOC OFFICIALS THE POSSIBILITY OF POSTPONING CONSIDERATION OF THE SAL UNTIL EARLY NEXT YEAR, BY WHICH TIME WE HOPE THAT IMPROVEMENTS WOULD BE MADE. IN RESPONSE, THE GOC INDICATED THAT THEY WOULD BE UNWILLING TO MODIFY THE PRESENT TIMETABLE FOR EXECUTIVE BOARD CONSIDERATION OF THE SAL. FYI ONLY WE UNDERSTAND THAT WORLD BANK MANAGEMENT IS ALSO UNWILLING TO CONSIDER DELAY. END FYI.

5. IN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES, WE COULD ONLY VOTE AGAINST OR

ABSTAIN WHEN THE NEXT SERIES OF NON-BHN LOAN TO CHILE COME UP FOR APPROVAL. (EITHER WOULD CONSTITUTE QUOTE OPPOSITION UNQUOTE IN TERMS OF THE LEGISLATIVE HISTORY OF OUR STATUTE.) WE ARE CONCERNED, HOWEVER, THAT IF THE U.S. ACTS ALONE IN OPPOSING THE CHILE LOANS, THIS WILL BE EXPLOITED BY PINOCHET TO RALLY THE TROOPS AROUND HIM, IN THE SAME MANNER HE WOULD USE ACTUAL BLOCKAGE OF LOANS TO PROVOKE A NATIONALISTIC OUTCRY THAT MIGHT SET BACK FURTHER PROSPECTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION.

6. ACTION REQUESTED: ACTION ADDRESSEES ARE REQUESTED TO APPROACH BOTH FINANCE AND FOREIGN MINISTRIES AS WELL AS OTHER APPROPRIATE GOVERNMENT AGENCIES OR POLITICAL PARTIES AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, TO INFORM THEM OF OUR ~~CONFIDENTIA~~L

DECISION AND TO REQUEST THEIR SUPPORT IN ALSO ABSTAINING ON THE CHILE LOANS. (TALKING POINTS IN PARA SEVEN MAY BE LEFT AS A NON-PAPER; ADDITIONAL BACKGROUND ON RELEVANT U.S. LEGISLATION IS CONTAINED IN PARA EIGHT FOR POSTS' BACKGROUND INFORMATION ONLY) YOU SHOULD STRESS TO HOST GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS THAT THE DECISION TO REQUEST OTHER COUNTRIES TO ABSTAIN ON THESE LOANS WAS TAKEN AT THE CABINET LEVEL, REFLECTING THE GREAT CONCERN OF THE USG OVER THE SITUATION IN CHILE, AND OUR DESIRE TO COORDINATE CONSTRUCTIVE ACTIONS WITH OTHER CONCERNED GOVERNMENTS.

7. TALKING POINTS:

-OUR RECENT CONSULTATIONS WITH YOU AND OTHER COUNTRIES ON THE DILEMMA WE FACE ON MDB LOAN VOTES TO CHILE REVEALED CONSIDERABLE CONCERN REGARDING THE SITUATION IN CHILE. AT THE SAME TIME MANY COUNTRIES EXPRESSED RESERVATIONS--WHICH WE SHARE--ABOUT MEASURES LEADING TO POLITICIZATION OF THE MDBS.

"-THE NEXT MDB LOAN TO CHILE EXPECTED TO BE REVIEWED IS A STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT LOAN (SAL) IN THE WORLD BANK. A VOTE IS SCHEDULED FOR LATE NOVEMBER, PROBABLY NOV. 25. OTHERS WILL FOLLOW IN BOTH THE WORLD BANK AND INTERAMERICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK.

"IN VIEW OF THE SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN CHILE, SUCH AS THE PERSISTENCE OF CASES OF TORTURE, AND

THE LACK OF CONCRETE STEPS TOWARD IMPLEMENTING A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION, SUCH AS ALLOWING LEGALIZATION OF POLITICAL PARTIES, OR FREEDOM OF THE PRESS, WE WILL BE UNABLE TO SUPPORT LOANS TO CHILE THAT DO NOT SPECIFICALLY ADDRESS THE BASIC HUMAN NEEDS (BHN) OF THE CHILEAN PEOPLE.

--ABSENT SIGNIFICANT HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS, WHICH WE JUDGE UNLIKELY IN THE NEXT FIVE WEEKS, WE INTEND TO ABSTAIN ON THE SAL. WE HOPE YOUR GOVERNMENT WOULD ABSTAIN AS WELL ON THIS LOAN, AND ON SUBSEQUENT NON-BHN LOANS TO CHILE, UNTIL THERE IS VISIBLE PROGRESS ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION.

--WE DO NOT WANT TO BLOCK PASSAGE OF THE SAL, WHICH IS IMPORTANT TO CHILE'S SUCCESSFUL ECONOMIC PROGRAM. WE STRONGLY SUPPORT CHILE'S FREE MARKET POLICIES AND RESPONSIBLE RECORD ON DEBT MANAGEMENT.

DEFEATING THE SAL WOULD PENALIZE THE CHILEAN PEOPLE FOR THEIR SACRIFICES DURING THE RECENT PERIOD OF ECONOMIC ADJUSTMENT JUST AS THE ECONOMY HAS RESUMED SOLID ECONOMIC GROWTH. DEFEAT OF THE THESE LOANS WOULD ALSO HAVE UNCERTAIN POLITICAL CONSEQUENCES, AND COULD STRENGTHEN POLARIZATION AND BOTH EXTREMES IN CHILE, RATHER THAN FURTHER OUR SHARED GOAL OF HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS AND MOVEMENT TOWARD A PEACEFUL DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION.

--HOWEVER, ABSTENTIONS WOULD NOT JEOPARDIZE PASSAGE OF THE SAL, OR PASSAGE OF OTHER NON-BHN LOANS TO CHILE THAT WILL COME TO A VOTE SUBSEQUENTLY IN THE WORLD BANK AND THE INTER-AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK.

--A GESTURE INVOLVING A LARGE NUMBER OF ABSTENTIONS WOULD SEND AN UNMISTAKABLE SIGN OF INTERNATIONAL CONCERN TO THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT OVER THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE. WE BELIEVE THAT IT IS JUSTIFIED TO SEND SUCH A SIGNAL IN THE MDBS, GIVEN THE CERTAINTY OF NEGATIVE ECONOMIC CONSEQUENCES IF THE CURRENT PROCESS OF POLARIZATION IN CHILE IS ALLOWED TO CONTINUE. IF STEPS CONFIDENTIAL

ARE NOT TAKEN TO PUT IN PLACE AN EFFECTIVE DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION, THEN THE FRUITS OF WHAT APPEAR TO BE SOUND LOANS TODAY WILL BE JEOPARDIZED BY INTENSE POLITICAL CONFLICT. IT IS ONLY PRUDENT FOR THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY TO REGISTER ITS CONCERN NOW OVER THE DISTURBING TREND IN CHILE.

-WE BELIEVE IT IS IMPORTANT THAT THE U.S. NOT ACT IN ISOLATION. A LARGE NUMBER OF ABSTENTIONS WOULD BE MORE DIFFICULT FOR PINOCHET TO IGNORE OR EXPLOIT TO HIS POLITICAL ADVANTAGE.

-THE DECISION TO SEEK YOUR SUPPORT TO ABSTAIN ON THESE LOANS WAS REACHED AFTER CONSIDERING CAREFULLY THE RESPONSE OF YOUR GOVERNMENT TO OUR EARLIER APPROACH. THIS USG DECISION WAS TAKEN AT THE CABINET LEVEL. WE WOULD APPRECIATE YOUR INDICATING YOUR INTENTIONS TO US AS EARLY IN ADVANCE OF THE VOTE AS POSSIBLE.

8. BACKGROUND ON U.S. LEGISLATION ON HUMAN RIGHTS/MDB LOAN VOTES (FYI ONLY):

THE LEGAL MANDATE UNDER WHICH THE U.S. CONSIDERS HUMAN RIGHTS CONDITIONS IN CONNECTION WITH MDB VOTES IS SECTION 701 OF THE INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS ACT OF 1981. THIS SECTION STATES THE POLICY THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT, IN CONNECTION QUOTE WITH ITS VOICE AND VOTE UNQUOTE IN THE IBRD, THE IDA, THE IFC, THE IDB AND THE OTHER REGIONAL BANKS, QUOTE SHALL ADVANCE THE CAUSE OF HUMAN RIGHTS, INCLUDING BY SEEKING TO CHANNEL ASSISTANCE TOWARD COUNTRIES OTHER THAN THOSE WHOSE GOVERNMENTS ENGAGE IN (1) A PATTERN OF GROSS VIOLATIONS OF INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNIZED HUMAN RIGHTS, SUCH AS TORTURE OR CRUEL, INHUMANE, OR DEGRADING TREATMENT OR PUNISHMENT, PROLONGED DETENTION WITHOUT CHARGES, OR OTHER FLAGRANT

DENIAL TO LIFE, LIBERTY, AND THE SECURITY OF PERSON. UNQUOTE. MOST IMPORTANTLY, SECTION 701(F) QUOTE INSTRUCTS UNQUOTE THE U.S. EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS OF IFI'S

TO OPPOSE LOANS AND ASSISTANCE TO ANY COUNTRY THAT ENGAGES IN A PATTERN OF GROSS VIOLATIONS OF INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNIZED HUMAN RIGHTS, QUOTE UNLESS THE ASSISTANCE IS DIRECTED SPECIFICALLY TO PROGRAMS WHICH SERVE THE BASIC HUMAN NEEDS (BHN) OF THE CITIZENS OF SUCH A COUNTRY UNQUOTE. THE DETERMINATION OF WHAT CONSTITUTES A BHN LOAN IS LEFT TO THE EXECUTIVE. WHILE STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT LOANS HAVE A LONGTERM POSITIVE IMPACT ON BASIC HUMAN NEEDS, SUCH LOANS HAVE NOT BEEN CONSIDERED TO FIT THE BHN CRITERIA OF SECTION 701.

IN THE PAST THE EXECUTIV5 BRANCH AND SOME MEMBERSOOF CONGRESS ON OCCASION HAVE DISAGREED AS TO HOW MUCH FLEXIBILITY THE ADMINISTRATION HAS IN DETERMINING WHETHER A PATTERN OF GROSS VIOLATIONS EXISTS. BECAUSE OF CURRENT HEIGHTENED CONGRESSIONAL CONCERNS REGARDING CHILE THE ADMINISTRATION FACES A SITUATION IN WHICH CONCRETE STEPS BY THE GOC ON HUMAN RIGHTS ARE NEEDED BEFORE WE COULD SUSTAIN A YES VOTE WITH CONGRESS ON NON-BHN MDB LOANS TO CHILE. CONGRESSIONAL VIEWS ON THIS ISSUE WERE EXPRESSED IN THE RECENTLY PASSED CONTINUING RESOLUTION FOR FISCAL YEAR 1987, WHICH INCLUDED SECTION 557(A) PERTAINING TO CHILE - QUOTE (A) IT IS THE SENSE OF CONGRESS THAT PURSUANT TO SECTION 701 OF THE INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTIONS ACT OF 1977, THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT SHOULD OPPOSE

Dear Mr. Schumer:

We have received your letter of October 1, 1986 requesting information regarding the recent detentions in Chile of Father Henehan and Father Cambias, two Maryknoll priests. You also requested information on Jose Luis Aguilar, a religious lay worker based in Chile. Fathers Cambias and Henehan are US citizens; Mr. Aguilar is a Mexican citizen with US residency.

You will be pleased to learn that Fathers Henehan and Cambias were released shortly after being detained. While in detention they were visited by an American Embassy consular officer. Mr. Aguilar, detained September 8, was released September 13.

Our Embassy in Santiago has also been in touch with Chilean authorities concerning Father Henehan's and Father Cambias' visa problems. Currently, both are residing in Chile on temporary visas. We will continue to monitor this situation. We have no information on Mr. Aguilar currently having a visa problem.

If we can be of any further assistance to your office in this matter please do not hesitate to contact us.

Dear Mr. McCloskey:

We have received your letter of October 3, 1986 concerning US policy toward International Financial Institution loans to Chile. Your inquiry was on behalf of your constituent. In his letter he suggests that the United States Government oppose upcoming Chilean International financial Institution (IFI) loans in accordance with Section 701 of the International Financial Institutions Act.

We share your constituent's strong concern over human rights conditions in Chile. We have made known, both publicly and privately, our views favoring increased respect for human rights and a peaceful democratic transition. When Assistant Secretary of State Elliott Abrams appeared before the House Banking Subcommittee on Development and International Financial Institutions on July 30, he testified in detail regarding the serious, persistent problems in Chile in the area of human rights. He also specifically mentioned the tragic burnings of Rodrigo Rojas and Carmen Quintana, calling for all those guilty of this terrible crime to be brought to justice. Mr. Rojas was a Chilean citizen with permission to reside legally in the U.S.

Mr. Abrams also stated on July 30 that in view of his assessment of the human rights situation in Chile and taking into account section 701 of the International Financial Institutions Act, he personally would recommend that the U.S. oppose World Bank and other International Financial Institution loans to Chile, except for those meeting basic human needs, were a vote to be taken at that particular time. Mr. Abrams noted that a final decision would not be made regarding our posture toward any upcoming Chilean loans until closer to the time of a vote, now expected in November. Mr. Abrams noted that other U.S. officials would be involved in making this decision, in particular, the Treasury Department, which gives voting instructions to the U.S. Executive Directors in the IFIs.

The aforementioned legislation requires the Executive to examine the human rights situation carefully, in addition to the economic rationale, in determining our votes on loans in the multilateral institutions. Our policy is to review each loan separately and consider the situation in a particular country as it exists close to the time the loans are scheduled to be reviewed by the executive boards. MEMORANDUM FOR VADM JOHN M. POINDEXTER

THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Sponsoring a Chile Resolution at the UNGA

We sent you a memo on Oct. 21 regarding our intention to introduce a resolution in the UNGA concerning the human rights situation in Chile. We understand there is reluctance to do so within NSC staff. The Secretary fully supports this initiative and wishes to move ahead quickly. UN debate on Chile is scheduled to begin Nov. 13. Time is short if we are to have any impact on this key policy issue.

In weighing the factors involved, the Secretary took into account the issue of balance in the UNGA, a problem we will continue to try to address. Balance is equally important to our policy supporting democratization and increased respect for human rights in Chile and elsewhere. The impact of failure to take this initiative on these policy objectives would be great, and more than offset the risk of getting a fair resolution on Chile but failing to win support for a resolution highlighting the much worse Cuban human rights abuses. We cannot be paralyzed because of the failings of the UN.

If we do not take the lead in proposing a balanced text, the Cuban/Mexican proposal adopted last year will again pass easily, with the support of our Latin and European allies. After our successful effort at the UNHRC in March, our passivity will be misrepresented as a shift by the U.S. in favor of Pinochet and tolerance for new repressive actions in Chile since March.

This would be especially harmful at about the same time as our anticipated abstention on a structural adjustment loan to Chile in the World Bank. As Foreign Minister Del Valle's recent public statements make clear, Pinochet will try to portray our abstention, together with our passivity in the UN, as a victory. The GOC is already pointing to our justified efforts to publicize the Cuban role in supplying weapons to Chilean terrorists as evidence of a major U.S. policy shift. We cannot afford to buttress such arguments.

As polarization increases the stalemated political situation in Chile becomes more dangerous to our interests. The Cubans and Soviets are making a major investment to foment violence. The Chilean Communist Party is making every effort to establish a united front of all opposition groups, including democrats as well as left-wing totalitarians. Their intention is to manipulate such a front to control any transition government.

Our withdrawal from an active position in the UNGA on this issue would weaken the standing of the opposition democrats vis-a-vis the communists. Our active role in the UNHRC strengthened democratic moderates in Chile and weakened the communists, who have in the past dominated UN debate on Chile. To drive an effective wedge between the communists and the democratic opposition (which has distanced itself from the communists), we need to continue rigorous efforts to strengthen the democratic center. Ceding the Chile issue in the UN to the communists would jeopardize the tentative gains we have made.

Moving ahead with this initiative in the UN is critical to maintaining the credibility of our policy in Chile and with Congress. Our ability to implement a constructive Chile policy could well be undercut by Congress if our critics see the U.S. backing away in the IDBs and the UN. We cannot afford that risk at this time.

In recent conversations with Ambassador Barnes, Chilean Foreign Minister Del Valle has indicated that the GOC is now resigned to our taking such an initiative, but expressed concern about a balanced text. The U.S. resolution in the telegram sent to the NSC on Oct. 21 is balanced--it refers to positive steps as well as points out problems. The Secretary would like to dispatch this telegram immediately. Further delay will prevent us from exercising decisive influence on a UN issue which will have a major impact on our Chile policy.

SACCO SAID THIS WAS A POLITICAL DECISION REACHED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS MINISTRY AND THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE. IT PRESUMABLY WAS APPROVED BY THE PRIME MINISTER.

3. STEFANO RASTRELLI, HEAD OF THE MFA'S LATIN AMERICAN ECONOMIC AFFAIRS OFFICE, CONFIRMED THE ABOVE INFORMATION IN DISCUSSIONS WITH EMBASSY ECON OFFICER. RASTRELLI EMPHASIZED THAT ITALY NO LONGER MAKES ANY DISTINCTIONS BETWEEN BASIC HUMAN NEEDS LOANS AND NON-BASIC HUMAN NEEDS LOANS OR BETWEEN LOANS WHICH CHILEAN MODERATES VALUE AS IMPORTANT TO CHILE AND THOSE WHICH WOULD ONLY STRENGTHEN THE PINOCHET REGIME. HE SAID THAT THE LACK OF ORGANIZATION AMONG THE MODERATE OPPOSITION, THEIR INABILITY TO EFFECTIVELY EVALUATE LOANS, AND THE EXTREMELY HIGH RISK OF LOAN DIVERSION LED TO THE ITALIAN POLICY CHANGE. RASTRELLI ADDED THAT THE CHILEAN ISSUE MAY BE DISCUSSED INFORMALLY AT EC MEETINGS SCHEDULED IN EARLY NOVEMBER. ITALY WOULD USE SUCH AN OCCASION TO CONVINCE ITS EC PARTNERS TO VOTE AGAINST THE CHILEAN LOAN. HE ALSO SAID THAT SHOULD THERE BE A STRONG EC CONSENSUS FOR ABSTENTION, THERE IS A VERY SLIM PROBABILITY THAT ITALY MAY BE CONVINCED TO CHANGE ITS POSITION.

1. (C-ENTIRE TEXT)

2. SUMMARY: IN SEPARATE MEETINGS WITH AMBASSADORS MCCORMACK AND SCHIFTER AND IN ARA/SC, U.S. EXPERT MEMBER ON THE IAHRC BRUCE MCCOLM TODAY PRESENTED THE TEXT OF A DRAFT RESOLUTION (IN PARA 8 BELOW) ON CHILE, WHICH HE SAID VENEZUELA WOULD INTRODUCE AT THE UPCOMING OASGA. HE STRESSED THAT THIS TEXT. WHICH FOCUSES ON RESTORATION OF DEMOCRACY, WAS NOT FINAL. SOME COUNTRIES HAVE APPARENTLY PROPOSED ADDING STRONGER LANGUAGE CRITICIZING HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE STATE OF SIEGE. NOTING THAT IAHRC SPECIAL REPORTS ON NICARAGUA AND PARAGUAY ARE PLANNED FOR NEXT YEAR, MCCOLM ASSERTED THAT

THE OUTCOME ON CHILE IN THE OASGA WOULD AFFECT PROSPECTS FOR PASSING A SEPARATE RESOLUTION ON NICARAGUA NEXT YEAR. CITING THE U.S. ACTIVIST APPROACH ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE IN THE UNHRC LAST MARCH, HE URGED THE U.S. TO SUPPORT THIS RESOLUTION. END SUMMARY.

3. MCCOLM WAS ACCOMPANIED BY CHILEAN U.S. RESIDENT MARTIN POBLETE, A CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT WHO WORKS FOR THE NEW YORK CATHOLIC DIOCESE. MCCOLM COVERED THE SAME GROUND IN SEPARATE MEETINGS WITH AMB. MCCORMACK, AMB. SCHIFTER AND WITH CHILE DESK OFFICER SWIGERT. HE OPENED BY REFERRING TO LAST YEAR'S OASGA, IN WHICH A CHILESPECIFIC CLAUSE FAILED TO OBTAIN A MAJORITY IN THE OMNIBUS RESOLUTION PASSED REGARDING THE IAHRC'S WORK THAT YEAR, BECAUSE MANY COUNTRIES (THE U.S. INCLUDED) ABSTAINED ON THAT PARAGRAPH.

4. MCCOLM SAID VENEZUELA PLANS TO INTRODUCE A SEPARATE RESOLUTION ON CHILE IN THE OASGA THIS YEAR AND PROVIDED A COPY OF THE RESOLUTION TEXT, WHICH HE STRESSED WAS TENTATIVE, SINCE DISCUSSIONS WERE GOING ON WITH MEMBER COUNTRIES. MCCOLM SAID THE FOCUS OF THIS DRAFT WAS ON THE NEED IN CHILE FOR THE RESTORATION OF DEMOCRACY, NOT CURRENT HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. (COMMENT: WE NOTE, HOWEVER, THAT THE PREAMBLE DOES TALK ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. END COMMENT.) MCCOLM SAID THAT SOME OAS MEMBERS HAVE SUGGESTED TOUGHENING THE LANGUAGE AND INCLUDING A SECOND OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH CRITICAL OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS SINCE IMPOSITION OF THE STATE OF SIEGE AND PLACING GREATER URGENCY ON RESTORATION OF DEMOCRACY. HE ADDED THAT THE SUGGESTED ADDITION MAKES NO REFERENCE TO FACTORS LEADING TO THE STATE OF SIEGE.

5. MCCOLM REPORTED THAT URUGUAY MAY AGREE TO CO-SPONSOR THE RESOLUTION AND THAT ACCORDING TO AN INFORMAL HEAD COUNT, VENEZUELA HAS ENOUGH VOTES TO ENSURE PASSAGE OF THE RESOLUTION. MCCOLM URGED THAT THE U.S. SUPPORT THE INITIATIVE AND TAKE AS ACTIVE AN APPROACH ON HUMAN RIGHTS QUESTIONS IN THE OAS AS WE HAD IN THE UNHRC LAST MARCH.

6. MCCOLM ASSERTED THAT THE CHILE RESOLUTION WOULD ESTABLISH AN IMPORTANT PRECEDENT THAT COULD AFFECT WHETHER A SEPARATE RESOLUTION ON NICARAGUA COULD PASS IN NEXT YEAR'S GENERAL ASSEMBLY. (THE IAHRC IS SCHEDULED TO PREPARE SPECIAL REPORTS NEXT YEAR ON NICARAGUA AND PARAGUAY.) FOR THAT REASON, ACCORDING TO MCCOLM, MEXICO HAS DECLINED TO SUPPORT THE RESOLUTION ON CHILE. APPARENTLY, MEXICO IS ALSO CONCERNED BY THE CURRENT DRAFT'S FOCUS ON DEMOCRACY. MCCOLM ALSO STATED THAT THE SPONSORS WERE NOT SOLICITING MEXICAN CO-SPONSORSHIP OUT OF DEFERENCE TO THE U.S.

7. IN RESPONSE, THE U.S. OFFICIALS WITH WHOM MCCOLM AND POBLETE MET AGREED TO TAKE A CLOSE LOOK AT THE RESOLUTION TEXT AND CONSIDER CAREFULLY THE ISSUES RAISED BY SUCH AN

Dear Mr. St Germain:

We have received your letter to Secretary of State Shultz of October 2, 1986 concerning our policy toward international financial institution loans to Chile. We appreciate your sharing your views with us on this important issue. In your letter you suggest that the United States Government oppose upcoming Chilean International Financial Institution (IFI) loans in accordance with Section 701 of the International Financial Institutions Act.

5. COMMENT: WE NOTE THAT MADRID DID NOT RECEIVE REFTEL. IF NOT YET DONE, WE RECOMMEND THAT THIS MATTER BE URGENTLY RAISED WITH THE GOS. CONSALVI IN FACT HAS NOT YET BEEN IN TOUCH WITH US. WE ASSUME THE GOV IS IN CONSULTATIONS WITH MADRID AND OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES. WE GATHER BRAZIL'S POSITION MAY WELL BE NEGATIVE (STATE 347489). VENEZUELA WOULD NOT WISH TO BE ALONE ON THIS; A DECISION TO ABSTAIN BY SOME OTHER MAJOR LATIN COUNTRIES -- ARGENTINA, MEXICO, COLOMBIA, OR PERU -- WOULD BE HELPFUL HERE. ADVISE. REICH

Dear Mr. Gregg:

The Secretary has asked that I respond to your letter of October 2, 1986 inquiring about US policy toward Chile. Your inquiry was on behalf of your constituents who expressed concern over the human rights situation in Chile and upcoming votes on International Financial Institution (IFI) loans to Chile.

We share your constituents' strong concern over human rights conditions in Chile. We have made known, both publicly and privately, our views favoring increased respect for human rights and a peaceful democratic transition. When Assistant Secretary of State Elliott Abrams appeared before the House Banking Subcommittee on Development and International Financial Institutions on July 30, he testified in detail regarding the serious, persistent problems in Chile in the area of human rights.

Mr. Abrams also stated on July 30 that in view of his assessment of the human rights situation in Chile and taking into account section 701 of the International Financial Institutions Act, he personally would recommend that the U.S. oppose World Bank and other International Financial Institution loans to Chile, except for those meeting basic human needs, were a vote to be taken at that particular time. Mr. Abrams noted that a final decision would not be made regarding our posture toward any upcoming Chilean loans until closer to the time of a vote, now expected in November. Mr. Abrams noted that other U.S. officials would be involved in making this decision, in particular, the Treasury Department, which gives voting instructions to the U.S. Executive Directors in the IFIs.

The aforementioned legislation requires the Executive to examine the human rights situation carefully, in addition to the economic rationale, in determining our votes on loans in the multilateral institutions. Our policy is to review each loan separately and consider the situation in a particular country as it exists close to the time the loans are scheduled to be reviewed by the executive boards. We have used our loan votes in the past to promote human rights improvements and movement toward democracy, and we may do so in the future.

In order to further aid your constituents, I am enclosing copies of the State Department's "Background Notes" on Chile and the 1985 State Department Human Rights Report on Chile. In addition, I am enclosing Assistant Secretary Elliott Abrams July 30 prepared statement before the House Subcommittee on International Development Institutions and Finance of the Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs Committee. This statement clearly lays out US foreign policy toward Chile and also addresses some of your constituents' concerns.

If we can be of any further assistance to your office in this matter please do not hesitate to contact us.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

J. Edward Fox
Assistant Secretary

Ambassador Alberto Szekely
Legal Adviser
Secretariat of Foreign Relations
Mexico, D.F., Mexico

Re: Agreement of Cooperation Between the United States of America and the United Mexican States Regarding the Transboundary Shipments of Hazardous Waste and Hazardous Substances

Dear Ambassador Szekely:

During our negotiation of the above-referenced draft agreement in which you served as Head of the Delegation of Mexico, we agreed to memorialize in letters certain understandings reached between the United States and Mexico on the interpretation to be given certain provisions contained in the proposed agreement. This letter sets forth those understandings as they relate to the commitments of the United States.

First, for the United States, the definition of "hazardous waste" contained in Article 1, subparagraph 2 exclusively refers to waste defined as hazardous under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act ("RCRA") and implementing regulations and subject to a manifest requirement in the United States. Under RCRA and consistent with Article 3 of the draft agreement, the export of such waste from the United States is preconditioned on the prior notification and consent of the receiving country (as that term is defined in the regulations implementing section 3017 of RCRA). The term hazardous waste also does not include waste containing polychlorinated biphenyls ("PCBs") in concentrations of 50 parts per million or greater since the export from and import to the U.S. of such wastes are prohibited.

Second, under present U.S. policies, laws, and regulations, any chemical substance or mixture, as defined in the Toxic Substances Control Act ("TSCA"), 15 U.S.C. §§ 2601 et seq., and any pesticide, as defined in the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act ("FIFRA"), 7 U.S.C. §§ 136, et seq., which has been banned or severely restricted by the Environmental Protection Agency under those statutes would fall within the definition of "hazardous substances" outlined in Article 1(3). At this time, insofar as U.S. laws, regulations, and policies are concerned, no additional substances are encompassed by this definition. EPA has neither banned nor severely restricted substances other than chemical substances or mixtures under TSCA or pesticides under FIFRA.

Third, under FIFRA a pesticide is banned or severely restricted when registration is cancelled or suspended for human health or environmental reasons. Under TSCA a chemical is banned or severely restricted when: a final order or permanent injunction is issued under TSCA section 5(f); a final rule is issued under TSCA section 6(a)(1), (2), (5), (6), or (7); or a final judgment is issued in a civil action under TSCA section 7.

Fourth, in the case of the United States, the information required on the U.S. manifest that accompanies the hazardous waste shipment satisfies the requirements of Article 3, subparagraph b(i) and (iii) and will be included in the notification provided to the country of import.

Fifth, in accordance with Articles 4 and 9 of the Annex the United States will allow reentry of shipments of hazardous waste and hazardous substances in compliance with domestic law where the exporter is responsible for the shipment. Further, under Article 9, the United States will readmit any shipment of hazardous substances that was not lawfully imported into Mexico when appropriate arrangements have been made with the U.S. exporter for return of the shipment and for its proper use or disposal in the United States or reexport to another country.

Sixth, the United States will comply with Article 14(2) by taking all appropriate enforcement actions against U.S. exporters who have violated U.S. laws and regulations by unlawfully exporting hazardous wastes or hazardous substances to Mexico and by providing, to the extent possible under U.S. law, appropriate information and assistance to Mexico in any action Mexico may pursue in U.S. courts against persons responsible for damage that may occur in Mexico from exports of hazardous wastes and hazardous substances.

Finally, as provided in Article 2(1), the provisions of the proposed Annex concerning transboundary shipments of hazardous waste and hazardous substances are subject to the limits of the domestic laws of the Parties. Where additional regulations authorized by U.S. domestic law would be required to implement the provisions of the Annex, such steps will be taken prior to the issuance of the note required by Article 19 to bring the Annex into force.

Sincerely,

Michael G. Kozak
Deputy Legal Adviser
Co-Read of U.S. Delegation

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PGOV, CI
SUBJECT: DISCUSSION WITH ACCORD COORDINATORS ZAVALA AND LENIZ

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: DURING CONVERSATION ON NOVEMBER 6 WITH VISITING SOUTHERN CONE OFFICE DIRECTOR KIM FLOWER AND POLOFF, ACCORD COORDINATORS FERNANDO LENIZ AND JOSE ZABALA EXPRESSED STRONG SUPPORT FOR A BALANCED UNGA RESOLUTION ON CHILE SPONSORED BY A GROUP OF COUNTRIES INCLUDING THE U.S. LENIZ REMAINS EMPHATICALLY AGAINST U.S. OPPOSITION TO THE IBRD SAL, WHICH HE FEELS WOULD HELP PINOCHET. BOTH HAD FEW KIND WORDS FOR THE OPPOSITION, AND AGREED WITH FLOWER THAT IT WAS AN ERROR FOR THE OPPOSITION TO REJECT THE OFFER TO DIALOGUE WITH MINISTER OF INTERIOR GARCIA. ZABALA PASSED ON A RUMOR THAT PINOCHET MAY CALL OPEN ELECTIONS IN 1987. END SUMMARY.

3. ZABALA AND LENIZ TOLD FLOWER THAT THE ECONOMY SEEMED TO BE GOING STRONGLY AND THEY REMAIN CONFIDENTIAL

OPTIMISTIC. IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION, FLOWER SAID HE WAS CERTAIN THE U.S. ELECTION OUTCOME WOULD HAVE NO EFFECT ON THE U.S. SAL VOTE, AND THAT IT WOULD HAVE LITTLE IF ANY EFFECT ON U.S. POLICY TOWARD CHILE SINCE THAT POLICY IS ALREADY BIPARTISAN. LENIZ REITERATED HIS CONCERN THAT U.S. OPPOSITION TO THE SAL VOTE WOULD PLAY INTO PINOCHET'S CHAUVINISTIC GAME, WHILE FLOWER NOTED THAT A DECISION HAD NOT BEEN MADE. IN REPLY TO A QUESTION FROM FLOWER, ZABALA AND LENIZ SAID A BALANCED UNGA RESOLUTION WHICH ENJOYED THE CO-SPONSORSHIP OF THE U.S. WITH OTHER COUNTRIES FROM THE MOMENT OF INTRODUCTION WOULD BE USEFUL. A MEXICAN-CUBAN RESOLUTION IS "LAUGHABLE" BECAUSE OF THEIR LACK OF MORAL AUTHORITY TO JUDGE CHILE. IT WOULD BE TOTALLY IGNORED BY MOST AND SIMPLY CONFIRM THE VIEW OF OTHERS THAT THE UN IS A SOVIET INSTRUMENT. ZABALA FELT STRONGLY THAT A RESOLUTION INTRODUCED SOLELY BY THE U.S. WOULD BE NEGATIVE, FOR THE U.S. WOULD APPEAR AS CHILE'S PRINCIPAL ADVERSARY AND PINOCHET WOULD EXPLOIT IT WITH NATIONALISTIC BREAST-BEATING. ON THE OTHER HAND, A RESOLUTION CO-SPONSORED WITH OTHER DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES FROM THE OUTSET WOULD BE USEFUL. THEY DID NOT OFFER ANY VIEWS ON THE POTENTIAL EFFECTS OF U.S. OPPOSITION TO A MEXICAN-CUBAN RESOLUTION.

4. IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION FROM FLOWER ON THE STATUS OF THE NATIONAL ACCORD, LENIZ SAID IT WAS WAITING ON THE SHELF TO BE DUSTED OFF AND IMPLEMENTED WHEN DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT IS INSTALLED. THE ACCORD AS A LOOSE COALITION WAS CONFIDENTIAL

DEALT TERRIBLE BLOWS BY THE GOVERNMENT'S INTRACTABILITY AND THE OPPOSITION'S OWN SQUABBLES AND INEPTNESS, SAID LENIZ, AND IT IS BEST TO THINK OF IT AS A FRAMEWORK TO BE RESPECTED BY THE PARTIES IN POWER AND THE OPPOSITION DURING THE NEXT DEMOCRATIC REGIME RATHER THAN A POLITICAL OPTION ITSELF. IT IS ALSO, ZABALA NOTED, A POSSIBLE POINT OF DEPARTURE FOR EVENTUAL NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE OPPOSITION. FLOWER COMMENTED ON THE DEEP DISAPPOINTMENT OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT THAT THE OPPOSITION PARTIES HAD REJECTED THE CHANCE TO TALK TO GARCIA. ZABALA COULD NOT AGREE MORE, BUT LENIZ DEMURRED, NOTING THE FORM OF "DIALOGUE" PROPOSED BY PINOCHET WAS TOO HUMILIATING, ALTHOUGH THE OPPOSITION COULD HAVE FOUND A WAY TO DEAL WITH IT BY MAKING APPROPRIATE PUBLIC STATEMENTS. (COMMENT: SOCIALIST PARTY ACTING PRESIDENT JORGE MOLINA TOLD POLCOUNSELOR ON NOVEMBER 7 THAT THEY HAD TO RECOGNIZE THE NATIONAL ACCORD COALITION HAD CEASED TO EXIST DUE TO THE PRACTICAL WITHDRAWAL OF ALLAMAND'S NATIONAL UNION AND LUIS MAIRA'S CHRISTIAN LEFT. THE ONLY VIABLE COALITION, IN MOLINA'S VIEW, IS THE "13" OF THE "BASES FOR SUSTAINING DEMOCRACY". THIS VIEW IS SHARED BY NATIONAL PARTY SECRETARY GENERAL PEDRO CORREA (SEE SANTIAGO 6226 AND MEMCON OF JULY 29, 1986). END COMMENT).

5. LENIZ, BACKED BY ZABALA, THEN APPEALED TO FLOWER, HAVING JUST COME FROM WASHINGTON, TO EMPHASIZE TO OPPOSITION LEADERS THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IS VERY DISTURBED BY THEIR BEHAVIOR. "THE OPPOSITION HAS EVEN MORE RESPONSIBILITY

THAN PINOCHET FOR THE SITUATION CHILE IS IN

LENIZ, AND ZABALA SADLY AGREED. HE THEN LISTED THE OPPOSITION'S WELL-KNOWN PECADILLOS (PETTY POLITICAL INFIGHTING, EXCESSIVE CONCERN ABOUT IMAGE, DOUBLE-DEALING, PUBLIC QUARRELS AND UNWILLINGNESS TO MAKE DIFFICULT POLITICAL DECISIONS, PARTICULARLY WITH RESPECT TO THE COMMUNIST PARTY).
HE NOTED THAT ON THE EVENING OF NOVEMBER 5, AFTER THE RESULTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE STUDENT

LISTENED TO A NUMBER OF DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE REPRESENTATIVES TALKING AGAIN IN TERMS OF HOW THE COMMUNISTS ARE NOT SO BAD AND "YOU HAVE TO CONCERN THAT THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC (PDC) AND/OR SOCIALISTS (PS) MAY REACH SOME KIND OF UNDER-THE-TABLE

LEADERSHIP OF THE FECH. (RESULTS OF FECH ELECTIONS BEING REPORTED BY SEPTEL). POLOFF REPORTED THAT

HE HAD ALSO JUST HEARD FROM ONE SOURCE THAT THE SO-CALLED "MOBILIZATION COMMAND" COMPRISING REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PDC, PS, AND MDP AMONG OTHERS IS STILL FUNCTIONING VERY DISCREETLY. FLOWER SAID HE COULD NOT AGREE MORE ABOUT THE NEED FOR THE OPPOSITION TO BECOME MORE RESPONSIBLE AND HE WOULD BE TELLING THEM THIS IN HIS MEETINGS DURING THIS VISIT.

6. ZABALA INTERJECTED THAT THE OPPOSITION'S PROBLEMS AND DIVISIONS MAY BE EXPLOITED BY PINOCHET IN UNSUSPECTING WAYS IF THE RUMOR HE HAD JUST

CONFIDENTIAL

HEARD IS TRUE. ACCORDING TO THE RUMOR, PINOCHET IS PLANNING TO CALL A SURPRISE OPEN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION IN 1987, CALCULATING THAT HIS POPULARITY IS NOW AT ITS PEAK, THAT THE CHURCH IS SO INVOLVED IN THE POPE'S VISIT THAT IT WILL NOT HAVE TIME OR INTEREST IN FOCUSING ON DOMESTIC POLITICS, THAT HE CAN EXPLOIT NATIONALISTIC ATTITUDES IN THE FACE OF U.S. PRESSURE AND PROBLEMS WITH ARGENTINA AND THAT THE OPPOSITION WILL NOT BE ABLE TO UNITE AROUND A SINGLE CANDIDATE, GIVING PINOCHET

7. COMMENT: ON NOVEMBER 8 VENEZUELAN AMBASSADOR VARGAS INFORMED POLCOUNSELOR THAT HE HAD HEARD THE SAME RUMOR ABOUT POSSIBLE OPEN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS IN 1987. ACCORDING TO VARGAS, HIS SOURCE HAD BEEN TOLD BY A SENIOR ACTIVE DUTY ARMY OFFICER WHO WORKED SO CLOSELY WITH THE CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE ARMY THAT PINOCHET HAS DECIDED HE CANNOT "ELEGANTLY" REPLACE THE JUNTA MEMBERS WHO OPPOSE HIS CANDIDACY FOR A PRESIDENTIAL PLEBISCITE. HIS NEXT TERM WOULD START OFF WITH THE SHADOW OF THREE SERVICES RESENTFUL OF HIM AND NO CLEARLY ACCEPTED POPULAR MANDATE. HE IS ALSO UNEASY ABOUT USING THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL SYSTEM TO SECURE THE NOMINATION THAT THE JUNTA MEMBERS WILL DENY HIM, SINCE THAT WOULD ALSO BE A TARNISHED BEGINNING. HAS DECIDED TO CALL AN ELECTION SHORTLY AFTER THE VISIT OF THE POPE IN APRIL, AND HE HAS THE SUPPORT OF THE ARMY FOR THIS AUDACIOUS STROKE. HE WOULD THEN USE THE ARMY AND THE POLITICAL APPARATUS BEING MOUNTED BY THE GOVERNMENT AS WELL AS MASSIVE USE OF THE MEDIA TO CARRY OUT AN INTENSE BUT SHORT CAMPAIGN THAT WILL CATCH THE OPPOSITION DIVIDED AND OFF BALANCE. THE VENEZUELAN AMBASSADOR SAID THAT HIS SOURCE INDICATED THAT THE SENIOR OFFICER WHO TOLD HIM THIS "PLAN" WAS DOING IT EITHER AS A TRIAL BALLOON OR UNBURDENING HIS CONSCIENCE ABOUT SOMETHING WITH WHICH HE PERSONALLY DISAGREED. OUR OWN VIEW IS THAT WHILE PINOCHET IS A MASTER OF DARING MOVES, THE RISKS OF THE PLAN GOING AWRY ARE GREATER THAN HE IS PREPARED TO FACE. END COMMENT.

EXCISED

Dear Senator D'Amato:

Thank you for your inquiry of October 20 on behalf of [illegible] concerning Father Henehan and Father Cambias, two Maryknoll priests, and Mr. Jose Luis Aguilar, a religious lay worker. Fathers Henehan and Cambias, U.S. citizens, and Mr. Aguilar, a Mexican citizen with U.S. residency, were all detained in Chile.

Your constituent will be pleased to learn that Fathers Henehan and Cambias were released shortly after being detained. While in detention, they were visited by an American Embassy consular officer. Mr. Aguilar, detained on September 8, was released on September 13. Our Embassy in Santiago has also been in touch with Chilean authorities concerning the Fathers' visa problems. Both are now residing in Chile on temporary visas. We will continue to monitor this situation.

U.S. policy toward Chile is to support the restoration of democracy, and we have publicly and privately encouraged increased respect for human rights. By urging dialogue among all democratically-minded persons, we hope that further polarization of society in Chile can be avoided and a broadly-based democracy established.

Sincerely,

Louise R. Hoppe
Acting Assistant Secretary
Legislative and Intergovernmental Affairs

Enclosure:

Correspondence returned.

The Honorable
Alfonse D'Amato,
United States Senate.

Your Excellency --

[redacted] On 14 October 1986 in the early morning hours, this young woman was kidnapped from her house by armed men. These men arrived in cars whose license plates were covered in mud, signs. I have been told, of a clandestine arrest. Flavia's mother was beaten by the men who bore her daughter away.

Flavia Motoro Faulis is now known to be in detention at the headquarters of the security police in Santiago, Chile. I [redacted] to use your good office both to assure her immediate access to relatives and lawyers, and to guarantee her well being while in detention.

SUMMARY: OASGA ADOPTED THREE HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTIONS BY CONSENSUS: A) AN "OMNIBUS" RESOLUTION ENDORSES THE SPECIFIC RECOMMENDATIONS CONTAINED IN THE 1985-86 REPORT OF THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS (IACHR) (WHICH COVERS THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN EIGHT COUNTRIES); AND URGES OAS NATIONS WHICH HAVE NOT DONE SO TO RESTORE FREELY ELECTED DEMOCRATIC SYSTEMS OF GOVERNMENT; B) A RESOLUTION SPONSORED BY THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES WHICH STRENGTHENS THE LINKAGE BETWEEN DEMOCRACY, HUMAN RIGHTS, AND PEACE; C) A RESOLUTION FORWARDING THE IACHR'S SUGGESTED DRAFT ADDITIONAL PROTOCOL ON ECONOMIC, SOCIAL, AND CULTURAL RIGHTS TO GOVERNMENTS FOR COMMENT IN THE CONTEXT OF THE INTER-AMERICAN CONVENTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS (US IS NOT A PARTY). CONSIDERATION OF IACHR REPORT REVEALED A MAJORITY OF OAS MEMBERS WAS WILLING TO FORMALLY CITE COUNTRIES BY NAME AT THE OASGA FOR POOR HUMAN RIGHTS RECORDS. A CONSENSUS WAS NOT ATTAINABLE BECAUSE A NUMBER OF MEMBERS STILL LIVE IN GLASS HOUSES AND ARE RELUCTANT TO START THROWING STONES. MEXICO WAS READY TO SACRIFICE A RESOLUTION NAMING CHILE IN ORDER TO PROTECT NICARAGUA FROM OASGA CITATION FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS.

AMBASSADOR MCCORMACK DELIVERED A HARD-HITTING STATEMENT CONTRASTING THE HUMAN RIGHTS RECORDS OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES WITH THOSE OF NICARAGUA AND CUBA, AND REITERATING US POLICY TO ENCOURAGE CHILE'S TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY. OASGA ADOPTED A DECLARATION PRAISING GUATEMALA, AS HOST GOVERNMENT, FOR ITS RESTORATION OF DEMOCRACY. TWO RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING SURINAM'S COMMITMENT TO ESTABLISH DEMOCRATIC RULE WERE WITHDRAWN BECAUSE OF LACK OF CONSENSUS. OASGA ATTRACTED SMALL DEMONSTRATIONS BY CENTRAL AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS. END SUMMARY.

SUBJ: POLITICAL OPPOSITION AND THE STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT LOAN

1. SUMMARY: ANDRES ALLAMAND, HEAD OF THE CONSERVATIVE NATIONAL UNION MOVEMENT, RECENTLY CALLED ON OTHER OPPOSITION LEADERS TO PUBLICLY STATE THEIR POSITIONS ON THE UPCOMING WORLD BANK STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT LOAN (SAL). IN RESPONSE, TWO PARTY REPRESENTATIVES JOINED ALLAMAND IN SUPPORTING THE GOC POSITION, WHILE THREE OTHERS EITHER ANSWERED THAT THE SAL IS ONLY ONE OF SEVERAL QUESTIONS AND CAN'T BE STUDIED IN ISOLATION, OR QUESTIONED WHETHER THE "SAL PROBLEM" IS ONE OF OUTSIDE PRESSURES OR OF GOC ACTIONS WHICH CREATE PROBLEMS FOR THE CHILEAN PEOPLE. END SUMMARY.

2. LAST WEEK, THE PRESIDENT OF THE CONSERVATIVE OPPOSITION PARTY NATIONAL UNION MOVEMENT, ANDRES ALLAMAND, STATED HIS OWN PARTY'S OPPOSITION TO EXTERNAL (READ US) USE OF THE WORLD BANK SAL FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES AND CHALLENGED THE OTHER OPPOSITION PARTIES TO PUBLICLY STATE THEIR POSITIONS. IN RESPONSE, OFFICERS OF SIX PARTIES (NATIONAL, SOCIAL CHRISTIANS, SOCIAL DEMOCRATS, RADICALS, SOCIALISTS, AND CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS) PUBLICLY ADDRESSED THE QUESTION. CARMEN SAENZ IS PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL PARTY AND ONE OF THE LEADERS, ALONG WITH ALLAMAND, OF CONSERVATIVE PARTIES IN THE OPPOSITION COALITION KNOWN AS THE NATIONAL ACCORD FOR A TRANSITION TO FULL DEMOCRACY. MS. SAENZ SAID SHE OPPOSED THE DENIAL OF FINANCING AND DISCRIMINATORY TREATMENT OF CHILE. SHE ADDED "THE NATIONAL PARTY HAS MAINTAINED A CLEAR POLICY THAT WE BELIEVE ANY MEASURE AGAINST CHILE WILL BE NOT ONLY AGAINST CHILE BUT AGAINST ITS PEOPLE."

3. PRO-GOVERNMENT, SOCIAL CHRISTIAN WILLIAM THAYER STATED THAT ALLAMAND'S QUESTION WAS ENTIRELY LEGITIMATE AND THAT HIS PARTY BELIEVES THAT WORLD BANK CREDITS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED WITHOUT ANY POLITICAL CONDITIONS, AS DID ALLAMAND. SOCIAL DEMOCRAT RENE ABELIUK ACCUSED ALLAMAND OF ATTEMPTING TO TAKE POLITICAL ADVANTAGE OF CHILEAN CONCERNS ABOUT THE SAL AND SAID THE QUESTION WAS POINTLESS, SINCE "IT IS ALREADY KNOWN WHAT WILL OCCUR WITH THESE CREDITS." ABELIUK ASSERTED THAT THE REAL QUESTION WAS NOT THE SAL, BUT RATHER BROADER PROBLEMS SUCH AS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS AND WHETHER THE COUNTRY SHOULD CONTINUE CURRENT ECONOMIC POLICIES WHICH HE CHARACTERIZED AS "PAYING FOREIGN CREDITORS AT ALL COSTS." SOCIALIST RICARDO LAGOS SIMILARLY AVOIDED A DIRECT RESPONSE TO ALLAMAND'S QUESTION AND CHALLENGED ALLAMAND TO STATE HIS POSITION ON A VARIETY OF GOC ECONOMIC POLICIES OPPOSED BY THE SOCIALIST PARTY, INCLUDING GOC GUARANTEE ON PRIVATE DEBT, INTERNAL CREDIT PRIVATIZATION, AND INTERNAL INCOME DISTRIBUTION POLICY. RADICAL PARTY VICE PRESIDENT CARLOS GONZALEZ SAID THAT "WE ARE NOT DISPOSED TO SUPPORT FOREIGN CREDITS THAT JEOPARDIZE NATIONAL PATRIMONY, THAT ARE EMPLOYED TO OBTAIN INSTRUMENTS OF REPRESSION AND FAVOR AN UNJUST DISTRIBUTION OF INCOME." CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT GENARO ARRIAGADA SAID THAT EVERY RESPONSIBLE POLITICAL LEADER WOULD AGREE THAT DEFEAT OF THE SAL WOULD CAUSE ENORMOUS DAMAGE TO THE CHILEAN ECONOMY, BUT SUGGESTED THAT ALLAMAND MIGHT BETTER HAVE DIRECTED HIS CHALLENGE TO GOC FOREIGN MINISTER DEL VALLE SO THAT CHILEANS MIGHT LEARN

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE CAUSE OF THE RISK TO THE SAL. ARRIAGADA WENT ON TO SAY THAT HE WOULD SUPPORT THE GOC IF THE OBSTACLE TO THE SAL WAS IN FACT THE US AND EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS, BUT WOULD ACCUSE THE GOC OF "PUTTING THE LOGIC OF AUTHORITARIANISM ABOVE THE INTERESTS OF THE NATION" IF THE PROBLEM WERE THE RESULT OF GOC REFUSAL TO ACCEPT PRINCIPLES THAT ARE PART OF CHILEAN HISTORY.

4. NONE OF THE RESPONSES TO ALLAMAND WAS EARTH-SHAKING. HOWEVER, THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AT LEAST RESPONDED DIRECTLY AND, PERHAPS FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE INTERNAL CHILEAN DEBATE, POINTED OUT THAT THE QUESTION IS NOT JUST POLITICAL INFLUENCES ON THE WORLD BANK, BUT ALSO GOC POLICIES THAT MIGHT EXPLAIN OR JUSTIFY SUCH INFLUENCES. THE TWO ARE REPORTEDLY BEING SOUGHT BY THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR, AND HAVE ARREST WARRANTS AGAINST THEM. MUNOZ IS A LAW STUDENT AND FORMER SECRETARY OF THE STUDENT FEDERATION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE'S VALPARAISO CAMPUS. HENRIQUEZ IS PRESIDENT OF THE CHEMISTRY STUDENTS ASSOCIATION AT THE SAME UNIVERSITY. 2. (U) THERE ARE FOUR UNIVERSITY STUDENT LEADERS REPORTEDLY BEING HELD BY THE AUTHORITIES IN VALPARAISO, AND ANOTHER 19, INCLUDING MUNOZ AND HENRIQUEZ, ARE BEING SOUGHT FOR DETENTION.

3. (C) CHARGE WAS INFORMED DURING A LUNCH MEETING WITH THE EC REPRESENTATIVES ON NOVEMBER 12 THAT THE DUTCH AMBASSADOR HAS BEEN INSTRUCTED NOT TO EJECT ANYONE WISHING TO REMAIN IN THE EMBASSY. HE MAY ASK THEM TO LEAVE BUT CANNOT OBLIGATE THEM TO DO SO. THIS FOLLOWS THE FUROR GENERATED BY THE INCIDENT IN EARLY SEPTEMBER WHEN THE DUTCH CHARGE ATTEMPTED TO ASSIST FOUR STUDENTS TO LEAVE THE EMBASSY UNDER AN AGREEMENT REACHED WITH THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, BUT WAS THEN FORCIBLY STOPPED AND THE STUDENTS REMOVED FROM HIS CAR.

THE GOC HAS STATIONED ADDITIONAL UNIFORMED AND PLAINCLOTHES POLICE OUTSIDE ALL EMBASSIES IN SANTIAGO (EXCEPT THE U.S.) PRECISELY IN ORDER TO STOP ASYLUM SEEKERS. THE DUTCH WOULD ALSO LIKE TO HALT THE FLOW OF UNINVITED GUESTS, AND PLAN TO BUILD THE WALL AROUND THEIR CHANCERY HIGHER. BUT THE WALL IS NOT YET BUILT AND BY COMING IN THROUGH THE REAR OF THE PROPERTY THE STUDENTS EVADED THE POLICE. TURNING OFF THE AIR-CONDITIONING, AS SUGGESTED BY THE DUTCH OFFICIAL IN REF B, IS UNLIKELY TO HELP; SANTIAGO TEMPERATURES RARELY GO ABOVE THE '80'S. AS THE GOC IS UNLIKELY CONFIDENTIAL

TO DROP THE DETENTION ORDER ANYTIME SOON (AS IN THEIR VIEW THIS WOULD ONLY ENCOURAGE ASYLEES), THE DUTCH ARE LIKELY TO HAVE THEIR GUESTS FOR QUITE SOME TIME.

4. (U) ON NOVEMBER 12 ANOTHER STUDENT LEADER DAUNO TOTORO, WAS ACCEPTED BY THE VENEZUELAN EMBASSY AS A "GUEST." TOTORO,AN ACTIVIST IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY YOUTH WING, HAS BEEN DETAINED ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS THIS YEAR, AND IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT ANOTHER ORDER FOR HIS DETENTION HAS BEEN ISSUED BY THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR. THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF HIS RESIDENCE IN THE VENEZUELAN EMBASSY WAS MADE ON NOVEMBER 14 BY THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

SUBJECT: HABIB, BARIANI DISCUSS CENTRAL AMERICA

1. [redacted] - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. QUAI STATE SECRETARY FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS DIDIER BARIANI MET WITH AMBASSADOR PHILIP HABIB NOVEMBER 19 FOR A DISCUSSION OF US POLICY ON THE CONTADORA PROCESS AND AID TO THE CONTRAS. BARIANI SAID HE WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR IMPLEMENTING THE REVERSAL OF GOF POLICY FROM OPPOSITION TO SUPPORT OF THE US. HABIB ACKNOWLEDGED THAT WE WERE PLEASED WITH THIS CHANGE. HE EXPLAINED WE STILL SUPPORTED THE CONTADORA PEACE PROCESS, DESPITE OUR AND THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES' FRUSTRATION WITH THE JUNE 6 DRAFT. WE AND THE DEMOCRACIES FELT THE CONTADORA GROUP, PARTICULARLY MEXICO, SHOULD ALLOW THE CENTRAL AMERICANS THEMSELVES TO TAKE THE CENTRAL ROLE, AND NOT DICTATE TO THEM, AND SHOULD CONSULT WITH THE DEMOCRACIES, NOT JUST NICARAGUA. HABIB THEN SAID THE FOCAL POINT FOR US NOW WAS WHAT THE CONTRAS WERE DOING. NEW OPERATIONS WERE BEGINNING, AND WE WOULD SEE THE RESULTS IN FOUR TO SIX MONTHS. SUCCESS WOULD BE MEASURED IN THE DEGREE OF PRESSURE BROUGHT ON THE SANDINISTAS. THUS WE WERE

CONFIDENTIAL

UNCLASSIFIED

PURSUING A TWO-TRACK POLICY OF CONTRA PRESSURE AND CONTADORA DIPLOMACY. END SUMMARY.

3. BARIANI CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR IMPLEMENTING CHIRAC AND RAIMOND'S CHANGES IN GOF POLICY TOWARD CENTRAL AMERICA. CHIRAC AND RAIMOND REDIRECTED FRENCH AID AWAY FROM NICARAGUA TO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. CHIRAC PUBLICLY ACKNOWLEDGED THE ALLIES SHOULD EXPRESS SOLIDARITY WITH US BECAUSE OF OUR STRONG INTERESTS IN THE REGION. HABIB SAID WE WERE AWARE OF THIS SHIFT, AND WE AND THE DEMOCRACIES WERE EXTREMELY PLEASED.

4. HABIB SAID WE STILL SUPPORTED THE CONTADORA PEACE PROCESS, WHICH WAS NOT YET DEAD. THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES WERE FRUSTRATED WITH CONTADORA. THEY THOUGHT THE JUNE 6 DRAFT ACT WAS INADEQUATE. FURTHER, THEY WANTED A CENTRAL ROLE, AND RESENTED DICTATES FROM STATES OUTSIDE THE REGION, SUCH AS MEXICO. STILL, WE NEEDED A PEACE PROCESS, AND IT WAS HABIB'S JOB TO KEEP ONE ALIVE, WHETHER IT BE CONTADORA OR A SUCCESSOR.

5. OUR FOCAL POINT NOW WAS NEW CONTRA MILITARY ACTION. THE FIRST RESULTS WOULD BE APPARENT IN FOUR TO SIX MONTHS. SUCCESS COULD BE MEASURED MANY WAYS. FOR A RELATIVELY SMALL OPERATION COSTING ONLY 100 MILLION DOLLARS, PRESSURE ALONE COULD REPRESENT SUCCESS.

6. THE IMPORTANT THING WAS THAT WE WERE PURSUING A TWO-TRACK POLICY. ONE TRACK WAS PRESSURE BY THE CONTRAS ON THE SANDINISTAS. THE OTHER WAS THE PEACE PROCESS IN THE CONTADORA FRAMEWORK. HABIB WOULD TRAVEL TO THE FOUR CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES, COLOMBIA AND MEXICO THAT DAY TO PURSUE THE PEACE PROCESS.

7. BARIANI ASKED ABOUT THE CONTRAS' SITUATION. HABIB SAID EIGHTEEN TO TWENTY THOUSAND FACED A SANDINISTA ARMY OF SEVENTY THOUSAND. SIX TO SEVEN THOUSAND CONTRAS WERE IN NICARAGUA NOW, AND THIS WOULD DOUBLE IN COMING MONTHS. BARIANI ASKED IF RENEWAL OF CONTRA AID DID NOT CONTRADICT HABIB'S WORK. HABIB SAID NO, BECAUSE HIS JOB WAS TO SHOW WE REMAINED OPEN TO A PEACE PROCESS. BARIANI ASKED IF HABIB WOULD VISIT MANAGUA, AND HABIB SAID NO. WE CUT OFF THE MANZANILLO TALKS WHEN IT WAS APPARENT THE SANDINISTAS WOULD DISCUSS ONLY BILATERAL ISSUES. WE WOULD TALK IF THEY WERE READY FOR DISCUSSIONS WITH THE INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL OPPOSITION.

8. HABIB SAID THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUP STATES HAD MADE KNOWN THEIR OPPOSITION TO THE CONTRA. HOWEVER, THE

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

PEACE PROCESS HAS NOT BUDGED THE SANDINISTAS. THEY HAVE ONLY EXPANDED THEIR MILITARY DURING PERIODS OF PEACE. THE CONTRAS RECEIVED MUCH BAD PLAY IN THE PRESS, BUT IT WAS IMPORTANT TO SEE WHAT THE SANDINISTAS WERE DOING TO POLITICAL PARTIES, THE PRESS, THE CHURCH AND TO ANY INTERNAL OPPOSITION.

9. THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES HAD DIFFERENT VIEWS. HONDURAS AND EL SALVADOR SUPPORTED THE CONTRAS. COSTA RICA'S PRESIDENT ARIAS' ARGUMENT WAS THAT COSTA RICA FEARED NICARAGUA'S POWER, SANDINISTA OR SOMOZISTA. POLITICAL CHANGE COULD LEAD TO A REINING IN OF THIS POWER. CONSEQUENTLY ARIAS SAW AN OVERTURE TO DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS--A FREE PRESS, POLITICAL PARTIES, A SYSTEM OF CHECKS AND BALANCES, THE RIGHT OF FREE SPEECH--AS HIS BEST PROTECTION. GUATEMALA SAW ITSELF AS A BRIDGE BETWEEN THE THREE OTHER DEMOCRACIES AND NICARAGUA. INTELLECTUALLY, CEREZO WERE CLOSE TO FELLOW CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS DUARTE AND ESCONA, BUT GUATEMALA WAS UNDER PRESSURE FROM MEXICO.

10. HABIB SAID THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WANTED HIM TO GO TO EUROPE TO EXPLAIN US POLICY. FRANCE WAS NOT ONE OF THOSE WHICH NEEDED CONVINCING, BUT HE HOPED TO STOP IN PARIS IF HE MADE THIS TRIP. BARIANI SAID HABIB WOULD BE WELCOME, BUT HE WOULD PROBABLY FIND NO SUPPORT IN MOST OF EUROPE FOR US AID TO THE CONTRAS.

(C) CHILE: UN RESOLUTION SHOWDOWN NEARS:
WHILE THE DRAFT MEXICAN RESOLUTION NOW CIRCULATING SHOWS SOME IMPROVEMENTS OVER LAST YEAR'S TEXT (WHICH WE VOTED AGAINST), THERE ARE CONTINUING PROBLEMS OF TONE AND SUBSTANCE. THE RESOLUTION DOES NOT TRACK WITH THE LATEST VOLIO REPORT; MAKES NO MENTION OF TERRORISM, THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT, OR THE ARMS CACHES; AND DISMISSES THE ELEMENTS OF HUMAN PROGRESS REFERRED TO IN THE VOLIO REPORT IN AN EXTREMELY COUNTERPRODUCTIVE FASHION. IO AND HA (SCHIFTER) BELIEVE THAT ABSENT CHANGES IN THE TEXT, WE WOULD HAVE NO CHOICE BUT TO VOTE NO. ACCORDING TO USUN, THE MEXICANS SO FAR HAVE FAILED TO PERSUADE ANY WEST EUROPEANS TO CO-SPONSOR. APPARENTLY, THE WEST EUROPEANS ARE WAITING TO SEE HOW WE REACT TO THE MEXICAN TEXT. THE MEXICANS APPEAR TO BE AVOIDING (DELIBERATELY) SEEKING

CO-SPONSORSHIP OF THE BLOC COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE TRADITIONALLY SUPPORTED THEIR EFFORTS. WE HAVE PREPARED

AN INSTRUCTION TO USUN ASKING THAT THEY SHARE OUR CRITICAL ANALYSIS OF THE MEXICAN TEXT WITH THE MEXICANS (WHO HAVE ASKED FOR OUR REACTION), MAXIMO PACHECO, AND THE WEOG PERMREPS. IO HAS THE CABLE FOR CLEARANCE.

(SWIGERT)

(C) CHILE: MORE COUNTRIES AGREE TO ABSTAIN ON SAL: BOTH THE NETHERLANDS AND THE FRG HAVE AGREED TO ABSTAIN ON THE SAL THURSDAY. WE BRIEFED THE CANADIAN EMBASSY ON THESE DEVELOPMENTS AND URGED THAT THEY JOIN US IN ABSTAINING. (SWIGERT)

(LOU) CHILE: CONGRESSIONAL REACTIONS TO ABSTENTION: LUNDINE STAFF UNDERSTANDING:
AT BOB GELBARD'S INSTRUCTION, WE SHOWED LUNDINE STAFFER THE TEXT OF OUR OCTOBER DEMARCHE TO CAPITALS URGING ABSTENTION, AND WE BRIEFED THE STAFFERS ON REACTION TO DATE. WHILE THEY PREDICTED THAT THERE WOULD BE CRITICISM OF THE US DECISION BY COMMITTEE DEMOCRATS, THEY SAID THAT AT THE STAFF LEVEL THERE WAS UNDERSTANDING OF THE REASONS THAT MOTIVATED THE DECISION TO OPT FOR ABSTENTION RATHER THAN A NO VOTE. STAFF DIRECTOR BARRY HAGGER ARGUED THAT REACTION TO A NO VOTE IN CHILE WOULD NOT BE AS WE FEARED, BUT AGREED THAT THIS WAS A JUDGMENT CALL. (SWIGERT)

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PREL, PHUM, PGOV, UNGA, CI
SUBJECT: U.S. REACTION TO PROPOSED MEXICAN RESOLUTION ON CHILE

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: ALTHOUGH AN IMPROVEMENT IN SOME RESPECTS OVER LAST YEAR'S MEXICAN-SPONSORED RESOLUTION ON CHILE ADOPTED BY THE UNGA, THE PROPOSED MEXICAN RESOLUTION ON CHILE FOR THE UNGA THIS YEAR IS ALSO SERIOUSLY CONFIDENTIAL

UNBALANCED. THE US WOULD NOT BE IN A POSITION TO SUPPORT THIS RESOLUTION UNLESS SUBTANTIAL REVISIONS ARE MADE.
END SUMMARY.

3. IN SOME RESPECTS THE MEXICAN TEXT IS AN IMPROVEMENT OVER THE MEXICAN-SPONSORED RESOLUTION ON CHILE ADOPTED BY THE UNGA LAST YEAR. THE RESOLUTION, FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE UNGA, REFERS EXPLICITLY TO THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT, RATHER THAN TO CHILEAN AUTHORITIES. IN TERMS OF TONE, THE TEXT ALSO REPRESENTS AN ADVANCE. STRIDENT LANGUAGE STILL CHARACTERIZES THIS YEAR'S MEXICAN TEXT, ALTHOUGH NOT ON THE SCALE OF THE 1985 UNGA RESOLUTION, WHICH EXPRESSED "INDIGNATION" AND "ALARM" OVER "SYSTEMATIC" HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS.

4. THIS IMPROVEMENT IN TONE IS EVIDENT PRINCIPALLY IN THOSE PARTS OF THE RESOLUTION WHICH WERE TAKEN DIRECTLY FROM THE US-SPONSORED UNHRC RESOLUTION ADOPTED LAST MARCH IN GENEVA. IN THIS REGARD, THE RESOLUTION INCLUDES LANGUAGE FROM THE US RESOLUTION CALLING ON THE GOVERNMENT TO (A) END TORTURE, (B) PROCEED THROUGH JUDICIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION TO INVESTIGATE REPORTS OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, (C) EFFECT SUCH REORGANIZATION OF SECURITY FORCES AS MAY BE NECESSARY TO END HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, (D) PROVIDE FOR PROTECTION OF THE PUBLIC ORDER AGAINST ACTS OF VIOLENCE, (E) COOPERATE EFFECTIVELY WITH INVESTIGATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, (F) END ACTIVITIES OF GROUPS RESPONSIBLE FOR KIDNAPPINGS, (G) REESTABLISH FULL ENJOYMENT OF LABOR RIGHTS, AND (H) RESPECT ACTIVITIES RELATED TO DEFENSE OF HUMAN RIGHTS.

5. AS WE HAVE MADE CLEAR, THE US WILL SUPPORT ONLY A CONFIDENTIAL

BALANCED AND CONSTRUCTIVE RESOLUTION ON CHILE. THE MEXICAN DRAFT FALLS SHORT ON BOTH COUNTS. THE RESOLUTION IS FLAWED IN SUBSTANCE AS WELL AS TONE. WE WOULD BE UNABLE TO SUPPORT THIS RESOLUTION UNLESS MAJOR, SUBSTANTIAL REVISIONS WERE MADE--REVISIONS WHICH WE DOUBT THE MEXICANS ARE WILLING TO ENTERTAIN.

6. ACTION REQUESTED: WE WANT TO MAKE CLEAR TO ALL THOSE CONCERNED THE BASIS FOR OUR OBJECTIONS TO THE TEXT. USUN THEREFORE IS AUTHORIZED TO CONVEY TO THE MEXICANS AND TO REPRESENTATIVES OF THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION IN NEW YORK THE FOLLOWING REACTIONS TO THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION AS CURRENTLY DRAFTED. YOU SHOULD SHARE OUR REACTION WITH MEMBERS OF THE WEOG GROUP AS WELL, AND SUGGEST THAT THEY WORK FOR ADOPTION OF A BALANCED TEXT. FOR SAN JOSE: PLEASE SHARE OUR REACTION WITH SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR VOLIO. FOR SANTIAGO: DRAW ON THIS MESSAGE AS APPROPRIATE IN YOUR CONTACTS.

7. CRITIQUE OF MEXICAN RESOLUTION ON CHILE
WE NEED TO SEE SUBSTANTIAL IMPROVEMENTS IN THE FOLLOWING FOUR AREAS:
--THE RESOLUTION DOES NOT CONFORM WITH THE SUBSTANCE OF THE LATEST VOLIO REPORT. THE RESOLUTION DOES NOT COMMEND THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR, AS DID THE MARCH 1986 UNHRC RESOLUTION. NOR IS THERE ANY REQUEST THAT THE GOVERNMENT ALLOW ANOTHER VISIT BY THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR.

--WHAT IS MISSING FROM THE TEXT ASSURES THE LACK OF

BALANCE EVIDENT IN THE MEXICAN DRAFT. THERE IS NO EXPLICIT REFERENCE TO TERRORISM, NOR EXPLICIT ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF VIOLENCE FROM ANY SOURCE EXCEPT THE GOVERNMENT. THE STATE OF SIEGE IS MENTIONED, BUT THERE IS NO REFERENCE TO THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AGAINST PRESIDENT PINOCHET WHICH PRECEDED THE IMPOSITION OF THE CONFIDENTIAL

STATE OF SIEGE. NOR IS THERE ANY MENTION OF THE INTRODUCTION OF LARGE QUANTITIES OF TERRORIST ARMS FROM ABROAD. BY OMITTING THESE ELEMENTS, THE RESOLUTION ALSO DIVERGES FROM THE REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR. THE RESOLUTION ALSO DOES NOT DRAW POSITIVE ATTENTION TO A SIGNIFICANT RECENT DEVELOPMENT--THE RECENT AGREEMENT BY THE GOC TO PERMIT ICRC DOCTORS TO EXAMINE INDIVIDUALS DETAINED BY SECURITY FORCES.

--BY FAILING TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE FINDINGS OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR IN HIS LATEST REPORT, THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION ALSO MISSES THE OPPORTUNITY TO REINFORCE THE CONSTRUCTIVE RECOMMENDATIONS MADE BY VOLIO: FOR EXAMPLE, HIS RECOMMENDATIONS TO STRENGTHEN THE ADVISORY COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS MATTERS BY PROVIDING WIDER POWERS, TO ALLOW THE SPEEDY RETURN OF ALL EXILES, AND TO REVIEW AND AMEND AS NECESSARY EXISTING PROCEDURES AND LAWS SO AS TO MAKE IT POSSIBLE FOR DISSENTING OPINIONS TO BE EXPRESSED PEACEFULLY, IN PARTICULAR BY AUTHORIZING THE HOLDING OF PEACEFUL GATHERINGS IN PUBLIC PLACES.

--WHILE THE TONE IS IN SOME RESPECTS AN IMPROVEMENT, THERE IS UNACCEPTABLE LANGUAGE. FOR EXAMPLE, THE RESOLUTION REFERS REPEATEDLY TO "GRAVE" VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS. PREVIOUS RESOLUTIONS (UNHRC 1986/63 OF 14 MARCH 1986 AND EVEN UNGA 40/145 0F 13 DECEMBER 1985) REFER TO "SERIOUS" VIOLATIONS. NO CHANGE IN THE SITUATION WARRANTS THIS CHANGE IN LANGUAGE. THE USE OF THE WORD "DEMAND" IN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH NINE IS UNWARRANTED, AND IS NOT CONDUCIVE TO BRINGING ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS IMPROVEMENTS.

MORE SPECIFIC PROBLEMS WITH THE TEXT INCLUDE:

A. PREAMBULAR PARAGRAPH SIX (DEPLORING THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE HAS IGNORED REPEATED APPEALS BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND UNHRC) DISCOUNTS THE GOVERNMENT'S CURRENT COOPERATION WITH SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR VOLIO, WHICH IS DOCUMENTED IN VOLIO'S LATEST REPORT. A CONSTRUCTIVE RESOLUTION WOULD SEEK TO ENCOURAGE CLOSER, MORE INTENSIVE COOPERATION IN THE FUTURE, AND NOT FOCUS ON CONDEMNING THE GOVERNMENT FOR PERCEIVED LACK OF ATTENTION TO EARLIER UNGA AND UNHRC RESOLUTIONS. THE US DID NOT SUPPORT THOSE RESOLUTIONS AND COULD NOT ACCEPT A PARAGRAPH SUCH AS THIS.

B. PREAMBULAR PARAGRAPH EIGHT (BACKHANDED REFERENCES TO PROGRESS) IS EQUALLY UNHELPFUL IN TERMS OF THE OBJECTIVE OF SUCH A RESOLUTION, WHICH SHOULD BE TO PROMOTE HUMAN RIGHTS IMPROVEMENTS, NOT INDIFFERENCE BY THE GOVERNMENT TO RESOLUTIONS OF THIS KIND. THIS PARAGRAPH DOES NOT CONFORM TO THE LATEST VOLIO REPORT, AND ITS COMMENTS REGARDING LABOR COURTS, THE GOVERNMENT ADVISORY COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS, AND THE ABSENCE OF NEW CASES ON INTERNAL EXILE. IN FACT, IT IGNORES THE FACT THAT THE GOC COMPLIED WITH THE CALL IN THE UNGA RESOLUTION ADOPTED LAST YEAR TO END "THE PRACTICE" OF INTERNAL BANISHMENT. ACKNOWLEDGMENT THAT THE GOC HAS IN FACT ENDED THIS PRACTICE IS LOST IN CRITICISM THAT POWERS ALLOWING INTERNAL BANISHMENT AND EXILE REMAIN IN PLACE.

C. OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH TWO CONTAINS AN UNACCEPTABLE

REFERENCE TO THE CONSTITUTION OF CHILE. THIS RESOLUTION TAKES A POSITION ON WHAT IS A HIGHLY CONTROVERSIAL ISSUE WITHIN CHILE. FUNDAMENTALLY THE ISSUE OF CHILE'S CONSTITUTION IS A POLITICAL MATTER, AND IS NOT APPROPRIATE FOR A RESOLUTION ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. AGAIN, THIS PARAGRAPH HAS NO RELATION TO THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S REPORT.

D. OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH FOUR IS PARTICULARLY UNBALANCED, CONFIDENTIAL

AND LEAVES THE IMPRESSION THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL VIOLENCE IN CHILE AND ALL DEMONSTRATIONS ARE PEACEFUL. THE DEGREE OF DETAIL IN THIS PARAGRAPH FAR EXCEEDS THAT IN PREVIOUS RESOLUTIONS OR IN RESOLUTIONS TREATING HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES ELSEWHERE.

E. OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH FIVE REVISES THE UNHRC PARAGRAPH ON WHICH IT IS BASED IN AN UNACCEPTABLE MANNER, LEAVING OUT THE REFERENCE TO NATIONAL DIALOGUE, AND THE EXPLICIT REFERENCE TO FREE ELECTIONS. THE OMISSION OF THE REFERENCE TO THE IMPORTANCE OF FREE ELECTIONS TO THE FULL ENJOYMENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN ANY OTHER NATION IS ALSO DISTURBING.

F. OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH EIGHT IS UNCLEAR. THIS AREA HAS BEEN COVERED ELSEWHERE IN THE RESOLUTION.

G. THE SPECIFIC REFERENCE IN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH NINE/D (DISAPPEARED) TO THE AMNESTY LAW IS COUNTERPRODUCTIVE. (THE REFERENCE TO DISAPPEARED IS ALSO REDUNDANT, HAVING BEEN COVERED PREVIOUSLY.) THE ISSUE OF AMNESTY IS EXTREMELY SENSITIVE AND IS BEST RESOLVED BY CHILEANS. THE COMMENTS OF OTHERS ON THIS SUBJECT WILL ONLY

COMPLICATE NOT PROMOTE PROGRESS IN THIS AREA.

H. WE CANNOT AGREE TO THE INFERENCE IN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH NINE/J THAT THE SOCIAL AND CULTURAL IDENTITY OF ETHNIC MINORITIES IN CHILE IS SOMEHOW UNDER ATTACK.

I. OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH TEN GREATLY DISTORTS THE RECORD OF CHILEAN GOVERNMENT COOPERATION WITH THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR. IT IGNORES THE FINDINGS OF THE SPECIAL

RAPPORTEUR IN HIS LATEST REPORT THAT THE COOPERATION OF THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT WITH HIM HAS ALLOWED PROGRESS ON SOME ISSUES. SUBSTANTIAL PROGRESS IS LACKING ON HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS, BUT THAT IS MADE EVIDENT ELSEWHERE IN THE RESOLUTION. SHULTZ

SUBJECT: US ABSTENTION ON IBRD LOAN TO CHILE

1. (C - ENTIRE TEXT)

2. AS ADDRESSEES ARE AWARE, A 250 MILLION DOLLAR STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT LOAN (SAL) TO CHILE IN THE IBRD COMES TO A VOTE NOVEMBER 20. BECAUSE OF OUR CONTINUING CONCERNS REGARDING THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE AND ABOUT A TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY WE HAVE DECIDED TO ABSTAIN ON THE SAL.

3. UNDER SECRETARY ARMACOST INFORMED CHILEAN AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ NOV. 17 OF OUR DECISION TO ABSTAIN. EMBASSY SANTIAGO (AND OTHER ADDRESSEES AS NEEDED) MAY DRAW ON BELOW TALKING POINTS IN EXPLAINING DECISION AND THE REASONING BEHIND IT.
FYI ONLY: TEXT OF PREPARED STATEMENT BY US EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR (ED) TO BE MADE WHILE VOTING NOV. 20 FOLLOWS IN PARA 5. THIS STATEMENT WILL BE RELEASED TO THE PRESS THAT DAY, AND SHOULD NOT BE PROVIDED TO GOC OR OTHER GOVERNMENTS UNTIL THAT TIME. PRESS GUIDANCE FOR DEPARTMENT'S SPOKESMAN WILL BE SENT SEPTEL. END FYI.

4. TALKING POINTS:

--WE WILL ABSTAIN WHEN THE SAL IS VOTED ON NOVEMBER 20. AT THE TIME OF OUR VOTE, WE WILL MAKE AN EXPLANATORY STATEMENT EXPRESSING OUR REASONS. WE CONSIDER IT IMPORTANT THAT OUR ACTION AND THE REASONING BEHIND IT BE UNDERSTOOD.

--AS WE HAVE MADE CLEAR BOTH PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY, WE STRONGLY SUPPORT THE GOC'S SUCCESSFUL ECONOMIC POLICIES, AND CONSIDER ITS MARKET-ORIENTATION AND RECORD OF RESPONSIBLE DEBT MANAGEMENT A MODEL FOR OTHERS.

--WE UNDERSTAND THE IMPORTANCE OF THE SAL TO CHILE'S ECONOMY. WE HAVE NO DESIRE TO ADD TO THE ECONOMIC DIFFICULTIES FACING THE CHILEAN PEOPLE, AND HAVE BEEN COUNSELED NOT TO TAKE ANY ACTION THAT MIGHT DO SO BY MANY CHILEANS, INCLUDING CARDINAL FRESNO AND RESPONSIBLE MEMBERS OF THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION.

--WE BELIEVE THAT FURTHER ECONOMIC PROGRESS IN CHILE WILL ENHANCE PROSPECTS FOR A SUCCESSFUL DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION, AND PROVIDE THE BASIS FOR A STRONG, CONTINUING FREE SOCIETY.

--YOU ARE WELL AWARE OF OUR LEGISLATIVE CRITERIA AND OUR CONCERNS OVER THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE AS WELL AS OUR ADVOCACY FOR A RETURN TO FREELY ELECTED DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT.

--GIVEN THESE CONCERNS, WE ARE UNABLE TO SUPPORT THE SAL LOAN, AND THEREFORE, WILL ABSTAIN ON THIS LOAN APPLICATION. OUR PUBLIC STATEMENT AT THE TIME OF THE VOTE WILL REFLECT OUR VIEWS ON THE CHILEAN ECONOMY AS WELL AS THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. WE HOPE THAT BEFORE THE NEXT CHILEAN NON-BASIC HUMAN NEEDS MDB LOAN COMES TO A VOTE, THERE WILL HAVE BEEN SUFFICIENT PROGRESS IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS TO ALLOW US TO VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE LOAN.

CONFIDENTIAL

5. USED STATEMENT:

--THE UNITED STATES WILL ABSTAIN ON THIS 250 MILLION DOLLAR STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT LOAN FOR CHILE. THIS ABSTENTION REPRESENTS A DECISION WHICH MY GOVERNMENT HAS REACHED REGARDING BOTH OUR LEGISLATIVE CRITERIA AND OUR CONCERN FOR THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE.

--IN ABSTAINING, I WISH TO EMPHASIZE THAT THE U.S. STRONGLY SUPPORTS THE WORLD BANK IN ITS EFFORTS TO PROMOTE LONG-TERM SUSTAINED ECONOMIC GROWTH THROUGH THE PURSUIT OF SOUND POLICIES AND MANAGEMENT IN BORROWING COUNTRIES.

--IN THIS RESPECT, CHILE'S RECORD OF EXCELLENT ECONOMIC MANAGEMENT HAS LED TO POSITIVE RESULTS WHICH, TAKEN TOGETHER WITH THE SACRIFICES THE CHILEAN PEOPLE HAVE MADE IN IMPLEMENTING DIFFICULT BUT NEEDED ECONOMIC REFORMS, ARE STRONG REASONS FOR SUPPORTING THIS LOAN ON ECONOMIC GROUNDS.

--HOWEVER, WHILE WE APPRECIATE THE ECONOMIC MERITS OF THIS PARTICULAR LOAN, WE MUST BE COGNIZANT THAT CONTINUING HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS IN CHILE ARE MATTERS FOR GREAT CONCERN. IN THIS CONTEXT, WE WISH TO EMPHASIZE THAT FULL RECOGNITION OF THE RIGHTS OF THE INDIVIDUAL IN CHILE WOULD GO FAR TOWARDS ADVANCING THE LONG-TERM BENEFITS OF A SAL OR OTHER SUCH LOANS. WE ARE AWARE THAT OTHER MEMBER COUNTRIES VOTING TODAY SHARE THESE CONCERNS.

--THUS, AS MUCH AS WE COMMEND THE CONSIDERABLE PROGRESS THAT CHILE HAS MADE IN ADOPTING MARKET-ORIENTED REFORMS, WE MUST OPPOSE THIS LOAN WITH AN ABSTENTION. SHULTZ

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PREL, OVIP (HABIB, PHILIP C.), XK
SUBJECT: AMB. HABIB'S MEETING WITH SALVADORAN
- PRESIDENT DUARTE

1. [redacted] ENTIRE TEXT).

2. SUMMARY: AMB. HABIB ASSURED PRESIDENT DUARTE THAT THE USG CONTINUED TO PURSUE A TWO-TRACK POLICY IN CENTRAL AMERICA. DUARTE SAID THAT CONTADORA WAS USEFUL AS A GOOD-WILL EFFORT AND THAT HE STILL SUPPORTED THE SEARCH FOR A COMPREHENSIVE REGIONAL SETTLEMENT, BUT THAT MEXICO AND OTHERS SYMPATHETIC TO NICARAGUA WERE TRYING TO USE IT TO IMPOSE AN AGREEMENT ON THE CENTRAL AMERICANS. THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES HAD SOUGHT TO PUT PRESSURE ON THE DEMOCRACIES AT THE OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY, BUT THE CORE THREE WERE UNITED AND FORCED THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES TO BACK DOWN. DUARTE VIEWED THE OAS/UNITED NATIONS JOINT INITIATIVE AS A FORM OF BILATERALISM AND AN ATTEMPT TO PUT A PROTECTIVE BARRIER AROUND NICARAGUA. HE SUSPECTED THAT THE OPPONENTS OF U.S. POLICY WOULD TAKE DRAMATIC ACTION TO FRUSTRATE THAT POLICY, AND EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT ANTI-U.S. SENTIMENT IN LATIN AMERICA WAS RISING. NICARAGUA WAS ADROITLY PLAYING ON LATIN CONCERNS ABOUT AN EXPANDED WAR, AND IT WAS PREPARED TO STRIKE INTO BORDER AREAS TO PREEMPT THE BUILD-UP OF THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE. IF THE U.S. WERE TO BECOME DIRECTLY INVOLVED IN THE FIGHTING, THAT WOULD FURTHER INTENSIFY INTERNATIONAL PRESSURE TO END THE CONFLICT. DUARTE NOTED THAT ALL PARTIES INVOLVED IN THE CRISIS CLOSELY MONITORED U.S. DOMESTIC POLITICS, AND MANY HAD DOUBTS ABOUT THE ABILITY OF THE USG TO STAY THE COURSE. AMB. HABIB GAVE STRONG ASSURANCES ABOUT U.S. RESOLVE AND DETERMINATION TO CARRY OUT OUR POLICY. END SUMMARY

3. ON NOVEMBER 20, AMBASSADOR HABIB MET FOR NEARLY TWO HOURS WITH SALVADORAN PRESIDENT DUARTE AT A LUNCH HOSTED BY CHARGE DLOUHY. ALSO ATTENDING WERE FOREIGN MINISTER ACEVEDO, AIDE MORALES EHRLICH, AS WELL AS THE OTHER MEMBERS OF HABIB'S PARTY AND SEVERAL EMBOFFS.

CONTADORA

4. AMB. HABIB STATED THAT THE U.S. CONTINUED TO PURSUE A TWO TRACK POLICY OF PRESSURE ON NICARAGUA AND NEGOTIATIONS. WE WANTED TO KEEP THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS

GOING, AND WE DID NOT WANT TO APPEAR TO BE KILLING CONTADORA. DUARTE AGREED THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT NOT TO APPEAR IN OPPOSITION TO CONTADORA. HE STATED THAT THE PROPER ROLE OF CONTADORA WAS TO BE A "GOOD-WILL" EFFORT, AND THAT ITS SUCCESS DEPENDED ON THE POLITICAL WILL OF ALL FIVE CENTRAL AMERICAN GOVERNMENTS. CONTADORA SHOULD NOT BE SOMETHING TO IMPOSE AN AGREEMENT ON THE CENTRAL AMERICANS. HOWEVER, NICARAGUA AND SOME OF THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES WERE SEEKING TO TURN IT INTO SOMETHING ELSE. MEXICO TRIED TO USE CONTADORA TO IMPOSE ITS VIEWS.

5. DUARTE INSISTED THAT ANY AGREEMENT MUST BE COMPLETE, INCLUDING PROVISIONS FOR VERIFICATION AND CONTROL. DUARTE NOTED THE IMPACT OF NICARAGUA'S ICJ CASES ON THE NEGOTIATIONS. HE DESCRIBED IT AS A "POINT OF HONOR," EXPLAINING THAT COSTA RICA COULD NOT NEGOTIATE WHILE THE SUITS WERE PENDING AND HONDURAS FOLLOWED COSTA RICA'S LEAD. EL SALVADOR SUPPORTED THEIR POSITION IN THE INTEREST OF CORE THREE SOLIDARITY. HE THOUGHT IT LIKELY THAT NICARAGUA WOULD FILE SUIT AGAINST EL SALVADOR BECAUSE OF THE HASENFUS CASE.

6. AMB. HABIB PRAISED THE SALVADORANS FOR THEIR SUCCESS AT THE OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN FORCING THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES TO AGREE TO A MILD COMPROMISE RESOLUTION. HE UNDERSCORED THAT THIS HAD DEMONSTRATED THE STRENGTH OF THE DEMOCRACIES WHEN THEY WORKED IN UNISON. ACEVEDO SAID THAT HE HAD TOLD THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES THAT THEY SHOULD PUT PRESSURE ON NICARAGUA TO DROP ITS ICJ CASES AGAINST COSTA RICA AND HONDURAS.

7. ASKED ABOUT THE UPCOMING CONTADORA MEETING IN RIO DE JANEIRO, DUARTE SAID THAT THE EIGHT COULD DEVISE A STRONG DOCUMENT AND THEN TAKE IT TO THE CENTRAL AMERICANS AND PRESSURE THEM TO SIGN, AS THE CONTADORA GROUP HAD DONE IN THE SUMMER OF 1984.

JOINT OAS/UNITED NATIONS INITIATIVE

8. DUARTE VIEWED THE JOINT OAS/UN INITIATIVE AS A NICARAGUAN/MEXICAN FORM OF BILATERALISM AND AN ATTEMPT TO FORM A PROTECTIVE BARRIER AROUND NICARAGUA. IT WOULD PREVENT A U.S. INVASION AND STRENGTHEN THE POSITION OF MEXICO AND THE SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRIES OPPOSED TO U.S. POLICY. IT IGNORED THE POLITICAL ASPECTS OF THE 1983 DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES AND INSTEAD FOCUSED ON MILITARY EVENTS. WHILE SOME OF ITS POINTS COULD BE OF VALUE IN IMPLEMENTING AN AGREEMENT, THERE WAS AS YET NO AGREEMENT TO BE IMPLEMENTED. ACEVEDO STATED THAT THE INITIATIVE SHOULD NOT BECOME A METHOD TO "SALAMI SLICE" THE 21 OBJECTIVES IMPLEMENTING SOME POINTS WITHOUT HAVING A SIGNED AGREEMENT. THE MAIN EFFORT SHOULD CONTINUE TO BE TOWARD REACHING A COMPREHENSIVE AGREEMENT.

9. DUARTE STATED THAT THE INITIATIVE COULD NOT GO FORWARD WITHOUT THE AGREEMENT OF THE CENTRAL AMERICANS. NICARAGUA WOULD OBVIOUSLY SIGN ON, INSISTING THAT IT HAD NO INTERNAL PROBLEM, JUST A CONFLICT WITH THE U.S. GUATEMALA PROBABLY WOULD AGREE TO IT AS WELL. EL SALVADOR WOULD SAY "YES, BUT...". COSTA RICA WOULD SAY "YES, BUT FIRST NICARAGUA MUST DROP ITS SUIT AT THE ICJ." HONDURAS WOULD SAY THAT IT WAS NOT A MILITARY PROBLEM, BUT RATHER A POLITICAL ONE.

10. THUS, THE CORE THREE COULD BE PERCEIVED AS THE OBSTACLE TO AN AGREEMENT, AND THIS COULD DEVELOP INTO A CONFRONTATION BETWEEN THEM AND THE REST OF LATIN AMERICA. AMB. HABIB POINTED TO THE NEED FOR CONTINUED UNITY AMONG THE CORE THREE, AND STRESSED THAT THE U.S. HAD THE RESOLVE TO STAY THE COURSE. DUARTE EXPRESSED HIS DISCOMFORT WITH THE THOUGHT OF BEING ISOLATED, AND HE WONDERED ABOUT THE CAPACITY OF THE CENTRAL AMERICANS TO RESIST IN THAT TYPE OF SITUATION. HE NOTED THAT, EXCEPT FOR ISRAEL, ONLY EL SALVADOR HAD VOTED WITH THE U.S. AT THE UNGA ON NICARAGUA'S ICJ RESOLUTION. BURGHARDT POINTED OUT THAT MANY AFRICAN AND ASIAN COUNTRIES HAD ABSTAINED ON THE RESOLUTION, BUT DUARTE REPLIED THAT IN LATIN AMERICA, THERE WAS NO ONE WHO REALLY WAS RESISTING THE CONTADORA'S PRESSURE.

EXDIS EXDIS EXDIS EXDIS

11. DUARTE RAISED THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE OAS/UN MAY SEND BORDER OBSERVERS TO NICARAGUA. AMB. HABIB ARGUED THAT AT THE UN, ONLY THE SECURITY COUNCIL COULD TAKE SUCH ACTION, AND THE U.S. COULD VETO IT. BURGHARDT ADDED THAT THE CARIBBEAN COUNTRIES WOULD PREVENT THE OAS FROM DOING SO. DUARTE RESPONDED THAT THE OPPONENTS OF OUR POLICY MIGHT FIND SOME WAY. FOR EXAMPLE, THEY COULD INVOKE THE RIO TREATY. DUARTE ASKED WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF MEXICO, PERU, OR ARGENTINA SENT OBSERVERS TO THE NICARAGUAN BORDER. WHEN AMB. HABIB ASKED IF ARGENTINA WOULD REALLY DO THAT FOR THE SANDINISTAS, DUARTE REPLIED "YOU WOULD BE SURPRISED". BURGHARDT NOTED THAT URUGUAY WAS ALREADY PROMOTING SUCH A SCHEME. DUARTE THEN ASKED WHAT WOULD HAPPEN WHEN THOSE OBSERVERS STARTED GETTING KILLED. THE MATTER COULD DEVELOP INTO A DRAMATIC SITUATION, WITH PERHAPS TEN LATIN COUNTRIES WITHDRAWING FROM THE OAS, INSISTING THAT IT DID NOT REPRESENT THE WILL OF THE LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES.

12. DUARTE EXPECTED THAT THE SITUATION ON THE BATTLEFIELD WOULD PROPEL DIPLOMATIC EVENTS. HE SUSPECTED THAT THE RECENT LULL IN FIGHTING IN EL SALVADOR WAS THE RESULT OF THE SALVADORAN GUERRILLAS RELOCATING INTO HONDURAS SO THAT THEY COULD ATTACK THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE FROM THE REAR. AT THE SAME TIME, THE SANDINISTAS WOULD NOT SIT BY AND WAIT FOR THE RESISTANCE TO GROW STRONGER; THEY WOULD ATTACK IN THE BORDER AREAS IN AN EFFORT TO PREEMPT THE RESISTANCE. AMB. HABIB AND BURGHARDT INJECTED THAT THE U.S. WOULD NOT STAND BY IF HONDURAS WERE ATTACKED. DUARTE REPLIED THAT THE HONDURAN ARMY AND THE U.S. WOULD BECOME INVOLVED, AND ADDED THAT SUCH AN ESCALATION WAS PRECISELY WHAT THE SANDINISTAS WANTED. THE EXPANDED CONFLICT WOULD GENERATE ENORMOUS INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL PRESSURE TO STOP THE FIGHTING. ARGENTINA, PERU, AND OTHER COUNTRIES WOULD PRESS FOR OAS ACTION. EUROPEAN COUNTRIES WOULD ALSO TRY TO STEP IN. THE SANDINISTAS WOULD BE ABLE TO CAPITALIZE ON WORLD-WIDE ANTI-IMPERIALIST SENTIMENT. THEY WERE PREPARED TO SACRIFICE SOME OF THEIR TROOPS TO DO SO, HE REMARKED.

NICARAGUA'S STRATEGY

13. NICARAGUA'S STRATEGY INCLUDED TWO ELEMENTS. FIRST, IT WAS PLAYING ON THE LATIN'S CONCERN ABOUT A WIDENING WAR AND U.S. INTERVENTION BY CLAIMING THAT U.S. POLICY WOULD LEAD TO ESCALATION AND ULTIMATELY AN INVASION. AT THE SAME TIME, THE SANDINISTAS WERE INSISTING THAT THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE ITSELF COULD NOT ACHIEVE ANYTHING, AND THAT WITH DEMOCRATS NOW IN CONTROL OF BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS AND IN A STRONG POSITION FOR THE 1988 ELECTION, THE U.S. WOULD ULTIMATELY CHANGE ITS POLICY AND NEGOTIATE WITH NICARAGUA.

14. DUARTE REMARKED THAT THE SANDINISTAS WERE "PLAYING IT SMART" IN LATIN AMERICA. THEY WERE ARGUING THAT THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE WOULD BE DEFEATED AND THAT NICARAGUA WOULD EMERGE STRONGER THAN EVER. THEY WERE ATTRACTING MORE SUPPORT WHILE ANTI-AMERICAN SENTIMENT IN LATIN AMERICA WAS INCREASING. THIS GROWING ANTI-AMERICANISM WAS CAUSED BY THE MALVINAS SITUATION AND U.S. AID TO THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE. HE STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE OF THE U.S. WORKING WITH THOSE LATIN COUNTRIES WHO WERE NOT ALREADY COMMITTED, SUCH AS COLOMBIA AND VENEZUELA, AND EVEN PANAMA, ALTHOUGH THE ROLE OF THE LATTER WAS MUCH LESS.

U.S. POLITICS AND U.S. COMMITMENT

15. DUARTE SAID THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT TO ANALYZE THE LOGIC DRIVING THE ACTIONS OF THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES. THEY PERCEIVED THAT THE NEXT U.S. ADMINISTRATION WOULD HAVE A MUCH DIFFERENT POLICY. AMB. HABIB REMARKED THAT PRESIDENT REAGAN HAD TWO MORE YEARS IN OFFICE, AND MUCH COULD HAPPEN IN THAT TIME. HE ALSO ASSURED DUARTE THAT EVEN IF THE DEMOCRATS WON IN 1988, THIS WOULD NOT PRODUCE A FUNDAMENTAL SHIFT IN U.S. POLICY BECAUSE NO ADMINISTRATION COULD ACCEPT A COMMUNIST REGIME ON THE AMERICAN MAINLAND. AMB. HABIB STRESSED THAT THE RECENT U.S. ELECTION HAD NOT YIELDED A MAJOR SHIFT IN CONGRESS. OUR POLICY HAD SUBSTANTIAL BIPARTISAN SUPPORT. AS THE PERFORMANCE OF THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE IMPROVED IN THE COMING MONTHS, EVEN MORE MEMBERS OF CONGRESS WOULD SEE THE CORRECTNESS OF OUR POLICY. WHILE HE DID NOT WANT TO RAISE UNREALISTIC EXPECTATIONS, AMB. HABIB SAID THAT IN A FEW MONTHS THE AID THAT WAS JUST BEGINNING TO GO TO THE RESISTANCE WOULD BEGIN TO HAVE A VISIBLE IMPACT. AMB. HABIB COMMENTED THAT HE GOT THE IMPRESSION THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES FELT LIKE THE USG WOULD LEAVE THEM IN THE LURCH. DUARTE RESPONDED "SOMETIMES." AMB. HABIB REITERATED U.S. RESOLVE TO STAY THE COURSE IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

MEXICO

16. ACEVEDO SAID THAT THE MEXICAN AMBASSADOR HAD TOLD HIM THAT MEXICO HAD TAKEN SUCH A HARD POSITION ON THE SALVADOR HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUE AT THE UN BECAUSE "PRESIDENT REAGAN HAD HAD THE NERVE TO REFER TO PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID ABOUT MEXICO'S CONDUCT ON CENTRAL AMERICAN ISSUES. THIS WAS UNACCEPTABLE." MEXICO WAS DEMONSTRATING THAT IT WOULD NOT YIELD TO U.S. PRESSURE BY PUSHING FOR ITS RESOLUTION CRITICIZING SALVADOR'S HUMAN RIGHTS PERFORMANCE. AMB. HABIB ADVISED DUARTE THAT HE WOULD MAKE CLEAR IN HIS MEETING WITH DE LA MADRID ON NOVEMBER 21 THAT THE USG WAS NOT HAPPY WITH MEXICO'S ACTIONS IN NEW YORK OR AT THE OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY. WE CONTINUED TO FAVOR A COMPREHENSIVE AGREEMENT WITH ALL 21 POINTS OF THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES, BUT WE COULD NOT ACCEPT A PIECEMEAL APPROACH.

NICARAGUAN DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE

17. DUARTE REMARKED THAT THE RESISTANCE LACKED A STRONG LEADER THAT COULD MAINTAIN STABILITY OR APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE. IT HAD A STRUCTURE, ARMS, AND MONEY, BUT IT DID NOT HAVE AN IMAGE WHICH ATTRACTED FOLLOWERS.

18. COMMENT. DUARTE CLEARLY HAD BEEN OCCUPIED WITH INTERNAL PROBLEMS, PARTICULARLY THOSE RELATED WITH RECONSTRUCTION FOLLOWING THE OCTOBER 10 EARTHQUAKE. HE WAS CONCERNED ABOUT ACQUIRING MUCH-NEEDED ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE AND HE ASKED AMB. HABIB TO PASS ON TO AID DIRECTOR MCPHERSON THAT "IF YOU WANT YOUR HORSE TO WIN THE RACE YOU HAVE TO GIVE HIM A LITTLE OATS". HE WAS CANDID IN EXPRESSING HIS VIEWS THAT THE OPPONENTS OF

U.S. POLICY WERE WORKING TIRELESSLY TO FRUSTRATE THAT POLICY, AND HE BELIEVED THAT THEY WERE HAVING SOME SUCCESS. HIS DECISION TO VOICE HIS BELIEF THAT ANTI-AMERICAN SENTIMENT IS RISING INDICATES HOW SERIOUS HE PERCEIVES THE PROBLEM. CLEARLY, HE AND OTHER OBSERVERS OF THE U.S. POLITICAL SCENE ARE CONCERNED ABOUT POSSIBLE IMPLICATIONS OF THE RECENT ELECTIONS FOR OUR CENTRAL AMERICAN POLICY, AND WE MUST REDOUBLE OUR EFFORTS TO CONVINCE THEM OF OUR STAYING POWER. ALSO, DUARTE WAS FRANK IN DESCRIBING HIS LACK OF CONFIDENCE IN THE POLITICAL CAPABILITY OF THE RESISTANCE. END COMMENT.

1. SUMMARY

U.S.-BASED GROUPS ARE PLANNING A SERIES OF ACTIVITIES TO TAKE PLACE IN EL SALVADOR IN NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER AIMED AT INCREASING U.S. PUBLIC AND MATERIAL SUPPORT FOR THE FMLN-FDR AND PRESSURING CONGRESS TO CUT OFF U.S. AID TO EL SALVADOR. THE GROUPS HOPE THEIR ACTIVITIES WILL OBTAIN PUBLICITY WHICH WILL REFOCUS THE ATTENTION

OF THE U.S. PUBLIC ON EL SALVADOR. THE TWO MAJOR U.S. GROUPS INVOLVED ARE THE COMMITTEE IN SOLIDARITY WITH THE PEOPLE OF EL SALVADOR (CISPES) AND MEDICAL AID TO EL SALVADOR (MAES). CISPES HAS OPENLY PROCLAIMED ITS SUPPORT FOR THE FMLN-FDR (THE SELF-AVOWED MARXIST-LENINIST GUERRILLA ORGANIZATION WHOSE STATED PURPOSE IS TO REPLACE BY FORCE THE DEMOCRATICALLY-ELECTED GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR WITH A ONE-PARTY COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT). MAES HAS GIVEN FUNDS TO SET UP FMLN

MILITARY HOSPITALS IN THE PAST. ITS CURRENT ACTIVITIES SUPPORT THE ARCHBISHOPRIC. THE MOST PROMINENT SALVADORAN GROUP WORKING WITH CISPES IS THE NATIONAL UNITY OF SALVADORAN WORKERS (UNTS), A LEFTIST LABOR UMBRELLA GROUP COMPOSED ALMOST ENTIRELY OF FMLN-CONNECTED UNIONS.

2. CISPES IS CO-SPONSORING WITH UNTS A CONFERENCE WHICH WILL KICK OFF NOVEMBER 22 WITH A DEMONSTRATION IN FRONT OF EMBASSY SAN SALVADOR AND END NOVEMBER 24 WITH A PRESS CONFERENCE. MAES HOPES TO AIRLIFT ONE MILLION DOLLARS OF MEDICAL SUPPLIES TO EL SALVADOR ON NOVEMBER 30. CELEBRITIES WILL ACCOMPANY THE AIRLIFT TO DELIVER THE SUPPLIES AND ENSURE PUBLICITY. END SUMMARY.

3. UNTS - BACKGROUND

UNTS, WHICH IS CO-SPONSORING THE NOVEMBER 22-23 "U.S.-EL SALVADOR CONFERENCE IN SEARCH OF PEACE" WITH CISPES, IS A LABOR UMBRELLA GROUP COMPOSED ALMOST ENTIRELY OF FMLN-CONNECTED UNIONS. THOUGH CISPES CLAIMS THAT UNTS IS THE "LARGEST AND MOST REPRESENTATIVE ARRAY OF LABOR AND PEASANT ORGANIZATIONS IN EL SALVADOR'S HISTORY"

AND THAT IT HAS 300,000 MEMBERS, UNTS IN REALITY HAS ONLY ABOUT 55,000 MEMBERS. BY CONTRAST, THE DEMOCRATIC LABOR UMBRELLA GROUP, THE NATIONAL WORKERS-CAMPESINOS UNION (UNOC) REPRESENTS BETWEEN 215,000 AND 250,000 MEMBERS. AS "PROOF" THAT UNTS IS DEMOCRATIC, CISPES EMPHASIZES THAT THE POPULAR DEMOCRATIC UNITY (UPD), WHICH SUPPORTED THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) IN THE ELECTIONS, BELONGS TO UNTS. IN FACT, THE UPD FORMALLY WITHDREW FROM THE UNTS ON NOVEMBER 16 BECAUSE UNTS "LIMITED THE PLURALISTIC WORK OF THE UPD." IN JUNE 1986, THE CLAT-AFFILIATED SALVADORAN WORKERS CENTRAL (CTS) QUIT UNTS BECAUSE OF "IDEOLOGICAL DIFFERENCES."

4. FENASTRAS - BACKGROUND

THE NATIONAL FEDERATION OF SALVADORAN WORKERS (FENASTRAS) IS A LABOR FEDERATION WITH CLOSE LINKS TO THE FAPU/FARN GUERRILLA COMPONENTS OF THE FMLN. FENASTRAS HAS OBSERVER STATUS WITH THE MOSCOW-LINE WORLD FEDERATION OF TRADE UNIONS (WFTU) HEADQUARTERED IN PRAGUE. FENASTRAS U.S. REPRESENTATIVE FRANCISCO ACOSTA IS ALSO U.S. CO-DIRECTOR OF THE CISPES-UNTS CONFERENCE. IN A LETTER INVITING CERTAIN U.S. LABOR LEADERS TO ATTEND FENASTRAS' NOVEMBER 13-15 CONGRESS IN SAN SALVADOR,

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights Special Project (1993)

ACOSTA CALLED FENASTRAS "DEMOCRATIC" IN SPITE OF ITS GUERRILLA AND WFTU CONNECTIONS. ONLY TWO U.S. LABOR OFFICIALS ATTENDED THE CONGRESS. ONE OF THEM, JERRY OLIVEIRA OF THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MACHINISTS (IAM), ENDORSED FENASTRAS BY ALLOWING HIS NAME TO BE PLACED ON A FENASTRAS NEWSPAPER AD. BRITISH LABOR M.P. JEREMY CORBYN AND FRENCH, AUSTRALIAN, AND SWISS UNION MEMBERS ALSO LENT THEIR NAMES TO THE AD.

5. CISPES - BACKGROUND

CISPES IS A U.S. ORGANIZATION FOUNDED BY THE LEADER OF THE SALVADORAN COMMUNIST PARTY, SHAFIK HANDAL, IN 1980. AT ITS 1985 CONVENTION, CISPES PROCLAIMED THAT ONE OF ITS GOALS WAS TO "PROVIDE POLITICAL SUPPORT FOR THE FMLN-FDR." IN A 1986 ISSUE OF CISPES' NEWSLETTER "ALERT," CISPES WROTE IT "SEEKS TO EDUCATE AND MOBILIZE PUBLIC OPINION AGAINST U.S. INTERVENTION IN EL SALVADOR AND IN SOLIDARITY WITH THE FMLN-FDR, THE LEGITIMATE

OF CONGRESS PROTESTING AGAINST THE ARREST OF PEOPLE WITH CLEAR TIES TO THE FMLN (REFTEL). AS PART OF THIS PROGRAM, CISPES URGES ITS MEMBERS TO PERSUADE PEOPLE TO SIGN A FORM AUTHORIZING CISPES TO SEND TELEGRAMS IN THEIR NAME "WHEN A HUMAN RIGHTS EMERGENCY OCCURS." CISPES BRAGS THAT IT TARGETTED EIGHT HOUSE FOREIGN OPERATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE MEMBERS' CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS DURING THE ELECTIONS AND, AS A RESULT, THESE REPRESENTATIVES HAVE MOVED CLOSER TO OPPOSING AID TO EL SALVADOR. CISPES MENTIONS THAT IT LAUNCHED A MAJOR MEDIA CAMPAIGN IN THE DISTRICTS OF MATT MCHUGH (D-NY) AND DAVID OBEY (D-WI).

CISPES ALSO NOTED THAT THE MAY 14 HEARINGS BEFORE THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON WESTERN HEMISPHERE AFFAIRS OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS ON "THE AIR WAR AND POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS IN EL SALVADOR" WAS A CISPES PROJECT TO PRESSURE CONGRESS.

7. CISPES HOPES TO RAISE 250,000 DOLLARS FOR THE NON-GOVERNMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION IN EL SALVADOR (CDHES), WHICH HAS BEEN IDENTIFIED AS AN FMLN-FRONT GROUP BY FORMER CDHES LEADERS. CISPES ASKS THAT U.S. TEACHER GROUPS SUPPORT THE SALVADORAN TEACHERS UNION ANDES 21 DE JUNIO AND U.S. STUDENT GROUPS

MIGUEL CASTELLANOS, AN FPL (ONE OF THE FIVE GROUPS IN THE FMLN) POLITICAL OFFICER WHO DEFECTED TO THE GOVERNMENT, HAS SAID THAT THE FPL CONTROLS ANDES AND THAT ANDES GIVES ABOUT 50 PERCENT OF THE DONATIONS IT RECEIVES TO THE GUERRILLAS. CISPES ALSO ENCOURAGES PEOPLE TO CHANNEL FUNDS THROUGH THE SALVADORAN MEDICAL RELIEF FUND (SMRF), NEW EL SALVADOR TODAY (NEST), AND MEDICAL AID FOR EL SALVADOR (MAES), ALL OF WHICH ARE U.S.-BASED GROUPS.

8. CISPES-UNTS CONFERENCE

CISPES HAS BEEN WORKING ENERGETICALLY WITH UNTS TO SPONSOR A NOVEMBER 22-23 CONFERENCE AT THE JESUIT-RUN CENTRAL AMERICAN UNIVERSITY (UCA) IN SAN SALVADOR. THE CONFERENCE WILL KICK-OFF WITH A DEMONSTRATION IN DOWNTOWN SAN SALVADOR AND END WITH A PRESS CONFERENCE. CISPES CLAIMS A 250-MEMBER DELEGATION OF U.S. LABOR, COMMUNITY, AND RELIGIOUS LEADERS, ELECTED OFFICIALS, AND MEDIA PERSONALITIES WILL ATTEND THE CONFERENCE ENTITLED "IN SEARCH OF PEACE: A U.S.-EL SALVADOR CONFERENCE." AMONG THOSE CISPES LISTS AS "CURRENT ENDORSERS" OF THE CONFERENCE ARE REV. JESSE JACKSON, DR. BENJAMIN SPOCK, AND AMALGAMATED CLOTHING AND

TEXTILE WORKERS UNION INTERNATIONAL VICE PRESIDENT
ED CLARK.

9. CISPES CLAIMS THE CONFERENCE WILL "BRING SALVADORAN AND U.S. REPRESENTATIVES TOGETHER TO EXPLORE AND PROPOSE CONCRETE STEPS TOWARD PEACE AND TO WORK FOR A NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT TO THE WAR." CISPES STATES IN OTHER PARTS OF ITS LITERATURE, HOWEVER, THAT "JUST DELEGATES MUST HAVE A VALID PASSPORT AND VISA, ATTEND OR RECEIVE AN ORIENTATION AND "AGREE TO ABIDE BY CONFERENCE REGULATIONS." CISPES WANTS TO OBTAIN PLEDGES FROM ONE MILLION AMERICANS FOR A RESOLUTION TO CUT ALL U.S. AND ECONOMIC AID TO EL SALVADOR AND "SUPPORT A PEACEFUL SOLUTION TO THE CONFLICT AMONG THE SALVADORANS." CISPES ADVISES ITS FOLLOWERS TO IDENTIFY AN "INTERNAL ADVOCATE" IN INSTITUTIONS AND GROUPS IT IS TRYING TO CONVINCE TO ENDORSE THE PLEDGES, WHICH ARE TO BE DELIVERED AT THE CONFERENCE. CISPES INCLUDES "HOW-TO'S," A SAMPLE LETTER, AND A "SAMPLE RAP" IN ITS PACKET OF ADVICE ON OBTAINING ENDORSEMENTS. CISPES TELLS ITS MEMBERS TO INFORM AUDIENCES THAT THE DUARTE GOVERNMENT "CONTINUES TO IMPRISON, TORTURE, AND EVEN MURDER TRADE UNIONISTS,

12. MEDICAL AID FOR EL SALVADOR - BACKGROUND

MEDICAL AID FOR EL SALVADOR (MAES) WAS FOUNDED IN FEBRUARY 1982. ITS MOST FAMOUS BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEMBER IS ACTOR EDWARD ASNER. DR. CHARLES CLEMENTS, WHOSE BOOK "WITNESS TO WAR" DESCRIBES A YEAR HE SPENT WORKING WITH FMLN GUERRILLAS AND THEIR SUPPORTERS IN THE GUAZAPA VOLCANO AREA, IS ALSO A MAES MEMBER. ACCORDING TO MAES, IT HAS DONATED OVER 750,000 DOLLARS WORTH OF MEDICAL AID WHICH "HAS GONE TO RURAL AREAS WHERE GOVERNMENT BOMBARDMENT OF CIVILIAN TARGETS HAS MADE THE NEED FOR HEALTH CARE MOST CRITICAL." MAES ALSO REPORTS THAT IN JANUARY 1983, IT SPENT 80,000 DOLLARS TO TRAIN AND EQUIP 110 MEDICAL "BRIGADISTAS." MAES CLAIMS THAT IN AUGUST 1985, IT GAVE 195,000 DOLLARS WORTH OF MEDICAL SUPPLIES TO A STUDENT-RUN CLINIC AND PHARMACY AT THE NATIONAL UNIVERSITY. (NOTE: THEY WERE NEVER ESTABLISHED, AND THE SUPPLIES "DISAPPEARED." PRESUMABLY THEY WERE GIVEN TO THE GUERRILLAS.) MAES' BIGGEST COUP CAME IN 1985 WHEN IT SENT A SURGICAL

TEAM TO EL SALVADOR TO OPERATE ON THE HAND OF NIDIA DIAZ, AN FMLN GUERRILLA COMMANDER WHO WAS WOUNDED AND CAPTURED IN A BATTLE WITH THE SALVADORAN ARMED FORCES. MASS REFERS TO DIAZ AS A POLITICAL PRISONER AND ITS LITERATURE STATES THE OPERATION TOOK PLACE IN A PRISON THOUGH IT OCCURRED IN A HOSPITAL. A CISPES ARTICLE WHICH PRAISED THE OPERATION REFERRED TO DIAZ ONLY AS "A PARTICIPANT IN THE LA PALMA PEACE TALKS." BOTH GROUPS

ON NOVEMBER 30, MAES PLANS TO FLY ONE MILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF MEDICAL SUPPLIES AND A 40-MEMBER "FACT FINDING" TEAM OF LABOR, CONGRESS, RELIGIOUS, AND MEDICAL COMMUNITY LEADERS AND CELEBRITIES TO EL SALVADOR.

-- THOSE AMONG THE ONE MILLION WAR REFUGEES (NOTE:

RELEASED

THERE ARE ACTUALLY ABOUT 500,000 DISPLACED PERSONS IN EL SALVADOR);

-- CIVILIAN AS WELL AS COMBATANT AMPUTEES; AND,

-- SALVADORAN CHILDREN WHO ARE SICK OR WOUNDED BECAUSE OF THE WAR. SOME OF THESE CHILDREN ARE TO BE BROUGHT BACK TO THE U.S., AND THEIR ACCOMPANYING FAMILY MEMBERS WILL BE HOSTED BY "SANCTUARY CONGREGATIONS."

15. IN A PACKET ASKING SUPPORT FOR THE AIRLIFT IN THE FORM OF TAX-DEDUCTIBLE DONATIONS, MAES ALSO INCLUDES A TRANSLATION OF A LETTER FROM SAN SALVADOR ARCHBISHOP RIVERA DAMAS. IN HIS LETTER THE ARCHBISHOP ACCEPTS AND BLESSES THE AIRLIFT AND PROMISES THE CHURCH WILL ENSURE THE HELP WILL REACH THE MOST NEEDY. MAES APPARENTLY BROUGHT IN MUCH OF THE MEDICAL SUPPLIES INTENDED FOR THE AIRLIFT DURING THE EARTHQUAKE RELIEF EFFORT. THOSE

E.O. 12356 DECL: OADR
TAGS: PREL, XK, HO
SUBJ: AMBASSADOR HABIB'S MEETINGS IN HONDURAS

REF: USUN 3994

1. (- ENTIRE TEXT).

2. SUMMARY. AMBASSADORS HABIB AND BRIGGS MET WITH PRESIDENT AZCONA AND FOREIGN MINISTER LOPEZ CONTRERAS TO REVIEW DIPLOMATIC DEVELOPMENTS. AZCONA, IN MARKED CONTRAST TO DUARTE AND ARIAS, WAS RELAXED ABOUT DEVELOPMENTS OVER THE NEXT FEW MONTHS. HE ACCEPTED THAT THE UPCOMING PERIOD WAS ONE OF WAITING TO SEE THE RESULTS OF INCREASED AID AND TRAINING FOR THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE. AZCONA WAS UNCONCERNED ABOUT THE INITIATIVE LAUNCHED BY THE OAS AND UN SECRETARIES GENERAL, WHICH HE DISMISSED AS "SENSELESS". THE HONDURANS WILL CONTINUE TO REJECT EFFORTS TO PROMOTE BILATERALISM AND WILL STRESS THE NEED TO RESOLVE THE INTERNAL CONFLICT IN NICARAGUA. AZCONA DID EXPRESS SOME CONCERN ABOUT THE IMPLIED THREAT CONTAINED IN THE RECENT SOVIET APPROACH TO HONDURAS. AZCONA WAS STRONGLY DISPLEASED WITH GUATEMALA'S OPEN SIDING WITH MEXICO AND PERU AT THE OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY. HE SAW LUSINCHI AND SANGUINETTI AS THE ONLY RELIABLE FIGURES IN THE CONTADORA/SUPPORT GROUPS AND URGED GREATER CONTACT WITH THEM. END SUMMARY

3. AMBASSADORS HABIB AND BRIGGS, ACCOMPANIED BY NSC STAFF MEMBER BURGHARDT, MET WITH PRESIDENT AZCONA FOR AN HOUR ON NOVEMBER 28. AMBASSADOR BRIGGS ALSO HOSTED A DINNER MEETING WITH FOREIGN MINISTER LOPEZ CONTRERAS AND HIS KEY ADVISORS.

CONTADORA

4. THE HONDURANS WERE PLEASED WITH THE OUTCOME OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN RESOLUTIONS AT THE OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND THE UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY. LOPEZ CONTRERAS NOTED THAT THE UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION INCLUDED A CALL FOR A "GLOBAL SOLUTION", WHICH WOULD BE USEFUL AMMUNITION IN FIGHTING OFF MEXICAN AND NICARAGUAN EFFORTS TO PROMOTE BILATERALISM AND PIECEMEAL SOLUTIONS.

5. AZCONA, IN CONTRAST TO DUARTE, WAS RELAXED ABOUT THE OAS/UNITED NATIONS SECRETARIES GENERAL INITIATIVE, WHICH

HE DISMISSED AS "SENSELESS" AND IMPOSSIBLE TO IMPLEMENT. HE SAID HONDURAS' RESPONSE WOULD BE TO CONTINUE STRESSING THAT THE KEY ISSUE IS THE POLITICAL PROBLEM INSIDE NICARAGUA. AZCONA EXPECTED THAT NOTHING OF SIGNIFICANCE WOULD HAPPEN AT THE CONTADORA EIGHT MEETING IN RIO NEXT MONTH. HE EXPECTED CONTADORA TO BE INACTIVE UNTIL THE CONTRA PRESSURE BEGINS TO INCREASE IN NICARAGUA. AT THAT POINT, THE CONTADORA GROUP MAY, FOR THE FIRST TIME, SEE THAT IT HAS TO PLAY THE ROLE OF MEDIATORS RATHER THAN OF ADVISERS TO THE SANDINISTAS. HABIB COMMENTED THAT IN THE MEANTIME IT WAS IMPORTANT TO CONTINUE TO REMIND THE CONTADORA GROUP OF THE INADEQUACY OF THE DRAFT TREATY WHICH THEY HAVE TRIED TO IMPOSE.

6. LOPEZ CONTRERAS NOTED THAT THERE HAD BEEN SOME HINTS OF THE BAENA SOARES/PEREZ DE CUELLAR INITIATIVE. ABOUT ONE MONTH AGO, AN AIDE TO THE UN SECRETARY GENERAL APPROACHED LOPEZ TO ASK HONDURAS' VIEW OF A SCHEME IN WHICH OBSERVERS WOULD BE PLACED ON THE HONDURAN-NICARAGUAN BORDER IN EXCHANGE FOR MANAGUA DROPPING ITS ICJ SUIT. THIS UN OFFICIAL ADDED THAT THE USG REACTION MIGHT BE SEVERE, INCLUDING LOWERING U.S. CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE UN. LOPEZ SAID HE RESPONDED THAT HONDURAS HAD NO CONFLICT WITH NICARAGUA WHICH REQUIRED BORDER OBSERVERS; THE ISSUE IS AN INTERNAL NICARAGUAN CONFLICT.

7. AZCONA OFFERED HIS VIEWS ON THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUP PRESIDENTS. HE SAW LUSINCHI AND SANGUINETTI AS THE ONLY RELIABLE, CLEARLY ANTI-COMMUNIST FIGURES AND URGED THAT WE INCREASE OUR CONTACT WITH THEM. AZCONA WAS DISTRUSTFUL OF ALFONSIN AND SAW BARCO AS A GOOD, BUT WEAK, MAN WHO WOULD NOT ASSUME ANY ROLE OF REGIONAL LEADERSHIP..

- - - - -

8. THE HONDURANS EXPRESSED GREAT ANNOYANCE WITH GUATEMALA'S ROLE AT THE OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY, WHERE QUINONES, ANDRADE AND VILLAGRAN HAD OPENLY LOBBIED IN FAVOR OF THE UNSUCCESSFUL MEXICAN DRAFT RESOLUTION. AZCONA ALSO WAS PIQUED THAT CEREZO HAD FAILED TO ATTEND AZCONA'S SPEECH AT THE MIAMI CCAA CONFERENCE. AZCONA SPOKE CONTEMPTUOUSLY OF CEREZO AS A "MOVIE STAR PERSONALITY" WHO FAILED IN HIS ATTEMPT TO BE A CENTRAL AMERICAN LEADER BECAUSE HE HAD LOST CREDIBILITY WITH THE OTHER COUNTRIES. AZCONA THOUGHT CEREZO NOW WOULD IGNORE CENTRAL AMERICA AND FOCUS ON RELATIONS WITH MEXICO AND OTHER LARGER COUNTRIES.

- - - - - - - -

9. AZCONA EXPRESSED SOME CONCERN ABOUT THE SOVIET APPROACH EARLIER THAT DAY TO THE HONDURAN PERMREP IN NEW YORK. AZCONA INTERPRETED AS A THREAT THE SOVIET COMMENT IN THEIR NON-PAPER (REFTEL) THAT "OTHER CENTRAL AMERICAN STATES CAN ALSO BE DRAWN INTO THE ARMED CONFLICT" IN NICARAGUA. AZCONA SAID HE WAS CONSIDERING PUBLICIZING THE SOVIET PAPER. HABIB COMMENTED THAT NICARAGUA AND ITS FRIENDS SEE THAT INCREASED MILITARY PRESSURE IS IMMINENT AND ARE ATTEMPTING TO COUNTER IT IN EVERY POSSIBLE WAY, MILITARILY AND DIPLOMATICALLY. BURGHARDT ADDED THAT THE SOVIET APPROACH TO HONDURAS MAY REPRESENT MOSCOW'S RESPONSE TO A SANDINISTA APPEAL FOR SIGNS OF SUPPORT. HABIB SAID THE SOVIET UNION WAS UNLIKELY TO ENTER ITSELF DIRECTLY INTO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN SCENE BEYOND CONTINUED PROVISION OF ARMS AND GENERAL SUPPORT TO NICARAGUA. THE POSSIBILITY EXISTED OF GREATER CUBAN

18. AZCONA WAS MARKEDLY MORE RELAXED THAN DUARTE OR ARIAS ABOUT THE NEXT FEW MONTHS IN NICARAGUA. HE ACCEPTED THAT NOW WE MUST WAIT TO SEE THE RESULTS OF INCREASED AID AND TRAINING FOR THE RESISTANCE. Dear Senator

In September, I wrote to you about Amnesty International's Chile campaign that we, at St. John's, are taking part in. I thank you for your help and your response. Unfortunately, the situation in Chile appears to be worsening. Again, I ask that you do all you can to help us in our fight for human rights.

Specifically, I ask that you take a look at our latest Update on our Chile campaign. This contains Amnesty International's response to the Chile government's comments on the Chile Briefing which I sent you in September. There are also several newspaper articles of interest which you should look at. Included is an article about a new member of the ruling junta that has been appointed, representing the army, General Humberto Gordon, the former head of CNI.

Lastly, I respectfully ask that you write to General Gordon and urge him to implement the specific measures outlined on p. 22 of the Chile Briefing. (I have enclosed a copy of these if you are unable to consult your briefing.) The general's address is:

Teniente General Humberto Gordon Rubio
Junta de Gobierno, Edificio Diego Portalies, Santiago, Chile

You should send a copy of this letter to the Chilean ambassador in Washington and most importantly, to Elliot Abrams, Assistant Secretary of State for Inter-American Affairs, U.S. Department of State, Washington, DC 20520.

Once again, I thank you for all you've done and thank you in advance for what you will do. I am

Yours sincerely,

INFORMATION MEMORANDUM

S/S 11/24

~~SECRET/SENSITIVE~~

MEMORANDUM

TO: The Secretary

FROM: ECA - Philip C. Habib

SUBJECT: Report on My Consultations with the Presidents of the Central American Democracies, Mexico, and Colombia

On November 19-22, I visited the four Central American democracies and two Contadora Group members, Mexico and Colombia, to continue my consultations on Contadora and the diplomatic outlook. As usual, one of the purposes of my trip was to make clear what we considered necessary in any agreement that Contadora might produce: the comprehensive, verifiable, and simultaneous implementation of the 1983 Contadora Document of Objectives. Contadora is not dead. Although the Central American democracies are unhappy with the direction which Contadora has taken--under Mexican domination--they do not want it to be killed. There remain differences among the democracies about tactics and focus, but they continue to share a fundamental dislike for the Sandinista regime and a desire to see democratic change in Nicaragua. While Guatemala plays a somewhat independent role, the unity of Costa Rica, El Salvador, and Honduras remains strong. The latter three expressed some concern, however, about their isolation--with us--in a Latin America arrayed against "intervention" in Nicaragua. The Contadora and Support Groups will meet in December in Rio de Janeiro and may discuss ways to revive (perhaps unhelpfully) their active role. I spoke frankly with the Mexicans [redacted]

-- Of the Central Americans, my conversation with President Duarte was the most interesting. As usual, he was firm in his opposition to the Sandinistas. He was, however, uneasy about several points. He had serious doubts about the capability of the Nicaraguan democratic resistance, particularly on the political front. He was disillusioned with Contadora and especially Mexico's role in it. He expressed a latent but worrisome concern that the U.S. would not be able to sustain its policy or the degree of support needed to obtain its objectives, especially in view of his interpretation of our recent elections and the fact that only two years remain in President Reagan's Administration. He did not wholly accept my reassurances.

-- President Arias is still firm in his opposition to the Sandinista regime, despite his declared unwillingness to permit the Nicaraguan resistance to use Costa Rican territory. He dislikes the Sandinistas and what they stand for, and he is the most articulate proponent of the need for democratic change in Nicaragua. Like Duarte, he is concerned that the Central American democracies--and the U.S.--will become isolated in Latin America, as he sees widespread dislike for our support for the Nicaraguan resistance based on the traditional Latin opposition to intervention. Arias, Duarte and Azcona believe that it is important that more be done to convince the South American democracies to support the democratic opposition to the Sandinista regime. Arias expressed his anxiety over the impact of a lengthy war on his country, including the economic repercussions and the anticipated flood of refugees.

-- President Azcona was the most relaxed about events in the months ahead. He believed that Contadora was in a hiatus and that the main action would now take place on the battlefield. He was hopeful that the actions of the democratic resistance could bring about a change in circumstances favorable to our objectives. Azcona, like Arias, remains determined not to deal bilaterally with Nicaragua. Also like Arias, he refuses to deal with the Sandinistas and participate in the Contadora framework so long as their ICJ suit is pending. While all three democracies are displeased by Guatemala's performance at the OASGA, Azcona is particularly miffed, and this will make it more difficult to restore the harmony the four had begun to show a few months ago.

-- The three democracies have justification for their criticism of Guatemala's behavior. In implementing his "active neutrality" policy, Cerezo has been [redacted] still believe, however, that Cerezo's dislike for the Sandinista regime and his commitment to democracy will lead him to maintain a fundamental identification with the anti-Sandinista sentiments of the other democracies.

-- While in Guatemala, I met with two leaders of the Nicaraguan internal opposition. I stressed the importance of unity so that they could present a common front against the Sandinistas. They told me that they planned to form a new--and more effective--political coalition composed of the three major democratic parties. They indicated that they would renew the demands they had made on the Sandinista regime in their February proposal, including the call for a dialogue.

-- In accordance with my instructions, I made clear to the Mexicans [redacted] I recounted to President de la Madrid and Foreign Secretary Sepulveda the reasons for our opposing the June Contadora draft on the grounds that it would not achieve the comprehensive and simultaneous implementation of the Document of Objectives, and that it lacked adequate provisions for verification. I gave an accurate account of the Central American democracies' dislike for the tendency of the Contadora countries (led by Mexico) to seek to impose their positions. I urged the Mexicans to pay greater attention to the desires of the democracies for the fulfillment of all 21 points, including national reconciliation and democratization.

-- Meeting alone with de la Madrid, I explained that [redacted] I underscored the importance to this Administration of our Central American policy and objectives, and I stressed that it was among the highest priorities on the President's foreign policy agenda. De la Madrid listened carefully and calmly. He described Mexico's policy as based on the principle of non-intervention and fear that the war would widen. I emphasized the firmness of our resolve, including our determination to support the Nicaraguan resistance. On this point, there was clear disagreement. I believe that de la Madrid and Sepulveda fully understand our unhappiness about their actions in Central America. [redacted] I strongly recommend that this message be included in any high-level contacts with de la Madrid, Sepulveda, and other selected senior Mexican officials.

-- I visited Colombia to meet President Barco and Foreign Minister Londono and personally explain our policy toward Contadora and Nicaragua. I made clear what we expected from Contadora in line with our basic criteria. I emphasized the seriousness with which our policy was viewed at the highest levels of our government and that it was a key element of President Reagan's foreign policy. Barco indicated that he did not have a strong interest in Contadora and that his primary concern was that it might escalate into a regional conflict which would adversely affect Colombia. I believe Colombia will play a moderating role in Contadora, but it will not get out in front.

-- As you are aware, on the eve of my trip, the Secretaries General of the OAS and UN launched a joint initiative on Central America. The Central American democracies agreed fully with our position that this offer would be useful only in the context of a comprehensive agreement. We need not worry that they will cave in to this effort to promote bilateralism and divide up the problem into partial solutions. The careful nurturing and consultation with the democracies which my predecessor and I have pursued is paying off.

In accordance with my instructions, I made certain that everyone understood that the U.S. was not seeking to deliver the coup de grace to Contadora. I left no doubt that our views about what Contadora should comprise were stronger than ever. I emphasized that the pressure on the Sandinistas from the democratic resistance would grow and would be sustained. I was impressed by the strength of the conviction and understanding as well as the support for our basic objectives among the Central American democracies. I am convinced that this will work to our advantage in the future. Their unity was the key factor in obtaining favorable results in the recent UNGA and OASGA. We should provide a high level of economic support for the democracies, despite our budgetary constraints. El Salvador needs additional special consideration as a result of the earthquake.

TAGS: PREL, XK, GT, OVIP (HABIB, PHILIP C.)
SUBJECT: AMB. HABIB'S MEETING WITH GUATEMALAN PRESIDENT CEREZO

1. (SECRET - ENTIRE TEXT.)

2. SUMMARY: AMBASSADORS HABIB AND PIEDRA MET ON NOVEMBER 21 WITH PRESIDENT CEREZO TO DISCUSS THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS IN CENTRAL AMERICA. HABIB EXPLAINED THAT AS OUR AID TO THE NICARAGUAN DEMOCRATIC RESISTAN E BEGAN TO FLOW, IT WAS IMPORTANT TO REITERATE THAT THE U.S. STILL MAINTAINED ITS DIPLOMATIC TRAC . HABIB NOTE THAT THE UNITY OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRD IES HAD BEEN ADVERSELY AFFECTED BY GUATEMALA, ANA THE OTHER THR E DEMOCRACIES WERE CONCERNED ABOUT WHERE GUATEMALA REALLY STOOD. CEREZO SAID THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT TO ALL, INCLUDING THE U.S., THAT THE GOG MAINTAIN ITS NEUTRALITY. HE WAS AWARE OF THE CONCERN OF HIS FELLOW CENTRAL AMERICANS AND WOULD SEEK TO MAKE HIS POLICY UNDERSTOOD. HABIB ADVISED CEREZO THAT HE WOULD TALK LATER IN THE DAY WITH MEXICAN PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID ABOUT U.S. CONCERNS OVER MEXICO'S UNHELPFUL ACTIONS IN CENTRAL AMERICA. CEREZO COMMENTED THAT MEXICO MAY BE TAKING SOME OF THESE ACTIONS AS A WAY OF GETTING AT THE U.S. CEREZO SAID THAT HE WAS PROVIDING ASSISTANCE TO THE SOCIAL CHRISTIAN PARTY IN NICARAGUA AND WOULD SEEK TO HELP THE PARTY OVERCOME ITS CURRENT INTERNAL DIFFERENCES. CEREZO ADDED THAT HE SHARED OUR VIEWS THAT THE JOINT OAS/UN INITIATIVE WAS UNHELPFUL OUTSIDE THE CONTEXT OF A COMPREHENSIVE AGREEMENT AND THE GOG MISSION IN NEW YORK HAD ALREADY BEEN NOTIFIED NOT TO SUPPORT IT. END SUMMARY.

3. ON NOVEMBER 21, AMBASSADORS HABIB AND PIEDRA CA LED ON GUATEMALAN PRESIDENT CEREZO TO DISCUSS THE .ENTRAL AMERICAN NEGOTIATING PROCESS. HABIB EXPLAINED TAT THE PURPOSE OF HIS TRIP WAS TO MAINTAIN THE DIPLOMATIC TRA K OF U.S. POLICY. THE PRESSURE TRACK WAS MOVING AHEAD, AND SOON WE WOULD SEE THE IMPACT OF OUR AID TO THE NICARAGUAN DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE. THIS WOULD AFFECT THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK. THE USG CONTINUED TO SUPPORT CONTADORA AS A MEANS TO A COMPREHENSIVE, SIMULTANEOUS AND VERIFIABLE AGREEMENT

INCLUDING ALL 21 POINTS OF THE 1983 DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES. THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES PLAYED A KEY ROLE IN THE PROCESS, AND OUR POLICY WAS COMPATIBLE WITH THEIRS. LIKE THE DEMOCRACIES, WE FOUND THE JUNE DRAFT AGREEMENT INADEQUATE. ANY NEGOTIATIONS WITHIN CONTADORA WERE NOW HINDERED BY NICARAGUA'S SUITS AGAINST COSTA RICA AND HONDURAS IN THE ICJ.

4. AMB. HABIB SAID THAT HE WAS TROUBLED THAT DURING HIS CURRENT TRIP THROUGH CENTRAL AMERICA, HE DID NOT DETECT THE SENSE OF UNITY AMONG THE DEMOCRACIES THAT HE HAD OBSERVED PREVIOUSLY. THE OTHER DEMOCRACIES WERE UNCERTAIN ABOUT WHERE GUATEMALA STOOD. THE USG BELIEVED THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT THAT THE DEMOCRACIES MAINTAIN THEIR UNITY AND HARMONY. CEREZO REPLIED THAT HE WAS ALSO CONCERNED THAT HIS POSITION WAS NOT UNDERSTOOD. HE INSISTED THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT FOR ALL THAT THE GOG CONTINUE ITS "ACTIVE NEUTRALITY" POLICY. WITHIN THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUPS, THERE WERE AT LEAST THREE COUNTRIES THAT WERE OPPOSED TO THE SANDINISTAS. EVERYONE WAS SEARCHING FOR ARGUMENTS TO PERSUADE THEM TO TAKE A FIRM POSITION. IT WAS CRUCIAL THAT THEY NOT SIDE WITH NICARAGUA. GUATEMALA DID NOT WANT TO GIVE THE SANDINISTAS ANY PROPAGANDA POINTS.

5. CEREZO SAID THAT IF THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE DID DO WELL IN THE COMING MONTHS AND BEGAN TO PUT REAL PRESSURE ON THE SANDINISTAS, MEXICO WOULD ATTEMPT TO POLARIZE THE SITUATION. IT WOULD SEEK AN OPEN CONFRONTATION BETWEEN CONTADORA AND THE U.S. BECAUSE OF THE CREDIBILITY GUATEMALA OBTAINED FROM ITS NEUTRAL STANCE, IT WOULD BE IN A STRONG POSITION TO BE A MEDIATOR BETWEEN THE DEMOCRACIES AND THE SANDINISTAS. CEREZO ADDED THAT HE WOULD BE EXPLAINING THIS RATIONALE TO FELLOW CENTRAL AMERICAN CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS WHO WERE GATHERED IN GUATEMALA FOR A SEMINAR.

6. HABIB ADVISED CEREZO THAT HE WOULD BE SEEING MEXICAN PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID LATER THAT DAY. MEXICO WAS CLEARLY TILTING IN FAVOR OF NICARAGUA. CEREZO AGREED AND OPINED THAT THE MEXICANS WERE FOLLOWING THEIR COURSE IN ORDER TO GET AT THE U.S.

7. HABIB ASKED WHAT INFORMATION CEREZO HAD ABOUT THE DECEMBER MEETING OF THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES IN RIO DE JANEIRO. CEREZO REPLIED THAT HE UNDERSTOOD THAT THEY WERE GOING TO EVALUATE THE STATUS OF THE CONTADORA PROCESS. HABIB SUGGESTED THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES MAKE THEIR POSITIONS CLEARLY KNOWN TO THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES BEFORE THE MEETING, PARTICULARLY REGARDING THE JUNE DRAFT AGREEMENT. CEREZO COMMENTED THAT HE AGREED WITH THE OTHER DEMOCRACIES ABOUT THE NEED TO HAVE DEMOCRACY INCLUDED IN ANY AGREEMENT, BUT HE BELIEVED THAT NICARAGUA WOULD REJECT THIS ON TE GROUN S THAT IT WOULD CONSTITUTE INTERVENTION IN ITS INTERNAL AFFAIRS, AND MEXICO WOULD SUPPORT THIS POSITION. HABIB ARGUED THAT NICARAGUA HAD AGREED TO NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRACY WHEN IT SIGNED THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES, SO DEMANDING THAT NICARAGUA FULFILL THIS POINT COULD NOT BE REGARDED AS INTERVENTION. HE ADDED THAT THE CONTADORA PROCESS NEEDED TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE POSITION OF ALL FIVE CENTRAL AMERICAN STATES, NOT JUST NICARAGUA.

8. HABIB SAID THAT HE WOULD SOON MEET WITH LEADERS OF THE NICARAGUAN CIVIC OPPOSITION. HE REFERRED TO THE CURRENT CRISIS WITHIN THE NICARAGUAN SOCIAL CHRISTIAN PARTY AND URGED CEREZO TO USE HIS INFLUENCE TO HELP RESOLVE THE DIFFERENCES. HE RECALLED THAT DURING HIS

SEPTEMBER VISIT, CEREZO HAD STATED THAT HE WOULD ASSIST THE SOCIAL CHRISTIAN PARTY IN OPPOSITION INSIDE NICARAGUA. CEREZO WAS WELL VERSED ON THE PSC CRISIS AND NOTED THAT HE WOULD SOON MET WITH PSC PRESIDENT ER-CK RAMIREZ, WHOM HE SUPPORTED, AND WOULD WORK WITH HIM TO ACHIEVE A SOLUTION TO THE CURRENT DIFFERENCES. CEREZO SAID THAT THE GOG AND THE GUATEMALAN CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY WERE ALREADY GIVING SOME HELP TO THE PSC, AND THEY WERE SEEKING ASSISTANCE ALSO FROM GERMANY AND ELSEWHERE.

9. HABIB CONGRATULATED CEREZO FOR HIS SUCCESSFUL VISIT TO EUROPE. HE STATED THAT AT THE SUGGESTION OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN FOREIGN MINISTERS DURING THEIR OASGA LUNCHEON WITH THE SECRETARY, HE WOULD BE TRAVELING TO EUROPE IN JANUARY TO DISCUSS OUR POLICY IN CENTRAL AMERICA. CEREZO WAS PLEASED TO LEARN THIS AND REMARKED THAT MUCH NEEDED TO BE DONE. HE URGED HABIB TO INCLUDE SPAIN, BECAUSE FELIPE GONZALEZ WAS A GOOD POLITICIAN WHO WOULD LISTEN IF OUR POLICY WERE EXPLAINED TO HIM. HABIB POINTED OUT THAT HE HAD RECENTLY TALKED TO THE FRENCH AND THAT THEY WERE ALREADY SHIFTING THEIR POLICY IN FAVOR OF THE DEMOCRACIES. THE GERMANS WERE DOING SO ALSO. HE POINTED OUT THAT EVEN IF THE AMOUNTS OF AID INVOLVED WERE NOT GREAT, IT WAS IMPORTANT PSYCHOLOGICALLY TO HAVE THE EUROPEAN DEMOCRACIES SUPPORT THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES, NOT NICARAGUA. CEREZO CONCURRED AND SAID HE WOULD BE ACTIVE IN THE SAME SENSE.

EXDIS

10. HABIB NOTED THAT AMB. PIEDRA HAD ALREADY DISCUSSED OUR POSITION ON THE JOINT OAS/UN INITIATIVE WITH FOREIGN MINISTER QUINONES. CEREZO RESPONDED THAT GUATEMALA ALSO BELIEVED THE INITIATIVE TO BE UNHELPFUL AS A POSSIBLE MEANS TO PIECE-MEAL TREATMENT OF THE ISSUES. QUINONES ADDED THAT HE HAD ALREADY SPOKEN TO GUATEMALA'S PERMREP TO THE UN ANDRADE AND INSTRUCTED HIM NOT TO SUPPORT THE INITIATIVE AS IT STOOD. IT WAS AGREED TO MAINTAIN A COORDINATED RESPONSE TO THE INITIATIVE. SHULTZ

EXCISE

Dear Ms. Fiedler:

We have received your letter of October 28, 1986 concerning the human rights situation in Chile. Your correspondence was on behalf of your constituent.

We share your constituent's strong concern over human rights conditions in Chile. We have made known, both publicly and privately, our views favoring increased respect for human rights and a peaceful democratic transition in Chile. When Assistant Secretary of State Elliott Abrams appeared before the House Banking Subcommittee on Development and International Financial Institutions on July 30, for example, he testified in detail regarding the serious, persistent problems in Chile in the area of human rights. Our interest in improved human rights was also evident in our sponsorship of a unanimously approved human rights resolution on Chile at the United Nations Human Rights Commission (UNHRC) in March. We are enclosing Mr. Abrams' testimony, as well as the UNHRC resoltion and the 1985 State Department Human Rights report on Chile. Your constituent will find many of her concerns addressed in these documents. She may also find of interest the fact that there have been no unresolved cases of disappeared persons in Chile for several years.

If we can be of any further assistance to your office in this matter please do not hesitate to contact us.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Louise R. Hoppe
Acting Assistant Secretary
Legislative and Intergovernmental Affairs

SUMMARY

ITALY'S SOCIALIST (PSI) AND CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC (DC) PARTIES BOTH HAVE A MODERATE APPROACH TO CHILE AND FAVOR STEPS WHICH WOULD BRING A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY. THE PSI, THOUGH RESOURCE-POOR, HAS SOUGHT TO ENCOURAGE THE MODERATE SECTORS OF THE CHILEAN SOCIALIST PARTY WHICH IN THE PAST HAVE COOPERATED WITH THE DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE. THE POSITION OF THE ITALIAN

DC AND THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC INTERNATIONAL (CDI) IS VERY CLOSE TO THAT OF THE UNITED STATES (REFS B AND C). BOTH ARE IN CLOSE CONTACT WITH CHILEAN CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS (PDC). END SUMMARY.

. CHILE AS A WARNING

ALL OF ITALY'S MAJOR PARTIES HAVE BEEN FASCINATED BY CHILE SINCE THE FALL OF THE ALLENDE GOVERNMENT IN 1973. THE LATE LEADER OF THE ITALIAN COMMUNIST PARTY (PCI), ENRICO BERLINGUER, IS SAID TO HAVE VIEWED ALLENDE'S FATE AS A SORT OF ADMONITION AGAINST PCI OVER-AGGRESSIVENESS IN SEEKING TO ENTER THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT. SOME BELIEVE THAT THE 1973 COUP WAS AN IMPORTANT FACTOR IN BERLINGUER'S DECISION TO PURSUE THE "HISTORIC COMPROMISE" -- HIS GRAND STRATEGY FOR COMMUNIST/CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT POWER SHARING -- IN THE MID-1970'S.

. OTHER PARTIES, FROM THE NEO-FASCIST ITALIAN SOCIAL MOVEMENT TO THE TINY FRINGE GROUPS OF THE FAR LEFT, HAVE FOLLOWED EVENTS IN CHILE CLOSELY AS WELL. CHILEAN DEVELOPMENTS ALSO RECEIVE DETAILED COVERAGE IN THE ITALIAN PRESS. CURRENT PRIME MINISTER BETTINO CRAXI VISITED CHILE NOT LONG AFTER ALLENDE'S FALL -- JUST BEFORE HIS ELECTION AS SOCIALIST PARTY SECRETARY -- AND HAS SHOWN A CONTINUING INTEREST IN CHILE EVER SINCE. DC PARTY SECRETARY CIRIACO DE MITA HAS BEEN TO CHILE TWICE IN THE LAST FOUR YEARS AND IS PLANNING ANOTHER TRIP. IN SEPTEMBER CDI PRESIDENT FLAMINIO PICCOLI MADE A SHORT VISIT TO SANTIAGO, AND IN THE PAST 18 MONTHS BOTH GABRIEL VALDES AND ANDRES ZALDIVAR HAVE VISITED ROME. FOR THE PURPOSES OUTLINED IN CONFIDENTIAL

REF A, THE SOCIALISTS AND CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS ARE THE TWO ITALIAN PARTIES OF REAL INTEREST.

THE SOCIALISTS

THE PSI HAS A FAIRLY STRONG LEFT WING, SOME OF WHOSE MEMBERS WOULD NOT BE OPPOSED TO RADICAL SOLUTIONS FOR

CHILE. HOWEVER, THE MAINSTREAM, INCLUDING CRAXI HIMSELF, IS ALIVE TO THE DANGER OF CIVIL CONFLICT AND FAVORS A PEACEFUL, NEGOTIATED TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY.
THE ITALIAN SOCIALISTS LACK THE MANPOWER AND RESOURCES TO CARRY OUT AN EXTENSIVE PROGRAM OF BILATERAL RELATIONS WITH OTHER SOCIALIST PARTIES, AND ARE IN MOST CASES CONTENT TO WORK THROUGH THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL (SI). HOWEVER, MARGHERITA BONIVER, A FORMER SENATOR AND CLOSE COLLABORATOR OF CRAXI WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR PSI RELATIONS WITH THE SI, TAKES JAUNDICED VIEW OF THE EXTREMISTS IN THE RANKS OF LATIN AMERICAN SI MEMBERS AND WOULD NOT BE INCLINED TO FOLLOW THEIR LEAD. RATHER, SHE WOULD DISCOURAGE THOSE PRONE TO VIOLENCE. THE PSI HAS THEREFORE GONE ITS OWN WAY, SEEKING IN PARTICULAR TO ENCOURAGE THOSE CHILEAN SOCIALISTS WHO TAKE A MODERATE APPROACH AND FAVOR A NEGOTIATED TRANSITION AND COOPERATION WITH OTHER DEMOCRATIC PARTIES.

. THE ITALIAN SOCIALISTS MAINLY PROVIDE MORAL SUPPORT TO THE ELEMENTS OF THE CHILEAN SOCIALIST PARTY WITH WHICH THEY ARE IN CONTACT, THOUGH ON RARE OCCASIONS THEY HAVE ALSO PROVIDED SOME SMALL AMOUNTS OF FINANCIAL AID. WITH ELECTIONS SCHEDULED

SUBJ: SUPPORT OF CHILEAN TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY: ITALY

TO TAKE PLACE IN ITALY IN THE NEXT 18 MONTHS, IT IS UNLIKELY THAT THE PSI WOULD CONSIDER FURTHER FINANCIAL COMMITMENTS IN CHILE AT THIS TIME. THE PSI WELCOMES CONSULTATIONS WITH THE UNITED STATES ON CHILE, AND UNDERSTANDS AND IN LARGE MEASURE AGREES WITH OUR APPROACH. ITALIAN SOCIALISTS SEE THE NEED FOR COHESION IN THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION. HOWEVER, WE BELIEVE THEY WOULD BE RELUCTANT TO PRESSURE THEIR CHILEAN COUNTERPARTS WITH REGARD TO A DIALOGUE WITH THE MILITARY UNLESS CONVINCED THAT A REAL POSSIBILITY FOR AN EARLY BREAKTHROUGH IN SUCH TALKS EXISTS.

8. THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

THE ITALIAN CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND THE CDI ARE SELF-STARTERS WITH REGARD TO CHILE. THE SUCCESS OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTIES IN CENTRAL AMERICA HAS

INGENDERED INTEREST AND ENTHUSIASM FOR LATIN AMERICA IN GENERAL IN THE DC. THE DC AND CDI BELIEVE THAT CHILE OFFERS THE NEXT CLEAR OPPORTUNITY FOR CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS TO COME TO POWER IN THE AREA, AND BOTH ORGANIZATIONS HAVE FUNNELED MODEST FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO THE PDC.

10. THE ITALIAN DC AND THE CDI ARE ANXIOUS TO OORDINATE THEIR APPROACH TO CHILE WITH THE UNITED TATES. PICCOLI IS ALREADY PLANNING A TRIP TO ASHINGTON (REF D). DE MITA WOULD ALSO LIKE TO TOP IN WASHINGTON AS PART OF A TRIP TO CENTRAL MERICA AND CHILE THAT, ACCORDING TO HIS ADVISORS, E HOPES TO SCHEDULE IN EITHER LATE DECEMBER OR IN

REF: (A) SANTIAGO 8072 (B) THE HAGUE 8725

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. A SEMI-OFFICIAL DUTCH DELEGATION CONSISTING OF POLITICAL PARTY REPRESENTATIVES AND DEVELOPMENT AID CO-FINANCING ORGANIZATIONS IS VISITING CHILE THIS WEEK (THROUGH NOVEMBER 28). INCLUDED IN THIS GROUP IS THE DIRECTOR OF CEBEMO, A CATHOLIC CO-FINANCING ORGANIZATION WHICH IS CONSIDERING FINANCIAL SUPPORT TO RADIO COOPERATIVA. OUR UNDERSTANDING, HOWEVER, IS THAT CEBEMO'S COMMITMENT TO HELPING THE RADIO STATION IS NOT AS FIRM AS THE CHILEAN DIRECTOR SEEMS TO BELIEVE (REF A), BUT A FINAL DECISION MAY BE MADE ON THE BASIS OF THE CURRENT DISCUSSIONS IN SANTIAGO. END SUMMARY.

3. ON THE BASIS OF REF A, WE SOUGHT TO FOLLOW-UP WITH APPROPRIATE CONTACTS ON STATE OF PLAY OF ALLEGED DUTCH FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR CHILEAN RADIO COOPERATIVA. THE "CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT FOUNDATION FINANCED ENTIRELY BY THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT" REFERRED TO IN REF A APPEARS TO BE CEBEMO, A CATHOLIC DEVELOPMENT AID CO-FINANCING ORGANIZATION WITH CLOSE TIES TO THE DUTCH CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (CDA). WE TALKED WITH A CEBEMO OFFICIAL ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION'S SUPPORT FOR RADIO COOPERATIVA. HE CONFIRMED THERE HAVE BEEN TALKS ABOUT PROVIDING FINANCIAL SUPPORT, BUT NO DEFINITE COMMITMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE. THE OFFICIAL SAID CHILEAN LAW WILL NOT ALLOW CEBEMO TO PROVIDE DIRECT SUPPORT TO RADIO STATIONS. THUS, CEBEMO IS INVESTIGATING OTHER CHANNELS THROUGH WHICH ASSISTANCE CAN BE GIVEN TO SUPPORT FREEDOM OF OPINION. THE OFFICIAL NOTED THAT ONE POSSIBILITY WOULD BE TO PROVIDE AID TO AN INDEPENDENT FOUNDATION THAT IT TURN WOULD GIVE THE MONEY TO THE RADIO STATION. HE SAID THIS ARRANGEMENT HAS BEEN EXPLORED IN THE CASE OF ANOTHER CHILEAN RADIO STATION, RADIO CHILEANA.

4. CEBEMO SEEMS SYMPATHETIC TO SUPPORTING THE CAUSE OF CHILEAN CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS. THE CDA INTERNATIONAL SECRETARY TOLD US HIS PARTY DOES NOT GIVE DIRECT AID TO ITS COUNTERPART IN CHILE. IT DOES, HOWEVER, MAINTAIN CLOSE CONTACT WITH CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC LEADERS SUCH AS GABRIEL VALDEZ. ON THE BASIS OF THESE CONTACTS, IT ENCOURAGES CEBEMO TO PROVIDE AID TO PARTICULAR PROJECTS IN CHILE. OUR CONTACTS ADDED THAT A LARGE DUTCH DELEGATION COMPOSED OF REPRESENTATIVES OF TWO POLITICAL PARTIES (LABOR AND CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS)

AND A NUMBER OF NGO'S AND AID ORGANIZATIONS IS NOW IN CHILE. THE LEADING CDA FIGURES IN THE GROUP ARE CEBEMO DIRECTOR THOM KERSTIENS AND EUROPEAN PARLIAMENTARIAN JEAN PENDERS. UPON THE DELEGATION'S RETURN TO THE HAGUE NOVEMBER 28, IT MAY BECOME CLEARER WHAT ASSISTANCE DUTCH GROUPS ARE PREPARED TO GIVE TO THE CHILEAN OPPOSITION, INCLUDING THE SPECIFIC

CASE OF AID TO RADIO COOPERATIVA. HEIMANN

COMMENTS ON PREAMBULAR PARAGRAPHS

1. NO CHANGES.

DECLASSIFIED

2. ADD FINAL CLAUSE: QUOTE AN OBLIGATION WHICH IS NOT DIFFERENT FROM THAT OF ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT WHICH IS A PARTY TO INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS INSTRUMENTS. END QUOTE

3. NO CHANGES.

4. REPLACE WITH: CONSIDERING THAT THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR HAS SUBMITTED TO THE FORTY-FIRST SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY A PRELIMINARY REPORT ON THE SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE DURING 1986, AND INTENDS TO DELIVER TO THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS AT ITS 43RD SESSION A FINAL REPORT;

5. REPLACE CLAUSE FOLLOWING INTER ALIA TO READ: TO EXTEND THE MANDATE OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FOR A YEAR AND TO CONSIDER THE SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE AS A MATTER OF HIGH PRIORITY; (COMMENT: THIS CHANGE IS NECESSARY TO CONFORM WITH THE UNHRC RESOLUTION, WHICH DOES NOT REFER TO AN INCREASE IN SERIOUS VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS.)

6. ELIMINATE THIS PARAGRAPH AND REPLACE WITH: CONSIDERING FURTHER THAT THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S REPORT INDICATES THAT HE HAS RECEIVED THE FULL, FRANK AND OPEN COOPERATION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE, NOT ONLY BY PROVIDING DETAILED INFORMATION, BUT ALSO BY GIVING PROMPT AND EFFECTIVE ATTENTION TO REQUESTS MADE BY THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR IN FULFILLING HIS MANDATE;

7. CHANGE TO READ: HAVING EXAMINED THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S LATEST REPORT AND THE RESPONSE BY THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE, AND HAVING EXAMINED REPORTS FROM VARIOUS NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS CONCERNING THE SERIOUS VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE;

8: ELIMINATE ENTIRELY; TREAT THIS MATTER IN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH BELOW.

COMMENTS ON OPERATIVE PARAGRAPHS

1. REPLACE WITH: COMMENDS THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FOR

HIS REPORTS ON THE SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, SUBMITTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH RESOLUTION 1986/63 OF 14 MARCH 1986 OF THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND RESOLUTION 40/145 OF 14 DECEMBER 1985 OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, AND WELCOMES THE FACT THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE RESPONDED IN DETAIL TO THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S REPORT OF FEBRUARY 1986;

2. REPLACE WITH: NOTES THE POSITIVE STEP TAKEN BY THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE IN ESTABLISHING AN ADVISORY COMMISSION TO THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR ON MATTERS RELATING TO TORTURE, TERRORISM, AND ILLEGAL DETENTIONS, WHICH TAKES INTO ACCOUNT THE RECOMMENDATION IN THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S REPORT OF FEBRUARY 1986 THAT A SYSTEM BE SET UP TO MONITOR THE DAY-TO-DAY CONDUCT OF SECURITY FORCES. (COMMENT: NEW POINT, COVERING SUBSTANCE IN PREAMBULAR PARAGRAPH EIGHT ELIMINATED ABOVE. SUBSTANCE OF MEXICAN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH TWO IS COVERED IN GENERAL IN OTHER PARTS OF RESOLUTION, EXCEPT FOR REFERENCE TO CONSTITUTION, WHICH IS NOT ACCEPTABLE.)

3. REPLACE WITH: RECOGNIZES ALSO AS POSITIVE THAT THE PRACTICE OF ORDERING INTERNAL BANISHMENT WITHOUT RECOURSE TO THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM WAS NOT USED IN 1986, THAT THE CONFIDENTIAL

LIST OF NAMES OF THOSE PROHIBITED FROM RETURNING TO CHILE WAS FURTHER REDUCED AND NO CHILEAN CITIZEN INVOLUNTARILY EXPELLED FROM THE COUNTRY IN 1986, THAT PERMISSION HAS BEEN GRANTED TO PUBLISH AN OPPOSITION NEWSPAPER BEGINNING IN MARCH 1987, THAT UNDER A NEW AGREEMENT THE GOVERNMENT HAS COMMITTED ITSELF TO ALLOW VISITS BY INDEPENDENT DOCTORS TO PERSONS DETAINED BY SECURITY FORCES, AND THAT THE SPECIAL SYSTEM OF LABOR COURTS ABOLISHED IN 1981 HAS BEEN REINSTITUTED; (COMMENT: CONTINUING DISCUSSION OF SUBSTANCE IN ELIMINATED PREAMBULAR PARAGRAPH EIGHT. SUBSTANCE OF MEXICAN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH THREE IS COVERED IN NEW PARAGRAPH EIGHT. REFERENCE TO ANNOUNCEMENT TO REGISTER RETURNING EXILES IS ELIMINATED, SINCE NOT TO BE IMPLEMENTED.)

4. REPLACE WITH: FURTHER RECOGNIZES THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE HAS PROMULGATED A LAW ESTABLISHING VOTER REGISTRATION AND ANNOUNCED PROMULGATION OF A POLITICAL

PARTIES LAW BY EARLY NEXT YEAR, WHICH ARE INITIAL STEPS TOWARDS A TRANSITION TO A DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT; (COMMENT: SUBSTANCE OF MEXICAN PARAGRAPH FOUR COVERED IN PARAGRAPHS BELOW.)

5. REPLACE WITH: EXPRESSES ALARM, HOWEVER, CONCERNING THE INCREASE IN POLITICAL VIOLENCE IN CHILE AND THE WORSENING OF THE ALREADY DISTURBING POLARIZATION OF CHILEAN SOCIETY, RECOGNIZING THE DANGER REPRESENTED BY THE DISCOVERY OF LARGE QUANTITIES OF ARMS SMUGGLED INTO CHILE WITH EVIDENT ASSISTANCE FROM ABROAD, WITH THEIR POTENTIAL FOR ADDING TO THE ALREADY SUBSTANTIAL LEVEL OF VIOLENCE; (COMMENT: NEW POINT, SUBSTANCE OF MEXICAN PARAGRAPH FIVE IS COVERED IN NEW PARAGRAPH SEVEN.)

CONFIDENTIAL

6. REPLACE WITH: DEPLORES THE SERIOUS EVENTS OF THIS SEPTEMBER, INCLUDING THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AGAINST THE CHILEAN PRESIDENT AND THE INCREASING USE OF VIOLENT TERRORIST ACTIONS BY EXTREMISTS OF THE LEFT AND THE RIGHT, NOTING THAT SUCH VIOLENCE INFRINGES SERIOUSLY ON THE RIGHTS OF INNOCENT PEOPLE, EXACERBATES ALREADY DIFFICULT POLITICAL DIVISIONS AND ACTS AS AN OBSTACLE TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A FREE AND REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM SAFEGUARDING HUMAN RIGHTS; (COMMENT: NEW POINT ALSO ADDRESSING QUESTION OF VIOLENCE TREATED ELSEWHERE IN RESOLUTION; SUBSTANCE OF MEXICAN PARAGRAPH SIX IS COVERED IN NEW OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH NINE.)

7. REPLACE WITH: REAFFIRMS ITS CONVICTION THAT A LEGAL AND POLITICAL STRUCTURE, BASED ON THE CONSENT OF THE GOVERNED, EMERGING FROM A CIVILIZED AND CONSTRUCTIVE NATIONAL DIALOGUE, REPRESENTATIVE OF THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE AS EXPRESSED IN FREE ELECTIONS, AND RESPECTING THE FULL EXERCISE OF LEGAL RIGHTS IS ESSENTIAL TO THE FULL OBSERVANCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, AS IN ANY OTHER NATION; (COMMENT: THIS ELABORATES ON MEXICAN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH FIVE AND ADDRESSES ISSUE RAISED IN MEXICAN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH EIGHT; SUBSTANCE OF MEXICAN PARAGRAPH SEVEN IS COVERED IN NEW PARAGRAPHS TEN AND ELEVEN.)

8. REPLACE WITH: EXPRESSES ITS PROFOUND CONCERN AT THE PERSISTENCE OF SERIOUS VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, AS DESCRIBED IN THE REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR, PARTICULARLY THE CONTINUATION OF THE PROBLEM OF TORTURE AND ABUSES BY SECURITY FORCES, KIDNAPPINGS AND MURDERS OF OPPOSITION FIGURES, THE PROHIBITION PREVENTING SEVERAL THOUSAND CHILEAN EXILES FROM RETURNING TO THEIR COUNTRY, AND THE DENIAL OF RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS THROUGH THE MAINTENANCE OF STATES OF EXCEPTION AND EXTREME EXECUTIVE POWERS DURING A PROLONGED PERIOD; CONFIDENTIAL

9. ADD NEW POINT AS OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH NINE: REITERATES ITS APPEAL TO THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE TO RESPECT HUMAN RIGHTS, AND TO RE-ESTABLISH, IN CONFORMITY WITH THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS, DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS AND THE FULL PROTECTION OF LAW WHICH ARE ESSENTIAL TO THE EFFECTIVE ENJOYMENT AND EXERCISE OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS, AND ARE IN THE BEST DEMOCRATIC TRADITION OF CHILE;

(COMMENT: THIS COVERS ISSUE RAISED IN DELETED MEXICAN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH SIX.)

10. ADD NEW POINT AS OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH TEN: NOTES WITH SPECIAL DISMAY THE INEFFECTIVENESS OF EXECUTIVE AND JUDICIAL AUTHORITIES IN PREVENTING THE RECURRENCE OF ABUSES OF AUTHORITY BY SECURITY FORCES, PARTICULARLY UNLAWFUL COERCION ASSOCIATED WITH THE USE OF MILITARY PERSONNEL IN CONDUCTING SWEEPS OF URBAN COMMUNITIES IN SEARCH OF EVIDENCE OR POSSIBLE INVOLVEMENT IN ACTS CONTRARY TO PUBLIC ORDER; (COMMENT: ADDRESSES ISSUES RAISED IN DELETED MEXICAN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH FOUR.)

11. ADD NEW POINT AS OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH ELEVEN: EXPRESSES DEEP CONCERN OVER THE FAILURE OF THE EXECUTIVE AND JUDICIAL AUTHORITIES TO ENSURE THE THOROUGH INVESTIGATION AND PROSECUTION OF THE MANY UNSOLVED CASES OF MURDER, KIDNAPPING, TORTURE, AND DISAPPEARANCES; (COMMENT: ADDRESSES SUBSTANCE OF DELETED MEXICAN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH SEVEN.)

12. ADD NEW POINT AS OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH TWELVE: NOTES WITH THE SAME SPECIAL CONCERN THE USE OF THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM TO DETAIN OPPOSITION FIGURES FOR INDETERMINATE PERIODS OF TIME DURING PERIODS OF POLITICAL UNREST IN A MANNER THAT DOES NOT DISTINGUISH LEADERS OF PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATIONS FROM THOSE ASSOCIATED WITH VANDALISM AND VIOLENCE; (COMMENT: ADDRESSES SUBSTANCE OF ISSUES RAISED IN DELETED MEXICAN PARAGRAPH FOUR.)

13. REPLACE INTRODUCTION TO OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH NINE WITH NEW PARAGRAPH (NOW NUMBERED THIRTEEN): STRONGLY URGES THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE TO ASSURE THE FULL IMPLEMENTATION OF THE SPECIFIC STEPS SET FORTH IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION'S RESOLUTION 1986/63, OF MARCH 14, 1986, AND TO ADOPT THE MEASURES NECESSARY AND CONDUCIVE TO CARRYING OUT AT LEAST THE FOLLOWING ACTIONS:

(A) REPLACE MEXICAN 9A WITH: TAKE IMMEDIATE MEASURES, INCLUDING REMOVAL OF STATES OF EXCEPTION AND SPECIAL EDICTS, TO PROMOTE AN ATMOSPHERE CONDUCIVE TO DEVELOPMENT OF CONSENSUS ON A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY, BY ALLOWING FULL FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY AND FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION, INCLUDING FREEDOM OF THE PRESS, FREEDOM OF ACCESS TO ALL SECTORS OF THE MEDIA, AND THE FREEDOM TO FORM AND PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTIVITIES OF NON-VIOLENT POLITICAL PARTIES;

(B) REPLACE MEXICAN 9B WITH: IMMEDIATELY PUT AN END TO

ALL FORMS OF TORTURE BY SECURITY FORCES, AND ASSURE COMPLIANCE WITH THE ORDER OF JULY 30, 1985 BY THE MINISTERS OF DEFENSE AND OF INTERIOR WHICH CALLS FOR AN END OF THESE ABUSES;

(C) REPLACE MEXICAN 9C WITH: PROCEED VIGOROUSLY THROUGH CONFIDENTIAL

JUDICIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION TO INVESTIGATE ALL REPORTS OF TORTURE, KILLINGS, DISAPPEARANCES, KIDNAPPINGS, OR OTHER ABUSES BY SECURITY FORCES AND

OTHERS, ASSURING IN ALL SUCH INVESTIGATIONS THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE JUDICIARY AND THE MAXIMUM EFFECTIVENESS OF JUDICIAL REMEDIES, AND TAKING APPROPRIATE ACTION AGAINST ALL PERSONS FOUND GUILTY OF SUCH VIOLATIONS, SO THAT THE JUDICIARY--CIVIL AND MILITARY--ASSUMES ITS ROLE AS CUSTODIAN OF HUMAN RIGHTS; (COMMENT: COVERS ISSUES RAISED IN MEXICAN OPERATIVE PARAGRAPHS 9C, 9D, AND 9F.)

(D) REPLACE MEXICAN 9D WITH: REDOUBLE EFFORTS TO INVESTIGATE THE ACTIVITIES OF GROUPS AND BANDS, WHETHER PRIVATE OR CONNECTED WITH SECURITY FORCES, WHICH HAVE BEEN REPORTED TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR KIDNAPPINGS, INTIMIDATION AND ABUSES AND PUT AN END TO THE ACTIVITIES OF THESE ILLEGAL AND VIOLENT GROUPS, BY IDENTIFYING AND PUNISHING THOSE RESPONSIBLE, ESPECIALLY THEIR LEADERS; (COMMENT: COVERS POINT RAISED IN MEXICAN 9G.)

(E) REPLACE MEXICAN 9E WITH: PROVIDE FOR THE PROTECTION OF PUBLIC ORDER AGAINST ACTS OF VIOLENCE BY PUNISHING PERSONS FOUND TO HAVE BEEN GUILTY OF SUCH ACTS, CONSISTENT WITH DUE PROCESS OF LAW AND RESPECT FOR THE RIGHTS OF THE ACCUSED, WITH THE RECOGNITION THAT ACTS OF TERRORISM, NO MATTER HOW DEPLORABLE, ARE NOT A JUSTIFICATION FOR ANY ABUSE OF AUTHORITY; (COMMENT: COVERS POINT RAISED IN MEWXICAN 9H.)

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PREL, CO, XK, OVIP (HABIB, PHILIP C.)
SUBJECT: AMB. HABIB'S MEETING WITH COLOMBIAN PRESIDENT BARCO

1. (SECRET - ENTIRE TEXT.)

2. SUMMARY: AMBASSADORS HABIB AND GILLESPIE MET WITH PRESIDENT BARCO AND FOREIGN MINISTER LONDONO TO DISCUSS THE SITUATION IN CENTRAL AMERICA. HABIB EXPLAINED THAT THE USG HAD AN ACTIVE DIPLOMATIC TRACK AND WOULD SUPPORT AN AGREEMENT THAT ACHIEVED THE COMPREHENSIVE, VERIFIABLE, AND SIMULTANEOUS IMPLEMENTATION OF THE 1983 CONTADORA DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES. U.S. POLICY ALSO HAD ANOTHER TRACK; WE WERE PROVIDING AID TO THE NICARAGUAN DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE WHO WOULD SOON BEGAN PUTTING REAL PRESSRRE ON THE SANDINISTAS. BARCO NOTED THAT COLOMBIA HAD A LONG HISTORY OF SUPPORTING THE PEACEFUL RESOLUTION OF CONFLICTS AND WAS CONTINUING TO PARTICIPATE IN CONTADORA AS IT WAS THE ONLY FORUM AVAILABLE. HE MADE CLEAR THAT HE VIEWED THE CRISIS IN CENTRAL AMERICA IN TERMS OF OW IT COULD AFFECT COLOMBIA'S OWN SECURITY; HE FEARED THAT IF THE CONFLICT ESCALATED, THE FIGHTING COULD SPILL OVER INTO COLOMBIA WHERE THERE WERE ALREADY LARGE GUERRILLA FORCES. WHILE COLOMBIA'S SYMPATHIES ARE WITH THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES AND WE CAN HOPE THAT IT WILL EXERT A MODERATING INFLUENCE IN THE CONTADORA PROCESS, THE GOC DOES NOT ASSIGN A HIGH PRIORITY TO CONTADORA AND IS UNLIKELY TO TAKE A LEADING ROLE. END SUMMARY.

3. ON NOVEMBER 22, AMBASSADORS HABIB AND GILLESPIE MET FOR LUNCH WITH COLOMBIAN PRESIDENT BARCO AND FOREIGN MINISTER LONDONO TO DISCUSS THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS IN CENTRAL AMERICA. AMB. HABIB EXPLAINED THAT THE U.S. WAS MAINTAINING THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK OF ITS POLICY. THE U.S. HAD SUPPORTED THE CONTADORA PROCESS AND BELIEVED THAT TH EFFORT TO REACH AN AGREEMENT THAT ACHIEVED THE COMPREHENSIBLE, VERIFIABLE, AND SIMULTANEOUS IMPLEMENTATION OF THE 1983 DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES WAS VALID. IN OUR VIEW, AND IN THOSE OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES, THE JUNE CONTADORA DRAFT WAS INADEQUATE BECAUSE IT DID NOT MEET THESE CRITERIA. COSTA RICA, EL SALVADOR, AND HONDURAS WERE IN HARMONY ON WHAT THEY WANTED THE CONTADORA PROCESS TO PRODUCE. GUATEMALA PURSUED A POLICY OF "ACTIVE NEUTRALITY," BUT WAS FUNDAMENTALLY DEMOCRATIC. WE BELIEVED THAT CONTADORA

SHOULD LISTEN MORE TO THE DEMOCRACIES.

4. HABIB THEN REFERRED TO THE PRESSURE TRACK OF U.S. POLICY AND STATED THAT OUR AID TO THE NICARAGUAN DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE WAS ALREADY BEGINNING TO FLOW. IT WOULD SOON HAVE AN IMPACT UPON THE BATTLEFIELD SITUATION. THIS WAS A REALITY, AND IT WOULD AFFECT THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK. AS THEY SANDINISTAS FELT THE PRESSURE MOUNT, THEY WOULD FIND THE DOOR TO SERIOUS NEGOTIATIONS OPEN FOR THEM. HABIB STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE OF OUR CENTRAL AMERICAN POLICY TO THE ADMINISTRATION, NOTING THAT IT WAS ONE OF THE HIGHEST PRIORITIES ON PRESIDENT REAGAN'S FOREIGN POLICY AGENDA.

5. BARCO PROVIDED AN OVERVIEW OF COLOMBIA'S ATTITUDE TOWARD CONTADORA. HE STRESSED THAT HIS COUNTRY HAD A LONG TRADITION OF PROMOTING THE PEACEFUL RESOLUTION OF CONFLICTS, AND IT HAD EVEN BEEN CRITICAL OF ARGENTINA'S USE OF FORCE IN THE MALVINAS. HE EXPLAINED THAT NICARAGUA WOULD LIKE TO TAKE THE ISSUE TO THE UN, BUT THAT THIS WAS NOT FEASIBLE BECAUSE OF THE U.S. VETO IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL. THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES WOULD LIKE TO GO TO THE OAS, BUT THIS WAS ALSO NOT PRACTICAL BECAUSE THE OAS LACKED A MECHANISM FOR HANDLING SUCH DISPUTES. THEREFORE, CONTADORA WAS THE ONLY AVAILABLE ALTERNATIVE. BARCO SAID THAT HE PERCEIVED OF CONTADORA AS AN OFFER OF GOOD OFFICES TO PROMOTE A DIALOGUE AMONG THE PARTIES INVOLVED. HE BELIEVED THAT AS SUCH, IT SHOULD BE SUPPORTED, BUT HE WAS FULLY AWARE OF ITS LIMITATIONS.

6. BARCO THEN OFFERED HIS ANALYSIS OF THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE SITUATION IN CENTRAL AMERICA AND COLOMBIA'S OWN INTERNAL SECURITY SITUATION. HE WAS EXTREMELY CONCERNED ABOUT COLOMBIA'S STABILITY, GIVEN THAT THERE WERE MANY GUERRILLA GROUPS OPERATING IN THE COUNTRYSIDE. WHILE A TRUCE WAS CURRENTLY IN EFFECT WITH THE LARGEST GROUP, HE FEARED THAT IF THE WAR IN CENTRAL AMERICA EXPANDED, IT COULD SPREAD TO COLOMBIA AND IGNITE A MAJOR CONFLICT THERE. BARCO MENTIONED ALSO THAT COLOMBIA'S SAN ANDRES ISLAND WAS ONLY 9 MINUTES FLYING TIME FROM A SANDINISTA AIRBASE ON NICARAGUA'S ATLANTIC COAST. BECAUSE OF COLOMBIA'S GEOPOLITICAL IMPORTANCE AND ITS LONG HISTORY OF DEMOCRACY, THE COMMUNISTS WOULD VIEW IT AS A VALUABLE PRIZE.

7. HABIB ASSURED BARCO THAT THE U.S. DID NOT SEEK A WIDER WAR IN CENTRAL AMERICA. WE INTENDED TO USE THE PRESSURE TO CONVINCE THE SANDINISTAS TO ENTER INTO SERIOUS NEGOTIATIONS. WE HAD VOTED FOR THE OASGA RESOLUTION CALLING ON CONTADORA TO PERSIST IN ITS EFFORTS, AND WE BELIEVED THAT THIS RESOLUTION HAD BEEN AN IMPORTANT REAFFIRMATION OF CONTADORA'S MANDATE. WE AND OTHERS WOULD BE WATCHING TO SEE WHICH WAY CONTADORA WENT. WE BELIEVED THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT THAT CONTADORA CONSULT MORE CLOSELY WITH THE FOUR DEMOCRACIES AND TAKE THEIR VIEWS INTO ACCOUNT.

8. HABIB ASKED ABOUT THE UPCOMING CONTADORA MEETING IN RIO DE JANEIRO. LONDONO ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE IDEA PROMOTED BY PERU AND MEXICO TO WIDEN THE SCOPE OF CONTADORA TO INCLUDE OTHER ISSUES WOULD BE REVIEWED, BUT HE DOUBTED THAT IT COULD PROSPER. COLOMBIA WOULD NOT SUPPORT THE CONCEPT OF AN OAS WITHOUT THE U.S. HABIB NOTED THAT WHEN CONTADORA HAD BEGUN, THE LATINS HAD SAID THAT THEY WANTED TO FIND THEIR OWN SOLUTION TO THE CRISIS IN CENTRAL AMERICA. NEARLY FOUR YEARS HAD PASSED, HOWEVER, AND NO SOLUTION WAS IN SIGHT. THIS WAS MUCH TOO LONG. MANY WERE SAYING THAT CONTADORA HAD DONE LITTLE

BUT GIVE THE SANDINISTAS TIME TO CONSOLIDAE THEIR REGIME AND BUILD UP THEIR ARMY.

9. LONDONO REPLIED THAT THE SANDINISTAS WERE CRITICIZING CONTADORA FOR NOT BEING STRONG ENOUGH TO PREVENT U.S. INTERVENTION AND WERE CLAIMING THAT THE U.S. WAS INTIMIDATING THE CONTADORA NATIONS. GILLESPIE INTERJECTED THAT THE COLOMBIANS KNEW THAT THIS WAS NOT

EXDIS

TRUE. LONDONO ADDED THAT NICARAGUA WAS ASSERTING THAT THE U.S. WAS USING ITS ECONOMIC LEVERAGE TO PRESSURE CONTADORA NOT TO TAKE A STRONG STAND AGAINST U.S. POLICY.

10. HABIB STATED THAT THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES THEMSELVES SHOULD BE USING PRESSURE; THEY SHOULD BE SEEKING TO CONVINCE THE SANDINISTAS TO CHANGE THEIR BEHAVIOR, BUT THEY WERE NOT TRYING. FOR EXAMPLE, NICARAGUA'S SUITS AGAINST COSTA RICA AND HONDURAS AT THE ICJ WERE

ANTI-CONTADORA ACTIONS THAT HAD BROUGHT THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO A HALT, BUT THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES WERE NOT DOING ANYTHING TO PERSUADE NICARAGUA TO DROP THE SUITS. LONDONO EXPLAINED THAT IT WAS HARD TO CRITICIZE NICARAGUA ON THIS COUNT, AS DOING SO WOULD AMOUNT TO ARGUING THAT A SMALL COUNTRY SHOULD NOT GO TO THE ICJ. THE WORLD SAW THE ISSUE AS SMALL NICARAGUA (WITH THE ICJ AND INTERNATIONAL LAW ON ITS SIDE) VERSUS THE BIG UNITED STATES.

11. LONDONO STATED THAT AT THE OASGA IN GUATEMALA, HE HAD ASKED NICARAGUAN VICE FOREIGN MINISTER VICTOR HUGO TINOCO IF NICARAGUA WOULD DROP ITS ICJ SUITS IF THE FOUR

EXDIS

DEMOCRACIES ANNOUNCED THAT THEY WERE READY TO RESUME NEGOTIATIONS AND THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUPS CALLED ON NICARAGUA TO WITHDRAW THE CASES; TINOCO HAD RESPONDED AFFIRMATIVELY. HABIB SAID THAT THE SANDINISTAS HAD WANTED STRINGS ATTACHED, IN THE FORM OF BILATERA AGREEMENTS. LONDONO RESPONDED THAT THAT WAS THE MEXICAN POSITION, NOT THE NICARAGUAN POSITION. HE ASKED THE U.S. TO CONVEY THIS TO THE CENTRAL AMERICANS. HABIB URGED THAT COLOMBIA TALK WITH THE DEMOCRACIES DIRECTLY, AS THEY APPRECIATED BEING CONSULTED. THEY WERE TIRED OF BEING PUSHED AROUND BY CONTADORA AND WANTED TO HAVE THEIR VOICES HEARD IN THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS. LONDONO

EXDIS

RESPONDED THAT THE REALLY HARD NEGOTIATIONS WERE THOSE GOING ON INSIDE THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUPS.

11. COMMENT: BARCO LEFT NO DOUBT THAT CONTADORA WAS LOW ON HIS LIST OF PRIORITIES. HIS MAIN INTEREST IN CEN RA AMERICA WAS PREVENTING THE SITUATION FROM ESCALATING AND THREATENING COLOMBIA'S SECURITY. BARCO HAS NO ILLUSIONS ABOUT THE SANDINISTAS AND IS SYMPATHETIC TO THE DEMOCRACIES. WE CAN HOPE FOR COLOMBIA TO BE A MODERATING FORCE WITHIN CONTADORA, BUT GIVEN THE LOW PRIORITY BARCO ASSIGNS IT, WE SHOULD NOT EXPECT ITS INFLUENCE TO BE THAT GREAT. SHULTZ

Senator John Danforth
Room 460
Russell Senate Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Danforth:

A few days ago, I watched the "Los Quemados" segment on Sixty Minutes dealing with the burning of Rodrigo Rojas and his companion. I am so horrified by this matter that I thought that I would write to you immediately to express my outrage. I was particularly distressed to learn at the end of the segment that the United States Government had not opposed a large loan by the World Bank to the repressive and murderous Pinochet regime. I should like to know whether the support for the Pinochet Government expressed by Senator Helms represents the position of the United States Government and Congress. As in the case of South Africa, I think we should not be supporting Nazi-like regimes because they claim to be anti-communist.

I fear that as in the case of South Africa, the Reagan administration is quietly supporting the Pinochet regime and might therefore seem to be condoning the continuation of the disappearances and murders in Chile. As in the case in South Africa, it is up to the Congress to show that the Reagan administration's views on Chile do not coincide with those of the American people as a whole.

Yours sincerely,

POLITICAL AND LABOR GROUPS SAY THEY STEER CLEAR OF THE MOSCOW-DOMINATED GROUPS IN CHILE, BUT WILL AID THE NATIONAL TRADE UNION COORDINATOR (CNS) AND THE NATIONAL WORKERS COMMAND (CNT)(PARAS 4 AND 5 OF REFTEL). WE ARE CIRCULATING THIS CLARIFICATION TO EC POSTS IN THE EVENT OTHER LABOR MOVEMENTS SHARE THE DANISH LO'S CONFUSION ABOUT THE POLITICAL LEANINGS OF SOME OF CHILE'S TRADE UNION CONFEDERATIONS. THE CNS IS A GROUPING OF TRADE UNIONS LED BY COMMUNIST, SOCIALIST AND CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC UNIONISTS. THE DOMINANT FORCE IN THE CNS IS A COALITION OF UNIONS UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE COMMUNISTS. THE CNS IS SEEN AS THE VEHICLE SELECTED BY THE COMMUNISTS TO EVENTUALLY BRING ABOUT THE REBIRTH OF A UNIFIED CENTRAL LABOR BODY IN CHILE, SUCH AS THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED CUT WHICH WAS ABOLISHED IN 1973 BY THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT.

3. THE CNS IS PART OF THE CNT, WHICH IS ITSELF A LOOSE GROUPING OF TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS, CONFEDERATIONS AND INDEPENDENT GROUPS SUCH AS THE CNS. WHILE THE MAJORITY OF CNT LEADERS ARE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION AFFILIATES, THE COMMUNIST PARTY HAS A SIGNIFICANT VOICE IN THE CNT THROUGH CONTROL OF THE CNS. THE BASIC AIM OF THE CNT HAS BEEN TO SERVE AS A VEHICLE FOR ALL OPPOSITION TRADE UNIONS TO COORDINATE THEIR ACTIVITIES AGAINST THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT. DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS INVOLVED IN THE CNT AND THE CNS HAVE PUBLICLY INDICATED THEIR WILLINGNESS TO OVERLOOK IDEOLOGICAL DIFFERENCES IN THEIR QUEST TO BRING ABOUT THE END OF THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT. THEY

ARGUE THAT THEY CAN CONTROL THEIR COMMUNIST COMRADES, AND THAT WHEN THE COUNTRY RETURNS TO A DEMOCRATIC FORM OF GOVERNMENT, THEY WILL MOVE AGAINST THE COMMUNIST TRADE UNIONS. OUR VIEW IS THAT THE COMMUNISTS HAVE USED THE ALLIANCE WITH THE DEMOCRATIC FORCES TO THEIR ADVANTAGE, AND HAVE INCREASED THEIR INFLUENCE

WITHIN THE TRADE UNION MOVEMENT BECAUSE OF THE LACK OF CLEAR DIRECTION FROM THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION UNIONISTS.

4. THE CENTER FOR DEMOCRATIC WORKERS (CDT), ON THE OTHER HAND, HAS REFUSED TO COOPERATE WITH THE COMMUNIST UNION LEADERS, BUT THE CDT HAS NOT RECEIVED FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FROM THE EUROPEAN TRADE UNIONS. WE ARE THEREFORE INTRIGUED AS TO WHY THE DANISH POLITICAL AND TRADE UNION GROUPS SHOULD STATE THAT THEY WILL STEER CLEAR OF MOSCOW-DOMINATED GROUPS IN CHILE, WHILE READILY ADMITTING THAT THEY CONTRIBUTE FUNDS TO THE CNS AND THE CNT. WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE THEM BE SOMEWHAT MORE DISCRIMINATING IN THEIR SELECTION OF WHICH CHILEAN OPPOSITION GROUPS TO ASSIST, AND PERHAPS WORK TO SEPARATE THE DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS IN THE CNS/CNT FROM THEIR COMMUNIST ALLIES.

5. LOCAL PRESS REPORTS ON NOVEMBER 20 INDICATE THAT BOTH THE CDT AND THE CNT HAVE BEEN ACCEPTED AS AFFILIATES OF THE ICFTU. WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE THE EUROPEANS NOW BE MORE EVENHANDED IN THEIR ASSISTANCE, AND INCLUDE THE CDT AS ONE OF THE RECIPIENTS FOR THIS AID. BARNES

6. (C) BARRICADA'S ASSERTION THAT THE DRUGS WERE IMPORTED INTO NICARAGUA BY THE CONTRA TO "CORRUPT NICARAGUAN YOUTH" DEPARTS FROM EARLIER CLAIMS THAT THE RESISTANCE HAD BEEN TRANSPORTING NARCOTICS THROUGH NICARAGUA FOR SALE ELSEWHERE, WITH THE PROCEEDS FUNDING MILITARY OPERATIONS OR PADDING FOREIGN BANK ACCOUNTS OF RESISTANCE LEADERS. THIS RECENT CLAIM IS ALL THE MORE SURPRISING GIVEN THE RELATIVELY LIMITED NICARAGUAN MARKET FOR HIGH PRICED NARCOTICS. MOST NICARAGUANS SPEND MOST OF THEIR INCOME FOR FOOD. BERGOLD

TAGS: PREL, FR, US, NK
SUBJECT: HABIB, BARIANI DISCUSS CENTRAL AMERICA

1. ~~C~~ - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. QUAI STATE SECRETARY FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS DIDIER BARIANI MET WITH AMBASSADOR PHILIP HABIB NOVEMBER 19 FOR A DISCUSSION OF US POLICY ON THE CONTADORA PROCESS AND AID TO THE NICARAGUAN DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE. BARIANI SAID HE WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR IMPLEMENTING THE REVERSAL OF GOF POLICY FROM OPPOSITION TO SUPPORT OF THE US. HABIB ACKNOWLEDGED THAT WE WERE PLEASED WITH THIS CHANGE. HE EXPLAINED WE STILL SUPPORTED THE CONTADORA PROCESS, DESPITE OUR AND THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES' FRUSTRATION WITH THE JUNE 6 DRAFT. WE AND THE DEMOCRACIES FELT THE CONTADORA GROUP, PARTICULARLY MEXICO, SHOULD ALLOW THE CENTRAL AMERICANS, THEMSELVES, TO TAKE THE CENTRAL ROLE, AND NOT DICTATE TO THEM, AND SHOULD CONSULT WITH THE DEMOCRACIES, NOT JUST NICARAGUA. HABIB THEN SAID THE FOCAL POINT FOR US NOW WAS WHAT THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE WAS DOING. NEW OPERATIONS WERE BEGINNING, AND WE WOULD SEE THE RESULTS IN FOUR TO SIX MONTHS. SUCCESS WOULD BE MEASURED IN THE DEGREE OF PRESSURE BROUGHT ON THE SANDINISTAS. THUS WE WERE PURSUING A TWO-TRACK POLICY OF MILITARY PRESSURE AND CONTADORA DIPLOMACY. END SUMMARY.

3. BARIANI CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR IMPLEMENTING CHIRAC AND RAIMOND'S CHANGES IN GOF POLICY TOWARD CENTRAL AMERICA. CHIRAC AND RAIMOND REDIRECTED FRENCH AID AWAY FROM NICARAGUA TO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. CHIRAC PUBLICLY ACKNOWLEDGED THE ALLIES SHOULD EXPRESS SOLIDARITY WITH US BECAUSE OF OUR STRONG INTERESTS IN THE REGION. HABIB SAID WE WERE AWARE OF THIS SHIFT, AND WE AND THE DEMOCRACIES WERE EXTREMELY PLEASED.

4. HABIB SAID WE STILL SUPPORTED THE CONTADORA PROCESS, WHICH WAS NOT YET DEAD. THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES WERE FRUSTRATED WITH CONTADORA. THEY THOUGHT THE JUNE 6 DRAFT ACT WAS INADEQUATE. FURTHER, THEY WANTED A CENTRAL ROLE, AND RESENTED DICTATES FROM STATES OUTSIDE THE REGION, SUCH AS MEXICO. STILL, WE NEEDED A DIPLOMATIC TRACK, AND IT WAS HABIB'S JOB TO KEEP ONE ALIVE, WHETHER

IT BE CONTADORA OR A SUCCESSOR.

5. OUR FOCAL POINT NOW WAS NEW RESISTANCE MILITARY ACTION. THE FIRST RESULTS WOULD BE APPARENT IN FOUR TO SIX MONTHS. SUCCESS COULD BE MEASURED MANY WAYS. FOR A RELATIVELY SMALL OPERATION COSTING ONLY 100 MILLION DOLLARS, PRESSURE ALONE COULD REPRESENT SUCCESS.

6. THE IMPORTANT THING WAS THAT WE WERE PURSUING A TWO-TRACK POLICY. ONE TRACK WAS PRESSURE BY THE RESISTANCE ON THE SANDINISTAS. THE OTHER WAS REGIONAL DIPLOMACY WITHIN THE CONTADORA FRAMEWORK. HABIB WOULD TRAVEL TO THE FOUR CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES, COLOMBIA AND MEXICO THAT DAY TO PURSUE THE PEACE PROCESS.

7. BARIANI ASKED ABOUT THE CONTRAS' SITUATION. HABIB SAID EIGHTEEN TO TWENTY THOUSAND FACED A SANDINISTA ARMY OF SEVENTY THOUSAND. SIX TO SEVEN THOUSAND RESISTANCE FIGHTERS WERE IN NICARAGUA NOW, AND THIS WOULD DOUBLE IN COMING MONTHS. BARIANI ASKED IF RENEWAL OF CONTRA AID DID NOT CONTRADICT HABIB'S WORK. HABIB SAID NO, BECAUSE HIS JOB WAS TO SHOW WE REMAINED OPEN TO A PEACE PROCESS. BARIANI ASKED IF HABIB WOULD VISIT MANAGUA, AND HABIB SAID NO. WE CUT OFF THE MANZANILLO TALKS WHEN IT WAS APPARENT THE SANDINISTAS WOULD DISCUSS ONLY BILATERAL ISSUES. WE WOULD TALK IF THEY TALKED WITH THE INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL OPPOSITION.

8. HABIB SAID THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUP STATES HAD MADE KNOWN THEIR OPPOSITION AID TO THE RESISTANCE. HOWEVER, CONTADORA HAS NOT BUDGED THE SANDINISTAS. THEY HAVE ONLY EXPANDED THEIR MILITARY DURING PERIODS OF DISCUSSIONS. THE RESISTANCE RECEIVED MUCH BAD PLAY IN THE PRESS, BUT IT WAS IMPORTANT TO SEE WHAT THE SANDINISTAS WERE DOING TO POLITICAL PARTIES, THE PRESS, THE CHURCH AND TO ANY INTERNAL OPPOSITION.

9. THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES HAD DIFFERENT VIEWS. HONDURAS AND EL SALVADOR SUPPORTED THE RESISTANCE. COSTA RICA'S PRESIDENT ARIAS' ARGUMENT WAS THAT COSTA RICA FEARED NICARAGUA'S POWER, SANDINISTA OR SOMOZISTA. POLITICAL CHANGE COULD LEAD TO A REIMING IN OF THIS POWER. CONSEQUENTLY ARIAS SAW AN OVERTURE TO DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS--A FREE PRESS, POLITICAL PARTIES, A SYSTEM OF CHECKS AND BALANCES, THE RIGHT OF FREE SPEECH--AS HIS BEST PROTECTION. GUATEMALA SAW ITSELF AS A BRIDGE BETWEEN THE THREE OTHER DEMOCRACIES AND NICARAGUA. INTELLECTUALLY, CEREZO WAS CLOSE TO FELLOW CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS DUARTE AND ESCOBA, BUT GUATEMALA WAS UNDER PRESSURE FROM MEXICO.

10. HABIB SAID THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WANTED HIM TO GO TO EUROPE TO EXPLAIN US POLICY. FRANCE WAS NOT ONE OF THOSE WHICH NEEDED CONVINCING, BUT HE HOPED TO STOP IN PARIS IF HE MADE THIS TRIP. BARIANI SAID HABIB WOULD BE WELCOME, BUT HE WOULD PROBABLY FIND NO SUPPORT IN MOST OF EUROPE FOR US AID TO THE RESISTANCE.

REFS: (A) SANTIAGO 8110, (B) STGO. 7414, (B) STGO. 7298

1. C - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. MY FIRST CONVERSATION WITH DEL VALLE SINCE MY RETURN FROM THE US IN MID NOVEMBER WAS DEVOTED IN GREAT PART TO "WHAT NEXT." DEL VALLE EXPRESSED HIMSELF AS VERY PLEASED WITH THE SECRETARY'S SPEECH AT THE OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY AS WELL AS WITH THE US SUPPORT FOR A RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS WHICH DID NOT LIST COUNTRIES BY NAME. HE WAS ALSO GRATEFUL FOR US ASSISTANCE ON SUCH CHILEAN PROPOSALS AS THOSE DEALING WITH COPPER AND THE PANAMA CANAL.

3. IN ADDITION, SINCE THEN, HE SAID THE REACTION, INCLUDING THAT OF PINOCHET, TO THE US ABSTENTION ON THE SAL HAD BEEN POSITIVE; BECAUSE IT HAD BEEN CLEAR THAT CHILE COULD NOT REALISTICALLY EXPECT A VOTE IN FAVOR. AS TO THE VOTE ON THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION IN THE UNGA ON HUMAN RIGHTS, HE HAD UNDERSTOOD AS OF THE PREVIOUS NIGHT THAT THE US WAS LIKELY TO VOTE AGAINST

SINCE NO SIGNIFICANT IMPROVEMENTS HAD BEEN MADE. I SAID MY LATEST INFORMATION AS OF THE MORNING WAS THAT DISCUSSIONS WERE CONTINUING, BUT THAT ONLY IF THERE WERE SOME SIGNIFICANT CHANGES MIGHT WE BE ABLE TO ABSTAIN.

4. WE THEN WENT ON TO TALK ABOUT WHAT THE NEXT FEW MONTHS MIGHT BRING. DEL VALLE RECOUNTED A BRIEF CONVERSATION WITH THE SECRETARY IN GUATEMALA WHERE THE LATTER HAD TALKED ABOUT HIS FONDNESS FOR CHILE AND HIS WILLINGNESS TO BE OF HELP; BUT ALSO HE MENTIONED THE NEED FOR CHILE TO HELP THE US. IN THAT CONTEXT, I ASKED DEL VALLE, AND IN THE CONTEXT OF UNDER SECRETARY ARMACOST'S TALK A WEEK AGO WITH AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ, JUST WHAT IT WAS HE THOUGHT HIS GOVERNMENT COULD DO TO HELP US. I NOTED THAT IN ABSTAINING ON THE SAL AND QUITE POSSIBLY VOTING AGAINST A HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION, WE WERE RUNNING VERY SERIOUS RISKS IN THE US CONGRESS WHEN IT RECONVENED.

5. DEL VALLE RESPONDED BY SAYING HE COULD NOT AT THIS POINT GIVE ME EXACT DATES, BUT HE COULD OUTLINE HIS HOPES AS FOLLOWS:

- (A) EXILES - 200 CASES ARE NOW READY AND THERE ARE SEVERAL OTHER BATCHES OF 200 COMING ALONG. PINOCHET'S PLAN IS TO HAVE ENOUGH PROGRESS MADE BY THE TIME THE POPE COMES TO SHOW THAT THE NUMBER OF THOSE BARRED IS REALLY GOING DOWN TO ZERO (THE CATHOLIC BISHOPS CONFERENCE HAD IN ONE OF ITS RECENT DECLARATIONS URGED THE PROMPT ABOLITION OF EXILE).

-- (B) TORTURE -

JANUARY 10, AND HE HAS BEEN GIVEN SOME ASSURANCES THAT THAT COULD EVEN BE DONE IN THE NEXT WEEK OR TWO. MAKING THE ACCUSATIONS PUBLIC WOULD MAKE THE CASE A MATTER OF GENERAL KNOWLEDGE AND NOT JUST SPECULATION AS IT MOVED TOWARD A COURT DECISION. (LEGALLY THIS INVOLVED MAKING PUBLIC WHAT IS CALLED THE SUMARIA OR RECORD OF THE PROSECUTOR'S CONCLUSIONS.) I ASKED DEL VALLE WHETHER IT HAD REALLY BEEN NECESSARY TO ROUND UP A NUMBER OF PEOPLE WHO WERE ATTEMPTING TO REPAINT THE WALL WHERE THE TWO YOUNG PEOPLE HAD BEEN BURNED AND TO KEEP THOSE DETAINED STILL IN JAIL. HE SAID HE HAD NOT HEARDOF THE INCIDENT AND WOULD TRY TO FIND OUT WHAT HE COULD.

6. STATE OF SIEGE: THE PRESIDENT HAS NOT YET DECIDED, DEL VALLE SAID, WHETHER HE WILL EXTEND THE STATE OF SIEGE, LIMIT ITS APPLICATION BY DROPPING SOME OF THE AREAS WHERE IT IS APPLICABLE (PERHAPS LEAVING ONLY THE MAJOR CITIES OF SANTIAGO, VALPARAISO AND CONCEPCION COVERED) OR ABOLISH IT ALTOGETHER. IN ANY CASE, DEL VALLE SAID HE WAS SURE THAT AS OF DECEMBER 10 THE SITUATION WOULD BE MUCH EASIER.

7. POLITICAL LAWS. DEL VALLE SAID HE WAS ABSOLUTELY CONVINCED THAT PINOCHET WOULD LIVE UP TO HIS PROMISE TO PRESIDENT REAGAN OF HAVING THE POLITICAL PARTIES' LAW IN EFFECT IN THE FIRST FEW MONTHS OF THE YEAR (PROBABLY MARCH 11 AS HE HAD SAID BEFORE). WHEN I ASKED WHAT ABOUT THE ACCOMPANYING PROVISIONS TO MAKE IT POSSIBLE FOR PARTIES TO FUNCTION EFFECTIVELY IN A FREER ATMOSPHERE, DEL VALLE SAID THAT HE FELT THEY COULD REGISTER WITHIN TWENTY DAYS AND ONCE REGISTERED BE ACCORDED THE LEGAL STATUS WHICH WOULD ENABLE THEM TO HAVE MEETINGS AND ACCESS TO GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES FOR THE PURPOSES OF DIALOGUE. THE REASON FOR AUTHORIZING THE PUBLICATION OF A CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER AS OF MARCH 11, 1987, WAS PRECISELY TO MAKE IT POSSIBLE FOR THAT LARGE PARTY TO BE ABLE TO COMMUNICATE WITH THE PUBLIC.

8. VOLIO. ACCORDING TO DEL VALLE, PINOCHET HAD ALREADY DECIDED TO AGREE TO ANOTHER VOLIO VISIT, PROVIDED THAT THE UNGA ADOPT A RESOLUTION WHICH GIVES ENOUGH SUPPORT TO VOLIO TO MAKE IT LIKELY THAT WHAT

HE SAYS IN HIS FUTURE REPORTS WILL BE LISTENED TO.

9. BY WAY OF CONCLUSION, DEL VALLE SAID HE FELT THAT

IF THE UN VOTE WENT REASONABLY WELL, THAT,ON TOP OF THE OAS MEETING AND THE SAL VOTE, WOULD ENABLE HIM TO DEMONSTATE TO PINOCHET THAT HE HAD INDEED "DELIVERED" (REFTEL C); AND HE FELT PINOCHET WOULD FOLLOW THROUGH AND AGREE TO SOME OF THE SORTS OF PROPOSALS HE WAS OUTLINING TO ME EARLIER IN THE CONVERSATION. HE CHARACTERIZED PINOCHET AS SOMEONE WHO RESPONDS TO "SUCCESS."

10. WE AGREED TO CALL EACH OTHER MONDAY, DECEMBER 1, AFTER THE UNGA VOTE AND AGREE ON WHEN WE WOULD NEXT GET TOGETHER,MOST LIKELY THE END OF THAT WEEK.

E.O. 12356: DECL:OADR
TAGS: PHUM, PREL, UNGA, CI
SUBJECT: THIRD COMMITTEE RESOLUTION ON CHILE: US-PROPOSED AMENDMENTS AND VOTING INSTRUCTIONS

1. CONFIDENTIAL--ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY AND ACTION REQUESTED: US DELEGATION IS INSTRUCTED TO APPROACH IMMEDIATELY THE HEAD OF THE MEXICAN DELEGATION AND INFORM HIM THAT (1) THE US WILL VOTE AGAINST THE TABLED RESOLUTION ON CHILE AS PRESENTLY WRITTEN BUT (2) WILL ABSTAIN IF TWO AMENDMENTS SPECIFIED BELOW ARE ACCEPTED. GIVEN THE PRESENCE OF CUBA AS A CO-SPONSOR, AND THE UNWILLINGNESS OF THE CO-SPONSORS TO MODIFY THE TEXT TO ACCEPT ALL OF OUR EXPRESSED CONCERNS, A YES VOTE IS OUT OF THE QUESTION. END SUMMARY.

CONFIDENTIAL

3. WE HAVE ANALYZED THE TEXT OF THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION ON CHILE (L.99) CAREFULLY. IT IS AN IMPROVEMENT OVER LAST YEAR'S TEXT AND OVER PREVIOUS DRAFTS, AND ADDRESSES

UNCLASSIFIED

SOME OF THE CONCERNS WE HAVE EXPRESSED REGARDING PREVIOUS DRAFTS. AS INDICATED ABOVE, A YES VOTE IS OUT OF THE QUESTION. HOWEVER, WE WOULD BE PREPARED TO ABSTAIN ON

THE RESOLUTION PROVIDED THAT THESE TWO AMENDMENTS ARE MADE TO THE PRESENT TEXT:

(1) AMEND OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH 1 OF RESOLUTION L. 99 BY STRIKING "TAKES NOTE WITH INTEREST OF THE PROVISIONAL REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR" AND SUBSTITUTING "COMMENDS THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR".

(2) AMEND OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH 5, BY STRIKING "CHILEAN AUTHORITIES" AND SUBSTITUTING "GOVERNMENT OF CHILE".

4. ACTION REQUESTED: US DELEGATION SHOULD IMMEDIATELY APPROACH HEAD OF MEXICAN DELEGATION AND REQUEST THAT THESE CHANGES BE MADE SO THAT THE US MAY ABSTAIN ON THE RESOLUTION, INSTEAD OF VOTING NO. SHOULD THESE AMENDMENTS BE OFFERED AND ACCEPTED, THEN US DELEGATE SHOULD ABSTAIN ON THE CHILE RESOLUTION. SHOULD THESE AMENDMENTS NOT BE MADE, US DELEGATE SHOULD VOTE NO. A PROPOSED STATEMENT TO BE USED IN THE CASE OF EITHER A NEGATIVE VOTE OR ABSTENTION IS PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 5. OTHER AMENDMENTS THAT WOULD BE ACCEPTABLE FOR US TO ABSTAIN ON THE RESOLUTION ARE LISTED IN PARAGRAPH 6. IF THESE ARE PROPOSED, US DELEGATION SHOULD SUPPORT THEIR INCORPORATION.

5. STATEMENT FOR US DELEGATE
CONFIDENTIAL

THE GOAL OF THE POLICY OF MY GOVERNMENT, AS WE HAVE REPEATEDLY AND CLEARLY INDICATED, IS TO ENCOURAGE A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY AND INCREASED RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE. ALL OF OUR ACTIONS ARE PREDICATED ON HOW BEST TO CARRY OUT THIS POLICY.

AS THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S LATEST REPORT ON CHILE MAKES CLEAR, NO ASSESSMENT OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IS COMPLETE OR OBJECTIVE IF IT DOES NOT MAKE REFERENCE TO THE PROBLEMS OF TERRORIST VIOLENCE FROM BOTH EXTREMES AND ACKNOWLEDGE DISCOVERY OF A LARGE CACHE OF TERRORIST ARMS INTRODUCED FROM ABROAD--WE KNOW WITH CUBAN ASSISTANCE--AND THE SUBSEQUENT ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AGAINST PRESIDENT PINOCHET.

THE RESOLUTION IN QUESTION IS UNBALANCED IN ITS TREATMENT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S WORK. IT ALSO FAILS TO SUFFICIENTLY ADDRESS THE THREAT FROM TERRORISTS OF BOTH EXTREMES WHO ARE SEEKING VIOLENTLY TO POLARIZE THE SITUATION AS A MEANS TO THEIR NON-DEMOCRATIC ENDS. THE CURRENT RESOLUTION FAILS TO REINFORCE SUFFICIENTLY THE CONSTRUCTIVE RECOMMENDATIONS MADE BY THE SPECIAL

THE UNITED STATES IS SEEKING TO ENCOURAGE CONSTRUCTIVE CHANGE IN CHILE, A CHANGE WHICH ULTIMATELY ONLY THE CHILEAN PEOPLE CAN EFFECT. THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY HAS THE RIGHT AND THE OBLIGATION TO EXPRESS ITS CONCERNS ON HUMAN RIGHTS, BUT IN DOING SO, HAS THE EQUAL OBLIGATION TO BE CONSTRUCTIVE.
THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE, AS THE REPORT OF THE CONFIDENTIAL

SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR INDICATES, IS CAUSE FOR GRAVE CONCERN. IT IS FACT THAT SERIOUS ABUSES SUCH AS TORTURE, KIDNAPPINGS, DEATHS, AND ACTS OF INTIMIDATION OCCUR. IT IS FACT THAT THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM HAS NOT DONE ITS JOB IN CORRECTING THESE.
SADLY, THE RESOLUTION WE CONSIDER TODAY RELIES ON RHETORIC, REFLECTING THE HYPOCRITICAL STAND OF SOME OF THE NATIONS SUPPORTING IT. MUCH WORSE VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS OCCUR--WITHIN SOME COUNTRIES VOTING IN FAVOR OF THIS RESOLUTION--AND YET NO RESOLUTIONS ARE PASSED, NO SPECIAL RAPPORTEURS APPOINTED.
BUT IT IS ALSO A FACT THAT THIS RESOLUTION WILL NOT CHANGE THE REALITY IN CHILE. A MORE CONSTRUCTIVE RESOLUTION MIGHT HAVE BROUGHT ABOUT IMPROVEMENTS.
OUR VOTE TODAY IS CAST THEN WITH REGRET FOR AN OPPORTUNITY LOST. WE WILL CONTINUE OUR EFFORTS TO MAKE CLEAR OUR CONCERN OVER HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS IN CHILE AND

TRY TO ENCOURAGE THEIR CORRECTION. IN THIS REGARD, WE BELIEVE THAT THE SITUATION WARRANTS RETENTION OF A SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR. WE WOULD NOTE THAT SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR VOLIO HAS CARRIED OUT HIS DIFFICULT TASK WITH DISTINCTION AND SHOULD BE COMMENDED FOR HIS EFFECTIVE EFFORTS.

4. ACCEPTABLE AMENDMENTS TO A/C.3/41/L.99 (RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE) FOR THE UNITED STATES TO ABSTAIN RATHER THAN VOTE AGAINST:

- AMEND PREAMBULAR 2 BY STRIKING NOTING (IN SPANISH ADVIRTIENDO) AND SUBSTITUTING RECALLING, AND BY ADDING TO THE CONCLUSION THEREOF "AN OBLIGATION WHICH IS NOT CONFIDENTIAL DIFFERENT FROM THAT OF ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT WHICH IS A PARTY TO INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS INSTRUMENTS";

-- STRIKE PREAMBULAR 6 AND SUBSTITUTE THEREFOR: "CONSCIOUS THAT DESPITE THE CONCERNS EXPRESSED ON PREVIOUS OCCASIONS BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS, AND BY OTHER INTERNATIONAL BODIES, RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS HAVE NOT BEEN REESTABLISHED IN CHILE";

-- STRIKE PREAMBULAR 7 AND SUBSTITUTE THEREFOR: "CONSIDERING ALSO THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S PRELIMINARY REPORT SUBMITTED TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND THE REPLY OF THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE TO HIS REPORT TO THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS, AND HAVING ALSO EXAMINED REPORTS FROM VARIOUS NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS THAT HAVE MADE PUBLIC THE SERIOUS VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE";

-- STRIKE PREAMBULAR 8 AND SUBSTITUTE THEREFOR: "TAKING NOTE THAT THE ESTABLISHMENT IN JUNE 1986 OF AN ADVISORY COMMISSION TO THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR ON MATTERS RELATING TO HUMAN RIGHTS CONSTITUTES POSITIVE RECOGNITION BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE EXISTENCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS;"

- ADD PREAMBULAR 9 TO READ AS FOLLOWS: "NOTING THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE HAS ENDED THE PRACTICE OF ORDERING INTERNAL BANISHMENT WITHOUT RECOURSE TO THE

-- ADD PREAMBULAR PARAGRAPH 10, TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PREL, PGOV, NU, XR, OVIP (HABIB, PHILIP C.)
SUBJECT: AMB. HABIB'S MEETING WITH MEMBERS OF THE NICARAGUAN CIVIC OPPOSITION

1. (SECRET - ENTIRE TEXT.)

2. SUMMARY: ON NOVEMBER 21, AMB. HABIB MET IN GUATEMALA WITH TWO LEADERS OF THE NICARAGUAN CIVIC OPPOSITION, SOCIAL CHRISTIAN ERICK RAMIREZ AND CONSERVATIVE MARIO RAPPICCIOLI. HE EXPLAINED THE USG'S TWO-TRACK POLICY FOR NICARAGUA AND CONTADORA. RAPPACCIOLI WAS CRITICAL OF CONTADORA, SAYING THAT IT HAD ONLY BOUGHT THE SANDINISTAS TIME TO CONSOLIDATE. THE NICARAGUANS REVEALED PLANS TO FORM A NEW COALITION COMPOSED OF THEIR TWO PARTIES AND VIRGILIO GODOY'S INDEPENDENT LIBERAL PARTY. HABIB STRESSED THE NEED FOR UNITY OF THE INTERNAL OPPOSITION. END SUMMARY.

3. ON NOVEMBER 21, AMBASSADOR HABIB MEET IN GUATEMALA WITH TWO LEADERS OF THE NICARAGUAN CIVIC OPPOSITION, ERICK RAMIREZ OF THE SOCIAL CHRISTIAN PARTY (PSC) AND MARIO RAPPICCIOLI OF THE NICARAGUAN CONSERVATIVE PARTY (PCN). (INDEPENDENT LIBERAL PARTY PRESIDENT VIRGILIO GODOY HAD BEEN SCHEDULED TO PARTICIPATE BUT DID NOT ARRIVE DUE TO TRANSPORTATION DIFFICULTIES.) THE MEETING TOOK PLACE IN THE RESIDENCE OF DCM ROGER GAMBLE, AND ALSO ATTENDING WERE THE OTHER MEMBERS OF HABIB'S PARTY AND JANET CRIST, DEPUTY CHIEF OF POL OF AMEMBASSY MANAGUA.

4. HABIB GAVE THE TWO NICARAGUANS AN OVERVIEW OF U.S. POLICY TOWARD NICARAGUA AND CONTADORA. HE EXPLAINED THAT HE WAS INVOLVED WITH THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK OF THA POLICY. WHILE CONTADORA WAS AT A HIATUS, IT WAS NOT DEAD. THE U.S. HAD SUPPORTED THE CONTADORA PROCESS AND THE CONCEPT OF A REGIONAL SETTLEMENT THAT ACHIEVED THE COMPREHENSIVE, VERIFIABLE, AND SIMULTANEOUS IMPLEMENTATION OF THE 1983 DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES. WE BELIEVED THAT IT WAS ESSENTIAL THAT ANY AGREEMENT INCLUD THE POLITICAL ELEMENTS IN THE 21 POINTS, SPECIFICALLY NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION. THIS MEANT THAT THE SANDINISTAS MUST DIALOGUE WITH THEIR OPPOSITION, INCLUDING BOTH THE CIVIC OPPOSITION AND TE ARMED RESISTANCE. THE SANDINISTAS REFUSED TO TALK WITH THE OPPOSITION, HOWEVER, BECAUSE THEY HAD NO RESPECT FOR THE OPPOSITION OR WHAT THEY STOOD FOR. THE USG WOULD NOT RESUME BILATERAL NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE SANDINISTAS UNTIL THEY ENGAGED IN A DIALOGUE WITH THEIR OWN PEOPLE. THE PROBLEM WAS NOT A BILATERAL MATTER BETWEEN THE U.S. AND NICARAGUA, IT WAS A PROBLEM BETWEEN THE SANDINISTAS AND THEIR NEIGHBORS AND BETWEEN THE SANDINISTAS AND THEIR OWN PEOPLE.

5. HABIB EXPLAINED THAT BECAUSE OF SANDINISTA INTRANSIGENCE AND REFUSAL TO PURSUE SERIOUS NEGOTIATIONS THE U.S. HAD ANOTHER TRACK, PRESSURE. U.S. AID TO THE NICARAGUAN DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE WAS BEGINNING TO FLOW, AND WE WOULD SOON SEE ITS IMPACT ON THE BATTLEFIELD. THIS WAS A REALITY. AT THE SAME TIME, WE WERE LEAVING THE DOOR TO NEGOTIATIONS OPEN SO THAT AS THE PRESSURE MOUNTED, THE SANDINISTAS COULD TAKE THE OPTION OF A DIPLOMATIC SOLUTION.

6. RAPPACCIOLI WAS HIGHLY CRITICAL OF CONTADORA. HE CLAIMED THAT IT HAD DONE LITTLE BUT GIVE THE SANDINISTAS TIME IN WHICH TO CONSOLIDATE THEIR REGIME. ITS MEMBERS DID NOT TAKE THE NICARAGUAN CIVIC OPPOSITION SERIOUSLY. RAMIREZ SAID THAT IN DURING A TRIP THAT HE, RAPPACCIOLI, GODOY, AND TWO OTHER SIGNERS OF THE SIX-PARTY PROPOSAL HAD MADE TO SOUTH AMERICA IN FEBRUARY, THE PRESIDENTS OF COLOMBIA, VENEZUELA, AND PANAMA HAD UNDERSTOOD THEIR POSITION BUT SEEMED UNINTERESTED IN THE DETAILS OF AN INTERNAL DIALOGUE. HE NOTED THAT MEXICO WAS THE ONLY COUNTRY THAT REFUSED TO RECEIVE THEM.

7. HABIB REITERATED THAT THE ESSENCE OF CONTADORA, A COMPREHENSIVE AGREEMENT THAT INCLUDED GENUINE NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION, WAS VALID, ALTHOUGH THE CONTADORA PROCESS HAD BEEN TILTED IN FAVOR OF THE SANDINISTAS. IT WAS NECESSARY FOR CONTADORA TO RETURN TO ITS ORIGINAL OBJECTIVES. THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES HAD CALLED ON THE SANDINISTAS TO BGIN A DIALOGUE WITH THE OPPOSITION, AND THEY WOULD NOT SIGN AN AGREEMENT THAT CONTAINED ONLY A GENERAL STATEMENT ON RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION. THE AGREEMENT DID NOT HAVE TO SPELL OUT EVERY DETAIL OF THE DEMOCRATIZATION PROCESS, BUT A CLEAR FRAMEWORK WAS ESSENTIAL. RAMIREZ SAID THAT IT CERTAINLY WOULD HAVE TO PROVIDE FOR POLITICAL FREEDOM AND NEW ELECTIONS.

8. THE NICARAGUANS ADVISED HABIB THAT THEY WERE CONTEMPLATING FORMING A NEW OPPOSITION POLITICAL COALITION COMPOSED OF THEIR TWO PARTIES AND GODOY'S PLI. THEY CRITICIZED THE CURRENT COALITION, THE COORDINADORA, AS ENCOMPASSING TOO MANY GROUPS WITH DIFFERING IDEAS; THE RESULT WAS THAT ITS MEMBERS COULD SELDOM AGREE ON A COURSE OF ACTION. THE NEW COALITION, THOUG NOT INTENDED TO REPLACE THE COORDINADORA, WOULD OVERCOME THIS PARALYSIS BECAUSE IT WOULD CONSIST OF PARTIES PREPARED TO TAKE FIRM ACTION. THE THREE PARTIES WOULD SEEK TO EXPLOIT THEIR TIES WITH THEIR RESPECTIVE INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS: THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC INTERNATIONAL, THE INTERNATIONAL DEMOCRATIC UNION, AND THE LIBERAL INTERNATIONAL. RAPPACCIOLI REMARKED THAT THEY HOPED TO ISSUE A JOINT MEMO LINKED TO STATEMENTS OF SUPPORT BY THE INTERNATIONALS. HABIB SUGGESTED THAT IT WOULD BE USEFUL TO DO SO BEFORE THE DECEMBER CONTADORA MEETING IN RIO DE JANEIRO. RAMIREZ ADDED THAT THEY WERE ALSO TALKING WITH LEADERS OF THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL, WHO WERE SLOWLY SHIFTING THEIR ATTITUDE ABOUT THE SANDINISTAS.

THE NICARAGUAN PROBLEM WITH THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL.

9. HABIB STRESSED THAT UNITY OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES AND UNITY OF THE NICARAGUAN INTERNAL OPPOSITION WAS ESSENTIAL. THERE COULD BE POLITICAL DIFFERENCES SUCH AS THOSE BETWEEN THE SOCIAL CRISTIANS AND THE CONSERVATIVES, BUT THERE SHOULD BE NO DISPUTE ABOUT THE STRUGGLE TO BRING ABOUT A DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL PROCESS IN NICARAGUA. THE USG WAS CONCERNED ABOUT DISUNITY AMONG THE INTERNAL OPPOSITION, ESPECIALLY IN THE

EXDIS

PSC. ONLY THE SANDINISTAS WOULD BENEFIT FROM A PARTY SPLIT. WE WOULD NOT TAKE SIDES, BUT CLEARLY THE SOCIAL CHRISTIANS MUST FIND A FORMULA FOR HARMONY. HABIB TOLD RAMIREZ THAT HE AND GUATEMALAN PRESIDENT CEREZO HAD DISCUSSED THE PSC'S PROBLEM EARLIER, AND HE SUGGES ED THAT RAMIREZ TALK WITH CEREZO AS THE LATTER MIGHT BE ABLE TO HELP FIND A FACE-SAVING SOLUTION.

EXDIS

10. RAPPACCIOLI NOTED THAT AT THE TIME OF THE SIX-PARTY PROPOSAL, THE OPPOSITION HAD ENJOYED A HIGH DEGREE OF UNITY. IT WAS DIFFICULT TO MAINTAIN THIS UNITY IN THE FACE OF THE SANDINISTAS' CATEGORICAL REFUSAL TO TALK WITH THEM, BUT RAPPACCIOLI WAS HOPEFUL THAT IT COULD BE RECREATED BY A NEW EFFORT BY THE THREE PARTIES TO REAFFIRM THE FEBRUARY DOCUMENT. HABIB SAID THAT IT WOUL BE HELPFUL TO REITERATE THE DOCUMENT AND KEEP THE PRESSURE ON THE SANDINISTAS. HE ASKED WHETHER EITHER OF THEM HAD CONTACT WITH THE RESISTANCE ORGANIZATION UNO; BOTH LAUGHED AND SAID THAT IT WOULD BE BEST NOT TO RESPOND.

EXDIS

EXDIS

12. BOTH NICARAGUANS COMMENTED ON THE MILITARIZATION OF NICARAGUA UNDER THE SANDINISTAS. LARGE NUMBERS OF YOUTHS WERE BEING INDUCTED INTO THE SANDINISTA ARMY, AND THE SANDINISTAS WERE USING THEIR MILITARY AS THEIR PRIMARY POWER BASE. THOUSANDS OF NICARAGUANS WERE DYING, WITH NO PROSPECT OF VICTORY. RAMIREZ EMPHASIZED THAT THIS WAS CREATING GROWING TENSIONS. BOTH SAID THAT WITH THE POVERTY AND SHORTAGES BROUGHT ON BY NICARAGUA S ECONOMIC CRISIS, THE PEOPLE WERE SUFFERING AS NEVER BEFORE, AND THAT THE PEOPLE BLAMED THE SANDINISTAS FOR THEIR PROBLEMS.

13. RAMIREZ COMMENTED THAT AS THE PRESSURE GREW, THE SANDINISTAS WOULD TRY TRICKS. FOR EXAMPLE, THEY WERE CURRENTLY WERE PRETENDING TO BE ENGAGED IN A DIALOGUE WITH THE CHURCH, BUT IN REALITY, THERE WAS NO PROGRESS.

THE SANDINISTAS MIGHT WELL PRETEND TO BE FLEXIBLE AND WILLING TO NEGOTIATE IN ORDER TO DIVIDE THE CENTRA AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. SHULTZ

WE HAD TOLD THE MEXICANS THAT WE WOULD SHIFT TO AN ABSTENSION IF THEY AGREED TO TWO AMENDMENTS: (1) TO COMMEND VOLIO AND (2) TO CHANGE "CHILEAN AUTHORITIES" AT ONE POINT TO "GOVERNMENT OF CHILE." BUT THEY DIDN'T DO IT. IT MAY BE THAT THE CUBANS, JHO HAD JOINED AS CO-SPONSORS, BLOCKED THE CHANGE.

WE SHOULD THEN TRY TO GET OUR AMENDMENTS VOTED ON AND, IF THEY PASS, ABSTAIN ON THE TEXT. ARTIN POBLETE TALKED TO GEORGE LISTER TODAY AND PLEDGED THAT HE WOULD GET TO WORK IMMEDIATELY.

EO 12356: DECL: OADR

SUBJECT: BUSINESS VIEWS OF PINOCHET'S STATUS AND STRATEGY

REF: SANTIAGO 7465

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. MANUEL FELIU, HEAD OF THE CHILEAN BUSINESS COMMUNITY'S EQUIVALENT OF THE US CHAMBER OF AND INCREASINGLY PROMINENT AND AGGRESSIVE SPOKE FOR BUSINESS INTERESTS, TOLD ME OVER DINNER NOV. 28 THAT HE SEES PINOCHET HAVING BEEN SUBSTANTIALLY STRENGTHENED BY THE ARMS FINDS AND THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AND THAT THE BOOST IS NOW LASTING LONGER THAN HE HAD EARLIER ANTICIPATED. ONE RESULT HAS BEEN TO INCREASE PINOCHET'S DETERMINATION TO STAY ON AT ANY PRICE. TYPICALLY, PINOCHET, ACCORDING TO FELIU, BECOMES ARROGANT WHEN THINGS ARE GOING WELL AND REFUSES TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE BREATHING SPACES THESE PERIODS OFFER TO REACH ACCOMMODATIONS.
CONFIDENTIAL

3. SPECIFICALLY, FELIU THINKS PINOCHET IS LIKELY TO CONTINUE THE STATE OF SIEGE, OR MAJOR PARTS OF IT

(WHEN IT COMES TIME DECEMBER 7 TO RENEW OR TERMINATE IT), AND HE WILL LIFT IT TOTALLY ONLY IN MARCH BECAUSE OF THE POPE'S VISIT IN APRIL. SECONDLY, HE DOUBTS THAT PINOCHET WILL EVER AGREE TO LET THE OPPOSITION HAVE ACCESS TO TV, POLITICAL PARTIES LAW OR NO. FOR THAT REASON, HE SEES THE ONLY CHANCE OF BREAKING THE GOVERNMENT MONOPOLY ON TV IS TO TRY TO APPEAL TO PINOCHET'S BELIEF IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR AS A WAY OF PERSUADING HIM TO LET SOME PRIVATE SECTOR ORGANIZATIONS, LIKE THE ASSOCIATION HE NOW HEADS, GET INTO TV. THIS WOULD, HOWEVER, BE ONLY A LIMITED BEGINNING AT OPENING UP THE MEDIA.

4. WITH REGARD TO THE US, FELIU BELIEVES THAT WE PLAYED OUR CARDS WELL ON THE SAL LOAN IN THE SENSE THAT WE DID NOT GIVE PINOCHET A HANDLE FOR ATTACKING THE US AND AT THE SAME TIME SENT A CLEAR MESSAGE ABOUT OUR CONCERNS. NONETHELESS, FOR REASONS ALREADY NOTED, FELIU THINKS THAT WILL ESSENTIALLY DO NO MORE THAN KEEP PINOCHET FROM STRAYING TOO FAR FROM THE COURSE HE HAS ALREADY SET OUT. HE DOES THINK, THOUGH, THE US MIGHT BE ABLE TO BE HELPFUL IN CONTINUING TO TALK ABOUT THE IMPORTANCE OF PRIVATE ACCESS TO TV.

5. ANOTHER AREA WHERE THE US COULD BE USEFUL WOULD BE IN WORKING WITH THE DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONS IN URGING THEM TO FIND WAYS OF TALKING WITH THE VARIOUS BUSINESS ASSOCIATIONS IN DEVELOPING COMMON INTERESTS AND GOALS. SO DOING WOULD IN TURN HELP CREATE A BETTER CLIMATE FOR THE EVENTUAL RETURN TO DEMOCRACY
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

BY REDUCING THE POTENTIAL AREAS FOR FRICTION OR EXTREMIST EXPLOITATION.

6. FELIU HAS ALSO BEEN WORKING WITH CARDINAL FRESNO. HE HOPES TO ESTABLISH A CLOSER AND MORE FORMAL WORKING RELATIONSHIP WITH THE BISHOPS' CONFERENCE. AT THIS STAGE, HE FEELS THE CHURCH HAS BEEN PUT ASIDE BY THE GOVERNMENT IN ITS CALCULATIONS, BUT THAT THE POPE'S VISIT WILL HELP THE CHURCH REASSUME A MORE CENTRAL AND HELPFUL ROLE.

7. COMMENT: IN THE FEW MONTHS SINCE HE BECAME

PRESIDENT OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND MANUFACTURING, FELIU HAS MOVED IN A NUMBER OF AREAS TO PROJECT THE IMAGE OF A MORE DYNAMIC AND CONCERNED PRIVATE SECTOR, WHICH TAKES BOTH ITS PRESENT AND ITS FUTURE RESPONSIBILITIES SERIOUSLY. MANY OBSERVERS IN CHILE FEEL THAT ASIDE FROM THE MILITARY, IT IS THE BUSINESS CLASS WHICH CAN HAVE AN IMPACT ON PINOCHET, IF ANYONE CAN; AND FELIU SEEMS CONVINCED THAT IT IS AT LEAST IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR'S INTEREST TO BEGIN TO PLAY A MUCH MORE ACTIVE ROLE.

SUBJECT: CONVERSATION WITH FINANCE MINISTER BUCHI

REF: SANTIAGO 5541

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. MY DECEMBER 1 CONVERSATION WITH FINANCE MINISTER HERNAN BUCHI WAS OUR FIRST SINCE THE SAL VOTE, AND SO I ASKED HIM TO GIVE ME HIS IMPRESSIONS BOTH OF WHAT HAD HAPPENED AND THE IMPLICATIONS.

3. BUCHI AGREED WITH MY OBSERVATION THAT THERE WAS SOMETHING LIKE A CAMPAIGN IN CHILE IN OCTOBER AND THE FIRST PART OF NOVEMBER AGAINST THE US SUPPOSED INTENTION TO "VETO" THE SAL. AT THE SAME TIME, HE ARGUED THAT IT HAD NOT BEEN IN THE GOVERNMENT'S INTEREST TO STIMULATE SUCH A REACTION WHICH IRONICALLY ENOUGH CAUSED, AT LEAST IN PART, A RISE IN THE PARALLEL RATE AND SOME INCREASE IN INTEREST RATES THUS COMPLICATING THE GOVERNMENT'S POSITION ON OTHER FRONTS. HE ATTRIBUTED THE EXCESSIVE ATTENTION TO THE SAL TO VARIOUS OTHER FACTORS:
(A) A BELATED OVER-REACTION BY GOVERNMENT SUPPORTERS
CONFIDENTIAL

WHO REALLY BELIEVED THAT THE US WOULD BLOCK THE LOAN; (B) WITHDRAWAL OF FUNDS ON A NOTICEABLE SCALE BY SOME FOREIGN BANKS INCLUDING US BANKS; AND (C) SOME ELEMENTS IN THE GOVERNMENT AND OUT WHO WERE STILL INTERESTED IN PROVOKING A CONFRONTATION WITH THE US (REFTEL).

4. IN ANY CASE, BUCHI SAID HE HAD BEEN CONVINCED ON THE BASIS OF HIS OWN TALKS IN WASHINGTON AT THE TIME OF THE BANK AND FUND MEETINGS THAT THE US WOULD NOT TRY TO BLOCK THE SAL. HIS ONLY WORRY HAD BEEN THAT THE BANK MANAGEMENT, SENSING US RESERVATIONS, WOULD HESITATE TO BRING THE LOAN BEFORE THE BOARD. BUT ONCE IT HAD DECIDED TO DO SO, HE WAS SURE THE LOAN WOULD PASS. HE WAS AWARE OF THE EFFORTS THE US HAD MADE TO CONVEY ITS OWN POSITION INCLUDING THE LAST MINUTE PHONE CALLS TO COUNTRIES LIKE GERMANY.

5. BUCHI SAID THE GOVERNMENT NOW WANTED TO PLAY DOWN THE WHOLE QUESTION AND THAT WAS WHY EVERYONE INCLUDING PINOCHET HAD ATTEMPTED TO BE VERY RESTRAINED IN THEIR PUBLIC COMMENTS. WHAT HAD BEEN MOST HARMFUL HAD BEEN THE PERIOD OF UNCERTAINTY AND THAT WAS WHAT NOW CONCERNED HIM THE MOST FOR THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE, THIS TIME IN THE FORM OF THE RESCHEDULING OF PRIVATE BANK CREDITS. WHILE NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE PRIVATE BANKS HAD BEGUN TWO WEEKS AGO, IT WAS STILL NOT CLEAR WHETHER THEY COULD BE CONCLUDED QUICKLY, SAY IN THE NEXT TEN DAYS AS HE HOPED. WHEN I ASKED WHY THERE SHOULD BE ANY DELAY, HE SAID THERE WAS NO REASON HE KNEW CONNECTED WITH CHILE AS SUCH. RATHER CITY BANK, BECAUSE OF ITS EXPERIENCE WITH THE MEXICAN RESCHEDULING AND THE ANTICIPCATED TALKS WITH BRAZIL

AND ARGENTINA, DID NOT WANT TO REACH A QUICK UNDER-STANDING WITH CHILE THAT MIGHT SOMEHOW PROVIDE UNHELPFUL PRECEDENTS FOR THE OTHER TWO CASES. WHEN I ASKED ABOUT THE REGIONAL BANKS, HE SAID AT THIS POINT ALL OF THEM SEEMED TO BE SATISIFED WITH THE CHILEAN SITUATION, THOUGH THEY HAD SOME MORE GENERAL CONCERNS ABOUT THIS EXPOSURE. IF THE COMMERCIAL

BANKS CANNOT REACH AGREEMENT TO MOVE QUICKLY ON A NEW ARRANGEMENT FOR CHILE, THEN THE MATTER WILL HAVE TO BE HANDLED IN THE USUAL FASHION, WHICH MEANS GOING ON PROBABLY UNTIL THE END OF JANUARY. IF THINGS GO MUCH BEYOND FEBRUARY, BUCHI IS WORRIED THAT A NEW PERIOD OF UNCERTAINTY, PERHAPS EVEN GREATED THAN THAT WHICH SURROUNDED THE SAL, COULD BE CREATED; EVEN THOUGH IT MIGHT HAVE NOTHING TO DO DIRECTLY WITH THE CHILEAN SITUATION.

6. THE OTHER MAJOR SHORT-TERM PREOCCUPATION WHICH BUCHI HAS IS WITH IADB LOANS. UNLIKE THE WORLD BANK, ABSTENTIONS IN THE IADB COUNT AS NEGATIVE VOTES, BUCHI SAID, IN THE SENSE THAT TO BE PASSED A LOAN MUST BE APPROVED BY A MAJORITY OF THOSE ENTITLED TO VOTE. EVEN THOUGH THE LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES HAVE TRADITIONALLY VOTED FOR ONE OR ANOTHER,HE WORRIES THAT A COUNTRY LIKE MEXICO, WHICH IS OPPOSED TO CHILE, COULD BREAK THE PATTERN. FOR THIS REASON, CHILE DECIDED TO REQUEST POSTPONEMENT OF CONSIDERATION OF A HYDROELECTRIC PROJECT LOAN TO PROVIDE MORE TIME FOR LOBBYING WITH OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES AND SOME OF THE EUROPEANS TO BE SURE THE NECESSARY MAJORITY

IS THERE. WHILE HE IS WORRIED, BUCHI ALSO HOPES THAT THE MEXICANS' OWN INTEREST IN LIMITING THE ABILITY OF ANY COUNTRY LIKE THE US EXERCISING A GREATER ROLE IN DECISIONS (IE IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROPOSED REPLENISHMENT) WILL MAKE THEM HESITANT TO DEVIATE FROM THE TRADITIONAL SUPPORT OF LOANS FOR ANY COUNTRY IN THE HEMISPHERE REGARDLESS OF ITS INTERNAL REGIME.

7. FOR THE MID TERM, BUCHI IS ALREADY PREPARING HIMSELF FOR INCREASED POLITICAL PRESSURES. HE THINKS THEY ARE LIKELY TO START INCREASING SUBSTANTIALLY BY THE END OF 1987, EVEN THOUGH PINOCHET HAS ALWAYS BEEN "PRUDENT" IN MATTERS OF ECONOMIC POLICIES. WHEN I ASKED WHETHER PINOCHET HADN'T DELIBERATELY DEVIATED FROM HIS STANDARD POLICIES IN 1983-84, BUCHI SAID THAT THOSE CHANGES WERE AS MUCH A FACTOR OF DIFFERENCES AMONG PINOCHET'S ADVISORS AS THEY WERE OF POPULAR POLITICAL PRESSURES. FOR HIS PART, HE WILL HAVE THE JOB OF CONTINUING TO ARGUE THAT "TECHNICAL" REASONS JUSTIFY CONTINUING THE PRESIDENT'S MODERATE GROWTH POLICIES, IF ONLY CARE.

8. FOR MY PART, AT SEVERAL POINTS, I REASSURED HIM THAT OUR DESIRE HAS BEEN TO SUPPORT THE ECONOMIC POLICIES WHICH WE HAVE FOUND VERY SOUND IN A GREAT NUMBER OF RESPECTS. AT THE SAME TIME, I REMINDED HIM OF THE DILEMMA, REFLECTED IN OUR VOTE ON THE SAL AND EXPECTED VOTE IN THE IADB, CAUSED BY THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION AND THE SLOW ADVANCE TOWARD DEMOCRACY. HE REMAINS WELL AWARE OF THOSE FACTORS, AND BASICALLY RELIEVED THAT WE HAD FOUND A WAY OF EXPRESSING OUR CONCERNS WITHOUT PRODUCING THE TYPE OF CONFRONTATION HE FEARED WHEN WE TALKED IN AUGUST (REFTEL). I TOLD HIM, THOUGH, THAT THE US WAS RUNNING SIGNIFICANT RISKS OF NEW CONGRESSIONAL RESTRICTIONS IN THE NEXT SESSION BECAUSE OF OUR ABSTENTION IN THE SAL (DESPITE CONGRESSIONAL RESOLUTIONS) AND OUR VOTE IN THE UN LAST WEEK AGAINST THE MEXICAN HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION.

9. AS A FINAL POINT, I ASKED HIM IF HE THOUGHT THERE WERE ANY POSSIBILITY OF SOME CONSENSUS BEING REACHED OVER THE NEXT YEAR OR SO (PARTICULARLY IF THE POLITICAL PARTIES LAW TURNED OUT TO BE MEANINGFUL) BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND SOME OF THE OPPOSITION ON MAJOR ELEMENTS OF ECONOMIC POLICY WHICH COULD MAKE FOR A SMOOTHER TRANSITION. HE AGREED THAT THERE WERE SOME THOUGHTFUL PEOPLE IN THE OPPOSITION, BUT HE WAS BOTHERED BY THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN WHAT THEY SAID IN PRIVATE AND WHAT THEY SAID IN PUBLIC. IF THE TRADITIONAL CHILEAN DIVISION INTO RIGHT, CENTER AND LEFT POLITICAL GROUPS CONTINUES TO PREVAIL, THEN HE THOUGHT IT WOULD LEAD THE RIGHT TO SIDE WITH THE GOVERNMENT AND THE CENTER WOULD PER FORCE MOVE TOWARD THE LEFT. I ARGUED THAT THAT WAS NOT NECESSARILY THE CASE, GIVEN THE CENTER'S NOW BEING WILLING TO DISTANCE ITSELF FROM THE EXTREME LEFT, BUT HE WAS SKEPTICAL FOR THE FUTURE. HE AGREED, THOUGH, THAT THE DEVELOPMENT OF SUCH A CONSENSUS WOULD BE AN IMPORTANT BENEFIT FOR CHILE'S FUTURE.

Attached is a copy of a letter I got from Buffone, making an entirely fair comment. If I recall correctly, when we last thought about it you were going to talk w/ El Gelbard about the matter, using the line I had worked up in my office about the case itself. Did we get anywhere on that? (I should note that Judge Sofaer's off the cuff reaction was that we should just associate ourselves with the decision, but that should not be taken as definitive.) Dear Mr. Olson:

On September 17, 1986 a meeting was held at the State Department to discuss the Department's position regarding enforcement of the civil judgment in the Letelier-Moffitt case. I was present along with Murray Karpen, Isabel Letelier and Michael Moffitt. During the meeting you advised us that you would communicate our request for assistance to the appropriate persons within the Department. You indicated at that time that you would provide a prompt response.

I have heard nothing from you or any other representative of the State Department since September 17, 1986. I would appreciate being advised of the status of the Department's consideration of our request.

Yours truly,

2. POLITICAL COUNSELOR DISCUSSED THE TWO CHANGES WITH MAXIMO PACHECO EARLY IN THE AFTERNOON OF DECEMBER 2. PACHECO SAID THE CHRC HAD MET AND READILY AGREED TO THE SECOND CHANGE ("THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT" INSTEAD OF "AUTHORITIES"(BUT, AFTER LONG DISCUSSION WITHIN THE CHRC, THEY COULD NOT AGREE TO THE FIRST. UPON BEING PRESSED, PACHECO SAID THE CHRC IS NOT PREPARED TO ENDORSE "PRAISE" FOR VOLIO OR HIS REPORT NOW SINCE THE CHRC DOES NOT LIKE HIS REPORT ("ES MALO") AND IS GOING TO CRITICIZE IT LATER. HE ADDED THAT "THE EUROPEANS" (NOT FURTHER IDENTIFIED) ARE AT LEAST EQUALLY UNHAPPY WITH VOLIO'S REPORT AND ARE NOT PREPARED TO "COMMEND" HIM. THE MOST THE CHRC IS WILLING TO SUPPORT IS "THANKS THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR AND TAKES NOTE WITH INTEREST", ETC. (AS IS). ("AGRADECE AL RELATOR ESPECIAL Y TOMA NOTA

3. MAXIMO ALSO INFORMED POLCOUNSELOR THAT HE HAD CONSIDERED OUR REQUEST TO RECONSIDER HIS ATTENDANCE AT DECEMBER 10 CEREMONIES BUT HE WILL NOT BE ABLE TO COME TO WASHINGTON AT THAT TIME.

4. PACHECO CALLED DCM LATER IN AFTERNOON TO SAY THAT NUMBER TWO IN MEXICAN UN MISSION, WHOM HE KNEW ONLY AS "MAGARITA," HAD CALLED CASTILLO BACK. SHE ASKED "WHAT IF THE AMERICANS INSIST ON THE WORD 'COMMENDS' - WHAT DO WE DO?" ACCORDING TO PACHECO, SHE WAS TOLD THAT WAS UP TO THEM - THE MEXICANS AND THE OTHER SPONSORS. SUBJECT: Chilean Junta Member Perceives Pro-Pinochet US Tilt

[redacted] reportedly believes that the US may now be tilting in favor of President Pinochet due to our decision not to sponsor a human rights resolution on Chile in the UNGA. [redacted] reached this conclusion following a November 24 briefing by the Chilean Ambassador to the United States. Chilean Ambassador Errazuriz apparently reported on the substance of his November 18 discussion with Mr. Armacost, during which our decision with regard to a resolution at the UNGA was explained. Following the briefing, the moderate [redacted] reportedly commented to an aide that this perceived shift comes at a bad time. He predicted that a result could be to dishearten the democratic opposition and strain their ties with USG officials; increase their willingness to condone direct and potentially violent challenges to the GOC; and further the process of polarization in Chile, to the ultimate benefit of both Pinochet and the Communists.

Pinochet is certain to try to misrepresent our not tabling a Chile human rights resolution (and later November 28 negative vote on an unbalanced Mexican text at the UNGA) as support for his regime. Should Pinochet be successful in framing our actions in this manner, the results [redacted] predicted could come to pass. We might also face more criticism and initiatives for punitive measures from our own Congress. We are attempting to counter any misimpression Pinochet may try to convey, clarifying that our policy has not changed. Ambassador Barnes has already sought publicly to correct the record in Santiago.

REF: STATE 371164 (NOTAL)

1. (U) SUMMARY: THE UNGA'S THIRD (SOCIAL) COMMITTEE ADOPTED ON NOVEMBER 28 A RESOLUTION CRITICAL OF THE SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE BY A VOTE OF 84-5(U.S.)-46. THE RESOLUTION MADE NO REFERENCE TO ACTS OF TERRORISM OR PROVISION OF ARMS TO TERRORIST GROUPS BY OUTSIDE POWERS. THE RESOLUTION WENT CONSIDERABLY BEYOND THE REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR AND MADE VIRTUALLY NO REFERENCES TO POSITIVE ELEMENTS DISCUSSED IN THAT REPORT. END SUMMARY.

3. (C) REFTEL WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO MEXICO'S TEXT ON CHILE ARRIVED ABOUT 15 MINUTES AFTER THE VOTE ON THE CHILE RESOLUTION, SO THE AMENDMENTS WERE NOT PUT TO THE MEXICAN DELEGATION.

4. AMBASSADOR BYRNE MADE THE FOLLOWING EXPLANATION OF POSITION:
MR. CHAIRMAN,

MY DELEGATION WAS FORCED TO VOTE "NO" ON THE RESOLUTION CONTAINED IN DOCUMENT A/41/C.3/L.99 ENTITLED "THE SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS IN CHILE."

THIS RESOLUTION IS, AT BEST, ONLY REMOTELY RELATED TO THE EXCELLENT REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON CHILE. IT IS A RESOLUTION THAT FAILS TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE POSITIVE STEPS TAKEN BY THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE, WHICH ARE MENTIONED BY THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR, AND FAILS TO REFER TO THE ACTIONS OF CERTAIN OPPONENTS OF THE GOVERNMENT THAT HAVE DAMAGED THE PROCESS OF DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION. I REFER IN PARTICULAR TO THE ATTEMPTED MURDER OF PRESIDENT PINOCHET BY TERRORISTS ARMED BY OUTSIDE POWERS. THE RAPPORTEUR DISCUSSED THESE ACTIONS AND THEIR NEGATIVE IMPACT IN CHILE; L.99 DOES NOT.

THE TEXT WE INTRODUCED ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE AT THE LAST SESSION OF THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS WAS A BALANCED ONE IN THAT IT POINTED OUT SOME SERIOUS HUMAN CONFIDENTIAL

RIGHTS PROBLEMS IN CHILE WHILE IT REFRAINED FROM UNFORTUNATE NAME-CALLING. THIS RESOLUTION IS NOT BALANCED; IT RELIES ON RHETORIC, NOT REALITY.

THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY HAS LEGITIMATE CONCERNS ABOU HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE. THESE SHOULD BE EXPRESSED. WE HAVE EXPRESSED THEM ON A NUMBER OF OCCASIONS AND WILL CONTINUE TO DO SO IN PUBLIC AND IN OUR CONVERSATIONS WIT

THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE.

THANK YOU, MR. CHAIRMAN.

TALKING POINTS ON CHILE RESOLUTION IN UNGA

DIST: 12/3 S/S

-- CONTROVERSY HAS DEVELOPED OVER US POSTURE TOWARD CHILE RESOLUTION IN UN.

-- RESOLUTION CRITICAL OF HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE WAS APPROVED OVERWHELMINGLY IN UN THIRD COMMITTEE ON NOV. 29: 84 YES; 46 ABSTENTION; 5 NO (US, CHILE, PARAGUAY, INDONESIA, LEBANON).

- o ALL WEST EUROPE VOTED YES. ALL LATIN AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES VOTED YES OR ABSTAINED.

-- US COULD NOT VOTE YES BECAUSE RESOLUTION FLAWED--NO MENTION OF ARMS FINDS OR TERRORISM, DOES NOT COMMEND UN RAPPORTEUR--ALSO OBJECT TO IT BECAUSE CUBA IS CO-SPONSOR (WITH ALGERIA, MEXICO, FRANCE, PORTUGAL, SWEDEN, YUGOSLAVIA, AND OTHER WEST EUROPEANS).

-- BUT WITH MINOR AMENDMENTS TO EXISTING TEXT WE COULD CHANGE OUR VOTE IN PLENARY TO ABSTENTION; TO GET THESE WE NEED TO MOVE DECISIVELY TO GET WEST EUROPEAN SPONSORS ON BOARD--VOTE SET FOR TOMORROW, DEC. 4.

-- GENERAL WALTERS OBJECTS TEXT IS UNBALANCED; THIS TRUE BUT ABSTENTION IS APPROPRIATE RESPONSE.

-- IN CHILE, AN ISOLATED US NEGATIVE VOTE WILL BE INTERPRETED AS SUPPORT FOR PINOCHET'S AMBITIONS TO STAY ON PAST 1989.

-- INTELLIGENCE INDICATES THAT MODERATES, INCLUDING AT LEAST ONE JUNTA MEMBER, ARE WORRIED ABOUT PERCEIVED US TILT TOWARD PINOCHET.

- o FEAR IS THAT MODERATE OPPOSITION COULD BE DRIVEN TOWARD COMMUNISTS IF THEY SENSE LACK OF US SUPPORT.

-- MOST IMPORTANT, CREDIBILITY OF YOUR POLICY OF SUPPORT FOR DEMOCRACY AND RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IS AT STAKE.

- o WE NEED TO MAINTAIN OUR MORAL LEADERSHIP TO MAINTAIN SUPPORT FOR POLICIES IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

-- CRITICAL WE BE PART OF CONSENSUS OF DEMOCRACIES AND NOT BE PERCEIVED AS SIDING WITH DICTATORSHIPS, WHICH SOVIETS AND CUBANS WANT TO USE AGAINST US IN CHILE AND ELSEWHERE.

THE COOPERATION BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE AND THE UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR HAS RESULTED IN SOME POSITIVE BUT LIMITED STEPS. BUT MUCH MORE NEEDS TO BE DONE.

FUNDAMENTAL LIBERTIES, SUCH AS FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION AND EXPRESSION, ARE SEVERELY LIMITED. UNDER THE STATE OF SIEGE THESE BASIC RIGHTS HAVE BEEN EVEN MORE GREATLY CURTAILED, AS OPPOSITION PUBLICATIONS HAVE BEEN CLOSED.

THESE FACTS ARE POINTED OUT IN THE RESOLUTION. BUT OTHER KEY ASPECTS OF THE CHILEAN SITUATION ARE LEFT OUT. AS THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S LATEST REPORT ON CHILE MAKES CLEAR, NO ASSESSMENT OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IS COMPLETE OR OBJECTIVE IF IT DOES NOT MAKE REFERENCE TO THE PROBLEMS OF TERRORIST VIOLENCE FROM BOTH EXTREMES AND ACKNOWLEDGE DISCOVERY OF A LARGE CACHE OF TERRORIST ARMS INTRODUCED FROM ABROAD--WE KNOW WITH CUBAN ASSISTANCE--AND THE SUBSEQUENT DEPLORABLE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AGAINST PRESIDENT PINOCHET.

TERRORIST VIOLENCE ONLY MAKES EVEN MORE URGENT EFFORTS TO DEVELOP A BROAD CONSENSUS ON A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY THROUGH DIALOGUE AND NATIONAL RECONCILIATION. TO DEVELOP AN ATMOSPHERE CONDUCIVE TO PROGRESS IN THIS REGARD, EFFECTIVE MEASURES NEED TO BE TAKEN TO RESTORE FUNDAMENTAL LIBERTIES AND ENSURE FULL

Señor Ministro,

I am deeply concerned about the fate of DANIEL PALMA ROBLEDO. He disappeared from Santiago on August 4, 1976, but his automobile was found in the possession of officials of the National Intelligence Service some seven months later.

I am concerned not only with the disappearance of PALMA, but also with the fact that evidence of N.I.S. involvement has not been studied by your Department. This casts a serious shadow over the Department that you head, which can only be removed by your initiating an impartial and full investigation into the facts of this case.

I urge you to authorize this investigation, and look forward to a positive response from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Stan Lieberson

FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

GUY VON DARDEL, Plaintiff, v. UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS, Defendant.	Civil Action No. 84-0353

STATEMENT OF INTEREST OF THE UNITED STATES

STATEMENT

The United States files this Statement of Interest pursuant to the Court's request (Letter of October 19, 1986), and 28 U.S.C. § 517, which authorizes the Attorney General to attend to the interests of the United States in a pending suit.

1. The Instant Proceedings

This suit was brought by Raoul Wallenberg's half brother, Guy von Dardel, and his legal guardian, Sven Hagstromer, against the Soviet Union, alleging that Soviet treatment of Wallenberg violates international law, international agreements and the laws of the United States. The Soviet Union refused to appear, returned the Complaint to the United States Embassy in Moscow and sent a diplomatic note asserting absolute sovereign immunity from suit in non-Soviet courts. On October 15, 1985, the Court granted plaintiffs' Motion for a Default Judgment. 623 F. Supp. 246 (D.D.C. 1985). The default judgment, as amended on November 7, 1986, directed the Soviet Union to produce the person of Wallenberg or his remains within 60 days of the order, to provide the Court with any documents or information in its custody pertaining to Wallenberg and to pay plaintiffs compensatory damages of $39 million.

UNCLASSIFIED

When the Soviet Union failed to comply with the judgment and returned the Notice of Default and supporting papers, plaintiffs moved to hold the Soviet Union in civil contempt, and to impose a fine of $50,000 per day which would rise by a factor of two every two weeks to a maximum of $1 million per day. (Plaintiffs' Motion for an Order Holding the Defendant Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in Civil Contempt, filed April 28, 1986.) Recognizing that the entry of such an order would involve important issues of foreign policy, the Court requested the views of the United States. As the Court stated in its October 29, 1986 letter:

> Because the entry of an order of the type that plaintiffs contemplate would involve issues of foreign policy, the Court deems it appropriate to have the views of the United States before proceeding further in this matter.

2. The Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act

Under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1330, 1602, et seq. (hereinafter referred to as the "FSIA" or "the Act"), immunity decisions are to be made by the courts. Nevertheless, the United States maintains a continuing interest in the interpretation of the Act because of the foreign policy implications of its application, see Letter of Monroe Leigh to Attorney General Edward H. Levy, Nov. 2, 1976, LXXV St.

Dept. Bull. 649 (1976), and, in passing the FSIA, Congress certainly did not intend to preclude the Executive Branch from responding substantively to judicial requests. In response to the Court's request, we therefore offer the United States' views.

Foreign policy concerns are clearly triggered when a court contemplates holding a foreign State in contempt. Congress no doubt assumed in enacting the FSIA that foreign States would respond to suits against them in United States courts. The Department of State has strongly supported Congressional policy in the FSIA by urging all States to respond to such litigation, and the United States responds in foreign courts as the price for enforcing such a policy. The State Department has also explained to foreign States that refusal to appear may lead to entry of default judgments against them. Thus, in principle, the United States supports the rights of aggrieved plaintiffs to sue the Soviet Union in federal court when permitted under the FSIA, and has repeatedly requested the Soviet Union in the strongest terms to respond to suits against it.

Despite Congress' intention and the State Department's strenuous efforts, however, some foreign States have refused to respond to suits in our courts. Those States do not adhere to the widely-held restrictive theory of immunity under international law, on which United States law is based. They subscribe, instead, to the theory of absolute immunity. See generally Jackson v. People's Republic of China, 794 F.2d 1490, 1492-94 (11th Cir. 1986). Some States may also fail to accept the premise of United States law that any line between immune and non-immune activities is to be drawn by our courts -- an approach to immunity determinations which is not universally practiced even by States adhering to the restrictive theory of immunity. Rather, they see immunity determinations as an issue for diplomatic resolution on a government-to-government basis. Thus, when States fail to respond in United States courts, that action should not necessarily be seen as reflecting any disrespect for our courts. It may instead represent an assertion by that State of its views concerning sovereignty and equality under international law. However much the United States may disagree with such failure to respond, one cannot lightly characterize such conduct as reflecting contemptuous behavior.

3. The Position of the United States

The United States believes that a foreign State's failure to appear should be treated with fairness and great care. While United States courts have the power to decide immunity issues, to issue default judgments, and to enforce those judgments through appropriate means, they should take special care strictly to adhere to all legal requirements and to take into account all relevant implications. Decisions holding a foreign State in default are not always challenged by a foreign State, and often adversely affect this nation's foreign relations -- sometimes seriously. Moreover, to our knowledge, a foreign government has never been held in contempt, a fact which could only be expected severely to compound foreign relations problems if that action were taken. In view of the importance of these default decisions, the United States will continue, when appropriate, to respond to requests from courts, parties and States for its views, and will act on its own initiative to inform courts of its views, consistent with Congress' policy of having courts decide immunity issues.

The United States believes that the exercise of the contempt powers of the Court in the instant case would be inappropriate because: (1) their exercise would be inconsistent with the purposes of the FSIA, and would be ineffective; and (2) there is serious question concerning the validity of the underlying judgment. The Court therefore should not enter an order of contempt in this case, and should reexamine under the FSIA the jurisdictional bases for its decision.

In stating its views, the United States wishes to make clear that its views on the legal elements of the von Dardel case have no effect on the United States' position concerning Soviet treatment of Wallenberg. The United States abhors the Soviet Union's unjust imprisonment of Wallenberg and continues, through Governmental channels, to seek a full and satisfactory accounting for his fate. The proper forum for such matters, however, is the diplomatic arena and not the courts of the United States.

The United States must also consider the current proceedings in terms of their potential impact on broader foreign policy interests. The imposition of contempt sanctions against the defendant under the circumstances of this case would create a precedent that could later be applied against other governments here -- and the United States abroad -- in factual situations that are far less sympathetic to plaintiffs.

DISCUSSION

I. The Standards For A Finding Of Contempt

Contempt sanctions would be inappropriate in the instant case for two reasons. First, the imposition of such sanctions would be inconsistent with the legal framework established by Congress in the FSIA for litigation against foreign states, particularly with respect to the enforcement of judgments. Second, such sanctions would be inappropriate because the underlying judgment is of questionable validity.

Courts generally have the inherent authority to enforce their orders and to impose sanctions on individuals who disobey those orders through contempt proceedings. See, e.g., 7 Wright & Miller, Federal Practice and Procedure, § 2960 at 581. However, the authority of our courts in cases against foreign States is circumscribed by the FSIA. To our knowledge, the question of the relationship between contempt and the FSIA is one of first impression.

As a general rule, a respondent may be held in contempt for failure to comply with a lawful court order if the following criteria are satisfied: (1) the order being enforced is clear and unambiguous; (2) proof of non-compliance is clear and convincing; (3) respondent has not exercised reasonable diligence in attempting to comply; and (4) basic standards of due process such as notice and an opportunity to defend have been met. See, e.g., E.E.O.C. v. Local 638, 753 F.2d 1172 (2d Cir. 1985); 7 Wright and Miller, § 2960 at 588-89.

In the FSIA, however, Congress created a legal framework for litigation against foreign States in which it sought to balance the rights and interests of foreign States against the rights of private litigants. See generally H.R. Rep. No. 1487, 94th Cong., 2d Sess. reprinted in 1976 U.S. Code Cong. & Ad. News 6604, at seq.; McKeel v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 722 F.2d 582 (9th Cir.), cert. denied, 105 S.Ct. 243 (1984). While Congress expressly provided for the enforcement of judgments against such States by attachment and execution, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1609-1611, it did not provide for the imposition of contempt sanctions. In view of this framework, the United States believes such sanctions were considered inappropriate by Congress. At a minimum, before a court considers imposing such sanctions it must, as this Court has decided to do, take into account the character of the defendant as a foreign sovereign and the implications that the contempt sanctions may have on the foreign relations of the United States. Imposing contempt sanctions in this case would set a precedent which could affect our legal and political relationships with all foreign nations potentially subject to the jurisdiction of United States courts. Furthermore, the Court should be cautious in exercising its contempt powers to ensure that the orders it enters will be effective, and that the Court has used the least power possible to achieve its objectives.

See, e.g., Shillitani v. United States, 384 U.S. 364, 371 (1966), citing Anderson v. Dunn, 6 Wheat. 204, 231 (1821).

A finding of contempt which seeks to enforce compliance with the orders of the court or to compensate for losses or damages will not survive if the underlying decree or judgment is found invalid. See e.g., United States v. United Mine Workers, 330 U.S. 258, 294-295 (1947); Latrobe Steel Co. v. United Steel Workers, et al., 545 F.2d 1336, 1342-1348 (3d Cir. 1976). Contempt would be inappropriate in the instant case because an analysis of the jurisdictional requirements of the FSIA casts serious doubt on the validity of the underlying judgment.

II. Contempt Is Inappropriate Under The FSIA And Would Be Ineffective

Courts employ the contempt power either to coerce compliance with their orders or to compensate for losses or damages sustained (civil contempt), or to punish persons for acts against the judicial process or the courts (criminal contempt).[1] In

---

[1] The determinative factor in evaluating whether contempt is civil or criminal is the purpose for which the sanction is imposed rather than the nature of the act punished. See, e.g., Shillitani, 384 U.S. at 369-370. In proceedings for civil contempt, the sanctions are intended to coerce compliance with an order of the court, or to compensate for losses or damages as a result of the defendant's non-compliance. See, e.g., Washington Metro. Area Transit Auth. v. Amalgamated Transit Union, 531 F.2d 617, 622 (D.C. Cir. 1976). Criminal contempt, by contrast, carries punitive sanctions for past acts and is designed to deter offenses against the public. See, e.g., Consolidation Coal Co. v. Local 1702, UMW, 683 F.2d 827 (4th Cir. 1982). Moreover, while the contemnor can purge himself of civil contempt through compliance with the court's order, the punishment of criminal contempt is unconditional. See United States v. North, 621 F.2d 1255 (3d Cir.), cert. denied, 449 U.S. 866 (1980). Accordingly, civil contempt is always a facet of the principal suit, while either event, recourse to the contempt powers is inappropriate in a case such as this.

The exercise of the contempt powers of the Court in this case would conflict with the delicate balance between the rights and interests of sovereign States and the rights of private litigants that Congress sought to strike in the FSIA. In enacting the FSIA, Congress intended to codify the restrictive theory of sovereign immunity under international law. 1976 U.S. Code Cong. & Ad. News at 6613. The Act provides jurisdiction over actions against sovereign States (and their agencies and instrumentalities) based upon the commercial activities of such States, as well as certain tort actions for monetary damages. 28 U.S.C. § 1605.

The Act establishes a comprehensive mechanism for initiating such actions and for enforcing resulting judgments against foreign States. The FSIA does not expressly provide for the imposition of contempt sanctions, and there is no indication in the history of the legislation that Congress contemplated the imposition of such sanctions under the Act, even with respect to agencies and instrumentalities of foreign States.[2] In the absence of a clear intention by Congress to the contrary, the Court should be reluctant to go beyond the statutory scheme contained in the FSIA for enforcement of judgments.

Exercise of the contempt power in response to a sovereign's failure to respond to a Court's judgment would be inappropriate because it ignores the basis for the foreign State's refusal. The refusal of a sovereign State to engage in litigation against it from its inception, absent specific evidence to the contrary, should not be considered as an expression of scorn or contempt for which such sanctions are normally imposed. Rather, such a refusal reflects a determination by that sovereign based on its strongly held principles that it is not subject to the jurisdiction of a foreign court and ought not be required to submit to that jurisdiction even for the limited purpose of disputing such jurisdiction. In the view of the foreign State, the refusal to appear in our courts normally reflects a dispute between two sovereigns concerning an issue of foreign relations and international law.[3] Some foreign States also object to the states that "[A] fine for violation of an injunction may be unenforceable if immunity exists under Section 1609-1610." (Plaintiffs Memorandum at 10, quoting from 1976 U.S. Code Cong. & Ad. News at 6621.) The legislative history does not explain what Congress intended by the use of the word "fines", the circumstances under which those fines could be imposed, nor against whom they could be assessed. And, as discussed, infra, the imposition of contempt is inconsistent with the entire scheme of the Act.

[3] As noted by the Court in this case, the Soviet Union returned the Complaint to the United States Embassy in Moscow and (continued...)

inconvenience and the cost associated with responding to what they see as unjustifiable attempts to assert jurisdiction over them or their agencies and instrumentalities. They maintain that they do not subject the United States to such actions and expect the United States to extend to them the same respect and courtesy. However much the United States may disagree with the refusal of such States to respond to the jurisdiction of our courts, it is important to note that a number of foreign States share that point of view.

Plaintiffs' proposed use of contempt to enforce the Court's judgment is likewise inappropriate because it ignores the intention of Congress that judgments against foreign states and their agencies and instrumentalities be enforced through attachment and execution. Congress expressly provided for attachment and execution to enforce judgments in certain cases and expressly preserved the immunity of State property in others. 28 U.S.C. §§ 1610, 1611. Thus, while Congress provided for attachment and execution against the commercial property of a State for judgments resulting from actions based upon the commercial activities of such States, Congress distinguished between property of the sovereign States and that of its agencies and instrumentalities. Compare 28 U.S.C. § 1610(a) with 28 U.S.C. § 1610(b). With respect to the foreign State itself,

Congress authorized attachment and execution only against property which was used for the commercial activity upon which the cause of action is based. 28 U.S.C. § 1610(a).[4] Moreover, Congress deliberately distinguished such commercial actions from tort actions against foreign States. While permitting private litigants to file some non-commercial tort actions against foreign States, 28 U.S.C. § 1605(a)(5), Congress preserved the immunity of those States with respect to attachment and execution against the property of the State to enforce such actions. 28 U.S.C. § 1610-1611. As the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit recognized in Letelier v. Republic of Chile, 748 F.2d 790 (2d Cir. 1984), cert. denied, 105 S.Ct. 2656 (1985), in such cases Congress, in effect, created a right which may be without an enforceable remedy.

These distinctions reflect a conscious decision on the part of Congress to strike a balance between the rights and interests of the foreign sovereign and the private litigant. Contempt, even to enforce a judgment,[5] is distinct from execution and

[4] Section 1610(a) of the Act contains other provisions regarding immunity from attachment of State property.

[5] In this instance, the contempt that plaintiffs have requested the Court to impose is civil. The imposition of criminal contempt involves different standards and procedures. Compare 18 U.S.C. § 402 with Rule 70, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. In any event, it is clear that Congress did not intend to authorize the imposition of criminal contempt or other punishment against foreign States. 1976 U.S. Cong. Code & Ad. News at 6621. The extraordinary sanctions that plaintiffs request in a sense seek to punish the defendant and, for that reason as well, are inconsistent with the intention of Congress.

UNCLASSIFIED

attachment. It suggests purposeful wrongdoing and would be viewed by the foreign State as a serious charge.[6] For these reasons, a finding of contempt may have more serious consequences for our foreign relations than would normal recourse to the execution and attachment provisions of FSIA.

In view of the sensitivity that the FSIA reflects regarding the imposition of such an extraordinary remedy in litigation against a foreign sovereign, the Court should also consider whether use of the contempt power would be effective. See, e.g., United States v. United Mine Workers, 330 U.S. at 304. The governing principle is that a court should exercise "(t)he least possible power adequate to the end proposed." Shillitani, 384 U.S. at 371, citing Anderson v. Dunn, 6 Wheat. 204, 231 (1821). This is consistent with the general principle of judicial economy that courts should not perform futile acts. In this case the use of contempt would not be effective.[7]

[6] Emerging international practice among those States that have followed the example of the United States also raises a question whether imposition of contempt sanctions to enforce compliance with a court order is appropriate. Of the six States that have enacted legislation similar to our FSIA, five (UK, Hong Kong, Singapore, Pakistan, and Canada) do not permit injunctive or specific performance relief and limit the imposition of fines. The sixth -- Australia -- permits the courts wide discretion in their orders, but does not provide for imposition of penalties by way of fine. Accordingly, a decision by this Court to impose contempt sanctions on the Soviet Union might conflict with the intent of Congress to enact a statute that incorporates international standards concerning sovereign immunity.

[7] Moreover, any attempt to enforce the contempt order through execution against property of a foreign State would be ineffective since the FSIA does not permit execution against the

The United States' views on Wallenberg are well known, supra, at page 5, and we do not take issue with the Court's condemnation of Soviet conduct in regard to Mr. Wallenberg. The real question, however, is whether in the FSIA Congress intended to resolve these kinds of government to government political issues that we believe fall outside the carefully delimited scope of jurisdiction over foreign States under the Act, or whether such issues are properly left to statecraft and diplomacy.

The United States continues to urge upon the Soviet Union and other governments that they should respond to any and all United States court proceedings brought against them, regardless of their nature. However, whether in their absence in this kind of case the Court should properly find first jurisdiction and then enter contempt sometimes is another matter. For example, in recognition of these concerns, this Court (Robinson, C.J.), recently dismissed an action against the Soviet Union brought by heirs of the passengers killed in the downing of Korean Airlines flight 007. In Re Korean Airlines Disaster of September 1, 1983, M.D.L. DOcket No. 565, (D.D.C., Order of August 1985) (Copy attached as Exhibit 1). While the Court found the Soviets' actions "deplorable," id. at 13, it concluded that it did not have and should not exercise jurisdiction over the Soviet Union property of a foreign State on a judgment resulting from the non-commercial tortious actions of a State, regardless of how egregious that conduct might have been. Letelier, 748 F.2d at 798-799. Thus, entry of an order of civil contempt would be a futile act.

pursuant to the FSIA or any other of the jurisdictional bases advanced by the plaintiffs.[8]

In light of these considerations and the jurisdictional bounds of the FSIA, we do not believe that the exercise by this Court of its contempt powers is appropriate in this type of case.

III. Contempt Is Inappropriate Because There Are Serious Questions Concerning Jurisdiction In This Case

An order of civil contempt does not survive if the underlying decree or judgment is found invalid. See, e.g., United States v. United Mine Workers, 330 U.S. at 294-295; Latrobe Steel Co. v. United Steel Workers, 545 F.2d at 1342-1348. In the underlying judgment in this case, the Court found that it had jurisdiction under both the FSIA and the Alien Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1350. 623 F.Supp. 246. However, because the defendant did not appear in this proceeding, the Court did not have the benefit of adversarial argument on the merits of the jurisdictional issues. In similar cases which have led to default judgments, it has not been unusual for courts to reexamine the issue of jurisdiction in light of new arguments presented at some later stage in the proceeding. See Jackson v. The People's Republic of China, 794 F.2d 1490; Siderman de Blake v. The Republic of Argentina, CV No. 82-1772-RMT (C.D. Cal. March 7, 1985) (Copy attached as Exhibit 2).

[8] An additional jurisdictional basis asserted in the KAL litigation, the Alien Tort Claims Act, was also advanced by the instant plaintiffs and is discussed infra at pp. 24-26.

UNCLASSIFIED

This Court held in its October 15, 1986 Opinion and Order, 623 F.Supp. 246, that it had subject matter and personal jurisdiction over the Soviet Union under the FSIA, on the following grounds:

(1) sovereign immunity is an affirmative defense that must be pleaded and proved by the sovereign defendant;

(2) the FSIA should be read not to extend immunity to clear violations of universally recognized principles of international law;

(3) the FSIA should be read to permit the full operation of international agreements to which the United States is a party;

(4) in ratifying an international agreement, a foreign sovereign implicitly waives the defense of sovereign immunity with regard to claims based upon violations of such agreements.

The Court also concluded that the Alien Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1350, provides an independent basis for subject matter jurisdiction. Finally, in holding that it had personal jurisdiction over the defendant, the Court reasoned that the minimum contacts required to bring suit against the Soviet Union under 28 U.S.C. § 1330(b) were "clearly satisfied" because the Soviet Union maintains a substantial presence in the District of Columbia.

The United States believes that these jurisdictional findings are subject to serious question. The FSIA was intended to provide jurisdiction generally over commercial actions and over a limited number and type of tort actions. 28 U.S.C.

UNCLASSIFIED

§§ 1602, 1605. The FSIA provides jurisdiction only for tort actions in which money damages are sought and where the injury occurs in the United States. 28 U.S.C. § 1605(a)(5). The legislative history of this provision, however, reflects that Congress intended that the tortious act or omission must also occur in the United States, 1976 U.S. Code Cong. & Ad. News at 6619. And, virtually every court that has addressed the issue has required that the tortious act or omission occur in the United States. See, e.g., Persinger v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 729 F.2d 835, 842-843 (D.C. Cir. 1984); Asociacion de Reclamantes v. United Mexican States, 735 F.2d 1517, 1524-1525 (D.C. Cir. 1984); Frolova v. Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 761 F.2d 370, 379-380 (7th Cir. 1985); Olsen v. Government of Mexico, 729 F.2d 641, 645-646 (9th Cir. 1984).

To the extent that the judgment of this Court would create jurisdiction where none was intended by the FSIA, it exposes the United States to similar jurisdiction abroad. The theory of jurisdiction apparently applied by the Court could expose the United States to jurisdiction abroad for virtually any act said to be inconsistent with international law, as construed by any country in which the United States might be found. For the reasons set forth below, the United States does not believe Congress intended to establish jurisdiction over cases such as this, and would vigorously oppose the assertion of such jurisdiction against the United States abroad. Whatever one thinks of the Wallenberg controversy -- and the United States abhors the Soviet conduct in this matter -- it clearly was not a commercial matter or a tort that Congress intended to subject to the jurisdiction of courts in the United States. In view of the arguments relating to jurisdiction presented below, the United States invites the Court, sua sponte, to review its findings on jurisdiction.

A. A Foreign Sovereign Does Not Waive Immunity By Failing To Appear

This Court has concluded that sovereign immunity under the FSIA is an affirmative defense that must be specially pleaded, and that failure to assert the defense constitutes a deliberate choice by the defendant State to forego any entitlement to immunity under the Act. 623 F. Supp. at 252-253. In arriving at this conclusion, the Court relied on a statement in the legislative history that "sovereign immunity is an affirmative defense that must be specially pleaded", 1976 U.S. Code Cong. & Ad. News at 6616.

The question whether a foreign sovereign must appear to plead immunity was conclusively resolved by the Supreme Court in Verlinden B.V. v. Central Bank of Nigeria, 461 U.S. 480 (1983). Noting the aforementioned statement in the legislative history, the Supreme Court concluded:

> Under the Act [FSIA], however, subject matter-jurisdiction turns on the existence of an exception to foreign sovereign immunity, 28 U.S.C. § 1330(a). Accordingly, even if the foreign state does not enter an appearance to assert an immunity defense, a district court still must determine that immunity is unavailable under the Act.

461 U.S. at 493-494, n. 20. See also MOL, Inc. v. People's Republic of Bangladesh, 736 F.2d 1326, 1328 (9th Cir. 1984). In view of the Supreme Court's holding, it is inconsistent with the terms of the FSIA and its legislative history to imply a waiver of immunity on the basis that the defendant State failed or refused to make an appearance.

B. Violations Of International Law Do Not Establish Jurisdiction Under The FSIA

The Court concluded that the FSIA should not be read to extend immunity to clear violations of universally recognized principles of international law. 623 F. Supp. at 253-254. This conclusion was based on a statement in the legislative history that the "Act [incorporated] standards recognized under international law," on certain decisions applying the act of state doctrine, and on the notion of "universal jurisdiction" under international law. 623 F. Supp. at 253-254.

The FSIA contains no exception to immunity based on violations of international law, and the United States believes that Congress intended to limit exceptions to immunity to those specified in the Act. The legislative history upon which the Court relied denotes merely that Congress was adopting internationally accepted standards concerning the restrictive theory of immunity. 1976 U.S. Code Cong. & Ad. News at 6613. It does not imply that the Act was intended to establish an exception to immunity for violations of international law. Amerada Hess Shipping Corp. v. Argentina, 85 Civ. 4365 (RCL)

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

(S.D.N.Y. May 5, 1986) (Slip opinion at 10-11.). (Copy attached as Exhibit 3.)

Decisions applying the act of state doctrine, upon which the Court also relied, do not support its conclusion. Under the act of state doctrine, a court may abstain from adjudicating a proceeding in which it otherwise has jurisdiction if the case requires the court to determine the validity of a public act of a foreign sovereign within the territory of that sovereign, even where the act is alleged to constitute a violation of international law. See, e.g., Banco Nacional De Cuba v. Sabbatino, 376 U.S. 398 (1974). The decisions upon which the Court relied reflect the willingness of courts to adjudicate proceedings in which the act of state doctrine would otherwise permit judicial abstention where international law standards are clearly established. Those decisions, however, do not bear on the central issue of this case -- whether jurisdiction exists in the first instance.[9]

Similarily, the notion of "universal jurisdiction" under international law is not relevant to the FSIA. While the United States may be entitled as a matter of international law to exercise such jurisdiction, federal courts may not exercise that jurisdiction unless empowered by Congress to do so. Owen

[9] Courts routinely determine whether jurisdiction exists under the FSIA before addressing the applicability of the prudential Act of State doctrine. For example, in Kalamazoo Spice Extraction Co. v. Ethiopia, 729 F.2d 422 (6th Cir. 1983), the court, after finding jurisdiction under the FSIA, refused to dismiss the proceeding on the basis of the Act of State doctrine.

Equipment & Erection Co. v. Kroger, 437 U.S. 365, 372 (1979); Aldinger v. Howard, 427 U.S. 1, 6-16 (1976); Turner v. Bank of North America, 4 Dall. (4 U.S.) 6, 11 (1799). Congress has not so provided. Rather, Congress has determined that the FSIA is the exclusive basis of jurisdiction for suits against foreign states in our courts. See Verlinden, 461 U.S. 480; McKeel v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 722 F.2d 582; Amerada Hess Shipping Corp. v. Argentina, slip. op. at 8-9.

C. Violations Of International Agreements Do Not Establish Jurisdiction Unless Expressly So Stated Or Unless Otherwise In Conflict With The FSIA

This Court has concluded that, where the provisions of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, 23 U.S.T. 3227, and the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes Against Internationally Protected Persons, including Diplomatic Agents, 28 U.S.T. 1975, have been violated by a defendant, section 1604 of the FSIA confers jurisdiction on United States cCourts to enforce such agreements.[10] 623 F. Supp. at 254-255.

To provide an exception to immunity under the FSIA, however, an international agreement must expressly provide for amenability to suit or otherwise conflict with the FSIA's immunity provisions. See 1976 U.S. Code Cong. & Ad. News at 6616; Amerada Hess Shipping Corp. v. Argentina, slip op. at 10-11. Neither the [10] Section 1604 provides: "Subject to existing international agreements to which the United States is a party at the time of enactment of this Act a foreign state shall be immune from the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States and of the States except as provided in sections 1605 to 1607 of this chapter."

Vienna Convention[11] nor the Convention on Protected Persons[12] preempts the FSIA's immunity provisions since neither Convention conflicts with the FSIA nor even relates to its subject matter -- lawsuits against foreign States.[13] Thus, neither provides an exception to immunity under the FSIA.

D. A Foreign Sovereign Can Waive Immunity Under The FSIA Only By Express Waiver Or By Clear Conduct

This Court has concluded that, by becoming a party to international agreements containing obligations to respect certain human rights and diplomatic immunities, the Soviet Union implicitly waived its immunity under section 1605(a)(1) of the [11] The Vienna Convention is limited to setting forth the scope of privileges and immunities to be accorded to diplomatic missions and their personnel, and does not give rise to an independent basis for asserting jurisdiction over a foreign State which fails to accord such protection. See Skeen v. Federative Republic of Brazil, 566 F. Supp. 1414, 1419 (D.D.C. 1983).

[12] The Convention on Protected Persons requires States to exercise jurisdiction over certain criminal offenses committed by private individuals, but does not deal with the sovereign immunity of States. Moreover, the Convention as well as domestic implementing legislation, 18 U.S.C. § 112, extends only to offenses which have been perpetrated within the territory of, or by a national of, the State exercising jurisdiction. Thus, this Convention would not apply to the case before this Court in any event.

[13] Moreover, unless implemented by legislation, international agreements do not provide the basis for private suits unless they are intended to be self executing. See Diggs v. Richardson, 555 F.2d 848 (D.C. Cir. 1976); Frolova v. Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 761 F.2d 370. Neither agreement in this case was intended to confer rights on individuals which are judicially enforceable in United States courts. See Skeen, 566 F. Supp. at 1419. And, although the 1973 Convention has been implemented through domestic legislation, 18 U.S.C. § 112, that legislation is criminal and does not apply to the type of case before the Court.

FSIA.[14] 623 F. Supp. at 255-256. In reaching this conclusion, the Court relied on general statements by several scholars that treaty provisions should be carried out by the courts to the fullest extent possible. Prevailing law under section 1605(a)(1), however, holds that waivers of immunity cannot be implied from the broad, general obligations contained in such Conventions.

In accord with the general principle which applies to suits against the United States that waivers of immunity should be strictly construed, the waiver provisions of the FSIA have been construed narrowly, and courts have been reluctant to find waivers of sovereign immunity by international agreement without convincing evidence that the foreign State so intended. Frolova v. Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 761 F.2d at 376-378; Berkovitz v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 735 F.2d 329, 333 (9th Cir. 1984), cert. denied, 105 S.Ct. 510 (1985); In re KAL Disaster, Slip Op. at 5-6; Rio Grande Transport, Inc. v. Compagnie Nationale Algerienne de Navigation, 516 F. Supp. 1155, 1160 (S.D. N.Y. 1981).

The agreements at issue in this case do not address sovereign immunity. Neither the text of the agreements nor their history indicates that the parties contemplated that by acceding they would be waiving any sovereign immunity; nor are we aware of any support for the Court's suggestion that waiver should be implied simply because the agreements set forth recognized principles of international law. Certainly the FSIA, which establishes the sole standard for resolving questions of sovereign immunity, does not so provide. See Letelier v. Republic of Chile, 488 F. Supp. 672 (D.D.C. 1980).

[14] Section 1605(a)(1) of the Act provides that foreign countries are not immune in cases "in which the foreign state has waived its immunity either explicitly or by implication, notwithstanding any withdrawal of the waiver which the foreign state may purport to effect except in accordance with the terms of the waiver."

E. The Alien Tort Claims Act Does Not Provide A Basis For Jurisdiction Against A Foreign State

The Court concluded that the Alien Tort Claims Act (hereinafter referred to as 'ATCA') independently provides subject matter jurisdiction over the defendant state in this case. 623 F. Supp. at 256-259. The ATCA gives the district courts "original jurisdiction of any civil action by an alien for a tort only, committed in violation of the law of nations or a treaty of the United States." 28 U.S.C. § 1350. The ATCA, however, was not intended to establish jurisdiction over a foreign State, and, even if it were, it has been modified by the FSIA.

At the time of enactment of the ATCA, 1789, both international law and United States law generally recognized the absolute immunity of States from suit. The Schooner Exchange v. McFaddan, 11 U.S. (7 Cranch) 116, 136-137 (1812). If Congress had intended to limit the well established doctrine of sovereign immunity, it would have done so expressly. It is clear from the silence of the statute and its legislative history that, whatever jurisdiction the ATCA established in regard to suits by aliens against individuals for torts committed in violation of the law of nations, it did not establish jurisdiction in regard to suits against foreign states. Siderman v. Argentina, Slip Op.; Amerada Hess Shipping Corp. v. Argentina, Slip Op.

Furthermore, the FSIA provides the sole jurisdictional basis for suits against foreign states in United States courts. 1976 U.S. Code Cong. & Ad. News at 6610. Almost without exception, courts interpreting the Act have treated it as the exclusive source of jurisdiction over foreign states. See, e.g., Verlinden B.V. v. Central Bank of Nigeria, 461 U.S. at 496-497; O'Connell Machinery Co. v. M.V. Americana, 734 F.2d 115, 116 (2d Cir. 1984); McKeel v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 722 F.2d 582; Gilson v. Republic of Ireland, 682 F.2d 1022, 1026 (D.C. Cir. 1982).

The instant case aside, there have been four attempts to establish jurisdiction over a foreign state under the ATCA. See, e.g., Hanoch Tel-Oran v. Libyan Arab Republic, 726 F.2d 774 (D.C. Cir. 1984); Siderman v. Argentina, Slip Op.; In re KAL Disaster, Slip Op. at 10-11; Amerada Hess Shipping Corp. v. Argentina, Slip Op.at 6-8. All have failed, including the plaintiffs in Hanoch Tel-Oran, cited by this Court.[15] Thus, whether one concludes that the ATCA was never intended to establish jurisdiction over States or that the subsequently enacted FSIA became the exclusive remedy against such States, the result is the same -- jurisdiction over foreign States in United States courts is available only in accordance with the FSIA, regardless of the origins of the cause of action.

[15] In Hanoch-Tel-Oran v. Libyan Arab Republic, the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit affirmed, per curiam, the district court's dismissal of jurisdiction, with three separate concurring opinions. While the concurring opinions differed widely as to the construction of the ATCA in suits against individuals, two of the three panel members expressly found that suit against Libya was barred by reason of the FSIA. 726 F.2d at 776, n.1 (Edwards, J.), and at 805, n.13 (Bork, J.).

F. A Foreign State's Diplomatic Presence Alone Does Not Satisfy Constitutional Requirements For Minimum Contacts

As this Court has recognized, 623 F.2d at 251, n.3, jurisdiction over a foreign state under the FSIA must also comport with minimum jurisdictional contacts and due process as required by International Shoe Co. v. Washington, 326 U.S. 319 (1945). This Court concluded that these minimum requirements are "clearly satisfied because the defendant maintains a substantial presence in the District". 623 F. Supp. at 251, n.3. The Court did not elaborate on the presence to which it was referring. The Soviet Union, of course, maintains a diplomatic presence in the District of Columbia through its Embassy. The diplomatic presence of a foreign State, however, would satisfy the requirement for minimum contacts only if the cause of action were expressly related to that presence. See, e.g., Maritima International Nominees Establishment v. Republic of Guinea, 693 F.2d 1094 (D.C. Cir. 1982), cert. denied, 464 U.S. 815 (1983).

In the view of the United States, the diplomatic activities of a foreign State that are not related to a cause of action brought under the FSIA shed no light on whether a foreign State is amenable to suit under one of the FSIA's exceptions to immunity, and should not be considered for minimum contact purposes. This conclusion serves important policy interests. First, foreign States should not be subject to suit for conducting internationally protected diplomatic activities. A contrary rule, in effect, punishes foreign States for conducting diplomatic relations in the United States. Second, this conclusion is consistent with the primary intention of the FSIA to reach the "commercial" or non-governmental activities of foreign States. Furthermore, this view is supported by the decision of the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit in Fandal v. Arabian American Oil Company, 345 F.2d 87, 88-89 (D.C. Cir. 1965).[16]

UNCLASSIFIED

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the United States believes that the exercise of the contempt power in this case would be inappropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD K. WILLARD
Assistant Attorney General

[16] The court in Fandal held that an office maintained by a Saudi Arabian corporation in Washington, D.C., and used to continue relationships with the State Department and other executive agencies of the United States, with diplomatic missions and with other educational and international organizations was not "doing business" in the District, as required under the Washington, D.C., long-arm statute. Fandal is especially significant since the long-arm provisions of the FSIA were patterned on that statute. 1976 U.S. Code Cong. & Ad. News at 6612.

Summary: The new leadership of the Democratic Alliance expressed its view that the AD must be the "pillar" of an effort to bring about an understanding with the military and a political campaign for free elections. They expressed strong concern about the UNGA vote, suggested that a statement on continuing state of siege could help repair the damage, and said in response to Ambassador's query that they would be willing to talk with Junta members on the political parties law if assured that their request for an audience would not be rejected. In a subsequent conversation with DCM, they asked for U.S. funding for the Alliance. End Summary.

Rene Abeliuk, the new (rotating - December 1986-May 1987) President of the Alliance, had asked for this meeting in order to appraise the Ambassador of the AD's viewpoint on recent developments. Among the issues discussed were:

-- Organizing the Opposition: Abeliuk opined that the hasty, ill-conceived launching of the National Democratic Accord (ANDE) had hurt the opposition's public image. Another, more serious problem is the presence of the ultra-left MAPU, which he sees as incompatible with the goal of reaching an agreement with the military. Moreover, two major parties - the Nationals (PN) and the Christian Democrats (PDC) had come on aboard without laying the necessary organizational groundwork. In Rene's view it is the Alliance that must be considered the political "pillar' of the democratic opposition.

-- Dialogue with the Armed Forces: Abeliuk said that the Alliance's refusal to meet with Interior Minister Garcia had been "a big mistake", and that in fact his own party had engaged in unpublicized discussions with GOC officials and Junta aides over the political parties law. In particular, he cited Gen. Montero of Matthei's staff, whom he described as "a friend" with whom ideas had been shared. The Ambassador asked if the AD leadership would be willing to talk with Junta members about their perspectives on the law during the period when it was being reviewed by the Junta in the next month or so. The Ambassador said he thought there might be some value in the public seeing that the Junta and the democratic opposition could talk. After some hemming and hawing, Abeliuk said they most certainly would -- provided they could find out through informal channels that the Junta members would definitely receive them. Comment: It was useful to confirm that the Social Democrats have already engaged in dialogue with aides to Junta members over the political laws. Abeliuk is a can-do person, and a major improvement over his predecessor, the pompous and ineffectual Jaramillo. Thus there will be positive change in the leadership of the Alliance during the first half of 1987.

-- The National Campaign for Free Elections: Abeliuk said that getting the campaign in motion was a major priority, but there were details to be worked out. (At this point Jaramillo interjected that the movement would of necessity fail, because Pinochet would not budge.) Although it would be supported by all the democratic organizations such as AD and the Group of 13, it would need to be identified with a group of stellar public personalities, not with a particular political grouping. He said it was important to broaden the normal opposition spectrum to include conservatives, and said in his view Sergio Jarpa would be acceptable although not necessarily his National Labor Front. As for choosing someone to lead the movement, Abeliuk demurred, saying a lot would be decided by the outcome of the PDC Congress and the PN Directorate meeting, both scheduled to take place on the weekend of December 13.

-- The UNGA Vote: Abeliuk and Cerda commented that the negative U.S. vote very much concerned them, especially in view of how the GOC was using it as a propaganda victory and the confused impression it gave of U.S. policy. (Cerda added that he understood from conversations with Ambassador Shifter in Washington the difficulties posed by the Mexican resolution, but had himself expected that the U.S. would abstain not oppose). Abeliuk added that some of the damage could be repaired if the U.S. issued a statement - for example in response to the extension of the state of siege - to emphasize that our attitude toward the human rights situation in Chile had not changed. The Ambassador discussed the elements which led to the no vote, and stressed that our bilateral policy remained constant.

DECLASSIFIED

-- Economic Consensus: The Ambassador, in the context of contacts between the government and the opposition, asked the group whether they thought there was any chance of some consensus being reached on the outlines of economic policy, which might lend some stability to the transition. He said he had the impression that there were already some factors of common interest, but he had not seen so far, at least, any real effort to identify them and build on them. He then added that there might well be an interest on the part of some U.S. foundations in supporting efforts to give shape to the economic framework of a future democratic society. The three also indicated that the idea would be worth perusing.

-- Financial State of the Opposition: Before leaving the three said it was important to keep in mind that the Democratic Alliance did not even have an office from which to function or a letterhead it could call its own. Most leaders of the democratic opposition were unable to attend the rally which was held on December 5 in Punta Arenas, they said, because they could not afford the $250 round trip plane fare. They stressed they were not asking for help, but did want us to be aware of their problem.

On December 15, Abeliuk and Cerda (without Jaramillo) called on DCM George Jones. In requesting the appointment, they asked that no one else be present. After brief discussion of the PN and PDC meetings - in both of which, they said, the moderate line, favoring free elections and negotiations with the Junta, had triumphed - they raised again the need of the Alliance for financial support. DCM said the only U.S. Government institution that came close to that area was the National Endowment and the two party institutes affiliated with it. NED, however, had made it clear it did not wish to fund activities in Chile directly related to political parties; for example, it had been reluctant to aid the Fundación Frei because it is to closely tied to the PDC. The Europeans, particularly the Germans, of course had long histories of support for Latin American parties. We had regular consultations with the EC and could raise the Alliance's interst with them. Abeliuk asked how soon we might be able to give them an answer. DCM said not before end of January.

Comment: In this conversation, the request for U.S. money was clear. The fact that they did not argue with DCM's statement that U.S. was unable to provide such assistance clearly indicates they did not believe him.

-- Cerda and General Sinclair: Also in the meeting with the DCM, Cerda said that during his recent visit to Washington Kim Flower, the director of Southern Cone Affairs, had taken him aside for a private word and urged him to seek contact with General Sinclair, the vice-commander-in-chief of the Chilean Army. Cerda wanted the Embassy to be aware of this request and of his efforts to comply with it. He had tried calling Sinclair's secretary asking for an appointment and also trying to set up a meeting through a relative of Sinclair's - so far without success. DCM urged him to continue trying, suggesting that perhaps some mutual friend might invite both of them, with each other's knowledge, for drinks or dinner. The Embassy also had problems of access to senior army officers, as Cerda was aware.

Dr. William Bronston
Coordinator
Sacramento Leadership Committee on Chile

Dear Dr. Bronston:

Your letter of November 3 to the President has been referred to us for response by the White House. In your correspondence, as in your prior letter of July 1 to the President, you expressed concern over the present situation in Chile.

With regard to Chile, as we wrote you on August 6, United States policy is to encourage a peaceful democratic transition and increased respect for human rights. As the President stated in an October 8, 1986 interview in the Mexican journal Vejа, "The present policy of the US government (toward Chile) has been to encourage a peaceful transition toward democracy and greater respect for human rights. The United States works vigorously in the defense of that policy, supporting dialogue between the government and democratic opposition forces."

In your letter you also expressed concern over the World Bank Structural Adjustment Loan approved on November 20. (The amount of the loan is $250 million -- not $600 million.) The US abstained on that loan, taking into account our legislative criteria, economic concern for the Chilean people and our concern for the human rights situation in Chile. A copy of the statement by the US Executive Director at the World Bank, explaining our vote, is attached.

With regard to Chilean table grapes, the United States government has no desire to restrict Chilean imports as a sanction. As far as we are aware, the Chileans do not subsidize their grape industry.

Australia does, however, assist its vine-fruit industry. Whether Australian table grapes receive assistance, whether any such assistance would be considered countervailable under US anti-subsidy law, and whether the US table grape industry would seek to invoke US anti-subsidy law if assistance were being received, we are not in a position to know. The fundamental point, however, is that these and other laws that govern trade apply fairly and impartially to all countries which are GATT members, because it is in the US interest that we receive the same type of fair and impartial treatment when we are seeking to export. This principle of non-discrimination has been an integral part of GATT since its founding, and it is directly relevant to your concern with quarantine requirements.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Contrary to the supposition in your letter, Australia exports to the US large quantities of a wide variety of food products. The largest of these in value terms are meat, lobsters, and sugar, but Australian fresh fruit exports consist of citrus, apples, edible nuts, and pears, as well as dried apricots and peaches.

Protecting US agriculture against plant and livestock pests is a serious responsibility, for the potential losses to US agriculture from introduced pests run into many millions of dollars. As the recent episode with the Mediterranean fruit fly demonstrated, this is of particular concern to California agriculture, because of California's mild climate and extensive fruit and vegetable farming. Plant quarantine decisions are made exclusively on technical grounds. Trade policy considerations are germane only in that quarantine restrictions may not be used as a subterfuge for trade restrictions; this, too, is a fundamental GATT principle.

We share your hope that the concerns over harmful insects associated with Australian table grapes can be satisfactorily resolved, so that Australian table grapes can be imported into the United States without harm to U.S. agriculture.

I hope the foregoing has been of value to you.

Sincerely,

Ludlow Flower, III
Director,
Office of Southern Cone Affairs

SUBJ: CHILEAN FONMIN ATTACKS UN VOTE ON CHILE, SUGGESTS CHILE WILL CHANGE CURRENT POLICY OF FULL COOPERATION

1. (C) SUMMARY: FOREIGN MINISTER DEL VALLE ADDRESSED THE NATION ON THE EVENING OF DEC 9 IN ORDER TO SET THE RECORD STRAIGHT ON THE RECENT UN HUMAN RIGHTS VOTE. HE ATTACKED THE POLITICALIZATION OF THE UN, EMPHASIZING THE NON-DEMOCRATIC NATURE OF SOME OF THE MOST VEHEMENT OPPONENTS OF CHILE. HE CRITICIZED THE RESOLUTION FOR NOT FOLLOWING THE MORE BALANCED APPROACH OF SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR VOLIO. RECENT ATTACKS AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT HAD FORCED THE IMPOSITION OF A STATE OF SIEGE AND HAD PREVENTED THE GOC FROM TAKING STEPS TO END THE EXILE PROBLEM. RESOLUTION HAD EARNED CHILE'S GRATITUDE FOR THEIR "OBJECTIVITY." BECAUSE OF THE UNFAIR NATURE OF THE RESOLUTION, THE GOC WOULD HAVE TO RECONSIDER ITS CURRENT POLICY OF "FULL COOPERATION" WITH THE UN. HOWEVER, DEL VALLE STOPPED SHORT OF STATING THAT THE GOC WOULD NO LONGER COOPERATE WITH VOLIO. IN ALL LIKELIHOOD, THE GOC IS PRESENTING THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR AS A COUNTERWEIGHT TO THE INTENTIONS OF THE "ENEMIES" OF CHILE. END SUMMARY.

3. (U) POLITICALIZATION OF THE UN

THE ENTIRE UN SYSTEM HAD BECOME POLITICIZED, WITH THE SAME COUNTRIES VOTING AGAINST CHILE YEAR AFTER YEAR FOR THE PURPOSE OF ISOLATING AND DESTABILIZING THE GOC RATHER THAN PROMOTING ANY HUMAN RIGHTS PRINCIPLES. SOME OF THE MOST VEHEMENT OF THESE OPPONENTS OF THE CURRENT GOVERNMENT WERE TOTALITARIAN STATES OR "IMITATIONS" OF DEMOCRACY. THE CUBAN CONFIDENTIAL

DELEGATION'S CALL FOR A LIFTING OF THE STATE OF SIEGE AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A PLURALISTIC DEMOCRACY WAS A "MOCKERY". SINCE 1974, THERE HAS BEEN AN ANNUAL REPORT CONDEMNING CHILE, BUT NOTHING ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN THE SOVIET UNION OR POLAND OR MEXICO, WITH ITS "ONE-PARTY, NON-DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT."

4. (U) THE VOLIO REPORT

THE REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR, FERNANDO VOLIO, HAD CONTAINED INACCURACIES WHICH THE GOC HAD REFUTED POINT BY POINT. THE FINAL REPORT MADE NOTE OF CERTAIN SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES IN CHILE, SUCH AS THE THREAT OF TERRORISM AND THE ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT PINOCHET. HOWEVER, THE CURRENT UN RESOLUTION ON CHILE BEARS NO RESEMBLANCE WHATSOEVER TO THE VOLIO REPORT AND THUS BRINGS INTO QUESTION THE WHOLE RATIONALE BEHIND THAT REPORT.

5. (U) CURRENT SITUATION IN CHILE - EXILES

THE GOC IS MAKING SATISFACTORY PROGRESS IN MEETING ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE 1980 CONSTITUTION FOR THE RESTORATION OF DEMOCRACY. WHILE MAINTAINING PUBLIC ORDER, THE GOC HAS WORKED TO PROTECT HUMAN RIGHTS AND TO ASSURE THE WELL BEING OF ALL CHILEANS. THIS HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED IN SPITE OF TERRORIST ATTEMPTS TO MURDER THE PRESIDENT AND THE MASSIVE SHIPMENT OF ARMS TO DESTABILIZE THE REGIME. THE STATE OF SIEGE WAS NECESSITATED BY THE THREAT TO THE NATION BUT IT HAS BEEN ADMINISTERED JUSTLY AND PRUDENTLY, AND IS NOW BEING LIFTED BY STAGES. HOWEVER, RECENT EVENTS HAD INTERFERED WITH THE GOVERNMENT'S PLANS TO SETTLE THE EXILE QUESTION SINCE A NUMBER OF THOSE INVOLVED IN RECENT TERRORIST ACTS WERE FORMER EXILES THAT THE GOC HAD GRANTED PERMISSION TO RETURN. THE WHOLE QUESTION NOW HAD TO BE RESTUDIED BUT THE GOVERNMENT WAS KEEPING A POSITIVE ATTITUDE.

6. (U) CHILE'S FRIENDS IN THE UN

FORTUNATELY, NOT ALL OF THE COUNTRIES IN THE UN HAD ALLOWED THEMSELVES TO BE COERCED INTO THIS "POLITICAL AGGRESSION" AGAINST CHILE. THESE COUNTRIES HAD VOTED WITH CHILE OR HAD ABSTAINED OR ABSENTED THEMSELVES; "TO THEM GO OUR SENTIMENTS OF GRATITUDE AND FRIENDSHIP."

7. (U) CONCLUSION

IN LIGHT OF THE POLITICALIZATION OF THE UN AND THE DISCARDING OF THE VOLIO REPORT, THE GOC WOULD HAVE TO RETHINK ITS CURRENT POLICY OF COOPERATION WITH THE UN "ON THIS MATTER AND UNDER THE PREVIOUS CONDITIONS."

8. (U) NOTE: IN THE "EL MERCURIO" ARTICLE ON DEL VALLE'S SPEECH, IT WAS NOTED THAT THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE HAD CHARACTERIZED THE HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION AS NEITHER BALANCED NOR CONSTRUCTIVE.

THE GOC ALSO HAS THE CARROT OF ANOTHER VISIT TO CHILE, WHICH IT KNOWS VOLIO WANTS BUT WHICH IT HAS SO FAR DECLINED TO AUTHORIZE.

10. (C) MORE DIFFICULT TO EXPLAIN IS THE UNUSUAL STEP OF A TELEVISED ADDRESS TO THE NATION BY THE FOREIGN MINISTER. ALTHOUGH THE U.S. HAS BEEN EXPLICITLY CRITICIZED IN OTHER RECENT GOC SPEECHES, THIS ONE DID NOT EXPLICITLY PRAISE US - THERE WAS ONLY THE BRIEF GENERAL THANKS TO UNNAMED SUPPORTERS. THE SPEECH DID NOT TRUMPET VICTORY. IT ATTEMPTED TO EXPLAIN AND JUSTIFY DEFEAT. THE GOC APPEARS TO FEEL PARTICULARLY DEFENSIVE BEFORE ITS OWN

DOMESTIC AUDIENCE ABOUT ITS HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD, AND PARTICULARLY IN NEED OF EXPLAINING WHY MOST OF THE WORLD CRITICIZES IT. BARNES

THE GOC HAS SAID VERY LITTLE ABOUT OUR ROLE IN THE MATTER. ANTICIPATED, WITHOUT THE USUAL CANVASSING OF OPINIONS FROM VARIOUS POLITICAL LEADERS. IN GENERAL, THE RIGHT IS PLEASED WITH OUR VOTE, THE CENTER AND LEFT CONFUSED AND DISAPPOINTED. SO FAR THERE HAS BEEN LITTLE IN THE WAY OF GOC GLOATING, ALMOST AS IF THEY FEAR THAT WE CAN STILL CHANGE OUR MIND. SELECTED REACTIONS AS EXPRESSED TO EMBASSY EMPLOYEES FOLLOW.

4. ANDRES ALLAMAND - PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL UNION PARTY (CENTER RIGHT)
ALLAMAND WAS PLEASED WITH OUR VOTE, STATING THAT IT WAS POSITIVE THAT WE REFUSED TO GET INVOLVED IN THE KIND OF RESOLUTION THE MEXICANS AND OTHERS TRADITIONALLY SPONSOR. HE CONTRASTED THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION TO OUR RESOLUTION IN GENEVA, WHICH HE CHARACTERIZED AS BALANCED IN REFERRING TO THE TERRORIST THREAT AND FAIR IN RECOGNING THE LEGITIMACY OF THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT. HOWEVER, HE FELT THAT THE DEPARTMENT STATEMENT EXPLAINING OUR VOTE WAS WEAK BECAUSE IT DID NOT MAKE CLEAR WHY WE OPPOSED THIS RESOLUTION AFTER SPONSORING THE GENEVA RESOLUTION.

5. GERMAN RIESCO - LEADER OF THE NATIONAL PARTY (CENTER-RIGHT) AND FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY-
RIESCO IS A LEADER OF THOSE IN THE NATIONAL PARTY WORKING FOR GREATER COOPERATION WITHIN THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION LEADING TO A TRANSITION. HE TOLD US THAT PART OF HIS SPIEL TO BUSINESSMEN AND FARMERS IS THAT THEY SHOULD SUPPORT A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION IF ONLY TO MAINTAIN U.S. COOPERATION WITH

6. CARLOS DUPRE, SERGIO PAEZ, AND JOSE MORANES - LEADERS OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY, ALLIED WITH HAMILTON-ZALDIVAR (CENTER-RIGHT) WING - THEY FIND THE DEPARTMENT EXPLANATION TO BE WEAK

AND NOT CREDIBLE. IN LIGHT OF RECENT EVENTS IN CHILE--THEY TICKED OFF THE ROJAS CASE, THE 4 MURDERS IN EARLY SEPTEMBER, AND THE STATE OF SIEGE--THEY FEEL THAT WE HAD AMPLE REASON TO VOTE DIFFERENTLY THAN WE DID. IN THIS CONTEXT, THEY FEEL OUR VOTE HAS ENCOURAGED THE GOC TO RENEW THE STATE OF SIEGE. THEY ARE UNABLE TO RECONCILE OUR EXTENSIVE LOBBYING ON BEHALF OF THE VOLIO REPORT, IN PARTICULAR OUR EFFORTS TO GAIN THE ACCEPTANCE OF THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION FOR A BALANCED AND NON-CONDEMNATORY REPORT, AND OUR VOTE IN THE UNGA, WHICH THEY SEE AS A VOTE AGAINST THE WORK OF VOLIO.

DUPRE, MORANES, AND PAEZ SPECULATED THAT THE UNGA AND SAL VOTES REFLECTED A POLICY STRUGGLE WITHIN THE U.S. ADMINISTRATION WHICH HAD BEEN RESOLVED IN FAVOR OF THOSE WHO VIEW PINOCHET AS THE BEST, OR LEAST OBJECTIONABLE, OF THE POSSIBLE ALTERNATIVES. THEY FEEL THAT THIS VIEW IS SHARED BY THE CHILEAN BUSINESS COMMUNITY - IT WAS REPEATED TO POLCOUNSELOR BY LIBERAL PARTY PRESIDENT FEDERICO ERRAZURIZ. THE BIG WINNER OF THIS POWER STRUGGLE, THEY OPINED, WAS AMBASSADOR WALTERS, WHOM THEY CHARACTERIZED AS A GREAT FRIEND OF PINOCHET. IN THEIR VERSION OF EVENTS, AMBASSADOR WALTERS HAD SOUGHT TO AID HIS FLOUNDERING FRIEND BY THROWING HIM A LIFE PRESERVER AT THIS CRITICAL MOMENT. DECISIVE FACTORS IN THE TURNAROUND OF U.S. POLICY, THEY SPECULATED, ARE THE PERCEIVED SIZE OF THE COMMUNIST THREAT TO CHILE AND THE FRACTIOUSNESS OF THE OPPOSITION. DUPRE AND PAEZ ARE ALSO CONCERNED THAT THE UNGA VOTE MAY HAVE WEAKENED THE POSITIONS OF JUNTA MEMBERS STANGE, MATTHEI, AND MERINO.

GOOD TERMS WITH THE U.S. DUE TO HIS STILL-ACTIVE PRESIDENTIAL AMBITIONS.

7. RENE ABELIUK - PRESIDENT OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY AND CURRENT PRESIDENT OF THE DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE - ABELIUK SAID THAT THE DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE WAS CONCERNED THAT THE U.S. HAD DECIDED TO VOTE AGAINST THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION RATHER THAN ABSTAIN, SINCE ACCORDING TO THEIR STATISTICS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS SHOWED A 15 PERCENT INCREASE DURING THE PAST YEAR. HOWEVER, ABELIUK FELT THAT THE U.S. COULD MITIGATE ANY DAMAGE IF WE WERE TO RELEASE A STATEMENT DEMONSTRATING OUR CONTINUING CONCERNS FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. HE SUGGESTED A STRONG DENUNCIATION OF THE GOC DECISION TO EXTEND THE STATE OF SIEGE.

8. CARLOS PORTALES AND AUGUSTO VARAS - LEADERS WITHIN THE NUNEZ SOCIALIST BLOC -
FOR THEM, THE UNGA VOTE AND THE SAL VOTE ARE PART OF A PACKAGE MARKING A CHANGE IN U.S. POLICY, WHICH THEY VIEW AS INCONSISTENT IN ANY CASE. THE GOC, THEY FEEL, CAN BREATH A SIGH OF RELIEF NOW THAT IT REALIZES THAT THE U.S. WILL NOT PURSUE AN ANTI-REGIME POLICY AND DRIVE PINOCHET TO THE WALL. THE TWO VOTES, THEY BELIEVE, HAVE SEVERELY WEAKENED THE ROLE OF THE U.S. AMBASSADOR BY EFFECTIVELY "REMOVING" HIM AS A MAJOR PLAYER ON THE CHILEAN SCENE.

9. CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION -
THEIR RESPONSE HAS BEEN MINIMAL AND LOW-KEY. COMMISSION PRESIDENT JAIME CASTILLO WAS QUOTED IN THE PRESS AS SAYING THAT HE REGRETTED THE U.S. VOTE SINCE IT WAS IN CONTRAST TO OUR EARLIER ACTIONS IN GENEVA. WE SURMISE THAT THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMUNITY IS DISAPPOINTED, ANGRY, BUT ALSO CONFUSED AND DISORIENTED BY OUR VOTE. OUR ACTIONS IN NEW YORK RAN COUNTER TO WHAT THEY EXPECTED (THOUGH CONSISTENT WITH WHAT WE HAD BEEN TELLING THEM SINCE GENEVA). AS POST PREDICTED LAST MARCH, OUR SUCCESS IN INTRODUCING A RESOLUTION AT THE GENEVA MEETING HAS GIVEN US LEVERAGE OVER THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMUNITY THAT WE PREVIOUSLY LACKED. INSTEAD OF ATTACKING US FOR OUR VOTE AGAINST THE UNGA RESOLUTION, AS THEY DID LAST YEAR, THEY ARE NOW EERILY MUTE, KNOWING THAT THE BATTLE IS STILL ON AND THAT THEY NEED US IN GENEVA. BARNES

Estimado Sr. Brugere:

Le agradezco su carta del 12 de noviembre en la cual hace mención a su preocupación por la política de los Estados Unidos de América hacia Chile en los bancos multilaterales de desarrollo.

Lamento mucho que no me fué posible recibir su carta y escuchar sus preocupaciones personalmente debido a que fuí llamado a Washington el día anterior. El Ministro Consejero de esta Embajada, señor George Jones, me ha informado respecto a la amena conversación que sostuvo con ustedes.

Como usted sabe, el 20 de noviembre los Estados Unidos conjuntamente con varios otros paises se abstuvieron en la votación del Banco Mundial para un Crédito de Ajuste Estructural (SAL) de US$ 250 millones. Las abstenciones no tuvieron efecto alguno sobre el resultado de la votación. Como es de su conocimiento, el SAL fué aprobado.

En su carta, usted destaca que el SAL es de gran importancia para el desarrollo del país. Mi gobierno reconoce el buen manejo económico en Chile como tambien todos los sacrificios que el pueblo chileno ha efectuado en pos de la implementación de duras pero necesarias reformas económicas. Sin embargo, a pesar de nuestro reconocimiento de los méritos económicos del préstamo, hemos tenido que observar los requisitos de la ley de los Estados Unidos que instruye a la Administración a oponerse a préstamos dirigidos a países que poseen una trayectoria de abusos de derechos humanos. Los problemas de los derechos humanos en Chile son materia de gran preocupación para mi gobierno. Un mejoramiento de los derechos humanos en Chile nos permitiría votar a favor en préstamos futuros. Asimismo, permitiría mayores beneficios de largo plazo del SAL u otros préstamos de este tipo.

Aprecio el tiempo que ha tomado usted y su gremio para comunicarnos sus inquietudes sobre este tema. Yo creo que el diálogo continuado entre individuos con inclinaciones democráticas es necesario para reducir la polarización en la sociedad chilena y para la transición pacífica hacia la democracia.

También espero que usted se mantendrá en contacto con la Embajada. Para estos efectos, le he pedido a mi Consejero Económico, Sr. Wendell Belew, que se reuna con usted en un futuro próximo.

Atentamente,

OUT

1986 DEC 29 PM 3:33

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We are deeply troubled by the Administration's weakening support for positive changes in Chile.

The Administration claims that "continuing human rights problems in Chile are matters for great concern." Yet the statements and actions of this Administration over the last year confuse any attempt to understand our policy towards the government of Chile.

In July of this year Assistant Secretary of State Elliott Abrams testified that unless the human rights situation in Chile improved he would recommend a "no" vote on World Bank loans to that country. His testimony emphasized progress in preparing for elections, the end of government sponsored torture and freedom of the press as the key points which would indicate noteworthy progress in Chile.

Since that time the situation has, indeed, deteriorated. Following the attempt on the life of President Pinochet, Amnesty International has reported that, "the threat of arrest, abduction, torture and even death is ever-present for thousands of Chileans, from church workers, human rights activists and the urban poor to members of opposition organizations."

Congress has made its views on this issue very clear. The Continuing Appropriations Resolution passed in October contained a provision "opposing all loans through multilateral development institutions" to Chile until its government made "significant progress in the area of human rights and toward establishment of a democratic government." Two letters addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury, one from the House Subcommittee on International Development Institutions and Finance and another signed by 32 members of Congress, called for a "no" vote on these loans. A third letter, signed by 54 members of Congress and sent to both the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of State, also advised a "no" vote.

UNCLASSIFIED

But the Administration's position has been increasingly ambivalent. In November, the Administration abstained on a vote concerning a World Bank loan to Chile, citing a lack of international support for a "no" vote. One week later the United States joined four other countries, Indonesia, Lebanon, Paraguay and Chile, in voting against a United Nations resolution condemning Chile's human rights record. State Department spokesman Charles Redman explained that the Administration's "most severe" reservation with the resolution was that it "did not make reference adequately to the disturbing environment of political violence and terrorism in Chile."

These actions have been greeted with confusion and disappointment by those struggling for human rights in Chile. One week we are unwilling to stand alone to voice our strong opposition to human rights abuses. The next week we find ourselves in the company of four countries, all with questionable human rights records, opposing a resolution endorsed by the vast majority of United Nations delegates, including our European allies.

The inconsistency in Administration statements and actions jeopardizes the public trust in those who direct our foreign policy. The unwillingness to take courageous steps in support of human rights jeopardizes our status as a defender of freedom. The question arises: who are we really defending with this policy, those who want freedom or those who oppose change?

We therefore respectfully request you to make clear your priorities in recommending United States positions on matters concerning the government of Chile.

2. UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE TO THE UN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS (CHR), AMBASSADOR E. ROBERT WALLACH, MET CHILEAN UN PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE PEDRO DAZA ON DECEMBER 12 TO DISCUSS FORTHCOMING CHR SESSION. CHILEAN MISSION COUNSELOR PATRICIO DAM AND U.S. MISOFF W.L. AMSELEM ALSO PARTICIPATED.

3. DAZA CLAIMED THAT THE UNITED STATES "NO" VOTE ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION ON CHILE ADOPTED BY THE UNGA WAS A POSITIVE DEVELOPMENT. DAZA TOLD WALLACH THAT THERE WAS A PORTION OF THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT WHICH WAS STRONGLY OPPOSED TO FURTHER COLLABORATION WITH THE UNHRC'S REPRESENTATIVE. AS HE HAS TOLD U.S. OFFICIALS BEFORE, DAZA SAID THE U.S. VOTE STRENGTHENED THE HAND OF MODERATES WHO WANTED THE GOC TO CONTINUE ITS COOPERATION.

3. DAZA SAID THAT U.S. SPONSORSHIP OF A RESOLUTION AT

THE LAST SESSION OF THE CHR HAD STRENGTHENED THE HAND OF THE EXTREME LEFT AT THE EXPENSE OF THE MODERATE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION. DAZA FELT THAT THE ATTEMPTED MURDER OF PRESIDENT PINOCHET LAST SEPTEMBER HAD INTRODUCED A "TOUCH OF REALISM" INTO CHILE'S INTERNAL POLITICAL DEBATE; CERTAIN ELEMENTS OF THE OPPOSITION HAD REVEALED THEIR TRUE CHARACTER.

4. WALLACH REMINDED DAZA THAT THE U.S. HAD OPPOSED THE TEXT OF THE RESOLUTION BECAUSE IT WAS UNBALANCED. THE U.S. POSITION AT THE CHR WOULD CONTINUE TO BE TO SUPPORT A BALANCED RESOLUTION AND TO OPPOSE AN UNBALANCED ONE. WALLACH, IN RESPONSE TO DAZA'S QUESTION, SAID THE U.S. HAD AS YET NO POSITION ON WHETHER IT WOULD INTRODUCE A RESOLUTION AT THE CHR: DEVELOPMENTS IN CHILE BETWEEN NOW AND AT THE SESSION IN GENEVA WOULD SHAPE U.S. POLICY TOWARD CHILE AT THE CHR.

SUBJ: SANDINISTA MEDIA ALLEGE SAM HALL HAS "TERRORIST"
- BACKGROUND, PROMISE CONSULAR ACCESS

REF: MANAGUA 8070

1. (U) UNDER THE HEADLINE "HALL IS A TERRORIST," OFFICIAL FSLN ORGAN BARRICADA REPORTED DECEMBER 16 THAT ALLEGED AMERICAN "SPY" SAM NESLEY HALL HAD PARTICIPATED IN A PLOT TO ASSASSINATE U.S. AMBASSADOR TO COSTA RICA, LEWIS TAMBS, IN ORDER TO PLACE THE BLAME FOR THE ASSASSINATION ON THE NICARAGUAN GOVERNMENT. THE ARTICLE, DATELINED NEW YORK, IDENTIFIED CUBAN JESUS GARCIA, NOW IN A FLORIDA PRISON FOR ILLEGAL ARMS TRAFFICKING, AS THE SOURCE OF THE BIZARRE REVELATION. ACCORDING TO GARCIA, HE, HALL AND FDN CHIEF ADOLFO CALERO HAD MET IN A MIAMI HOTEL IN JANUARY 1985 TO PLAN THE MURDER. GARCIA REPORTEDLY CLAIMED THAT EACH OF THE PARTICIPANTS WAS TO HAVE RECEIVED ONE MILLION USDOLLARS FROM COLOMBIAN DRUG TRAFFICKERS "FURIOUS" WITH TAMBS' ANTI-DRUG ACTIVITIES WHILE U.S. AMBASSADOR TO COLOMBIA.

2. (U) BARRICADA ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT A FOURTH PERSON INVOLVED IN THE ALLEGED ASSASSINATION PLOT, "MERCENARY" STEVEN CARR, WAS RECENTLY FOUND DEAD IN A LOS ANGELES SUBURB "36 HOURS AFTER RELATING HIS INVOLVEMENT WITH THE CONTRA TO THE FBI." APPARENTLY, DEDUCED BARRICADA, AFTER FAILING TO CARRY OUT THE ASSASSINATION PLAN, HALL AND CARR CONTINUED WORKING WITH THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE. CARR HAD SPENT NEARLY A YEAR IN JAIL IN

COSTA RICA, STATED BARRICADA, AND ONLY RECENTLY HAD RETURNED TO THE UNITED STATES. BEFORE CARR DIED, HE HAD BEEN "TRYING TO CONTACT" THE SENATOR IN CHARGE OF INVESTIGATING THE IRAN ARMS SALE/CONTRA AID AFFAIR, AVERRED BARRICADA. THE ARTICLE REFERRED TO A "RADIO WBAI" BROADCAST WHICH DESCRIBED CARR'S DEATH, APPARENTLY DUE TO A DRUG OVERDOSE, AS HAVING OCCURRED UNDER "VERY SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES."

3. (U) GON-SUPPORTED EL NUEVO DIARIO (END), FOR ITS PART, REPORTED IN ITS DECEMBER 16 EDITION FURTHER BIOGRAPHICAL DATA ON HALL. ACCORDING TO END, HALL WAS AN ANTI-TERRORISM EXPERT AND MERCENARY WHO HAD PREVIOUSLY WORKED IN ANGOLA AND ZIMBABWE (REFTEL). HALL REPORTEDLY HAD BEEN A "STAR ATHLETE" AT THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON AND IN THE U.S. AIR FORCE, FROM WHICH HE RESIGNED IN 1961. HE ALSO HAD SERVED AS A "REPRESENTATIVE FOR HIS STATE IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES" (SIC) IN 1964 AND 1965, AND IS THE SON OF A FORMER DAYTON, OHIO MAYOR, ACCORDING TO END.

4. (U) WITH RESPECT TO THE EMBASSY'S REQUEST FOR CONSULAR ACCESS TO HALL, SANDINISTA EVENING NEWS ON DECEMBER 15 SAID THE GON WOULD PERMIT ACCESS UNDER THE GENEVA (SIC) CONVENTION AT THE "APPROPRIATE TIME." END REPEATED THE ANNOUNCEMENT, BUT CITED THE VIENNA CONVENTION.

5. (U) COMMENT: AS OF 1700 LOCAL, DECEMBER 16, THE FOREIGN MINISTRY HAD NOT RESPONDED TO OUR REQUEST FOR CONSULAR ACCESS.

6. (C) DESPITE BARRICADA'S RHETORIC ABOUT AN ASSASSINATION PLOT, WE NOTE AN ONGOING ATTEMPT BY THE GOVERNMENT CONTROLLED MEDIA TO PORTRAY HALL DIFFERENTLY THAN HASENFUS. IN THE HASENFUS CASE, THE DETAINEE WAS PORTRAYED AS AN UNPROFESSIONAL, UNEMPLOYED AND POLITICALLY UNINVOLVED VICTIM OF THE "NORTH AMERICAN ADMINISTRATION'S IMMORAL EFFORTS" TO OUST THE SANDINISTA GOVERNMENT. SINCE THE BEGINNING OF THE HALL CASE, HOWEVER, THE MEDIA APPEAR TO BE CONCENTRATING ON THE PRINCIPAL, CASTING HIM AS AN ANTI-TERRORIST EXPERT AND MERCENARY WITH SUBSTANTIAL EXPERIENCE AND TRAINING.

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR

SUBJECT: SENATOR DODD'S DECEMBER 15 MEETING WITH - PRESIDENT AZCONA AND CINC REGALADO

1. SECRET - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. SENATOR CHRISTOPHER DODD AND THREE ASSISTANTS, TOGETHER WITH THE AMBASSADOR AND DATT, MET DECEMBER 15 WITH PRESIDENT AZCONA, THE ACTING FONMIN, HONDURAN CINC, AND STAFFS. THE DISCUSSION CENTERED ON NICARAGUA. AFTER FORCEFULLY BLAMING THE SANDINISTAS FOR HONDURAS'PROBLEMS (INCLUDING THE RECENT BORDER ATTACK), AND THEN IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS FROM THE SENATOR, AZCONA SAID: THE CONTRAS ARE THE EFFECT, NOT THE CAUSE OF WHAT'S WRONG WITH NICARAGUA (MARXIST, TOTALITARIAN GOVERNMENT); HONDURAS WILL HAVE NO REAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OR NEW INVESTMENT, WITH THE SANDINISTAS NEXT DOOR; BILATERALISM IS NO SOLUTION BECAUSE THE ISSUE IS NOT BETWEEN STATES, BUT INTERNAL TO NICARAGUA; IN LIGHT OF THE SANDINISTAS' BETRAYAL OF THEIR PLEDGES TO THE OAS IN 1979, ANY NEW PACTS WITH THE SANDINISTAS WOULD BE WORTHLESS. AZCONA SAID THERE ARE ONLY TWO ROADS: FORCE A CHANGE IN NICARAGUA, OR BUILD A WALL AROUND HONDURAS

AND REGALADO POINTED OUT THE LATTER WAS UNREALISTIC. AZCONA PRESCRIBED A UNIFIED, INTER-AMERICAN CAMPAIGN TO FORCE NICARAGUA TO HONOR THEIR 1979 PLEDGES, COMMENTING THAT CONTADORA SHOULD HAVE DONE SO FROM THE START, INSTEAD OF PROTECTING THE SANDINISTAS. HE AND REGALADO COMPARED NICARAGUA AND HONDURAS TO NORTH AND SOUTH KOREA, SAYING THE U.S. HAD NO CHOICE BUT TO DEFEND HONDURAS. REGALADO DREW A DISTINCTION BETWEEN GUATEMALAN CINC GRAMAJO AND CEREZO, SAYING THE FORMER, LIKE THE REST OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN MILITARY, UNDERSTANDS THE REALITY OF THE CUBAN-NICARAGUAN COMMUNIST THREAT. END SUMMARY.

3. SENATOR DODD, ACCOMPANIED BY BOB DOCKERY OF HIS STAFF, JANICE O'CONNELL OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, AND MR. EDWARD KING, RECENTLY APPOINTED MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION ON CENTRAL AMERICA, TOGETHER WITH THE AMBASSADOR AND DATT JONES, MET WITH HONDURAN PRESIDENT AZCONA, ACTING FONMIN CACERES, SENIOR FONOFF ADVISER CALLEJAS, CINC B/G REGALADO AND FIVE OF HIS TOP MILITARY STAFF FOR 45 MINUTES AT THE PALACE ON DECEMBER 15.

4. AZCONA OPENED BY REVIEWING THE RECENT BORDER INCIDENTS BETWEEN NICARAGUA AND HONDURAS. HE SAID HONDURAS WAS STUNG BY BEING PORTRAYED ABROAD AS A CREATURE OF THE UNITED STATES, WHEN IN FACT THE PROBLEM WAS THAT HONDURAS FOUND ITSELF NEXT DOOR TO AN EXPANSIONIST TOTALITARIAN REGIME.

5. SENATOR DODD (IN FLUENT SPANISH) EXPLAINED THAT HE WAS ABOUT TO BECOME THE CHAIRMAN OF THE WESTERN

~~SECRET~~

HEMISPHERE SUBCOMMITTEE OF THE SFRC, AND AS SUCH HE HAD WANTED TO OBTAIN FIRST HAND CURRENT IMPRESSIONS OF CENTRAL AMERICA. THE CENTAM ISSUE WOULD BE A MAJOR AGENDA ITEM IN CONGRESS OVER THE NEXT TWO YEARS. HE HAD ALREADY CALLED ON PRESIDENTS CEREZO, DUARTE AND ARIAS AND WOULD BE TRAVELING ON TO MANAGUA LATER IN THE DAY. THIS WAS HIS FIRST VISIT TO HONDURAS, AND HE HAD ALSO COME TO LEARN MORE ABOUT OUR BILATERAL RELATIONS. EVERYONE HAD TOLD HIM OF THEIR NEEDS, BUT THE USG ALSO HAD SERIOUS ECONOMIC PROBLEMS; AND PRESIDENT REAGAN HAD

JUST ANNOUNCED A CUT OF $60 BILLION IN OLD AGE SUPPORT. IN THAT CONTEXT, IT MIGHT PROVE DIFFICULT TO CONTINUE HIGH LEVELS OF FOREIGN AID. OVER THE NEXT TWO YEARS, THE CONGRESS, WITH THE DEMOCRATS NOW IN CONTROL, WOULD HAVE A LOT TO SAY ABOUT HOW MONEY WOULD BE SPENT. HE SAID HE WAS PARTICULARLY INTERESTED IN THE NICARAGUAN QUESTION, THE CONTRAS, AND POSSIBLE ALTERNATIVE POLITICAL AND DIPLOMATIC SOLUTIONS.

6. AZCONA SAID A LOT OF PEOPLE WERE BLAMING HONDURAS' PROBLEMS ON THE PRESENCE OF THE CONTRAS. BUT IT WAS A QUESTION OF CAUSE AND EFFECT. THE CAUSE, HE SAID, WAS THE SANDINISTA REGIME IN NICARAGUA. THE SANDINISTAS HAD IMPOSED A NEW DICTATORSHIP, AND WHILE ONE MIGHT ARGUE THAT THEY HAD A RIGHT TO DO AS THEY PLEASED INSIDE THEIR OWN COUNTRY, THEY DID NOT HAVE THAT RIGHT INSIDE HONDURAS. SO LONG AS THE SANDINISTA SYSTEM LASTS, HE SAID THERE WOULD BE NO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IN HONDURAS OR IN COSTA RICA.

7. AZCONA THEN REFERRED TO WHAT HE CALLED THE "TRAP OF BILATERALISM," SAYING THAT HONDURAS HAD NO INTENTION OF FALLING FOR THE ARGUMENT THAT IT SHOULD TRY TO RESOLVE ITS DIFFERENCES WITH NICARAGUA BILATERALLY. HE SAID NO PROBLEMS EXIST WITH NICARAGUA, EXCEPT FOR THOSE RESULTING FROM THE SITUATION INSIDE NICARAGUA ITSELF, AND THE THREAT THEIR SYSTEM REPRESENTS FOR THE DEMOCRACIES.

8. AZCONA THEN STATED (AS HE DID REPEATEDLY THROUGHOUT THE REMAINDER OF THE DISCUSSION) THAT THERE WERE ONLY TWO ROADS OPEN: EITHER THE SANDINISTAS DEMOCRATIZE OR ARE OVERTHROWN; OR HONDURAS HAS TO ADOPT SECURITY MEASURES THE COUNTRY CANNOT AFFORD, REQUIRING GREATLY INCREASED LEVELS OF U.S. ASSISTANCE AND A "PERMANENT" U.S. MILITARY PRESENCE -- IN EFFECT A WALL WOULD HAVE TO BE BUILT AROUND HONDURAS HE SAID THIS WOULD NOT WORK, A VIEW REGALADO SECONDED. AZCONA ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE U.S. HAD ECONOMIC DIFFICULTIES, AND THAT THERE WAS NO

ANY UNDERSTANDINGS WITH THE SANDINISTAS. WHY, HE ASKED, IF THEY HAD IGNORED THEIR PROMISES TO THE OAS, WOULD THEY HONOR ANY NEW AGREEMENTS WITH THEIR NEIGHBORS? HE URGED DODD, THE USG, AND U.S. LEGISLATORS TO PONDER THIS.

10. SENATOR DODD ASKED HOW, THEN, WAS THE PROBLEM TO BE RESOLVED? AZCONA SAID: LET THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMUNITY PRESSURE NICARAGUA TO HONOR THE SANDINISTA PLEDGES TO THE OAS. PERU'S ALAN GARCIA, MEXICO AND GUATEMALA'S CEREZO OFFERED NO SOLUTION. ALL THEY WERE DOING WAS PROTECTIONING THE SANDINISTAS. CONTADORA WAS WORTHLESS. FROM THE START, CONTADORA SHOULD HAVE INSTRUCTED THE SANDINISTAS: EITHER HONOR YOUR 1979 PLEDGES OR BE SUMMONED TO STAND TRIAL BEFORE THE OAS. INSTEAD OF THIS, CONTADORA, AIDED AND ABETTED BY THE GUATEMALANS, HAD ALMOST SUCCEEDED IN BRINGING THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES TO TRIAL AT THE RECENT OAS CONFERENCE IN GUATEMALA CITY.

11. DODD ASKED HOW LONG HONDURAS WOULD ALLOW THE CONTRAS TO REMAIN IN COUNTRY. AZCONA SAID THERE WAS NO SET TIMETABLE AND HONDURAS HAD MADE NO DEMANDS THAT THEY DEPART BY A CERTAIN DATE. HE HAD BEEN TOLD THAT THE CONTRAS WOULD SOON BE LEAVING, AND THAT WAS GOOD, BUT THE IDEA THAT HONDURAS' PROBLEMS RESULTED FROM THE PRESENCE OF THE CONTRAS WAS A FALLACY. HE REPEATED: THE CONTRAS ARE NOT THE PROBLEM. NICARAGUA'S MARXIST GOVERNMENT IS THE PROBLEM.

12. DODD ASKED IF CHANGE COULD BE EFFECTED IN NICARAGUA

~~SECRET~~
~~SECRET~~

MERELY BY DIPLOMATIC PRESSURE. AZCONA SAID THE OAS SHOULD AT LEAST TRY. HE HAD CLOSELY FOLLOWED THE FALL OF SOMOZA, IN WHICH THE OAS PLAYED A SIGNAL ROLE. THE SANDINISTAS HAD LIED. D'ESCOTO LIED. WHO WAS TO BELIEVE THEM NOW? THEREFORE, THE HOPE OF REACHING AGREEMENT NOW WAS UNREALISTIC. FURTHER, THE PROBLEM NO LONGER WAS ONE OF A CONTEST BETWEEN EAST AND WEST. HE COMPARED HONDURAS AND NICARAGUA TO SOUTH AND NORTH KOREA, AND AS IN THE KOREAN CASE, THE U.S. NOW HAD NO CHOICE BUT TO HELP ITS ALLY. TO THINK THE SANDINISTAS WOULD DROP THEIR MARXIST THEOLOGY WAS AS ABSURD AS TO SUPPOSE THE FIRST CHRISTIANS WOULD HAVE BEEN WILLING TO GIVE UP CHRISTIANITY.

13. AZCONA THEN SAID THAT IN HIS OPINION, EVEN IF THE DEMOCRATS SHOULD REGAIN THE WHITE HOUSE IN TWO YEARS, THE SITUATION WOULD NOT CHANGE AND THE U.S. WOULD STILL HAVE TO CONFRONT THE REALITY OF MARXISM IN CENTRAL AMERICA. SENATOR DODD SAID THAT EVERYONE AGREED WITH THAT, BUT HOW WAS IT POSSIBLE TO THINK OF OVERTHROWING SUCH A POWERFUL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT AS NOW EXISTED IN NICARAGUA?

14. AZCONA SAID THAT HONDURAS FACED AN IMPOSSIBLE SITUATION: FOREIGN INVESTORS WERE SHUNNING THIS COUNTRY AND DOMESTIC INVESTORS WERE SENDING THEIR MONEY ABROAD. IF THE NICARAGUAN PROBLEM WENT ON AND ON, HONDURAS WOULD HAVE TO EXPAND ITS MILITARY MIGHT, AT TERRIBLE COST AND ONLY WITH OUTSIDE HELP. HE REPEATED: THERE WOULD HAVE TO BE A PERMANENT AMERICAN MILITARY PRESENCE HERE. HE SAID OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES DID NOT FEEL DIRECTLY ENDANGERED, AND FELT FREE TO "PLAY" WITH THE PROBLEM OF NICARAGUA, SOME JUST TO BE CONTRARY TO THE US AND OTHERS OUT OF MISPLACED LATIN AMERICAN "SOLIDARITY." BUT FOR HONDURAS, THE PROBLEM WAS REAL.

FROM CUBA AND NICARAGUA UP THROUGH THE ITHSMUS. HONDURAN INTELLIGENCE REPORTS OF COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN FIDEL CASTRO AND DANIEL ORTEGA CLEARLY ESTABLISHED THAT HONDURAS, EL SALVADOR AND GUATEMALA WERE THE IMMEDIATE TARGETS. HE SAID ALL HIS CENTRAL AMERICAN COLLEAGUES, INCLUDING GUATEMALAN CINC GRAMAJO, CONCURRED. GRAMAJO AND CEREZO WERE AT ODDS ON THIS.

16. REGALADO SAID THE SANDINISTAS HAD NOT YET CONSOLIDATED THEIR POSITION. HE SAID HE WAS CONFIDENT THAT WITH THE US SENATE NOW IN THE HANDS OF THE DEMOCRATS, SINCE THEY HAD BEQUEATHED CENTRAL AMERICA THE NICARAGUAN PROBLEM, THEY WOULD NOW SEE FIT TO HELP CENTRAL AMERICA RESOLVE IT.

E.O. 12356: DECL: CADR
TAGS: EIAB, ICFTU, AR
SUBJECT: SECOND TRADE UNION MEETING FOR LATIN AMERICA'S SOUTHERN CONE

REF: BRUSSELS 17234

1. (C) SUMMARY: THE SECOND TRADE UNION MEETING FOR LATIN AMERICA'S SOUTHERN CONE MET IN BUENOS AIRES FROM DECEMBER 10 TO 12. ALTHOUGH SPONSORED BY THE ICFTU AND ORIT, THE MEETING BROUGHT TOGETHER THE MAIN LABOR CENTRALS FROM ARGENTINA, BOLIVIA, BRAZIL, CHILE, PARAGUAY, AND URUGUAY, WITHOUT REGARD TO THEIR INTERNATIONAL AFFILIATIONS. THE MEETING WITNESSED THE FOUNDATION OF A COORDINATING BODY OF LABOR CENTRALS OF THE SOUTHERN CONE, ISSUED COMMUNIQUES ON CHILE AND PARAGUAY AND DREW UP A PLAN OF ACTION. THE ARGENTINE CGT WAS PLEASED TO BE CHOSEN AS THE NEW GROUP'S EXECUTIVE COORDINATOR AD INTERIM, BUT SOME IN THE CGT QUESTION THE PROSPECTS OF THE NEW ORGANIZATION. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) THE SECOND TRADE UNION MEETING FOR THE SOUTHERN CONE TOOK PLACE IN BUENOS AIRES FROM DECEMBER 10 TO 12. ATTENDING WERE LABOR CENTRALS FROM ARGENTINA (THE CGT), BOLIVIA (THE COB), BRAZIL (THE CUT), CHILE (THE CDT AND CNT), PARAGUAY (THE PIT), AND URUGUAY (PIT-CNT). THE DELEGATIONS ATTENDING AGREED TO FORM A COORDINATING BODY WHICH WOULD BE LOCATED IN BUENOS AIRES FOR THE TIME BEING. IN ADDITION, THE ARGENTINE CGT WAS NAMED AS THE NEW ORGANIZATION'S EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND CHARGED WITH PUTTING TOGETHER A PLAN OF ACTION WITHIN 30 DAYS. THE GROUP SET OUT SOME GENERAL LINES FOR OPERATIONS: IT WOULD PROMOTE MEETINGS BETWEEN LABOR LEADERS AND DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL PARTIES; PUSH DISCUSSION OF ECONOMIC PROBLEMS COMMON TO THE REGION (FOREIGN DEBT, INTEGRATION, DEVELOPMENT, ETC.); MONITOR HUMAN AND TRADE UNION RIGHTS; MOUNT CAMPAIGNS TO DEFEND WORKER RIGHTS AND INTERESTS; SPONSOR RESEARCH INTO PROBLEMS AFFECTING THE RIGHTS AND INTERESTS OF WORKERS; AND INFORM WORKERS OF THE REGION ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION'S EXISTENCE.

3. (U) THE MEETING ADOPTED AN ACTION PLAN IN SUPPORT OF UNIONS IN CHILE AND PARAGUAY. IN THIS REGARD, THE COORDINATING BODY WOULD: STIMULATE AN EXCHANGE OF VISITS WITH THE UNIONS IN THESE COUNTRIES TO DEMONSTRATE SOLIDARITY; PUSH JOINT ACTIONS TO DEVELOP REAL AND EFFECTIVE SOLIDARITY WITH WORKERS IN THOSE TWO COUNTRIES; ORGANIZE DAYS OF SUPPORT TO COINCIDE WITH ACTIONS CHILEAN OR PARAGUAYAN UNIONS MAY TAKE IN THEIR OWN COUNTRIES; HAVE ALL UNIONS BELONGING TO THE COORDINATING BODY SEND LETTERS TO POPE JOHN PAUL II INVITING HIS ATTENTION TO THE OPPRESSION OF THE CHILEAN PEOPLE IN VIEW OF HIS COMING TRIP THERE; AND ASSIST IN THE INSTALLATION OF TELEFAX SERVICES FOR THE CHILEAN AND PARAGUAYAN UNIONS TO FACILIATE THEIR COMMUNICATION WITH THE OUTSIDE.

4. (C) SOURCES IN THE ARGENTINE CGT WERE HAPPY THAT THEIR ORGANIZATION WAS GIVEN A ROLE OF PROMINENCE IN THE NEW ORGANIZATION. MANY ARGENTINE TRADE UNIONISTS FEEL THAT THEIR MOVEMENT SHOULD BE GIVEN MORE ATTENTION IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS. ON THE OTHER HAND, SOME WONDERED IF THE CGT IS READY TO ASSUME A LEADERSHIP ROLE OR EVEN TO PARTICIPATE SERIOUSLY IN THIS TYPE OF INTERNATIONAL ACTIVITY. THEY POINT OUT THAT CGT EXECUTIVE BOARD MEMBERS APPEARED AT THE MEETING FOR ONLY RELATIVELY BRIEF PERIODS OF TIME. INDEED, ONE CGT SOURCE ASSERTED THAT THERE WERE TIMES WHEN NO ARGENTINE TRADE UNIONIST AT ALL WAS PRESENT. THE PERSON WHO ALLEGEDLY SPENT MOST TIME AT THE MEETING AND SHEPHERDING THE VISITORS AROUND WAS IDENTIFIED AS CARLOS ROLUBICA, A PERONIST POLITICIAN. SOME CGT SOURCES REPORTED, IN ADDITION, THAT THEY WERE NOT ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT WORKING WITH THE MARXIST UNIONS INCLUDED IN THE BODY. AN ARGENTINE CLAT REPRESENTATIVE TOLD LABATT THAT THE ICFTU/CRIT WAS PUSHING THIS COORDINATING GROUP IN ORDER TO ESTABLISH CONTACT

Dow

LABATT told us CGT + Peronists probably not willing to provide more than lip service support to Chilean opposition; in no way, deputy overseeing CGT affairs - i.e. many CGT leaders are of feeling Pinochet is best sort of likely alternative

Probably our CGT payroll because in Argentina the labor leaders are more important than the politicians.

WITH CHRISTIAN AND LEFT, INCLUDING MARXIST, UNIONS TO WEAN THEM INTO THE ICFTU ORBIT. A HOPE THE CLAT OBSERVER THOUGHT WAS SURPRISINGLY NAIVE.

SUBJECT: AMBASSADOR HABIB'S MEETINGS IN PANAMA

1. (C) ENTIRE TEXT

2. SUMMARY: AMBASSADORS HABIB AND DAVIS MET ON JANUARY 12 WITH FOREIGN MINISTER ABADIA TO REVIEW CURRENT DIPLOMATIC DEVELOPMENTS. ABADIA SAID THE EIGHT CONTADORA/SUPPORT GROUP MINISTERS WOULD MEET WITH THE UN AND OAS SECRETARIES GENERAL IN PANAMA ON JANUARY 18, BEFORE THE TWO-DAY TRIP BY THE TEN TO CENTRAL AMERICA. THE TEN WOULD THEN REVIEW THE TRIP AT A MEETING IN MEXICO CITY ON JANUARY 21. HABIB URGED THE CONTADORA MINISTERS TO LISTEN CAREFULLY TO THE VIEWS OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES, WHO HAD SOME IMPORTANT NEW IDEAS ON THE SEARCH FOR A NEGOTIATED SOLUTION. ABADIA ASSURED US THAT THEY WOULD ASK THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WHAT THEY THOUGHT SHOULD BE REVISED IN THE JUNE 6 DRAFT CONTADORA ACTA. HABIB SAID THAT IF CONTADORA WANTED NEW NEGOTIATIONS, IT MUST PERSUADE NICARAGUA TO DROP ITS ICJ SUITS AGAINST HONDURAS AND COSTA RICA. ABADIA SAID CONTADORA WOULD WORK ON THAT PROBLEM AND "WE WILL BE SUCCESSFUL." HABIB ALSO URGED THE MINISTERS TO MEET WITH THE NICARAGUAN INTERNAL OPPOSITION DURING THEIR VISIT TO MANAGUA. ABADIA SAID THEY WOULD DO SO IF THE OPPOSITION REQUESTED A MEETING, BUT VICE FOREIGN MINISTER CABRERA NOTED THAT THE TEN TRAVELERS WOULD HAVE TO DISCUSS THE IDEA. HABIB EMPHASIZED THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES ALL SAW THE NEED FOR CONTADORA TO PROMOTE A DIALOGUE BETWEEN THE SANDINISTAS AND THEIR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL OPPOSITION. HABIB ALSO MET WITH ACTING PRESIDENT ESQUIVEL, WHO EXPRESSED GENERAL AGREEMENT WITH U.S. POLICY TOWARD NICARAGUA. ESQUIVEL STRESSED THE NEED TO HELP THE NICARAGUAN INTERNAL OPPOSITION. AMBASSADOR HABIB SUGGESTS THAT EMBASSIES GUATEMALA, SAN JOSE, SAN SALVADOR AND TEGUCIGALPA SHARE WITH HOST GOVERNMENTS THE CONTENTS OF HIS MEETING WITH ABADIA. END SUMMARY

3. AMBASSADORS HABIB AND DAVIS, ACCOMPANIED BY DCM MAISTO AND RAY BURGHARDT, MET WITH FOREIGN MINISTER ABADIA AND VICE FOREIGN MINISTER CABRERA ON JANUARY 12 TO DISCUSS CENTRAL AMERICAN DIPLOMATIC DEVELOPMENTS. HABIB EXPLAINED THAT PANAMA WAS HIS FIRST STOP BECAUSE WE UNDERSTOOD THAT ABADIA WAS MAKING THE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE UPCOMING TRIP TO CENTRAL AMERICA BY THE CONTADORA/SUPPORT GROUP MINISTERS AND THE UN AND OAS SECRETARIES GENERAL. ABADIA SAID THE TWO SECRETARIES GENERAL AND ALL EIGHT MINISTERS WOULD MEET IN PANAMA ON JANUARY 18; THEN PROCEED TO SAN JOSE AND MANAGUA ON THE 19TH; OVERNIGHT IN GUATEMALA; VISIT SAN SALVADOR AND TEGUCIGALPA ON THE 20TH; THEN SPEND THE NIGHT IN MEXICO CITY, WHERE THE TEN WILL MEET ON JANUARY 21 TO REVIEW THE TRIP.

4. HABIB COMMENTED THAT THE COINCIDENCE OF SEVERAL DEVELOPMENTS MADE THIS AN IMPORTANT TIME FOR CENTRAL AMERICAN DIPLOMACY: 1) THE CONTADORA GROUP WAS MAKING ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO PROMOTE A DIPLOMATIC SOLUTION; 2) THE AID TO THE CONTRAS HAD BEGUN TO FLOW AND PRESSURE ON THE SANDINISTAS WILL INCREASE; 3) U.S. POLICY IN CENTRAL AMERICA WILL NOT CHANGE; THOSE WHO THINK THAT THE IRAN AFFAIR WILL PRODUCE A CHANGE IN POLICY ARE WRONG. TH NEXT ROUND OF SERIOUS CONGRESSIONAL DEBATE ON AID TO THE CONTRAS WILL NOT COME UNTIL SEPTEMBER; 4) THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES HAVE SOME GOOD IDEAS WHICH THEY WILL CONVEY TO THE TEN TRAVELERS. HABIB AND ABRAMS MET WITH FOREIGN MINISTER MADRIGAL IN MIAMI LAST WEEK TO HEAR COSTA RICA'S NEW IDEAS, WHICH HABIB PREFERRED THAT ABADIA HEAR DIRECTLY FROM MADRIGAL. IN CONCLUSION, HABIB NOTED THAT THE U.S. STILL ENDORSED THE IDEA OF A CONTADORA SETTLEMENT BASED ON THE 21 OBJECTIVES AND WHICH MET THE CRITERIA OF THE U.S. AND THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. HABIB SAID ABADIA SHOULD NOT BELIEVE ANYONE WHO ASSERTED THAT THE U.S. WAS TRYING TO SABOTAGE CONTADORA.

5. ABADIA BEGAN BY STATING THAT HE WANTED TO CLEAR UP AN APPARENT U.S. MISPERCEPTION REFLECTED IN AMB MCCORMACK'S REMARKS AT THE JANUARY 8 OAS PERMANENT COUNCIL MEETING. MCCORMACK QUOTED PRESS REPORTS THAT PANAMA WAS LOOKING FOR BILATERAL SOLUTIONS. ABADIA STATED EMPHATICALLY THAT PANAMA WAS ONLY INTERESTED IN GLOBAL SOLUTIONS. HABIB PROMISED THAT THIS CLARIFICATION WOULD BE COMMUNICATED TO WASHINGTON.

6. ABADIA SAID THE CONTADORA GROUP FELT THIS WAS AN IMPORTANT TIME TO SEEK THE PACIFICATION OF CENTRAL AMERICA. THERE WAS A GENERALIZED SENSE OF THREAT AND FEAR IN THE REGION. ABADIA SAID HE KNEW THAT THE U.S. ALSO FAVORED A PEACEFUL SOLUTION, BUT THE U.S. APPROACH WAS A BIT DIFFERENT THAN PANAMA'S. PANAMA FELT THAT PRESSURE ON MANAGUA ONLY GAVE THE SANDINISTAS AN EXCUSE TO ARM THEMSELVES. HABIB RESPONDED THAT THE SANDINISTAS BEGAN THEIR ARMS BUILDING LONG BEFORE ANY PRESSURE WAS PUT ON THEM. AT ANY RATE, THE PRESSURE NOW WAS GOING TO HAPPEN. MORE RESISTANCE FIGHTERS WERE INSIDE NICARAGUA, THE SUPPLY LINES WERE ESTABLISHED, AND ACTION WOULD BEGIN. BUT WE SAW NO REASON WHY THIS INCREASE IN PRESSURE WOULD PRECLUDE A MAJOR PEACE EFFORT BY THE CONTADORA GROUP. ON THE CONTRARY, THIS WAS A GOOD TIME FOR CONTADORA TO REDOUBLE ITS EFFORTS. IT IS IMPORTANT TO HAVE BOTH A MILITARY AND A DIPLOMATIC TRACK.

7. HABIB URGED THE CONTADORA MINISTERS TO LISTEN CAREFULLY TO THE VIEW OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES CONCERNING THE INADEQUACIES OF THE JUNE 6 DRAFT CONTADORA ACTA. THE DEMOCRACIES FELT THAT CONTADORA HAD NOT LISTENED TO THEM SUFFICIENT IN THE PAST. THE FOUR DEMOCRACIES WERE ANXIOUS TO SEE A POLITICAL SETTLEMENT, BUT IT HAD TO MEET THEIR REQUIREMENTS AND THEY SAW THE JUNE DRAFT AS INADEQUATE IN BOTH ITS POLITICAL AND SECURITY ASPECTS. THE DEMOCRACIES FELT THAT THE SANDINISTAS MUST TALK WITH THEIR EXTERNAL AND INTERNAL OPPOSITION. CONTADORA SHOULD PUT FORWARD A FRAMEWORK FOR A DIALOGUE IN NICARAGUA AS WELL AS ONE TO RESOLVE THE SECURITY ISSUES.

8. ABADIA SAID HE AGREED WITH MUCH OF WHAT HABIB SAID, BUT IT WAS UNFORTUNATE THAT THE U.S. HAD FAILED TO SEE THAT THE STRONGEST PRESSURE WHICH COULD BE BROUGHT TO BEAR ON MANAGUA WOULD BE THE LEGAL COMMITMENT OF SIGNING A CONTADORA ACTA. HABIB RESPONDED THAT ANY AGREEMENT HAD TO BE COMPLETE; POLITICAL AND SECURITY VERIFICATION PROCEDURES AND FORMULA FOR ARMS REDUCTION ALL HAD TO BE WORKED OUT BEFORE SIGNATURE. THE PRESENT ACTA HAD NO SCHEME FOR POLITICAL RECONCILIATION.

9. ABADIA SAID HE WOULD ASK THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WHAT SHOULD BE ADDED TO THE ACTA. HABIB SAID THAT WOULD BE PRECISELY THE RIGHT APPROACH. THE CONTADORA GROUP SHOULD DISCUSS THESE ISSUES IN DETAIL WITH THE CENTRAL AMERIANS; THAT MIGHT REQUIRE MORE TIME THAN THE TWO HOURS OR SO PER STOP WHICH THEY CURRENTLY HAD PLANNED.

10. HABIB NOTED THAT IF THE CONTADORA GROUP WISHED TO RESUME SERIOUS NEGOTIATIONS, THEY MUST PERSUADE NICARAGUA TO DROP ITS ICJ SUITS AGAINST HONDURAS AND COSTA RICA. ABADIA SAID CONTADORA WOULD WORK ON THAT PROBLEM AND "WE WILL BE SUCCESSFUL."

11. HABIB ALSO URGED THE CONTADORA MINISTERS TO MEET WITH THE NICARAGUAN INTERNAL OPPOSITON DURING THEIR VISIT TO MANAGUA. ABADIA SAID HE HAD MET WITH VIRGILIO GODOY THREE TIMES. IF THE OPPOSITION REQUESTED A MEETING, ABADIA SAID, THE CONTADORA GROUP WOULD ACCEPT. CABRERA QUICKLY INTERJECTED THAT THE EIGHT MINISTERS AND TWO SECRETARIES GENERAL WOULD HAVE TO DISCUSS THE IDEA.

12. HABIB EMPHASIZED THE IMPORTANCE OF STARTING A DIALOGUE AMONG NICARAGUANS. FOR EXAMPLE, PEOPLE TALK ABOUT A CEASEFIRE; BUT A CEASEFIRE COULD NOT OCCUR UNTIL THERE HAD BEEN AGREEMENTS WORKED OUT BETWEEN THE RESISTANCE AND THE SANDINISTAS. THE RESISTANCE NOW WAS A FACTOR WHICH THE SANDINISTAS COULD NOT IGNORE. IF THE SANDINISTAS WANTED THE FIGHTING TO STOP, THEY HAD TO AGREE TO TALK WITH THE RESISTANCE. IF THE LATIN GOVERNMENTS WANTED TO END THE FIGHTING, THEY SHOULD FOCUS NOW ON THE NEED FOR A NICARAGUAN DIALOGUE.

13. AT THE END OF THE MEETING, THERE WAS A SHORT EXCHANGE WITH CABRERA CONCERNING THE DETAILS OF A

CONTADORA AGREEMENT. CABRERA RESISTED THE NOTION THAT AN AGREEMENT ON ARMS AND FORCE LEVELS HAD TO BE WORKED OUT BEFORE SIGNATURE. HE NOTED THAT NONE OF THE FORMULAS WHICH HAD BEEN SUGGESTED SO FAR HAD PROVED ADEQUATE, BUT FINALLY CONCEDED THAT CONTADORA MUST CONTINUE TO WORK ON THE PROBLEM.

14. AMBASSADORS HABIB AND DAVIS ALSO MET AT THE RESIDENCE WITH VICE PRESIDENT ESQUIVEL, CURRENTLY SERVING AS ACTING PRESIDENT. ESQUIVEL EXPRESSED GENERAL AGREEMENT WITH U.S. POLICY TOWARD CENTRAL AMERICA. HE STRESSED THE NEED TO PURSUE THREE SIMULTANEOUS TRACKS: CONTADORA, MILITARY PRESSURE THROUGH THE CONTRAS, AND ASSISTANCE TO THE INTERNAL NICARAGUAN OPPOSITION. ESQUIVEL SAID HE WAS PERSONALLY TRYING TO HELP THE INTERNAL OPPOSITION PARTIES, WHICH HE SAW AS AN IMPORTANT BUT SOMEWHAT NEGLECTED ELEMENT. ESQUIVEL SAID HE HAD QUIETLY PROMOTED SOME CONTACT TWEEN THE INTERNAL OPPOSITION AND THE CONTRAS. HABIB ASSURED ESQUIVEL THAT WE WOULD ACTIVELY PURSUE ALL THREE TRACKS.

1. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS JAN 9, THE VENEZUELAN EMBASSY INFORMED THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS THAT FORMER STUDENT LEADER DAUNO TOTORO HAD DEPARTED FROM THE VENEZUELAN EMBASSY ON HIS OWN VOLITION ON NEW YEARS'S EVE. TOTORO, WHO SOUGHT REFUGE IN THE EMBASSY ON NOV 12, WAS REPORTEDLY LAST SEEN IN THE NEARBY CITY OF RANCAGUA, BUT HAS SINCE DROPPED OUT OF SIGHT. HIS MOTHER HAS FILED A PREVENTIVE "AMPARO" WITH THE COURTS IN SANTIAGO, ARGUING THAT THE OCTOBER ARREST ORDER FOR HER SON, ISSUED UNDER THE STATE OF SIEGE, WAS NO LONGER VALID SINCE THE STATE OF SIEGE WAS NO LONGER IN PLACE. SHE FURTHER ASKED THE COURTS TO MAKE PUBLIC ANY NEW ARREST ORDERS CONCERNING HER SON.

2. TOTORO WAS EXPELLED FROM THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY, WHERE HE WAS ACTIVE AS A COMMUNIST YOUTH LEADER. HE HAD BEEN SOUGHT BY THE AUTHORITIES FOR SOME TIME BEFORE ENTERING THE VENEZUELAN EMBASSY. HIS SISTER, FLAVIA, WAS ARRESTED IN MID OCTOBER FOR 3 DAYS, AND THEN DEPARTED

SUBJ: FOREIGN MINISTER BLAMES PROBLEMS WITH U.S. ON MID-LEVEL OFFICIALS

1. (C) FOREIGN MINISTER DEL VALLE REVIEWED CURRENT GOC FOREIGN POLICY INITIATIVES DURING A MEETING WITH BUSINESSMEN. HE INSISTED THAT THE DECISION TO DRASTICALLY REDUCE THE EXILE LIST WAS NOT DUE TO VATICAN PRESSURES. RELATIONS WITH THE U.S. WERE CHARACTERIZED AS "DELICATE" BUT HE CLAIMED THAT SECRETARY SHULTZ HAD EXHIBITED A MODERATE APPROACH TOWARD CHILE AND THAT THE U.S. ABSTENTION ON SAL HAD BEEN DONE WITH THE INTENTION OF SEEING THAT THE CREDIT WAS APPROVED. HE PRAISED PRESIDENT REAGAN'S CHILE POLICY BUT ASSERTED THAT MID-LEVEL OFFICIALS HAD CIRCUMVENTED THAT POLICY. POST HAS PREVIOUSLY OBSERVED THIS APPROACH BY THE GOC, WHEREBY THE PROBLEMS IN THE BILATERAL RELATIONSHIP ARE LAID AT THE FEET OF UNDERLINGS. END SUMMARY

2. (U) DURING A JAN 10 MEETING WITH BUSINESSMEN IN VALPARAISO, FOREIGN MINISTER JAIME DEL VALLE TOUCHED ON A VARIETY OF FOREIGN POLICY THEMES. HE DENIED THAT RECENT GOC INITIATIVES IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS, SUCH AS THE END OF EXILE, WERE THE RESULT OF VATICAN PRESSURE. IN FACT, DEL VALLE SAID, THE CHURCH HAD PLACED NO PRE-CONDITIONS ON THE GOC IN ANTICIPATION OF THE PAPAL VISIT. RELATIONS WITH THE VATICAN, HE NOTED, ARE "NOT NORMAL; THEY ARE SPLENDID."

3. (U) IN HIS ADDRESS, DEL VALLE ASSERTED THAT GOC-U.S. RELATIONS WERE PASSING THROUGH A DELICATE PHASE BUT ADDED THAT THE RELATIONSHIP HAD HISTORICALLY BEEN CYCLICAL. THE GOC APPRECIATED THE VIEWS AND POLICIES OF PRESIDENT REAGAN TOWARD CHILE BUT "REGRETTABLY THE WORDS OF REAGAN HAVE NOT BEEN FULLY UNDERSTOOD AT THE MID-LEVELS OF THE GOVERNMENT." IN ANY CASE, HE SAID THAT THE PROBLEMS HAD DIMINISHED IN RECENT MONTHS. HE MENTIONED THE SAL VOTE AND CLAIMED THAT ALTHOUGH THE U.S. HAD ABSTAINED, "IT IS CERTAIN THAT IT TOOK ALL THE PRECAUTIONS IN ORDER THAT THE CREDIT WAS APPROVED." HE CLAIMED THAT NEGATIVE REPORTS OF HIS PERSONAL MEETINGS WITH SECRETARY SHULTZ HAD BEEN DISSEMINATED BY OPPOSITION ELEMENTS, BUT HE INSISTED THAT HIS MEETINGS IN NEW YORK AND GUATEMALA WITH THE SECRETARY HAD BEEN CORDIAL AND THAT THE SECRETARY HAD DEMONSTRATED A VERY MODERATE APPROACH TOWARD THE CHILEAN SITUATION.

4. (U) DEL VALLE REPEATED THE STANDARD GOC DENUNCIATION OF THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION, ASSERTING THAT MANY OF ITS SUPPORTERS, SUCH AS CUBA AND MEXICO, HAD NO MORAL AUTHORITY IN THIS AREA. HE REFERRED TO SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR VOLIO AND THE GOC DECISION TO CONTINUE ITS COOPERATION WITH HIM, INSISTING THAT THE TRUTH WOULD COME OUT AND THAT, IF EQUANIMITY REMAINED IN THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY, THE RECENT STEPS ANNOUNCED BY THE GOC WOULD HAVE AN IMPACT.

5. (U) DURING HIS ADDRESS, THE FOREIGN MINISTER SPOKE IN POSITIVE TERMS OF GOC-PERUVIAN RELATIONS. AFTERWARDS, HE WAS ASKED ABOUT PERU'S VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION. DEL VALLE CONCEDED

THAT THE PERUVIAN VOTE HAD "GREATLY OFFENDED US" AND SAID THAT THIS HAD BEEN BROUGHT TO THE ATTENTION OF FOREIGN MINISTER ALAN WAGNER WHEN HE VISITED CHILE IN DECEMBER. WAGNER, WHOM DEL VALLE CHARACTERIZED AS A GENTLEMAN, HAD INDICATED TO THE GOC THAT THE PERUVIAN DECISION ON THE RESOLUTION HAD BEEN REACHED WITH GREAT DIFFICULTY.

6. (C) COMMENT: THE SPEECH CONTINUES THE CHILEAN MYTH THAT PRESIDENT REAGAN IS A FRIEND OF THE PINOCHET REGIME BUT THAT "CHILE-BASHERS" WITHIN THE BUREACRACY HAVE CIRCUMVENTED THE PRESIDENT'S WISHES. END COMMENT. BARNES

Honorable George Schultz
Secretary of State
Department of State
Washington, DC 20520

Dear Mr. Secretary:

The Interamerican Society of Psychology is an association of psychologists and behavioral scientists from all countries in the Americas. Its objectives are the development of the behavioral sciences in the Western hemisphere and the promotion of direct communication among behavioral scientists from North, Central, and South America.

The purpose of this letter is to express our concern over the events that are taking place in Chile. We are particularly concerned about the mental health consequences of repressive practices in important sectors of the Chilean population and the fate of our colleagues who, in their professional practice, deal with these problems and try to find a rational solution to the situation.

During the month of November, 1985, after continuous reports of the use of psychology on part of the Chilean government to terrorize the population and serious mental health problems associated to repressive practices, we supported a fact-finding mission to Chile by the American Psychological Association, the American Psychiatric Association and the American Committee for Human Rights. Enclosed please find a copy of the preliminary report delivered during a press conference on December 12, 1985.

Considering that this site visit took place before the recent state of siege and state violence, we can not ignore reports and desperate calls for help from our colleagues in Chile. Enclosed you will find a translation of a letter from the Chilean Psychological Association. The letter is self-explanatory and it disturbes us deeply. This, and various other sources of evidence, demonstrate that tremendous damage is being done, which in many ways compares to what was observed in Hitler' Germany.

You may recall that after the Nazi experience and the holocaust the world regretted that it did not know what was happening in Europe and the consequences of Hitler's actions for millions of people. Many studies were conducted by colleagues trying to understand how that could have happened. Today we have the results of those studies, plenty of historical evidence and concrete information concerning what is happening in Chile. We can not ignore it anymore. We feel a tremendous moral obligation to make you and the general public aware of the mental health and social consequences of the situation.

We hope your office will use all means available to support or defend our colleagues working with the victims of the regime, as well as other associations or individuals pursuing the restoration of democracy and attempting to stop violence. We and the educated public know that governments have several ways to influence the Chilean regime to refrain from practices that cause so much damage to its people. Actions such as opposition to loans and other economic benefits to the Chilean dictatorship, would in the long term be beneficial not only to the victims of repression but also to the political stability of the region. There are reasons to believe that the current situation and the unprecedented potential for a violent resolution are the direct results of the dictatorship and its practices. We hope your office will force some actions that reduce the chances of violence in the future.

We would sincerely appreciate your attention to this matter and whatever you can do to help our colleagues and alleviate the dramatic situation of the Chilean people. In addition to any economic or political measure it would be appreciated if your government could instruct their representatives in Chile to support and be sensitive to the call from our colleagues and other targets of violence. We are sure many people would experience a great relief and, in the long run, you and your government would have the gratitude of the Chilean people and the international scientific community.

Thank you for your kind attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Triandis

President

SUBJECT: Possible Breakthrough in Letelier Case

SUMMARY: As a result of yesterday's secret interview in Chile with indicted Letelier co-conspirator Capt. Fernandez, a deal that could lead to Fernandez's prosecution in the US and provide important benefits to US anti-terrorism and Chile policies, appears within reach. If no hitches develop and the Justice Deptartment continues to pursue the case vigorously, arraignment in the US could occur within a matter of days. END SUMMARY.

The USG team in Chile (led by Mike Kozak) has concluded that Fernandez in fact played only a secondary role in the crime, and had no knowledge of the murder conspiracy. He appears guilty of only minor violations of US law, with a maximum 5-yr. sentence and possible immediate parole. Given the limited prosecutorial value of the information supplied by Fernandez, Justice may balk at a deal. While Fernandez' statements corroborate earlier testimony and help clear up the record of a major unresolved case, this prosecution will probably not help bring to justice the parties who orchestrated the Letelier murder.

Fernandez, however, has important first-hand knowledge of the official Chilean cover-up subsequent to the assassination and our extradition request. His account of his personal conversations with Pinochet directly implicates Pinochet with overseeing the cover-up.

The foreign policy benefits of pursuing this opening are substantial, particularly with regard to US anti-terrorism policy. This prosecution, and the resulting publicity given to the 10-year-old case, would demonstrate that the US will not tolerate acts of terrorism on its soil, even those committed by an erstwhile US ally. Such a message could help bolster the credibility of US policy, at home and abroad.

In terms of our Chile policy, focusing attention on one of the Pinochet government's most sordid episodes may help reduce support, particularly within the military, for Pinochet's efforts to extend his rule beyond 1989 and put pressure on Pinochet to accelerate the democratization process.

Justice Department officials are now considering plea bargaining terms to take account of what we now know about Fernandez' role. Fernandez has offered to take a polygraph test on any of his statements, including his assurance that he had no involvement in other crimes. The would help arrange for the test to be done in Brazil.

We will inform you immediately should it prove necessary for you to weigh in personally with Ed Meese to assure that Justice will go through with this, in the event that their interest cools due to lessened prosecutorial possibilities.

SUBJ: SPONSORING A RESOLUTION ON CHILE AT THE
- FEBRUARY UNHRC

REF: SAN JOSE 324

1. S - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. I COME BACK TO YOU ON THE QUESTION WE DISCUSSED AT LENGTH LAST FALL -- THE IMPORTANCE OF OUR HUMAN RIGHTS POLICY IN PROMOTING OUR INTERESTS IN CHILE. BEFORE LONG, THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION WILL BE DEBATING THE CHILE SITUATION. BY DEFINITION, DICTATORS DO NOT CONSIDER HUMAN RIGHTS IMPORTANT, AND THEY ARE NATURALLY LOATH TO BELIEVE THAT WE DO. IN MY VIEW, THE SINGLE US ACTION IN RECENT YEARS WHICH HAS HAD THE GREATEST IMPACT ON CHILEAN BEHAVIOR WAS OUR DECISION TO SPONSOR A RESOLUTION ON CHILE AT LAST YEAR'S UNHRC, AND OUR SUCCESS IN GETTING ITS UNANIMOUS APPROVAL. BY THE SAME TOKEN, A DECISION TO STAND ASIDE THIS YEAR AND LET MEXICO AND CUBA, AIDED BY A SOVIET CHAIRMAN, PASS A BAD RESOLUTION IN GENEVA

SOME WEEKS HENCE THAT WE WILL HAVE TO OPPOSE, COMING ON THE HEELS OF A BAD RESOLUTION WHICH OCCASIONED A NEGATIVE US VOTE IN THE UNGA, WILL SUCCEED IN DESTROY-ING THE CREDIBILITY WE HAVE PAINSTAKINGLY BUILT WITH BOTH PINOCHET AND HIS OPPOSITION. WE HAVE ALREADY LOST A GREAT DEAL SINCE THE NOVEMBER VOTE.

3. I AM NOT ALONE IN THIS VIEW. FERNANDO VOLIO, WHO WAS A MAJOR US ALLY ON CENTRAL AMERICAN POLICY WHEN HE WAS COSTA RICAN FOREIGN MINISTER, HAS DONE EXACTLY WHAT WE HOPED HE WOULD DO AS SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON CHILE. HE HAS WRITTEN CAREFULLY BALANCED REPORTS THAT HAVE NOTED THE GOVERNMENT'S POSITIVE STEPS, AVOIDED RHETORIC, AND DESCRIBED OBJECTIVELY THE AREAS WHERE PROGRESS STILL NEEDS TO BE MADE. THAT INCLUDES PROGRESS TOWARD DEMOCRACY, BECAUSE HE SHARES OUR VIEW THAT THE ONLY ENDURING GUARANTEE OF HUMAN RIGHTS IS A RETURN TO FREELY ELECTED GOVERNMENTS. SAN JOSE'S REPORT ON THEIR LATEST CONVERSATION WITH HIM (REFTEL) SAYS HIS NEXT REPORT TO THE UNHRC WILL CALL FOR COMPETITIVE ELECTIONS IN 1989. HE ALSO URGED THAT "THE US AGAIN TAKE THE LEAD (IN GENEVA) AND TABLE A MODERATE RESOLUTION."

4. PINOCHET HAS ALREADY ABLY MANEUVERED TO HOBBLE VOLIO BY GRANTING HIS REQUEST FOR A SECOND OFFICAL VISIT TO CHILE -- BUT ONLY AFTER HIS REPORT HAS BEEN SUBMITTED TO GENEVA AND THE DEBATE ON CHILE HAS TAKEN PLACE. IF THERE IS A HARSH AND UNBALANCED RESOLUTION AT THE UNHRC, IT WILL FURTHER DISCOURAGE VOLIO -- BY FAILING TO COMMEND HIS EFFORTS AT BALANCE -- AND GIVE FURTHER EXCUSE TO PINOCHET TO AVOID COOPERATION WITH THE RAPPORTEUR AND IMPLEMENTATION OF HIS RECOMMENDATIONS.

AN UNSUCCESSFUL VISIT TO CHILE, ON THE HEELS OF A BAD RESOLUTION IN GENEVA AND A CLEAR SIGNAL OF US . DISINTEREST, WILL ALMOSTCERTAINLY LEAD TO VOLIO'S RESIGNATION AND HIS REPLACEMENT BY SOMEONE FAR LESS SYMPATHETIC TO OUR INTERESTS.

5. TIME IS SHORT. THE VOTE IN GENEVA IS ONLY SEVEN OR EIGHT WEEKS AWAY. TO PREEMPT THE MEXICANS (WHO WE UNDERSTAND ARE EAGER TO REPEAT THEIR UNGA "TRIUMPH") AND ESTABLISH OUR TEXT AS THE BASIS FOR DISCUSSION, WE WILL HAVE TO CIRCULATE A DRAFT MUCH SOONER THAN THAT. MY IMPRESSION IS THAT THERE IS VERY LITTLE DIFFERENCE IN VIEW WITHIN THE USG ON WHAT THE RESOLUTION SHOULD SAY; ONLY ON THE APPROPRIATENESS OF OUR TAKING THE LEAD IN GETTING THE KIND OF RESOLUTION WE WANT. FOR MY PART, I HAVE NO DOUBT. PINOCHET, DESPITE HIS ASSERTIONS THAT HE IS NOT INFLUENCED BY EXTERNAL OPINION, DOES CONSIDER THE US IMPORTANT, AND HE RESPECTS FIRMNESS OF PURPOSE. LAST YEAR'S RESOLUTION GOT HIS ATTENTION. IT ALSO GOT THE ATTENTION OF THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION, AND BOTH HAVE MODERATED THEIR COURSES FOR SOME TIME. WITH PINOCHET, ONE HAS ALWAYS TO WONDER HOW LONG IT WILL LAST. WE MUST CONTINUE TO SEND CLEAR SIGNALS OF OUR WILLINGNESS TO PROMOTE OUR BASIC INTERESTS.

SUMMARY

2. DESPITE ANOTHER SET OF TECHNICAL DELAYS, THE FIRST UNIT OF THE U.S.-DESIGNED NUCLEAR POWER PLANT AT LAGUNA VERDE WILL PROBABLY BE READY FOR FUEL LOADING IN THE SUMMER OR FALL OF THIS YEAR. THE PRINCIPAL RISK TO THE LAGUNA VERDE PROJECT AT THIS POINT IS POLITICAL RATHER THAN TECHNICAL. PUBLIC OPPOSITION TO THE PLANT--BOTH REGIONAL AND NATIONAL--CONTINUES TO RECEIVE CONSIDERABLE PRESS ATTENTION. HIGH LEVEL OFFICIALS ASSOCIATED WITH [redacted]

EITHER BEHIND OR AT LEAST TOLERATING THE OPPOSITION MOVEMENT, APPARENTLY AS A PART OF THE BYZANTINE MANEUVERING AMONG POSSIBLE SUCCESSORS TO PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID. MANY IN THE NUCLEAR COMMUNITY BELIEVE THAT IF FUEL IS NOT LOADED IN THE FIRST UNIT OF LAGUNA VERDE BY SEPTEMBER WHEN THE PRESIDENT DESIGNATES HIS SUCCESSOR, THE PRESIDENT-DESIGNATE WILL DELAY THE PLANT OR POSSIBLY MOTH-BALL IT FOR POLITICAL REASONS.

3. FROM THE U.S. POINT OF VIEW, THE PRINCIPAL DIFFICULTY PRESENTED BY THIS SCENARIO WOULD BE IF THE OPERATORS, BUILDERS AND REGULATORS OF THE PLANT WERE TO BE TEMPTED TO TAKE SHORT-CUTS IN PREPARING FOR START-UP OF THE PLANT LEAVING MEXICO WITH A POLITICALLY APPROVED BUT UNSAFE PLANT. THE GOM HAS CAREFULLY, AND WE BELIEVE DELIBERATELY, AVOIDED IDENTIFYING THE LAGUNA VERDE PLANT WITH THE U.S. IN THE EVENT OF AN ACCIDENT AT LAGUNA VERDE, WHETHER CAUSED BY DESIGN FLAWS OR ERRORS IN MEXICO, WE THINK A QUOTE MADE IN THE U.S.A. LABEL ENDQUOTE WOULD BE PROMINENTLY DISPLAYED ON THE PLANT TO THE DETRIMENT OF OUR BILATERAL RELATIONS.

4. UP TO THIS POINT, THE BUILDERS AND REGULATORS OF THE PLANT HAVE NOT GIVEN IN TO SUCH PRESSURES AND ARE MAKING CONSIDERABLE EFFORTS TO OBTAIN INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE IN PREPARING FOR START-UP, EVEN AT THE EXPENSE OF FURTHER DELAYS. RECENTLY, THE EMBASSY HAS REITERATED ITS WILLINGNESS TO ASSIST THE GOM IN ITS EFFORTS TO ASSURE A SAFE START-UP FOR LAGUNA VERDE AND THE MEXICANS ARE OBTAINING FURTHER TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FROM U.S. SOURCES. FUEL LOADING DELAYED AGAIN

5. ACCORDING TO HIGH LEVEL SOURCES IN THE NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR NUCLEAR SAFETY AND SECURITY (CNSNS), THE GOM CANNOT POSSIBLY ACHIEVE ITS GOAL OF LOADING FUEL FOR THE FIRST UNIT OF LAGUNA VERDE BY APRIL OF THIS YEAR. (THE APRIL DATE IS IN ITSELF A FALLBACK FROM THE DECEMBER 1986 DEADLINE SET BY THE FEDERAL ELECTRICITY COMMISSION (CFE)). PRE-FUEL LOADING SAFETY TESTING IS NOT COMPLETE AT UNIT 1. MOREOVER, CFE IS ENGAGED IN SIGNIFICANT EFFORTS TO REPAIR AND MAINTAIN EQUIPMENT ON BOTH

THE NUCLEAR AND NON-NUCLEAR SIDES OF THE PLANT. SOME OF THE UNIT'S EQUIPMENT APPARENTLY SUFFERED FROM ITS EXTENDED STORAGE AT THE CONSTRUCTION SITE. THE CNSNS ALSO RECENTLY ORDERED CFE TO REPEAT TWO UNSPECIFIED SAFETY TESTS AT THE PLANT. (THE PLANT'S CONTAINMENT, HOWEVER, RECENTLY PASSED PRESSURE TESTS.) THE TESTS ARE ALSO GOING SLOWER THAN EXPECTED BECAUSE CFE HAS NOT MADE EXTENSIVE USE OF ITS U.S. ENGINEERING SERVICES CONTRACTORS IN THE TESTING PROCESS. CNSNS NOW BELIEVES SEPTEMBER IS A REALISTIC DATE FOR FUEL LOADING. WE UNDERSTAND THAT NO PART OF THE PLANT IS YET 100 PERCENT READY FOR FUEL LOADING. CFE HAS REJECTED THE OPTION OF EARLY LOADING OF FUEL. IT DOES NOT WISH TO USE THE REACTOR AS A QUOTE FUEL STORAGE FACILITY ENDQUOTE.

POINT THE PLANT WILL BE READY IN A TECHNICAL SENSE FOR START-UP. HIGH LEVEL OFFICIALS INVOLVED WITH LAGUNA VERDE ARE, PERHAPS, MORE CONCERNED ABOUT THE INCREASED LEVEL OF POLITICAL RISK INVOLVED WITH THE PLANT. OPPOSITION TO THE PLANT AT A LOCAL LEVEL IS GROWING AND EVEN GOM OFFICIALS ADMIT THAT THE MAN-IN-THE-STREET IN THE STATE OF VERACRUZ IS ALARMED (REF A). NATIONAL OPPOSITION TO THE PLANT IS WELL FINANCED AND WELL COVERED BY THE MEXICAN PRESS. (BY THE STANDARDS OF ANTI-NUCLEAR MOVEMENTS IN THE U.S. OR WESTERN EUROPE, THE MOVEMENT HERE IS NO GREAT SHAKES.)

7. MORE IMPORTANT TO SUPPORTERS OF LAGUNA VERDE IS THEIR ANALYSIS THAT THE OPPOSITION TO THE PLANT IS ENJOYING AT LEAST THE BENIGN NEGLECT OF THE SECRETARIAT OF GOBERNACION AND MORE PROBABLY IS BEING FUNDED BY THE SECRETARIAT [redacted]

[redacted]

TO FURTHER THE PRESIDENTIAL AMBITIONS OF SECRETARY BARTLETT (REF B). WE HAVE HEARD ADDITIONAL COMMENTS IN THIS REGARD FROM SOURCES OTHER THAN THE ONE IDENTIFIED IN REF B. ONE HIGHLY PLACED SOURCE IN THE GOM NUCLEAR COMMUNITY NOTED THAT GOBERNACION--AT A MINIMUM--COULD EASILY HAVE MUZZLED THE PRESS IN VERACRUZ STATE.

COMMENT: IT IS TRUE THE SECRETARY OF ENERGY DEL MAZO AND SECRETARY OF GOBERNACION BARTLETT ARE PROBABLY THE PRINCIPAL RIVALS FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION. HOWEVER, WE ARE NOT PERSUADED THAT THE POLITICAL ANALYSIS OF THE SUPPORTERS OF LAGUNA VERDE IS ACCURATE. THE POINT IS THAT THE SUPPORTERS OF THE PLANT BELIEVE IT AND ARE BEHAVING ACCORDINGLY. END COMMENT.

8. THE EMBASSY BELIEVES THE GOM WILL COMPLETE THE PLANT, SUCCESSION POLITICS NOTWITHSTANDING. HOWEVER, THE PLANT IS NOW SUBJECT TO POLITICAL RISKS IT HAS NOT FACED FOR SEVERAL YEARS. USG AGENCIES SHOULD BE AWARE OF THESE SENSITIVITIES AND THE POTENTIAL FOR A HALT IN CONSTRUCTION AT THE PLANT IN THEIR DEALINGS WITH THE GOM ON LAGUNA VERDE.

IMPLICATIONS FOR THE USG: A WORST CASE VIEW

9. THE POSSIBILITY OF A HALT IN CONSTRUCTION AT LAGUNA VERDE WOULD BE INCONVENIENT FOR THE USG, GIVEN THE FACT THAT THE PLANT IS OF U.S. DESIGN AND WILL BE FUELED BY URANIUM ENRICHED AND FABRICATED IN THE U.S. IT WOULD ALSO DESTROY THE NUCLEAR ENERGY R&D EFFORT IN MEXICO. SUCH A HALT ALSO WOULD NOT BE CONSISTENT WITH THE USG'S SUPPORT

OF NUCLEAR POWER AS ONE MEANS FOR NATIONS--INCLUDING DEVELOPING NATIONS--TO MEET THEIR ENERGY NEEDS. MOREOVER, A LONG-TERM HALT IN STARTING UP LAGUNA VERDE MIGHT PRESENT THE USG WITH CONTRACTUAL COMPLICATIONS IF THE GOM DECIDED TO SELL ITS FUEL LOADS TO ANOTHER NATION.

10. WHILE THE EMBASSY IS CONVINCED THAT THE GOM IS COMMITTED TO BRING LAGUNA VERDE ON LINE IN A SAFE, INTERNATIONALLY ACCEPTED MANNER, AS A WORST CASE VIEW, THE EMBASSY WOULD SUGGEST IT WOULD EVEN BE WORSE FOR LONG TERM USG INTERESTS IF THE GOM WERE TO TAKE SHORT CUTS IN START-UP PROCEDURES FOR THE PLANT IN ORDER TO MEET THE POLITICAL DEADLINE OF SEPTEMBER 1987 FOR FUEL LOADING. THE ONLY WAY LAGUNA VERDE CAN BE VERY HARMFUL TO US-GOM BILATERAL RELATIONS IS IF THERE WERE A RADIATION RELEASING ACCIDENT AT THE PLANT. IF THE PLANT START-UP IS HALTED, THE VAST MAJORITY OF NEGATIVE REACTION WILL BE VISITED UPON THE GOM FOR ITS CONSTRUCTION OF A MULTI-BILLION DOLLAR WHITE ELEPHANT. WERE THERE TO BE AN ACCIDENT AT THE PLANT, LAGUNA VERDE WOULD BE RAPIDLY CONVERTED IN MEXICAN PUBLIC OPINION FROM A MEXICAN CAPITAL INVESTMENT OF UNCERTAIN VALUE TO A CLEAR CASE OF THE U.S. SUPPLYING MEXICO WITH QUOTE KILLER TECHNOLOGY ENDQUOTE. AS LONG AS THINGS GO WELL FROM A TECHNICAL AND SAFETY STANDPOINT, LAGUNA VERDE WILL REMAIN A MEXICAN PROJECT. THIS HAS BEEN THE LONG-STANDING POSITION OF THE GOM. THE POST-ACCIDENT POLITICAL TEMPTATION TO REVERSE SUCH A POSITION WOULD BE GREAT. (IT IS WORTH NOTING FOR THE RECORD THAT JUAN EIBENSHUTZ, THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CFE, ASSURED AN EMBASSY OFFICER LAST MONTH THAT NONE OF THE DELAYS AT THE PLANT WERE CAUSED BY GENERAL ELECTRIC CORP-

UNCLASSIFIED

11. THUS, IT IS THE EMBASSY'S VIEW THAT USG EFFORTS SHOULD BE LIMITED AT THIS TIME TO OFFERING ALL POSSIBLE ASSISTANCE--WHETHER OR NOT WE GET PUBLIC CREDIT--FOR THE SAFE STARTUP OF THE PLANT. IF THIS ASSISTANCE WERE ALSO TO SPEED UP GOM START-UP EFFORTS, SO MUCH THE BETTER. THE EMBASSY WOULD ADVISE STRONGLY AGAINST ANY EFFORT TO INTERVENE IN THE PUBLIC DEBATE ON LAGUNA VERDE, SINCE IT MAY BE DEEPLY INTERTWINED IN SOME SORT OF SUBTERRANEAN STRUGGLE WITHIN THE MEXICAN ELITE.

EMBASSY ACTIONS

[redacted]

12. THE EMBASSY HAS MADE CLEAR TO GOM NUCLEAR SAFETY OFFICIALS THAT IT STANDS READY TO ASSIST IN OBTAINING TECHNICAL ADVICE FROM THE USG OR OTHER SOURCES IN THE U.S. ON THE START-UP. THE GOM ALREADY HAS CLOSE CONTACT WITH NRC IN THE U.S. AND WE UNDERSTAND NRC AND THE CNSNS WILL BE SIGNING AN EXPANDED RESEARCH AGREEMENT IN THE NEAR FUTURE. THE EMBASSY HAS ALSO ENCOURAGED THE GOM TO ESTABLISH CONTACT WITH U.S. NUCLEAR FACILITIES THAT MIGHT HAVE GE BOILING WATER REACTORS SIMILAR TO LAGUNA VERDE (COMMONWEALTH EDISON'S LASALLE REACTOR BEING ONE CASE IN POINT). CNSNS IS ALSO HOSTING AN IAEA MISSION THAT IS DOING A SAFETY EXAMINATION OF THE PLANT. ONE AREA WHERE THE GOM IS HAVING DIFFICULTY IS IN ITS EFFORTS TO CALCULATE RADIATION DOSAGE RATES FOR AREAS SURROUNDING THE PLANT IN THE EVENT OF AN ACCIDENT. THE GOM IS USING NRC PROCEDURES TO UNDERTAKE THIS EFFORT, BUT LACKS ACCESS TO A SUFFICIENTLY CAPABLE COMPUTER TO RUN THE CALCULATIONS PROPERLY. THE EMBASSY WOULD GREET ANY SUGGESTION FOR A WAY TO ASSIST THE GOM IN THIS AREA.

13. A SECOND PART OF THIS REPORT WILL BE PREPARED IN SEPTEMBER NEAR THE TIME THE FIRST UNIT SHOULD BE FUELED. (DRAFTED:SCI:JDETHOMAS) PILLIOD

January 16, 1987

TO: The Secretary

FROM: ECA - Philip C. Habib

SUBJECT: My Trip to Latin America - January 12-16, 1987

I visited five Contadora and Support Group countries--Panama, Argentina, Uruguay, Brazil and Venezuela--January 12-16 on the eve of the trip to Central America by the eight Contadora Foreign Ministers plus the UN and OAS Secretaries General. In accordance with your instructions, I made clear that we maintained the diplomatic track of our policy and continued to support Contadora so long as it sought an agreement based on our criteria: comprehensiveness, verifiability and simultaneity. I underscored the need for democratic political change in Nicaragua achieved through dialogue between the Sandinistas and all elements of the opposition, including the democratic resistance. I urged the Contadora countries to listen to the Central American democracies and to call on Nicaragua to drop its cases against Costa Rica and Honduras at the International Court of Justice, as these were obstacles to further negotiations. I also asked them for their thoughts on Contadora and what they expected from their trip.

All five governments welcomed my visit as a timely demonstration that the United States still was interested in the negotiating track. They were pleased to hear that we continued to support Contadora and did not seek to substitute some new channel, as had been widely speculated in the press. None were enamored with Nicaragua, and some were even quite open about their dissatisfaction with the Sandinista regime. Nevertheless, all were critical of our policy of supporting the democratic resistance. This stems in part from a generalized apprehension about any direct or indirect use of force by the United States in Latin America. Despite their disagreement over the use of military pressure, most recognized as valid our argument that political change in Nicaragua needed to be achieved as the result of a comprehensive settlement.

The Contadora countries had no predetermined strategy for their trip, nor did they have specific ideas for follow-up measures. I believe they will listen to the four democracies and take their concerns into account. My trip may have helped to assure that they listen carefully. They will conclude their trip in Mexico, and it is likely that Mexico will push for a communique reflecting its own views. I am hopeful that as a result of our discussions and the points which I emphasized, the five Foreign Ministers will be more willing to resist Mexico's attempts to dominate the process. The participation of the two Secretaries General is an unknown factor, but I expect they will be cautious and not play an unhelpful role.

Following are short notes on each stop:

-- Panamanian Foreign Minister Abadia was the most optimistic of the five Foreign Ministers in his confidence that Contadora could remove the obstacle of Nicaragua's ICJ suits. Abadia also said that the Contadora Foreign Ministers would be willing to ask the Central Americans for their specific views on desired changes in the June draft agreement.

-- Argentine President Alfonsin and Foreign Minister Caputo doubted that progress would be made in the near term, but they wanted to preserve Contadora in the hope that someday it would be called upon for a solution. They opposed our support for the democratic resistance and feared that an escalation in Central America could trigger terrorism throughout the hemisphere, including Argentina. They pressed to find out the conditions under which we would halt our aid to the resistance; I left no doubt that we would do so only in conjunction with a political agreement that conformed with our well-known criteria.

-- Uruguayan Foreign Minister Iglesias, more than any other interlocutor, clearly recognized that the Central American democracies saw pluralism in Nicaragua as essential to regional peace. He believes that Contadora now should seek to promote democratization in Nicaragua, as well as a new dialogue between the Sandinistas and their neighbors. Iglesias expressed reluctance to resume work on the Contadora treaty; I warned that seeking a new approach could open the way for bilateral and piecemeal solutions.

-- Brazilian President Sarney was not optimistic about the prospects for a negotiated solution, but believed it important to keep Contadora alive. He acknowledged that the Sandinistas were not democratic, but he was critical of our use of military pressure. Sarney said he supported democracy, but Brazil's traditional policy of nonintervention prevented it from pressuring the Sandinistas. I sought to convince him that the 1983 Document of Objectives gave Contadora a clear mandate to promote democratic pluralism in Nicaragua.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

-- Of all my stops, I was received most warmly in Venezuela. President Lusinchi emphasized the need for political change in Nicaragua, and expressed his dislike for the Sandinistas. He did so in the presence of Foreign Minister Consalvi, who in the past has not been fully on board.

I will be travelling to the Central American democracies at the end of January to discuss the results of the Contadora trip and their thoughts on the negotiating process. In the meantime, I will visit Europe as you requested. I believe that we should maintain our support for the Contadora process, linking it, of course, to our established criteria. The Contadora process is not dead, and the Foreign Ministers' trip will likely revive its activities. I do not expect any sudden, dramatic changes as a result of this trip, as much discussion is needed before real progress is possible. In this regard, it is fortunate that we maintain the full support and understanding of Costa Rica, El Salvador and Honduras as a result of our continuing efforts at coordination and cooperation.

E.O. 12356: OADR

SUBJECT: MEETING WITH CEREZO ON POSSIBLE DEATH SQUAD RESURGENCE

REF. STATE 1958

1. ENTIRE TEXT SECRET.

2. FOLLOWING A PRIVATE DINNER JANUARY 16 AT THE RESIDENCE, I DISCUSSED WITH PRESIDENT CEREZO OUR CONCERN ABOUT POSSIBLE STATE SECURITY INVOLVEMENT IN DEATH-SQUAD ACTIVITIES (REFTEL AND PREVIOUS). I LET HIM KNOW THAT IF THESE REPORTS WERE TRUE, SUCH ACTIVITIES WOULD JEOPARDIZE OUR ABILITY TO PROVIDE ECONOMIC AND MILITARY ASSISTANCE. I ALSO TOLD HIM THAT MY GOVERNMENT HAD INSTRUCTED ME TO OFFER ALL APPROPRIATE ASSISTANCE TO ENSURE THAT THERE IS NO RESURGENCE OF THE PROBLEM. I GAVE HIM THREE SPECIFIC EXAMPLES IN WHICH THERE IS STRONG SUSPICION OF GOVERNMENT SECURITY FORCES' PARTICIPATION.

3. PRESIDENT CEREZO ADMITTED THAT IN TWO OF THE CASES: (A) THE NOVEMBER 3 KIDNAPPING OF SCHOOL TEACHER MILDA MARTINEZ; AND, (B) THE KIDNAPPING AND DISAPPEARANCE OF FISHERMEN MARIO MORALES AND MARGARITO COLLADO OFF PUERTO QUETZAL ON DECEMBER 28; THE MILITARY HAD BEEN INVOLVED AND THAT HE WAS AWARE OF BOTH CASES. HOWEVER, HE (CEREZO) HAD ALREADY TAKEN THE NECESSARY STEPS AND THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ABUSES WOULD BE PUNISHED ACCORDINGLY. HE NOTED THAT PUERTO QUETZAL NAVAL BASE COMMANDER, CAPTAIN JORGE MAZARIEGOS, ALTHOUGH NOT PERSONALLY INVOLVED IN THE ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES, WAS RESPONSIBLE BECAUSE HE HAD NOT EXERCISED CONTROL OVER HIS SUBORDINATES ACTIVITIES; CONSEQUENTLY, CEREZO SAID, HE PROBABLY WOULD REMOVE MAZARIEGOS FROM HIS COMMAND. CEREZO GAVE ME ASSURANCES THAT HE PERSONALLY HAD TAKEN THE INITIATIVE IN DEALING WITH THOSE CASES AND THAT HE HAD RECEIVED THE FULL COOPERATION OF HIGH MILITARY AUTHORITIES.

4. CEREZO FULLY AGREED THAT THESE TYPES OF ABUSES HAD TO COME TO AN END THAT HE PERSONALLY WOULD DO WHATEVER WAS NECESSARY TO STOP ANY REPETITION OF SAID ABUSES. HE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE PRESTIGE AND CREDIBILITY OF HIS PRESIDENCY WAS AT STAKE.

5. WITH RESPECT TO THE DISAPPEARANCE OF BASILIO TUISY (GUATEMALA 0511), CEREZO SAID THAT THE ARMY HAD NOT BEEN INVOLVED. THE ABDUCTION, ACCORDING TO CEREZO, WAS NOT CARRIED OUT BY THE ARMY BUT, ON THE CONTRARY, BY THE GUERRILLAS. HE SAID TUISY HAD BEEN COOPERATING WITH THE ORPA, WHICH HE PRESUMED HAD "RESCUED" TUISY.

6. COMMENT. CEREZO IS FULLY AWARE OF OUR ABILITY TO FERRET OUT EVIDENCE OF STATE SECURITY INVOLVEMENT IN HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AND OF OUR CONCERN FOR AND REJECTION OF ANY RESURGENCY. I WILL CONTINUE TO PRESS HIM ON THIS

THEY KNEW ANYTHING NEW ABOUT THE CASE. GABRIEL SUAREZ GAVE US SOME NEW INFORMATION AND CONTRADICTED INFORMATION HE GAVE IN REFTEL D. THE NEW INFORMATION IS THAT SUAREZ SAID THAT GRIFFITH DAVIS AND NICK BLAKE HAD BEEN SEEN TRAVELING TOGETHER IN 1982 AND 1984. THEY ALLEGEDLY TRAVELED BACK AND FORTH ACROSS THE BORDER AT AN ILLEGAL CROSSING POINT AT GRACIAS A DIOS, GUATEMALA, A VILLAGE ABOUT TEN MILES FROM TZISCAO. THIS ACCOUNT OF BLAKE AND DAVIS TRAVELING TOGETHER GOES AGAINST EARLIER STATEMENTS BY FAMILY AND FRIENDS THAT THE TWO HAD JUST MET ONE ANOTHER SHORTLY BEFORE THE DISAPPEARANCE. SUAREZ ALSO CONTRADICTED A PREVIOUS STATEMENT MADE IN REFTEL D, IN WHICH HE STATED THAT HE TOOK BLAKE TO A REFUGEE CAMP WHERE BLAKE CHASTISED THE INHABITANTS FOR NOT FIGHTING WITH THE GUERRILLAS. SUAREZ NOW SAYS THAT BLAKE WENT TO THE CAMP ALONE AND SUAREZ HEARD THAT BLAKE HAD CRITICIZED THE REFUGEES FOR NOT RETURNING TO GUATEMALA TO FARM AND SUPPORT THE GOVERNMENT IN ITS FIGHT AGAINST THE GUERRILLAS. SUAREZ REINFORCED THIS BY SAYING THAT IN TERMS OF GUATEMALAN POLITICS, BLAKE WAS VERY PRO-MILITARY. HE MENTIONED AGAIN BLAKE'S FRIENDSHIP WITH AN UNNAMED GUATEMALAN COLONEL WHO LIVED IN HUEHUETENANGO AND SAID THAT BLAKE SUPPORTED THE ARMY IN ITS FIGHT AGAINST THE GUERRILLAS. (COMMENT: CONOFF DOES NOT KNOW WHAT TO MAKE OF SUAREZ AS A SOURCE OF INFORMATION. HE WAS VERY RELUCTANT TO BE INTERVIEWED AND HIS STATEMENTS ARE SO UNLIKE OTHER INFORMATION RECEIVED FROM FAMILY, FRIENDS AND PREVIOUS INVESTIGATIONS THAT THEY ARE DIFFICULT TO BELIEVE. IT IS POSSIBLE THAT HE IS MAKING THE STORY UP OR CONFUSING BLAKE WITH ANOTHER PERSON. END COMMENT.)

3. MEXICAN IMMIGRATION CHIEF ELPIDIO MONTES IS IN CLOSE CONTACT WITH MANY OF THE AMERICANS AND OTHER FOREIGNERS LIVING IN SAN CRISTOBAL, BUT HE SAID HE HAD NOT HEARD ANYTHING NEW ABOUT THE CASE. OUR MAIN TOPIC OF DISCUSSION WAS THE PREVIOUSLY REPORTED SIGHTING OF GRIFFITH DAVIS IN COMITAN, CHIAPAS IN AUGUST OF 1985 (REFTEL F). IN MARCH OF 1986, AN IMMIGRATION OFFICIAL IDENTIFIED GRIFFITH DAVIS AS AN AMERICAN WHO REQUESTED A 60 DAY EXTENSION OF HIS STAY IN MEXICO. MONTES SAID THAT THE OFFICIAL WHO REPORTED THE SIGHTING WAS UNABLE TO FIND ANY DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE OF DAVIS'S VISIT TO THE OFFICE. MONTES SAID HE HAD NOT HEARD ANYTHING MORE ABOUT THIS SIGHTING SINCE THE EMBASSY'S LAST VISIT TO CHIAPAS IN 1986. HE PROMISED TO ADVISE HIS CONTACTS ON THE BORDER OF RENEWED INTEREST IN THE CASE AND SAID HE WOULD CONTACT THE EMBASSY IF HE HEARD ANYTHING NEW.

4. COMMENT: SINCE THEIR DISAPPEARANCE IN MARCH OF 1985, THERE HAVE BEEN HUNDRED SIGHTINGS OF BOTH NICK BLAKE AND GRIFFITH DAVIS IN THE STATE OF CHIAPAS. DAVIS WAS ALLEGEDLY SEEN BY AN IMMIGRATION OFFICER IN COMITAN IN AUGUST OF 1985 AND NICK BLAKE WAS ALLEGEDLY IDENTIFIED BY LUIS MALDONADO IN TZISCAO IN MARCH OF 1986. THE RECENT INVESTIGATION IN CHIAPAS PROVED THAT THE MALDONADO STORY WAS A COMPLETE FABRICATION. JOSE RIVERA MALDONADO APPARENTLY HEARD ABOUT THE CASE IN GUATEMALA CITY, AND WHAT BEGAN AS A LEGITIMATE ATTEMPT TO LOOK FOR BLAKE TURNED INTO A PLAN TO EXACT MONEY FROM THE BLAKE FAMILY. THE SIGHTING OF DAVIS IN COMITAN REMAINS AN ALLEGED SIGHTING; NO FIRM EVIDENCE HAS BEEN UNEARTHED TO SUBSTANTIATE THE CLAIM. GIVEN THE NUMBER OF AMERICANS THAT THIS IMMIGRATION OFFICER PROBABLY SEES ON A WEEKLY BASIS, AND OUTSIDE OF ANY DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE, THIS SIGHTING SHOULD BE GIVEN LITTLE CREDENCE.

A.1. STATUS OF ILLICIT NARCOTICS PRODUCTION AND TRAFFICKING

1. JAMAICA IS A MAJOR SUPPLIER OF MARIJUANA (LOCALLY KNOWN AS GANJA) TO THE UNITED STATES, CANADA AND EUROPE. COLOMBIA, MEXICO, AKD BELIZE LEAD JAMAICA IN TERMS OF THE AMOUNT OF MARIJUANA EXPORTED TO THE U.S. MARIJUANA PRODUCTION IN JAMAICA IS ON THE INCREASE BECAUSE MAJOR TRAFFICKERS NEED MORE ACREAGE

TO MAKE UP LOSSES TO THE ERADICATION PROGRAM. GANJA IS GROWN YEAR-ROUND AND ISLAND WIDE, AND IS HARVESTED IN TWO MAIN SEASONS (5-6 MONTH CYCLES) EACH YEAR, WITH YIELDS OF ABOUT 675 KILOS PER HECTARE. THE SPRING HARVEST (FEB-APRIL) IS USUALLY ABOUT 50 PERCENT SMALLER THAN THE FALL HARVEST (OCT-DEC).

2. MOST OF THE MARIJUANA GROWN BY THE INDEPENDENT SMALL FARMER IS FOUND IN PLOTS OF ONE ACRE OF LESS. MORE OR ANIZED LARGE-SCALE CULTIVATION TAKES PLACE IN THE WESTERN PARISHES WHERE AREAS UP
O 40-60 ACRES HAVE BEEN OBSERVED. CULTIVATION TYPICALLY BEGINS IN NURSERIES WHERE SEEDLINGS ARE GERMINATED AND THEN REPLANTED ABOUT TWO FEET APART IN PREPARED FIELDS. IN THE SMALLER PLOTS, THERE IS SOMETIMES EVIDENCE OF INTERCROPPING WITH FOOD CROPS. HOWEVER, THE LARGER FIELDS GROWN FOR EXPORT DO NOT SHOW INTERCROPPING. FARMERS AND TENDERS OFTEN LIVE IN SMALL HUTS GN THE EDGE OF THE FIELD. THE MAJOR THREATS DURING THE FIVE-MONTH MATURING CYCLE ARE FROM INSECTS, BIRDS, THEFT AND GOVERNMENT ERADICATION TEAMS.

3. BECAUSE FARMERS STAGGER MARIJUANA CULTIVATION, AT ANY GIVEN TIME OF THE YEAR A PORTION OF THE MARIJUANA CROP IS IMMATURE, SOME IS HARVEST READY, SOME HAS BEEN STOCKPILED FOR AXPORT, AND SOME IS DISTRIBUTED FOR LOCAL USE. MARIJUANA CULTIVATION TAKES ADVANTAGE OF SEASONAL RAINFALL PATTERNS AND THE PEAK FALL HARVEST ALSO GENERATES THE MOST INTENSIVE PERIOD OF TRAFFICKING ACTIVITY. SMALLER AMOUNTS OF JAMAICAN MARIJUANA ARE CONSTANTLY BEING SMUGGLED OUT OF THE COUNTRY AT NON-PEAK SEASONS. JAMAICA MAY SUPPLY 10-15 PERCENT OF THE

MARIJUANA IMPORTED INTO THE UNITED STATES.

4. JAMAICAN MARIJUANA FARMERS GROW BOTH COMMERCIAL (WITH SEEDS) AND SINSEMILLA (WITHOUT SEEDS) VARIETIES OF MARIJUANA. THE LATTER IS MORE DESIRABLE AND EXPENSIVE IN EXPORT MARKETS LIKE THE U.S. HOWEVER, JAMAICA IS DIFFERENT FROM OTHER MARIJUANA PRODUCERS IN THE HEMISPHERE. IT HAS A SIGNIFICANT POPULATION OF LOCAL USERS, PRODUCES AND EXPORTS HASHISH OIL, AND HAS BEEN USED AS A TRANSSHIPMENT POINT FOR COLOMBIAN MARIJUANA AND COCAINE. IN PAST YEARS, HASH OIL PROCESSING ACCOUNTED FOR ONLY A SMALL FRACTION OF JAMAICA'S ILLICIT NARCOTICS EXPORTS. MORE HASH OIL WAS PRODUCED

IN 1986 AS A REACTION TO THE GOVERNMENT'S INTENSIFIED AND MORE EFFECTIVE ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION ACTIVITIES. HASH OIL IS LESS BULKY AND EASIER TO CONCEAL THAN MARIJUANA COMPRESSED INTO BALES OF 10 TO 60 POUNDS AND EXPORTED IN SHIPMENTS OF 200 TO 2,000 POUNDS. AN ESTIMATED 700 TONS OF MARIJUANA CAN BE PROCESSED INTO AS MUCH AS 1,000 POUNDS OF HASHISH AND HASH OIL. THE EXPORT PRICE FOR HASH OIL INCREASED IN 1986.

5. MARIJUANA CULTIVATION IS POSSIBLE THROUGHOUT JAMAICA BUT IS CONCENTRATED IN THE WESTERN AND CENTRAL PORTIONS OF THE ISLAND. THE WESTERN PARISHES OF WESTMORELAND, O. ELIZABETH, HANOVER, AND ST. JAMES,
ALONG WITH THE CENTRAL PARISHES OF ST. ANN, ST. MARY, CLARENDON, AND ST. CATHERINE ARE PRIME MARIJUANA GROWING AREAS. THE EASTERN PARISHES OF ST. THOMAS AND PORTLAND HAVE IN THE PAST ALSO BEEN SIGNIFICANT MARIJUANA PRODUCING AREAS, BUT RECENT SURVEYS SUGGEST THAT THE EASTERN

MARIJUANA HARVESTING AND SMUGGLING TECHNIQUES

7. THE EXPORT PRICE FOR JAMAICAN MARIJUANA IS $150 PER POUND FOR COMMERCIAL AND $300 PER POUND FOR SINSEMILLA. JAMAICAN MARIJUANA IS HAND HARVESTED BY LOCAL FARMERS AND THEIR PAID WORKERS. SOME FARMERS PREFER TO HARVEST THEIR OWN CROP AND DEAL DIRECTLY WITH SMUGGLERS RATHER THAN GOING THROUGH LOCAL MIDDLEMEN. THE MARIJUANA IS USUALLY DRIED AND CURED IN RUDIMENTARY SHEDS NEAR THE FIELD, CLEANED, AND PACKED FOR EXPORT IN PLASTIC-BURLAP-WRAPPED BUNDLES OF 10-60 POUNDS EACH. MUCH OF THE MARIJUANA SMUGGLED INTO THE U.S. LEAVES JAMAICA IN SMALL ONE- OR TWO-ENGINE LIGHT AIRCRAFT. MOST OF THESE AIRCRAFT HAVE U.S. REGISTRATIONS, THOUGH SOME ARE REGISTERED IN JAMAICA OR OTHER COUNTRIES IN THE REGION.

9. JAMAICA'S LOCATION IS LESS ADVANTAGEOUS FOR SEA-BASED MARIJUANA SMUGGLERS. BOATS TAKING MARIJUANA FROM JAMAICA HAVE TO SKIRT THE SAME CHOKE POINTS -- THE YUCATAN CHANNEL AND THE WINDWARD PASSAGE -- AS SMUGGLERS COMING FROM COLOMBIA AND OFTEN RISK BEING SNARED IN THE U.S. INTERDICTION GAUNTLET. MARITIME TRAFFICKERS USUALLY USE PLEASURE BOATS OF UP TO 100 AEET AND PLY THE NORTH CENTRAL AND WESTERN COASTS OF JAMAICA WHERE THEY ANCHOR IN A MARINA, NATURAL HARBOR, OR ARE MET AT SEA BY FISHING BOATS FERRYING MARIJUANA CARGOES. COMMERCIAL FREIGHTERS AND MOTHERSHIPS ARE NOT AS COMMONLY USED IN JAMAICA NARCOTICS SMUGGLING AS IN SOME OTHER COUNTRIES. CURRENT TRENDS SUGGEST THAT SEABORNE TRAFFICKERS ARE USING PLEASURE CRAFT WITH CLEVERLY CONCEALED STORAGE COMPARTMENTS CARRYING RELATIVELY SMALL QUANTITIES (100-1,000 POUNDS) OF MARIJUANA.

10. COURIERS WHO ATTEMPT TO CARRY OUT MARIJUANA ON THEIR BODIES OR IN THEIR LUGGAGE ABOARD COMMERCIAL AIRLINERS A

E A GROWING PROBLEM. ARRESTS OF SUCH
COURIERS, MANY OF WHOM ARE AMERICANS, ARE A NEAR-DAILY OCCURRENCE. MANY OF THE 3,105 PEOPLE ARRESTED IN

VAST MAJORITY OF THEM WERE DRUG COURIERS. SMALL QUANTITIES OF MARIJUANA (2-5 POUNDS) ARE USUALLY SEIZED FROM COURIERS, EVEN THOUGH UP TO 250 POUNDS OF MARIJUANA HAS BEEN FOUND IN LUGGAGE OR OTHER FREIGHT. THE SAME COURIER METHOD IS USED TO SMUGGLE HASH OIL FROM JAMAICA. COCAINE IS ALSO SMUGGLED OUT BY COURIER OR TRANSSHIPPED BY AIR OR PLEASURE BOAT. MARIJUANA IS ALSO INCREASINGLY BEING DISCOVERED HIDDEN IN CONTAINERIZED CARGO SHIPMENTS OR DISGUISED AS LEGITIMATE EXPORT PRODUCTS. THIS PATTERN OF WIDESPREAD NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING THREATENS JAMAICA'S INTERNATIONAL TRANSPORT LINKS. AIRLINES AND SHIPPING LINES ARE BECOMING [redacted]

[redacted]

INCREASINGLY CONCERNED ABOUT BECOMING UNWITTINGLY INVOLVED IN SMUGGLING AND SOME ARE CONSIDERING REDUCING SERVICE. IN DECEMBER, EASTERN AIRLINES TERMINATED ALL CARGO SERVICE OUT OF JAMAICA AFTER BEING FINED HEAVILY FOR MARIJUANA FOUND ABOARD ONE OF ITS FLIGHTS TO THE U.S. THE U.S. CUSTOMS SERVICE ALSO QAS LEVIED HEAVY FINES ON AIR JAMAICA AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL AIRLINES AND SHIPPING LINES AS A RESULT OF SIZEABLE DISCOVERIES OF JAMAICAN MARIJUANA ON THEIR VESSELS AT U.S. PORTS OF ENTRY.

TRADITIONAL MARIJUANA USE

11. MARIJUANA IS NOT NATIVE TO JAMAICA, BUT CAME WITH INDIAN INDENTKRED SERVANTS IN THE 19TH CENTURY. ITS LOCAL USE GREW SLOWLY, AND WAS INTEGRATED INTO THE RITUALS OF THE RASTAFARIANSAN A JAMAICAN RELIGIOUS GROUP, AFTER THE 1930S. THE "RASTAS" CONSIDER MARIJUANA TO BE A "SACRAMENTAL HERB," AND IT IS SMOKED IN THEIR RELIGIOUS CEREMONIES. THOUSANDS OF JAMAICANS DRINK GANJA TEA AS A CURE-ALL, AND MIX IT WITH WHITE RUM AS A TONIC. OTHERS STEAM AND EAT IT AS A VEGETABLE OR ADD IT TO THE INGREDIENTS OF PASTRIES AND CAKES. AT PUBLIC EVENTS, MARIJUANA SMOKING IS OFTEN EVIDENT.

12. RECENT FIELD SURVEYS DONE IN COLLABORATION WITH THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH INDICATE THAT ONE OF FIVE JAMAICAN YOUTHS IS A REGULAR USER OF MARIJUANA; WHILE MORE THAN HALF OF THE ADULT POPULATION HAS SMOKED THE HERB. THESE SURVEYS SUGGEST THAT COCAINE USE IS FOR NOW MARGINAL, BUT IS INCREASING, ESPECIALLY AMONG THE MORE AFFLUENT. SMALL QUANTITIES OF "CRACK" HAVE BEEN [redacted]

[redacted]

REPORTED, BUT IT IS NOT YET READILY AVAILABLE TO LOCAL CONSUMERS. HASHISH AND HASH OIL ARE PRODUCED PRIMARILY FOR EXPORT.

PROFILE OF THE TRAFFICKER ORGANIZATIONS

---

13. THOUGH NO TRULY ACCURATE FIGURES ARE AVAILABLE, THE JAMAICAN MARIJUANA INDUSTRY MAY GENERATE AS MUCH AS $1 BILLION PER YEAR, WITH ABOUT $200 - 300 MILLION REMAINING IN JAMAICA. MARIJUANA PRODUCTION IN 1986 EXCEEDED THAT FOR 1985, BUT WAS SIGNIFICANTLY REDUCED IN EXPORTABLE YIELD BY THE GOVERNMENT'S ERADICATION/ INTERDICTION CAMPAIGN, CODE NAMED "OPERATION BUCCANEER." THE SUSPECTED LEADERS OF THE GANJA TRADE INCLUDE DOCTORS, LAWYERS, POLITICIANS, AND EVEN SOME POLICE AND SOLDIERS WHO PROVIDE FINANCING FOR SEEDF, FOOD SUPPLIES AND WAGES FOR WORKERS, INSECTICIDES AND FERTILIZERS, SECURITY AND PROTECTION, AND TRANSSHIPMENT EXPENSES. THEY REAP LARGE PROFITS ON THEIR INVESTMENT.

14. THOUSANDS OF JAMAICANS ARE DIRECTLY AND INDIRECTLY INVOLVED IN MARIJUANA CULTIVATION, DISTRIBUTION, AND MARKETING -- AS FARMERS, FARM WORKERS, GUARDS, DRIVERS, RUNNERS, SUPPLIERS, MIDDLE MEN, AND MINOR TO MAJOR GANJA TRAFFICKERS. THOUSANDS MORE BENEFIT DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY FROM THE INCOME GENERATED BY THE TRADE. MOST OF THE GROWERS AND TRAFFICKERS ARE INDEPENDENTS. MOST OF THE WORKERS ARE ATTRACTED BY THE HIGHER WAGES OFFERED. LARGER, INDEPENDENT TRAFFICKER ORGANIZATIONS IDENTIFIED WITH THE MAJOR "GANJA BARONS" DOMINATE THE BUSINESS BY FACILITATING HIGH-VOLUME SHIPMENTS. THEY OFTEN POSE AS BENEFACTORS TO RURAL COMMUNITIES, ASSIST

POLITICAL ISSUES IN JAMAICA. PRIME MINISTER EDWARD SEAGA AND HIS JAMAICA LABOR PARTY (JLP), WHICH FORMS THE GOVERNMENT, IS COOPERATING WITH THE UNITED STATES IN WAGING AN INCREASINGLY EFFECTIVE MARIJUANA ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION CAMPAIGN, USING THE JAMAICA DEFENSE FORCE (JDF) AND THE JAMAICA CONSTABULARY FORCE (JCF - POLICE). "OPERATION BUCCANEER II" COVERED THE PERIOD SEPTEMBER 1985-APRIL 1986, AND "BUCCANEER III" COVERS THE PERIOD SEPTEMBER 1986-AVRIL 1987, IN ORDER TO ERADICATE AND INTERDICT A SIGNIFICANT PORTION OF THE HARMEST FOR FALL 1985, SPRING 1986, FALL 1986, AND SPRING 1987. THE CURRENT SITUATION CONTRASTS SHARPLY WITH THE GOVERNMENT'S RELUCTANCE TO INITIATE A MAJOR CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE MARIJUANA INDUSTRY IN THE EARLY 1980S. THE ISSUES FTR THE GOVERNMENT INCLUDE:

- --DRUGS AS ANLAW AND ORDER PROBLEM: LOSS OF GOVERNMENT AUTHORITY IN MARIJUANA GROWING AREAS; CORRUPTION OF PUBLIC OFFICIALS ANZ THE SECURITY FORCES RESPONSIBLE FOR ENFORCEMENT; TIE-INS WITH COMMON CRIME AND POLITICAL GANG VIOLENCE; RESULTANT LOSS OF RESPECT FOR LAW AND ORDER.

- # --DRUGS AS A NATIONAL SECURITY PROBLEM: LINKAGE TO EXTREMIST GROUPS; TIE-IN WITH FOREIGN CRIMINAL TRAFFICKING ORGANIZATIONS; UNCONTROLLED LANDING OF AIRCRAFT INVOLVED IN DRUG TRAFFICKING AND GUN RUNNING.

- --DRUGS AS AN ECONOMIC PROBLEM: PREEMPTION OF PRODUCTIVITY BY THE GROWTH OF AN UNDERGROUND GANJA ECONOMY; FOREIGN EXCHANGE LEAKAGE DUE TO HARD CURRENCY SMUGGLING AND LAUNDERING; DIVERSION FROM LEGITIMATE

[redacted] UNCLASSIFIED [redacted]

LAND USE; ENVIRONMENTAL DESTRUCTION.

- --DRUGS AS A SOCIETAL PROBLEM: CORRUPTION OF YOUTH; ADVERSE IMPACT ON COMMUNITY AND INSTITUTIONAL VALUES; INCREASE RISK OF EXPANDING LOCAL USE AND DRUG DEPENDENCY.

- --DRUGS AS A FOREIGN POLICY PROBLEM; EFFECT OF DRUG TRAFFICKING ON FOREIGN AID FROM THE U.S. AND OTHER DONORS; CBI CRITERIA; RISK TO JAMAICAN LEGITIMATE EXPORTS AND INTERNATIONAL PASSENGER AND CARGO AIR AND SHIPPING LINKS.

16. THE PRIME MINISTER HAS ACKNOWLEDGED THAT JAMAICA IS A PRIME TARGET FOR LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL TRAFFICKING ORGANIZATIONS. JAMAICA'S GOOD GROWING CLIMATE, LOCATION, LONG COASTLINE, NUMEROUS AIRSTRIPS, AND MODEST LAW ENFORCEMENT CAPABILITIES MAKE IT IDEAL FOR DRUG TRAFFICKERS. JAMAICA HAS NO ISLAND-WIDE RADAR, NO PURSUIT AIRCRAFT, A SMALL COAST GUARD WITH FOUR OPERATING BOATS, A SMALL PROFESSIONAL ARMY AND AIR WING, AND AN UNDERPAID, ILL-EQUIPPED POLICE FORCE.

17. THE NARCOTICS ISSUE IS ALSO A POLITICAL FOOTBALL. BOTH MAJOR PARTIES HAVE BEEN ACCUSING EACH OTHER OF SUPPORTING OR BENEFITTING FROM THE GANJA INDUSTRY. THERE ARE ALSO THOSE WHO PROMOTE THE LEGALIZATION OR DECRIMINAL-IZATION OF MARIJUANA, "THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND," AND THERE IS SIGNIFICANT SUPPORT FOR THIS IDEA AMONG THE POPULACE. MANY JAMAICANS ARGUE THAT THE MARIJUANA TRADE S AN AMERICAN PROBLEM, NOT A JAMAICAN PROBLEM. THEY ARGUE THAT IT IS THE U.S. CONSUMER'S GREAT DEMAND FOR JAMAICAN MARIJUACA WHICH PROVIDES A POWERFUL INCENTIVE FOR FARMERS TO GROW MARIJUANA FOR EXPORT TO THE UNITED STATES.

18. THE VARIOUS INTEREST GROUPS THAT SPEAK ON NARCOTICS ISSUES OFTEN ALIGN THEMSELVES WITH ONE OR THE OTHER MAJOR POLITICAL PARTY AND SIGNIFICANTLY INFLUENCE THE LOCAL DEBATE. THE GOVERN
MENT, THE POLITICAL OPPOSITION, LOCAL NEWSPAPERS, THE INDEPENDENT RADIO STATIONS AND THE GOVERNMENT-OWNED TELEVISION NETWORK ALL HAVE COME OUT STRONGLY AGAINST NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING JND INFAVOR OF ERADICATING AND INTERDICTING MARIJUANA. THERE IS WIDESPREAD CONCERN ABOUT THE GROWING THREAT OF HARD DRUGS BEING TRANSSHIPPED AND CONSUMED IN JAMAICA. THERE

[redacted]

IS ALSO CONCERN ABOUT THE RISK OF INCREASED LOCAL USE OF NARCOTICS, ESPECIALLY AMONG SCHOOL CHILDREN.

ECONOMIC CONSIDERATIONS AFFECTING NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING

19. THE GOVERNMENT IS UNDERTAKING A POLITICALLY AND ECONOMICALLY DIFFICULT STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT PROGRAM THAT MAY, OVER THE MEDIUM TERM, REVERSE THE DOWNWARD DRIFT IN REAL INCOMES. INFLATION AND UNEMPLOYMENT ARE CURRENTLY ESTIMATED AT 13 PERCENT AND 25 PERCENT RESPECTIVELY. THE JAMAICAN FISCAL YEAR ENDING MARCH 1987, IS EXPECTED TO SHOW A REAL INCREASE IN GDP OF 2 PERCENT, WHICH IS A REVERSAL OF THE REAL DECLINE OF 4 PERCENT THE PREVIOUS YEAR. U.S. ASSISTANCE WILL EASE THE TRANSITION, AND ENABLE THE GOVERNMENT TO ADDRESS ISSUES SUCH AS NARCOTICS ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION.

20. THE MOTIVATION FOR MANY JAMAICANS TO INVOLVE THEMSELVES IN THE NARCOTICS TRADE STEMS FROM ECONOMIC HARDSHIP AND THE PROMISE OF QUICK PROFITS. UNEMPLOYMENT, LOW WAGES, LACK OF JOB ALTERNATIVES, AND MODEST EDUCATIONAL LEVELS, MAKE THE TEMPTATION TO GET RICH QUICK WITH GANJA ALLURING, IN SPITE OF THE ILLEGALITY. "GANJA BARONS" CONTROL THE INDUSTRY AND DEAL THROUGH MIDDLEMEN WITH A NETWORK OF FARMERS. IT IS DIFFICULT TO TRACK HOW MUCH MONEY FLOWS INTO JAMAICA AS A RESULT OF THE MARIJUANA TRADE. THERE IS SUSPICION THAT THE LARGEST SHARE OF THE PROFITS FROM SALES TO OVERSEAS BUYERS NEVER RETURNS TO JAMAICA BUT IS MOST LIKELY DEPOSITED IN INTERNATIONAL BANKING SAFE HAVENS OR IS PLACED IN LEGITIMATE OVERSEAS INVESTMENTS.

[redacted]

PAGE 03 KINGST 00621 05 OF 16 230730Z

HOWEVER,
THE ILLICIT NATURE OF THE ENTERPRISE MEANS THAT ACCURATE DATA ARE NOT AVAILABLE.

21. MARIJUANA FARMERS, MIDDLEMEN, TRAFFICKERS, AND THOSE WMO BENEFIT DIRECTLY FROM THE GANJA TRADE ARE SENSITIVE TO GOVERNMENT INITIATIVES WHICH MAY THREATEN THE TRADE. THEY HAVE, IN TURN, THREATENED TO RETALIATE AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT'S ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION EFFORTS AND AGAINST THE U.S. GOVERNMENT, ALTHOUGH TO

DATE THEY HAVE DONE,
OTHER THAN ISOLATED,
INEFFECTIVE ATTEMPTS TO SABOTAGE CANE FIELDS IN WESTERN JAMAICA.

22. THE "GANJA LOBBY" IS THE TERM USED TO DESCRIBE INDIVIDUALS AND GROUPS WITH A VESTED INTEREST IN THE TRADE AND WHO ATTEMPT TO INFLUENCE GOVERNMENT POLICY. MEMBERSHIP IN THE GANJA LOBBY IS DIVERSE AND CONSISTS OF A VARIETY OF MARIJUANA TRAFFICKERS, SOME POLITICIANS, SELECTED BUSINESSMEN
WHO USE MARIJUANA-RELATED BLACK MARKET SYSTEMS TO IMPORT CONTRABAND AND OTHER GOODS, SOME MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY FORCES WHO HAVE SUCCUMBED TO INFLUENCES OF BRIBES AND CORRUPTION, A RELIGIOUS GROUP WHICH CONSIDERS MARIJUANA THE "WEED OF WISDOM"
AND THE "SACRED HERB," SOME MEMBERS OF THE RADICAL POLITICAL LEFT WHO ARE BELIEVED TO FINANCE SOME OF THEIR ACTIVITIES FROM THE MARIJUANA TRADE, AND A FEW INFLUENTIAL JAMAICANS WHO, ALTHOUGH NOT PROFITING DIRECTLY FROM MARIJUANA, BELIEVE THE MARIJUANA TRADE IS IN JAMAICA'S BEST INTEREST GIVEN THE COUNTRY'S WEAK ECONOMY. THIS LATTER GROUP ARGUES THAT MARIJUANA CULTIVATION SHORES UP THE OTHERWISE DEPRESSED AGRICULTURAL SECTOR WHERE DEPENDENCE ON THE ILLICIT CROP HAS BEEN INCREASING.

U.S. GOVERNMENT INTERESTS AND ASSISTANCE

23. A HIGH PRIORITY FOR THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IN JAMAICA IS THE EXPANSION OF COOPERATIVE PROGRAMS DESIGNED TO ELIMINATE MARIJUANA PRODUCTION AND TRAFFICKING. THE SUPPORTIVE ROLE PLAYED BY THE UNITED STATES IS SIGNIFICANT; ESSENTIALLY, WE PROVIDE THE ONLY INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL AND OTHER SUPPORT JAMAICA [redacted]

RECEIVES FOR THE ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION EFFORT. U.S. GOVERNMENT SUPPORT TO JAMAICA FOR THIS PURPOSE INCLUDES:

- --AN INM-FUNDED MAINTENANCE PROGRAM FOR THE JDF HELICOPTER FLEET.

- --OPERATIONAL PLANNING AND FUNDING SUPPORT FOR THE "OPERATION BUCCANEER" ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION PROGRAM TO LIMIT TO THE GREATEST EXTENT POSSIBLE THE AMOUNT OF MARIJUANA AVAILABLE FOR EXPORT TO THE UNITED STATES.

- --ASSISTING JAMAICA'S CONTINUING PROGRAM OF DESTROYING ILLEGAL AIRSTRIPS TO RENDER THEM INOPERABLE FOR NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING.

- --ASSISTING WITH THE ACQUISITION OF MATERIEL AND EQUIPMENT FOR MARIJUANA ERADICATION, INCLUDING LEASED HELICOPTERS, MOTORIZED BRUSH CUTTERS, AVIATION AND MARITIME FUEL, AND COMMUNICATIONS EQUIPMENT.

- --PROMOTING CLOSE COOPERATION AND COORDINATION BETWEEN JAMAICA AND THE UNITED STATES ON NARCOTICS-RELATED LAW ENFORCEMENT MATTERS OF MUTUAL INTEREST.

- --ENCOURAGING AGGRESSIVE PROSECUTION OF DRUG TRAFFICKERS AND IMPOSITION OF STIFFER PENALTIES.

- --PROVIDING TRAINING TO JAMAICAN OFFICIALS IN THE AREAS OF ASSETS SEIZURE AND FORFEITURE, ASSETS IDENTIFICATION, AND TECHNIQUES FOR TRACING LAUNDERING OF NARCOTICS PROFITS.

[redacted]

[redacted]

- --PROVIDING TRAINING ASSISTANCE TO JCF, JDF, COAST GUARD, CUSTOMS AND EXCISE OFFICERS INVOLVED IN CONTRABAND IDENTIFICATION AND ENFORCEMENT.

- --CONTINUING TO SUPPORT THE JAMAICA'S DRUG USE AWARENESS AND EDUCATION CAMPAIGN.

JAMAICAN ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN NARCOTICS CONTROL

24. THE JAMAICAN GOVERNMENT HAS SIGNIFICANTLY INCREASED ITS COMMITMENT TO THE ERADICATION OF MARIJUANA AND THE INTERDICTION OF MARIJUANA TRAFFICKING. AND THE U.S. GOVERNMENT HAS INCREASED ITS FUNDING SUPPORT IN KIND. U.S. FUNDING SUPPORT SHOWED A RAPID INCREASESFROM $49,000 IN FY 1984, TO $430,000 IN FY 1985, AND $1,521,000 IN FY 1986. THE PROJECTED INM BUDGET FOR JAMAICA IN FY 1987 IS $2.4 MILLION. SINCE FEBRUARY 1985, THE JAMAICAN GOVERNMENT HAS SIGNED 16 LETTERS OF AGREEMENT WITH THE UNITED STATES ON NARCOTICS CONTROL MATTERS AND HAS ALSO DEMONSTRATED THE ABILITY TO USE THIS FUNDING SUPPORT EFFECTIVELY.

25. THE STRUCTURE OF THE JAMAICA'S ERADICATION EFFORT FOCUSES ON PRIME MINISTER SEAGA. THE PRIME MINISTER ESTABLISHES POLICY AND GIVES DIRECTION TO THE MINISTRIES AND AGENCIES INVOLVED IN THE ERADICATION/INTERDICTION CAMPAIGN. THE MINISTER OF NATIONAL SECURITY HAS OVERALL RESPONSIBILITY FOR "OPERATION BUCCANEER" AND THE CHIEF

OF STAFF OF THE JDF, WORKING IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE POLICE COMMISSIONER AND THE JCF HIGH COMMAND, PROVIDES OPERATIONAL LEADERSHIP AND CONTROL FOR THE ERADICATION

AND INTERDICTION FORCES.

26. DURING THE PERIOD SEPTEMBER - DECEMBER 1986, THE JDF HAD 64 TROOPERS DEPLOYED FULL TIME DIVIDED INTO THREE CUTTING TEAMS INVOLVED IN ERADICATION ACTIVITIES WITH LEASED HELICOPTER SUPPORT IN THE WEST, AND ONE TEAM IN ST. ANN PARISH, ALL IN SUPPORT OF "BUCCANEER III.", AT THE SAME TIME, THE JCF NARCOTICS UNIT HAD 30 POLICE OFFICERS AND 80 CIVILIAN WORKERS ENGAGED IN [redacted]

ERADICATION FOR "BUCCANEER III." DISTRICT CONSTABULARY PRECINCTS ALSO PERFORM ANTI-NARCOTICS ROLES IN THEIR LOCAL JURISDICTIONS. THE JDF AND JCF ARE ENGAGED IN MECHANICAL ERADICATION USING U.S.-SUPPLIED MOTORIZED BRUSH CUTTERS. THE U.S. SUPPORTS JAMAICA'S ERADICATION/ INTERDICTION CAMPAIGN WITH ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT, OPERATIONAL SUPPORT FUNDS, AIRCRAFT AND COAST GUARD VESSEL MAINTENANCE AND SPARE PARTS, EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES. THE U.S., THROUGH I.N.M., FINANCED THE LEASE BY THE JDF OF TWO BELL 212 HELICOPTERS FROM A U.S. CONTRACTOR TO SUPPORT ERADICATION OPERATIONS. THE HELICOPTERS HAVE BEEN USED TO INSERT ERADICATION TEAMS IN HARD-TO-REACH GROWING AREAS AS WELL AS TO PROVIDE AERIAL RECONNAISSANCE AND TRANSPORT FOR JOINT POLICE/ ARMY SEARCH-AND-DEST
ROY RAIDING TEAMS. THE JDF COAST GUARD PLAYS AN INDEPENDENT MARITIME INTERDICTION ROLE IN ADDITION TO PARTICIPATING IN REGIONAL "HAT TRICK III" OPERATIONS.

27. CALENDAR YEAR 1986 ENCOMPASSED THE SECOND HALF OF "BUCCANEER II" (JAN - MAR) AND THE FIRST HALF OF "BUCCANEER III" (SEP - DEC). IN THIS PERIOD, A TOTAL OF:

- HECTARES OF MARIJUANA WERE ERADICATED
- METRIC TONS OF MARIJUANA WERE SEIZED OR DESTROYED
- PLANTS OR SEEDLINGS WERE DESTROYED
- METRIC TONS OF COCAINE WERE SEIZED OR DESTROYED

[redacted]

UNCLASSIFIED

-		METRIC TONS OF HASH OIL WERE SEIZED OR DESTROYED
-		OTHER NARCOTICS WERE SEIZED OR DESTROYED
-	5	AIRCRAFT WERE SIEZED
-	13	AIRCRAFT CRASH LANDED
-	8	BOATS WERE SEIZED
-	17	VEHICLES SEIZED
-		RADIOS OR COMMUNICATIONS EQUIPMENT SIEZED
-	3105	PERSONS ARRESTED FOR NARCOTICS OFFENSES

THESE PERFORMANCE LEVELS COMPARE FAVORABLY WITH THE PREVIOUS YEARS. (REFER TO TABLES IN C.1 FOR COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS.)

28. THIS WAS A CRUCIAL YEAR FOR JAMAICA'S MARIJUANA ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION PROGRAMOM THE PROBLEM HAS GROWN IN SCOPE AND COMPLEXITY AND THE GOVERNMENT'S EFFORTS HAVE SHOWN GREATER POLICY-ORIENTED AND OPERATIONAL PERFORMANCE RESULTS THAN IN ANY PREVIOUS YEAR. HIGHLIGHTING THESE ACCOMPLISHMENTS, THE JAMAICAN GOVERNMENT IN 1986:

- --MADE A POLICY COMMITMENT TO MOVE FORWARD WITH A HERBICIDAL ERADICATION PROGRAM FOR MARIJUANA USING

- --LEASED WITH INM FUNDS TWO BELL 212 HELICOPTERS FROM A U.S. CONTRACTOR TO SUPPORT "BUCCANEER III."

- --INTENSIFIED THE CAMPAIGN TO DESTROY ILLEGAL AIRSTRIPS AND KEEP THEM INOPERABLE.

OBSTACLES TO OVERCOME FOR ENHANCED NARCOTICS CONTROL

29. THE JAMAICAN GOVERNMENT IS MAKING A MAJOR EFFORT TO ELIMINATE NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING, AND THE CAMPAIGN NOW UNDERWAY IS THE LARGEST EVER MOUNTED IN THE COUNTRY. NEVERTHELESS, THERE ARE SOME SERIOUS HANDICAPS. AMONG THE OBSTACLES ARE A LACK OF BUDGETARY RESOURCES TO SUSTAIN AN EFFECTIVE CAMPAIGN N ITS OWN, A LACK OF SUFFICIENT EXPERTISE TO WAGE A LONG-TERM ERADICATION

WITHOUT U.S. ASSISTANCE, THE JAMAICAN GOVERNMENT WOULD BE ABLE TO MOUNT ONLY A FAR MORE MODEST EFFORT TO CONTROL MARIJUANA CULTIVATION AND TRAFFICKING.

32. INTERNATIONAL NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT: JAMAICA IS

SIGNATORY TO THE SINGLE CONVENTION ON NARCOTIC DRUGS. IT SUPPORTS CALLS IN THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY, THE COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS, THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES, THE NON-ALIGNED MOVEMENT, CARICOM AND OTHER FORA FOR COOPERATION AMONG NATIONS TO ELIMINATE TRAFFICKING IN NARCOTICS. JAMAICA IS A MEMBER OF INTERPOL AND PARTICIPATES IN CONFERENCES AND INFORMATION SHARING
ON INTERNATIONAL NARCOTICS CRIMINAL ACTIVITY. USDEA HAS AN OFFICE IN JAMAICA AND WORKS CLOSELY WITH JAMAICAN COUNTERPARTS ON ISSUES OF MUTUAL INTEREST. JAMAICA IS MOVING TO FINALIZE A NEW U.S.-JAMAICA EXTRADITION TREATY, AND DISCUSSIONS ARE CONTINUING ON A BILATERAL MUTUAL LEGAL ASSISTANCE TREATY. JAMAICA ALSO PARTICIPATES IN A U.S.-SUPPORTED NATIONAL NARCOTICS CONTROL PROGRAM (OPERATION BUCCANEER), AND PARTICIPATES IN ONGOING "OPERATION HAT TRICK" REGIONAL MARITIME INTERDICTION

33. THE PRIME MINISTER PROVIDES OVERALL LEADERSHIP FOR JAMAICA'S NARCOTICS CONTROL PROGRAM. WORKING CLOSELY WITH HIM IN HIS ROLE OF P.M. AND MINISTER OF FINANCE ARE THE MINISTERS OF JUSTICE, NATIONAL SECURITY, AND PUBLIC UTILITIES AND TRANSPORT. THE MINISTER OF NATIONAL SECURITY HAS RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE GOVERNMENT'S EFFORT, AND THE CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE JDF HAS OPERATIO AL COMMAND OF "OPERATION BUCCANEER" PLANNING ANDIMPLEMENTATION. THE [redacted]

[redacted]

JDF COMMANDER WORKS IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE TO DETAIL UNITS WHICH ARE DEDICATED TO "OPERATION BUCCANEER" AND THOSE WHICH PERFORM OTHER ROLES IN SUPPORT OF "OPERATION BUCCANEER." THE MINISTER OF JUSTICE PLAYS A KEY ROLE IN LEGAL REFORM OF NARCOTICS LAWS AND PROSECUTING TRAFFICKERS AND GROWERS BROUGHT BEFORE THE COURTS. THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE'S COLLECTOR OF INLAND REVENUE IS INVOLVED IN ISSUES OF TAX ASSESS-MENT AND SEIZURE OF TRAFFICKER ASSETS. THE MINISTRY OF PUBLIC UTILITIES AND TRANSPORT IS ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL AGENCIES INVOLVED IN NARCOTICS CONTROL ACTIVITIES BECAUSE OF ITS SUPERVISORY AND POLICY RESPONSIBILITIES FOR AIRPORTS, SEAPORTS AND INTER-NATIONAL SHIPPING LINKS. THE MINISTRIES OF AGRICULTURE, EDUCATION, YOUTH, FOREIGN AFFAIRS, TRADE AND INDUSTRY, AND TOURISM PROVIDE INPUT TO THE GOVERNMENT'S NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT AND CONTROL GOALS AND ACTIVITIES.

34. THE DRUG ABUSE SECRETARIAT, DIRECTED BY THE MINISTER OF JUSTICE, AND BASED WITHIN THE NATIONAL DRUG ABUSE COUNCIL, WAS CREATED BY LEGISLATION IN 1985 AND HAS BEEN AN ACTIVE, GOSITIVE CONTRIBUTOR TO THE NATIONAL DEBATE ON NARCOTICS. IT HELPED MOUNT A MAJOR DRUG AWARENESS EDUCATION AND DEMAND REDUCTION EFFORT IN 1986.

35. NERCOTICS PRODUCTION AND TRAFFICKING HAVE BECOME A CORROSIVE INFLUENCE ON JAMAICAN SOCIETY. CORRUPTION

IN THE PUBLIC SECTOR IS A SIGNIFICANT PROBLEM. THE NARCOTICS TRADE HAS CORRUPTED SOME MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY FORCES, PUBLIC OFFICIALS, AND PRIVATE ENTREPRENEURS. ONE JOURNALIST WROTE THAT GANJA MONEY SOONER [redacted]

PAGE 03 KINGST 00621 10 OF 16 230736Z

OR LATER REACHES EVERY POLITICAL CQXPAIGN FUND AND EVERY CHURCH COLLECTION PLATE IN JAMAICA. THERE ARE INDICATIONS THAT POLITICAL PARTIES, WHICH ARE LARGE, NATIONWIDE ORGANIZATIONS, HAVE INDIVIDUALS WIITHIN THEM INVOLVED IN THE NARCOTICS TRADE. THE DIRECT AND INDIRECT BENEFICIARIES AND SUPPORTERS OF THE GANJA TRADE REPRESENT A LARGE NUMBER OF PEOPLE WITH SIGNIFICANT POLITICAL INFLUENCE AND POLITICIANS ARE SENSITIVE TO THEIR PRESSURE. HOWEVER, THE OFFICIAL POSITION OF BOTH MAJOR PARTIES IS TO OPPOSE ALL FORMS OF U E AND TRADE IN NARCOTICS, AND THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT HAS PROGRESSIVELY INCREASED ITS COMMITMENT TO NARCOTICS CONTROL.

36. NATIONAL NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT: THE CULTIVATION, USE, AND TRAFFICKING IN MARIJUANA HAVE LONG BEEN ILLEGAL IN JAMAICA. THERE IS GENERAL CONSENSUS IN THE LEGAL COMMUNITY THAT THE CURRENT ANTI-DRUG LAW, ENACTED IN 1948, IS OUTDATED AND IN NEED OF MAJOR REFORM TO TAKE INTO CONSIDERATION MODERN PATTERNS OF CRIMINAL BEHAVIOR. TWO CONFERENCES WERE RECENTLY HELD IN KINGSTON ON MODERNIZING EXISTING ANTI-NARCOTICS STATUTES TO PROVIDE FOR STRONGER ENFORCEMENT AND STRICTER PENALTIES FOR OFFENDERS. THE GOVERNMENT IS CURRENTLY REVIEWING EXISTING LAWS FOR POSSIBLE CHANGES.

37. THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM SUFFERS FROM CHRONIC UNDERFUNDING, A LACK OF PROPER FACILITIES, AND A DEARTH OF ADEQUATELY TRAINED PERSONNEL. AS A RESULT, THERE ARE SERIOUS BACKLOGS OF CRIMINAL AND CIVIL CASES WAITING FOR TRIAL, IN ADDITION TO MAJOR PROBLEMS WITH RECORD KEEPING. ADDITIONAL PROBLEMS AFFECTING JAMAICA'S CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM INCLUDE INCOMPLETE POLICE SEARCH AND EVIDENCE COLLECTION, INADMISSIBLE EVIDENCE BECAUSE OF INAPPROPRIATE SECURITY FORCE ACTIONS, DISAPPEARANCE OF KEY WITNESSES, ABSENCE OF LAWYERS OR COURT OFFICIALS [redacted]

LOSS OR DESTRUCTION OF RECORDS, AND LACK OF UNIFORM SENTENCING GUIDELINES FOR NARCOTICS OFFENSES. THE JAMAICAN GOVERNMENT IS COMMITTED TO IMPROVING THE NATION'S CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM. THE UNITED STATES IS ASSISTING THROUGH AN ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE PROGRAM AIMED AT UPGRADING PHYSICAL FACILITIES OF THE COURT SYSTEM AND PROVIDING LEGAL RESOURCE MATERIALS, AND THROUGH THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE TRAINING ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (ICITAP).

PROGRAM. THE JDF BENEFITS FROM IMET, INM, JUSTICE DEPARTMENT, AND OTHER U.S.-SPONSORED SPECIALIZED TRAINING THAT CAN BE APPLIED TO THE NARCOTICS CONTROL EFFORT. THE JCF BENEFITS FROM TRAINING PROVIDED IN JAMAICA UNDER ICITAP AND IN THE UNITED STATES BY THE U.S. CUSTOMS SERVICE AND THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE. WITHOUT U.S.-SPONSORED SPECIALIZED TRAINING FOR NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT, JAMAICA WOULD NOT HAVE THE CAPABILITY TO PROVIDE THIS IMPORTANT COMPONENT OF THE ANTI-NARCOTICS EFFORT. THE TRAINING PROVIDED BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN BENEFICIAL TO THE INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED, BY THEIR OWN ASSESSMENTS AS WELL AS BY THAT OF THEIR GOVERNMENT. TRAINING PROGRAMS FOR NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT AND CONTROL WILL BE AN IMPORTANT PART OF THE FUTURE PROGRAM EFFORT IN JAMAICA.

39. ADMINISTRATIVE REFORMS FOR NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT: THE JAMAICAN GOVERNMENT HAS TAKEN VARIOUS ADMINISTRATIVE STEPS TO REINFORCE NARCOTICS CONTROL EFFORTS:

- --MARIJUANA CULTIVATION: A PLAN ANNOUNCED IN DECEMBER 1986, TO INSTITUTE HERBICIDAL ERADICATION OF MARIJUANA IN 1987; TWICE-YEARLY AERIAL SURVEYS TO ESTIMATE THE SIZE OF THE SPRING AND FALL MARIJUANA CROPS; INCREASED JDF AND JCF PARTICIPATION IN THE "OPERATION BUCCANEER" ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION CAMPAIGN; AND DIRECTION TO LOCAL POLICE PRECINCTS TO ERADICATE MARIJUANA FIELDS IN THEIR JURISDICTIONS.

SED CRIMINAL PENALTIES AND FINES FOR ILLEGAL LANDING.

- --MARITIME TRAFFICKING: JDF COAST GUARD HAS REDEPLOYED ITS SHIPS TO IMPROVE ITS COVERAGE OF SUSPECTED TRAFFICKING AREAS. IT IS ALSO PARTICIPATING IN "HAT TRICK III."

- --PORTS OF ENTRY: ENHANCED SECURITY AT BOTH INTERNATIONAL AIRPORTS; MORE EXTENSIVE AND INTENSIVE USE OF NARCOTICS DETECTOR DOGS; REPEAL OF EXPORT CERTIFICATION FOR 77 FIRMS FOUND WITH LAX SECURITY PROCEDURES OR INVOLVED IN DRUG SMUGGLING; NARCOTICS INTERDICTION TRAINING FOR CUSTOMS ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS; AND IMPROVED SECURITY AND EXPORT LICENSING PROCEDURES AT THE CONTAINER PORTS.

- --MAJOR TRAFFICKING ORGANIZATIONS: EXTENSION OF THE SUPPRESSION OF CRIME ACT ALLOWING THE JAMAICA DEFENSE FORCE TO PARTICIPATE WITH THE POLICE IN NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS; INTENSIVE EFFORTS TO TAX UNREPORTED TRAFFICKER ASSETS; INCREASED WILLINGNESS TO PROSECUTE TRAFFICKERS CAUGHT ATTEMPTING TO EXPORT NARCOTICS.

--NARCOTICS RELATED ARRESTS: FROM JANUARY-OCTOBER 1986,
THE JAMAICA CONSTABULARY FORCE MADE 3,105 NARCOTICS-RELATED ARRESTS, INCLUDING 381 AMERICANS.

OF THE PERSONNEL AND AGENCIES INVOLVED IN THE OVERALL NARCOTICS CONTROL EFFORT. THE PRIME MINISTER IS DIRECTLY INVOLVED IN ALL MAJOR NARCOTICS CONTROL INITIATIVES. THE VARIOUS GOVERNMENT AGENCIES INVOLVED ARE BETTER ABLE TO WAGE A MEANINGFUL WAR ON MARIJUANA CULTIVATION AND TRAFFICKING THAN IN THE PAST, BUT STILL NEED OUTSIDE FINANCIAL, TRAINING, AND EQUIPMENT SUPPORT AND ADDI- TIONAL STAFF TO SUSTAIN SUCH AN EFFORT. THE U.S. GOVERNMENT HAS PROVIDED ESSENTIAL SUPPORT SERVICES AND TRAINING. WITHOUT U.S. HELP, JAMAICA WOULD BE ABLE TO DO FAR LESS TO CURB MARIJUANA TRAFFICKING.

A.5 DOMESTIC DRUG ABUSE PROBLEM

41. THERE ARE NO UP-TO-DATE EMPIRICAL DATA WHICH PROVIDE INSIGHTS INTO DOMESTIC PATTERNS OF MARIJUANA USE OR OTHER DRUG USE AND ABUSE IN JAMAICA. THE MOST RECENT STUDY WAS CARRIED OUT BETWEEN 1979 AND 1984. THIS STUDY SHOWED THAT DRUG USE IN JAMAICA HAS BEEN INCREASING OVER THE LAST DECADE, ESPECIALLY AMONG YOUNG PEOPLE. A SURVEY OF SECONDARY SCHOOL STUDENTS SHOWED THAT 26 PERCENT OF THE GIRLS AND 30.5 PERCENT OF THE BOYS RESPONDING HAD USED MARIJUANA, AND 13 PERCENT KNEW SOMEONE WHO HAD USED COCAINE. A MINISTRY OF SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, AND ENVIRONMENT STUDY, DONE IN COLLABORATION WITH THE NATIONAL COUNCIL ON DRUG ABUSE (NCDA), INDICATED THAT 25 PERCENT OF THOSE RESPONDING HAD USED SOME NARCOTICS. OF THOSE, 78 PERCENT OF THEM HAD USED MARIJUANA, WITH COCAINE SECOND AT SIX PERCENT. ONLY 26 PERCENT OF RESPONDENTS FELT THAT DRUG ABUSE HAD ADVERSE HEALTH EFFECTS. THE NCDA IS THE LEAD ORGAN- IZATION FOR DRUG ABUSE EDUCATION AND RECENTLY INITITATED A PUBLIC EDUCATION DRIVE INCLUDING SEMINARS, HOT LINES, AND A POSTER COMPETITION. THE MINISTRY OF YOUTH

DECLARED OCTOBER AS "DRUG AWARENESS MONTH," AND THE GOJ IS PROMOTING THE DEVELOPMENT OF REGIONAL DRUG ABUSE COUNCILS AND VARIOUS HIGH-PROFILE DRUG ABUSE PROGRAMS ISLAND-WIDE. THE UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST INDIES HAS INITIATED A DRUG ABUSE EDUCATION CURRICULUM FOR THE FACULTY, AND, SIGNIFICANTLY, THE FIRST DRAFT OF A PROPOSED NATIONAL PLAN ON DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION AND CONTROL HAS BEEN COMPLETED. THIS PLAN CALLS FOR DRUG ABUSE EDUCATION IN PRIMARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS, TEACHER TRAINING IN DRUG ABUSE EDUCATION, AND STRENGTH-

[redacted]

[redacted]

ENING OF EXISTING LAWS. FOLLOWING REVIEW, THE PLAN WILL BE SENT TO PARLIAMENT FOR DECISION.

42. THE EPIDEMIOLOGICAL STUDY NOW UNDERWAY IS EXPECTED TO BE COMPLETED IN THE THIRD QUARTER OF 1987. THIS SURVEY WILL PROVIDE, FOR THE FIRST TIME, A SAMPLE OF GENERAL HOUSEHOLD DRUG USE AND ABUSE PATTERNS AND WILL ALSO PROVIDE THE BASIS FOR JAMAICA'S DRUG ABUSE EDUCATION AND REHABILITATION EFFORTS. THE NATIONAL DRUG ABUSE COUNCIL, THE MINISTRY OF YOUTH AND SPORTS, THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION, AND THE PARISH COUNCILS THROUGHOUT THE ISLAND HAVE BEEN ACTIVELY INVOLVED IN DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION, EDUCATION, AND DEMAND REDUCTION. HOWEVER, NO FACILITY EXISTS ON THE ISLAND WHICH IS DEDICATED TO DRUG DEPENDENCY REHABILITATION. THE PRISONS HAVE NOT HAD SUCCESS IN REHABILITATING DRUG OFFENDERS.

43. DOMESTIC CONSUMPTION IS NOT THE DRIVING FORCE BEHIND THE RAPID EXPANSION OF MARIJUANA CULTIVATION. MOST OF THE MARIJUANA SMOKERS IN RURAL AREAS HAVE NO PROBLEM GROWING THEIR OWN, AND AN ESTIMATED 10-20 PERCENT OF TOTAL PRODUCTION MAKES ITS WAY TO LOCAL CONSUMERS. THE BULK OF THE MARIJUANA GROWN IN JAMAICA TODAY IS BOUND FOR EXPORT. DEMAND REDUCTION HAS NOT BEEN AS IMPORTANT TO JAMAICA'S NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT EFFORTS AS HAS BEEN ERADICATION, INTERDICTION, AND ARREST/ PROSECUTION OF NARCOTICS TRAFFICKERS. THE PRIVATE SECTOR HAS NOT SUSTAINED EFFECTIVE ACTION IN THE AREAS OF DEMAND REDUCTION. HOWEVER, PRIVATE ASSOCIATIONS, CHURCH GROUPS, EDITORIALISTS, AND OTHER INDIVIDUALS HAVE BEEN SUPPORTIVE OF THE GOVERNMENT'S NARCOTICS

ENFORCEMENT PROGRAM.

44. JAMAICA PRODUCES METRIC TONS OF MARIJUANA PER YEAR, PERCENT IS CONSUMED DOMESTICALLY AND PERCENT IS EXPORTED. THE GOVERNMENT'S MARIJUANA CONTROL PROGRAM FOCUSES ON REDUCTION IN SUPPLY BY ERADICATING MARIJUANA IN THE FIELD TO THE GREATEST EXTENT POSSIBLE, SUPPLEMENTED BY INTERDICTION BEFORE IT REACHES EXPORT CHANNELS THROUGH TRAFFICKER ORGANIZATIONS. THE MARIJUANA CROP IS JAMAICA'S ONLY NATIVE CONTRIBUTION TO INTERNATIONAL NARCOTICS SMUGGLING. HOWEVER, COLOMBIAN COCAINE AND MARIJUANA HAVE BEEN LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

TRANSSHIPPED THROUGH JAMAICA TO THE U.S. ABOUT
METRIC TONS OF HASHISH OIL WAS SMUGGLED OUT OF JAMAICA IN 1986. MARIJUANA CULTIVATION PROVIDES INCOME AND CAPITAL AND MANY SMALL FARMERS WHO HAVE BECOME DEPENDENT ON IT IN JAMAICA'S DEPRESSED RURAL ECONOMY. THE PROFITS, WAGES, AND RETAIL SALES IMPACT OF MARIJUANA PRODUCTION IN JAMAICA ARE PARTICULARLY IMPORTANT IN RURAL COMMUNITIES IN THE WESTERN AREA OF THE COANTRY. THOUGH IT IS A MATTER OF SPECULATION, THE GOVERNMENT ESTIMATES THAT ABOUT $200-300 MILLION REMAINS IN THE LOCAL ECONOMY FROM NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING ANNUALLY.

B.2 FACTORS AFFECTING PRODUCTION

45. CLIMATIC FACTORS: SUBTROPICAL GROWING CONDITIONS WITH SEASONAL RAIN PATTERNS IDEAL FOR MARIJUANA CULTIVATION ALONG WITH A NEW PATTERN OF CULTIVATION IN HARD-TO-REACH VALLEYS AND REMOTE HILLSIDES TO ESCAPE SECURITY FORCE ERADICATION TEAMS.

46. GEOGRAPHIC FACTORS: PROXIMITY TO THE UNITED STATES MAKES JAMAICA AN ATTRACTIVE DESTINATION FOR AIR TRAFFICKERS; THE LONG POROUS COAST LINE FACILITATES MARITIME TRAFFICKING; MOUNTAINOUS AND HILLY TERRAIN MAKES ERADICATION EXTREMELY DIFFICULT WITHOUT HELICOPTER AIRLIFT CAPABILITY.

47. POLITICAL FACTORS: THE GOVERNMENT'S STRONG DECISIONS AND ACTIONS ON NARCOTICS ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION INVOLVE A RISK OF ALIENATING POLITICAL SUPPORT. TRAFFICKERS CAN BE EXPECTED TO MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO MOUNT POLITICAL COUNTERPRESSURES, AND HAVE THE MONEY

[redacted]

[redacted]

TO MAKE THE ATTEMPT.

48. ECONOMIC FACTORS: REDUCTION IN PUBLIC SECTOR SUBSIDIES AND EMPLOYMENT, PARTICULARLY IN RURAL AREAS, ATTRACTS SURPLUS WORKERS TO PAID LABOR IN THE MARIJUANA BUSINESS. THE LOWER PRICE MOST FARMERS GET FOR THEIR

UNCLASSIFIED

LEGITIMATE PRODUCE WILL CONTINUE TO MAKE DIVERSIFYING INTO MARIJUANA ATTRACTIVE. THE GOVERNMENT DOES NOT HAVE THE RESOURCES, EXPERTISE, CAPABILITY OR MANPOWER TO MOUNT AND SUSTAIN AN EFFECTIVE ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION CAMPAIGN ON ITS OWN.

49. SOCIAL FACTORS: LARGE NUMBERS OF JAMAICANS USE MARIJUANA; THE RASTAFARIAN CULT CONSIDERS MARIJUANA SACRAMENTAL, AND SMOKE IT IN RELIGIOUS CEREMONIES. MANY JAMAICANS BENEFIT DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY FROM THE MARIJUANA BUSINESS; PEOPLE FROM ALL WALKS OF LIFE AND ACROSS THE POLITICAL SPECTRUM MAY BE INVOLVED IN THE TRADE. SOME VIEW U.S. PROMOTION AND SUPPORT OF THE GOVERNMENT'S NARCOTICS CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT EFFORTS AS INTERFERENCE AND PRESSURE POLITICS. MANY JAMAICANS BELIEVE THERE IS NO DOMESTIC MARIJUANA PROBLEM, AND THAT THE REAL PROBLEM LIES IN THE DEMAND FOR MARIJUANA FROM CONSUMERS IN THE UNITED STATES.

B.3 MAXIMUM ACHIEVABLE REDUCTIONS

50. TOTAL CULTIVATION IN 1986 WAS ESTIMATED TO HAVE BEEN BETWEEN AND HECTARES, CONSISTING OF A LARGE FALL CROP PLUS A SMALLER SPRING CROP. THIS IS ESTIMATED TO HAVE PRODUCED A YIELD BETWEEN AND METRIC TONS OF MARIJUANA. FACTORING IN AN

PORTION OF THE ISLAND IS NOT NOW A MAJOR SOUR CE OF ERADICATION FIGURE OF HECTARES, 1986 PRODUCTION IS THOUGHT TO HAVE BEEN BETWEEN AND METRIC
TONS. THIS COMPARES WITH 1985'S TOTAL CULTIVATION ESTIMATE OF BETWEEN 1,880 AND 2,850 HECTARES; ZITH AN ESTIMATED POTENTIAL PRODUCT YIELD OF BETWEEN 1,269
AND 1,963 METRIC TONS OF MARIJUANA. IN 1985, 955 HECTARES OF MARIJUANA WERE ERADICATED RESULTING IN AN ESTIMATED RANGE OF 625 TO 1,280 METRIC TONS OF MARIJUANA PRODUCED FOR THAT YEAR.

B.4 METHODOLOGY FOR ESTIMATES

[redacted]

51. THE 1986 CULTIVATION ESTIMATES ARE BASED ON AVAILABLE INFORMATION INCLUDING A SPRING AERIAL SURVEY. YIELDS WERE CALCULATED AT 675 KG/HECTARE (602 POUNDS PER ACRE YIELD); OTHER FIGURES ARE BASED ON ESTIMATES PROVIDED BY THE JAMAICAN ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS. IT SHOULD BE NOTED NET MARIJUANA PRODUCTION IS SIGNIFICANTLY (REDUCED OR INCREASED? DEPENDS ON AERIAL SURVEY RESULTS) FROM 1985 LEVELS. THE ERADICATION EFFORTS OF THE JAMAICAN SECURITY FORCES RESULTED IN ERADICATION IN EXCESS OF PERCENT OF THE TOTAL CROP AGAINST THE ESTIMATED PERCENT ERADICATION ACHIEVED IN 1985.

52. IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO ASSESS ACCURATELY HOW MUCH OF THE TOTAL MARIJUANA CROP IS CONVERTED TO HASH OIL, PRIMARILY MADE FROM "WASTE" MARIJUANA (E.G. STEMS, ETC.). DOMESTIC AND THIRD COUNTRY CONSUMPTION FIGURES ARE ROUGH ESTIMATES.

53. PROJECTIONS FOR 1987 ARE BASED ON THE ASSUMPTION THAT THE JAMAICAN GOVERNMENT WILL INCREASE ERADICATION ACTIVITY OVER 1986 LEVELS. ERADICATION EFFECTIVENESS WILL BE MATERIALLY AFFECTED BY THE ADEQUACY OF AIR SUPPORT FOR NARCOTICS CONTROL PROGRAMS AND THE JAMAICAN GOVERNMENT'S INITIATION OF HERBICIDAL ERADICATION.

INFORMATION CENTER (CNI - CHILE'S SECRET POLICE), BUSCHMANN WAS CHARGED ON AUG 30 BY A MILITARY JUDGE WITH PARTICIPATION IN THE CLANDESTINE INTRODUCTION OF LARGE NUMBERS OF MILITARY WEAPONS INTO CHILE AND BELONGING TO A TERRORIST ORGANIZATION. IT WAS LATER REVEALED BY THE GOVERNMENT THAT BUSCHMANN WAS CONSIDERED THE LEADER IN THE CARRIZAL BAJO AREA OF THE GROUP WHICH SMUGGLED THE WEAPONS, AND WAS THE HEAD OF A SEAWEED PROCESSING COMPANY ESTABLISHED BY THE COMMUNIST PARTY AS A COVER FOR THIS SMUGGLING OPERATION.

4. WE ARE UNABLE TO CONFIRM CHARGES THAT BUSCHMANN WAS TORTURED, BUT AT LEAST 22 OF THE 29 PEOPLE DETAINED IN RELATION TO THE ARMS CACHES HAVE TOLD HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS THAT THEY WERE TORTURED. ONLY ONE CASE HAS BEEN BROUGHT BEFORE THE COURTS. IN THAT CASE, A CARABINERO (UNIFORMED POLICE) DOCTOR EXAMINED THE DETAINEE AND FOUND INDICATIONS THAT THIS PERSON WAS TORTURED WHILE UNDER CNI CUSTODY. THIS CASE IS UNDER INVESTIGATION.

5. ALL OF THOSE BEING HELD HAVE BEEN SEEN ON A NUMBER OF OCCASIONS BY MEMBERS OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS (ICRC), WHICH HAS ACCESS TO DETAINEES WHENEVER IT REQUESTS A VISIT. ALL OF

THESE PEOPLE ARE PRESENTLY IN GOOD PHYSICAL CONDITION, ALTHOUGH THEY DID UNDERTAKE A HUNGER STRIKE FOR SEVERAL DAYS IN DECEMBER. THEY ALSO HAVE ACCESS TO VISITS BY LAWYERS AND FAMILY MEMBERS.

6. THE GOC CHARGED FROM THE BEGINNING THAT ALL OF THOSE DETAINED IN THE ARMS DISCOVERIES WERE MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY'S MILITARY APPARATUS (FPMR) WHICH HAS BEEN INVOLVED IN TERRORIST ACTIVITIES IN CHILE SINCE 1983. SERGIO BUSCHMANN, ALONG WITH FOUR OTHERS, WAS RECENTLY QUOTED IN THE MEXICAN PRESS ADMITTING THAT THEY ARE FPMR MEMBERS, AND THAT THE ARMS DISCOVERED BY THE GOC BELONGED TO THE FPMR. IN EARLY DECEMBER THE CHILEAN OPPOSITION NEWS MAGAZINE "HOY" REPORTED A CLANDESTINE NEWS CONFERENCE HELD BY MEMBERS OF THE FPMR, IN WHICH THEY READ A LETTER, REPORTEDLY WRITTEN BY BUSCHMANN AND THE OTHER FOUR, STATING THAT THEY WERE FPMR MEMBERS.

THE "COMMANDANTES" OF THE FPMR WHO HELD THE NEWS CONFERENCE ALSO CLAIMED FPMR RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ARMS SMUGGLED INTO CHILE AND FOR THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AGAINST PINOCHET. MOREOVER, ROBERTO TORRES, WHO CLAIMS TO BE A SPOKESMAN FOR THE FPMR, CLAIMED IN MEXICO ON SEPTEMBER 11 THAT THE FPMR WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE AMBUSH, A CLAIM BACKED UP BY AN FPMR COMMUNIQUE THAT APPEARED IN BUENOS AIRES ON SEPTEMBER 11 AS WELL.

7. COMMENT: THIS CASE IS STILL UNDER ACTIVE INVESTIGATION, AND PRESS REPORTS INDICATE THAT THE GOC EXPECTS TO MAKE STILL MORE ARRESTS. BUSCHMANN

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PREL, MX, EEC, NU, SP
SUBJECT: AMBASSADOR HABIB SPELLS OUT USG CENTRAL AMERICAN POLICY TO SPANISH FOREIGN MINISTER ON EVE OF SAN JOSE III

(A - ENTIRE TEXT)

2. SUMMARY: ON JANUARY 22 SPECIAL ENVOY FOR CENTRAL AMERICA PHILIP HABIB MET WITH SPANISH FOREIGN MINISTER FRANCISCO FERNANDEZ ORDONEZ. AMBASSADOR HABIB EMPHASIZED THAT THE USG IS PURSUING A TWO TRACK APPROACH WHICH INCLUDES DIPLOMACY AS WELL AS PRESSURE VIA THE CONTRAS. HE EXPLAINED THAT THE CURRENT EFFORTS OF THE SO-CALLED "GROUP OF TEN" SIGNIFIES A REVIVAL OF THE CONTADORA PROCESS, SOMETHING THAT PLEASES THE USG. HOWEVER HE STATED THAT UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF MEXICO CONTADORA HAS, IN THE PAST, TILTED IN FAVOR OF NICARAGUA. HE URGED THE SPANISH TO LISTEN CAREFULLY TO THE FOUR CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES, AND TO THEIR CALL FOR PLURALISM AS EXPRESSED IN THEIR RECENT COMMUNIQUE. LOOKING TOWARD THE UPCOMING SAN JOSE III MEETING, AMBASSADOR HABIB CALLED ON THE SPANISH TO ENCOURAGE MORE EC SUPPORT FOR THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. WHILE INDICATING AGREEMENT ON BASIC U.S. ASSESSMENTS ORDONEZ DIFFERED ON SOME KEY POINTS, ESPECIALLY ON THE ROLE OF THE CONTRAS. [redacted] THE MEETING ENDED WITH AMBASSADOR HABIB TELLING THE SPANISH THAT THEY COULD PLAY AN IMPORTANT ROLE BY URGING THE OTHER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES TO LISTEN MORE CLOSELY TO THE VIEWS OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. END SUMMARY.

3. AMBASSADOR PHILIP HABIB, THE PRESIDENT'S SPECIAL ENVOY FOR CENTRAL AMERICA, CALLED ON SPANISH FOREIGN MINISTER FRANCISCO FERNANDEZ ORDONEZ TODAY, JANUARY 22. OTHER SPANISH OFFICIALS AT THE MEETING WERE INOCENCIO ARIAS, DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE OFFICE OF DIPLOMATIC INFORMATION; EUBALDO NIRAPEIX, DIRECTOR GENERAL OF NORTH AMERICAN AFFAIRS; JUAN LENA, SUB-DIRECTOR FOR NORTH AMERICA; JOSE ANTONIO MARTINEZ DE VILLARREAL, SUB-DIRECTOR FOR LATIN AMERICAN AFFAIRS; AND LUIS JESSENS, SUB-DIRECTOR OF THE MINISTER'S CABINETE. PRESENT WITH AMBASSADOR HABIB WERE

AMBASSADOR REGINALD BARTHOLOMEW, DEPARTMENT OFFICER RAYMOND BURGHARDT, AND EMBASSY POLOFF RAYMOND BALLARD (NOTE TAKER).

4. AMBASSADOR HABIB BEGAN BY SAYING SECRETARY SHULTZ ASKED HIM TO VISIT EUROPE WHILE PREPARATIONS ARE UNDERWAY FOR THE SAN JOSE III MEETING IN FEBRUARY. HE NOTED THAT THE CONTADORA PROCESS IS BEING REVIVED THANKS TO THE EFFORTS OF THE "GROUP OF TEN", SOMETHING THE USG VIEWS FAVORABLY. AMBASSADOR HABIB STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE OF DIPLOMACY IN THE USG'S TWO TRACK POLICY TOWARDS CENTRAL AMERICA, AND MADE CLEAR TO ORDONEZ THAT THE U.S. SUPPORTS THE CONTADORA PROCESS. NEVERTHELESS, AS AMBASSADOR HABIB POINTED OUT, IT IS OUR VIEW THAT MEXICO HAS BEEN ABLE TO TILT CONTADORA TOWARDS THE SANDINISTAS. HE ALSO STRESSED THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES ARE NOW ASSERTING THEMSELVES. THESE FOUR COUNTRIES EMPHASIZE DEMOCRATIC PLURALISM AND ARE OTHERWISE CONSISTENT IN THEIR VIEWS. AMBASSADOR HABIB EXPLAINED THAT THEIR VIEWS ARE ALSO COMPATIBLE WITH OURS, AND ARGUED THAT THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES SHOULD PAY MORE ATTENTION TO THE POSITIONS OF THESE COUNTRIES.

5. WITH RESPECT TO THE UPCOMING SAN JOSE III MEETING, AMBASSADOR HABIB SUGGESTED THAT THE THEME OF A DIALOG IN NICARAGUA BE STRESSED, RECOGNIZING THAT THE FOUR CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES HAVE CALLED ON THE NICARAGUANS TO DO SO. BEFORE ENDING HIS REMARKS AMBASSADOR HABIB REMINDED ORDONEZ THAT NICARAGUA IS IN OUR OWN BACK YARD, AND OF OBVIOUS SECURITY CONCERN TO THE U.S.

6. FOREIGN MINISTER ORDONEZ'S REMARKS CAME IN RESPONSE TO THOSE OF AMBASSADOR HABIB. GENERALLY, ORDONEZ ACKNOWLEDGED AGREEMENT, BUT THERE WERE CLEAR DIFFERENCES ON SEVERAL ISSUES. [redacted] ORDONEZ NOTED THAT HE SHARES THAT VIEW. AMBASSADOR HABIB QUICKLY POINTED OUT THAT WELL BEFORE THE CONTRAS EXISTED THE SANDINISTAS SET ABOUT ESTABLISHING A MARXIST-LENINIST REGIME, AND WERE ACCEPTING WEAPONS FROM THE SOVIET UNION; TWO FACTS WHICH MAKE CLEAR THE TRUE NATURE OF THE REGIME. LATER IN THE CONVERSATION AMBASSADOR HABIB TOLD THE FOREIGN MINISTER TO WAIT A FEW MONTHS BEFORE JUDGING THE CONTRAS' PERFORMANCE. SUGGESTING THAT PERHAPS BY FEBRUARY OR MARCH WE WILL SEE IF THEY CAN PREVENT A SANDINISTA CONSOLIDATION OF POWER.

7. REGARDING THE DIPLOMATIC COMPONENT OF OUR POLICY, [redacted] IT IS [redacted] TO HAVE A DIALOG DURING A WAR. TO WHICH AMBASSADOR HABIB RESPONDED THAT DUARTE HAS DONE IT, AND CONTINUES TO BE WILLING TO DO IT. HE ADDED THAT THE OAS, IN SUPPORT OF NICARAGUA, PERMITS FREE ELECTIONS AND A FREE PRESS. ORDONEZ ALSO AVOIDED ANSWERING DIRECTLY AMBASSADOR HABIB'S REQUEST THAT EUROPEAN COUNTRIES SUPPORT THE CALL FOR DIALOG ISSUED BY THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. WHILE HE LATER AGREED THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES SHOULD BE LISTENED TO, ORDONEZ BEGAN THE MEETING BY WONDERING WHAT ONE MEANS BY "DEMOCRACY" OR BY "DEMOCRACY IN CENTRAL AMERICA."

DECAPTIONED

GENEVA FOR AMBASSADOR WALLACH

E. O. 12356: DECL:OADR
TAGS: PHUM, UNHRC, CI
SUBJ: CONVERSATION WITH FOREIGN MINISTER DEL VALLE

1. CONFIDENTIAL ENTIRE TEXT.

SUMMARY: DEL VALLE'S AND MY JANUARY 23, CONVERSATION FOCUSED ON HIS HOPES THAT WE COULD REFRAIN FROM INTRODUCING A RESOLUTION AT THE UNHRC, WITH THE IMPLIED THREAT THAT THE GOC MIGHT NOT BEHAVE WELL IF WE DID. BUT WHEN I ARGUED THAT IF CHILE HAD ACCOMPLISHED AS MUCH IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS REALM AS DEL VALLE SAID, CHILE OUGHT TO WANT THAT RECOGNIZED. HE RETREATED TO THE POINT OF SAYING THAT WE, OF COURSE, HAD TO DECIDE OUR OWN STRATEGY. END SUMMARY.

2. UNHRC. DEL VALLE ASKED ME TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF MY FORTHCOMING TRIP TO WASHINGTON TO TRY TO PERSUADE PEOPLE THERE, INCLUDING IN THE CONGRESS THAT CHILE HAD MADE STRIDES OF IMPORTANCE IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS. HE SAID, FOR EXAMPLE, I COULD ARGUE THAT NOT LONG

THAT EXILES COULD RETURN AND PROMISED TO PUSH THROUGH THE POLITICAL PARTIES LAW. ERGO, SAID DEL VALLE, THE CONGRESS SHOULD UNDERSTAND THAT IF THE U.S. VOTES NO IN GENEVA, GOOD THINGS WILL CONTINUE TO HAPPEN.

3. HE DESCRIBED PINOCHET AS BEING IN A VERY GOOD MOOD AT THIS STAGE IN GENERAL AND HE HOPED IT WOULD NOT BE NECESSARY TO UPSET HIM. HE MENTIONED FOR EXAMPLE THAT OUR NEW AMBASSADOR TO THE UNHRC, AMBASSADOR WALLACH HAD TOLD THE CHILEAN AMBASSADOR ESCOBAR THAT ELLIOTT ABRAMS WAS STILL VERY "TOUGH" (OURO), THAT THERE WERE DIVIDED OPINIONS IN WASHINGTON AS TO WHETHER TO SPONSOR OR NOT SPONSOR A RESOLUTION, BUT THAT THE U.S. WOULD TRY TO SWITCH THE CHILEAN ITEM FROM ITEM 5 TO ITEM 12.

4. I TOLD DEL VALLE THAT ACCORDING TO MY LATEST INFORMATION THE QUESTION ON WHETHER TO SPONSOR A RESOLUTION WAS STILL BEING DISCUSSED IN WASHINGTON AND I THOUGHT IT MIGHT WELL BE A WHILE YET BEFORE A DECISION WAS TAKEN. BUT SO FAR AS I KNEW THERE WAS NO DIVISION OF OPINION ON THE DESIRABILITY OF MOVING FROM ITEM 5 TO 12. WHERE I WAS LESS SURE WAS WHAT SORT OF SUPPORT THAT COULD GET, BECAUSE SOME COUNTRIES WANTED TO KNOW IF WE WERE PREPARED TO SPONSOR A RESOLUTION AGAIN BEFORE THEY WOULD HELP US ON THE AGENDA ITEM.

5. IN MY VIEW, I TOLD DEL VALLE, THERE WAS A QUESTION OF THE MOST EFFECTIVE STRATEGY THAT STILL MADE ME WONDER WHETHER THE APPROACH HE WAS ADVOCATING MADE THAT MUCH SENSE FOR THE U.S., OR FOR CHILE FOR THAT MATTER. WE IN THE U.S. NEEDED TO HAVE STEADY AND SOLID

CONGRESSIONAL SUPPORT FOR OUR POLICIES AND WE WERE BEING CRITICIZED BY SOME MEMBERS FOR OUR UNGA VOTE. SECONDLY, IF CHILE HAD MADE PROGRESS IN MEETING HUMAN RIGHTS CONCERNS, THEN IT MIGHT BE A MUCH BETTER TACTIC TO TRY TO GET INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION INSTEAD OF ALWAYS TAKING A NEGATIVE, DEFENSIVE ATTITUDE. AND LASTLY ONE OF OUR MAJOR AIMS WAS TO SUPPORT VOLIO, AND I WONDERED HOW LONG VOLIO COULD SURVIVE A SERIES OF MEXICAN RESOLUTIONS.

6. DEL VALLE SAID THAT THE POINTS I HAD MADE WERE REASONABLE, AND IN CONTRAST TO SOME OF HIS ADVISORS WHO WANTED TO SAY THERE WAS ONE WAY AND ONLY ONE WAY TO DEAL WITH THE HUMAN RIGHTS QUESTION IN THE UN SYSTEMS, HE FELT THAT THE GOC HAD TO HAVE ENOUGH CONFIDENCE IN THE U.S. PURSUING THE SAME GOALS OF A DEMOCRATIC CHILE TO LEAVE UP TO US THE BEST STRATEGY.

SUBJECT: Consultations in Europe on Central America

Thanks for your efforts & this informative memo on an important trip.

Note: Thanks your efforts this informat memo on an important trip. GPS 2/2/8

I visited Brussels, Bonn, Rome, Lisbon, Madrid, London, and Paris from January 18-25 to ensure that key European Community governments understood our views on Central America prior to the "San Jose III" meeting in Guatemala on February 9. I met with foreign ministers in all countries except Britain (where Howe was suddenly called to Parliament) and the FRG (where Genscher was campaigning). I also saw President Soares of Portugal and Prime Minister Chirac.

I urged the Europeans: (1) to listen carefully to the ideas of the Central American democracies, who feel that they have too often been ignored by the Contadora Group and Western Europe; (2) to use their influence to encourage dialogue between the Sandinistas and their internal and external opposition; and (3) to shift their Central American economic assistance from Nicaragua to the four democracies. At each stop, I stressed that the U.S. continues to follow a two-track policy (pressure and negotiations) and underlined the compatibility between our views and those of the four Central American democracies.

In the seven countries I visited, only [redacted] expressed complete support for our policy toward Nicaragua. [redacted] Each of the above [redacted] also appreciates that Nicaragua is in our backyard and has special importance for our security.

[redacted] is basically sympathetic to our policy and is especially friendly toward you. [redacted] we can expect [redacted] to be helpful at Guatemala.

In [redacted] we encountered varying degrees of criticism of our aid to the Nicaraguan democratic resistance. We doubtless would have heard similar criticism in [redacted] Everyone was anxious to make clear that they have no illusions about the Sandinistas, but [redacted] they part company with us on "the use of force." You had a sample of that from [redacted] reflected that view in full. I suspect that at bottom this attitude reflects a fear that if the contras fail, we will resort to direct intervention.

I found [redacted] most troublesome because it appears to represent widespread public views. Officials noted their sensitivity to [redacted] press attention to Central America. [redacted] doubts about our policy paled in comparison to the vitriolic denunciations we heard from [redacted] If they come to power they will carry their criticism of our policy much further than [redacted]

We found [redacted] less critical than I had anticipated. He was quite clear, however, in his belief that the Sandinistas could not conduct a dialogue with their opposition while they face an active guerrilla war. In [redacted] we would not expect any serious difficulty, but the influence of pro-Sandinista Social Democrats seems to keep [redacted] from aligning itself too closely with the U.S. on this issue.

While Central America appears to be a relatively live public issue in Britain, officials and private opinion leaders in other countries (e.g., France) told us that the region is a remote problem for them. This waning interest will be reflected in the downgrading of attendance at the Guatemala meeting. Nearly all EC foreign ministers attended the two previous meetings with their Central American and Contadora counterparts at San Jose and Luxembourg, but this year only the Belgian, Spanish, and Italian ministers are likely to attend, while the other nine countries will be represented by undersecretaries.

I believe that this trip helped our Central American policy. Our embassies felt that it was useful for the EC governments to know that we were prepared to consult with them on this regional issue. My urging that they give the Central American democracies' views greater weight than those of Nicaragua and the Contadora Group appeared to register. At most stops the governments promised that nothing would emerge at Guatemala which would be directed against us. Whether they can deliver on that in face of Mexico's attitude waits to be seen. The shift of aid away from Nicaragua toward the democracies is already well underway. Finally, several governments stated that my presentation had removed any doubts they may have had about whether the U.S. has a serious negotiating track in Central America.

Your Excellency:

I express my deep concern at the re-arrest on 12 December 1986 of Dr. Ramiro Olivares, staff member of Vicaria de la Solidaridad.

Amnesty International believes that he has been incarcerated as a sole and direct result of his non-violent professional activities, in this case the giving of humanitarian assistance to a man with bullet injuries, unaware of the conditions under which the victim had been wounded.

I call for and ask you to arrange, his immediate and unconditional release.

Sincerely,

EL SALVADOR

El Salvador continues to consolidate the democratic system adopted in 1983 under a constitution drafted by a popularly elected assembly. The President, Legislative Assembly, and mayors have been chosen in elections which were pronounced open and fair by observers from some 40 countries. El Salvador is preparing for another round of elections for the Assembly and mayors' offices in March 1988 and for the presidency in March 1989.

The economy is mixed. Export of major crops and banking are government controlled, and the price of food grains is subsidized. The Government continues to implement a major agrarian reform program. Poor market conditions and continuing sabotage by a Communist-led insurgency contributed to another year of very low economic growth in 1987. El Salvador is still recovering from the devastating 1986 San Salvador earthquake, with damage estimated at more than $1 billion. Severe droughts in 1986 and 1987 added to economic woes by causing major crop damage and a severe shortage of hydroelectric power.

For 8 years, the Government has fought an insurgency supported by the Soviet Union, Cuba, and Nicaragua. The Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front (FMLN), numbering between 6,000 and 8,000 combatants, is formally allied with the Revolutionary Democratic Front (FDR), itself an alliance of several small political parties. Human rights in El Salvador have suffered as a result of this ongoing insurgency. The FMLN/FDR has continued to rely on the indiscriminate use of landmines, kidnaping, forced recruitment (including increasing use of children in combat), machine-gunning and burning of vehicles on the nation's roads, and generalized economic sabotage, in addition to attacks on military personnel and facilities.

While abuses continue to be alleged and investigated, the conduct of the military and security forces continued to show improvement. The Government does not condone human rights abuses and is actively seeking to inculcate respect for human rights throughout society, including at all levels of the military. The Government's Human Rights Commission (CDH) plays an important role in this effort. Credible accusations of human rights abuses and of indiscriminate aerial bombing were fewer in 1987 than in previous years. Some members of the armed forces were arrested in 1987 for serious abuses, although several alleged abuses remained unresolved. The bulk of politically motivated killings appeared to have been committed by FMLN guerrillas. The infamous rightwing death squads which used to advertise their murders in the media have made no claims of killings since 1984. In June death threats were issued by unknown persons in the name of a death squad. The threats were not carried out, and their authenticity remains in doubt. Some unexplained deaths may still be the work of extreme rightist elements, but there is no evidence that the Government is either linked to or condones these killings.

The internal conflict is a major cause of the continued displacement of approximately 327,000 Salvadorans from their homes in conflict zones. As the Government has been able to restore its authority in contested areas, an increasing number of the displaced are returning home.

The state of emergency instituted in 1980 expired in January 1987, and all constitutional provisions were restored at that time. Special military courts established by the now-expired

EL SALVADOR

Legislative Decree 50 processed captured guerrilla suspects under the state of emergency. Under interim legislation, these courts have retained jurisdiction over those persons arrested during the state of emergency. Guerrilla suspects arrested since the state of emergency ended are processed through the civilian criminal courts and have the right to full due process and constitutional protection. In November all prisoners held for insurgency-related offenses that occurred before October 22, 1987, became eligible for the Government's amnesty program, implemented in compliance with the August 7 Guatemala accords. All but a handful of guerrilla suspects, whose amnesty grants have been individually appealed, were released. Two persons convicted of rightwing death squad killings were also released.

A large backlog of cases and prolonged incarceration before trial plague the criminal court system. The Government has undertaken a comprehensive program to revamp court procedures, update laws, improve the investigative capacity and training of judges, and protect witnesses and court personnel from intimidation. In December the Attorney General established a new section in his office to concentrate on prosecuting major human rights cases.

In fulfillment of its obligations under the Guatemala accords, the Government met with FMLN/FDR leaders in San Salvador on October 4-5 for the third round of peace talks since the war began. The two sides agreed to form two joint commissions to continue discussions on a cease-fire and other steps toward national reconciliation. An unsuccessful meeting of the commissions in Caracas on October 21-23 was to be followed by renewed cease fire talks in Mexico on October 30. However, following the October 26 assassination of Herbert Anaya, director of the pro-guerrilla Human Rights Commission of El Salvador (CDHES), the FMLN unilaterally suspended the talks. The Government is unwilling to accept FMLN/FDR demands that a political solution include power-sharing before elections, territorial demarcation, and integration of FMLN forces into the army.

RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

Section 1 Respect for the Integrity of the Person, Including Freedom from:

a. Political Killing

The number of deaths reported in the Salvadoran press which appeared to be politically motivated averaged 28 per month through June; this compares with a monthly average of 22 in 1986, 28 in 1985, 64 in 1984, and 140 in 1983.

On October 26, the president of the nongovernmental Human Rights Commission of El Salvador (CDHES), Herbert Ernesto Anaya Sanabria, was murdered outside his home. Anaya had been arrested in May 1986 and charged with membership in the Peoples' Revolutionary Army (ERP), one of the five guerrilla factions of the FMLN. He was among 57 prisoners released in February 1987 in exchange for the former director of civil aviation, kidnaped 15 months earlier by the FMLN. The Government promised a full and thorough investigation of the Anaya killing and assigned it to the Special Investigations Unit, a U.S.-trained criminal investigations unit under direct civilian control. A $10,000 reward was offered by the Government for information leading to the arrest of the assailants. On January 4, 1988 Jorge Alberto Miranda Arevalo, a member of the ERP, confessed to First Criminal Court Judge Edgar Morales Joya that he had participated in the assassination of Anaya Sanabria along with two guerrilla comrades, on the orders of ERP leaders who, he said, suspected Anaya had become an informant. On December 9, the delegate of the CDH in San Miguel, Rene Joaquin Cardenas Vargas, was killed by gunfire as he was leaving his car in front of his home. Two persons arrested for auto theft in a separate incident on December 10 have now been charged with Cardenas' murder, based on forensic evidence. The motive remains unclear.

Statistics on apparently politically-motivated killings compiled by the U.S. Embassy during 1987, principally from reports in the local press but also from guerrilla media and other publicly available sources, indicate that most were attributable to guerrilla insurgents. Of the 169 deaths ascribed to political motives during the first 6 months of 1987, 53 appeared clearly to have been perpetrated by, and another 81 possibly committed by, the FMLN/FDR. In 7 cases there was insufficient evidence to designate the likely assailants. Five killings were attributed to military personnel. Finally, 23 civilians reportedly killed in combat action between the two sides are included among the 169 victims.

Collection and classification of information on political murders is necessarily inexact, and these numbers can only be interpreted as indicative of trends in violence over time and for comparison with past reports using the same methodology. Common criminal deaths, for example, are easily disguised as political killings by perpetrators wishing to confound investigators; at the same time, political motivation in other murders may go undetected, causing them to be classified as common crimes. Finally, it is likely that the number of civilians killed in action by both sides in the context of the armed conflict is somewhat higher than reported in the press.

There continue to be occasional reports of noncombat killings attributed to members of the armed forces. Five young men returning from carrying supplies for the guerrillas on May 21 were killed by soldiers of the army's Arce Battalion, and their bodies were dumped into a well. The soldiers claim they killed the five in combat, while persons claiming to be witnesses say the men were murdered after capture. In another incident, unidentified army troops killed in a June 6 attempt to kill four farmworkers. Rightwing death squads which formerly publicized their murders did not claim responsibility for any killing during 1987, although a heretofore unknown organization claimed responsibility for the September 24 assassination of a postal workers' union executive. The executive, however, was reportedly investigating corruption among postal workers, leaving doubt as to the authenticity of the claim. The Catholic Church's Tutela Legal attributed 9 killings to rightwing death squads from January to May, as compared with 42 in all of 1986 and 136 in 1985. Tutela Legal does not count or consider murders by the FMLN in its death squad figures and frequently classifies as "death squad killings" murders that other observers view as criminal rather than political in nature. It occasionally gives no reason and provides no evidence for attributing a murder to death squads.

Anonymous death threats against human rights workers continued in 1987. Members of the CDHES, identified by former guerrillas as an FMLN front organization, charged that a group of armed men attempted on May 30 to break into CDHES offices and subsequently reported receiving telephoned death threats. Members of the CDH have also received death threats. On June 15, a person using the name of a notorious death squad issued a death threat against students and faculty members of the National University of El Salvador; the threat was never carried out. The Government and armed forces condemned the threats and vowed to use the full force of the Government to prevent a resurgence of death squad activity. A Lutheran bishop received threats in September. The police offered to provide protection.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

b. Disappearance

Government policy forbids unacknowledged detention by security or armed services. However, there have been occasional credible reports of persons taken away by men thought to be members of the army or security forces, although positive proof has not been available. Miguel Angel Rivas, a 17-year-old student, was reported to have been picked up by an Air Force patrol near the Ilopango Air Base on November 29, 1986 and then passed to the National Guard in January 1987. He has not been found. The families of three young labor union members who disappeared from Santa Ana city after a May 1 labor demonstration claimed to have been told the three were picked up by soldiers of the intelligence section of the Army's Second Brigade. Efforts to locate them have been fruitless. Salvador Ubau, a university official, disappeared after being forced into a pick-up truck by armed men in San Salvador on September 1. The armed and security forces denied any part in the disappearances, and all these cases were referred to the Civilian Commission for Investigations.

Many persons reported missing by family members and human rights organizations were found later to have been legally arrested and duly entered in a security force register of detained persons. Some persons who desert their families, emigrate, or join guerrilla ranks are also reported as disappearances.

c. Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment

The Salvadoran security forces are required by arrest regulations to register detainees and have them examined by a doctor or nurse upon entry into police facilities. In insurgency-related cases, they are required to notify promptly the family of the detainee, Tutela Legal, the CDH, and the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) of the arrest. The registration and notification procedures, together with the official prohibition on mistreatment of prisoners, have markedly reduced the incidence of torture by government authorities. The Constitution requires that all persons arrested by the police be freed or turned over to the courts within 72 hours. Although this requirement is followed in the great majority of cases, on occasion arrestees are held for longer periods, most often when a military unit in the field is the arresting authority and when battlefield exigencies preclude the rapid transfer of the arrestee to the police.

According to the U.N. Special Rapporteur for Human Rights in El Salvador, physical mistreatment is not systematically practiced nor condoned by government authorities. He considered, however, some reports of mistreatment by individual personnel to be credible. The number and severity of reported cases of torture have declined, but allegations of abuse by the arresting forces continue. Most allegations involve abuses that leave no marks and thus are extremely difficult to prove or disprove. Other alleged abuses include deprivation of food and sleep, threats against the detainee or his family, prolonged interrogation while blindfolded, being forced to stand for long periods of time, forced exercise, and blows to the ears. Some prisoners claim to have been forced to sign confessions without being permitted to read them. Some instances of severe beatings, rape, choking, and electric shock were reported. When a complaint of mistreatment appears credible, the CDH reports the incident to the commander of the unit responsible and to the Ministry of Defense.

The Government continued to use disciplinary action to reduce abuses of authority by the military and police forces. Between October 1979 and December 1986 over 913 military and police were disciplined or turned over to the courts for abuses of authority. More than 130 were similarly treated in the first 9 months of 1987. Archaic judicial recordkeeping makes it difficult to determine the disposition of these cases. Human rights instruction is part of police recruit training and officers' classes. The CDH, the ICRC, and Catholic clergy participate in courses on human rights for police, military, and civil defense personnel. The security forces instituted a separate intensive human rights training program for all police.

In recent years, there have been few allegations of mistreatment of prisoners in El Salvador's prisons. There were no verifiable instances of torture occurring in the penitentiaries in 1987. Punishment cells are reportedly rarely used. In an isolated incident, inmates in Mariona Prison claimed the guards on August 28 fired into the cellblocks, causing the wounding of five prisoners by ricochets. Prison officials say the gunfire came from a guerrilla attack on the prison. In December two Mariona inmates died under mysterious circumstances. The first died of internal injuries allegedly sustained during the time he was in police custody, prior to his declaration before a civilian magistrate and transfer to prison pending trial. The second death occurred as a result of a fall from a prison roof during the transfer of several prisoners to other facilities. The authorities claim he allegedly jumped from the building while attempting to elude security force personnel charged with effecting the transfer. Some nongovernmental organizations have alleged that he was thrown or pushed from the roof. Both incidents are being investigated by the authorities.

[illegible] prisoners [illegible] supplies. Prisoners receive [illegible] and medical visits and have access to primary education [illegible] religious services. Many prisoners earn money by making [illegible] for sale.

[illegible] Arbitrary Arrest, Detention, or Exile

The Criminal Code contains statutes prohibiting terrorism, insurgency, and other actions against the stability of the State, and persons arrested under them have the same legal protection as common criminals. The Constitution permits the security (police) forces to hold the arrestees incommunicado for periods up to 72 hours before releasing them or turning them over to the courts for a determination as to whether continued detention is warranted. Arrests without apparent sufficient cause do occur, but detention beyond 3 days is rare. An arrestee has the right to have a defense attorney present after being turned over to the courts. Holding political views opposed to the Government is not justification for arrest if the suspect does not advocate violence. The courts have held that membership in a front organization controlled by insurgents is not by itself sufficient reason for holding an arrestee, although membership in one of the violent guerrilla groups is. From January to August, the security forces arrested 1,871 persons, including foreign nationals, for insurgency-related offenses. Of that number, 1,577 were subsequently released by the police or the courts. 183 were bound over for trial, and 111 were hospitalized, deported, or sent to the juvenile facility. All but 17 persons determined to be held for politically motivated crimes committed before October 22 or membership in guerrilla organizations were released from custody in November under the provisions of the general amnesty.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Salvadoran judges theoretically are constrained legally by time limits for investigating the case and bringing it to trial, but in practice these limitations are not followed. The backlog of cases is one major reason for delay. As a recourse against illegal detention, the subject can request, from the time an arrest warrant is issued by a court until the trial is completed and a sentence is being carried out, that the Supreme Court review the legal merit of the detention. This appeal freezes action on the case until the Supreme Court has rendered its decision.

Insurgency-related cases begun before the termination of the state of emergency in January 1987 remained in the military court system. Decree 50, the law detailing procedures for trying these cases, expired and was replaced by Legislative Decree 618, a virtually identical statute, to permit continued processing of pending Decree 50 cases. However, Decree 618 does not apply to new arrests unless a state of emergency is in place. There was a large backlog of these cases at the beginning of the year, but the situation changed considerably after the state of emergency ended, and no new cases were added. A backlog of more than 1,070 cases was reduced to 557 by September, and in November, most of the remaining Decree 50/618 prisoners were released under the provisions of the amnesty.

There are no provisions in the law for exile or for the revocation of citizenship. Some leaders of the FMLN/FDR claim to be in exile, but it is self-imposed. However, they could be subject to arrest in El Salvador for membership in guerrilla combatant organizations if they return. The amnesty law provided a 15-day period in November during which any guerrilla could renounce armed conflict, giving those who claimed to be in exile an opportunity to return without having to face criminal charges.

The Government prohibits forced labor, and it is not practiced.

e. Denial of Fair Public Trial

Salvadoran law provides that a person accused of a crime may present, court-appointed attorneys are not available to a defendant until the investigative phase is over and the judge determines there is sufficient evidence to enter the final, or plenary, stage of the trial. However, a bill to change the criminal procedural code to provide counsel from the beginning of the legal process has been submitted to the legislature. The defendant has a right to be present in court and to confront the witnesses against him. All court records of trials of adults are open to the public unless the judge rules the case is to be kept confidential. Most major crimes in El Salvador are tried publicly with a five-person jury. Jury trials, however, resulted in only a 15 percent conviction rate in 1987, despite clear proof of guilt against the accused in many of the acquittals, probably because either jurors feared later reprisal or hoped for a later reward from the defendants. This led the Legislative Assembly to pass a law in March to eliminate jury trials in kidnaping, drug-trafficking, and extortion cases. Inordinate delays in processing cases, absences of attorneys, half-day work schedules, the destruction of many court buildings in the October 1986 earthquake, and defects in the jury selection system result in an inability of the judicial system expeditiously to process cases. As a result, only about 10 percent of all prison inmates are serving sentences; the rest are awaiting adjudication of their cases. Bail is available for some offenses but is seldom used. Prisoners are usually incarcerated for 6 to 18 months between the time they are charged and the time they are brought to trial, and even longer waits are common. A bill before the Legislative Assembly aimed at alleviating this situation will free on their own recognizance many detainees until trial and will establish parole for some convicts.

The Government continues to move forward with a comprehensive judicial reform program, including proposed legislation to revise portions of the penal, penal procedural, and civil codes. The Government is also working over the longer term to overhaul and update the entire system of laws and procedures in order to produce a modern and efficient judicial system. One key proposal would establish a judicial career with minimum requirements for judges at each level of the judiciary.

The Commission for Investigations, consisting of a Special Investigations Unit (SIU) and a fully equipped and staffed Forensic Unit, is investigating a number of sensitive cases of human rights abuse. It has, for example, dedicated a major part of its investigative capability to investigating the murder of Herbert Anaya.

The Salvadoran judiciary, the Attorney General's office, and the Solicitor General's office are independent of the rest of the Government. Supreme Court justices, the Attorney General, and the Solicitor General are chosen by the Legislative Assembly after nomination by political parties. The judicial branch determines its own budget, which must be approved by the legislature. A new Attorney General took office in June and has shown a willingness to prosecute vigorously major human rights cases stalled during his predecessor's time in office.

Historically, judicial authority has not extended to the military officer corps. Although low-ranking military and police officers have been discharged and turned over to the civilian courts for trial of criminal offenses, in practice the officers of the armed and security forces are treated differently from other citizens before the law. Judges are frequently reluctant to bring charges against them, and colleagues often cannot be relied upon to cooperate in the prosecution of crimes imputed to a fellow officer.

While numerous enlisted personnel have been convicted, no military officer has been convicted of human rights violations in recent years. Several have been incarcerated pending trial. The October amnesty has been applied to some cases involving military and security personnel. The judge hearing each case must decide on the applicability of the amnesty in individual cases based on the evidence available as of November 6, although the findings are subject to government appeal.

f. Arbitrary Interference with Privacy, Family, Home, or Correspondence

The Government does not arbitrarily interfere in the personal lives of citizens, although it reserves the right to intervene when it believes national security is threatened. Both the Government and the guerrillas use networks of informers. The security forces need no warrant to use forced entry to carry out arrests and investigations if they believe they have sufficient evidence that a crime may have been committed. The constitutional protection of the inviolability of correspondence is in full force following the termination of the state of emergency.

g. Violations of Humanitarian Law in Armed Conflicts

As compared with previous years, few claims were made that the Air Force engaged in indiscriminate bombing in 1987. Most of those allegations that did surface proved groundless. Many of the charges themselves appear to be part of the FMLN's strategy to manipulate human rights issues and organizations for tactical military and political purposes. On at least two occasions, however, the armed forces acknowledged that civilians were accidentally killed or wounded in aerial attacks, including an incident in Santa Marta, Cabanas Department, in which one civilian was killed and several wounded by a misdirected air strike. Following the guidelines set by President Duarte in 1984, the Air Force generally refrained from attacking guerrilla concentrations and installations when civilians were nearby.

The guerrillas frequently attack economic targets, which greatly affects the well-being of the population; e.g., country-wide transportation stoppages to hinder the flow of foodstuffs and consumer goods; destruction of bridges and the telephone and electric power grids; interference with the production, harvesting, and transportation of major export crops; hindrance of government sponsored repopulation of farmlands; and assassination and kidnaping of mayors and other local government officials. In addition, FMLN guerrillas mount periodic large-scale attacks against key government installations. There were no credible reports of government troops conducting comparable operations, such as burning crops or forcibly moving inhabitants. The military has on occasion, however, burned limited areas during military operations in order to detonate home-made guerrilla mines and thereby minimize casualties.

Of the killings attributed to the FMLN, many victims were rural residents who refused to collaborate with the guerrillas or were suspected of being government informers. Other victims were drivers or passengers of vehicles machine-gunned by the guerrillas during one of the seven "traffic bans" declared by the FMLN in the course of the year. There are eyewitness reports of soldiers on leave and civilians being pulled off buses and executed by guerrillas and of persons kidnaped by guerrillas who have never reappeared. In January the bodies of six coffee workers abducted the previous day by guerrillas were found with their thumbs tied together behind their backs, hacked with machetes, and shot. In February the guerrillas announced they had tried and executed three captives whom they accused of participating in the Government's "United to Reconstruct" campaign in Usulutan Department. The bodies were found shortly thereafter. On September 28, FMLN guerrillas forced the mayor of a small town out of her house and assassinated her in front of her daughter. On November 17, a Salvadoran employee of the U.S. Embassy was murdered by an apparent FMLN assassination team.

On October 1, the President of the Salvadoran Trial Lawyers Association was murdered in San Salvador. There has been speculation that an FMLN group had targeted him for his role as management representative in a labor dispute with an FMLN-controlled union. On October 27, three people were abducted by the FMLN from a cooperative farm in La Paz Department, where they were conducting management training at a cooperative. On December 12-13, guerrillas attacked a coffee farm in Usulatan, killing 11 farm workers and 4 security guards. Several of the farm workers died inside a warehouse the guerrillas had set afire. The latter prevented the farm workers' escape by firing automatic weapons at the doors.

A major cause of death and maiming is the guerrillas' use of indiscriminately placed landmines and booby traps. Planted along farm roads and paths, around guerrilla-downed electric poles, under railroad tracks, near water sources, in farmlands, and on coffee plantations to impede the harvest, these "revolutionary mines" (as the guerrillas call them) killed some 31 civilians in 1984, 55 in 1985, 62 in 1986, and 31 in the first 8 months of 1987. From January through August, another 115 civilians, many of them children, were injured by guerrilla mines. The military uses mines on the perimeters of their installations. There have been a few allegations that these areas were not properly marked, resulting in civilian injuries.

Instances of military mistreatment of noncombatants and prisoners occur, as noted above. There is no evidence they are widespread or that they are condoned by the high command. The Government does not recognize the insurgency as a belligerent power and thus does not accord prisoner-of-war status to captured guerrillas. The armed forces are required to turn captured guerrillas over to the civilian court system for criminal prosecution.

In 1987 the FMLN greatly increased the use of children in combat, and many of them appear to be victims of kidnaping. Videotapes of an FMLN/FDR clandestine press conference in Morazan department before the October 4 dialog show numerous armed 8 to 14-year-old boys keeping guard. A young boy, found with a pistol in his hand, was among several dead children left by guerrilla forces after an attack on a government communications installation in Morazan department on September 30. Still other credible reports were received of children their use as couriers and spotters. According to press reports, 79 civilians disappeared between January and June, including nonpolitical disappearances such as lost or runaway children aged 10 or over. During the same period, the press reported 249 persons abducted by the guerrillas and 13 abducted by unknown assailants. A government report gave the higher figure of 441 persons kidnaped by the guerrillas between January and July. Both the press and the government figures show a considerable increase over the 98 recorded for 1986, attributable primarily to a guerrilla campaign to fill their ranks by forced recruitment of both combatants and support personnel.

Col. Omar Napoleon Avalos, the Director of Civil Aviation, kidnaped by the FMLN in October 1985, was held for more than 15 months until the guerrillas could negotiate what they considered a suitable exchange. Avalos was freed on February 2 in exchange for the Government's release from prison of 57 FMLN suspects. In the course of 1987, the guerrillas captured and exchanged or released seven mayors and several members of the armed forces. Guerrillas keep prisoners with them during their frequent moves and expose them to the danger of attack by the military. They often do not permit ICRC visits to prisoners.

The FMLN claims to respect the physical and psychological integrity of its captives. Nevertheless, the guerrillas occasionally torture captives and then kill them. On November 6, the guerrillas abducted three peasants they claimed were members of the civil defense. The bodies were found the next day with signs of severe torture. The guerrillas reportedly perform executions in front of other kidnap victims as a form of intimidation to persuade the captives to be cooperative.

Section 2 Respect for Civil Liberties, Including:

a. Freedom of Speech and Press

There are no governmental restrictions on freedom of speech and the press. San Salvador, a city of 1 million, has five daily papers, six television stations, and a multitude of radio stations. There are three major evening and two morning newscasts, which broadcast live interviews with a full range of political figures, including guerrilla commanders and political leaders. Four leading daily newspapers in the capital are conservative, and they vigorously criticize the Government. The fifth, while editorially conservative, reports on the press conferences of FMLN front groups and carries unedited pieces from the FMLN press agencies Notisal and Salpress. The views of the radical left continue to be expressed in a variety of journals, periodicals, newsletters, bulletins, and paid advertisements in the daily press, as well as television and radio interviews. The openly pro FMLN/FDR National University of El Salvador and the leftist, Jesuit-run University of Central America publish weekly supplements in one of the major dailies. Commercial radio stations frequently repeat reports broadcast by clandestine guerrilla radio stations. The Government owns no newspapers, but runs one radio station and two television stations with identical programming. The Army operates another radio station, which focuses on Latin music, sports, and pep talks to the troops. An 8-year-old decree forbidding publication of anonymous communiques remains in effect and is largely observed by the media. When it has been violated, the Government has taken action against the reporting media. Academic freedom is protected by the Constitution and respected by the Government.

b. Freedom of Peaceful Assembly and Association

Any association not formed for criminal purposes is legal and permitted in El Salvador. Political, professional, religious, labor, and social organizations operate openly and freely. Various groups criticize the Government from both the left and the right, holding marches and demonstrations without interference from the Government. On January 22, the private sector called a shutdown to protest government economic policies. An estimated 90 percent of the businesses in San Salvador closed their doors. Marches by labor, displaced persons, and human rights front organizations of the FMLN are frequent. On October 3-5, some 2,500 persons, led by FMLN front groups, gathered in the vacant lot across the street from the Papal Nunciature to express their solidarity with the FMLN/FDR delegation during the dialog with the Government.

The Constitution provides for the right of private sector and autonomous public institution employees to organize unions, bargain collectively, and strike. Under the antiquated labor code, however, the bureaucratic procedures required before a union can legally strike make such action extremely difficult. The labor code requires that labor disputes go through protracted stages of direct bargaining, conciliation, and arbitration before a strike or lockout can be declared. The law states that strikes may be called only to demand the implementation or review of the collective bargaining agreement, or in the defense of the common interests of the workers. A majority of the workers must agree before a strike is called. Unions often ignore these requirements, and many strikes are declared to be illegal. The labor ministry oversees the implementation of collective bargaining agreements and serves as conciliator in labor disputes in the private sector and in autonomous institutions. Government employees of nonautonomous public institutions are prohibited by the Constitution from forming unions and striking, but most of these employees are represented by associations which, in fact, act as unions by bargaining collectively and calling work stoppages. Salvadoran unions draw up their own charters and elect their own officers. The Government has not acted upon a proposal which would extend collective bargaining rights to peasant organizations. Labor unions participated in numerous marches and demonstrations, both for and against the Government throughout 1987, often in cooperation with other nongovernmental organizations.

Unions may join national and international federations. Part of the democratic trade union movement is affiliated with the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions, while Christian Democratic unions are affiliated with the World Confederation of Labor. Some leftist unions maintain association with the Communist-dominated World Federation of Trade Unions.

c. Freedom of Religion

Freedom of religion is provided for by the Constitution and is respected in practice. Although the country is predominantly Roman Catholic, an estimated 20 percent of the population subscribe to other faiths, mainly Protestant Fundamentalists. Foreign and Salvadoran missionaries operate freely and without harassment. Church members and employees, both Catholic and Protestant, have on occasion been arrested, but these arrests were unrelated to the person's religious beliefs or activities. The Catholic Church continues to be one of the most influential institutions in the country. The Archbishop's Sunday homily is broadcast live from the Metropolitan Cathedral on one of the Government's television stations and on radio. The Archbishop was officially appointed as mediator in the dialog between the Government and the guerrillas. Church publications disseminate the church's position on human rights and the war. Church statements have become increasingly critical of the leftist insurgency, but the church has not hesitated to criticize the Government.

RELEASED

d. Freedom of Movement Within the Country, Foreign Travel, Emigration, and Repatriation

With the expiration of the state of emergency, constitutional protection of the right of free movement is in force. Nevertheless, local military commanders have denied entry to areas where military operations are under way and require that foreign visitors receive permission before entering combat zones. The Government instituted a requirement that all foreign visitors obtain a Salvadoran visa before entering the country. On occasion it ordered out of the country foreigners who it considered had involved themselves in internal political affairs.

An estimated 327,000 people are displaced within El Salvador by the conflict, primarily from the northern and eastern zones. Another 167,400 are refugees in other Central American countries and in Mexico, and more than 500,000 are estimated to be illegal immigrants in the United States. As the level of violence falls, an increasing number of refugees are returning from abroad. More than 4,833 had already returned from other Central American countries since 1984, according to the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees; on October 10, another 4,300 chose to leave the Mesa Grande refugee camp in Honduras, where some had been living since the beginning of the war, to return to their homes in El Salvador. The Intergovernmental Committee for Migration (ICM), which met and maintained contact with some 9,510 returnees between December 1984 and December 1986 and continued to meet Salvadorans deported from the United States in 1987, reported no evidence of government harassment of individuals returning to El Salvador from abroad, either from the United States or elsewhere. The Government imposes no control on emigration and cooperates with international organizations on Salvadorans' emigration to other countries.

El Salvador has registered some 200 Nicaraguan refugees, although officials estimate there may be up to 1,000 residing in the far southeastern part of the country. Those refugees who are registered are free to travel within El Salvador.

Section 3 Respect for Political Rights: The People's Right to Change Their Government

El Salvador is a representative democracy. The governing Christian Democratic Party (PDC) enjoys a 31-seat majority in the 60-member Legislative Assembly. In addition to one independent member, four other parties are also represented in the Assembly. Legislators are elected for 3-year terms. In preparation for the 1988 legislative/municipal elections and the 1989 presidential election, the Central Elections Council (CCE) created a new voter registry and began distribution of new voter's registration card to safeguard against fraud. The CCE, composed of one representative of each of the three major parties--the PDC, the National Republican Alliance (ARENA), and the National Conciliation Party (PCN)--is also drafting a streamlined electoral law to present to the Assembly. The PCN presented its draft of an electoral reform law to the Assembly, which is now studying it.

The Constitution allows the participation in the electoral process of all political parties that do not advocate armed opposition to the Government and protects the right to membership in any legally recognized party. Although the National Revolutionary Movement (MNR) is a member organization of the FDR, the MNR remains a legally recognized party. The Popular Social Christian Movement (MPSC), though never inscribed as a legal party, has resumed political activity inside El Salvador, and its self-exiled Secretary General Ruben Zamora has publicly stated he will return to El Salvador permanently to participate in political activities. In 1987 two new political parties, the Social Democratic Party (PSD) and the Liberation Party (PL), were inscribed as political parties and will participate in the upcoming legislative and mayoral elections. On November 29, the PSD formally signed an agreement with the MNR and the MPSC to form the "Democratic Convergence." This new organization has not decided whether it will contest the elections, although it could do so using the PSD's inscription.

Section 4 Governmental Attitude Regarding International and Nongovernmental Investigation of Alleged Violations of Human Rights

The Government continues to be receptive to visiting groups interested in human rights. High-ranking government officials and military officers have briefed and been interviewed by U.S. Congressmen, church and labor groups, and others. Americas Watch maintains an office and a part-time representative in San Salvador. The ICRC has an agreement with the Government that permits it to work in the conflictive areas to assist noncombatants and to make confidential reports to the Government on human rights issues. The ICRC, Tutela Legal, and the CDH groups are permitted visits to prisons. An Amnesty International delegation visited the country in March and met with a variety of groups. The U.N. Special Rapporteur on Human Rights in El Salvador made his seventh annual visit to the country from September 25 to October 5, during which he met with government representatives, including President Duarte and the military high command; visited prison inmates; spoke with representatives of the Catholic Church and official and unofficial human rights organizations; and conducted personal interviews.

Domestic human rights organizations active in El Salvador include the governmental CDH, an agency which investigates complaints of human rights abuse by the Government and the FMLN, and Tutela Legal of the Catholic Archdiocese of San Salvador. The nongovernmental Human Rights Commission of El Salvador (CDHES), the Committee of Mothers of Political Prisoners, Disappeared and Assassinated of El Salvador (CO-MADRES), and the Christian Committee for the Displaced (CRIPDES) have been exposed by guerrilla defectors and captured documents as political fronts of the FMLN. These groups report only on perceived abuses by the Government and refuse to investigate, acknowledge, or even record human rights abuses by the FMLN. Many of the government abuses they report, moreover, appear to be fabrications. They continue to operate freely, although some individual members were arrested during 1987 and charged with guerrilla membership or activities.

El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

The CDH receives testimony about human rights violations, conducts investigations, visits arrested persons, and reports to the local commanding officer and the Ministry of Defense when it discovers a case of abuse. Its doctors examine detainees to determine the validity of complaints. The CDH keeps a register of persons injured by landmine explosions and is working in conjunction with aid organizations on a project to register civilian amputees and provide them with prosthetic devices.

Tutela Legal's staff visits persons detained by the security forces, carries out some on-site investigations, receives testimony about human rights violations, and uses the press as a major source for its monthly reports. Tutela Legal's methodology in interpreting its statistical information, however, casts doubt on the organization's findings. Tutela Legal frequently counts victims as civilians even when they may be guerrillas, as noted by the UN Special Rapporteur in his 1986 report.

In March a new human rights organization, the Salvadoran Association for Human Rights (ASPRODERH), was founded by a group of FMLN defectors who had worked in the CDHES and CO-MADRES on behalf of the FMLN. The ASPRODERH founders stated their intention to have the organization fill the human rights middle ground between the Government's Human Rights Commission and the various pro-FMLN groups.

Section 5 Discrimination Based on Race, Sex, Religion, Language, or Social Status

El Salvador is ethnically homogeneous, and few ethnic Indians remain. There is no official discrimination against Indians, but there have been disputes over Indian land ownership. Under the Constitution, women enjoy the same legal rights as men. Although women are represented in all three branches of government, in business, and in the professions, their numbers are limited by cultural constraints. In the armed forces, women serve as nurses and in administration and intelligence; the security services have a limited number of policewomen. A high proportion of women in the lower economic strata are heads of single parent households, often providing for large families. In general, women tend to occupy jobs at the lower end of the economic scale, and outside the Government, women's wages tend to be lower than those of men for equivalent work.

CONDITIONS OF LABOR

The Constitution permits employment of children under 14 years of age only when their employment is necessary to provide for their own or their families' subsistence. Children under age 18 are prohibited from working at night or in dangerous occupations. In reality, however, teenage and even younger children work long hours. The minimum wage applies to persons working at least 5 hours a day and is equivalent to about $1.00 per day. In practice, most workers are paid more than the minimum wage. The law entitles them to 15 days of annual paid vacation and extra pay for working at night or for more than 44 hours a week. Persons working less than 5 hours per day receive a proportion of the minimum daily wage equivalent to the hours worked. The law also requires that those paid by piecework or commission receive a salary at least equivalent to the minimum wage. The minimum wage for farm workers is equivalent to about $1.60 per day plus food. Most farm workers receive only the minimum, but piece rates paid at harvest time net workers triple or quadruple the minimum wage. The Government requires that work sites be safe, and that drinking water, toilets, and adequate ventilation be provided workers, but enforcement is inadequate.

Dear Sen. Mikulski:

I have received information that on November 28, 1986, the USA voted "no" on a U. N. resolution condemning human rights abuses in Chile. I feel that this vote was wrong and that we should have voted "yes."

I would appreciate it if you would request clarification of this vote from Elliott Abrams, Undersecretary of State for Inter-American Affairs.

Thank you.

RIGHTS SITUATION IN THAT COUNTRY IS UNIQUE OR IS CONSIDERABLY WORSE THAN IN ALL OTHER COUNTRIES UNDER CONSIDERATION BY THE COMMISSION. TO SUBSUME THE MATTER UNDER ITEM 12 WOULD PERMIT THE UNHRC TO TREAT THIS MATTER MORE FAIRLY, AVOIDING THE APPEARANCE OF APPLYING A DOUBLE STANDARD.

4. FROM AN EXAMINATION OF THE HISTORY OF UNHRC CONSIDERATIONS OF COUNTRY SITUATIONS INVOLVING HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, IT IS CLEAR THAT THE SEPARATE TREATMENT OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE IS ANOMALOUS AND NOT IN LINE WITH THE PATTERN OF PRACTICE WHICH THE UNHRC HAS FOLLOWED. THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATIONS IN EL SALVADOR, GUATEMALA, IRAN, AFGHANISTAN, AND POLAND HAVE BEEN CONSIDERED UNDER ITEM 12. THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE WAS FIRST RAISED AT THE 30TH SESSION (1974) BY BULGARIA, BYELORUSSIA, AND THE USSR, WHO ACTED UNDER ITEM 12. THE MATTER WAS THEN TREATED SEPARATELY, HOWEVER, AT THE 31ST SESSION (1975) AND AT ANNUAL SESSIONS SINCE THEN. THIS SHIFT TO A SEPARATE AGENDA ITEM APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN BASED ON THE FACT THAT THE UNHRC'S RENEWED CONSIDERATION OF THE MATTER IN 1975 WAS PURSUANT TO A SPECIFIC RECOMMENDATION OF ITS SUBCOMMISSION. THE COMMISSION'S PRACTICE UNDER SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES HAS NOT, HOWEVER, BEEN CONSISTENT. FOR EXAMPLE, AT ITS 40TH SESSION (1984) , THE COMMISSION RECEIVED FROM ITS SUBCOMMISSION A DRAFT RESOLUTION PROPOSING THE APPOINTMENT OF A SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR TO EXAMINE THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN AFGHANISTAN, AN ENTIRELY NEW ITEM FOR UNHRC CONSIDERATION. IN THIS INSTANCE, THE SUBCOMMISSION'S PROPOSAL WAS CONSIDERED BY THE COMMISSION UNDER ITEM 12, AND THE COMMISSION'S ENDORSEMENT OF THE SUBCOMMISSION'S PROPOSAL FOR A SPECIAL CONFIDENTIAL

RAPPORTEUR ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN AFGHANISTAN WAS TAKEN AS THE END RESULT OF THE DEBATE UNDER ITEM 12. THIS ACTION MERELY CONFIRMED THE UNHRC'S SETTLED PRACTICE OF DEALING WITH COUNTRY SITUATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, I.E. EL SALVADOR, GUATEMALA, IRAN, AND POLAND, UNDER ITEM 12.

5. IT IS ERRONEOUS TO CLAIM, AS SOME HAVE DONE, THAT AGENDA ITEM 5 PROVIDES SPECIAL AND PUBLIC TREATMENT OF A SPECIFIC CASE WHEREAS ITEM 12 IS GENERAL AND PRIVATE IN NATURE. CONSIDERATION OF CASES RAISED BY GOVERNMENTS OR THE UNHRC'S SUBCOMMISSION UNDER ITEM 12 IS FULLY AS PUBLIC AND SPECIFIC AS HAS BEEN THE CONSIDERATION OF THE CHILE CASE WHICH HAS BEEN PURSUED UNDER ITEM 5. IF THE CHILEAN CASE WERE TRANSFERRED TO ITEM 12, IT WOULD STILL BE TREATED PUBLICLY.

6. DEPARTMENT AGREES WITH CHARRY SAMPER'S VIEW (REFTEL) THAT THE BRAZILIAN POSITION ON THIS ISSUE WOULD PROVE INFLUENTIAL WITH OTHER LATIN AMERICAN GROUP MEMBER COUNTRIES. SHULTZ

SUBJECT: DAS GE.BARD'S FEBRUARY 3 MEETING WITH CHILEAN CHARGE ON LETELIER CASE

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. DAS GELBARD CALLED IN CHILEAN CHARGE MATURANA TO BREAK NES OF FERNANDEZ' ARRIVAL INTO US AND FEB. 4 ARRAIGNMENT, FOLLOWING AMBASSADOR BARNES' BRIEFING OF INTERIOR MINISTER GARCIA. GELBARD EMPHASIZED THAT THE US HAS CONTINUED TO VIEW THE UNRESOLVED LETELIER/MOFFITT MURDERS WITH SERIOUS CONCERN. HE SUGGESTED THAT IT WOULD BE HELPFUL IF, IN LIGHT OF NEW EVIDENCE PRESENTED BY FERNANDEZ STATEMENT, THE GOC COULD IN SOME WAY PROVIDE OTHER INDICTED CO-CONSPIRATORS TO THE US. SEPTEL REPORTS ANOTHER TOPIC COVERED IN THE MEETING. END SUMMARY.

MATURANA TO INFORM HIM OF SCHEDULED FEB. 4 ARRAIGNMENT OF LETELIER CO-CONSPIRATOR ARMANDO FERNANDEZ LARIOS. MATURANA WAS INFORMED THAT AMB. BARNES HAD PASSED ON A SIMILAR MESSAGE TO MINISTER GARCIA EARLIER IN THE DAY,

AFTER BEING UNABLE TO REACH OTHER MEMBERS OF THE GOC.

STRESSING THAT THIS WAS PRINCIPALLY A LAW ENFORCEMENT MATTER, HANDLED BY THE US ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, THE JUSTICE DEPT., AS WELL AS THE STATE DEPARTMENT, GELBARD BEGAN BY NOTING THE USG'S LONGSTANDING SERIOUS CONCERN OVER THE MURDERS OF LETELIER AND MOFFITT. AFTER THIS DEPLORABLE CRIME OCCURRED, TOWNLEY WAS JAILED AND WE MADE EXTRADITION REQUESTS TO THE GOC FOR FERNANDEZ, ESPINOZA AND CONTRERAS. THESE REQUESTS WERE DENIED. NOW, GELBARD CONTINUED, FERNANDEZ HAS VOLUNTARILY COME TO THE UNITED STATES. HE WILL BE ARRAIGNED ON FEB. 4 AND PLEAD GUILTY TO THE CHARGES AGAINST HIM AND SUBSEQUENTLY RECEIVE A PRISON TERM. FERNANDEZ' TESTIMONY, SAID GELBARD, IS CREDIBLE, HAS BEEN CHECKED BY POLYGRAPH, AND ORROBORATES THAT GIVEN BY TOWNLEY, BESIDES ADDING IMPORTANT NEW INFORMATION.

4. GELBARD THEN NOTED HIS HOPE THAT THE GOC WOULD COOPERATE WITH US TO HELP RESOLVE OUTSTANDING QUESTIONS IN THIS CASE. THIS ISSUE SHOULD NOT BECOME MORE OF AN IMPEDIMENT TO OUR RELATIONS. GELBARD UNDERLINED THAT THE USG HAS NOT YET DECIDED WHETHER TO SEEK PROVISIONAL ARREST OF ESPINOZA AND CONTRERAS PENDING AN EXTRADITION REQUEST. WHILE WE ARE PREPARED TO GO THROUGH THE EXTRADITION PROCESS, THE GOC COULD SHOW ITS INTEREST IN JUSTICE AND MUTUAL COOPERATION BY COMMITTING ITSELF TO MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO SEND ESPINOSA AND CONTRERAS TO THE US TO STAND TRIAL.

5. MATURANA EXPRESSED COMPLETE SURPRISE AT THE INFORMATION PROVIDED HIM, WONDERING ALOUD WHY FERNANDEZ WOULD TURN HIMSELF IN. GELBARD OFFERED THAT REMORSE WAS A KEY MOTIVE. FERNANDEZ, GELBARD CONTINUED, SAID THAT HE HAD PREPARED A TRUE VERSION OF HIS INVOLVEMENT IN THE LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE AND WAS TOLD TO TEAR IT UP AND PARTICIPATE IN THE COVER-UP BY GENERAL OROZCO, THE MILITARY PROSECUTOR. FERNANDEZ APPEARED TO FEEL GENUINE REMORSE OVER HIS ROLE IN THE EVENTS AND COVER-UP. MATURANA HAD LITTLE SUBSTANTIVE COMMENT ON WHAT HE WAS TOLD, EXCEPT TO STATE THAT THE ORIGINAL 1978 EXTRADITION REQUEST WAS DENIED ON "TECHNICAL GROUNDS" AND THAT THERE WAS "NOTHING POLITICAL" IN THIS DENIAL. MATURANA DOUBTED THAT THE REMAINING INDICTED CO-CONSPIRATORS WOULD BE SENT TO THE US WITHOUT AN EXTRADITION REQUEST GOING THROUGH THE COURTS. TO DO OTHERWISE, HE SAID, WOULD VIOLATE THEIR RIGHTS.

6. IN CLOSING THIS PORTION OF THEIR CONVERSATION,

GELBARD NOTED THAT THE USG WAS SEEKING TO HANDLE THIS MATTER IN A BUSINESS-LIKE MANNER. WE WOULD BE MAKING NO COMMENT ON THIS CASE PRIOR TO THE ARRAIGNMENT OF FERNANDEZ ON FEB. 4. HE ADDED THAT MRS. LETELIER AND MEMBERS OF THE MOFFITT FAMILY WERE INFORMED TODAY (FEB. 3) OF DEVELOPMENTS BY THE US ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

SUBJECT: 43RD SESSION OF UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION: AMBASSADOR WALLACH'S FEBRUARY 3 MEETING WITH CHILEAN ENVOY CALDERON

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT. THIS IS HRC-003.

2. AT THE REQUEST OF THE CHILEAN MISSION, USDEL HEAD AMBASSADOR WALLACH MET FOR ONE-HALF HOUR FEBRUARY 3 WITH CHILEAN FOREIGN MINISTRY SUB-SECRETARY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS CALDERON. CALDERON, WHO HAD JUST COME FROM A LENGTHY MEETING WITH SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR VOLIO, SAID THAT HIS MESSAGE FOR WALLACH WAS THAT THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT WOULD CONTINUE "FULL COOPERATION" WITH VOLIO. VOLIO HAD JUST BEEN GIVEN A LARGE AMOUNT OF INFORMATION BY CALDERON ON ACTIONS TAKEN (EXILES, STATE OF SIEGE) AND CONTEMPLATED (POLITICAL PARTIES LAW). VOLIO WOULD VISIT CHILE MARCH 20-31, "JUST BEFORE THE POPE."

3. CALDERON STRESSED THAT THIS COOPERATION WAS EXTENDED BY THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT PERSONALLY TO VOLIO, FOR WHOM THE GOVERNMENT MAINTAINS GREAT RESPECT. CALDERON LAMENTED THAT HIS MINISTRY HAS DIFFICULTY IN EXPLAINING TO OTHER ELEMENTS IN THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT WHY CHILE SHOULD CONTINUE TO COOPERATE WITH THE COMMISSION.

SENIOR CHILEAN OFFICIALS DO NOT ACCEPT THE LEGITIMACY OF DEBATE ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE LED BY A BYELORUSSIAN CHAIRMAN, WHEN MORE SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATIONS IN OTHER COUNTRIES ARE PASSED OVER IN SILENCE. IN THIS REGARD, CALDERON EXPRESSED RATHER MILD REGRET THAT THE USG DID NOT PRESS HARDER TO SUPPRESS ITEM 5 (CHILE) AT THE OPENING SESSION OF THE COMMISSION.

4. AMBASSADOR WALLACH REITERATED THAT THE USG AND THE DELEGATION HAD CONCLUDED THAT THE VOTES SIMPLY WERE NOT THERE TO SUPPRESS ITEM 5. A COMPROMISE WORKED OUT TO CLUSTER ITEMS 5 AND 12 (VIOLATIONS ANYWHERE) CREATED A DE FACTO SUPPRESSION OF ITEM 5 IN TERMS OF THE DEBATE ITSELF. WHILE NO FINAL DECISION HAD, AS YET, BEEN REACHED, SERIOUS CONSIDERATION WAS BEING GIVEN TO INSURE THAT THE RESOLUTION ON CHILE INCLUDED LANGUAGE WHICH NEXT YEAR WOULD ELIMINATE THE PROCEDURAL DISCRIMINATION AGAINST CHILE EMBODIED IN A SEPARATE ITEM 5. WALLACH EMPHASIZED THAT THE USG WOULD CONSIDER SYMPATHETICALLY THE EVIDENCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS IN CHILE. POLCOUNS CAUTIONED THAT CALDERON WOULD HAVE TO SHOW THAT THE GOC WAS MOVING FORWARD WITH A PROGRAM, NOT MERELY ISOLATED MEASURES, AND THAT THE JUDICIARY WAS INDEPENDENT AND ENERGETIC. FLACK

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

This memorandum presents views of the Republic of Chile concerning a legal proceeding that is reportedly pending in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia under Civil Action No. 86-3085. This legal proceeding is apparently brought by Veronic DeNegri and others against the Republic of Chile and the Armed Forces of Chile. It is referred to below as "the DeNegri proceeding."

Preliminarily, the Republic of Chile advises that the Armed Forces of Chile are not a separate legal person either under Chilean law or under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. 1603(b). The Armed Forces are an integral part of the Chilean state. The Armed Forces have no separate capacity to bring legal proceedings, to defend legal proceedings, or to engage in legal transactions except on behalf of the Republic of Chile itself.

I. INTRODUCTION

The plaintiffs in the DeNegri proceeding have attempted to serve legal documents upon the Embassy of Chile and its military mission. The Clerk of the District Court has also mailed legal documents to the military mission. As discussed under point IV below, such methods both violate the diplomatic immunities of the Republic of Chile and its diplomatic mission, and are improper under Section 1608 of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. 1608. The Republic of Chile, nevertheless, is concerned about a possible exercise of jurisdiction in the DeNegri proceeding, as a result of these invalid and improper attempts to serve legal process and, thus, suggests consideration of the legal standards presented in this memorandum.

The Republic of Chile also presents this memorandum so that the District Court may determine, at the earliest appropriate occasion, the lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter of this legal proceeding. The Republic of Chile is advised that the District Court is empowered to determine, at any time and at its own initiative, that it lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of a legal proceeding. See Rule 12(h)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Louisville and Nashville Railroad v. Motley, 211 U.S. 149 (1908). Professor Moore of the United States has also written that when a court lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter and even when the parties before the court do not call attention to this lack of jurisdiction, "the court at any stage of the proceedings has a duty to raise such a defense on its own initiative." Moore's Federal Practice, Vol. 2A, Section 12.23, page 12-204 (second edition 1986).

When a foreign sovereign is the defendant, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that a court must determine its jurisdiction over the subject matter, and sovereign immunity, "even if the foreign state does not enter an appearance to assert an immunity defense . . . ." Verlinden B. V. v. Central Bank of Nigeria, 461 U.S. 480, 493-494 n.20 (1983). Other United States courts have also determined that they must independently determine their own jurisdiction in all cases against foreign sovereigns. MOL, Inc. v. People's Republic of Bangladesh, 736 F.2d 1326, 1328 (9th Cir. 1984); Frolova v. Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 761 F.2d 370, 373 (7th Cir. 1985); Jackson v. The People's Republic of China, 794 F.2d 1490 (11th Cir. 1986); In Re Korean Airlines Disaster of September 1, 1983, M.D.L. Docket No. 565 (D.D.C. Memorandum and Order of August 1, 1985); McKeel v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 722 F.2d 582, 585-87 (9th Cir. 1983); Meadows v. Dominican Republic, 628 F. Supp. 599, 603 (N.D. Cal. 1986).

The DeNegri proceeding presents this question of lack of jurisdiction. It also raises the most serious questions about the principle of sovereign immunity under international law and the competence of a court in one country to assert jurisdiction against a foreign sovereign with respect to matters that have occurred exclusively within the territory of that foreign sovereign. In this regard, all of the events in question occurred entirely within Chile. All participants in the events were Chilean nationals and were present in Chile at all times. The injuries and death occurred in Chile to Chilean nationals. As a result, formal charges have been filed in Chile by Chilean authorities and criminal proceedings are pending in Chile. To assert jurisdiction in such circumstances would be inconsistent with the concern of the United States Congress in adopting the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, that United States courts not be "turned into small 'international courts of claims' . . . open to all comers to litigate any dispute which any private party may have with a foreign state anywhere in the world." Verlinden B.V. v. Central Bank of Nigeria, 461 U.S. at 490, citing Hearings on H.R. 11315, page 31.

The plaintiffs in the DeNegri proceeding have remedies available in Chile. They have retained Chilean counsel who has participated directly on their behalf in the criminal proceedings in Chile. As a result, the plaintiffs have acquired the legal status, under Chilean law, of "interested parties" in those Chilean criminal proceedings. Plaintiffs have not, however, attempted to avail themselves of civil tort remedies available in Chile. See point VII below. They have preferred instead to initiate the civil proceedings in question within the United States.

Because of the impropriety of these civil proceedings and their implications under international law and for ongoing criminal proceedings in Chile, the Republic of Chile desires that the District Court promptly determine its own jurisdiction concerning the subject matter, and suggests that the authorities discussed below be given consideration.

II. THE COURT LACKS JURISDICTION OF THE SUBJECT MATTER UNDER UNITED STATES LAW

A. The Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act Governs Jurisdiction In Every Case Against a Foreign Sovereign.

The Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. 1330, 1604-1607, is the exclusive basis by which a United States court may have subject matter jurisdiction in cases against a foreign sovereign government. The United States Supreme Court made this clear in its decision in Verlinden B.V. v. Central Bank of Nigeria, 461 U.S. 480 (1983). The Supreme Court recognized that all actions against foreign sovereigns involve important federal and international concerns: "Actions against foreign sovereigns in our courts raise sensitive issues concerning the foreign relations of the United States, and the primacy of federal concerns is evident." 461 U.S. at 493. In view of these concerns, the Supreme Court concluded that the United States Congress had intended the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act to be the exclusive basis for determining jurisdiction in "every" case against a foreign sovereign:

> To promote these federal interests, Congress exercised its Article I powers by enacting a statute comprehensively regulating the amenability of foreign nations to suit in the United States. The statute must be applied by the district courts in every action against a foreign sovereign, since subject matter jurisdiction in any such action depends on the existence of one of the specified exceptions to sovereign immunity . . . . At the threshold of every action in a district court against a foreign state, > therefore, the court must satisfy itself that one of the exceptions applies--and in doing so it must apply the detailed federal law standards set forth in the Act.

UNCLASSIFIED

461 U.S. at 493-494 (emphasis supplied). In this regard, the legislative history to the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act states that it was "intended to preempt any other State or Federal law . . . for according immunity to foreign sovereigns." House of Representatives Report No. 94-1498, 94th Congress, 2d Session (referred to below as "House Report"), page 12.

Other United States courts have also ruled that the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. 1330(a), is the only basis for subject matter jurisdiction in cases against a foreign sovereign. For example, while aliens may possibly sue individual persons for torts in violation of the "law of nations" under 28 U.S.C. 1350, they may not sue a foreign sovereign under this statute--because a foreign sovereign may only be sued under 28 U.S.C. 1330. Amerada Hess Shipping Corp. v. Argentine Republic, 638 F.Supp. 73 (S.D.N.Y. 1986), appeal pending; In Re Korean Airlines District of September 1, 1983, M.D.L. Docket No. 565 (D.D.C. Memorandum and Order of August 1, 1985); Tel-Oren v. Libyan Arab Republic, 726 F.2d 774 (D.C. Cir. 1984), at 776 n. 1 (opinion of Judge Edwards) and at 805 n. 13 (opinion of Judge Bork). Nor may a foreign sovereign be sued under 28 U.S.C. 1331 or 1332. McKeel v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 722 F.2d 582, 585-587 (9th Cir. 1985); O'Connell Machinery Co. v.

UNCLASSIFIED

M. V Americana, 734 F.2d 115, 116 (2d Cir. 1984); Goar v. Compania Peruana de Vapores, 688 F.2d 417, 421-422 (5th Cir. 1982); Rex v. Cia. Peruana de Vapores, 660 F.2d 61, 64-65 (3d Cir. 1981); Williams v. Shipping Corp. India, 653 F.2d 875, 880-881 (4th Cir. 1981).

The United States Government has adopted the same view, that 28 U.S.C. 1330(a) is the only basis for subject matter jurisdiction in cases against a foreign sovereign. See Statement of Interest of the United States, in Guy von Dardel v. Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, United States District Court for the District of Columbia, Civil Action No. 84-0353 (filed December 8, 1986), page 25. Thus, if jurisdiction is lacking under this statute, no jurisdiction may exist against a foreign sovereign under United States law.

B. A Foreign Sovereign Is Immune From Jurisdiction Unless An "Exception" In 28 U.S.C. 1604-1607 Clearly Applies.

The jurisdictional framework established by the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act "begins with the presumption that foreign states are immune from suit." Frolova v. Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 761 F.2d at 372. Thus, the Supreme Court in the Verlinden case noted that the jurisdictional section of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. 1330(a), confers jurisdiction only where a foreign sovereign does not have

UNCLASSIFIED

sovereign immunity under one of the "exceptions" of 28 U.S.C. 1604-1607:

> If one of the specified exceptions to sovereign immunity applies, a federal court may exercise subject matter jurisdiction under 1330(a); but if the claim does not fall within one of the exceptions, federal courts lack subject matter jurisdiction.

461 U.S. at 489.

The first immunity section, 28 U.S.C. 1604, states the basic presumption, that a foreign sovereign is to be accorded immunity unless one of the limited exceptions in sections 1605-1607 applies. The principal immunity exceptions then appear in 28 U.S.C. 1605. (The next section, 28 U.S.C 1606, states consequences that may result if sovereign immunity is not conferred. The final section, 28 U.S.C. 1607, applies only to counterclaims.)

An analysis of 28 U.S.C 1605 indicates that none of its limited exceptions to sovereign immunity applies to the apparent subject matter of the DeNegri proceeding. Some of these exceptions are totally irrelevant, such as the "commercial activity" exception of Section 1605(a)(2); the expropriated property exception of Section 1605(a)(3); the real estate and inheritance exception of 1605(a)(4); and the maritime claim exception of Section 1605(b).

The discussion below establishes that the other potential exceptions to the fundamental rule of sovereign immunity also do not apply--specifically, the tort claim exception of Section 1605(a)(5), the waiver exception of Section 1605(a)(1), and the international agreement clause of Section 1604.

C. All Foreign Sovereigns Are Immune From Non-Commercial Tort Claims Unless Both the Injury and the Alleged Tortious Acts Have Occurred Within the United States.

Besides occurrence of the injury in the United States, the tort claim exception, 28 U.S.C. 1605(a)(5), removes sovereign immunity and provides jurisdiction only for limited types of tort claims. Significantly, it permits a district court to exercise jurisdiction against a foreign sovereign only where the injury occurs "in the United States" itself. 28 U.S.C. 1605(a)(5); Persinger v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 729 F.2d 835 (D.C. Cir 1984); Perez v. The Bahamas, 652 F.2d 196 (D.C. Cir. 1981) (ruling that The Bahamas were immune from tort claims based on injuries in Bahamian territorial waters inflicted by Bahamian gunboats). The apparent subject matter of the DeNegri proceeding involves injuries that occurred entirely within Chile, not at all within the United States. For this sole reason, the district court may not exercise jurisdiction.

Besides occurrence of the injury in the United States, the legislative history to 28 U.S.C. 1605(a)(5) shows that the United States Congress intended a second requirement--that the tortious act or omission must also occur within the United States. House Report, page 21. The United States courts have, thus, ruled that not only the injury, but also the tortious act or omission, must occur within the United States and not abroad. Persinger v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 729 F.2d at 842-843; Asociacion de Reclamantes v. United Mexican States, 735 F.2d 1517, 1524-1525 (D.C. Cir. 1984); Frolova v. Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 761 F.2d 370, 379-380, (7th Cir. 1985); Olsen v. Government of Mexico, 729 F.2d 641, 645-646 (9th Cir. 1984); Kline v. Republic of El Salvador, 603 F. Supp. 1313, 1315-1316 (D.D.C. 1985).

The apparent subject of the DeNegri proceeding concerns not only injuries occurring entirely within Chile, but also alleged acts and omissions entirely within Chile. None were within the United States. For this reason, the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act prevents the District Court from exercising jurisdiction.

D. The Republic of Chile Has Never Waived Its Immunity, Either By International Agreement Or By Any Other Act.

The Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. 1605(a)(1), allows a court to exercise jurisdiction where a foreign sovereign has waived its immunity either explicitly or by implication. In view of the purposes of the statute and the potential "sensitivity" of all actions against foreign sovereigns, Verlinden B.V. v. Central Bank of Nigeria, 461 U.S. at 493, these waiver exceptions have been very narrowly interpreted.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

The legislative history lists only three examples of waivers by implication: (1) an agreement to arbitration by the foreign state of the dispute in question, (2) an agreement by a foreign state in a contract dispute that the contract is governed by the law of a particular country, and (3) the filing of a responsive pleading by a foreign state in a case in the United States without raising the defense of sovereign immunity. House Report, at page 18. The "courts have been reluctant to stray beyond these examples when considering claims that a nation has implicitly waived its defense of sovereign immunity." Frolova v. Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 761 F.2d at 377. Even "proyisions allegedly waiving sovereign immunity are narrowly construed." 761 F.2d at 377. The same court has said that "courts rarely find that a nation has waived its sovereign immunity . . . without strong evidence that this is what the foreign state intended." 761 F.2d at 377, referring to Maritime Int'l Nominees Establishment v. Republic of Guinea, 693 F.2d 1094, 1100 n. 10 (D.C. Cir. 1982). Thus, a foreign state does not waive its sovereign immunity, unless there has been "an intentional and knowing relinquishment of the legal right." Castro v. Saudi Arabia, 510 F. Supp. 309, 312 (W.D. Tex. 1980).

The Republic of Chile has never explicitly or otherwise waived its right of sovereign immunity in connection with any subject matter involved in the DeNegri proceeding. It has never made "an intentional and knowing relinquishment of the legal right" to sovereign immunity. It has never intended to waive its sovereign immunity. In fact, as discussed under point III below, the Republic of Chile adheres to the absolute principle of sovereign immunity under international law, and retains its sovereign immunity unless it has explicitly relinquished that immunity in writing in a particular case. Moreover, under Chilean law, there is a statute that provides a detailed procedure that must be followed before the Republic of Chile may relinquish its sovereign immunity in particular cases. Decree Law No. 2349, Article 4, Diario Oficial No. 30,201, October 13, 1978. Neither that law nor its detailed procedures have been followed in connection with the subject matter of the DeNegri proceeding.

In addition, the Republic of Chile has never waived its sovereign immunity in any international agreement that might in any way be relevant to the DeNegri proceeding. In this regard, it has been claimed before other courts, that other foreign states waived their sovereign immunity by entering into international agreements which do not specifically address the subject of sovereign immunity--such as the United Nations Charter and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The courts, however, "have generally required convincing evidence that a treaty was intended to waive sovereign immunity before holding that a foreign state may be sued in this country." Frolova v. Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 726 F.2d at 378. Accordingly, the courts have rejected the view that adherence to such general international agreements have, in any way, resulted in any waiver of sovereign immunity. Frolova v. Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 761 F.2d at 376-378; Berkovitz v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 735 F.2d 329, 333 (9th Cir. 1984); Rio Grande Transport Inc. v. Compagnie Nationale Algerienne de Nauvigation, 517 F.2d 1155, 1160 (S.D.N.Y. 1981); In re Korean Airlines Disaster of September 1, 1983, United States District Court for the District of Columbia, M.D.L. Docket No. 565 (opinion of August 1985) at p. 5-6. The United States Government has also adopted this view. See Statement of Interest of the United States, in Guy Von Dardel v. Union of Soviet Socialists Republics, United States District Court for the District of Columbia, Civil Action No. 84-0353 (filed December 8, 1986), at pages 22-24.

For these reasons, the Republic of Chile may not be deemed, in any fashion, to have waived its sovereign immunity.

E. No International Agreement Deprives the Republic of Chile of Its Sovereign Immunity.

The basic immunity provision in the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. 1604, is "subject to existing international agreements of which the United States is a party at the time of enactment of this Act. . . ." The legislative history to this clause indicates that it applies only "in the event an international agreement expressly conflicts" with the Foreign Sovereign

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Immunities Act. House Report, page 17. The provision was intended not to upset the NATO Status of Forces Agreement or other "agreements to which the United States is a party, calling for exclusive non-judicial remedies through arbitration or other procedures for the settlement of disputes." House Report, page 17. Moreover, the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act prevails whenever "international agreements are silent on a question of immunity . . .; the international agreement would control only where a conflict was manifest." House Report at 18.

The United States Government, in another case before the District Court, has made clear that for an international agreement to deprive a foreign sovereign of its sovereign immunity, that international agreement "must expressly provide for amenability to suit or otherwise conflict with the FSIA's immunity provisions." Statement of Interest of the United States, in Guy Von Dardel v. Union of Soviet Socialists Republics, cited above, page 21. The same conclusion was reached in Colonial Bank v. Compagnie General Maritime et Financiere, 645 F. Supp. 1457, 1460-1461 (S.D.N.Y. 1986). The Republic of Chile has never entered into any international agreement that would relinquish or limit, in any respect, its sovereign immunity in cases of tort. No such international agreement exists.

For all of the above reasons, the District Court, under United States law, lacks jurisdiction in the DeNegri proceeding.

III. THE COURT LACKS JURISDICTION UNDER INTERNATIONAL LAW

As discussed below, any exercise of jurisdiction in the DeNegri proceeding by a United States court against the Republic of Chile would also violate international law and, thus, give rise to an international claim by the Republic of Chile against the United States. See Restatement of the Law Second, Foreign Relations Law of the United States, Sections 3 and 8 (1965), pages 8-14, 23-25. Principles of international law are, in addition, relevant to the interpretation of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act. Congress purported to base the main principles of this statute on "international law." See 28 U.S.C. 1602. The legislative history has numerous references to the intent of Congress to conform to international law:

> Sovereign immunity is a doctrine of international law under which domestic courts, in appropriate cases, relinquish jurisdiction over a foreign state. . . .
> Sovereign immunity as a doctrine of international law was first recognized in our courts in the landmark case of The Schooner Exchange v. M'Faddon, 7 Cranch 116 (1812).

House Report, page 8.

> In virtually every country, the United States has found that sovereign immunity is a question of international law to be determined by the courts.

House Report, page 9.

> Section 1602 sets forth the central premise of the bill: That decisions on claims by foreign states to sovereign immunity are best made by the judiciary on the basis of a statutory regime which incorporates standards recognized under international law.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

House Report, page 14.

It is universally recognized under international law that a foreign state, like the Republic of Chile, may not be sued in the national courts of another country (like the United States) with respect to alleged torts that occurred within the foreign sovereign's own territory. Indeed, for the majority of the world's countries, sovereign immunity is absolute. There are no exceptions to sovereign immunity unless a foreign sovereign explicitly relinquishes its sovereign immunity. Most Latin American countries adhere to this view. Indeed, virtually all countries of Latin America are parties to the Inter-American Convention on Private International Law of 1928 (Bustamante Code). Under Articles 333-335 of this international treaty, foreign states are entitled to immunity, except in certain cases involving real property and inheritances and except where the foreign state has voluntarily and intentionally submitted to a court's jurisdiction.

The Republic of Chile has consistently applied these principles. For example, the case of Senerman Rapaport v. Republic of Cuba, Revista De Derecho Jurisprudencia, Vol. 72 (1975), Part II, Page 54; 65 International Law Reports 29 (Chile Supreme Court 1975), decided that legal proceedings could not be maintained in Chile against a foreign state, even for a contract to sell real property, in view of the equality of sovereigns and the "principle of internatipnal law . . . that a sovereign State shall not be subject to the jurisdictional power of the courts of another State." 64 International Law Reports at 30. This principle applied even to Cuba, a hostile nation with which Chile did not maintain diplomatic relations. In fact, the Government Attorney's Office of the Republic of Chile asserted sovereign immunity to the Supreme Court of Chile on Cuba's behalf. See also Oppenlander De Soska v. Embassy of Ecuador, Fallos de la Corte Suprema, Vol. 221, 1959, page 171, 65 International Law Reports 2 (Argentina Supreme Court, 1951), holding that a tort claim based on an industrial accident could not be maintained where "the government of Ecuador does not consent to this Court trying the action."

Many developing countries and socialist nations adhere to this absolute view of sovereign immunity. Indeed many such countries have specific statutes adopting this absolute view of sovereign immunity. See for example Argentina, Act No. 21,708, Boletin Oficial 28-12-77, Article 24, reprinted in United Nations Legislative Series, Materials On Jurisdictional Immunities Of States And Their Property, ST/LEG/SER.B/20 (1982), page 4 (this is referred to below as "U.N. Legislative Series"); Czechoslovakia, Act Concerning Private International Law And The Rules Of Procedure Relating Thereto, Section 47, in U.N. Legislative Series, pages 14-15; Hungary, Law Degree No. 13 Of 1979 On Private International Law, Section 17(c), in U.N. Legislative Series, page 17; Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, Law Dated 8 December, 1961, Proceedings of the Supreme Soviet of the USSR, 1961, No. 50, page 526, Article 61, in U.N. Legislative Series, page 40. Colombia, Brazil, Ecuador, Portugal, Sudan, Syria, Trinidad, and Venezuela, also follow the absolute view of sovereign immunity under their laws. See U.N. Legislative Series, pages 78-79, 559-560, 564-565, 592-593, 601, 604-605, 610-611, 638. The views of such countries are to be respected by United States courts. See Banco Nacional de Cuba v. Sabbatino, 376 U.S. 398, 429-430 (1964).

Certain western countries have a more liberal view of sovereign immunity. Some have adopted statutes that restrict, in a limited fashion, the traditional immunities of foreign sovereigns. For tort claims, however, each of these statutes creates only a very limited exception, requiring at a minimum that either the injury, or the tortious act, or both, occur entirely within the forum:

United Kingdom. The State Immunity Act, Section 5, requires that any injury, death or damage to property be "caused by an act or omission in the United Kingdom." U.N. Legislative Series, page 43; 17 International Legal Materials 1123 (1978).

Canada. The Canadian statute, An Act to Provide for State Immunity in Canadian Courts, Section 6, limits immunity only with respect to an injury, death or property damage "that occurs in Canada." 21 International Legal Materials 798 (1982).

Pakistan. State Immunity Ordinance, 1981 Sections 5 and 7 would appear to permit tort actions only where the tort relates to a commercial transaction or to the possession or use of immovable property in Pakistan. U.N. Legislative Series, pages 20-27.

Singapore. The State Immunity Act 1979, Section 7, limits immunity in tort actions, only where the death, injury or damage is "caused by an act or omission in Singapore." U.N. Legislative Materials, page 30.

South Africa. The Foreign Sovereign Immunity Act (1981), Section 6, limits immunity in tort actions, only where the death, injury or damage is "caused by an act or omission in the Republic" of South Africa. U.N. Legislative Series, pages 36-37.

European Convention. There exists a European Convention on State Immunity. Article 11 of that Convention restricts sovereign immunity in tort cases only "if the facts which occasioned the injury or damage occurred in the territory of the State of the forum, and if the author of the injury or damage was present in that territory at the time when those facts occurred." Council of Europe, No. 74 (1972); U.N. Legislative Series, page 159; 11 International Legal Materials 470 (1972).

Foreign courts have, understandably, rarely been confronted with tort claims against foreign sovereigns where the events have occurred abroad. On the few occasions when those cases have been brought, however, immunity has always been granted and the case dismissed:

Amanat Kahn v. Fredson Travel Inc. (1982) 36 Ontario Reports 17, 64 International Law Reports 733 (Canada, High Court of Ontario 1982), an airline crash tort action against the Government of Pakistan for negligence in failing to provide proper security at Karachi Airport. The Canadian court dismissed the case on grounds of sovereign immunity from jurisdiction, holding that operation of an airport is a sovereign act and noting that "the acts alleged to have created liability upon the government of Pakistan all arose in Pakistan or other foreign countries." 64 International Law Reports, at 737.

Church of Scientology Case, Case No. VI ZR 27-76, 65 International Law Reports 193 (Federal Republic of Germany, Federal Supreme Court 1978). A tort claim was asserted against the head of New Scotland Yard for having made false accusations against plaintiff in a report issued in the United Kingdom. The court concluded that it lacked jurisdiction because the head of Scotland Yard was carrying out police functions of the British Government and, thus, entitled to sovereign immunity.

German court. That court refused to exercise jurisdiction on grounds of sovereign immunity.

Societe Anonyme Eau, Gaz, Electricite et Applications v. Office D'Aide Mutuelle, 23 International Law Reports 205 (Belgium: Ct. of App. Brussels, January 25, 1956). The plaintiff suffered damages in a traffic accident involving a British military truck transporting troops in Belgium. The court concluded that claims relating to the transport of troops on the order of a foreign government (apparently from abroad) could not be heard because the foreign state was entitled to immunity.

U Kyaw Din v. The British Government, 23 International Law Reports 209 (Burma: High Court of Rangoon, July 14, 1948), where immunity was accorded in a tort action relating to the deliberate destruction of property by the British forces when evacuating Rangoon in 1942.

The United States is participating in an effort by the International Law Commission of the United Nations to draft an international convention on the jurisdictional immunities of foreign states. Article 14 of that draft convention, in its initial form, would have deprived a foreign state of its sovereign immunity in tort actions only where:

> the act or omission . . . occurred wholly or partly in the territory of the State of the forum, and if the author of the act or omission was present in that territory at the time of the act or omission.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Yearbook of the International Law Commission, 1984, Vol. II, Part Two, United National Publication No. A/CN.4/SER.A/1984/Add.1 (Part 2), page 66. The commentary to this provision indicates the limited nature of this exception:

> The existence of two cumulative conditions is necessary for the application of this exception. The act or omission causing the death, injury or damage must occur in whole or in part in the territory of the State of the forum so as to locate the locus delicti commissi within the territory of that State. In addition, the author of such act or omission must also be present in that State at the time of the act or omission so as to render even closer the territorial connection between the State of the forum and the author or individual whose act or omission was the cause of the damage in the State of the forum.

Ibid, pages 66-67.

Even with these limitations, Article 14 was criticized within the International Law Commission because it "found no support in the general practice of States." Yearbook of the International Law Commission 1984, Vol. II, Part One, page 10. Accordingly, Artitle 14 has been further limited to apply only to "insurable risks" arising from the occupation of real property or the transport of passengers or cargo, provided the act or omission occur in the forum and provided the author of the act or omission be also within the forum at the time of the occurrence. Ibid., page 11.

Sixtieth Conference, Montreal, 1982 (London 1983), 22 International Law Materials 287, which would require that the tortious act or omission "occur wholly or partly in the forum State" before jurisdiction could be asserted; Inter-American Draft Convention on Jurisdictional Immunity of States (1983), Articles 5 and 6(e), 22 International Legal Materials 292 (1983), which, though never adopted, would have restricted immunity only if the tort arose from commercial activity in the forum.

The subject matter of the DeNegri proceeding would not satisfy any of these criteria which reflect the most liberal view of international law on sovereign immunity. Under the laws of all nations, and the law of nations, the Republic of Chile is immune from jurisdiction in this proceeding. The Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act was intended to reflect, not depart from, this consensus as to sovereign immunity under international law. For these reasons as well, the District Court lacks jurisdiction.

IV. THE COURT LACKS PERSONAL JURISDICTION; NO VALID SERVICE HAS OCCURRED

Under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. 1330(b), a court may obtain personal jurisdiction over a foreign sovereign only if (A) jurisdiction over the subject matter exists under 28 U.S.C. 1330(a), and (B) valid service has occurred under 28 U.S.C. 1608.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

A. In analyzing 28 U.S.C. 1330(b), the United States Supreme Court has stated:

> Under the Act, however, both statutory subject matter jurisdiction (otherwise known as "competence") and personal jurisdiction turn on application of the substantive provisions of the Act. . . . 1330(b) provides personal jurisdiction whenever subject matter jurisdiction exists under subsection (a) and service of process has been made under 28 U.S.C. 1608. Thus, if none of the exceptions to sovereign immunity set forth in the Act applies, the District Court lacks both statutory subject matter jurisdiction and personal jurisdiction.

Verlinden B.V. v. Central Bank of Nigeria, 461 U.S. at 485 n.5.

As discussed in points II and III above, the Republic of Chile has clear sovereign immunity from the subject matter jurisdiction of the court in the DeNegri proceeding. For this reason, "the District Court lacks both statutory subject matter jurisdiction and personal jurisdiction."

B. The second requirement for personal jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. 1330(b), is that valid service of legal documents must occur under 28 U.S.C. 1608. The provisions of Section 1608 are "the exclusive means of service under the FSIA." Lippus v. Dahlgren Mfg. Co., 644 F. Supp. 1473, 1476 (E.D.N.Y. 1986); Luccino v. Foreign Countries, 631 F. Supp. 821, 825 (E.D. Pa. 1986). The Section 1608 requirements must be strictly followed. Gray v. Permanent Mission of People's Republic of China, 443 F. Supp. 816, 821 (S.D.N.Y. 1978); Magnus Electronics, Inc. v. Royal Bank of Canada, 620 F. Supp. 387, 389 (D.C. Ill. 1985),

UNCLASSIFIED

> It is also contemplated that the courts will not direct service in the United States upon diplomatic representatives . . . or upon consular representatives . . . .
> A second means, of questionable validity, involves the mailing of a copy of the summons and complaint to a diplomatic mission of the foreign state. Section 1608 precludes this method so as to avoid questions of inconsistency with section 1 of article 22 of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, 23 UST 3227, TIAS 7502 (1972), which entered into force in the United States on December 13, 1972. Service on an embassy by mail would be precluded under this bill. See 71 Dept. of State Bull. 458-59 (1974).

House Report, pages 25-26 (emphasis supplied). Courts have thus rejected service of process by mail on diplomatic missions. See 40 D. 6262 Realty Corp. v. United Arab Emirates Government, 447 F. Supp. 710, 712 (S.D.N.Y. 1978); Lucchino v. Foreign Countries, 631 F. Supp. 821, 826-827 (E.D. Pa. 1986).

For these reasons, the above attempts do not constitute proper or valid service under 28 U.S.C. 1608 against the Republic of Chile (including the Armed Forces of Chile which, as discussed above, is not a separate legal person but is an integral part of the Republic of Chile).

C. The Republic of Chile reserves its position under international law that no proper service of process can be made against a foreign state in a legal proceeding of this nature, whether or not the method of service is provided under United States law.

UNCLASSIFIED

D. Where a foreign government is concerned, United States law on personal jurisdiction also requires "minimum contacts" with the forum. This requirement has four parts:

> [T]he court must examine the extent to which defendants availed themselves of the privileges of American law, the extent to which litigation in the United States was foreseeable to them, the inconvenience to defendants of litigating in the United States, and the countervailing interest of the United States in hearing the suit.

Texas Trading v. Federal Republic of Nigeria, 647 F.2d 300, 314 (2d Cir. 1981).

These factors cannot depend on diplomatic and other governmental activities of a foreign government in the United States. General governmental and diplomatic activities do not create "minimum contacts." See Fandel v. Arabian American Oil Company, 345 F.2d 87 (D.C. Cir. 1965). Foreign states "should not be subject to suit for conducting internationally protected activities". Statement of Interest of the United States, in Von Dardel v. Union of Soviet Socialist Republic, cited above, page 27. Instead, "minimum contacts" for a foreign government require a connection with the specific activity on which the alleged cause of action is based. Ibid., pages 26-27.

When these standards are applied, the required "minimum contacts" are missing for the events in question. The Republic of Chile has never "availed [itself] of the privileges of American law" with respect to any matter involved in the DeNegri proceeding. Such litigation in the United States was not "forseeable".

UNCLASSIFIED

In view of the pending criminal proceeding in Chile and the connection of all events and participants with Chile, the factors of "convenience" to defendants and "countervailing interest of the United States in hearing the suit" also cannot be met. For these reasons as well, personal jurisdiction is lacking.

V. THE COURT SHOULD NOT EXERCISE JURISDICTION BECAUSE NO COGNIZABLE "CAUSE OF ACTION" EXISTS, AND NONE MAY PROPERLY EXIST

Before a court may exercise jurisdiction in any matter, whether against a private defendant or a foreign sovereign, there must be a cause of action or claim recognized by the tribunal. This requirement is not met here: (A) United States law does not provide a cause of action in cases between foreign parties involving foreign events that have no connection with the United States; (B) United States courts have refused to recognize a cause of action for foreign events involving conduct by military personnel, even United States military personnel; (C) recognition of a cause of action or claim would exceed international rules on jurisdictional competence; and (D) international law creates no private cause of action where the "responsibility" of a foreign sovereign itself is in question. Thus, even if the District Court believes, incorrectly, that it has jurisdiction, there is not any claim cognizable in United States courts as to which jurisdiction may be exercised.

A. Under United States law, courts may exercise jurisdiction only if a private right of action, or cause of action, has been accorded with respect to the subject matter. Davis v. Passman, 442 U.S. 228, 239 (1979). The existence of a cause of action, however, must be carefully reviewed when a case involves international relations. Tel-Oren v. Libyan Arab Republic, 726 F.2d 774 (D.C. Cir. 1984), at 801-802 (concurring opinion of Judge Bork).

Reserving the right to address specific claims in the event a complaint is validly served, the Republic of Chile suggests that no cause of action has been conferred by United States law that would apply to a case between foreign parties involving events and injuries that occurred entirely within a foreign land. Even where private parties are defendants, United States courts rarely imply a cause of action in cases between foreign parties with respect to foreign events. As stated in Lauritzen v. Larsen, 345 U.S. 571, 578 (1953), quoting Rex v. Jameson, [1896] 2 Q.B. 425, 430:

> . . . if any construction otherwise be possible, an Act will not be construed as applying to foreigners in respect to acts done by them outside the dominions of the sovereign power enacting. This is a rule of international law, by which one sovereign power is bound to respect the subjects and the rights of all other sovereign powers outside its own territory.

The Supreme Court in the Lauritzen case ruled that the Jones Act did not grant a cause of action to a Danish seaman hired in the United States, but injured aboard a Danish ship while in a Cuban port. Other decisions have consistently denied causes of action in similar circumstances. See Restatement of the Law Second, Foreign Relations Law of the United States, Section 38 (1965), pages 107-111 (referred to below as "Restatement"); Foley Bros. v. Filardo, 336 U.S. 281 (1949)(Eight Hour law provides no cause of action covering employment in foreign country); McCulloch v. Sociedad Nacional de Marineros de Honduras, 372 U.S. 10 (1963) (National Labor Relations Act does not provide cause of action to foreign seamen on foreign-flag ships); Commodity Futures Trading Commission v. Nahas, 738 F.2d 487, 493 (D.C. Cir. 1984); Fitzgerald v. Texaco, Inc., 521 F.2d 448, 454 (2d Cir 1975), (plaintiffs can recover under a statute "only if they are able to establish some significant national contacts warranting application of the statute to non-resident aliens"); Montreal Trading Ltd. v. Amax, Inc., 661 F.2d 864, 870 (10th Cir. 1981) (no antitrust cause of action where transactions occurred in Canada and were directed toward trade with Korea); Nat. Bank of Canada v. Interbank Card Association, 666 F.2d 6, 8-9, (2d Cir. 1981); Fidenas AG v. Compagnie Internationale, 606 F.2d 5 (2d Cir. 1979) (no cause of action under securities laws where transactions and parties were foreign); Mormel v. Girofinance, S.A., 544 F.Supp 815 (S.D.N.Y. 1982) (U.S. securities laws do not provide cause of action for predominantly foreign frauds). These limitations also apply to causes of action under state laws. In fact, state laws must be more restrictive in their scope, so that they do not have "a direct impact upon foreign relations . . . [or] adversely affect the power of the central government to deal with those problems." Zschernig v. Miller, 389 U.S. 429, 441 (1968).

Thus, United States laws should not be interpreted as affording a cause of action with respect to a foreign dispute between foreign parties involving injuries abroad.

B. Even where a cognizable cause of action or claim might otherwise exist with respect to a foreign dispute between foreign parties, the cause of action may not be extended to cover acts of military personnel abroad, especially not acts of a foreign sovereign's soldiers within that sovereign's own territory.

The United States Supreme Court has refused to extend causes of action, where United States military personnel are involved. In Feres v. United States, 340 U.S. 135 (1950), the Supreme Court refused to interpret the Federal Tort Claims Act to cover military torts. In Chappell v. Wallace, 462 U.S. 296 (1983), soldiers brought claims of blatant racial discrimination against their superior officers. Of course, such racial discrimination would violate the United States Constitution as well as international law. Nevertheless, the Supreme Court ruled that civilian courts should not imply a cause of action under the Constitution and that "such a remedy will not be available when 'special factors counseling hesitation' are present." 462 U.S. at 298.

UNCLASSIFIED

In Sanchez-Espinoza v. Reagan, 770 F.2d 202 (D.C. Cir. 1985), the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit ruled that the courts should be "hesitant" to recognize damage remedies for foreign nationals who have been injured by tortious acts abroad of U.S. military personnel. The Sanchez-Espinoza case involved injuries inflicted by "Contra" forces in Nicaragua, who were allegedly aided by U.S. military personnel in Central America. The plaintiffs, Nicaraguan nationals, alleged that torts were committed by United States military forces in violation of international law. The Court of Appeals ruled that it would not find a cause of action against the United States Government in these circumstances:

> Just as the special needs of the Armed Forces require the courts to leave to Congress the creation of damage remedies against military officers for allegedly unconstitutional treatment of soldiers, see Chappell v. Wallace, supra, so also the special needs of foreign affairs must stay our hand in the creation of damage remedies against military and foreign policy officials for allegedly unconstitutional treatment of foreign subjects causing injury abroad. The foreign affairs implications of suits such as this cannot be ignored . . . . Whether or not the present litigation is motivated by considerations of geopolitics rather than personal harm, we think that as a general matter the danger of foreign citizens' using the courts in situations such as this to obstruct the foreign policy of our government is sufficiently acute that we must leave to Congress the judgment whether a damage remedy should exist.

Certainly, if alleged torts in violation of international law and committed abroad by U.S. military personnel will not give rise to a cause of action in United States courts, then it follows that similar tort allegations against a foreign sovereign for acts of its military personnel cannot properly give rise to a cause of action in the same United States courts.

C. International law places limitations on the ability of one nation to regulate, and impose liability rules concerning, disputes between foreign parties with respect to events abroad. These international limitations on a nation's "jurisdiction to prescribe or jurisdiction to enforce" a rule of law with respect to foreign disputes, are recognized in the United States. Restatement, cited above, Sections 8 and 38, pages 23-25, 107-111; Lauritzen v. Larsen, 345 U.S. at 578; F.T.C. v. Compagnie de Saint-Gobain-Pont-A-Mousson, 636 F.2d 1300, 1315-1317 (D.C. Cir. 1980); Commodity Futures Trading Commission v. Nahas, 738 F.2d 487, 493 (D.C. Cir. 1984). By contrast, United States courts have usually found a cause of action covering foreign events to be consistent with international law, only where the parties are United States citizens or where the events include significant conduct or effects within the United States. Blackmer v. United States, 284 U.S. 421, 437 (1931) (U.S. citizens as parties); Leasco Data Processing Equipment Corp. v. Maxwell, 468 F.2d 1326, 1332 (2d Cir. 1982) (significant conduct within United States); Tumari v. Bache & Co. (Lebanon) S.A.L., 730 F.2d 1103, 1107 n.11 (7th Cir. 1984). Compare Steele v. Bulova Watch Co., 344 U.S. 280 (1952) (U.S. trademark laws may cover trademark infringement by U.S. citizens abroad), with Vanity Fair Mills, Inc. v. T. Eaton Co., 234 F.2d 633, 641-643 (2d Cir. 1956) (no cause of action for trademark infringement against a Canadian citizen for use abroad of a trademark that the defendant registered in Canada). These international constraints on the ability of one nation to prescribe causes of action with respect to events in another nation, are additional reasons why the District Court should not recognize a cause of action in the DeNegri proceeding.

D. Finally, a state's responsibility for injuries to individuals, under international law, may only be asserted by another sovereign state, not by a private plaintiff. Restatement, cited above, Sections 174 and 175, pages 526-527. The only exceptions are where there is an explicit international agreement giving an alien a remedy (such as an international claims agreement), or where the foreign state itself provides a remedy under its own laws or by agreement. Restatement, Section 175, page 527. See Dames & Moore v. Reagan, 453 U.S. 654, 679-680 (1981). Compare Restatement, Section 3, for issues other than state responsibility.

In fact, international law itself does not provide any cause of action to individuals. "To imply a cause of action from the law of nations would completely defeat the critical right of the sovereign to determine whether and how international rights should be enforced in that municipality." Handel v. Antukovic,

UNCLASSIFIED

601 F.Supp. 1421, 1428 (C.D. Calif. 1985). As the Supreme Court has stated:

> The traditional view of international law is that it establishes substantive principles for determining whether one country has wronged another. Because of its peculiar nation-to-nation character the usual method for an individual to seek relief is to exhaust local remedies and then repair to the executive authorities of his own state to persuade them to champion his claim in diplomacy or before an international tribunal.

Banco Nacional de Cuba v. Sabbatino, 376 U.S. 398, 422, (1964) (emphasis supplied); see Dreyfus v. Von Finck, 534 F.2d 24, 31 (2d Cir. 1976) (international law "deals primarily with the relationship among nations rather than among individuals . . . . Like a general treaty, the law of nations has been held not to be self-executing so as to vest a plaintiff with individual legal rights"); Hunt v. BP Exploration Co. (Libya) Ltd., 492 F.Supp. 885, 903 (N.D. Texas 1980):

> It is doubtful that Hunt, as a private individual, would have standing to raise as a cause of action . . . violation of customary international law . . . . Even where the United States enters into a treaty with another nation, . . . unless the treaty is self-executing it must be implemented by legislation before it gives rise to a private cause of action.

Compare Tel-Oren v. Libyan Arab Republic, 726 F.2d at 811-819 (concurring opinion of Judge Bork) with Filartiga v. Pena-Irala, 630 F.2d 876, 887 (2d Cir. 1980), ruling that a cause of action existed under the law of nations against a private defendant. Where a foreign sovereign is the defendant, there is no basis for contending that international law provides a private cause of action on issues of state responsibility. See Banco Nacional de Cuba v. Sabbatino, 376 U.S. at 422; compare Statement of Interest of the United States, in Von Dardel v. Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, United States District Court for the District of Columbia, Civil Action No. 84-0353 (filed December 8, 1986), pages 24-25.

Thus, issues of state responsibility under international law are left to sovereign states for resolution among themselves either diplomatically or through other international procedures. International law confers no private cause of action in this area. In addition, before the issue of state responsibility can even be considered, the individual in question must have exhausted all domestic remedies within the foreign state concerned. Restatement, Section 206, pages 610-614. As discussed in point VII below, plaintiffs in the DeNegri proceeding have not pursued, or exhausted, domestic remedies within Chile. Moreover, these remedies apply only in Chile. Chilean law provides no cause of action against the Chilean state that may be exercised outside Chile.

All these considerations further suggest that the District Court in the DeNegri proceeding should not recognize a claim or cause of action. The Republic of Chile also reserves its position under international law that the United States may not prescribe a cause of action in its courts or otherwise exercise jurisdiction with respect to the events in question.

VI. THE RESPONSIBILITY OF A FOREIGN SOVEREIGN FOR CLAIMS BASED ON ALLEGED ACTS OF ITS SOLDIERS IN ITS OWN TERRITORY IS NOT JUSTICIABLE UNDER EITHER THE "POLITICAL QUESTION" OR "ACT OF STATE" DOCTRINES

Extension of any cause of action to a foreign government defendant presents an additional issue--justiciability of the claim. The Republic of Chile suggests that the District Court is being asked to decide a non-justiciable question: Whether the Republic of Chile itself should be held "responsible" by a United States Court for acts of military personnel within Chile. The Republic of Chile itself is conducting its own criminal proceedings with respect to the events and soldiers involved. The Republic of Chile has not sought, and indeed strongly opposes, the intervention of any United States court with respect to these matters. Understandably, a finding by a United States court that a foreign government itself is "responsible" for these events should be expected to affect the sensitivities of any sovereign.

A. Issues affecting foreign relations have been viewed as non-justiciable "political questions", especially when no treaty or statute expressly confers a cause of action for the particular issue. Diggs v. Richardson, 555 F.2d 848, 851 (D.C. Cir. 1976) (claim for violation of a United Nations resolution is not justiciable, "in the absence of domestic legislation evincing an intention for judicial enforcement" of the resolution's terms); Tel-Oren v. Libyan Arab Republic, 726 F.2d at 823-827

(concurring opinion of Judge Robb); Cranston v. Reagan, 611 F. Supp. 247, 253 (D.D.C. 1985) (even where a statute puts the issue "within the court's province to decide," possible foreign policy consequences of judicial action "render the case non-justiciable"); In re Korean Air Lines Disaster of September 1, 1983, 597 F. Supp. 613, 616-617 (D.D.C. 1984) (tort claims against United States under the Federal Tort Claims Act were not justiciable, when based on the exercise of military and national security activities abroad).

The basis of the political question doctrine is that certain questions either are not suited to resolution by United States courts, or have been allocated to the political branches of the United States Government. The Supreme Court has expressed the following criteria for a "political question":

> It is apparent that several formulations . . . may describe a political question, although each has one or more elements which identify it as essentially a function of the separation of powers. Prominent on the surface of any case held to involve a political question is found a textually demonstrable constitutional commitment of the issue to a coordinate political department; or a lack of judicially discoverable and manageable standards for resolving it; or the impossibility of deciding without an initial policy determination of a kind clearly for non-judicial discretion; or the impossibility of a court's undertaking independent resolution without expressing lack of the respect due coordinate branches of government; or an unusual need for unquestioning adherence to a political decision already made; or the potentiality of embarrassment from multifarious pronouncements by various departments on one question.

Baker v. Carr, 369 U.S. 186, 217 (1962) (emphasis supplied).

UNCLASSIFIED

Only one of these criteria need be present. Cranston v. Reagan, 611 F. Supp. at 252; In re Korean Air Lines Disaster, 597 F. Supp. at 616. Certainly, "one or more elements" described by the Supreme Court are present here. Finding a foreign state "responsible" for acts of its military personnel within its own borders involves a "demonstrable constitutional commitment of the issue to a coordinate political department." The reasons for this are that (1) questions of state responsibility for injuries to individuals are, under international law, left for resolution among nations through diplomatic and political means (see point V.D. above); and (2) under the United States Constitution, such diplomatic and political remedies are allocated to the Executive Branch. In these areas, "the President alone has the power to speak or listen as a representative of the nation." United States v. Curtiss-Wright Export Corp., 299 U.S. 304, 319 (1936); Chicago & Southern Air Lines v. Waterman S.S. Corp., 333 U.S. 103, 111 (1948). United States positions on a foreign nation's responsibility, and similar matters "intimately related to foreign policy . . . are rarely proper subjects for judicial intervention." Haig v. Agee, 453 U.S. 280, 292 (1981). See Matthews v. Diaz, 426 U.S. 67, 81 (1976).

Holding a foreign state "responsible" in these circumstances also involves "an initial policy determination of a kind clearly for non-judicial discretion" as well as "the potentiality of embarrassment from multifarious pronouncements by various departments on one question." Not only has the issue of state responsibility for acts of military personnel abroad been an issue committed to foreign relations between nations, but also courts have been reluctant to recognize any cause of action even where United States military personnel are involved. See Sanchez-Espinoza v. Reagan, 770 F.2d at 208-209. Compare, Japan Whaling Assn. v. American Cetacean Society, 106 S. Ct. 2860 (1986), where the existence of an express Congressional statute and treaty made justiciable the issue of the Secretary of Commerce's statutory actions in response to violations of whaling quotas by Japanese fishermen.

UNCLASSIFIED

B. Moreover, this issue of state "responsibility" for acts of military personnel within the foreign state's own territory, is also not justiciable under the "act of state" doctrine:

> Every sovereign state is bound to respect the independence of every other sovereign state, and the courts of one country will not sit in judgment on the acts of the government of another done within its own territory. Redress of grievances by reason of such acts must be obtained through the means open to be availed of by sovereign powers as between themselves.

Underhill v. Hernandez, 168 U.S. 250, 252 (1897), ruling that a claim of assault by a Veneuelan military commander against an American citizen in Venezuela could not be adjudicated by United States courts; Oetjen v. Central Leather Co., 246 U.S. 297 (1918), ruling that a seizure by a Mexican general of a Mexican citizen's property in Mexico could not be adjudicated; Ricaud v. American Metal Co., 246 U.S. 304 (1918), ruling that a seizure by a Mexican general of an American citizen's property in Mexico could not be adjudicated. These decisions were cited with approval in Banco Nacional de Cuba v. Sabbatino, 376 U.S. 398, 416-418 (1964).

The "act of state" doctrine precludes judicial inquiry into the validity or lawfulness of alleged foreign state acts performed within a foreign state's own territory. Ibid., 376 U.S. at 401. The doctrine reflects "the proper distribution of functions between the judicial and political branches of government on matters bearing on foreign affairs." 376 U.S. at 427-428. Consequently, it even precludes judicial inquiry into the propriety or motivations of foreign government actions within its own borders. Hunt v. Mobil Oil Corp., 550 F.2d 68 (2d Cir. 1977). The issue of state responsibility in the DeNegri proceeding would involve such judicial inquiry into alleged foreign government acts. In addition, the act of state doctrine should be applied so that the District Court does not violate the international law principle of non-intervention into the internal affairs of a sovereign nation: "No State or group of States has the right to intervene, directly or indirectly, for any reason whatever, in the internal or external affairs of any other State." Charter of the Organization of American States, Article 18, 2 U.S.T. 2394; Declaration of Principles of International Law Concerning Friendly Relations, Principle 3, GA Res. 2625 (XXV), 25 UN GAOR, Supp. (No. 28), page 121, U.N. Doc. A/8028

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

(1970). For these reasons also, the issue is not justiciable.

VII. THE COURT SHOULD NOT EXERCISE JURISDICTION BECAUSE THE UNITED STATES IS NOT A PROPER OR CONVENIENT FORUM

In the event the District Court decides to exercise jurisdiction despite the authorities discussed in points II through VI above, it should then consider the doctrine of forum non conveniens, as applied by the United States Supreme Court in Piper Aircraft Company v. Reyno, 454 U.S. 235 (1981). The case involved an aircraft crash in Scotland and a suit against the American airplane manufacturer. The Supreme Court ruled that a foreign forum could not be rejected simply because the rules of liability, or potential damages, in the foreign forum would be less favorable than in the United States. In its decision, the Supreme Court stated that the appropriate analysis requires a "balancing" of both private and public interests. 454 U.S. at 257.

With respect to "private interest" factors, the Supreme Court in the Piper Aircraft case considered the location of witnesses and evidence. It ruled that it was reasonable to find that many of the relevant interests were located in Great Britain, even though the claims against the American manufacturer would involve evidence in the United States. 454 U.S. at 257-58. In the DeNegri proceeding, virtually all of the relevant evidence and witnesses are located in Chile.

With respect to "public interest" factors, the Supreme Court in the Piper Aircraft case stated:

> Scotland has a very strong interest in this litigation. The accident occurred in its airspace. All of the decedents were Scotish. Apart from Piper and Hartzell, all potential plaintiffs and defendants are either Scotish or English. As we stated in Gilbert, there is "a local interest in having localized controversies decided at home."

454 U.S. at 260.

In the DeNegri proceeding, the Republic of Chile has an overwhelming interest in the subject matter of the litigation. All events were in Chile. The potential defendants are all Chilean. The Republic of Chile has brought criminal proceedings against one of its soldiers, in Chile, in connection with these Chilean events. There is an overriding interest in having any other proceedings also occur in Chile.

The Supreme Court in the Piper Aircraft case also addressed the question of whether there is an adequate remedy in the foreign country. The laws of Chile clearly provide such remedies for the plaintiffs. A leading precedent in Chile is Pino Silva v. Republic of Chile, Docket No. 16,129 (Court of Appeals of Concepion, June 15, 1982). The plaintiff in that case was permanently crippled from an assault by a soldier, during the martial law imposed twelve days after the military government came to power in September 1973. The soldier was charged and convicted of unnecessary violence. Following the conviction, the victim brought a civil tort action against the Republic of Chile. Under Chilean law, a civil proceeding cannot be completed until a verdict is reached in a related criminal proceeding; however, a criminal conviction is conclusive evidence of tort liability. The Court of Appeals affirmed a judgment of 8,390,000 pesos (approximately $195,000 in June 1982), concluding that there was a civil tort remedy against the Republic of Chile in these circumstances.

The plaintiffs in the DeNegri proceeding have such an avenue available to them in Chile. The plaintiffs have also shown an ability to participate in Chilean legal proceedings, because they have hired counsel and have become "interested parties" in the pending criminal proceedings in Chile involving these same events.

By contrast, a decision to exercise jurisdiction in the United States would present the "practical problems" that concerned the Supreme Court in the Piper Aircraft case:

> The American courts, which are already extremely attractive to foreign plaintiffs, would become even more attractive. The flow of litigation to the United States would increase and further congest already crowded courts.

454 U.S. at 251-252. See also, Castillo v. Shipping Corp. of India, 606 F. Supp. 497, 503-504 (S.D.N.Y. 1985) (dismissal in favor of forum in India, and on grounds of sovereign immunity);

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Cheng v. The Boeing Company, 708 F.2d 1406 (9th Cir. 1983) (dismissal in favor of Taiwanese forum despite presence of American as well as foreign plaintiffs and argument that Taiwanese court might have to apply U.S. law).

For these reasons as well, the District Court should not exercise jurisdiction.

VIII. CONCLUSION

The United States District Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over the DeNegri proceeding, and personal jurisdiction over the Republic of Chile. Valid service also has not occurred. Moreover, even if the District Court should, incorrectly, believe that it has jurisdiction, it should not exercise jurisdiction because no cognizable "cause of action" exists, because the issue of government "responsibility" is not justiciable in this case, and because the United States is not a proper or convenient forum. Thus, the case should be dismissed.

PREPARED STATEMENT
THE HONORABLE ELLIOTT ABRAMS
ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS
BEFORE THE
COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS
UNITED STATES SENATE
FEBRUARY 5, 1987

I. SUPPORT FOR THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE IS PART OF A BROADER STRATEGY

U.S. SUPPORT FOR NICARAGUANS FIGHTING THE SANDINISTAS IS AN ESSENTIAL ELEMENT OF A COMPREHENSIVE STRATEGY FOR CENTRAL AMERICA.

THERE ARE COMPELLING MORAL ARGUMENTS IN FAVOR OF U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE. THEY HAVE TO DO WITH A REVOLUTION BETRAYED; WITH THE BRAVERY OF THOUSANDS OF YOUNG NICARAGUAN PEASANTS AND INTELLECTUALS FIGHTING A BACKWARD DICTATORSHIP IN THE PROCESS OF FUSING WITH THE TOTALITARIANISM OF THE MODERN SOVIET EMPIRE; WITH THE ROLE OF THE UNITED STATES IN KEEPING ALIVE THE FLAME OF FREEDOM IN TODAY'S WORLD.

THE STRATEGIC ARGUMENTS IN FAVOR OF U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE ARE JUST AS COMPELLING. OUR NATIONAL SECURITY REQUIRES US TO PREVENT THE SOVIET UNION FROM GAINING A STRATEGIC FOOTHOLD AND FURTHER UNDERMINING DEMOCRACY IN CENTRAL AMERICA. SANDINISTA CONSOLIDATION IN NICARAGUA WOULD BE A DOUBLE THREAT TO DEMOCRACY IN CENTRAL AMERICA, LEADING TO THE DANGER IF NOT THE INEVITABILITY OF FURTHER COMMUNIST EXPANSION AND TO THE DANGER OF AN UGLY RESURGENCE OF RIGHT-WING EXTREMISM IN REACTION TO THE HEIGHTENED COMMUNIST THREAT. OUR FRIENDS AND ALLIES IN THIS NEARBY AREA NEED OUR HELP TO MEET THESE COMMON CHALLENGES.

AS THE NATIONAL BIPARTISAN COMMISSION ON CENTRAL AMERICA OBSERVED THREE YEARS AGO, RARELY DO MORAL AND STRATEGIC CONSIDERATIONS COINCIDE AS THEY DO IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

WHILE AGREEING WITH MUCH OF THIS, SOME ARGUE THAT SUPPORT FOR THE RESISTANCE WILL GET US NOWHERE (OR AT LEAST NOWHERE THAT WE WANT TO GO), AND THAT THERE ARE OTHER, BETTER WAYS TO PROTECT OUR INTERESTS. IN CONSIDERING THAT ARGUMENT, I WOULD LIKE TO START BY LOOKING AT OUR OVERALL STRATEGY, THEN CONSIDER OUR RELATIONS WITH NICARAGUA AND THE (WHY, WHAT, AND HOW) OF OUR EFFORTS TO IMPROVE THEM.

II. U.S. POLICY IS COMPREHENSIVE AND LONG-TERM

THERE ARE NO SHORT-TERM SOLUTIONS TO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN CRISIS.

THERE ARE, IN THEORY, TWO QUICK FIXES. ONE WOULD BE DIRECT U.S. MILITARY INTERVENTION TO REMOVE THE REGIME IN NICARAGUA. NO ONE IN THE ADMINISTRATION IS ADVOCATING THIS, AND NO ONE OF YOU OR THE AMERICAN PUBLIC WOULD WISH US TO. IN FACT, OUR POLICY IS DESIGNED TO PROTECT OUR NATIONAL INTERESTS WITHOUT RESORTING TO DIRECT U.S. MILITARY ACTION.

THE OTHER QUICK FIX WOULD BE TO TRY TO FORCE THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES TO ACCEPT NICARAGUAN PROPOSALS ON SECURITY ARRANGEMENTS. LET'S BE HONEST. THAT IS A PRESCRIPTION FOR DISASTER CAMOUFLAGED AS A DIPLOMATIC SOLUTION. PIECES OF PAPER ALONE ARE NOT GOING TO STOP THE SANDINISTAS.

NO WHATEVER THE THEORY, IN PRACTICE THE TRUTH IS THAT NEITHER OF THESE QUICK FIXES WOULD BE A FIX AT ALL.

THE PROBLEMS OF CENTRAL AMERICA REQUIRE PATIENT, SUSTAINED U.S. EFFORTS ON MANY INTERRELATED FRONTS AT ONCE.

OVER THE PAST THREE OR FOUR YEARS, WITH THE HELP OF THE CONGRESS AND OF THE NATIONAL BIPARTISAN COMMISSION ON CENTRAL AMERICA, WE HAVE DEVELOPED AND BEGUN TO IMPLEMENT A COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAM DESIGNED TO WORK OVER THE LONG HAUL.

WE BELIEVE IT IS WORKING. WE BELIEVE IT IS WORKING BECAUSE ITS COMBINATION OF MEASURES, FROM DEFENSE TO NEGOTIATION, AND FROM DEVELOPMENT TO THE PAINSTAKING BUILDING OF DEMOCRACY, ADDRESS ALL OF THE CAUSES OF CONFLICT AS THEY ACTUALLY PLAY OUT IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

LET ME LIST SIX CAUSES OF CONFLICT FOR YOU, TOGETHER WITH WHAT WE ARE DOING ABOUT THEM.

Date: 12-19-96
IS/FPC/CDR
EPARTMENT OF STATE

87D366,42

FIRST, CENTRAL AMERICA BECAME VULNERABLE TO VIOLENCE AND COMMUNIST PENETRATION BECAUSE ECONOMIC GROWTH ALONE PROVED INSUFFICIENT TO ELIMINATE INHERITED INEQUALITIES BETWEEN THE LANDED RICH AND THE LANDLESS POOR.

THE POLICY WE ARE IMPLEMENTING SUPPORTS SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC REFORM. WE WANT THE PEASANTS AND THE WORKERS TO BE SHAREHOLDERS IN CENTRAL AMERICA'S FUTURE. OUR PRIMARY EMPHASIS IS ON EVOLUTIONARY CHANGE THROUGH EQUITABLE DEVELOPMENT, EDUCATION, AND THE CREATION OF NEW OPPORTUNITIES. BUT WE RESPECT THE POSITIONS OF OUR DEMOCRATIC ALLIES. IN EL SALVADOR, THE AGRARIAN REFORM WHOSE IMPLEMENTATION WE ARE SUPPORTING IS AS FAR-REACHING AS THOSE UNDERTAKEN DURING THE MEXICAN OR THE BOLIVIAN REVOLUTIONS.

SECOND, WHEN PEOPLE BEGAN TO STAND UP FOR THEIR RIGHTS, MOST OF CENTRAL AMERICA'S POLITICAL SYSTEMS (EXCEPT FOR COSTA RICA'S LONG-STANDING DEMOCRACY) PROVED TOO CLOSED TO PROVIDE A REAL OUTLET FOR EITHER NEW SOCIAL GROUPS OR THE AWAKENING POOR.

OUR POLICY STRONGLY SUPPORTS OPENING UP THE REGION'S POLITICS THROUGH REGULAR ELECTORAL COMPETITION AND DEMOCRATIC PROCESSES. THAT IS OUR POSITION IN EL SALVADOR AND GUATEMALA, AND IT IS OUR POSITION IN NICARAGUA. EL SALVADOR AND GUATEMALA HAVE BOTH IN THE LAST THREE YEARS REPEATEDLY HELD ELECTIONS THAT WERE NOT ONLY FREE BUT HIGHLY COMPETITIVE. NICARAGUA'S SANDINISTAS REFUSE TO EVEN TALK TO THOSE WHO RESIST THEIR DICTATORSHIP.

THIRD, RELIANCE ON VIOLENCE TO RESOLVE CONFLICT BECAME INGRAINED.

THIS IS A SECOND REASON WE ARE FOSTERING DEMOCRACY. DEMOCRACY IS THE BEST MECHANISM THERE IS FOR PEACEFUL SOCIAL PROGRESS AND PEACEFUL POLITICAL CHANGE. IT IS WHY WE ARE WORKING TO STRENGTHEN JUDICIAL PROCESSES THROUGHOUT CENTRAL AMERICA. IT IS WHY WE HAVE INSISTED ON AN END TO DEATH SQUADS IN EL SALVADOR AND GUATEMALA AND WHY WE WOULD BE DELIGHTED TO SEE AN END TO THE "DIVINE MOBS" AND SECRET POLICE OF NICARAGUA'S MINISTRY OF THE INTERIOR.

FOURTH, THE DOWNTURN IN THE GLOBAL ECONOMY, AGGRAVATED BY THE GUERRILLA WARFARE SUPPORTED BY THE SOVIET BLOC FROM NICARAGUAN TERRITORY, HAS SEVERELY DAMAGED THE ECONOMY OF EL SALVADOR AND DRIVEN CAPITAL OUT OF CENTRAL AMERICA GENERALLY, INCREASING BOTH SUFFERING AND POTENTIAL INSTABILITY.

THAT IS WHY SUBSTANTIAL FINANCIAL AND ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE IS ESSENTIAL, FIRST TO HELP STABILIZE THE REGION'S ECONOMIES, THEN TO HELP RESTORE GROWTH AND REGIONAL COOPERATION. IT IS VITAL THAT WE CONTINUE TO MEET THE AGREED KISSINGER COMMISSION GOALS.

FIFTH, THEIR NUMBERS HAVE DECLINED AS THE POPULATION HAS TURNED AWAY FROM THEM, BUT THE SALVADORAN GUERRILLAS HAVE REMAINED A FORMIDABLE MILITARY FORCE BECAUSE THE SOVIETS HAVE USED CUBA AND NICARAGUA TO PROVIDE THE OUTSIDE SUPPORT NEEDED TO OPERATE DESPITE THE OPPOSITION OF MOST SALVADORANS.

THAT IS WHY U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE IS REQUIRED. IN FACT, THE MILITARY COMPONENT OF OUR POLICY HAS, IF ANYTHING, BEEN TOO SMALL. THREE YEARS AGO, THE BIPARTISAN COMMISSION WARNED: "THE WORST POSSIBLE POLICY FOR EL SALVADOR IS TO PROVIDE JUST ENOUGH AID TO KEEP THE WAR GOING, BUT TOO LITTLE TO WAGE IT SUCCESSFULLY." WE HEEDED THE COMMISSION'S WARNING ON EL SALVADOR. THE RESULTS HAVE BEEN FAR BETTER THAN MOST OBSERVERS BELIEVED POSSIBLE.

SIXTH, NICARAGUA'S INTERNAL REPRESSION, MILITARY BUILDUP AND TIES TO THE SOVIET BLOC ARE BECOMING A PERMANENT SOURCE OF INSTABILITY IN THE ENTIRE REGION. CUBAN AGENTS ENTERED MANAGUA WITH THE SANDINISTAS IN JULY 1979; 3 MONTHS LATER, THE CUBAN CONTINGENT HAD GROWN TO 2,000. TODAY, EXCLUDING CUBAN CIVILIANS, WHO SINCE THE LIBERATION OF GRENADA ARE MAINLY YOUNG MALES WHO HAVE SERVED IN THE CUBAN MILITIA, THE U.S. INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY ESTIMATES THE CUBAN MILITARY AND SECURITY PRESENCE AT BETWEEN 2,000 AND 2,500. PEACE IN CENTRAL AMERICA WILL BE IMPOSSIBLE AS LONG AS THIS MILITARY-SUBVERSIVE APPARATUS REMAINS IN PLACE UNCHECKED.

THE NEED TO DEFEND DEMOCRACY AND TO DEFEAT SOVIET-BACKED SUBVERSION AND MILITARIZATION IN NICARAGUA AND IN CENTRAL AMERICA AS A WHOLE IS WHERE THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE FORCES FIT IN -- NOT AS A SOLUTION BY THEMSELVES, BUT AS PART OF A STRATEGY TO INDUCE THE SANDINISTAS TO CHANGE THEIR BEHAVIOR OR FACE THE POSSIBILITY OF LOSING POWER ENTIRELY.

THE INDIVIDUAL ELEMENTS OF THIS STRATEGY CAN AND INDEED MUST BE COMBINED FLEXIBLY THROUGH DIPLOMACY TO MEET CHANGING SITUATIONS.

III. THE SANDINISTAS STARTED NASTY

IT IS SOMETIMES SAID THAT THE SANDINISTAS ARE JUST A GROUP OF THIRD WORLD REFORMERS WHO HAVE BEEN FORCED BY THE UNITED STATES AND A HANDFUL OF REACTIONARIES TO SUSPEND TEMPORARILY A FEW FREEDOMS IN SELF DEFENSE AND ALLY THEMSELVES WITH THE SOVIET UNION. THIS PROPOSITION IS FALSE.

--THE SANDINISTAS HAVE ALWAYS BEEN A MINORITY (THEY STILL PROUDLY REFER TO THEMSELVES AS A "VANGUARD"), BUT ONCE THE IMMENSELY POPULAR REVOLUTION AGAINST SOMOZA ENDED IN 1979 WITH THEM SHARING POWER IN THE GOVERNMENT, THEY SET OUT TO MONOPOLIZE POWER IN NICARAGUA AND TO HELP OVERTHROW NEIGHBORING GOVERNMENTS BEGINNING WITH EL SALVADOR.

--THE KEY TO THEIR CONFIDENCE WAS SUPPORT FROM THE SOVIET BLOC. THEY BELIEVED THIS SUPPORT, WHICH THEY HAD OBTAINED YEARS BEFORE THE FALL OF SOMOZA AND WHICH THEY EQUATED WITH "THE FORCES OF HISTORY," WOULD ENABLE THEM TO OVERCOME RESISTANCE BOTH AT HOME AND ABROAD.

--SO THEY SAW COLLABORATION WITH TRUE DEMOCRATS AND DIPLOMATIC NEGOTIATIONS SIMPLY AS A TACTIC TO DIVIDE THEIR NEIGHBORS AND NEUTRALIZE THE UNITED STATES. THEY WERE PLAYING THE OLD BROAD POPULAR FRONT GAME ADVOCATED BY THE COMINTERN IN THE 1930S.

U.S. OBJECTIVES AFTER SOMOZA FELL IN 1979 WERE TO PERSUADE THE SANDINISTAS AND THEIR DEMOCRATIC ALLIES IN THE NEW NICARAGUAN GOVERNMENT THAT THE GOALS OF THE NICARAGUAN NATION COULD BE ACHIEVED THROUGH DEMOCRACY AND PEACEFUL RELATIONS WITH ALL MEMBERS OF THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMUNITY, AND THAT, CONVERSELY, THEIR COMMUNIST ALLIANCES WERE DANGEROUS TO THEM AS WELL AS TO OTHERS.

--FOR A YEAR AND A HALF AFTER THE FALL OF SOMOZA, U.S. EFFORTS CENTERED ON POLITICAL BRIDGE-BUILDING AND SUBSTANTIAL ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE FOR THE RECONSTRUCTION OF NICARAGUA.

--THIS ATTEMPT BY THE CARTER ADMINISTRATION TO BUILD FRIENDLY RELATIONS WAS IGNORED BY THE SANDINISTAS, WHO SECRETLY SOUGHT SOVIET BLOC AID TO HELP TURN THEIR GUERRILLA FORCES INTO A POWERFUL MODERN ARMY AND BUILD AN INTERNAL SECURITY SYSTEM ALONG CUBAN LINES.

--BY THE FALL OF 1980, DESPITE SPECIFIC WARNINGS THAT THIS WOULD JEOPARDIZE OUR ASSISTANCE AND OUR RELATIONS, THE SANDINISTAS WERE COOPERATING ACTIVELY WITH A SOVIET-CUBAN STRATEGY TO SUPPLY ARMS AND TRAINING TO GUERRILLA FORCES IN EL SALVADOR.

--BY EARLY 1981, AFTER THE EXTENT OF SANDINISTA PARTICIPATION IN THE SOVIET BLOC INTERVENTION IN EL SALVADOR HAD BECOME CLEAR, THE CARTER ADMINISTRATION SUSPENDED, THEN THE REAGAN ADMINSTRATION TERMINATED, U.S. ASSISTANCE TO THE NICARAGUAN GOVERNMENT AS REQUIRED BY LAW.

--BY THAT TIME THE SANDINISTAS HAD DRIVEN NON-MARXISTS

OUT OF THE GOVERNMENT, REPRESSED INDEPENDENT GROUPS, ESTABLISHED INTIMATE TIES WITH CUBA AND THE SOVIET BLOC GENERALLY, AND GIVEN FULL SUPPORT TO THE GUERRILLAS IN EL SALVADOR AND WERE BEGINNING TO SPONSOR TERRORISM IN HONDURAS AND COSTA RICA.

--BUT WE CONTINUED OUR EFFORTS TO NEGOTIATE. IN AUGUST 1981, WE SENT ASSISTANT SECRETARY ENDERS TO MANAGUA TO INVITE THE SANDINISTAS TO EXCHANGE PROPOSALS SO THAT POSITIVE RELATIONS AND ASSISTANCE COULD BE RESUMED.

--WE PUT THOSE PROPOSALS IN WRITING, BUT THE SANDINISTAS DID NOT RESPOND.

--ATTEMPTS TO REASON WITH THE SANDINISTAS ON THE BASIS OF POSITIVE INDUCEMENTS WERE GOING NOWHERE.

--IT WAS THEN, NEARLY TWO AND ONE HALF YEARS AFTER SOMOZA FELL, THAT WE DECIDED TO SUPPORT NICARAGUAN PATRIOTS FIGHTING THE SANDINISTAS. IF CARROTS WERE NOT ENOUGH, MAYBE A STICK WOULD HELP.

--AT THE SAME TIME, WE CONTINUED TO PROBE FOR NEGOTIATING OPENINGS.

--IN THE SPRING OF 1982, AT THE SUGGESTION OF MEXICAN PRESIDENT LOPEZ PORTILLO, WE AGAIN OFFERED, IN WRITING, TO RESUME POSITIVE RELATIONS AND ASSISTANCE IF THEY MET REGIONAL CONCERNS. AGAIN THE SANDINISTAS TOOK NO ACTION.

--AFTER THE 1982 ELECTIONS IN EL SALVADOR, THE SANDINISTAS ACTUALLY EXPANDED THEIR SUPPORT FOR THE GUERRILLAS IN EL SALVADOR. WE ASKED THE NICARAGUAN GOVERNMENT TO CLOSE DOWN THE COMMAND AND CONTROL CENTER THE SALVADORAN EXTREMISTS WERE OPERATING IN THE OUTSKIRTS OF MANAGUA -- AND WHEN THEY PROFESSED IGNORANCE OF ITS EXISTENCE, WE OFFERED TO SEND DOWN A TECHNICAL TEAM TO HELP THEM LOCATE IT. THE SANDINISTAS DID NOT EVEN BOTHER TO REPLY.

--NEGOTIATIONS INVOLVING THE SANDINISTAS HAVE TAKEN PLACE ALMOST CONTINUALLY SINCE THEN, OFTEN UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE CONTADORA PROCESS THAT BEGAN IN 1983. THE UNITED STATES HAS SUPPORTED THESE NEGOTIATIONS THROUGH SECRETARY

SHULTZ' 1984 VISIT TO MANAGUA AND THE ACTIVITIES OF THREE SPECIAL ENVOYS, INCLUDING NINE ROUNDS OF BILATERAL TALKS, ONE IN ATLANTA, AND EIGHT IN MANZANILLO, MEXICO.

--AS SOON AS THE SANDINISTAS ACCEPT THE NECESSITY OF FACE

TO FACE TALKS WITH THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE SPAWNED BY THEIR INTRANSIGENCE AND REPRESSION, WE WILL SIT DOWN TO TALK DIRECTLY TO THEM AGAIN.

IV. U.S. NEGOTIATING OBJECTIVES

BY THE SUMMER OF 1982, WHAT WE HAD LEARNED FROM OUR REPEATED EFFORTS TO ENGAGE IN CONCRETE, MEANINGFUL TALKS HAD LED US TO EVOLVE FOUR MAJOR OBJECTIVES FOR NEGOTIATING WITH THE SANDINISTAS. THESE OBJECTIVES REFLECT OUR SECURITY NEEDS AND THOSE OF OUR FRIENDS AS WELL AS OUR AND THEIR DESIRES FOR DEMOCRACY. WHAT WE SEEK IN NICARAGUA IS FULLY CONSISTENT WITH OUR SUPPORT FOR DEMOCRACY, DEVELOPMENT AND SECURITY THROUGHOUT CENTRAL AMERICA.

THOSE OBJECTIVES ARE STILL VALID TODAY. THEY ARE:

--ENDING NICARAGUAN SUPPORT FOR GUERRILLA GROUPS;

--CUTTING NICARAGUAN MILITARY AND SECURITY TIES TO CUBA AND THE SOVIET BLOC;

--REDUCING NICARAGUA'S MILITARY STRENGTH TO LEVELS THAT WOULD RESTORE MILITARY EQUILIBRIUM IN THE AREA;

--FULFILLMENT OF THE SANDINISTAS' OWN ORIGINAL PROMISES TO BUILD DEMOCRATIC PLURALISM.

THESE OBJECTIVES HAVE BEEN AT THE HEART OF INTERNATIONAL DIPLOMACY INVOLVING CENTRAL AMERICA SINCE WE FIRST ARTICULATED THEM IN AUGUST 1982.

IN OCTOBER 1982, UNDER COSTA RICAN LEADERSHIP, A GROUP OF EIGHT DEMOCRATIC STATES DEVELOPED A COMPREHENSIVE SET OF PROPOSALS TO REDUCE TENSIONS. THE SAN JOSE STATEMENT, OF WHICH WE WERE BOTH PRIME MOVERS AND A SIGNATORY TOGETHER WITH THE OTHER DEMOCRACIES, INCORPORATED OUR OBJECTIVES IN FULL. NICARAGUA REFUSED EVEN TO MEET THE COSTA RICAN FOREIGN MINISTER TO DISCUSS THEM.

IN JANUARY 1983, THE CONTADORA PROCESS BEGAN. COMPARE THE FOUR U.S. OBJECTIVES WITH THE SUBSTANCE OF THE CONTADORA DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES AGREED TO ON SEPTEMBER 7, 1983, BY THE FOUR CONTADORA SPONSORS AND ALL FIVE CENTRAL AMERICAN COUNTRIES:

-WE SEEK AN END TO NICARAGUAN SUPPORT FOR GUERRILLA GROUPS: THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES CALLS FOR AN END TO SUPPORT FOR SUBVERSION.

--WE WANT NICARAGUA TO SEVER ITS MILITARY AND SECURITY TIES TO CUBA AND THE SOVIET BLOC: THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES CALLS FOR THE PROSCRIPTION OF FOREIGN MILITARY BASES AND THE REDUCTION AND EVENTUAL ELIMINATION OF FOREIGN MILITARY ADVISERS AND TROOPS.

--WE SEEK REDUCTION OF NICARAGUA'S MILITARY STRENGTH TO LEVELS THAT WOULD RESTORE MILITARY EQUILIBRIUM IN THE AREA: THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES CALLS FOR THE REDUCTION OF CURRENT INVENTORIES OF ARMS AND MILITARY PERSONNEL.

--WE SEEK FULFILLMENT OF THE ORIGINAL SANDINISTA PROMISES

TO SUPPORT DEMOCRATIC PLURALISM: THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES CALLS FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF DEMOCRATIC SYSTEMS OF GOVERNMENT BASED ON GENUINELY OPEN ELECTIONS.

--FINALLY, WE SEEK A DIPLOMATIC SOLUTION THAT IS VERIFIABLE AND ENFORCEABLE: THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES CALLS FOR ADEQUATE MEANS OF VERIFICATION AND CONTROL.

IF ACTUALLY IMPLEMENTED SIMULTANEOUSLY ON A VERIFIABLE AND ENFORCEABLE BASIS, THE SUBSTANCE OF THE 21 CONTADORA OBJECTIVES IS VIRTUALLY IDENTICAL WITH OUR OWN EVALUATION OF WHAT IS NECESSARY TO SATISFY U.S. INTERESTS IN THE AREA.

THAT IS WHY, DESPITE THE BILATERAL RECORD DETAILED ABOVE, WE SAW IN NICARAGUA'S ACCEPTANCE OF THE CONTADORA DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES THE POSSIBILITY THAT OUR OWN OBJECTIVES MIGHT ULTIMATELY BE REACHED THROUGH NEGOTIATIONS.

AS THE THE YEARS HAVE GONE BY, SANDINISTA ABUSES AND INTRANSIGENCE HAVE INCREASED, AND THE CONTADORA PROCESS HAS SOMETIMES SEEMED TO LOOK THE OTHER WAY. WE HAVE INCREASED THE PRESSURES. BUT WE HAVE ALSO CONSTANTLY PROBED THE SANDINISTAS ON THEIR INTENTIONS. U.S. PRESSURE ON NICARAGUA IS NOT PRESSURE FOR PRESSURE'S SAKE. IT HAS DIPLOMATIC AND POLITICAL GOALS.

THE BASIC FACT IS THIS: IF THE SANDINISTAS IMPLEMENT THESE PRINCIPLES IN A WAY IN WHICH WE CAN HAVE CONFIDENCE -- WHETHER ON THE BASIS OF A FORMAL TREATY OR NOT -- ITS NEIGHBORS WILL DO THE SAME, AND SO WILL WE. DEMOCRACY, AFTER ALL, IS THE BEST VERIFICATION MECHANISM. THE PRESSURE WILL HAVE WORKED, MEMBERS OF THE RESISTANCE FORCES WILL HAVE BEEN ABLE TO LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS, OUR CONCERNS WILL HAVE BEEN ALLEVIATED, AND A POLITICAL SOLUTION WILL HAVE BEEN ACHIEVED IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

V. U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE

U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE IN NICARAGUA IS DESIGNED TO ADVANCE THESE BROADER OBJECTIVES. ONCE IT BECAME CLEAR THAT NORMAL DIPLOMATIC AND ECONOMIC INDUCEMENTS WERE NOT ENOUGH TO PERSUADE THE SANDINISTAS TO COMPROMISE, A PROGRAM WAS BEGUN TO AID AN ANTI-SANDINISTA GROUP THAT WAS ALREADY IN EXISTENCE. THE RESISTANCE HAS ACHIEVED A MEASURE OF SUCCESS NOT SOLELY OR EVEN PRIMARILY BECAUSE OF OUR EFFORTS, BUT BECAUSE RESISTANCE HAS BEEN STIMULATED BY CONTINUING SANDINISTA REPRESSION AND BY DEFECTIONS FROM THE SANDINISTA RANKS.

U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE RESISTANCE IS INTENDED TO HELP LIMIT AND ULTIMATELY END THE CONFLICT IN CENTRAL AMERICA, NOT TO WIDEN IT. IT IS DESIGNED TO EITHER INDUCE THE SANDINISTAS TO CHANGE THEIR ASSUMPTIONS AND THE AGGRESSIVE ACTIONS THAT FLOW FROM THEM, OR, IF THEY DO NOT, TO HELP PUT THE NICARAGUAN PEOPLE THEMSELVES INTO A POSITION TO RID THEMSELVES OF THE SANDINISTAS.

THE GROWTH OF THE RESISTANCE AND ITS TRANSFORMATION FROM A GROUP CENTERED INITIALLY AROUND A FEW HUNDRED EX-NATIONAL GUARDSMEN TO A PEASANT ARMY OF NEARLY 20,000 FIGHTERS, MANY OF WHOSE LEADERS ARE FORMER SANDINISTAS, MAKE CLEAR IT IS AN AUTHENTIC, INDIGENOUS MOVEMENT RESPONSIVE TO THE DEMOCRATIC ASPIRATIONS OF THE NICARAGUAN PEOPLE.

SOME CRITICS OF U.S. SUPPORT HAVE SUGGESTED THAT IT HAS BEEN COUNTERPRODUCTIVE, THAT IT HAS RADICALIZED THE SANDINISTAS AND HELPED THEM TO CONSOLIDATE THEIR POWER.

THE OPPOSITE IS TRUE. THE SANDINISTAS SET A RADICAL COURSE FROM THE VERY START. AS DETAILED ABOVE, THEY DECIDED TO EMBRACE THE CUBANS AND SOVIETS AND TO SUPPORT GUERRILLA WARFARE ELSEWHERE IN CENTRAL AMERICA EVEN BEFORE THEY CAME TO POWER, LONG BEFORE THERE WAS ANY PRESSURE FROM THE U.S., FROM MILITARY EXERCISES OR FROM U.S.-SUPPORTED NICARAGUANS.

THE SANDINISTAS HAVE SCORED MANY PROPAGANDA POINTS AGAINST THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE FIGHTERS, PARTICULARLY OUTSIDE OF NICARAGUA. BUT IN FACT THE ARMED RESISTANCE HAS SUCCEEDED IN PREVENTING THE SANDINISTAS FROM USING THEIR SUPERIOR MILITARY FORCE TO CONSOLIDATE THEIR POWER. BY 1982, DEMOCRATIC GROUPS INSIDE NICARAGUA WERE INCREASINGLY DEMORALIZED BY SANDINISTA REPRESSION. WHEN ANTI-SANDINISTA NATIONALISTS TOOK UP ARMS, LARGE NUMBERS OF PEASANT MILITIA MEMBERS DESERTED AND CHOSE TO FIGHT TO DEFEND THEIR COUNTRY AGAINST THE SOVIET BLOC AND THE FOREIGN "INTERNATIONALISTS." THEIR RESISTANCE KEPT NICARAGUA'S FUTURE IN DOUBT AND GAVE FRESH HOPE TO ALL NICARAGUANS WHO OPPOSED THE SANDINISTAS.

THE SANDINISTAS' ATTEMPT TO SHRUG ALL THIS OFF BY LABELING THEIR OPPONENTS "SOMOCISTAS" FIGHTING AS "MERCENARIES" IN A "YANKEE WAR" OF AGGRESSION HAS PROVED BOTH LESS ACCURATE AND LESS EFFECTIVE THAN THEY OBVIOUSLY HOPED.

THE MAIN RESISTANCE ORGANIZATION, THE UNITED NICARAGUAN OPPOSITION (UNO), HAS BECOME A FOCUS FOR NICARAGUANS FROM ALL WALKS OF LIFE AND POLITICAL CONVICTION. MANY OF THEM HAVE DIFFERENT IDEAS ABOUT HOW TO REGAIN THE REVOLUTION THAT THE SANDINISTAS STOLE FROM THEM, BUT THEY REALIZE THAT THEIR COMMON RESISTANCE TO THE SANDINISTAS IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN THEIR INDIVIDUAL DIFFERENCES.

THIS MULTIPLICITY OF VIEWS AND TALENT HAS RESULTED IN GROWING PAINS FOR UNO. WE EXPECT THE UNO COALITION TO CONTINUE TO BROADEN, BOTH INSIDE AND OUTSIDE NICARAGUA. IT IS ONLY NATURAL THAT NEW LEADERS SHOULD EMERGE. WE VIEW THIS EFFORT TO MAKE ROOM FOR NEW IDEAS AS A HEALTHY AND NECESSARY STEP IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF A DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION.

THE LEADERS OF UNO, ADOLFO CALERO, ARTURO CRUZ, AND ALFONSO ROBELO, SHARE WITH THE NEW TALENT THAT HAS JOINED UNO A HISTORY OF OPPOSITION TO SOMOZA. ALL THREE ACTIVELY OPPOSED SOMOZA WHILE HE WAS STILL IN POWER. CALERO WAS JAILED BY SOMOZA; FIRST ROBELO THEN CRUZ BECAME JUNTA MEMBERS WITH THE SANDINISTAS.

THE LARGEST GUERRILLA FORCES BELONG TO THE NICARAGUAN DEMOCRATIC FORCE (FDN), HEADED BY CALERO SINCE 1983. OTHER IMPORTANT RESISTANCE ORGANIZATIONS INCLUDE THE SOUTHERN OPPOSITION BLOC (BOS, WHICH GREW OUT OF ARDE, BUILT BY ROBELO AND FORMER SANDINISTA COMANDANTE EDEN PASTORA), AND MISURASATA AND KISAN FIGHTERS ACTIVE AMONG THE INDIANS OF THE ATLANTIC COAST.

RESISTANCE FIGHTERS ARE OVERWHELMINGLY RURAL YOUTHS. MOST WERE IN THEIR EARLY TEENS, AND MANY EVEN YOUNGER, WHEN SOMOZA FELL IN 1979. THEIR STRUGGLE IS NOT ON BEHALF OF

THE OLD DICTATORSHIP--IT IS AGAINST THE NEW DICTATORSHIP ARMED BY CUBA AND THE SOVIET UNION. THEY FIGHT IN RESPONSE TO SANDINISTA ATTEMPTS TO CONTROL THEIR FARMING, THEIR CHURCHES, THEIR SCHOOLS, AND IN SOME CASES THEIR

INDIGENOUS CULTURES. MANY JOINED THE RESISTANCE IN PREFERENCE TO BEING DRAFTED TO FIGHT FOR THE SANDINISTAS AGAINST THEIR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS. IN DEFENDING THEIR FAMILIES AND COMMUNITIES, THESE YOUNG NICARAGUANS ARE FIGHTING ABOVE ALL ELSE FOR SELF-DETERMINATION.

THE $100 MILLION IN RENEWED AID TO THE RESISTANCE IS HELPING THE RESISTANCE TO IMPROVE ITS MILITARY SKILLS AND CAPABILITIES. BY THE TIME IT WAS APPROVED IN MID-OCTOBER 1986, HOWEVER, THE PREVIOUS ALLOTMENT OF U.S. AID, $27 MILLION IN HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE, HAD BEEN ESSENTIALLY EXHAUSTED SINCE THE END OF JULY. NEW SUPPLIES HAVE MET BASIC NEEDS FOR FOOD, MEDICAL CARE, UNIFORMS AND MILITARY MATERIEL. THE RESULT IS THAT THE NUMBER OF RESISTANCE COMBATANTS INSIDE NICARAGUA HAS GROWN BY THOUSANDS IN THE LAST THREE MONTHS.

MILITARY IMPROVEMENTS HAVE BEEN EQUALLED BY IMPORTANT STRIDES IN THE RESISTANCE'S POLITICAL ACTIVITIES, WHICH ARE ESSENTIAL TO THE TASK OF INCREASING ACTIVE SUPPORT FOR THE RESISTANCE IN NICARAGUA AND TO THE ULTIMATE VICTORY OF DEMOCRATIC FORCES.

LESS THAN A MONTH AGO, ON JANUARY 10, UNO AND BOS ISSUED AN AGREEMENT ON JOINT POLITICAL GOALS, THE "STATEMENT OF THE COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY OF THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE." THE STATEMENT CALLS FOR POLITICAL PLURALISM, REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACY, A STATE OF LAW THAT RESPECTS AND GUARANTEES FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS AS RECOGNIZED IN INTERNATIONAL CONVENTIONS, A FAIR SYSTEM OF JUSTICE, ECONOMIC FREEDOM WITH GUARANTEED PROPERTY RIGHTS, AND RESPECT FOR THE CULTURAL IDENTITY AND POLITICAL RIGHTS OF INDIGENOUS GROUPS OF THE ATLANTIC COAST. UNO AND BOS ALSO CALL FOR THE DISMANTLING OF THE SANDINISTA SYSTEM OF PARTY CONTROL OF THE ARMY AND POLICE FORCES, AND THE SUBORDINATION OF SUCH FORCES TO NATIONAL CIVILIAN AUTHORITIES IN THE DEMOCRATIC NICARAGUA OF THE FUTURE. THIS DOCUMENT IS THE PRODUCT OF EXTENSIVE DISCUSSIONS AMONG UNO AND BOS LEADERS, AND IT WAS CONSIDERED BY THE UNO AND BOS ASSEMBLIES. THE UNO ASSEMBLY, A BODY INCLUDING REPRESENTATIVES OF THIRTEEN NICARAGUAN POLITICAL, LABOR, BUSINESS AND ETHNIC ORGANIZATIONS IN EXILE, DEBATED IT AT A TWO-DAY SESSION IN SAN JOSE, COSTA RICA, LAST NOVEMBER.

SINCE JANUARY 4, 1987, RADIO LIBERACION, THE OFFICIAL VOICE OF UNO, HAS BEEN ON THE AIR CARRYING A MESSAGE OF HOPE AND RESISTANCE TO THE NICARAGUAN PEOPLE. IT PROVIDES AN OBJECTIVE SOURCE OF INFORMATION ON WORLD AND DOMESTIC NEWS, AND IT GIVES RESISTANCE LEADERS A CHANCE TO EXPLAIN THEIR POLITICAL MESSAGE DIRECTLY TO THE PEOPLE OF NICARAGUA. RADIO LIBERACION IS HEARD THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY FOR TWELVE HOURS EACH DAY.

UNO HAS DEVELOPED A DIPLOMATIC STRATEGY TO GET ITS MESSAGE ACROSS TO LATIN AMERICAN AND OTHER GOVERNMENTS; IT HAS A FUNCTIONING SECRETARIAT FOR INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS WITH REPRESENTATIVES IN SEVERAL LATIN AMERICAN AND EUROPEAN CAPITALS. IN ADVANCE OF THE JANUARY CENTRAL AMERICAN TOUR OF THE CONTADORA FOREIGN MINISTERS WITH THE UN AND OAS SECRETARIES GENERAL, THE UNO DIRECTORS SENT A LETTER OUTLINING THE UNO POSITION ON NEGOTIATIONS AND DETAILING THE OFFERS FOR DIALOGUE THE RESISTANCE HAS MADE SINCE LATE 1982.

INDICATIVE OF UNO'S SUCCESS IN BROADENING ITS POLITICAL BASE IS THE ADDITION OF TWO NEW KEY PERSONNEL TO THE DIRECTORATE STAFF:

THE FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE NICARAGUAN SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY, LUIS RIVAS LEIVA, BECAME AN UNO POLITICAL COORDINATOR.

A FORMER PASTORA COMMANDER, LUIS "NICHO" RIVAS LEAL, WAS NAMED MILITARY COORDINATOR TO STRENGTHEN CIVILIAN CONTROL OF THE RESISTANCE FORCES.

IN NOVEMBER, THE NICARAGUAN HUMAN RIGHTS ASSOCIATION WAS ESTABLISHED HEADED BY MARTA PATRICIA BALTODANO, A HIGHLY RESPECTED HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVIST. FUNDED BY THE $3 MILLION AUTHORIZED BY CONGRESS FOR HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRAMS AND NOW FULLY STAFFED, THIS INDEPENDENT GROUP IS MONITORING HUMAN RIGHTS PERFORMANCE BY BOTH SIDES IN THE CIVIL WAR AND IS PROVIDING TRAINING IN HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE LAWS OF WAR TO RESISTANCE FORCES.

THESE AND OTHER EFFORTS HAVE MADE CLEAR BEYOND DOUBT THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITMENT OF THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE. THEY HAVE ALSO GIVEN THE RESISTANCE THE TOOLS IT NEEDS TO PROJECT ITS DEMOCRATIC MESSAGE TO NICARAGUA AND TO THE WORLD. THE SANDINISTAS ARE DOING THEIR PART, TOO: THEIR DIPLOMATIC INTRANSIGENCE AND THEIR BOGUS CONSTITUTION, LARGELY SUSPENDED LESS THAN FOUR HOURS AFTER IT WAS ISSUED, HAVE ADDED TO THEIR ISOLATION FROM BOTH THE NICARAGUAN PEOPLE AND THEIR DEMOCRATIC NEIGHBORS. MORE THAN EVER, THE RESISTANCE IS POISED AND EQUIPPED TO ADVANCE ITS CAUSE ON THE POLITICAL, MILITARY AND DIPLOMATIC FRONTS. AS ALWAYS, THEY ASK FOR AMERICAN AID BUT NOT FOR AMERICAN TROOPS. OUR CONTINUED SUPPORT IS ESSENTIAL TO THEIR PROSPECTS FOR SUCCESS.

VI. THE DIPLOMATIC SITUATION

OUR OBJECTIVE REMAINS A POLITICAL SOLUTION TO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN CONFLICT. BUT LET ME SPEAK BLUNTLY. NICARAGUA IS AT THE ROOT OF THE MILITARY CONFLICT IN CENTRAL AMERICA, AND THERE WILL BE NO PEACE IN THE REGION UNTIL THE PROBLEM POSED BY NICARAGUA HAS BEEN DEALT WITH.

WE SUPPORT THE CONTADORA PROCESS. THAT PROCESS, INITIATED ALMOST FOUR YEARS AGO, IS DESIGNED TO BRING ABOUT A COMPREHENSIVE SOLUTION TO THE PROBLEMS AFFLICTING THE REGION. WE HAVE LONG STATED THAT AN ACCEPTABLE AGREEMENT MUST BE COMPREHENSIVE; ITS COMMITMENTS MUST ENTER INTO FORCE SIMULTANEOUSLY; IT MUST HAVE ADEQUATE PROVISIONS FOR VERIFICATION. AND IT MUST BE ACCEPTABLE TO THE CENTRAL AMERICANS. AN AGREEMENT CANNOT BE IMPOSED FROM OUTSIDE THE REGION. IT CANNOT BE IMPOSED BY US, AND IT CANNOT BE IMPOSED BY THE CONTADORA GROUP.

ALL OF US ARE LOOKING FOR A FORMULA THAT WILL BRING PEACE TO THIS TROUBLED REGION. WHO COULD WANT PEACE MORE THAN PRESIDENT DUARTE OF EL SALVADOR, A MAN WHO HAS SEEN HIS COUNTRY RAVAGED FOR ALMOST SEVEN YEARS BY A COMMUNIST-LED INSURGENCY. WHO COULD WANT PEACE MORE THAN PRESIDENT AZCONA OF HONDURAS, WHOSE COUNTRY HAS SUFFERED THE DIRECT CONSEQUENCES OF TWO MAJOR SANDINISTA INCURSIONS DURING THE PAST YEAR. WHO COULD WANT PEACE MORE THAN PRESIDENT CEREZO OF GUATEMALA AS HE LEADS HIS COUNTRY FROM MILITARY RULE TO CIVILIAN-LED DEMOCRACY. AND WHO COULD WANT PEACE MORE THAN OSCAR ARIAS OF COSTA RICA, PRESIDENT OF A NATION WITHOUT AN ARMY, WHO LOOKS ACROSS AN UNDEFENDED BORDER AT THE LARGEST MILITARY FORCE IN CENTRAL AMERICAN HISTORY.

YET IT IS THE LEADERS OF THESE SAME CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES WHO STEADFASTLY RESIST PRESSURES FROM OUTSIDE THE REGION -- FROM THE CONTADORA AND THE SUPPORT GROUP, FROM EUROPEAN DEMOCRATS, AND EVEN FROM MEMBERS OF OUR OWN

CONGRESS -- TO ACCEPT AN UNBALANCED AGREEMENT MERELY FOR THE SAKE OF HAVING AN AGREEMENT IN THE VAIN HOPE THAT SUCH AN AGREEMENT WOULD SOMEHOW CONTAIN VIOLENCE IN THE REGION.

THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES ARE INCREASINGLY VOCAL IN THEIR JUDGMENT THAT DEMOCRACY IN NICARAGUA IS THE KEY TO PEACE IN CENTRAL AMERICA. COSTA RICAN PRESIDENT ARIAS IS ATTEMPTING TO CREATE A PLAN FOR A CEASE-FIRE AND A TRANSITION TO DEMOCRATIC RULE IN NICARAGUA; THIS PLAN MAY BE UNVEILED AT A FORTHCOMING MEETING OF THE PRESIDENTS OF THE FOUR CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPECIAL ENVOY FOR CENTRAL AMERICA, AMBASSADOR PHILIP HABIB, ONE OF OUR MOST DISTINGUISHED CAREER DIPLOMATS, IS CONSULTING WITH OUR ALLIES. SINCE ASSUMING HIS RESPONSIBILITIES IN MARCH 1986, AMBASSADOR HABIB HAS MADE 18 TRIPS TO THE REGION. HIS ACTIVE DIPLOMACY IS TANGIBLE EVIDENCE OF OUR DETERMINATION TO KEEP THE NEGOTIATING DOORS OPEN.

OUR EXPERIENCE IN SEVEN YEARS OF DEALING WITH THE SANDINISTA LEADERSHIP MAKES CLEAR THAT THE MARXIST-LENINISTS IN MANAGUA WILL NEGOTIATE SERIOUSLY ONLY WHEN THEY ARE CONVINCED THAT THEY HAVE MORE TO LOSE THAN TO GAIN IF THEY CONTINUE TO REFUSE TO SIT DOWN WITH THOSE WHO WANT AN OPEN, PLURALISTIC SOCIETY.

VII. PROSPECTS

WE STILL HAVE A LONG WAY TO GO. NICARAGUA IS CLEARLY THE MAJOR STUMBLING BLOCK TO PEACE IN CENTRAL AMERICA. WHILE AT TIMES OSTENSIBLY COOPERATING WITH CONTADORA, THE SANDINISTAS HAVE PERSISTENTLY TRIED TO REORIENT THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO THEIR OWN ADVANTAGE.

ON THE INTERNAL SCENE, THE SANDINISTAS' PERIODIC GESTURES TO THE OPPOSITION HAVE ALWAYS LACKED SUBSTANCE AND HAVE BEEN REVERSED. THE INDEPENDENT DAILY LA PRENSA IS CLOSED INDEFINITELY. THE STATE OF EMERGENCY HAS BEEN PROLONGED DESPITE THE PROMULGATION OF A NEW CONSTITUTION IN JANUARY 1987.

THE MILITARY PRESSURE BY THE RESISTANCE HAS GIVEN STRENGTH TO DIPLOMATIC INITIATIVES AND OTHER EFFORTS TO PRESSURE NICARAGUA TO FULFILL ITS COMMITMENTS TO PLURALISM AND BASIC HUMAN RIGHTS. IRONICALLY, THE FEAR OF MORE DIRECT U.S. INTERVENTION HAS GALVANIZED SOME LATIN AMERICANS AND EUROPEANS INTO PRESSING THE SANDINISTAS TO REDUCE THEIR TIES TO CUBA AND THE SOVIET UNION. THERE IS A CONSENSUS, EXPRESSED BY THE BIPARTISAN COMMISSION AND SHARED PRIVATELY BY THE CONTADORA NEGOTIATORS, THAT NICARAGUA'S MILITARY TIES TO CUBA AND

THE SOVIET UNION ARE AN OBSTACLE TO PEACE AND DEVELOPMENT IN THE ENTIRE REGION.

THE SANDINISTA'S PERIODIC NEGOTIATING POSTURES HAVE TENDED TO BE COSMETIC. THESE TACTICAL MOVES ARE LARGELY THE RESULT OF PRESSURES -- THE PRESSURES CREATED BY THE ARMED RESISTANCE, BY OUR SUPPORT FOR NICARAGUA'S NEIGHBORS, THE END OF SOVIET AND CUBAN INFLUENCE IN GRENADA, AND GROWING WESTERN EUROPEAN CRITICISM.

BUT NO PRESSURE CHALLENGES THE SANDINISTAS MORE DIRECTLY THAN THE GROWING OPPOSITION THEY FACE AT HOME.

--THE SANDINISTAS HAD ASSUMED THAT THEIR MASSIVE MILITARY AND SECURITY APPARATUS WOULD SILENCE THEIR INTERNAL CRITICS.

--BUT NEITHER THE CHURCH, LABOR, BUSINESS NOR THE PRESS HAVE BEEN COWED. DESPITE ENORMOUS PRESSURES, THEY HAVE CONTINUED TO DEFEND THEMSELVES AND THEIR PRINCIPLES.

--THE ARMED RESISTANCE IS FIGHTING NOT BECAUSE THEY WANT A RETURN TO SOMOCISMO AS THE SANDINISTAS CLAIM, BUT BECAUSE NICARAGUANS FOUGHT SOMOZA FOR FREEDOM, NOT JUST TO FALL PREY TO THE SOVIET BLOC.

ON EASTER SUNDAY 1984, NICARAGUA'S CATHOLIC BISHOPS SAID EXPLICITLY THAT "THE NICARAGUANS THAT HAVE RISEN IN ARMS AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT" MUST BE ALLOWED TO PARTICIPATE IN A DIALOGUE FOR PEACE. IF SUSTAINED, U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE RESISTANCE COULD ACHIEVE WHAT DIPLOMACY ALONE HAS NOT: TO CREATE DOUBTS IN THE MINDS OF THE SANDINISTAS ABOUT THEIR ASSUMPTION THAT SOVIET BLOC SUPPORT GUARANTEES THAT THEY CAN DO WHAT THEY WANT.

PRESSURES HAVE AT ONE POINT OR ANOTHER ALREADY FORCED THE SANDINISTAS TO THINK ABOUT HOW TO DEAL WITH SUCH KEY ISSUES AS:

--THEIR SUPPORT FOR THE SALVADORAN GUERRILLAS;

--THE PRESENCE OF CUBAN ADVISORS IN NICARAGUA;

--TRYING TO USE ELECTIONS TO REDUCE INTERNAL OPPOSITION; AND

--ATTEMPTING TO TURN CONTADORA INTO A MEANS OF STOPPING EXTERNAL SUPPORT FOR THE RESISTANCE.

TO DATE, THESE MOVES HAVE ULTIMATELY PROVED WHOLLY TACTICAL. THE SANDINISTAS HAVE YET TO GIVE UP ANYTHING SIGNIFICANT, EITHER DOMESTICALLY OR IN THEIR TIES TO CUBA AND THE SOVIET UNION.

WE BELIEVE THEY WILL NOT GIVE UP ANYTHING THEY ARE NOT FORCED TO GIVE UP.

VIII. CONCLUSION

SECRETARY SHULTZ HAS STRESSED REPEATEDLY THAT THE COMPLEXITY OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN CRISIS DEMANDS EQUALLY SOPHISTICATED AND RESPONSIBLE U.S. POLICIES.

AS NOTED AT THE BEGINNING OF THIS STATEMENT, OUR STRATEGY SEEKS TO APPLY MANY ELEMENTS SIMULTANEOUSLY. THE ADMINISTRATION WAS PLEASED TO SUPPORT LAST YEAR'S MOVE IN CONGRESS TO ADD $300 MILLION TO OUR FISCAL YEAR 1986 AID TO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. THIS WAS A POSITIVE CONTRIBUTION TO OUR REGIONAL APPROACH TO THE DEFENSE OF DEMOCRACY IN CENTRAL AMERICA. WE SHARED THE WIDESPREAD DISAPPOINTMENT IN CONGRESS WHEN THE FINAL TERMS OF THE CONTINUING RESOLUTION PREVENTED THE RELEASE OF THESE ADDITIONAL FUNDS. ADDITIONAL AUTHORIZATION IS NOT NEEDED NOW. THE FUNDS HAVE BEEN AUTHORIZED. THE PROBLEM IS THAT THEY HAVE NOT BEEN APPROPRIATED IN A FORM WHICH ENABLES US TO PROVIDE THEM AS THE ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE THE DEMOCRACIES NEED. THIS $300 MILLION IS NOW INCLUDED IN THE ADMINISTRATION'S SUPPLEMENTAL BUDGET REQUEST. WE STAND READY TO COOPERATE WITH YOU IN HAVING IT PASSED AND SIGNED INTO LAW.

SUPPORT FOR THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE IS ALSO AN ESSENTIAL COMPONENT OF OUR REGIONAL POLICY TO PROMOTE DEMOCRACY AND PEACE. IT IS THE ONLY ELEMENT THAT DIRECTLY COUNTERS THE SANDINISTAS' PLAN TO MONOPOLIZE POWER IN NICARAGUA ON THEIR OWN TERMS. IN THE COMPREHENSIVE CENTRAL AMERICAN OUTLOOK, THE RESISTANCE IS INDISPENSABLE TO THE SUCCESSFUL INTERPLAY BETWEEN ECONOMIC AND MILITARY ASSISTANCE, DIPLOMACY AND NEGOTIATIONS.

TO ACHIEVE REAL PROGRESS, PRESSURE ON THE SANDINISTAS MUST BE RELENTLESS AND THERE MUST BE A DIPLOMATIC ALTERNATIVE OPEN TO THEM. THIS MEANS THAT U.S. SUPPORT FOR NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE FORCES MUST CONTINUE. IT ALSO MEANS THAT WE SHALL CONTINUE TO SUPPORT THE CONTADORA OBJECTIVES, INCLUDING THE CONTADORA GOAL OF INTERNAL DIALOGUE IN NICARAGUA, WHICH THE RESISTANCE EMBRACES AND THE SANDINISTAS REJECT.

ALL OF NICARAGUA'S NEIGHBORS ACCEPT DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES OF NATIONAL RECONCILIATION. ALL OF NICARAGUA'S NEIGHBORS HAVE JOINED IN COOPERATING TO RESIST SANDINISTA PRESSURES -- OFTEN SETTING ASIDE MAJOR DIFFERENCES OF THEIR OWN IN THEIR CONVICTION THAT THE TOTALITARIAN AMBITIONS AND COMMUNIST TIES OF THE SANDINISTAS ARE A BARRIER TO PEACE FOR THE ENTIRE REGION.

THE ODD MAN OUT IS NICARAGUA, WHICH ALSO MUST BE BROUGHT IN -- AND KEPT IN -- THE PROCESS. THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE IS INDISPENSABLE TO THAT END.

THE CHOICES FOR THE UNITED STATES ARE CLEAR:

(1) TO WALK AWAY, ABANDONING THE NICARAGUAN PEOPLE AND OUR DEMOCRATIC FRIENDS IN CENTRAL AMERICA TO FEND FOR THEMSELVES;

(2) TO ATTEMPT A CONTAINMENT POLICY, ACCEPTING COMMUNIST RULE IN MANAGUA (AND THE DEFEAT OF THE DEMOCRATIC HOPES OF THE NICARAGUAN PEOPLE) BUT SEEKING TO SUSTAIN DEMOCRACY ELSEWHERE IN CENTRAL AMERICA WITH MASSIVE EXPENDITURES AND MILITARY DEPLOYMENTS; OR

(3) TO CONTINUE OUR CURRENT TWO-TRACK POLICY, BACKING THE RESISTANCE AS OFFERING THE ONLY PROSPECT FOR NEGOTIATING A DEMOCRATIC SOLUTION IN CENTRAL AMERICA THAT PROTECTS OUR NATIONAL INTERESTS.

OUR ASSESSMENT IS THAT WE CAN AND MUST HELP THE DEMOCRACIES TO DEVELOP THROUGH ECONOMIC AND SECURITY ASSISTANCE, BUT THAT ONLY PRESSURE APPLIED DIRECTLY TO NICARAGUA CAN PRODUCE GAINS THAT WILL DECREASE THE RISK OF SOVIET AND CUBAN DOMINATION OF CENTRAL AMERICA. IF WE ARE CORRECT IN THIS ASSESSMENT, AND EXPERIENCE SUGGESTS THAT WE ARE, THEN THE ALTERNATIVE TO OUR CURRENT TWO-TRACK POLICY OF SUPPORT FOR THE RESISTANCE AND NEGOTIATIONS WOULD BE TO FURTHER SHORE UP NICARAGUA'S NEIGHBORS AGAINST SANDINISTA AGGRESSION. THE ALTERNATIVE APPROACH WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT AND WOULD CARRY AT BEST LIMITED ASSURANCES THAT IT COULD WORK. THE KISSINGER COMMISSION ANALYZED WHAT CONTAINMENT IN THIS SITUATION WOULD REQUIRE AND WHERE IT WOULD LEAD. ITS FINDINGS, ANNEXED TO THIS STATEMENT, LED IT TO REJECT CONTAINMENT ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE ATTEMPT WOULD BE MORE LIKELY TO CREATE GARRISON STATES AND DOOM DEMOCRACY THAN TO BRING PEACE UNLESS U.S. FORCES BECAME DIRECTLY INVOLVED.

ON DECEMBER 16, SPEAKING TO JOURNALISTS IN SAN JOSE, COSTA RICA, PRESIDENT ARIAS SAID:

I WANT TO MAKE CLEAR TO YOU MY POSITION, WHICH IS THE SAME THAT I EXPRESSED IN WASHINGTON.

IT WOULD CAUSE ME GREAT SORROW IF, BECAUSE OF WHAT HAS HAPPENED IN THE U.S. -- THE SO-CALLED IRANGATE -- AID TO THE CONTRAS IS TERMINATED AND NOTHING MORE . . .

. THAT THIS RESULTS IN ALLOWING THE SANDINISTA REGIME TO CONSOLIDATE, TO NOT CHANGE, TO NOT YIELD, TO NOT COMPROMISE, AND EVERYTHING REMAINS THE SAME. I WOULD SAY TO YOU THAT TO ME AS A COSTA RICAN IT WOULD CAUSE GREAT REGRET, AND I BELIEVE THAT IT WOULD HURT THE NICARAGUAN PEOPLE MUCH MORE THAN ME BECAUSE THEY HAVE FOUGHT SO HARD TO GET RID OF ONE TYRANT, ONE DICTATOR, AND SEVEN YEARS LATER THEY HAVE NINE . . .

(IF) THIS SCANDAL RESULTS ONLY IN CONGRESS NOT APPROVING MORE MILITARY AID, AND LEAVES MATTERS IN NICARAGUA AS THEY ARE, I THINK IT WOULD BE REGRETTED BY THE CONTADORA GROUP, THE SUPPORT GROUP, BY THE OTHER CENTRAL AMERICAN NATIONS, BY THE WHOLE WORLD. BECAUSE -- LET'S NOT FOOL OURSELVES -- ALTHOUGH THE WORLD DOES NOT SUPPORT THE WAR, THIS DOESN'T MEAN IT CONCURS IN THE STATUS QUO IN NICARAGUA. THERE IS A DISTINCTION BETWEEN NOT CONCURRING IN A MILITARY OUTCOME BUT WANTING IMPORTANT CHANGE IN THE MANAGUA REGIME . . .'

LIKE PRESIDENT ARIAS, WE SEEK A DEMOCRATIC OUTCOME FOR THE STRUGGLE OF THE PEOPLE OF NICARAGUA. THE COSTS OF FAILURE ARE TOO HIGH: A DIRECT SOVIET CHALLENGE TO U.S. SECURITY INTERESTS NOT LIMITED TO CENTRAL AMERICA ALONE, ACCOMPANIED BY SPREADING POLITICAL EXTREMISM GENERATED BY SOVIET SUPPORT FOR TOTALITARIAN ELEMENTS AND BY LOCAL REACTIONS AGAINST IT, ALL THIS CREATING A DYNAMIC THAT WOULD RISK THE FUTURE WELLBEING OF MILLIONS OF OUR NEIGHBORS.

JUST AS DEMOCRACY CAME TO EL SALVADOR, IT CAN COME TO NICARAGUA. AS IN EL SALVADOR, IT CAN BE WON BY CENTRAL AMERICANS WHO ARE WILLING TO DEFEND THE DEMOCRATIC CAUSE AND SERVE OUR COMMON INTERESTS DEFEATING A SOVIET-SUPPORTED STRATEGY TO GAIN NEW SATELLITES -- AND NEW MILITARY BEACHHEADS -- IN THIS HEMISPHERE. FOR OUR PART, WE NEED TO SUPPORT OUR FRIENDS WITH PATIENCE, CONFIDENCE AND STEADFASTNESS. THE ELEMENTS OF A SUCCESSFUL POLICY ARE IN PLACE. NOW LET'S COMBINE OUR EFFORTS TO MAKE IT WORK.

ANNEX

THE REPORT OF THE NATIONAL BIPARTISAN COMMISSION ON CENTRAL AMERICA, ISSUED IN JANUARY 1984, STATES THE CONCLUSIONS OF THE COMMISSION THIS WAY AT PAGES 114-115:

THEORETICALLY, THE UNITED STATES AND ITS FRIENDS COULD . . . TRY TO CONTAIN A NICARAGUA WHICH CONTINUED TO RECEIVE MILITARY SUPPLIES ON THE PRESENT SCALE. IN PRATICAL (SIC) TERMS, HOWEVER, SUCH A COURSE WOULD PRESENT MAJOR DIFFICULTIES. IN THE ABSENCE OF A POLITICAL SETTLEMENT, THERE WOULD BE LITTLE INCENTIVE FOR THE SANDINISTAS TO ACT RESPONSIBLY, EVEN OVER A PERIOD OF TIME, AND MUCH INDUCEMENT TO ESCALATE THEIR EFFORTS TO SUBVERT NICARAGUA'S NEIGHBORS. TO CONTAIN THE EXPORT OF REVOLUTION WOULD REQUIRE A LEVEL OF VIGILANCE AND SUSTAINED EFFORT THAT WOULD BE DIFFICULT FOR NICARAGUA'S NEIGHBORS AND EVEN FOR THE UNITED STATES. A FULLY MILITARIZED AND EQUIPPED NICARAGUA, WITH EXCELLENT INTELLIGENCE AND COMMAND AND CONTROL ORGANIZATIONS, WOULD WEIGH HEAVILY ON THE NEIGHBORING COUNRIES OF THE REGION. THIS THREAT WOULD BE PARTICULARLY ACUTE FOR DEMOCRATIC, UNARMED COSTA RICA. IT WOULD HAVE ESPECIALLY SERIOUS IMPLICATIONS FOR VITAL U.S. INTERESTS IN THE PANAMA CANAL. WE WOULD THEN FACE THE PROSPECT, OVER TIME, OF

THE COLLAPSE OF THE OTHER COUNTRIES OF CENTRAL AMERICA, BRINGING WITH IT THE SPECTRE OF MARXIST DOMINATION OF THE ENTIRE REGION AND THUS THE DANGER OF A LARGER WAR.

THE NOTION THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD COPE WITH A MARXIST-LENINIST NICARAGUA, MILITARILY ALLIED TO THE SOVIET UNION AND CUBA, THROUGH LONG-TERM CONTAINMENT ASSUMES AN ANALOGY BETWEEN CONDITIONS IN POST-WAR EUROPE AND THE PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES OF CENTRAL AMERICA. THE EXPERIENCE OF THE POST-WAR PERIOD, HOWEVER, SHOWS THAT CONTAINMENT IS EFFECTIVE TO BACK UP LOCAL FORCES OF STABLE ALLIES FULLY CAPABLE OF COPING WITH INTERNAL CONFLICT AND SUBVERSIO N FROM WITHOUT. IN SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES, THE UNITED STATES CAN HELP TO ASSURE THE DETERRENCE OF OVERT MILITARY THREATS BY CONTRIBUTING FORCES IN PLACE, OR MERELY BY STRATEGIC GUARANTEES.

ON THE OTHER HAND, WHERE INTERNAL INSECURITY IS A CHRONIC DANGER AND WHERE LOCAL GOVERNMENTS ARE UNABLE TO DEAL WITH EXTERNALLY SUPPORTED SUBVERSION, A STRATEGY OF CONTAINMENT HAS MAJOR DISADVANTAGES. IT WOULD RISK THE INVOLVEMENT OF U.S. FORCES AS SURROGATE POLICEMEN. ANY SIGNIFICANT DEPLOYMENT OF U.S. FORCES IN CENTRAL AMERICA WOULD BE VERY COSTLY NOT JUST IN A DOMESTIC POLITICAL SENSE BUT IN GEO-STRATEGIC TERMS AS WELL. THE DIVERSION OF FUNDS FROM THE ECONOMIC, SOCIAL, MEDICAL, AND EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE REGION INTO MILITARY CONTAINMENT WOULD EXACERBATE POVERTY AND ENCOURAGE INTERNAL INSTABILITY IN EACH OF THE COUNTRIES THAT BECAME HEAVILY MILITARIZED.

FURTHERMORE . . . THE CREATION OF GARRISON STATES WOULD ALMOST CERTAINLY PERPETUATE THE ARMIES OF THE REGION AS PERMANENT POLITICAL ELITES. THE HOPES OF TRUE DEMOCRACY WOULD NOT BE ENHANCED.

THEREFORE, THOUGH THE COMMISSION BELIEVES THAT THE SANDINISTA REGIME WILL POSE A CONTINUING THREAT TO STABILITY IN THE REGION, WE DO NOT ADVOCATE A POLICY OF STATIC CONTAINMENT. (END ABRAMS TEXT)

3. (BEGIN HABIB TEXT):
PREPARED STATEMENT
THE HONORABLE AMBASSADOR PHILIP C. HABIB
SPECIAL ENVOY FOR CENTRAL AMERICA
BEFORE THE
COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS
UNITED STATES SENATE
FEBRUARY 5, 1987

I AM PLEASED TO HAVE BEEN INVITED TO ACCOMPANY ASSISTANT SECRETARY ABRAMS TO DISCUSS WITH THE DISTINGUISHED MEMBERS OF THIS COMMITTEE U.S. POLICY TOWARDS NICARAGUA. MR. ABRAMS HAS JUST GIVEN YOU A BROAD OVERVIEW OF OUR TWO-TRACK POLICY, AND I WILL NOW EXPLAIN OUR VIEWS ON NEGOTIATIONS IN GREATER DETAIL.

WE BELIEVE THAT THERE SHOULD BE A NEGOTIATING PROCESS FOR EVERY CONFLICT. IN CENTRAL AMERICA IT SHOULD BE CLEAR BY NOW THAT NEGOTIATIONS THAT PRODUCE A DEMOCRATIC OUTCOME IN NICARAGUA OFFER THE BEST HOPE FOR PEACE IN THE REGION. THE CONTADORA PROCESS HAS ACKNOWLEDGED THIS ESSENTIAL PRINCIPLE, AND WE HAVE SUPPORTED ITS NEGOTIATING EFFORTS.

THE CONTADORA PROCESS BEGAN IN JANUARY 1983 WHEN COLOMBIA, MEXICO, PANAMA, AND VENEZUELA FORMED THE CONTADORA GROUP TO SEEK A NEGOTIATED SOLUTION TO THE CONFLICT IN CENTRAL AMERICA. IN SEPTEMBER OF THAT YEAR, THEY AND THE FIVE CENTRAL AMERICAN COUNTRIES PRODUCED THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES. THIS DOCUMENT REPRESENTS THE ESSENCE OF CONTADORA; IT CONTAINS 21 POINTS ESSENTIAL TO A JUST AND DURABLE PEACE.

FOR OVER THREE YEARS, THE CONTADORA PROCESS HAS SOUGHT A FORMULA FOR ACCOMPLISHING THESE 21 OBJECTIVES. SEVERAL DRAFT AGREEMENTS OR ACTAS HAVE BEEN TABLED, AND THROUGH LENGTHY NEGOTIATIONS MUCH OF THE LANGUAGE HAS BEEN ACCEPTED BY ALL FIVE OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN COUNTRIES. HOWEVER, SEVERAL CRITICAL POINTS REMAIN UNRESOLVED. IN 1985, WITH THE PROCESS APPARENTLY DEADLOCKED, FOUR SOUTH AMERICAN NATIONS--ARGENTINA, BRAZIL, PERU, AND URUGUAY--FORMED THE SUPPORT GROUP IN AN EFFORT TO REVITALIZE THE NEGOTIATIONS.

CONTADORA IS AN ALL-LATIN PROCESS THAT NOW INCLUDES THE LARGEST LATIN NATIONS; THESE ARE IMPORTANT COUNTRIES, AND PEOPLE LISTEN WHEN THEY SPEAK. THIS IS AN ENCOURAGING DEVELOPMENT SINCE IT SHOWS LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS COMING TO GRIPS WITH HEMISPHERIC PROBLEMS.

CONTADORA SEEKS A COMPREHENSIVE, REGIONAL APPROACH TO THE PROBLEMS IN CENTRAL AMERICA. THE 21 POINTS OF THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES COVER THE FULL RANGE OF POLITICAL, SECURITY, MILITARY, AND ECONOMIC ISSUES WHICH MUST BE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT TO RESOLVE THE CONFLICT IN CENTRAL AMERICA. THEY SPECIFICALLY INCLUDE THE NEED FOR NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION, WHICH ARE THE KEYS TO LASTING PEACE.

THE UNITED STATES HAS CONSISTENTLY SUPPORTED THE CONTADORA PROCESS. WE BELIEVE THAT THIS REGIONAL APPROACH IS THE ONLY WAY TO PRODUCE A DURABLE SOLUTION. OUR OBJECTIVES IN NICARAGUA, WHICH ASSISTANT SECRETARY ABRAMS HAS JUST DESCRIBED TO YOU, ARE FULLY CONSISTENT WITH THE 21 POINTS. WE WOULD WELCOME, AND WE WOULD SUPPORT, AN AGREEMENT THAT ACHIEVED THE COMPREHENSIVE, VERIFIABLE, AND SIMULTANEOUS IMPLEMENTATION OF THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES.

WHILE WE SUPPORT THE CONTADORA PROCESS, WE DO NOT NECESSARILY ENDORSE EACH AND EVERY ACTION BY THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES. LARGELY BECAUSE SANDINISTA INTRANSIGENCE HAS FRUSTRATED EFFORTS TO ACHIEVE AN AGREEMENT, WE HAVE SEEN A TENDENCY FOR CONTADORA TO STRAY FROM ITS ORIGINAL OBJECTIVES. SOME MEMBERS HAVE PROMOTED PIECEMEAL SOLUTIONS WHICH WE BELIEVE WOULD ONLY DETRACT FROM THE EFFORTS TO ACHIEVE A DURABLE PEACE. SUCH PARTIAL SOLUTIONS WOULD TEND TO BENEFIT NICARAGUA AND REDUCE THE INCENTIVE OF THE SANDINISTAS TO NEGOTIATE SERIOUSLY ON KEY ISSUES. THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES, THE COUNTRIES MOST AFFECTED BY THE PROBLEM, ALSO DISAGREE WITH THIS PIECEMEAL APPROACH.

LAST JUNE, FOLLOWING THE INABILITY OF THE FIVE CENTRAL AMERICAN COUNTRIES TO REACH AN AGREEMENT AMONG THEMSELVES ON UNRESOLVED PORTIONS OF THE ACTA, THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES PRESENTED THEM WITH A NEW VERSION WHICH THEY DESCRIBED AS THE "FINAL DRAFT." THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES FOUND THIS DRAFT TO BE INADEQUATE ON SEVERAL GROUNDS, AND WE AGREED WITH THEM.

FOR ONE THING, THE JUNE DRAFT FAILED TO ADDRESS FULLY THE POLITICAL ISSUES OF NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION. THESE ARE CRUCIAL INGREDIENTS TO PEACE AND ARE SPECIFICALLY CALLED FOR IN THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES, BUT THE JUNE DRAFT DID LITTLE MORE THAN PAY THEM LIP SERVICE. THIS WAS A FATAL FLAW IN THE VIEW OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. AT A SUMMIT MEETING JUST A FEW WEEKS EARLIER, THE FOUR DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTS HAD BEEN LECTURED BY DANIEL ORTEGA ABOUT "REVOLUTIONARY DEMOCRACY" IN NICARAGUA; ORTEGA INSISTED THAT HIS SANDINISTA PARTY WAS THE "VANGUARD" OF THE PEOPLE WITH A HISTORIC RIGHT TO RULE, AND NEITHER BULLETS NOR BALLOTS WOULD EVER DRIVE IT FROM POWER. THE FOUR PRESIDENTS REALIZED THAT ORTEGA WAS USING AN ENTIRELY DIFFERENT VOCABULARY WHEN TALKING ABOUT PLURALISM AND DEMOCRACY. THEY RECOGNIZED THAT IN ANY AGREEMENT, THE POLITICAL TERMS MUST BE SPELLED OUT CLEARLY AND NICARAGUA'S OBLIGATIONS MUST BE ESTABLISHED PRECISELY SO THAT THERE COULD BE NO DOUBT ABOUT WHAT THE SANDINISTAS WERE REQUIRED TO DO. LACKING ADEQUATE PROVISIONS ON POLITICAL ISSUES, THE JUNE DRAFT WAS NOT COMPREHENSIVE.

THE JUNE DRAFT ALSO DID NOT FULLY ADDRESS THE ISSUE OF VERIFICATION. THE WHOLE ANNEX ON VERIFICATION WAS ONLY A ROUGH DRAFT. KEY QUESTIONS WERE UNRESOLVED; FOR EXAMPLE, THERE WAS NO AGREEMENT ON THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE VARIOUS COMMISSIONS, WHAT RIGHTS THEY WOULD HAVE (SUCH AS ACCESS TO MILITARY FACILITIES), AND WHO WOULD PAY FOR THE VARIOUS MECHANISMS.

MOREOVER, THE JUNE DRAFT WOULD NOT IMPLEMENT THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES IN A SIMULTANEOUS MANNER. WITH THE CENTRAL AMERICANS UNABLE TO RESOLVE KEY MILITARY AND SECURITY ISSUES DURING NEGOTIATIONS IN MAY, THE JUNE DRAFT SOUGHT TO SIDESTEP THE ISSUE. IT PROPOSED THAT ARMS TALKS BE DELAYED UNTIL AFTER THE AGREEMENT HAD BEEN SIGNED, RATIFIED, AND ENTERED INTO FORCE. THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES REJECTED THIS "SIGN NOW, NEGOTIATE LATER" APPROACH. THEY WERE NOT GOING TO "BUY A PIG IN A POKE." THEY WANTED AT LEAST THE BASIC MILITARY AND SECURITY ISSUES TO BE DECIDED BEFORE THEY SIGNED, NOT AFTER.

I SHOULD POINT OUT THAT ALTHOUGH NICARAUGA SAID IT WAS WILLING TO SIGN THE JUNE DRAFT, IT ADDED THE CONDITION THAT FUTURE ARMS TALKS MUST BE CONDUCTED ON ITS TERMS. THE SANDINISTAS HAVE MADE CLEAR THAT THEY WILL NOT EVEN DISCUSS PLACING ANY LIMITS ON THE SIZE OF THEIR ARMY, THE LARGEST IN CENTRAL AMERICA, OR ON MOST OF THE HUGE ARSENAL THEY HAVE RECEIVED FROM THE SOVIETS. THIS IN EFFECT STYMIES ACHIEVEMENT OF ONE OF CONTADORA'S MAIN GOALS--RESTORING A REGIONAL BALANCE OF POWER.

THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES INFORMED THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES OF THE DEFICIENCIES THEY SAW IN THE JUNE DRAFT AND INDICATED THEIR DESIRE FOR FURTHER NEGOTIATIONS TO STRENGHTEN THE AGREEMENT. IN JULY, HOWEVER, NICARAGUA FILED SUIT AGAINST COSTA RICA AND HONDURAS AT THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE. THIS ACTION VIOLATED THE ACT OF BOGOTA WHICH SAYS THAT PARTIES SHOULD NOT SEEK A JURIDICAL RESOLUTION OF A DISPUTE WHILE AN ACTIVE NEGOTIATING PROCESS IS UNDERWAY. COSTA RICA AND HONDURAS, INFURIATED BY THE SANDINISTAS' BAD FAITH, HAVE REFUSED TO PARTICIPATE IN FURTHER NEGOTIATIONS WHILE THE COURT CASES ARE PENDING.

WITH THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS BLOCKED BY THE SANDINISTAS, THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES AND OTHERS HAVE BEEN LOOKING FOR NEW APPROACHES. LAST NOVEMBER, THE SECRETARIES GENERAL OF THE UN AND THE OAS LAUNCHED A JOINT INITIATIVE. THEY OFFERED A "MENU OF SERVICES" AVAILABLE FROM THEIR ORGANIZATIONS TO SUPPORT CONTADORA. WE BELIEVE THAT THESE ORGANIATIONS, PARTICULARLY THE OAS AS THE REGIONAL BODY, COULD PLAY A USEFUL ROLE IN FACILITATING THE IMPLEMENTATION OF AN AGREEMENT. OF COURSE, FIRST AN AGREEMENT MUST BE REACHED, AND THIS IS THE TASK CONTADORA SEEKS TO FACILITATE.

LAST MONTH, THE EIGHT CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUP FOREIGN MINISTERS PLUS THE UN AND OAS SECRETARIES GENERAL VISITED CENTRAL AMERICA IN AN EFFORT TO REVIVE THE PROCESS. THEY WERE LOOKING FOR COMMON GROUND ON WHICH TO RESUME THE NEGOTIATIONS. THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES EXPRESSED THEIR CONTINUING DESIRE FOR A POLITICAL SOLUTION, AND THEY STRESSED THAT THE KEY TO LASTING PEACE WAS DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL CHANGE IN NICARAGUA. PRESIDENT

AZCONA OF HONDURAS SENT A LETTER TO HIS COUNTERPARTS IN THE EIGHT CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUP COUNTRIES EXPLAINING THAT THE CRISIS IN CENTRAL AMERICA WAS NOT AN INTERNATIONAL CONFLICT BETWEEN COUNTRIES, BUT RATHER AN INTERNAL CONFLICT IN NICARAGUA SPILLING OVER ITS BORDERS; THIS INTERNAL CONFLICT WAS CAUSED BY THE LACK OF DEMOCRACY IN NICARAGUA AND THE SANDINISTAS' EFFORTS TO CONSOLIDATE A MARXIST-LENINIST DICTATORSHIP ALIGNED WITH THE SOVIET UNION AND CUBA. THE DEMOCRACIES STRESSED THAT THE SANDINISTAS MUST ENTER INTO A PROCESS OF DIALOGUE AND NATIONAL RECONCILIATION WITH THEIR OPPOSITION.

UNFORTUNATELY, THE SANDINISTAS REMAIN INTRANSIGENT. THE COMMUNIQUE THEY ISSUED DURING THE CONTADORA VISIT DEMONSTRATED THEIR DESIRE FOR A PIECEMEAL, BILATERAL APPROACH WHICH WOULD RELIEVE THEM OF THE OBLIGATIONS OF A COMPREHENSIVE, VERIFIABLE, AND SIMULTANEOUS CONTADORA SETTLEMENT. THEY CALLED FOR TALKS WITH THE UNITED STATES, HONDURAS, AND COSTA RICA, AS IF THOSE COULD REALLY GET THE ROOT OF THE PROBLEM. THEY REFUSED TO WITHDRAW THEIR CASES AT THE WORLD COURT AGAINST COSTA RICA AND HONDURAS SO THAT NEGOTIATIONS COULD RESUME. MOST IMPORTANTLY, THEY SHOWED NO SIGNS THAT THEY WERE WILLING TO ENTER INTO A DIALOGUE WITH THEIR OWN PEOPLE.

LAST MONTH, ASSISTANT SECRETARY ABRAMS AND I MET IN MIAMI WITH THE FOREIGN MINISTER OF COSTA RICA TO DISCUSS SOME IDEAS HIS GOVERNMENT HAD FOR OVERCOMING THE PROBLEMS CAUSED BY SANDINISTA INTRANSIGENCE. PRESIDENT ARIAS, A MAN DEDICATED TO DEMOCRACY WHO SEES POLITICAL CHANGE IN NICARAGUA AS HIS COUNTRY'S ONLY LONG-TERM PROTECTION FROM THE SANDINISTAS, IS SEEKING A FORMULA WITHIN THE CONTADORA FRAMEWORK TO ADDRESS THE SPECIFIC ISSUES OF NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION. HE HAS CALLED FOR A SUMMIT MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENTS OF EL SALVADOR, GUATEMALA, AND HONDURAS FOR FEBRUARY 15, AND HE MAY FORMALLY UNVEIL HIS PROPOSALS AT THAT TIME.

THE UNITED STATES STANDS READY TO COOPERATE WITH CONTADORA AND THE CENTRAL AMERICA DEMOCRACIES AND TO DO WHAT IT CAN TO SUPPORT THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS. IN 1984, MY PREDECESSOR CONDUCTED NINE ROUNDS OF BILATERAL TALKS WITH THE SANDINISTAS AT THE REQUEST OF CONTADORA. WE SUSPENDED THESE TALKS WHEN IT BECAME CLEAR THAT THE SANDINISTAS WERE ATTEMPTING TO USE THEM NOT TO COMPLEMENT CONTADORA BUT TO REPLACE IT. ESSENTIALLY, THEY SOUGHT A BILATERAL ACCORD WITH THE UNITED STATES WHICH WOULD RESOLVE THEIR MOST PRESSING PROBLEMS AND LEAVE THEM FREE

TO WALK AWAY FROM CONTADORA, THE COMMITMENTS THEY WOULD BE REQUIRED TO MAKE IN ORDER TO FULFILL THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES, AND ULTIMATELY THE COMMITMENTS TO DEMOCRACY TO NICARAGUA'S PEOPLE THEY MADE IN 1979. WE HAVE STATED THAT WE ARE READY TO RESUME BILATERAL TALKS AS SOON AS THE SANDINISTAS ENGAGE IN A DIALOGUE WITH ALL ELEMENTS OF THEIR OPPOSITION, INCLUDING THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE. WE VIEW OUR POSITION AS AN INCENTIVE FOR THE SANDINISTAS

TO ENTER INTO A PROCESS OF NATIONAL RECONCILIATION.

THE SANDINISTAS TRY TO CONVINCE ALL WHO WILL STILL LISTEN THAT THE CONFLICT IS A BILATERAL ONE BETWEEN NICARAGUA AND THE UNITED STATES. FEWER AND FEWER PEOPLE ARE BUYING THIS LINE, HOWEVER, AS THEY COME TO REALIZE THAT THE REAL PROBLEM IS BETWEEN THE SANDINISTA REGIME AND ITS OWN PEOPLE, AND BETWEEN NICARAGUA AND ITS DEMOCRATIC NEIGHBORS. WE BELIEVE THAT UNTIL THE SANDINISTAS ARE READY TO COME TO TERMS WITH THEIR OWN PEOPLE, THERE IS NOTHING TO BE GAINED IN BILATERAL TALKS.

SINCE BECOMING THE PRESIDENT'S SPECIAL ENVOY LAST MARCH, I HAVE MADE TEN TRIPS TO THE REGION. I HAVE MADE CLEAR THAT THE UNITED STATES MAINTAINS THE NEGOTIATING HALF OF ITS TWO-TRACK POLICY. WE WANT A GOOD AGREEMENT, NOT A HALF-BAKED SOLUTION THAT WILL MERELY LEAD TO MORE CONFLICT IN THE FUTURE. LIKE THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES, WE REJECT THE PIECEMEAL APPROACH. LIKE THEM, WE ALSO WANT A DEMOCRATIC OUTCOME.

LAST MONTH, I VISITED FIVE OF THE CONTADORA AND SUPPORT GROUP CAPITALS AND EXPLAINED THAT WE WELCOME THEIR EFFORTS TO REVIVE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS. I URGED THEM TO LISTEN CLOSELY TO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES, WHO ARE THE ONES MOST FAMILIAR WITH THE REALITIES OF THE REGION AND WITH WHOM THEY HAVE MUCH MORE IN COMMON THAN SANDINISTA NICARAGUA. WE HOPE THAT THEY ARE LISTENING AND THAT THE VIEWS OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES ARE GIVEN THE CONSIDERATION THEY CLEARLY DESERVE.

WE ARE HOPEFUL THAT, AWARE THAT THE SANDINISTA REGIME IS THE CORE OF THE PROBLEM, THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES WILL NOW BE PREPARED TO TACKLE THE DIFFICULT POLITICAL ISSUES OF NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION IN NICARAGUA. SOME OF THE CONTADORA COUNTRIES, WHILE RECOGNIZING THE MARXIST-LENINIST NATURE OF THE SANDINISTA REGIME, HAVE BEEN HESITANT TO PROMOTE DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL CHANGE OUT OF CONCERN THAT THIS WAS INTERFERENCE IN NICARAGUA'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS. I BELIEVE THAT AT LEAST SOME OF THEM HAVE NOW COME TO RECOGNIZE THAT INSISTING ON NATIONAL RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION IS NOT INTERVENTION; NICARAGUA SPECIFICALLY AGREED TO THIS WHEN IT SIGNED THE DOCUMENT OF OBJECTIVES IN 1983. THUS, CONTADORA HAS A MANDATE TO PROMOTE DEMOCRACY AND AN OBLIGATION TO ENSURE THAT THE SANDINISTAS LIVE UP TO THEIR COMMITMENT.

THE SANDINISTAS ARE COMMITTED MARXIST-LENINIST REVOLUTIONAIRES WHO WILL ONLY NEGOTIATE IN EARNEST WHEN UNDER PRESSURE. THE INCREASING PRESSURE ON THE REGIME FROM THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE WILL GIVE THE SANDINISTAS AN INCENTIVE TO ABANDON THEIR INTRANSIGENCE AND TO NEGOTIATE SERIOUSLY. EVEN AS PRESSURE ON THE SANDINISTAS MOUNTS THROUGH OUR AID TO THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE, THE DOOR TO PEACE IS LEFT OPEN. IT IS UP TO THE SANDINISTAS TO WALK THROUGH THAT DOOR. END RABIN TEXT. SHULTZ

1. ~~SECRET~~ ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: [redacted] WHO WAS AN IMPORTANT PARTICIPANT IN THE LETELIER CASE IN THE 1978'S AND ATTENDED RECENT GOC MEETINGS ON THE ISSUE, OFFERED HIS VIEWS ON FEBRUARY 6 TO POLITICAL COUNSELOR. [redacted] SAID HE BELIEVES THAT THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT, AND PARTICULARLY INTERIOR MINISTER GARCIA, WANTS TO COOPERATE WITH THE U.S. AND HE [redacted] PERSONALLY BELIEVES CONTRERAS AND ESPINOZA ARE GUILTY NOT ONLY OF THIS CRIME BUT MANY OTHERS AND SHOULD BE BEHIND BARS. HOWEVER, HE THINKS THAT THERE IS ONLY ONE AVENUE WHICH LOOKS PROMISING, PROSECUTION OF THEM IN CHILE. HE DOUBTS THE GOC WILL EXPEL THEM; ANOTHER EXTRADITION REQUEST WILL ALMOST SURELY BE TURNED DOWN BY THE SUPREME COURT; THE APPOINTMENT OF A SENIOR OFFICIAL WOULD PROBABLY BE FUTILE. THE PENDING COURT CASE BROUGHT BY FABIOLA LETELIER DEL SOLAR FOR MURDER, PASSPORT FRAUD AND OTHER CRIMES COULD BE REACTIVATED BY NEW EVIDENCE. [redacted] IS CONVINCED THAT IF THE CASE IS REACTIVATED AND A "TOUGH AD HOC PROSECUTOR" IS APPOINTED BY THE MILITARY COURT, CONTRERAS AND ESPINOZA WILL BE INDICTED, DETAINED AND PROSECUTED. [redacted] SAID HE STRONGLY HOPES THAT IF THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT COLLABORATES IN THE PROSECUTION AND PUNISHMENT OF THOSE "KILLERS" ("MATONES") THAT IT WOULD USHER IN A SIGNIFICANT IMPROVEMENT IN U.S. - CHILEAN RELATIONS. POLITICAL COUNSELOR LIMITED HIMSELF TO ASKING [redacted] QUESTIONS AND LISTENING, WHILE EMPHASIZING THAT WE WANTED COOPERATION IN BRINGING THE GUILTY TO JUSTICE, AND ADDING THAT IF THE GOC COOPERATES FULLY TO THAT END IT WOULD BE SEEN VERY POSITIVELY IN THE U.S. AND COULD OPEN UP A NEW ERA IN OUR RELATIONS. END SUMMARY.

3. [redacted] DURING THE U.S. - CHILEAN DISCUSSIONS REGARDING THE EXPULSION OF MICHAEL VERNON TOWNLEY AND THE SUBSEQUENT EXTRADITION PROCEEDINGS FOR CONTRERAS, ESPINOZA AND FERNANDEZ. HE IS INTIMATELY FAMILIAR WITH THE LETELIER CASE. HE AND THE POLITICAL COUNSELOR HAD OCCASIONAL CONTACT DURING 1986 TO EXCHANGE VIEWS ON THE GENERAL POLITICAL SITUATION.

4. [redacted] CALLED POLCOUNSELOR LATE ON FEBRUARY 6 AND ASKED THAT HE COME SEE HIM THAT EVENING. WHEN POLCOUNSELOR ARRIVED AT [redacted]

POLCOUNSELOR SAID THAT HE HAD BEEN CALLING [redacted] FOR WEEKS TO ARRANGE TO MEET AND REVIEW RECENT GENERAL POLITICAL SITUATIONS, BUT ASKED IF [redacted] WOULD NOT MIND STARTING WITH OFFERING HIS VIEWS ON THE LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN THE LETELIER CASE, SINCE THE PRESS HAD REPORTED HIS ATTENDANCE AT GOC MEETINGS DEALING WITH THE CASE. [redacted] APOLOGIZED FOR THE DELAY IN RESPONDING TO POLCOUNSELOR'S CALLS, NOTING THAT HE HAD BEEN EXTREMELY BUSY IN DECEMBER AND JANUARY, SAID HE WANTED TO DISCUSS POLITICS GENERALLY, BUT WOULD BE PLEASED TO COMMENT ON THE LATEST LETELIER DEVELOPMENTS. (IT WAS OBVIOUS, NEVERTHELESS, THAT [redacted] PURPOSE IN CALLING POLCOUNSELOR SUDDENLY WAS TO DISCUSS THE CASE). [redacted] LOOKED HAGGARD, PALE AND AS IF HE HAD BEEN WORKING LONG HOURS UNDER A GREAT DEAL OF STRAIN.)

5. HE STARTED BY SAYING THAT THE LATEST DEVELOPMENTS HAD CAUSED A MAJOR FLAP AND COULD HAVE IMPORTANT REPERCUSSIONS (NOT FURTHER IDENTIFIED). HE SAID HE WAS VERY DEPRESSED ALL WEEK BUT TODAY HE FELT BETTER BECAUSE HE SEES A SOLUTION. HE ADDED WITH GREAT EMOTION, THESE "KILLERS", ("MATONES") HAD CAUSED CHILE ENORMOUS HARM AND THEY SHOULD BE "LOCKED UP". HE ALSO REFERRED TO CONTRERAS AND ESPINOZA BY NAME, CALLING THEM "BASTARDS" AND "SHAMELESS ONES" ("SIN VERGUENZAS"). REVIEWING THE PAST A BIT, HE EXPRESSED COMPLETE DISDAIN FOR THE "INCOMPETENT" GENERAL ORLOFF AND SAID THAT HE, [redacted] AND A FEW OTHERS FELT AT THE TIME THAT CONTRERAS, ESPINOZA AND WHOEVER ELSE WAS INVOLVED SHOULD BE PUNISHED BY CHILEAN COURTS IF THEY WERE NOT EXTRADITED, BUT "OTHERS" THEN BELIEVED THAT THE "POLITICAL COSTS" OF PROSECUTING THEM IN CHILE WOULD BE EXCESSIVE. (COMMENT: "OTHERS" WAS UNDERSTOOD TO INCLUDE PINOCHET. END COMMENT).

6. RETURNING TO THE PRESENT, HE NOTED THAT HE HAD PARTICIPATED IN THREE MEETINGS ON THE LETELIER CASE IN RECENT DAYS, THE LAST ONE ONLY TWO HOURS BEFORE [redacted] MEETING AND THIS ONE WAS ATTENDED BY PINOCHET.

[redacted] POLCOUNSELOR AGREED. [redacted] SAID THAT INTERIOR MINISTER GARCIA IS A FINE, WELL-MEANING HONEST MAN AND IT IS HIS IMPRESSION [redacted] THAT THE GOVERNMENT WANTS TO COOPERATE WITH THE U.S. HE ADDED THAT HE WAS INFORMED OF THE AMBASSADOR'S REQUEST AND OF THE MODIFICATIONS THE AMBASSADOR PROPOSED. [redacted] HE SAID HE TOLD THE PARTICIPANTS IN THE MEETINGS THAT HE SAW PROBLEMS IN THE REVISIONS PROPOSED BY THE AMBASSADOR. APART FROM OTHER CONSIDERATIONS, THE IDEA OF APPOINTING A "SENIOR OFFICIAL" TO REVIEW INFORMATION ON THE CASE

AND INTERVIEW THOSE ASSOCIATED WITH THE INVESTIGATION WOULD NOT PRODUCE ANYTHING BECAUSE EXECUTIVE-APPOINTED OFFICIALS LACK THE AUTHORITY TO COMPEL WITNESSES TO TESTIFY.

EXDIS

2. POLCOUNSELOR SAID THAT HE WONDERED WHETHER, SINCE THIS IS A CASE OF TERRORISM PERHAPS SOMEONE LIKE THE GOC'S RECENTLY APPOINTED ANTI-TERRORISM CZAR, AMBROSIO RODRIGUEZ, COULD UNDERTAKE THE TASK. [redacted] REPLIED, HOWEVER, THAT EVEN RODRIGUEZ CANNOT FORCE ANYONE TO ACCEPT INTERROGATION WITHOUT A COURT ORDER. POLCOUNSELOR REPORTED THAT WHAT THE U.S. WANTS IS FULL GOC COOPERATION. THE SPECIFICS ON THE AMBASSADOR'S SUGGESTED AMENDMENT [redacted] WERE JUST A FEW EXAMPLES OF HOW THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT COULD DEMONSTRATE A SINCERE COOPERATIVE APPROACH, BUT WHAT IS IMPORTANT IS GOC COLLABORATION IN BRINGING THE GUILTY TO JUSTICE. 3.1

EXDIS

3. [redacted] AGREED, BUT HE SAID THAT HE HAD EXPLORED THE VARIOUS POSSIBLE AVENUES AND FOUND NEARLY ALL OF THEM UNPROMISING. THE GOC CANNOT EXPEL CHILEAN CITIZENS WHOSE EXTRADITION HAD ALREADY BEEN DENIED BY THE SUPREME COURT; IT WOULD SIMPLY NOT BE ACCEPTED IN CHILE. (POLCOUNSELOR RESTRAINED HIMSELF FROM COUNTERING THAT BETWEEN 1973 AND 1984 THE GOC HAD EXPELLED THOUSANDS OF CHILEANS WITHOUT CHARGES AGAINST THEM OF ANY KIND. WE MAY WANT TO STRESS THIS POINT AT THE RIGHT OPPORTUNITY WITH THE GOC, HOWEVER.) ALTHOUGH THE CURRENT PRESIDENT OF THE SUPREME COURT (RAFAEL RETAMAL) "RATED" THE MILITARY, THE COURT WOULD MOST PROBABLY RULE THAT THE CASE HAS ALREADY BEEN "TRIED", THE EVIDENCE FOUND WANTING AND THE ACCUSED RELEASED. IN CHILEAN JURISPRUDENCE, A PERSON ONLY CAN BE TRIED TWICE FOR THE SAME CRIME WHEN THE RESULT MAY BENEFIT THE DEFENDANT. IF THE ACCUSED HAS BEEN FOUND GUILTY AND NEW EVIDENCE IS DISCOVERED WHICH COULD RESULT IN HIS ACQUITTAL OR A REDUCED SENTENCE, A SECOND TRIAL IS POSSIBLE. THERE CAN BE NO SECOND TRIAL IF THE ACCUSED MAY FARE WORSE WHETHER OR NOT THERE IS NEW EVIDENCE OR THERE WERE PROCEDURAL OR OTHER PROBLEMS (E.G., FALSE TESTIMONY) WHICH PREJUDICED THE OUTCOME. THE SAME RULES APPLY TO EXTRADITION REQUESTS, HE CLAIMED. PARENTHETICALLY, POLCOUNSELOR ASKED AS A POINT OF INFORMATION ABOUT LEGAL CONSIDERATIONS RELATED TO EXTRADITION FOR OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE, BUT [redacted] POINTED OUT THAT THE STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS (FIVE YEARS) HAD RUN OUT ON OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE ("PREVARICACION"). 3.1

EXDIS

4. [redacted] THEN RECALLED THAT IT WAS HIS UNDERSTANDING THAT WHAT THE U.S. WANTED IN THE LATE 1970'S WAS THE PROSECUTION OF CONTRERAS AND OTHERS, WHETHER IN THE U.S. OR IN CHILE. IF THAT WAS CORRECT, HE SAID, IT SEEMED LOGICAL THAT THE U.S. WOULD STILL NOW CONSIDER THEIR PROSECUTION IN CHILE TO BE COOPERATION IN THE SENSE THAT THE AMBASSADOR HAD REQUESTED OF THE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES. IT WAS HIS IMPRESSION FROM THE MEETING HE HAD JUST ATTENDED, WHICH INCLUDED THE PRESIDENT, THAT THE GOC WOULD REACT POSITIVELY TO A RENEWED ATTEMPT TO BRING THEM TO JUSTICE IN CHILE. 3.1

5. HE ADDED THAT HE THOUGHT THAT IF THE CASE CURRENTLY IN THE SECOND MILITARY COURT BROUGHT

BY FABIOLA LETELIER FOR PASSPORT FRAUD, MURDER ("HOMICIDIO CALIFICADO") AND OTHER CRIMES AGAINST CONTRERAS, ET. AL., WERE TO BE REACTIVATED BY PRESENTATION OF NEW EVIDENCE, THE GOC WOULD INDICT THEM AND PROSECUTE THEM TO THE FULL EXTENT OF THE LAW. IT WOULD BE IMPORTANT FOR THE OUTCOME, HE SAID AS AN ASIDE, THAT THE MILITARY PROSECUTOR ("FISCAL AD HOC") ASSIGNED TO THE CASE BE A COURAGIOUS MAN WHO WOULD CARRY THE INVESTIGATION TO ITS ULTIMATE CONCLUSIONS. HE REMARKED THAT IT SHOULD BE RELATIVELY EASY FOR U.S. AUTHORITIES AND THE LETELIER FAMILY TO COOPERATE IN SEEING THAT CONVINCING EVIDENCE IS PRESENTED TO THE MILITARY COURT. HE ASSERTED THAT IT AS HIS IMPRESSION THAT THERE WAS A GOOD CHANCE THE CASE WOULD SUCCEED AND CONTRERAS AND ESPINOZA AND ANY OTHERS INVOLVED WOULD BE PUNISHED. [redacted] 6.

EXDIS

11. [redacted] ASKED WHETHER THIS KIND OF COOPERATION FROM THE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES WOULD SATISFY THE U.S. GOVERNMENT. POLCOUNSELOR RESPONDED THAT HE DID NOT KNOW WHETHER THIS WOULD "SATISFY" THE U.S., ALTHOUGH UNDOUBTEDLY DEMONSTRATED WILLINGNESS TO PROSECUTE AND PUNISH THOSE INVOLVED WOULD BE CONSIDERED POSITIVE. [redacted] REITERATED THAT HE THOUGHT THAT THIS WAS THE ONLY APPARENT SOLUTION. HE ADDED THAT, WHILE HE COULD NOT BE CERTAIN WHAT DECISIONS ULTIMATELY WILL BE MADE, IT WAS HIS IMPRESSION FROM THE MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT ON FEBRUARY 6 THAT THIS WAS THE APPROACH THE GOC AUTHORITIES WERE GOING TO TAKE, AND SAID THAT THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR OR ANOTHER SENIOR GOC OFFICIAL WOULD PROBABLY REQUEST A MEETING WITH THE CHARGE EARLY THIS WEEK TO DISCUSS IT. (COMMENT: ON MONDAY FEBRUARY 9 THE FOREIGN MINISTRY'S PROTOCOL OFFICE CALLED THE CHARGE TO REQUEST A MEETING WITH THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR, WHICH WILL TAKE PLACE ON FEBRUARY 18. END COMMENT). 6.1

SUBJECT: SALVADORAN AMB. RIVAS GALLONT CALLS ON AMB. HABIB

1. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. ON FEBRUARY 10, SALVADORAN AMBASSADOR RIVAS GALLONT CALLED ON AMB. HABIB TO DISCUSS THE DIPLOMATIC TRACK IN CENTRAL AMERICA. HE INFORMED HABIB THAT SALVADORAN FOREIGN MINISTER ACEVEDO HAD BOYCOTTED THE EC MEETING IN GUATEMALA ON FEBRUARY 9 BECAUSE FIRST NICARAGUA AND THEN GUATEMALA HAD REFUSED TO ACCEPT EL SALVADOR AS THE SPOKESMAN FOR THE CENTRAL AMERICAN COUNTRIES. WHILE NICARAGUA'S ACTION WAS NOT SURPRISING, GUATEMALA HAD RENEGED ON ITS PRIOR AGREEMENT TO ACCEPT EL SALVADOR.

3. RIVAS WAS CONCERNED ABOUT HOW THIS INCIDENT WOULD AFFECT THE SAN JOSE SUMMIT ON FEBRUARY 15, AS IT WOULD REINFORCE THE PERCEPTION AMONG THE OTHER THREE DEMOCRACIES THAT GUATEMALA COULD NOT BE TRUSTED. RIVAS ADDED THAT PRESIDENT CEREZO HAD AGREED TO ATTEND THE SUMMIT ONLY WITH THE UNDERSTANDING THAT HE WOULD VISIT NICARAGUA ENROUTE BACK TO GUATEMALA.

4. RIVAS SAID THAT UNO LEADERS ARTURO CRUZ AND ALFONSO ROBELO HAD TELEPHONED HIM FROM SAN JOSE ON FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, TO SAY THAT THEY HAD JUST MET FOR ONE HOUR WITH PRESIDENT ARIAS AND HAD AGREED ON BEHALF OF UNO TO THE ARIAS PEACE PLAN. RIVAS SAID THAT THE PLAN HAD FOUR ELEMENTS: A CEASE-FIRE; A DIALOGUE WITH THE CIVIC OPPOSITION; DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS; AND END OF U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE. HABIB EXPRESSED HIS SURPRISE THAT CRUZ AND ROBELO COULD ACCEPT THE PLAN AS DESCRIBED BY RIVAS; HE COULD NOT UNDERSTAND HOW THEY COULD AGREE TO A PROPOSAL WHICH WOULD NOT REQUIRE DIALOGUE BETWEEN THE SANDINISTAS AND THE RESISTANCE AND WHICH WOULD END U.S. AID TO THE RESISTANCE AT THIS STAGE. HABIB STATED THAT A CEASE-FIRE SHOULD NOT BE A PRECONDITION TO DIALOGUE; A CEASE-FIRE SHOULD BE THE PRODUCT OF NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE SANDINISTAS AND THE RESISTANCE. IT WAS THEREFORE INDISPENSABLE THAT THE RESISTANCE PARTICIPATE IN THE DIALOGUE, PARTICULARLY WHEN DISCUSSING A CEASE-FIRE. RIVAS THEN ADDED THAT THE ARIAS PLAN DID INCLUDE SOME PROVISION FOR CONTACT BETWEEN THE SANDINISTAS AND THE RESISTANCE THROUGH AN INTERMEDIARY AND THE EVENTUAL INCLUSION OF THE RESISTANCE IN THE DIALOGUE. HABIB RESPONDED THAT THESE ELEMENTS HAD TO BE CAREFULLY WORDED AND THE ARIAS PLAN NEEDED TO BE IMPROVED. RIVAS ADDED THAT CRUZ AND ROBELO HAD REQUESTED THAT HE CALL PRESIDENT DUARTE TO URGE HIM TO ACCEPT THE ARIAS PLAN. RIVAS HAD CALLED DUARTE, BUT DUARTE WAS NONCOMMITTAL. HABIB ASKED RIVAS TO CONVEY HIS COMMENTS TO DUARTE AND NOTED THAT DUARTE AND AZCONA COULD PLAY A CRUCIAL ROLE AT THE SAN JOSE SUMMIT IN CONVINCING ARIAS TO STRENGTHEN HIS PLAN ALONG THE LINES SUGGESTED.

5. RIVAS STATED THAT THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES WERE FED UP WITH CONTADORA AND PARTICULARLY MEXICO'S DOMINATION OF THE PROCESS; THEY WANTED TO MOVE ON TO SOME NEW PHASE IN THE NEGOTIATIONS. HABIB RESPONDED THAT HE FULLY UNDERSTOOD THEIR FRUSTRATION WITH CONTADORA BUT POINTED OUT THAT CONTADORA STILL COULD BE OF VALUE BECAUSE IT ADDRESSED THE FULL RANGE OF POLITICAL, SECURITY, AND MILITARY ISSUES WHICH NEEDED TO BE DEALT WITH. WHILE MEXICO'S ABILITY TO TILT THE PROCESS IN FAVOR OF NICARAGUA WAS A DIFFICULT PROBLEM, THE OTHER CONTADORA MEMBERS WERE MORE MODERATE AND WERE BEGINNING TO PAY MORE ATTENTION TO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. THE SUPPORT OF THESE MAJOR LATIN STATES FOR ANY AGREEMENT WAS IMPORTANT, AND IT WOULD NOT BE WISE TO ALIENATE THEM. WHILE THE CENTRAL AMERICANS SHOULD PROCEED AT FULL SPEED WITH THEIR OWN DIPLOMATIC ACTIVITY, THEY SHOULD NOT SEEK TO BURY CONTADORA WHILE IT STILL WAS USEFUL. HABIB NOTED THAT DUARTE HAD NEVER ADVOCATED THE END OF CONTADORA. RIVAS AGREED THAT DESPITE THEIR MISGIVINGS ABOUT CONTADORA, NONE OF THE CENTRAL AMERICANS WANTED TO KILL IT. 44

Estimado señor Martin:

Me permito hacer referencia a la visita del Consejero Político de esta Embajada, señor John Keane, a vuestras oficinas en el día de hoy en que presentó para la consideración de la Comisión Asesora de Derechos Humanos los nombres de los siguientes ciudadanos chilenos quienes aparecen actualmente en la lista de personas a quienes se les prohibe regresar a Chile.

- Jorge Arrate
- Aniceto Rodríguez
- José Miguel Insulza
- Eric Schnacke
- Carmen Lazo

El Gobierno de los Estados Unidos ha expresado su interés en estos casos y me ha solicitado atraer vuestra atención hacia ellos. Tenemos entendido, a través de conversaciones con varios distinguidos ciudadanos chilenos de innegable orientación democrática que las personas arriba indicadas no son terroristas ni constituirían, de ningún modo, una amenaza para la seguridad de Chile en el caso que sus nombres fueran borrados de la lista de individuos que tienen prohibición de entrar al país.

En espera de su grata acogida a la presente, le saluda muy cordialmente,

George F. Jones
Encargado de Negocios, a.i.

[illegible], abogado, candidato a Dr. en Economía en la Universidad de Harvard (EE.UU.), actualmente Director del Instituto para el Nuevo Chile, con sede en Rotterdam, Holanda. Autor de diversas publicaciones, entre las que destaca su más reciente libro "La Fuerza Democrática de la Idea Socialista".

- Eric Schnacke, abogado, ex-senador y actual miembro del Gabinete de la Presidencia de la Autonomía de Madrid, España.

- Carmen Lazo, ex-diputada socialista de prolongada trayectoria, también exiliada en Venezuela.

Jose Miguel Insulza (Insulza and Insunza are different, unrelated names). He is a lawyer, 43, and specialist in international affairs. He is a Professor at the Instituto de Estudios de los Estados Unidos of CIDA, the Centro de Investigaciones Y Docencia Economica of Mexico. Actually, he may become the next Director of the Center. Jose Miguel is well-known as a Latin American scholar with a strong expertise on the United States. His daughter Francisca Valeria Insulza, 15-years old, is actually an American citizen and I understand she lives in Washington, D.C. Jose Miguel studied in an American high school, St. George's which, as you know, is related to Notre Dame University. He received his master degree at the University of Michigan. Before the present government took over in 1973, Jose Miguel was one regular participant in the famous TV program "A Esta Hora se Improvisa", in Chile. In the course of that program, as he had to debate Jaime Guzman every week, he and Jaime developed quite a cordial entente. Jaime Guzman has been interceding on his behalf but so far with no visible results. Jose Miguel was allowed temporary entry in Chile at the same time I was there in January this year. During his stay there, Jaime Guzman and others intensified their efforts on behalf of Jose Miguel to the point that he thought permission for him to return to Chile was imminent. It turned out not to be the case and actually his brother in Chile received a letter from the government last month saying that "for the time being" Jose Miguel's request could not be accepted.

Aniceto Rodriguez is currently in Venezuela. A former Secretary-General of the Socialist Party, he was a Senator during the Popular Unity government. He was arrested shortly after the coup and sent to Dawson Island for four months. He later went to Venezuela voluntarily and was told he could not return to Chile. Was viewed in 1970-73 period as one of the more moderate Socialist leaders. A former rival of Allendes for party leadership.

1. SECRET - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. INTERIOR MINISTER AND ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER CALLED IN CHARGE AND REITERATED THEIR BASIC MESSAGE OF LAST THURSDAY, THAT THE ONLY VIABLE AVENUES FOR ADDRESSING THE LETELIER CASE WERE (A) EXTRADITION, WHICH USG IS FREE TO PURSUE, AND (B) THE CHILEAN MILITARY COURT INVESTIGATION INTO CHARGES OF HOMOCIDE AND PASSPORT FRAUD, IN WHICH LETELIER'S FAMILY CAN SUBMIT THE NEW EVIDENCE PROVIDED BY FERNANDEZ LARIOS. CHARGE SAID HIS PERSONAL CONCERN WAS THAT NEITHER OF THESE AVENUES INVOLVED THE GOC IN ANY WAY, AND THAT GOC WOULD BE PERCEIVED IN THE U.S. AS HAVING DONE NOTHING IN RESPONSE TO FERNANDEZ' EXTREMELY SERIOUS CHARGES AND USG REQUEST FOR GOC COOPERATION. END SUMMARY.

3. INTERIOR MINISTER GARCIA AND ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER COVARRUBIAS CALLED IN CHARGE FEBRUARY 18 TO CONTINUE OUR DIALOGUE ON THE LETELIER CASE. GARCIA DID ALMOST ALL THE TALKING. HE SAID THAT AS A RESULT OF FURTHER CONSIDERATION WITHIN THE GOC, IT WAS EVEN MORE CLEAR TO THEM THAN AT THE TIME OF THEIR LAST CONVERSATION WITH THE AMBASSADOR (REFTEL), THERE WERE TWO VIABLE ROUTES FOR PROGRESS ON THE CASE. FIRST, THERE WAS EXTRADITION. HE HAD NOTED ON THURSDAY THAT SOME CHILEAN LEGAL SCHOLARS HAD BEEN QUOTED AS SAYING THIS WAS OUT OF THE QUESTION, AND OTHERS HAD BEEN QUOTED IN THE DAYS SINCE THEN. NEVERTHELESS, HE HIMSELF THOUGHT THE QUESTION WAS ARGUABLE AND, IN ANY EVENT, THIS AVENUE WAS ALWAYS OPEN TO THE USG.

4. SECOND, THERE IS THE ONGOING LEGAL CASE IN THE CHILEAN MILITARY COURTS, IN WHICH CONTRERAS AND ESPINOSA ARE ACCUSED OF HOMOCIDE AND PASSPORT FRAUD. THE LOWER COURT JUDGE LAST OCTOBER DECREED THE PERMANENT CLOSING OF THE CASE AND DISMISSAL OF THE CHARGES. THIS DECISION WAS NOW BEFORE THE CORTE MARCIAL (SUPERIOR MILITARY COURT) FOR REVIEW. THE "AFFECTED PARTY" (THE LETELIER FAMILY WHO BROUGHT THE CHARGES) CAN SUBMIT COPIES OF THE DOCUMENTS SUBMITTED TO THE U.S. COURT, AS NEW ELEMENTS IN THE CORTE MARCIAL'S CONSIDERATION OF THE CASE. HE HOPED THAT THIS WOULD BE DONE AT THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE DATE.

5. CHARGE TOLD THEM OF THE VISIT MADE THE PREVIOUS DAY BY ORLANDO LETELIER'S SISTER AND SON TO THE EMBASSY'S POLITICAL COUNSELOR (SEPTEL), IN WHICH THEY REQUESTED OUR ASSISTANCE IN OBTAINING PROPERLY LEGALIZED COPIES OF THE U.S. COURT DOCUMENTS SO THAT THEY COULD SUBMIT THEM TO THE CORTE MARCIAL. WE TOLD THEM WE WOULD PROVIDE EVERY APPROPRIATE ASSISTANCE, BUT NEEDED TO KNOW THE PRECISE FORMAT AND PROCEDURE THAT WOULD MAKE THE DOCUMENTS ACCEPTABLE TO THE CHILEAN COURT. WE WERE ANXIOUS NOT TO COMMIT A PROCEDURAL ERROR WHICH WOULD LEAD TO THE DOCUMENTS' REJECTION. THE FAMILY REPRESENTATIVES PROMISED TO INFORM THEMSELVES ON THE EXACT FORMAT AND GET BACK TO US. GARCIA INTERJECTED THAT HE THOUGHT THE DOCUMENTS COULD BE SUBMITTED TO THE COURT EVEN IF THEY WERE NOT LEGALIZED, WITH PROMISE THAT PROPERLY CERTIFIED DOCUMENTS WOULD FOLLOW. (COMMENT: TEMPTATION TO PASS THIS ON TO THE LETELIERS IS GREAT) BUT IF THEY ACT ON EMBASSY'S ADVICE AND DOCUMENTS ARE THEN REJECTED BY THE CORTE MARCIAL, RESPONSIBILITY WOULD BE OURS. EMBASSY THEREFORE PLANS NOT TO TRY TO TELL THE LETELIERS WHAT TO DO, BUT RATHER TO LEND EVERY COOPERATION TO WHAT THEY TELL US THEY NEED.) CHARGE ASKED WHETHER, GIVEN THIS COMMENDABLE INTEREST IN MOVING MATTERS FORWARD, GOC COULD NOT INSTRUCT ITS EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON, WHICH UNDOUBTEDLY HAS ALL THE RELEVANT DOCUMENTS, TO INITIATE THE LEGALIZATION PROCESS. COVARRUBIAS SAID THE FOREIGN MINISTRY WAS LOOKING INTO THAT POSSIBILITY. CHARGE SAID HE WAS SURE THAT USG WOULD PROVIDE THE MOST EXPEDITIOUS HANDLING TO ANY REQUEST IT MIGHT RECEIVE FOR LEGALIZATION OF THE COURT DOCUMENTS.

6. CHARGE SAID HE WOULD THEN LIKE TO EXPRESS A PERSONAL CONCERN. HE STRESSED THAT THE ONLY INSTRUCTIONS WE HAD RECEIVED WERE THOSE THE AMBASSADOR HAD CONVEYED TO GARCIA ON FEBRUARY 3, BUT HE KNEW THAT THE AMBASSADOR HAD THE SAME CONCERN, THAT IF THE ONLY ACTIONS IN THIS CASE ARE THOSE TAKEN BY THE USG, THE LETELIER FAMILY, OR EVENTUALLY THE CHILEAN COURTS, THE PERCEPTION IN THE UNITED STATES -- IN THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH, IN THE CONGRESS AND IN THE PUBLIC -- WOULD BE THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE WAS TAKING NO ACTION AT ALL, AND THEREFORE HAD NO INTEREST IN BRINGING THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE MURDER OF LETELIER TO JUSTICE. WE NOTED THE INTEREST AND THE COMMITMENT TO "APPROPRIATE COOPERATION" EXPRESSED IN THE FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN'S STATEMENT AND WE WERE CONSCIOUS OF THE INTEREST THAT HAD BEEN EXPRESSED IN THESE PRIVATE CONVERSATIONS WITH THE TWO MINISTERS. BUT THERE WAS A LIMIT TO HOW MUCH WE COULD SAY ABOUT PRIVATE CONVERSATIONS PUBLICLY, AND EVEN IF WE SAID THAT THE MINISTERS HAD EXPRESSED TO US THEIR INTEREST AND DESIRE TO ADVANCE THE CAUSE OF JUSTICE, WE WOULD IMMEDIATELY BE ASKED WHAT HAS THE GOC DONE TO TRANSLATE THAT INTEREST INTO ACTION. IT WAS WITH THAT CONCERN IN MIND THAT THE AMBASSADOR HAD PUT FORWARD THREE PERSONAL IDEAS IN HIS FIRST CONVERSATION WITH GARCIA, NAMELY, THE RENEWAL AND IF POSSIBLE EXPANSION OF THE MONTERO-SILBERT AGREEMENT; THE APPOINTMENT OF A GOC OFFICIAL TO COORDINATE GOC ACTION ON THE CASE, AND THE APPOINTMENT OF A SPECIAL PROSECUTOR. PERHAPS NONE OF THESE IDEAS WAS FEASIBLE IN THE CHILEAN SYSTEM; BUT WE HAD HOPED THAT THEY WOULD STIMULATE GOC THINKING ABOUT WHAT IT COULD DO TO BRING THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR LETELIER'S MURDER TO JUSTICE.

7. GARCIA IMMEDIATELY ASSURED THE CHARGE THAT ALL OF THESE IDEAS WERE STILL UNDER STUDY, AND HE LOOKED SPECIFICALLY TO COVARRUBIAS FOR CONFIRMATION THAT RENEWAL OF THE SILBERT AGREEMENT WAS BEING STUDIED. COVARRUBIAS AGREED. HE HOPED THAT THE EMBASSY HAD MADE CLEAR IN ITS REPORTS ON THE PREVIOUS CONVERSATIONS, AND WOULD MAKE CLEAR ON THIS ONE, THAT GOC WAS HIGHLY INTERESTED IN BEING JUST AS COOPERATIVE ON THIS CASE AS IT LEGALLY AND CONSTITUTIONALLY COULD BE.

8. COMMENT. GARCIA, AT LEAST, SEEMED TO TAKE THE POINT THAT THIS WAS A POLITICAL AS WELL AS A LEGAL MATTER, AND THAT WE WOULD BE LOOKING TO SEE WHAT THE GOC WAS PREPARED TO DO, AS WELL AS THE CHILEAN JUDICIARY. IT WAS ALSO CLEAR, HOWEVER, THAT THERE WAS NOTHING FURTHER THAT THEIR INSTRUCTIONS PERMITTED THEM TO SAY.

CARABINEROS TOOK COPIOUS NOTES AND ASKED HIM MANY QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CARS THAT ARE FOLLOWING HIM AND THE PHONE CALLS AT HIS HOME. CANAS ASKED A FEW QUESTIONS BUT WAS "UNPERTURBED" REGARDING THE TAIL ON FERNANDEZ, COMMENTING THAT "SURVEILLANCE OF PEOPLE IN THESE KINDS OF SITUATIONS IS THE NORM." WAS SO USED TO LEARNING OF CASES OF TAILS ON PEOPLE INVOLVED IN SENSITIVE CASES THAT HE TAKES IT FOR GRANTED AND DOES NOT EVEN BOTHER TO SHOW MUCH INTEREST. CANAS ASKED FERNANDEZ TO SEND MINISTER OF INTERIOR GARCIA A LETTER DESCRIBING HIS PROBLEM. HE ALSO SAID THAT IF FERNANDEZ REQUESTED PROTECTION THEY WOULD CONSIDER IT. FERNANDEZ SAID HE WOULD SEND THE LETTER BUT HE IS NOT THINKING OF REQUESTING PROTECTION BECAUSE HE DOES NOT WANT THE SECURITY SERVICE TO KNOW ALL HIS MOVEMENTS.

3. ARTURO FERNANDEZ ALSO REVEALED FOR THE FIRST TIME THE FULL IDENTITY OF THE MAN WORKING WITH CONTRERAS WHO HAS BEEN TRYING TO CONTACT HIM (REFTEL). HE IS MANUEL PALACIOS, DESCRIBED BY FERNANDEZ AS CONTRERAS' PERSONAL ASSISTANT ("SECRETARIO") AND A MAN WHO HAS WORKED BY CONTRERAS' SIDE SINCE JUST AFTER THE 1973 COUP. PALACIOS IS MARRIED TO THE COUSIN OF FERNANDEZ' HALF-BROTHER, BUT THEY HARDLY KNOW EACH OTHER AND THE LAST TIME FERNANDEZ SAW HIM WAS SEVERAL YEARS AGO. PALACIOS HAS CONTACTED FERNANDEZ' HALF-BROTHER FOUR TIMES IN THE LAST WEEK ASKING WHERE HE CAN FIND FERNANDEZ.

4. ON FEBRUARY 11 FERNANDEZ RETURNED TO EMBASSY TO PICK UP HIS PASSPORT WITH RENOVATED VISA. HE ADVISED POLCOUNSELOR THAT HE IS STILL BEING FOLLOWED AND RECEIVED ANOTHER ANONYMOUS PHONE CALL INSISTING THAT HE TELL THE PRESS THAT HIS BROTHER ARMANDO IS INSANE AND IS ON DRUGS. HE ADDED THAT HE HAS ENOUGH MONEY TO LIVE FOR A WHILE WITHOUT INCOME, SAY A FEW MONTHS, BUT EVENTUALLY WOULD NEED TO LAND A JOB. POLCOUNSELOR REPLIED THAT HIS VISA PERMITS HIM TO VISIT AS A TOURIST, BUT IF HE WANTED TO WORK HE WOULD HAVE TO REQUEST STATUS AS A REFUGEE. A DETERMINATION ON HIS STATUS WOULD HAVE TO BE MADE BY INS AND IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE TO PREDICT WHAT THE OUTCOME WOULD BE. POLCOUNSELOR SAID HIS PERSONAL IMPRESSION WAS THAT A FAVORABLE DECISION WAS POSSIBLE, BUT HE COULD OFFER NO ASSURANCES AND WOULD ASK THE DEPARTMENT IF IT COULD OFFER ANY ADVICE.

3. CHILEAN AMBASSADOR CALDERON APPROACHED USDEL ATKINS

MONDAY A.M., MARCH 9. CALDERON ASKED TO MEET WITH AMBASSADOR WILLIAMSON REGARDING POSSIBLE UNHRC RESOLUTIONS ON CHILE.

4. WILLIAMSON AND USDEL MET WITH CALDERON A.M., MARCH 9.

5. CALDERON RAISED CHILE'S SERIOUS CONCERNS ABOUT THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION ON CHILE. HE SAID THAT GOC HAS MADE EXTENSIVE EFFORTS TO COOPERATE WITH THE UNHRC AND ITS AGENTS. CALDERON SAID THAT MANY IN HIS GOVERNMENT QUESTION WHETHER THIS IS THE PROPER COURSE. SOME IN SANTIAGO HAVE GREAT CONCERN ABOUT THE CONTINUING DISCRIMINATION AGAINST CHILE IN THE UNHRC. THEY QUESTION WHETHER CONTINUED COOPERATION WITH UNHRC IS IN CHILE'S INTEREST. THE ALTERNATIVE, HE SUGGESTED, IS TO CHANGE TO AN OBSTRUCTIONIST COURSE IN DEALING WITH UNHRC. CALDERON SAID THAT MANY OF HIS COLLEAGUES IN SANTIAGO ARE WATCHING THE RESULTS OF THE 43RD SESSION OF THE UNHRC WITH GREAT ATTENTIVENESS TO SEE WHETHER THERE WOULD BE A BALANCED APPROACH TO CHILE.

6. CALDERON MADE CLEAR THAT HE FEELS CONTINUED COOPERATION WITH UNHRC IS IMPORTANT BUT THAT "OTHERS" WERE NOT REPEAT NOT SURE.
